1. Josh watched Skyla talking with his sister Jenna. Skyla was always his dream, the girl he had longed for ever since he saw her in his sister's class.

2. Sighing, Josh came to join them. Josh wasn't bad-looking. He was done growing, having hit 6' in height. He had put on some muscle trying to get Skyla's attention but he failed. Jenna was one year Josh's junior and if he was average then Jenna was way below. Jenna had been the runt her whole life, standing 4'10" in her stocking feet, even though she was already an adult at 19 years old. And Skyla was a bit petite at 5'2.

"Oh your brother is here. See you tomorrow, Jenna." Skyla said and she nodded at Josh before she left. This was the most interactions Josh had with Skyla now.

3. Josh returned home together with Jenna as usual. He knew his sister liked all that witchcraft stuff and he wondered if she had a way to help him get Skyla!

Jenna was surprised to see her brother following her into her room. "What do you want?" She asked as she looked up. "Do you have any spells that could cause someone to fall in love with me?" Josh struggled to speak out. "So you want to make Skyla fall in love with you?" She asked, and it was really easy to know her brother was into her classmate by his routine actions. "Yes, I just really like her, you know." He said nervously.

4. Jenna began searching in her drawers and Josh felt uncomfortable. "Um, Jenna, isn't a love spell impossible like in all those shows about magic?" He asked. "Of course possible." Jenna said as she took out a ring and walked back to him. "Magic can do everything, for a price." She smiled up at her brother.

Jenna put the ring on his finger as she said, "Skyla can be your's, brother dearest, I can make her first fond of you, enamored of you, and even share your infatuation. Anything, as long as you have the will to do what I tell you to." She said the magic words, "MUTARIO!" To Josh's horror, he saw the ring sparking with light! Josh saw the ring light disappear. "Now what?" He asked Jenna. "Now," Jenna smiled, "We wait till tomorrow."

5. Josh woke up in the morning. Everything seemed to be normal to him, like Jenna's magic did not work at all. Standing up, he tried to put on his clothes, only to find that they did not fit.

6. Alarmed, Josh ran to Jenna's room. He watched Jenna, feeling like something was wrong. She should be only as tall as his shoulder, but instead he noticed the top of her head was now even with his chin! "Jenna....did I shrink?" He asked nervously. Jenna nodded, "Of course, magic isn't free, and you said you would give anything."

7. Jenna grabbed Josh's hand and guided him over to the height chart. "I thought you might be curious so I attached this here to measure you." She got up on her toes to view the top of his head. "5'6" tall, looks like you lost about six inches in height."

"But won't anybody notice?" Josh asked. "No, other than myself and you, everyone else believes you have always been this way." Jenna smiled.

8. When they returned to the school, they met Skyla in the corridor. Skyla looked so much bigger at Josh's reduced height. He was horrified to see Skyla, who was also 5'6", having a slight height advantage with her heels! She had always been dismissive of him, but now the look on her face was not of disinterested boredom, but of a good friend.

"Hey Josh, how did the tryout for the basketball team go yesterday?" Skyla asked. "He didn't make it." Before Josh replied, Jenna answered for him. "Now I feel guilty telling you that I made the softball team." Skyla said. "Don't be, Skyla, you deserve to." Josh comforted her. "I am so lucky to have you as my friend." Skyla said before she left.

9. Josh turned to ask Jenna, "What the hell, Jenna? I wanted her to like me." Jenna said as she shrugged, "Magic takes a lot of energy, it was obvious that she felt nothing for you before."

10. "Then I want Skyla to like me more." Josh said. Jenna looked at him and said, "Alright, we haven't talked about my price. Four inches." She smiled. "Why Jenna?" He asked.

"Because I am not going to help my stupid brother for free." Jenna said. "Two inches." Josh said. "Deal." Jenna smiled, her lips twisted into a mischievous smirk. She lifted his hand as she said, "MUTARIO!" The ring lit immediately.

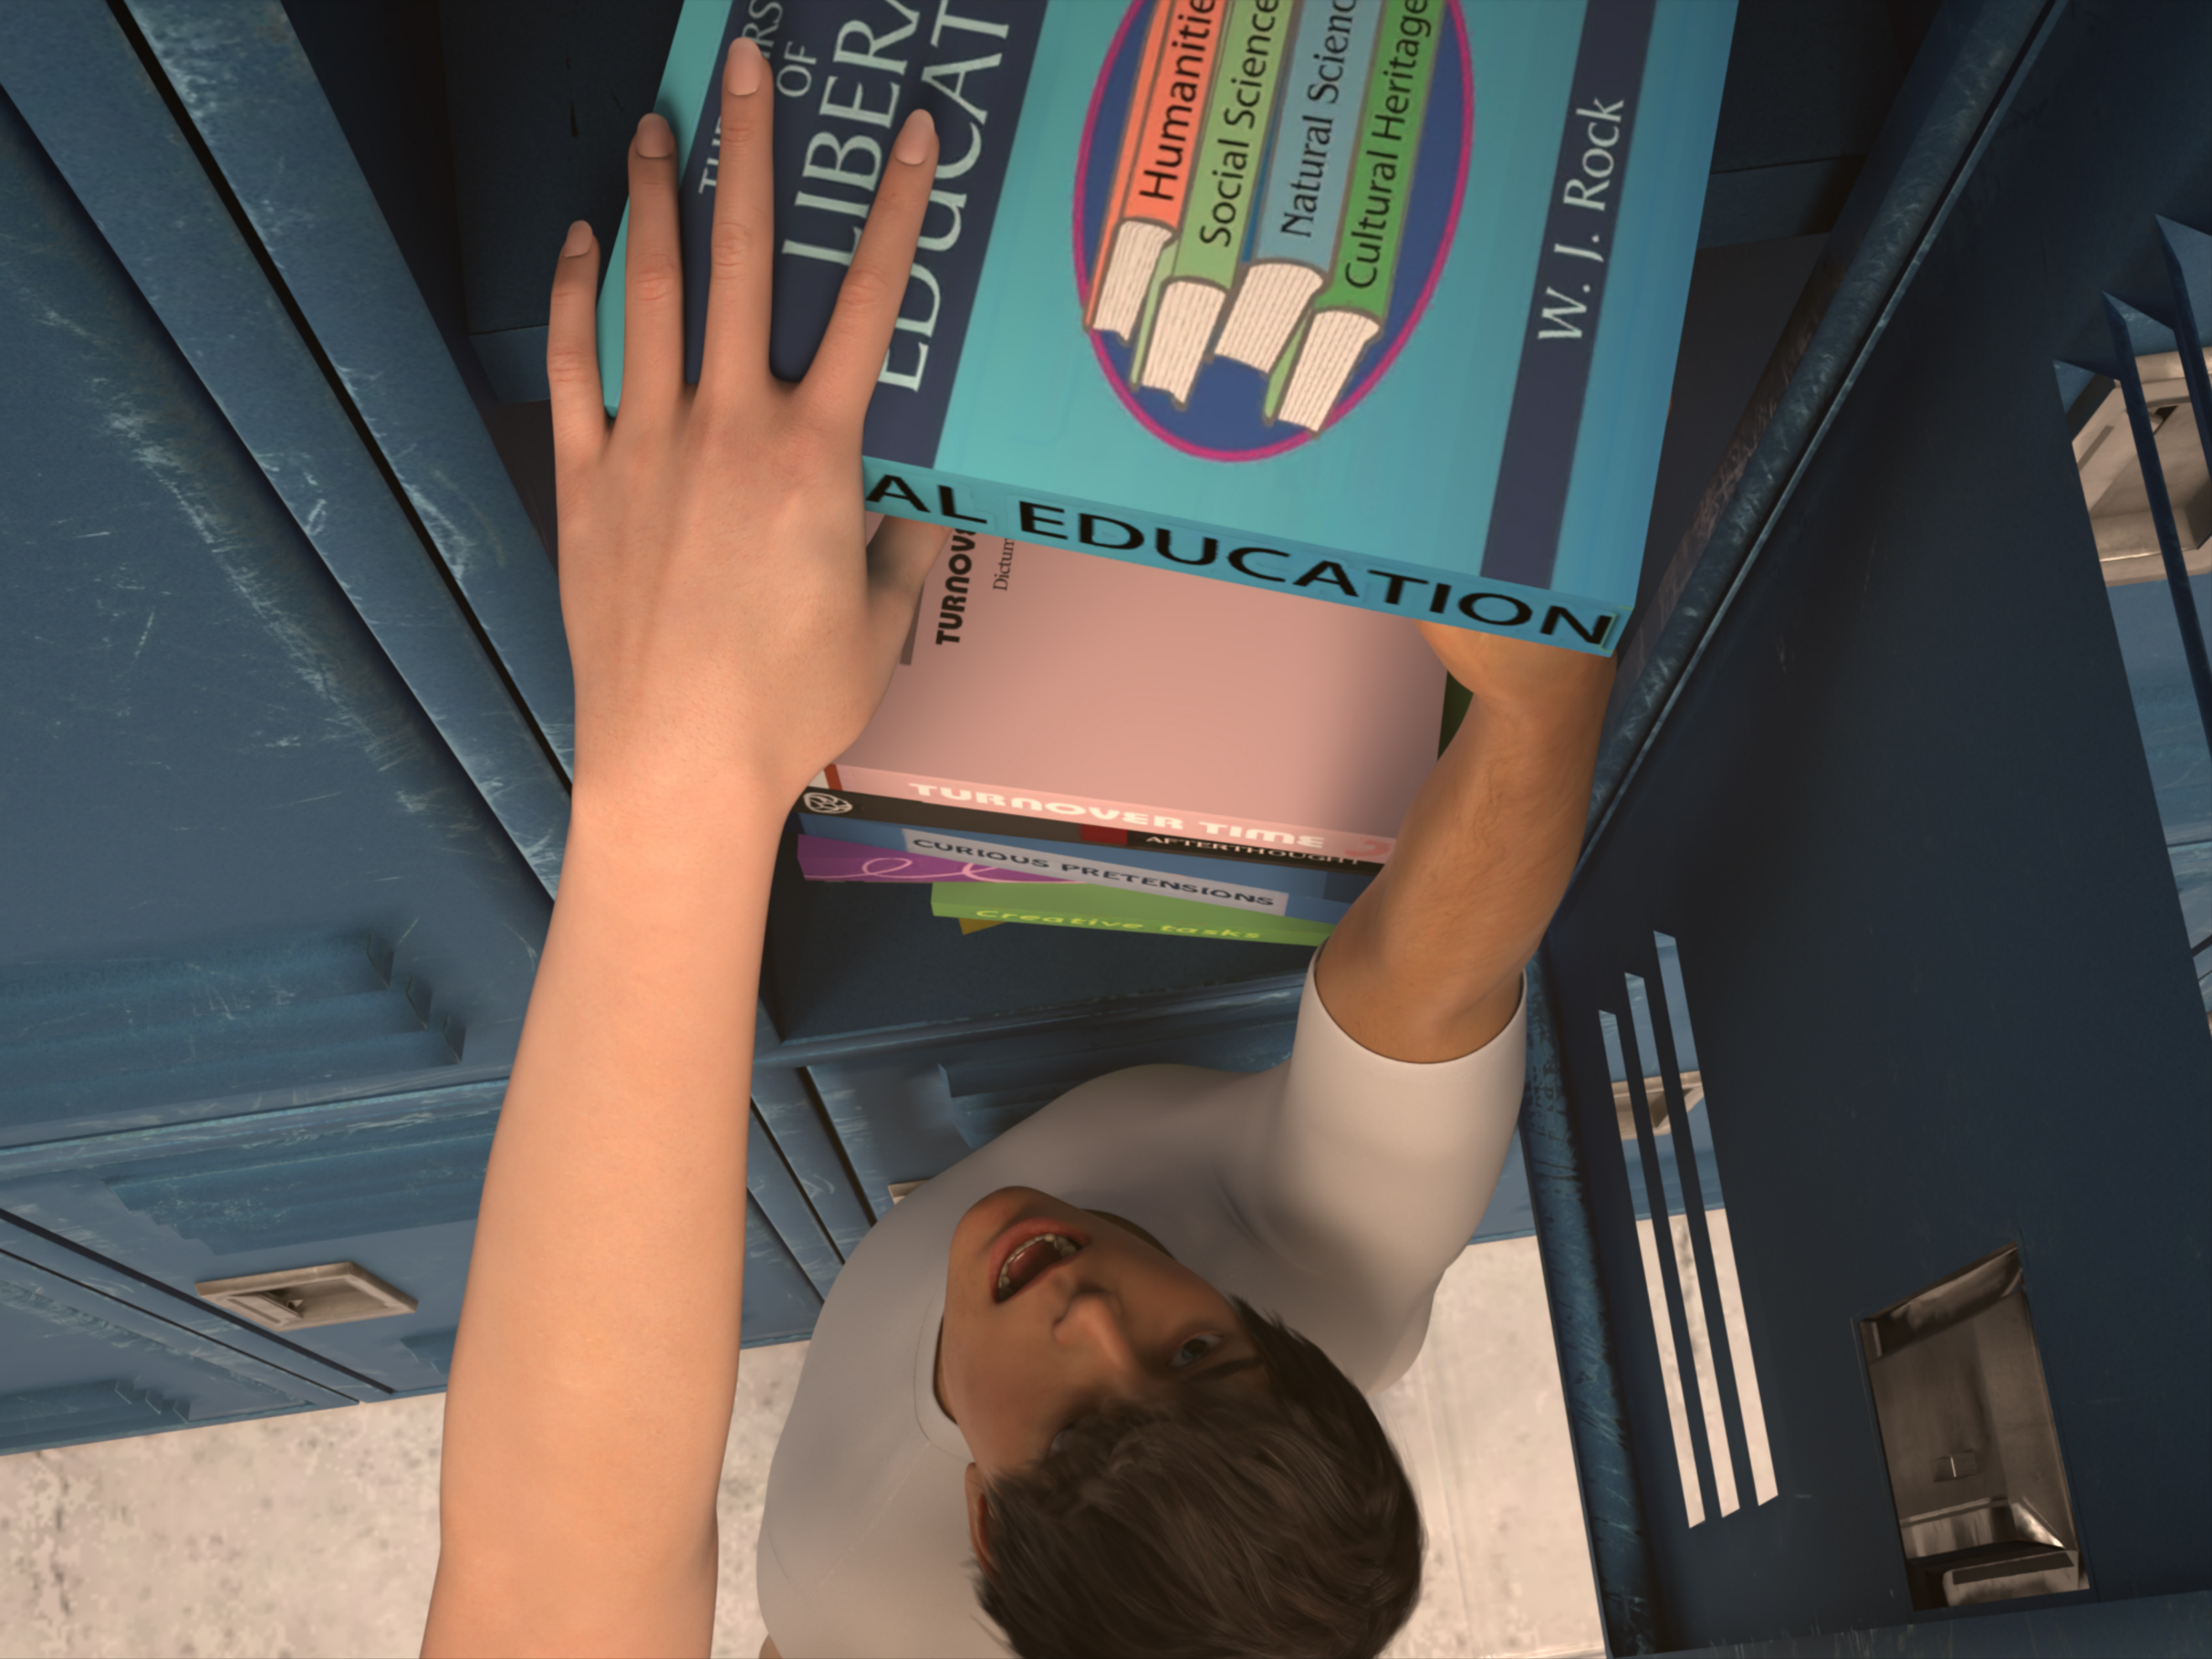

11. Josh thought the magic should take a night to work like last time, so he walked upstairs to his classroom level. He swore that something should have happened because it took him much longer to reach his floor level.

His concern became a reality, he was horrified to find that all of his classmates were much taller than he remembered. He was taller than average before, but now he was definitely the shortest one here. How short was he now!? Luckily, magic at least gave him clothes that fit him this time.

12. Josh walked to his locker and he was horrified to find that he was even now too short to reach the book on the top shelf!

13. To Josh's surprise, a hand grabbed the book for him. "Thank yo..." Josh said as he turned around, but he was too surprised to finish his words.

14. Josh was horrified to find that it was Skyla helping him, but she was way taller than 10 minutes ago! He was now even no taller than her shoulder in her heels! "Here you are, you can ask me if you need help again." Skyla smiled as she gave the book to Josh.

"Why are you here, Skyla?" Josh said nervously, not used to craning his neck to look up at once short Skyla. "I am just coming to ask if you are interested in having lunch together?" Skyla asked. Josh definitely agreed.

15. They had lunch on the roof. They talked as they ate, with Skyla carrying most of the conversation. She was so sick of her parents fighting. Josh had to admit that this was the scene he had been dreaming of. Although he was still not used to seeing Skyla's legs so long compared to his own.

16. After eating lunch, Josh gathered enough courage to ask, "Could you be my girlfriend, Skyla?" Skyla didn't look surprised at his words, but she said hesitantly, "You are good, Josh, but I think we still need time to know each other..." Skyla left her words as she left the roof.

That was the moment Jenna came to the roof. Josh stood up to greet her and it was the first time he had ever had Jenna in his vision without having to crane his head now, and he actually needed to look up at her in her heels. "What the hell I shrank to 5 feet like you, Jenna?" He asked in panic. "I just said 2 inches were the price, you still need to pay the height to change the reality." Jenna said with a smile.

17. Josh knew it was just a step away from Skyla becoming his girlfriend. If he had to wait for an unknown amount of time before Skyla could officially be his girlfriend, he would go crazy.

"I asked for one thing, Skyla to be my girlfriend and to love me." Josh said. Jenna could tell her brother was serious. "Okay, if that's what you want." Jenna smiled as she shrugged. "MUTARIO!" She lifted his ring and she said the magic words again to light the ring.

18. Josh then walked downstairs to Skyla's floor to see the effect. "Oh hello, my cute boyfriend." Skyla said as she looked at Josh eye to eye, despite he was standing three steps higher! Not only did Skyla's height get boosted, but Josh also lost height as well.

19. Josh felt Skyla grow before him as he slowly took steps down. When Josh stood before Skyla, he found himself facing her waist! "I am up here, Josh." Skyla smiled. He craned his neck to look up at Skyla, and could not help feeling intimidated by her height!

20. "Josh, why aren't you carrying my stuff? Am I not your girlfriend?" Skyla said as her gently rolling hip knocked Josh back to reality. Josh got the backpack from Skyla and he gulped at the weight of the backpack. He had to lift it with both his arms!

On their way out of the school, Josh could see that they attracted every student's attention. Josh did not care at all, because Skyla was now his girlfriend.

21. Although Skyla was now Josh's girlfriend, he hoped Skyla could show her affection more to him. He decided to ask Jenna to make Skyla love him more. However, his command-like tone annoyed Jenna. He was even unaware that he was already not much taller than Jenna sitting.

22. "I don't think you know which of us is in charge now, bro." Jenna said as she stood up. "What the...?" Josh sputtered as he looked up at his sister. Jenna was now taller than him by a whole head!

23. "You should know how petite you are now, bro." Jenna said as she grabbed his hand, pulling him together before the mirror. Josh gulped at seeing how tall his once short sister was now. Jenna's breasts also grew, each of them was close to his head size now!

24. "I am sorry, Jenna. Just forgot what I said and I am going to bed now." Josh said as he wanted to retreat, because he did not think he could suffer another loss in height for his next wish.

"Don't worry, bro. I am kind enough to help you again, but you surely need to pay me." Jenna smiled as she grabbed his hand, lifting his ring to her face. Josh tried to pull with all his strength but now he was much weaker than Jenna and she could easily pin him in place. To his horror, Jenna said the magic twice, "MUTARIO! MUTARIO!". Then he lost consciousness.

25. When Josh woke up, he found himself in his room, but then he realized he was not alone. "So you finally wake up, bro." Jenna smiled at him. "Why did you speak the magic twice?" Josh asked. "They are just my prize." Jenna shrugged.

26. "How big are you now?" Josh asked. Even though Jenna's full body was not fully revealed, he could tell she was way bigger than before. "Much bigger than you." Jenna smiled. "Why don't you see by yourself?" Jenna said as she extended her hand out. Josh pinned his hand against hers and he gulped at seeing that his whole hand was just a bit bigger than her palm.

27. Jenna then sat back and placed her foot on the bed. Josh was surprised to see that both his feet were only as long as her single foot.

28. "Okay, enough for comparison time." Jenna said as she stood back up to her height. Josh gulped at seeing her rising to her towering height. He struggled to get down onto the floor and he was horrified to find that he was only as tall as Jenna's hips!

29. Before Josh said anything, he heard some voices outside the bedroom. The bedroom door was open and Josh was surprised to see Skyla bending to get through the door! "Hello, guys." She said.

30. Josh expected Skyla to come to him first, but she simply stood over him as she talked to Jenna, who squeezed him from his back. Josh looked up and he couldn't help feeling intimidated when he looked up at both Skyla's and Jenna's breasts.

31. Josh was surprised to hear Skyla say, "It seems your plan works fine, Jenna." Then Skyla gave his sister a deep, long kiss. Josh had nowhere to go except being squeezed between the crotches of two giantesses.

Jenna finally broke the kiss and looked down at Josh, "I guess I should explain. When I told my girlfriend Skyla that my cute older brother had a crush on her, we began to talk." Skyla continued, "I was flattered but I like girls and well.... only short guys."

32. "I think I would better leave you guys alone when I go to make some preparations." Jenna then left the bedroom. Skyla smiled down at Josh, who looked up at her confusedly. "Don't worry, that doesn't mean I don't like a cute guy like you. Why don't you do something when you are the perfect height now, Josh?" She said.

Josh did not need to be told twice to unbutton her jeans and pull them down with all his strength. He then licked at her genitals, making Skyla moan.

33. Skyla then stripped herself naked and lay on the bed. She was too tall for his bed so part of her legs remained outside. Josh then got on her and thrust his member inside her. But Josh knew his member was way too small to fill Skyla because she kept telling him to work harder without moaning.

34. "I am back, guys!" Jenna said as she opened the door. Josh was horrified to find that Jenna was naked and with a strapon on!

35. "Don't worry, leave the task to me because you are too small for Skyla." Jenna said with a smile. Josh stood up and he gulped at the massive size of the strapon, which was as long as his arm!

36. Jenna got on top and thrust her strapon inside Skyla. Skyla pulled Josh to her face so that she could suck on his member. This was extremely embarrassing when his sister was fucking his girlfriend, who gave him the blowjob as an alternative.

37. After reaching the climax and shooting his load inside Skyla's mouth, Josh collapsed on Skyla's head. "Now it's my turn to make wish." Jenna said as she lifted his ring to her face. Josh did not have the strength to resist Jenna now. "MUTARIO!" The ring lit.

38. One morning, Skyla met Jenna in the park. "Oh hello, Jenna. I haven't seen you for quite a long time. Is it my illusion of remembering that I was once taller than you?" Jenna smiled down at Skyla, "Long time no see, Skyla. I am always taller than you."

39. "So who's this cute guy." Skyla asked as she saw Josh inside the stroller. "He's just my cute brother Josh, he has not grown since he was 3 years old, even though he is 20 years old already." Skyla believed Jenna's words as she bent down to smile at Josh, "Nice to meet you, Josh." Josh wanted to tell Skyla that he was once big and she was once his girlfriend, but he already lost the talk ability due to Jenna's spell. He just hoped Jenna's plan wouldn't be so cruel to him.....
