

My son is replacing me with his mom update 7

I have received a lot of messages about continuing. So I'm going to update everyone.

If you've read from the start you will know that things began at Christmas more than a year ago but they really kicked off once my son came home for spring break. Well they had their one year anniversary and my wife spilled the beans a little. Not that she really cares mind you.

What happened was spring break was coming up and I overheard little snatches of conversation and hints as to their plans. They wanted to go away somewhere and be more open about their relationship. They joked about going to Mexico and full on being a mother and son couple in the open to just taking a weekend trip somewhere and going out as a loving couple.

My daughter stayed away this year. She's all vaxed and enjoying life. We talk regularly and a few times she said things that made me think she knew what was going on. I know her and her mom talk a lot and she had had some conversations with her brother that left him mad but it could just be me panicking about people finding out about the new household dynamics.

When we were getting close to the date though my wife asked me to leave the house. She plainly told me that their anniversary of them first getting together was coming up and because of Covid they really could not go anywhere they wanted. She wanted me to rent a hotel room and stay away. I acted a little shocked and asked about the timeline. Telling her I thought they started their relationship much later. She informed me that no they had started earlier "when we were still married" and she didn't care that I knew now. She told me that first night he was home she was so horny for him they did it on the couch. That they had been sexting for months and that they were both waiting for me to go to bed so they could have some time for themselves. They started kissing on the couch and then it just happened. He looked at her and it was the moment her fantasies came true and she knew she had to have him as more than her son. She told me very matter of fact like that she had come to bed many of those nights with him "still inside her" or right after they made love.

They were so excited as the weekend when I would leave approached. Lots of public displays of their affection. Kissing, hugging, groping, running to their room to fuck and more pregnancy talk. She would teasingly ask him if this was the weekend he was going to get mommy pregnant. For his part he delighted in this. There were some ebbs and flows with our relationship. There were times were he was my son and then there were times were he openly talked about how he fucked his mom or my wife (things like "I love fucking mom so much!" Or "how do you feel knowing I'm fucking your wife?"). Sometimes it was mom and sometimes it was my wife. He liked the idea of cucking his dad just as much as he liked that he was fucking his mom.

The weekend came and it didn't go as I expected. I had expected to have one of those weekends where I was nervous and my stomach would twist at the thought of what was going on while I tried not to think about it. Apparently though I'm not an insignificant part of their passion.

The first night I got lots of texts from my son about what him and his mom were doing. Followed by a voice call where they let their passions out. Lots of dirty talking and teasing me. I could hear them fucking and through the phone clearly. I'm not impervious to it and I jerked off listening to them. As my son shot his seed deep inside his mom as she begged for his baby I shot into a tissue.

Day two started with a pic of him getting a blow job from his mom. It was titled "Anniversary head". My son also texted me that maybe he would pop his mom's anal cherry. He teased a little with doing things with her that I hadn't. He seemed to want me to know he was with her in new ways that I hadn't been. He also texted me with her phone a picture of him inside her. With the text saying "making a baby in mom". She texted me he had sent it and asked him to not but asked me what I thought about the picture and the message. She also said it's a thought that consumes her now. That she constantly thinks about having his baby.

Day three (Sunday) I checked out and cruised around going to stores and just killing time before I could go home. I hadn't gotten any texts from my son or wife so that left me to wonder. When I looked at people I wondered what they would think if they knew what was happening at home. How would they react? I looked at couples and thought are they mother and son? Are they having an affair?

When I pulled in I saw my daughter was leaving. I didn't know she was coming and panicked a little. She was very sweet and it seemed like nothing out of the normal. She told me she called earlier and told her mom she was stopping by to do laundry and pick up a few things. She asked me how the trip was? I didn't know how to answer and she quickly added that mom told her I had to leave for work. I told her it was fine and we hugged. She left and I went inside.

The house was all in order. I didn't really expect there to be signs of a fuckfest but I wasn't sure what to expect. I went and put my things in my room and saw that my bed, the former marital bed, had been slept in. I saw the sex stains on the sheets. I went to their room and knocked. My son yelled hold on and answered the door in just his boxers. "Hey your back" was his response. "Just checking in" I told him. I couldn't see into their room so I don't know what they were up to. "Ok" was all he said then shut the door.

I snuck past their door several times and listened. I could hear her muffled grunts and groans as well as the shaking of the bed indicating vigorous sex.

It was much later when I saw my wife. She came out in her robe to get something to drink. I asked her how her weekend went. When she turned around I noticed she had a leather collar on. It said "Slut Mom" on it.

Beaming she said "oh my god. It was incredible. It was sooo amazing. Just being so open and free. We did go out as a couple like we planned. At one restaurant the waitress said we make a cute couple.

When I told her he was my son it blew her mind! She just stood there shocked. So I open mouth kissed him and rubbed his cock to give her a little show! Her reaction was amazing!!!!” My wife was so excited telling me about how the waitress was so attentive to them and even gave my wife her number and said that she hoped they could be special friends with a wink. She told me it was amazingly hot.

I asked about our daughter and when she came. She told me that she had come by that morning and just did some laundry.

Before she left the kitchen she told me that she needed me to take work off because she needed me to come to a doctors appointment. She was meeting with her OBGYN and wanted me there to talk about having another child. I quickly asked if she was pregnant and she said “no not yet” with a huge smile. “I going to be. I hope anyway. We’ve been having sex for a year and I’m off birth control. He is young and heathy...and very virile. He wants a baby and I want to give him one. I love him.”

The next part will be about our visit to the obgyn.
