Chapter One

I was fed up with being a virgin. It was already my second year in college and I had yet to see a woman naked. I had been to one date, and even that had ended disastrously.

While I had a lot of girl friends, none of them saw me as a man. They always told me I was sweet. They only liked me a friend, or worse, a little brother. They thought I was just a harmless little boy. It was so unfair.

My roommate Todd wasn't helping matters either. While he was my best friend, he was just too handsome and muscular. As a football player, he had tons of girls fawning over him. Whenever we went out, the girls would look at both of us and compare. Todd was a man and I was just a boy.

But all of that was about to change. Through some luck, I found a website that sold steroids for building muscle. I had been training hard and going to the gym already everyday but I just wasn't making any gains. My genetics just kept me naturally slim and lanky. The steroids would help boost my muscle growth.

The package was supposed to arrive today. I was giddy with excitement. I was finally going to get big and buff.

"What's up little buddy? You look excited." Todd entered the room. He took off his shirt in an instant. For some reason, he hated having clothes on his body. If I didn't draw the line at his shorts he would be walking around nude on our apartment the entire time.

"Nothing. I just ordered a package online. Should arrive soon." I smiled at Todd. In a few weeks I would have the same body as him, massive pecs and bulging arms.

Todd just didn't know what it was like being invisible. People were always attracted to him like a magnet. It wasn't his fault he was just so good looking and charming.

"Well, I'm heading out to the park to meet up with few people. Want to come with? I could introduce you to some girls." Todd raised his eyebrows at me suggestively. He was always trying to get me laid. It was a nice gesture but I knew exactly how an evening with him would turn out. The girls would talk to me politely. Then I would be firmly placed in the friend zone. They'd get close to me trying to find out how to get Todd in bed.

I was done with all that. It was time for me to be a man.

"Go on ahead. I'm just going to wait for my package." I shooed him away.

He shrugged and went his merry way.

As promised, my package arrived a few minutes later. It came inside a discreet little box. Inside there was a figurine of an anime character with a braided black ponytail. He was wearing a bright red cheongsam shirt that showed off his arms. He looked familiar. I couldn't quite place it. He was probably from the early nineties.

Still, he wasn't important. The pills were inside him. Since these kinds of steroids were illegal, the website shipped them in the character memorabilia. It was quite smart actually.

There were at least thirty pills inside. It was enough to last me a month. I took one in. I couldn't wait for it to take effect on me.

I headed to the gym to get an extra workout going. I wanted to get the steroids all the help they could get. I started with some light cardio. Getting myself exhausted was integral to my plan. I needed to sleep a lot so that I would give my muscles a ton of time to rebuild themselves.

So far, I didn't feel much effect from the pills.

Then I saw Todd lifting weights in the gym. He waved at me before going back to his workout. These days he was the only person who noticed me.

If it weren't for him, I could go the day entire day without anyone talking to me. He really was a great friend.

I knew why girls liked him so much. His handsome face was like a lighthouse immediately drawing everyone's attention. When he looked at you, he always gave you his full attention. He always made sure you felt important and valued. If I was a girl, I would want him to be my boyfriend.

And that was only talking about his personality. He was gorgeous. At six feet three, he stood above everyone else. His height gave him a lot of torso and legs. There was just so much of him to look at. And every single part was chiseled to perfection. His arms were big and brawny. I had once seen him lift an entire wooden table up to three floors in the dorms. His legs were massive. He didn't have chicken legs. His thighs were thick with power.

I had asked him once what his weight was. He was nearly 2.5 times heavier than me. And most of it was all done to sheer muscle. Todd was perfect. If I was a girl, I'd want him to be my boyfriend.

I quickly shook my head out of those dangerous thoughts. I wasn't gay. I just appreciated my best friend. I focused on my workout trying to break down as much muscle as I could so that when I slept they would reform stronger.

When I finished, I was soaked in sweat.

I headed back to my dorm room and went to bed. My body didn't feel that different. There was big party coming in fifteen days. That was where I wanted to make my big debut as a new more confident me. I needed to look good for that part. I figured doubling the dosage wouldn't hurt too much. I took another pill.

If I got some acne or weird perky nipples, I'd fix them by going cold turkey afterwards. I wasn't doing this out of some weird obsession to get huge muscles. I just needed to have some bulk. I had always heard my friends telling me not order pills online. But what did a few hormone pills hurt?

Chapter Two

The next day I woke up feeling refreshed and bright. Somehow the world seemed brighter. I was feeling really good. Maybe taking two pills worked better than I thought. Todd was still asleep so I didn't feel self-conscious about taking off all my clothes. I wanted to see myself in the full length mirror.

Something had changed. I liked how I looked now better than before. I looked very different, but I couldn't quite place it.

I checked out my arms. While they seemed more toned, they weren't bulging like I wanted them to be. I didn't have buff biceps like Todd. Still, at least they had firmed up a little.

My chest seemed to have grown a little. Yesterday they were very flat. Now at least I felt some soft tissue and muscle in pec area. It still felt a little cushy but at least there was something to work with.

My abs however looked really good. My stomach had firmed considerably. I lost that little paunch of fat that seemed so hard to get rid off. I actually lifted my arms and swayed my hips. I actually felt sexy despite still being slim. I was definitely on the right track.

I looked at my penis. It was surrounded by my unruly pubic hair. For some reason, I wanted to shave myself clean. I've never had a big dick so I made peace with my size long ago. I knew what Todd was packing and I was no match for him. It wasn't about the size anyway. It was how I used it. Still the urge to shave myself was pervading my thoughts. Maybe later.

I turned around to check my back. I almost gasped at how sexy I looked. It wasn't the wide back of an alpha male. But my muscles had all firmed up. I looked incredibly sexy almost feminine even. I figured it was just the first stage of my transformation. I was shedding all the skinny fats I used to have and turning them into lean muscle.

Even my ass seemed to have firmed up. All the glute workouts I did yesterday had really helped my buttocks rise. I grabbed them and spread them apart. I felt good to touch myself there. I was rubbing myself so much I didn't realize one of my fingers had strayed to my crack. It felt so sensitive. For some reason, I couldn't stop touching my hole.

"Danny?" Todd asked me blearily. He slowly sat up on the bed.

I quickly put on some clothes. For some reason, I didn't want him to see my naked body. We had seen each other naked before, but I wanted to keep my transformation a secret from him.

"Just heading out. See you later." I quickly dressed and went to class.

I had a general English course away from my usual classmates. It was my only class where there were any girls.

"Hey Danny. Looking good." Brigitte, one of the most beautiful girls I've ever seen, said as she greeted me.

"Thanks. I'm trying out some new supplements." I said walking up to her. This was the first time she actually talked to me first. We knew each other because I had offered to tutor her a few times.

"I love how smooth your skin is. You have to give me that brand." She cooed at me. She was so near my face I could practically see her pores. If I just leaned in, I could kiss her.

But for some reason I didn't want that. Instead I was distracted by the color of her lips. The color was so vibrant and bright. I wondered how it would look on me.

"What lipstick are you using. I really like the color." I asked her brazenly. It was so out of character for me. Usually I would stay quiet instead of voicing out what I wanted.

Brigitte didn't look offended. She asked for my number so she we could trade beauty secrets. It was the first time I had ever gotten a number from a girl. Class started before we could talk more, but she kissed me on the cheeks before heading to her spot.

I was ecstatic. Women were never so friendly with me before. She was treating me as if I belonged to her inner circle and not like one of the nerds she just tolerated.

The rest of my day proceeded like that. People were always noticing me and complimenting my looks. Like me they couldn't tell what had changed but all of them wanted in on my secret. I felt so confident and relaxed for the first time in my life. I couldn't wait to take another pill and get the transformation faster.

I headed to the gym after class. I had to break down muscles if I wanted the steroids to work on something. Todd was just starting his workout. I waved at him as I began my cardio.

He was working in the weight room lifting ridiculously heavy weights. I wasn't sure but I estimated he was bench pressing two or three times my weight. He could lift me and throw me down to the ground. Instead of watching the TV, I was mesmerized by his strong powerful body. He pulled off his shirt, revealing the various swells and bulges of muscle. I was watching his sweat trickle down from his body.

A weird feeling appeared in the pit of my stomach. It felt like coiled heat whirling around. I stopped my exercise and headed back into my room. I suddenly wasn't feeling so good. I felt hot and sweaty. My chest felt heavy and my groin stung a little bit. It felt like my skin was tightening around me as if someone was stretching it taut. My head felt foggy.

Maybe I overexerted myself today. I decided to just take one pill as recommended instead of two. I was already seeing the benefits anyway. A few side effects was worth the change.

Chapter Three

“Are you sure they’re real?” Todd pointed at my new breasts.

“Of course, they’re real.” I gasped squeezing my new enormous breasts. I used to be a skinny nerd. And now, I had huge D cups breasts. It was crazy. I had only taken one pill last night.

I had woken up feeling completely normal, except for a sudden weight on my chest. I went to the bathroom like I always did to get prepared for the morning. I was brushing my teeth, when I noticed my skin clear of any blemishes.

In fact, I looked really good. My skin was all smooth and clear. And somehow my eyes seemed brighter. I didn’t quite understand what was different but my face looked prettier.

And then I noticed the two enormous boobs hanging from chest.

My loud scream immediately summoned Todd. He took one look at me and fainted. He hit his head on the floor, knocking himself unconscious.

So that’s how I spent my first morning as a woman. I had to take care of my big dumb jock friend while he recovered.

I tried calling the website and emailing them, but the entire webpage had disappeared. It was like the entire place hadn’t existed in the first place.

Todd had woken up. He told me to get naked so we could see what else had changed. I was terrified. I couldn’t feel my penis and balls. I didn’t want to take a look.

“What happens when you need to pee. You have to find out now.” Todd unhelpfully pointed out. He had been looking at me strangely the entire time.

“Thanks for not freaking out on me.” I told him. Other men would have been terrified and called me a freak. But big Todd stood by my side.

He didn’t treat me any differently. He still stayed shirtless around me displaying his enormous pecs and huge biceps. I had never noticed how thick and massive they were.

I quickly shook my head from those thoughts. I had my own body to think about.

Reluctantly, I hooked my thumbs on the waistband of my cargo shorts.

“It’s now or never.” Todd said looking at my crotch.

“Oh god. Please be there.” I murmured under my breath. Although now that I had breasts, I didn’t want to have a penis as well. It was supposed to be one or the other right?

I yanked them down. Immediately I felt the cold air on my nether regions. It definitely did not feel like how my old penis felt. Instead, I felt a cold tingle down there.

Todd was looking at groin intensely. “I’m sorry bro. But that definitely is not a dick.”

I gave myself a second before looking down. I ripped the band-aid and looked at my new genitals. In place of my penis was a freshly shaven vagina. I had never seen one before in my entire life.

Girls had always intimidated me. I could never talk to them. They just seemed so confident and beautiful that my tongue would get twisted. Todd was supposed to help me get confidence. The new pills were supposed to help me get the body I wanted. Instead they turned me into a woman.

I looked at myself in the mirror.

At least I was gorgeous woman. I pursed my lips together, feeling their thicker volume. I was also so much more attractive as a woman. I tilted my head down, looking at the way my cheekbones were suddenly highlighted. As a boy, I had been too lanky and pointy to be handsome. But with my softened features, I felt prettier.

It was a small consolation.

“Hey Todd.” I called him. He suddenly shook himself. He had been staring at my boobs. I could see the imprint of his hard cock under his basketball shorts.

“Yeah bro?” Todd flushed red as he avoided my boobs and looked at my face.

“At least now, you can’t say I’ve never touched boobs or pussy before.” I reached my hand down and squeezed my breasts and touched my pussy.

It was supposed to be a jock to insert some laughter into this weird situation.

Instead I saw Todd’s eyes follow my hands hungrily to my most sensitive parts. I noticed his mouth parting. I could see the lust in his eyes.

Suddenly, I wasn’t his roommate anymore. In his eyes, I was a beautiful sexy woman waiting to be fucked.

The idea was supposed to scare me. But my heart was beating rapidly against my chest for an entirely different reason. My new pussy started to feel wet.

“Right. Yeah. You’re not a touch virgin anymore.” Todd managed to collect himself. He quickly turned away.

What had I been thinking? Todd was my best friend. I shouldn’t be thinking of him this way. He was my only ally in this weird new problem I have.

"I think you should get dressed. Then we can figure this mess out." Todd said without turning to look at me.

"Right." I quickly went to my closet. I picked out an old T-shirt. I tried to get my old T-shirt over my boobs, but they were too tight. I decided to go for some pants. But my new hips were too wide around the waist.

"You can try on my clothes." Todd said after sneaking a peak at me. I had been taking too long.

I sighed. Todd was a good foot taller than I was. I pulled his oversized shirt over me. It fit, but it hung loosely from my body. His pants were also too big for me. I decided to just get a belt and wrap it around my waist. Now his button down looked like some sort of shirt dress I had seen some women wear.

My only consolation was that my sneakers still somehow fit me.

"Looking good. Danny." Todd gave me a low whistle.

I felt my face heat up. I sucked in a large breath making my breast hike up dramatically. Todd's eyes grew dark as he looked at my body.

God. Why did my skin feel so hot?

I ignored the fire burning in my stomach.

"We should go to class. Maybe someone will know something about what's happening to me." I said deciding staying alone in the room with Todd wouldn't be good for my heart.

I was a chemical engineering student. Maybe we could figure out the problems by studying the chemical make-up of the pills. We could use our labs to find out.

"Good Idea. I'll skip my classes and go with you. I don't think it's safe for you to go anywhere alone." Todd said. He opened the door for me and put a hand on my waist.

It felt like I had been shocked by electricity as I felt his touch. His hands felt so big and strong on my body. He held on to me tightly, making sure everyone who saw us would know who I belonged to.

I should have been insulted. I could take care of myself. But instead I felt relieved. Most importantly, I felt safe. It felt so good to have Todd's arm around me.

I could see all the women we passed by stare at me with jealousy. They all wanted to be me. Beautiful with big full breasts. And they thought I had captured the most eligible bachelor on campus. They were absolutely seething.

I arrived at the lab. None of my nerdy classmates noticed it was me. In fact they fawned over me like I was a woman. In engineering, the ratio of men to women was always five to one. And the few women we did have, always looked like unkempt trolls or one of the guys.

We didn't have women like me in engineering. Women who wore shorts skirts and pushed up their breasts. I was a bombshell in their eyes. I could feel the lust in their hearts. One of them even had his tongue out. Their gaze was always transfixed to my ample bosom.

If I had been alone, I was sure these four nerds would have jumped at me out of sheer desperation. They would tear off my clothes and suck on my new breasts. Then they would finger my soft pussy, and fill me with cock. My panties were soaking wet at the thought.

What was happening to me? When I was still a man, I never had ideas like this. All I wanted was to sleep with a beautiful woman with big boobs. I never wanted to be her.

But now, I couldn't help but reach down to my soaking wet pussy and flick my new clit. I felt so horny.

Then Todd growled at all the little nerds and sent them scampering away. I looked up at him.

He loomed over the entire room. He meant what he said about protecting me. With him here, no one but he could touch me. His wide back was strong and powerful. None of them would be able to do anything against him. He was just too masculine and dominant.

My knees felt weak. If he did anything to me, my weak arms wouldn't be able to fight back. He'd spread my legs and stick that monstrous cock inside me.

Todd was big. As his roommate, I had seen his massive cock many times. And on the rare occasion when he couldn't get a date, we sometimes jacked off together while watching porn.

His cock was a thing of beauty. Even as another man, I was already drawn to it. It was easily twice as thick as my old nerd dick. It would take me two hands to cover the entire length. And it would be slick with his precum. Todd saved so much on lube because his cock just kept drooling and lubricating itself with slick.

I had always wanted to stoke his cock for him even if I had been straight. There was just something so amazing about it. Even a straight man knew an alpha cock when he saw it.

"Dani? Did you check the pills?" Todd huffed as he looked at me bent over the microscope.

I hastily brought my eye to the viewfinder. I had been so preoccupied watching his massive body that I forgot to look. I quickly removed my hand from my sex and brought it to adjust the slide.

I crushed the little pill and studied it at different magnification. I was very familiar with the crystals and their form. This just wasn't possible.

“What is it?” Todd asked leaning in close to me. He placed his big palm over my back. I wanted it go lower to my ass.

“They’re just sugar pills. There is nothing special about them. I’ve been duped.” I said sadly. I wouldn’t be able to find the solution to my problems in the lab. I had to think harder. What was the catalyst for me to turn into a woman?

Chapter Four

Todd decided to head to the cafeteria. He knew food would at least replenish my energy if not my mood.

At the cafeteria, we saw some of his teammates. They looked at him curiously as they saw me in his arms.

"What are we going to tell them?" I gasped panicking. They would definitely want to know who I am.

"I'll tell them you're my new girlfriend transferring in. I don't want them to think you're available. It's a little white lie." Todd said quickly.

I felt my cheeks blush. Even if it was a lie, I was still pretending to be the girlfriend to the sexiest man on campus. I felt giddy in my heart.

His friends arrived making jokes. They all admired my looks. But the minute Todd said I wasn't available, they averted their eyes. They did keep stealing glances at me throughout the meal. Johnny, his best friend, even slipped me his number before we left.

"Where next?" Todd asked. He had skipped all his classes to help me.

"I need to find a bra." I told him. My boobs felt enormous. And they had been hanging out all days without support. I felt the strain on my back. I just wasn't used to having all the extra weight on my chest.

"I guess we do need to buy you more clothes. You can't walk around forever just wearing my shirt." Todd also pointed out. We headed to his car and drive to the nearest retailer.

While he was focused on the road, I brought his collar up to my nose. It smelled so strongly of him. I was going to miss wearing his shirts. They felt so comfortable. They also made me feel like I belonged to Todd even if I didn't. I suddenly realized I wanted Todd to fuck me. All these weird feeling I had ever since I had become a woman was me reacting to his strong alpha male presence. I needed, no I wanted to be fucked by this big hunk of man.

We headed into the woman's lingerie section. The saleslady was completely distracted by big Todd's presence. She was useless to me even going so far as to flirt with him. Thankfully Todd ignored her. He only had eyes for me.

I grabbed a ugly pair of mom bras that would give full coverage and support. Then I headed to the changing rooms to try them on. While they fit well, I looked so plain and sad in them. I didn't feel like the sexy woman I had been all day. They were cheap but I didn't want to buy them at all.

"Why don't you try these ones?" Todd big hand suddenly thrust past the curtains. In them was a black bra trimmed out with lace.

I took it gently from his hands. I couldn't help myself as I rubbed my thumbs all over his thick fingers. I could only imagine what they would feel like rubbing inside my sweet pussy. I wanted him so bad. I don't know what I would do later tonight. Todd would think I was a freak.

I put on the bra he had chosen for me. I looked completely different. The bra only covered below my breasts and right up to the nipples. It left the top completely exposed leaving me with a lot of cleavage. I looked so sexy in the mirror. This was the one I wanted.

Then I looked at the price tag. It was over a hundred dollars. There was no way I could afford this. Leave it to Todd to have expensive tastes.

I quickly changed out of it and picked the cheap mom bra. It had more material covering my entire breasts. I was getting more bang for my buck even if it looked ugly.

"I'm getting this one." I said unenthusiastically.

"Whats was wrong with the black one?" Todd almost growled at me.

"It looks amazing but I can't afford it." I said sadly,

"I'll pay for it. Leave that ugly one behind." Todd snatched the bra from my hands. He added another pair, one scarlet red and the other angelic white to the mix. I also noticed some stockings and panties. They were all the really expensive and luxurious brands.

"You don't have to do this for me." I told him. I squeezed his strong forearm feeling the hard muscle not yield to my weak force.

"I'm not having my woman wear garbage." He said as he headed straight to pay.

I gasped as I was left behind. Did he just call me his woman? My pussy was soaking through my ill-fitting boxers. Was it possible that Todd wanted me just as much as I wanted him.

We picked out another pair of jeans and some female tops before leaving the store. Todd insisted on paying for everything. He actually selected most of my clothes saying my choices weren't good enough. He was right. Most of my pieces looked basic and watered down. But when I wore what he gave me, I felt like a real sexy woman. I felt like I could take on the world.

When we got to our apartment, Todd quickly shucked of his shirt like he always did. If he could have walked around naked, he would.

“You should put on the bra. It’s not good to walk around without support.” He said to me.

I nodded at him. Our bathroom was a small and tiny so we did most of our changing in the room. He would see every part of me. I felt so vulnerable and exposed.

But I had no choice. I took off his shirt, revealing my new voluptuous breasts. Standing in front of the mirror, I still couldn’t quite believe they were real. I touched their soft and bouncy texture. I was sort of addicted to squeezing and playing with them.

“Dani.” Todd said with a warning in his voice. His cock had grown thick in his basketball shorts again. If I played with myself more, I knew he was going to ravish me.

It wasn’t such a bad idea.

But I covered myself with my arm. I took the bra and put it on. I tried to clasp the back together, but the mechanism was too complicated. Apparently my new body didn’t have the knowledge of how to wear female attire.

As a boy, I had never even come close to unhooking a woman’s bra. What made me think I could do it now with no experience?

“Todd? Help please.” I asked my best friend who had been so patient with me the whole day.

“You fucking virgin.” He meant it as a joke. But his nostrils flared with lust as he approached me.

I realized I had been a virgin before as a man. Did that mean I was a virgin as well as a woman? Would sleeping with Todd break my hymen and maiden hood?

Todd stood up behind me. His huge body dwarfed mine in the mirror. I suddenly felt so small in front of him.

He took the bra off my boobs. I gasped as his fingers grazed against my nipples. I needed more of his touch.

“You’re not making this easy for me Dani.” He grunted. I felt the tip of his erection touch the small of my back. He let out a small groan. “Sorry.”

“Maybe I don’t want to make things easy for you.” I bit my new plump red lips, looking at his heated expression.

Todd’s nostrils flared but he didn’t answer me.

He placed the bra over my head. He had to cup my breasts to get them to fit into the cup properly. His touch felt like a heated brand on my chest. I leaned into his touch needing more. I had to bite my lips to prevent myself from moaning out loud.

And then he clasped my the back and pulled away.

I was sweating and heaving when he finally left me alone. The black laced bra looked good on my breast. The support felt amazing. I cupped them in my hands and squeezed them together. This was good. I felt so sexy. Then I saw my ugly boxer shorts.

“Could you hand me the panties?” I asked Todd. The sexy bra just didn’t fit with the loose boy boxers.

Todd didn’t say another word. He was staring at my breasts blatantly. His hard cock was already making a wet spot on his shorts. He wanted me. I could practically taste his arousal in the air.

And although I wanted him. I needed to see myself completely first. I pulled down my boxers, revealing my wet pussy. My inner fold had plumped up with arousal. It looked like I had flower petals in my crotch. It was weird to not have a penis anymore.

I reached down to finger my folds. A thrill of pleasure rushed up to me, making me shiver. It was completely different from jerking my cock off. This was more intense, more personal. And I hadn’t even put anything inside myself yet.

I flicked my clit. My whole body trembled at all the intense sensations I was feeling. Tension pooled inside my belly and I wanted to cry out in pleasure. It felt so good. I reached down to touch myself again.

“Dani.” Todd said with a pained huff. His hands were gripping the back panties tight as he held onto them. I had completely forgotten about his presence. The wet spot had only gotten bigger around his erection. I knew this was torture for him, but I couldn’t stop touching myself. I had a new body and I needed to try it out.

I took the black panties and slowly lifted it up my body. The thin thong slid up my pussy lips. The small fabric grazed against my clit. Every movement I made was like another shock to my system. How did women walk around in thong panties without having an orgasm each time. All I did was turn around and already my knees were shaking from pleasure.

“Christ. Dani. You put it on backwards.” Todd growled at me. This time he squeezed his thick cock.

“Pull it down.” I gasped. I had to brace myself against the mirror. The tiny little fabric kept teasing my clit. I felt like I would climax at any moment.

“Fuck.” Todd growled at me. He suddenly knelt between my shaking legs. He pulled them apart, giving him the full view of my parted lips. Todd was looking at my intimate self. Even I hadn’t explored that part of me yet.

He brought his index finger up to pull the thong out from my folds. His fingertip pressed into my soft inside flesh making me cry out in pleasure. His finger was so hot, alive and thick. It was better than anything the thong could have done.

I pressed my head into the mirror once he moved the soft fabric away. I took in deep full breaths trying to calm myself. My body felt like it was still shaking from pure pleasure.

Then I realized Todd hadn't stood up yet.

"Todd." I wanted to ask, but my voice came out in a breathy desperate whisper.

"I can't say no to that. Fuck." He cursed out loud. Then he grabbed my hips steady and brought his face into my pussy.

His thick beard grazed against my sensitive lips. It felt like they were burning from the roughness and friction. Then his tongue started flicking my clit. I couldn't contain my voice. I cried out in pleasure as my pussy was eaten out by this man.

"You taste so good." Todd growled into my sex. He ate me savagely without reservation. I had just been turned into a woman for a day and already I was experiencing their utmost pleasures.

Todd spread open my lips, pushing his tongue deeper into me. His fingers traced the engorged area outside my vagina making me weak in the knees.

"Todd. Todd. Todd." I cried out in succession. I couldn't take it anymore. It felt so good. My whole body trembled. And then it flooded open.

I was hit with a white hot brand of searing pleasure. It coursed through entire body, before flooding out in a liquid that coated Todd's face. His tongue was absolutely relentless eating me out until my aftershocks subsided. I had never felt such a powerful orgasm in my life. I collapsed on the floor into his powerful arms.

He caressed my hip and face. I felt his hard cock poking into my leg. And then suddenly I knew what I had to do for this man who would give me everything.

Chapter Five

"Are you alright Dani?" Todd asked me. He caressed my face softly.

"I am." I answered him. I was laying there in only a bra and panties. This big jock of man was holding me in his arms. It felt so good to be held.

"I'm sorry I couldn't help myself. You just smell so good as a woman. I couldn't stop myself." Todd said to me. He still saw me as his best friend and roommate.

I needed to change that. It was time to get over my old feelings. I was a woman now. And I needed to go after what I wanted.

"Don't be sorry Todd. I wanted it too." I slowly pulled myself away from his arms. I reached for his thick cock and squeezed it. Through his thin basketball shorts, I felt the his hot thick rod.

"Dani. What are you doing?" He swallowed. I saw the sweat drip down his magnificent body.

"I want to make you feel good like you did to me." I bent over and licked the sweat drop over his muscular abs and up his chest. I stopped midway until our mouths were only an inch apart. My lips parted open as I felt his breath caress my lips.

He just sat there shocked by my brazen attitude. I pressed my breast against his chest. I felt his heart beat rapidly.

Then he grabbed the back of my head and pulled me close. His kiss was anything but tender. His beard scratched my new soft skin. He opened my mouth with his thick tongue, completely dominating me.

I had to pull away to gasp for air. Suddenly his mouth was on my neck, nuzzling and nipping at its length. I had to hold on to his massive shoulders for support. He was making me feel so good with that expert tongue. No wonder all the women he had, always begged him to take them back.

I ground my body against his hard chiseled form. There was so much muscle, I felt like I was grinding against warm hard rock. He reached down to my breasts. He squeezed them in his hands. He rubbed my nipples through the bra with his thumbs.

"God Dani. You have the most beautiful boobs in the world." Todd growled at me. He pressed them together, fondling every inch of them. Then he yanked my bra free, ripping off the brand new lingerie of my body.

I squeaked in surprise, as he just destroyed the expensive piece of intimate wear. He saw me looking at them.

"I'll buy you a new one. I'll buy you a hundred if it means I get to rip them off your body each day." Todd's primal growl filled me with excitement. Todd just went for everything he wanted like the alpha male he was. And right now, I knew he wanted me.

He sucked my nipples into his mouth. He flicked the hard numbs with his tongue. He sucked me so hard I wondered if milk would start coming out. It made me feels so good, I was grinding against his thigh. My pussy was leaking so much, I could glide my pussy all over his leg without friction.

Then I realized he was pleasuring me all over again. It was supposed to be my turn to serve this wonderful man.

"Todd. I want..." I threw my head back in pleasure as I felt his fingers touch my clit. He was making me feel so good. While his two fingers played with the tiny bead, his thumb was rubbing circle over my inners folds. I couldn't contain my ecstatic moans of pleasure.

"What do you want Dani? I'll give you everything." Todd's voice was deep and primal. It made me forget everything in my head narrowing my focus down to him. He kept teasing me and playing with my sex.

Finally in the fog of lust, I found my voice.

"I want to suck your big cock. I want to swallow your cum. I need you inside me." I cried out as he inserted a finger inside me. I didn't know where all these new feminine feelings were coming from. I had never wanted to be taken before. But right now it didn't matter. There was a big cock near me and I needed it inside me. It didn't matter which hole he would take.

"Fuck yes. On your knees." Todd pushed me off his lap. He spread his legs open, giving me an unhindered view to his massive erection and enormous bull balls.

I was stupid to think I had ever been a man like him. I had always been the weaker and inferior one. It was just right that I turned into a woman. At least now I could be his equal and fulfill his desires properly as his hole.

I grabbed his thick member with both hands. I had been wrong. Two hands weren't enough to cover everything. His head still popped out. I bent down and took it into my mouth.

The spongy bulbous head was salty with precum. The head alone stretched my tiny mouth wide. I had to strain my lips to fit all of it in my mouth. I only had the tip inside. I needed to look up wondering if what I was doing felt good. I knew so little. I didn't want to disappoint this man who gave me everything.

"Good girl Dani. Take it all in. If you can't fit in your mouth, I'll just have to settle for your pussy." Todd caressed my face. He grabbed my chin and pulled it lower. It allowed me to swallow more of his thick cock in my throat.

I opened my mouth as big as I could. He pushed more of his cock into me. I got all the way in before it reached the end of my throat. Then my gag reflex kicked in and I had to pull out.

“Good first try. Most women can’t take me that far. But you’re special aren’t you Dani.” Todd caressed my face sweetly. His approval for me made pleasure blossom in my body. I was serving him well.

I eagerly decided to try again. I stroked his cock while I swallowed the head. I didn’t want any part of him left unattended. I applied suction to give him more pleasure, hollowing out my cheeks for his big cock. I heard him grunt as he thrust into my face.

“That’s it. Swallow me more.” Todd had his hands at the back of my head pushing me to swallow more of his cock with each bob. My mouth felt so full of him.

It was hard to breath but it felt so good my pussy was becoming wet again. I needed more of him inside me.

I held onto his muscular thighs for support, and then angle my throat to get the bulbous head past my throat.

“Oh fuck yeah. You’re so tight.” Todd threw his head back in pleasure. His magnificent muscles flexed in front of me.

Even with my new position I still couldn’t take him completely. I kept bobbing up and down, trying to relax my throat. He had gone down on me. I couldn’t fail him.

I eagerly swallowed more of his cock. I was able to get him all the way in my throat. I swallowed the whole length of it and pulled it out, letting my tight throat drag across its girth.

Todd suddenly stopped me from sucking him.

“You’re a cock hungry slut aren’t you. I want to try something else before I cum all the way down your throat.” Todd growled at me.

I nodded excitedly at him. I would do anything for this man. I rubbed myself wantonly against my fingers.

Todd grinned at me. He slapped his thick cock all over my face. He thrust it inside my mouth all the way to my soft cheeks. He was teasing not letting me swallow him whole. And then he stepped back and slapped my breast with thick stick.

I shivered in pleasure. My soft boobs jiggled with each blow. It was the ultimate show of dominance, his powerful cock marking my feminine breasts.

“That’s it. Lay on the bed and squeezed them together.” Todd ordered me.

I hopped on his bed. I reveled in the powerful smell of his pillows and sheets. This was everything I didn’t know I wanted. He suddenly straddled my body. With him on top and his bed on the bottom, I was completely enveloped by his presence. Everywhere I turned, I was only reminded of Todd. It made so wet, I just knew touching my pussy once would make me climax. I had to think of him first.

I squeezed my big breasts together, pushing the two mounds against each other. Then Todd pushed his thick cock in between them. He started thrusting against me. His hot thick rod in between my breasts. It felt so good and sexy.

“So soft. I knew your boobs were big enough for me to do this. So fucking good.” Todd grunted as he fucked my chest.

I whimpered as I watched his dick push and pull out my boobs. His hard thick man flesh was a stark contrast to my weighty but soft boobs. His cock was pushing in and out of me. It looked like a snake preparing to attack me. I needed it in my mouth.

I opened wide, and pushed the tip in. I earned a moan of approval that made me suck harder. Todd’s grunt and groans elicited a pavlovian response in me to work harder. I finally understood why I was turned into a woman. I was made to serve this powerful man.

“You want my cum Dani?” Todd thrusts became quick and urgent.

I nodded at him before taking it the head back into my mouth.

His long stokes turned into short urgent ruts. His hips pounded into my boobs like a jackhammer. And then he stiffened.

Warm fluid flew out from his cock and hit the back of my throat. It made gag, causing me to release his cock. It erupted in a symphony of white fluid, smearing my face and breasts with huge amounts of his seed.

I hungrily tried capture it all in my mouth but failed. I was soon covered in his sticky goo. I lapped it all up hungrily. I didn’t want to waste any of it.

“So hungry for my seed.” Todd growled at me. He began wiping his thick cock all over my body using it to collect his sperm. He then stuffed his cock back in my mouth to clean.

I accepted everything he offered me. He was helping me become the woman I was always meant to be. I sucked on his cock until it was completely clean. It had gotten soft but quickly handed under my mouth.

“Satisfied now slut?” Todd asked me. There was now a change in our dynamic. I was no longer his roommate and best friend. He didn't see me as Danny anymore. Now I was Dani.

I liked the change. It filled my body with heat. I had to reach down to touch myself again.

Todd just laughed at me as he saw my fingers.

"Whatever happened to you made you really horny huh?" He teased me. He swiped his dick over my lips.

I parted them automatically wanting to swallow the head. But he pulled his cock.

"That's enough for tonight. We have a lot to think about for tomorrow." Todd announced effectively ending any play we had left.

I was disappointed but I trusted him. I climbed out of his bed and headed to mine. Suddenly I realized I was more tired than I had ever been. Sex really took out my energy reserves.

"Where are you going?" Todd asked me. He laid down on the bed and patted the spot beside him.

I happily skipped over to him. He pulled me into a tight embrace and spooned me from behind. His thick cock nestled into my ass.

"This is where you belong now."

Chapter Six

The next morning, I awoke with Todd's powerful arms around me. He was still asleep. But one part of him was definitely awake. It was poking at my ass.

I knew I had lots of things to do. Most importantly, I needed to get my old body back. But when there was a thick cock poking through my ass, I couldn't think of anything else. I needed to have it inside me. There was a primal need encoded in my genetics to take out the sperm inside. It was affecting my brain making me unable to think. Even the transformation had done that to me.

I moved away from Todd's massive body. I took a moment to admire his powerful form. Then I pulled the blankets over his thick cock. It stood straight up proudly. I looked at Todd. He had rolled onto his back but was still blissfully asleep.

It was time to return the favor. And to be honest, I really wanted his thick cock in my mouth. I wrapped my plump lips over his head. I didn't understand how I could take a cock into my mouth without disgust. Before yesterday, I was a full-blooded heterosexual male. But now in the body of a woman, my urges were to service this powerful man.

I swirled my tongue over his bulbous cockhead. I explored the ridges underneath. A burst of salt filled my mouth as his precum finally appeared. I hungrily swallowed more of him into my mouth. Now that I was controlling the pace completely, I could take more and more of him in.

Todd grunted lifted his hips slightly. He must have been having an excellent dream.

I swallowed more of his cock. I let my hands roam his powerful muscles. Although I had been a skinny man, I never had abs like his. Todd's eight pack was like a cheese grater all hard muscle even when he was asleep. I wanted to lick them and rub my face all over them. But I wanted to that to his cock more. I managed to swallow all the way down to the base.

It felt so good to accomplish the task. My whole face was stuffed with my man. I never felt so fulfilled in my life. I pulled out as my throat became sore. With enough practice I could give him the deep throat fuck he deserved.

Todd was a heavy sleeper not noticing my actions. When I was done with him, he would be climaxing himself awake.

I played with huge pendulous balls to give my mouth a break. I sucked each testicle in my mouth and rolled it with my tongue. Even they felt massive. My nerdy tiny balls were no match for his. Maybe I was better as a woman. As a man, I was too small and frail to be any useful. Maybe I didn't need to change back.

Todd would give me everything I ever wanted. All I needed was his cock to live. I could live happily.

I quickly shook the thought out of my head. It was probably the hormones just talking. But I still wanted to swallow his cum.

His big cock stood up pointing to the ceiling. It was engorged red, throbbing like a beating hard.

I swallowed the entire thing and bobbed my head up and down. I combined the suction of my mouth with the tightness of my throat.

Soon Todd's hip began thrusting upwards. He was definitely coming awake now.

"What? Dani?" Todd grunted. He suddenly grabbed my face and forced me down his cock. He held me tight preventing me from pulling away.

His cock throbbed inside my throat. And soon my gullet was flooded with his sperm. He held my head tight, forcing me to swallow his sperm. It felt so good to be used and taken like that. If the rest of my life were like this I wouldn't complain.

Finally his orgasm subsided, letting me free.

I pulled off his cock. I didn't have to wipe my mouth. I hadn't leaked a single drop of his sperm.

"Did you swallow all that?" Todd asked blearily. He was still waking up.

I opened my mouth wide, letting him inspect it. I swallowed everything.

"Damn Dani. You're so fucking hot. What a way to wake up." Todd grinned at me. He put his hands at the back of his head. It showed off his bulky biceps and triceps. His hairy pits were on display.

I placed my hands on hard pecs and leaned my head onto them. "I only reserve the best for you."

We stayed like that for minute. The both our alarms rang.

"I'm going to be late for class. You'll have to come to all my classes today. I already skipped all of mine yesterday. You'll have to pretend to be my girlfriend for now." Todd announced without asking my opinion.

I loved how he took decisive action and took charge of everything. In this period of confusion, it was exactly what I needed.

I put on a simple off shoulder dress he picked for me. I even had a strappy sandal. It showed off my breasts and legs perfectly.

When Todd saw me, I swear I thought he would rip the dress off me in desire.

"You look amazing. Too amazing in fact." Todd frowned at my outfit. He tossed me his letterman jacket and a pair of tights.

It covered me up perfectly. I loved how his jacket smelled.

"Better. Now only I can see your beautiful skin."

I blushed realizing how possessive Todd was being of me. It felt amazing to be wanted and protected. I realized I didn't feel so alone anymore. Todd was giving me his full attention.

When we walked out the door, he had his arm around my waist.

All throughout the day, people were glancing at me. I was the center of attention for once. Usually this would make nervous as hell, but with Todd blocking everyone and acting like my personal bodyguard, I felt invincible.

I relished in the attention and admiration. I wasn't invisible anymore. People were actually looking up to talk to me. I loved the feeling.

I even flirted with some of the guys. These were the same guys who would make jokes about my small stature and skinny body. They would laugh at me in front of my face and behind Todd's back. Now they were hanging onto every single word I said. Each and every one of them asked for my number. They wanted me so bad they would do anything for me. I felt so powerful.

"She's mine." Todd growled once the attention became too overt. I was supposed to be his girlfriend after all. His friends backed off but didn't stop ogling me. "Sorry about that."

Todd pulled me tighter to his body. I could feel his body from how close we were walking together. And suddenly those other boys didn't matter. Todd had been there for me when I was a man and he was there for me as a woman. He's the only one who deserved me at my best.

I traced my finger over his thick bulky chest. Then I grabbed his hand and moved it to grab my bare asscheek in front of everyone. I wanted everyone to know who I belonged to. I wanted them to be jealous of me.

"I don't mind." I licked Todd's ear. He squeezed my ass tightly making me gasp in pleasure.

"I think we should go back to my room." Todd said breathily.

I was about to agree with him when I saw Brigitte. She was looking straight at me with a knowing smile. And somehow, I just knew she had something to do with my transformation. It wasn't a coincidence that she started talking to me the first day after I transformed.

And as if reading my thoughts, my phone buzzed. It was a text from her. She wanted to meet at her dorm room right now.

I looked back at her. She had caught me looking at my phone just as she had texted the old me. She did know.

Brigitte flipped her hair and walked away.

I quickly pulled Todd aside and explained my suspicions about Brigitte.

"That seems farfetched." Todd pointed out.

I knew it didn't make sense but my new womanly instincts were pointing me in her direction. I just knew she had something to do with it.

"She knows. And I'm sure she can change me back." I said. Somehow the words didn't sound as strong as I wanted. Did I really want to change back? My life was so much better now that I was a woman.

"Of course. To change you back." Todd stroked my hip. There was a little sadness in his voice. "Do you need me to be your back-up? She might have some weird shit going on if she is connected."

"I think I can handle it. I was touched by his concern." I was about to stand to leave when he suddenly grabbed my wrist. His hands were so much bigger than my thin arms. "What is it?"

Todd looked at me intensely. He suddenly pulled me into his arms and kissed me hard. The kiss was mind-blowing, it was desperate, passionate and full of fire. Todd was claiming me with his entire body.

I found myself laid back on the bed with this mountain of a man pinning me down with all his strength. I've never felt so safe and wanted in my life.

"Just in case you come back and decide you don't want this anymore. I had to take my shot." Todd said breathily to me. His hard cock was nestled right against my pussy. "No matter what you decide, I'm here for you."

Todd pulled off me. His face was red from exertion. He had to readjust his massive cock in his pants.

I wanted to forget everything about Brigitte and just have him fuck me. But there were still parts of me that needed to know.

"Thank you for everything Todd." I stood on my tiptoes and kissed him hard. I would never forget the kindness he showed me no matter the outcome.

His arms were all over my body. He held me tightly as if he wouldn't let go. I was filled with the scent and presence of him.

My phone buzzed and I knew who was texting.

“Go. Figure this thing out. If you don’t come back my midnight, I’ll go Rambo and save your ass.” Todd grinned at. He was probably joking but I had no doubts he would do that for me.

I fixed myself up. I couldn’t look like I had just been devoured by a man. Todd snickered as he watched me attempt to fix my hair and smeared lipstick.

I looked at myself one more time in the mirror. I really had changed so much. I could still see the nerdy little boy I used to be. But on top of it was a new confident woman. This new me was so much more confident in her own skin. I actually felt powerful and wanted. For the first time in my life, I felt right.

I was now a beautiful woman with voluptuous breasts, long legs and a thick ass. My small features were now delicate and pretty. I was just so much more striking in this form than I had ever been before.

Would I need to give this feeling up if I changed back? Did I even want to change back?

I sucked in the breath. I wouldn’t know the answer until I met Brigitte. I opened the door and headed to her dorm room. This one decision could change my entire life. I could feel my pulse pounding as I walked across the quadrangle.

I just knew deep in my gut that this night would change me forever.

Chapter Seven

I had no problem whatsoever entering the all female dorm room. I had a small moment panic wondering how I could enter since I was a man. Then I realized I was currently in a woman's body. Nobody even so much as batted an eyelash as I entered.

The female dorms were so much cleaner and better kept than the male dorms. Everything smelled nicer. There were lots of tasteful decorations on the walls and the common areas to make it feel a little more homey. Women did have it a lot better.

I thought I would be weirded out being surrounded by so much women, but I felt right where I belonged. They looked at me like I was one of their own. Numerous innocent compliments flew my way. I returned them with equal measure. I had been there a total of three minutes and already I felt the bond of sisterhood.

Brigitte's room was at the top floor at the end of the hallway. The door even had her name on it.

"Hey its me." I didn't actually know what to say my name was. Danny had been a man.

"Come in." Her voice was soft and melodic.

"Hey." I greeted her shyly. I tucked my long hair away from my face. I realized at some point in my transformation my unkept messy locks turned into beautiful silky straight hair.

"It is you." She smiled at me. She approached me, barely keeping any distance from me. She touched my face, my lips and my breasts. "You look so good."

"Thank you." I gasped. Her fingers were rubbing my nipples making them pebble under my shirt. She was the first woman who ever touched in my life. It felt so good.

For a time I just stood there unaware of what to do. Brigitte seemed content to circle me and touch me everywhere. It felt like she was assessing my body.

"How do you feel?" She asked. She pulled me down to sit on her bed.

"I feel great actually. Everything is lighter and easier." I admitted to her. I still hadn't admitted that I used to be Danny. And I still hadn't asked her how she knew. But all of that seemed irrelevant when she asked me how I felt. That seemed to be the bigger question.

"So you like feeling this way." Her hand fell on my knee. It rubbed my inner thighs softly causing them to part open. Her fingers stroked higher and higher, until they were just right outside my panties. "You don't miss having a penis at all."

"Only sometimes. Peeing is a bitch." I admitted. So far that had been my only gripe about being a woman. I had to sit on toilet bowls all the time which was icky. The only benefit was that women's toilets were much cleaner.

"I'm glad." Brigitte leaned in pressing her own breast against my arms.

"Do you know what's happening to me?" I asked her feeling a little breathless.

Brigitte smiled at me enigmatically. She stood up and picked out a photo album from her table. She handed it to me.

It felt like I was opening a forbidden book. My fingers literally shook as I flipped open the page. Then I saw Brigitte. Except she was a he. If I didn't know any better, I would have thought she was showing me pictures of her brother.

As a man, Brigitte was exactly like me. Plain, boring and average. There was nothing remarkable about his face. He wasn't ugly or handsome. He was just dull.

But as I flipped through the pages. Brigitte was suddenly a woman. And she looked so much more vibrant and engaging. The poses were the same but there was just something special about her.

"I ordered the pills too." Brigitte said to me. "I used to be like you."

"Am I a woman forever?" I knew there should have been fear in my voice. But instead it sounded more like relief.

"You can be. I ordered the same pills from the website. I've seen this happen to others as well. If you want, you can change back. All you have to do is to stop taking the pills." Brigitte explained.

I blanched in shock. I could no longer find that website. My supply was only limited to thirty days of which I had already used up some of them. I was doomed to turn back into a man. I should have felt relief but instead I felt fear.

A stark realization hit me. I liked myself so much better like this. I felt so much stronger and more wanted.

"What can I do?" I asked her desperately. My mission had changed. Instead of wanting to turn back, I now wanted to stay like this.

"That's easy Dani." Brigitte said my name with a feminine tilt. The change to her pronunciation was so small but it mattered so much. "You just have to get a man to cum inside you. Semen will seal the change in your hormones forever. If you do this, there is no turning back." Brigitte warned me.

“Did you do it?” I asked her. I had known her for a few months. Was she surviving on the pills this whole time?

“Yes. After I finished my last pill, I realized I wanted to be this way forever. I have some friends who chose to turn back into men. They realized it wasn’t for them after all. Take time with your decision. You have more than enough time to realize what you truly want.” She said to me.

I had thirty days to decide my life.

We parted with a hug. She told she would help in every way she can. She even offered to connect me with those who decided to turn back.

As far as the website went, she knew nothing about it. It had just appeared to him like it had for me. And like me, it disappeared when she had questions. Only a small print of the pill bottle told her the effects of semen.

Chapter Eight

It was really late by the time I arrived at my dorm room. I had talked to Brigitte about a living as the opposite sex. It didn't make my decision any easier. She had no regrets but most of the people who took the pills transformed back.

I opened my door quietly not wanting to wake Todd up. To my surprise the light was still open. He had been waiting all night for me.

"How was it?" Todd stood up when he saw me. He immediately towered over me as he closed the gap between us. His hands immediately went to my waist.

I gravitated towards his large body naturally.

"I can turn back into a man." I answered him. I didn't feel like explaining the rest of the details.

"Oh." For a brief second, there was clear disappointment in his eyes. He managed to correct his expression. He brought out one of his bright smiles. "That's great news, I get to see my little buddy again."

He pulled away from me then. He started ruffling my hair like he used to do. It wasn't the interaction I wanted. It felt so much better when he was holding me.

"And hey, if you still want to suck my cock after, I don't mind." Todd gave me a lewd and playful grin.

And at that moment in the space of his warmth, there was nothing more that I wanted to do.

"Since I don't have to decide now, maybe I should suck you off. While I still have these babies." I grinned at him. I pushed my arms across my chest making my breasts expand exponentially.

I could see his eyes bulge out of his face. His squeezed my waist tightly. The tent in his shorts grew bigger.

This was the reaction I wanted from him.

I fell to my knees and rubbed my face all over his thick cock. The silky fabric of his basketball shorts felt so good on my skin. His manly musk was making my pussy wet. I loved the smell of man.

Maybe after all this time, I wasn't jealous of his body. Maybe I just wanted to touch it for myself.

"You're so beautiful babe." Todd said to me. He ran his fingers through my long hair. He was claiming me for himself. Even if the world didn't want me, I belonged to someone.

I couldn't wait for his cock any longer. I pulled his shorts down revealing his thick cock. I swallowed the entire length of it down my throat. I loved the heavy feel of it in my mouth. The cock was so rigid and hard. I had nothing like that left in my own body. I was the soft to his hard. We were yin and yang.

I bobbed my head up and down his length. He pulled on my hair taking full control of me. I was a hole for him to use as he wished. It felt so good to let go. I was putty in his hands.

He started thrusting his hips into and out of my mouth. His speed was faster than before making me gag. But my throat could take it. I just held onto his muscular legs for support as he skull-fucked me.

"You feel so good and tight babe." Todd cooed at me. He really appreciated what I was doing for him.

I vibrated my throat around him and then swirled my tongue over the length of his cock. I wanted to service this man who was giving me everything. It was my duty as his woman.

Then Todd suddenly pulled away, just as I felt his glutes tighten.

"Don't want this to be over yet." He suddenly lifted me into the air and tossed me into his bed. He ripped my new clothes off my body like a barbarian.

I squealed in surprise and helplessness. He was going to ravish me. My pussy was soaking wet.

He parted my legs open quickly, Then he buried his face in my snatch. His beard tickled the soft sensitive skin of my inner thigh. That alone was enough to make my entire body arc in pleasure.

I felt him inhale my womanly scent. He hadn't used his tongue yet. Instead he was savoring my aroma just like I did with him. His breath was tickling my pussy making my mind go blank with pleasure. I had never felt anything so intense and intimate in my life.

I was wrong.

The minute he flicked his tongue at my clit, my whole body suddenly went to white. It was unlike anything I ever experienced as a man. I thought this being the second time, I would get used to the sensation. But if anything it felt even more intense than before.

My legs spread on the their own accord as he tongued my pussy. He greedily ate me out as if I was some exotic delicacy. All my speech was reduced to incomprehensible whimpers and moans. Hearing those sounds only made him go wilder and hungrier for me. He stretched me apart with his thick tongue.

I grabbed at him tightly when the sheets weren't enough. I pushed him deeper into me. I felt so good but I needed more. I could feel sensation burning up inside my body. This was nothing like having an orgasm as a man. This was so much more intense.

“I want to fuck you.” Todd pushed himself off me. He looked at me intently with those deep blue eyes.

“Yes.” I whimpered.

He inserted one finger into my pussy stretching me open.

My flew wide open at the intrusion. I had never in my life had anything put inside me before. It felt so invasive. But when I saw Todd watching my expressions. I knew it was the right thing to do. The discomfort slowly transformed itself to a different feeling. I couldn’t quite understand why it was making me squirm so much.

“More.” My voice was a desperate cry. I wanted to feel more things filling me up inside.

Todd inserted another one of his thick fingers inside me. My walls clamped tightly around him. It felt overwhelming.

“Easy there. Just relax and take it slow. I’ll make sure your good and ready before I do anything.” Todd kissed my clit making me shiver in pleasure. I could trust him to take care of me and my new body

“More.” I gasped again. Two fingers weren’t enough. I wanted something bigger inside me. I wanted his thick mighty cock pushed into my body. The yearning to be filled was unquenchable. I was a woman and I needed to be fucked hard.

“That’s right. Don’t be shy. Scream all you want.” Todd licked his lips. He flicked his tongue at my clit stimulating me as he fucked me with three fingers.

He was relentless at his assault on my sex. The liquid heat pouring into my belly was overwhelming my senses. My voice had been reduced to a loud gasp of pleasure. The stretch felt so good that I didn’t feel any pain at all. I was even jerking my hips to meet his fingers, willing them to go deeper into my body.

Todd had complete control over my entire body. Then he pulled his fingers out and aimed his cock at my entrance. Even though he stretched me out, the blunt head of his cock was still thicker and much fatter than his three fingers. His cock was a monster that would rip me apart. It would be the biggest thing I had ever taken inside my body. I wanted it so badly my pussy was soaked in its juices. I spread my folds open awaiting his powerful member.

But before he put it inside me, I remembered Brigitte’s words. If I let myself be fucked, I would forever stay as a woman.

“Wait.” I gasped out loud.

Todd stopped on top of me. His cock was aimed at my entrance. I could feel the heat from his cock against me. I just wanted him to push into me and stretch me wide open. I wanted him so bad.

His massive muscular body was on top of me. He looked so strong and masculine. There was no better man to take my virginity. It was the perfect moment.

But I needed to think about this carefully. If I let Todd fuck me, there would be no going back. I would forever be a woman.

I grabbed hold of my soft breasts and touched my slick pussy. This is the body I would have for life. Everyone would treat me as they had in the past few days. They would fawn over my beauty and confidence. Girls wanted to be me while all the men would want to have me.

If I was a man, I was just like every other ignored geek in the world. I would go back to being that unsatisfied person I used to be.

Danny would disappear and be replaced with Dani.

There really wasn’t a decision at all.

“Please fuck me.” I said to Todd.

“We should get condoms.” Todd growled. He pressed his thick cock at my entrance. He teased my folds with his thick dick making me squirm around him. He didn’t make any movements to get the condoms.

“I want to feel you bare.” I gasped. His cock felt so hot inside me. I didn’t want anything between us. “I want you to cum inside me.”

Todd let out a primal growl. He grabbed my hips and then pushed inside.

His thick cock stretched me open.

“Oh my god.” I cried out as my body arched upwards at the invasion. Todd pulled me close to his body letting me stabilize against his strong muscles.

“You feel so good baby. Your pussy is so tight.” He started kissing my neck. He slowly eased me into the entire length of his cock.

“I’m so full.” I gasped as his cock stretched all my inner walls. This was what being a woman was all about. I would never experience this kind of pleasure as a man. This was so much better than anything I could have imagined.

“I’m all the way in baby.” Todd’s voice was deep and powerful. It made my entire body tingle. I gripped my body tight around his cock causing him to grunt in pleasure.

I was ready for more.

He pulled his cock until only the tip was left in me, and then he slammed back in. I grabbed hold onto his back as the pace increased. With each glide of his cock he was hitting that delicious spot of pleasure that was driving me wild. I needed him to go faster and deeper into me. I felt so good.

He kept pumping into me, rutting like man on a mission. I held onto him tightly. Masturbation had nothing on what real sex was like. There was so much skin, sweat and friction involved. There didn't seem to be an end to the pleasure pooling in my body. It just kept building and building and building.

"You're the best Dani." Todd grunted. All his big muscles were flexing as he pumped into me. "I'm getting close babe."

"Give it to me." I gasped. He plunged into me one last time.

Then it hit me. Just as I felt his warm seed pour into my womb my whole body started shuddering in pleasure. I was seized by a kaleidoscope of indescribable intensity. My brain turned to mush as my climax wracked my entire body.

Todd kept thrusting his penis into me through the aftershock of my pleasure. His cum gushed out of his cock making me impossibly fuller.

His heavy body collapsed on top of me. His cock was still rock hard inside of me.

I could feel his sperm inside my body.

I just knew then that the transformation was complete.

I was a woman forever.

Chapter Nine

“Oh my god. Do you think he’s cute?” Brigitte asked me. We were at a cafe with everyone watching us. We were always the center of attention. We were the most beautiful people in the world.

“I think you could do better.” I said honestly. Her current crush was this run of the mill jock. He was typically handsome with a great body. His intelligence did leave a lot to be desired.

“I haven’t been fucked in so long.” Brigitte whined. By her definition, so long was probably just a week or a day, depending on her mood. She was even more insatiable than I was. Brigitte loved cock. It didn’t matter what kind, she just wanted her pussy to be filled with cum.

Thankfully I didn’t have her problems. I had a constant steady supply.

“I’m going for it. You’ll be alright on your own?” Brigitte asked me politely. She had been a woman far longer than I had. She knew how to pretend better.

It has been a few months since my transformation was completed. I was still getting used to my new life as a woman. There was a lot of things to get used to. I had to build an entirely new identity and buy an entirely new wardrobe.

Fortunately, those things were easy to come by when you were a gorgeous woman. I managed to bribe a local government clerk to put me into the system. Everyone just fawned over me and granted me attention. I was even sure I could get a rich man to pay for my lifestyle. The world was my oyster.

“Dani. Babe.” Todd came to pick me up. He had been with me every step of the way. The perfect handsome rich quarterback of a boyfriend was mine. He was completely devoted to me, buying everything I wanted and needed.

“Hey you.” I walked over to him after bidding Brigitte farewell. She gave me the stink eye for landing someone so hot and sexy. She could never snatch him away from my fingers.

“Have a good day?” He asked me. His hand immediately found their way to my ass. He squeezed them tightly. He inserted a finger up my skirt. I knew exactly what he wanted from me.

Sex was one thing I didn’t have to worry about.

“Yes. It was fun.” I pressed my body up against him. Like Brigitte, my sex drive was insatiable. I was always horny.

“They boys are waiting by the house. They can’t wait to get their hands on you.” Todd whispered into my ear. Although Todd was my main man, he wasn’t enough for me.

I recruited his some member of football team of young handsome fit and rich athletes. They had become my personal harem serving all of my needs. I was especially picky only getting the one that were at the top of the food chain.

Sometimes I let Brigitte borrow a few of my boys. But at the end of the day, they all belonged to me.

“Did you find out anything new?” He asked me on the way to the house. His hand was rubbing my thigh, getting me warmed up for the main event.

“No news is always good news.” I answered him.

Brigitte and I had tried to find more information about the pills that changed us. There wasn’t a lot to check up on. The website we both used didn’t give us any new leads. We also kept an eye out for any potential transformation. But so far, nothing had come out. We mostly met to talk about girl stuff. She was one of my girl friends.

I loved being a woman. There was so much things I could like buy dresses and heels. I could apply make-up and hard dye to change how I look. I didn’t have to work as long as I had men supporting me. I had felt so much more free and alive. I didn’t regret turning into a woman for even one second.

“They’re waiting for you.” Todd told me as I entered our apartment.

I had four other men who belonged in my harem. They were standing by the door completely naked, cocks already standing at attention. They all wanted a taste of my pussy.

They were all waiting for me to decide and pick them. Besides Todd, none of them had any say when they would have me. I was the one with all the power.

I slid off my top, giving them a tantalizing view of breasts. Immediately I saw their hard erections pulse and leak precum. I loved having that effect on men.

“I’m feeling generous Todd. Feel like sharing.” I asked my boyfriend. I let his hands roam around my body much to the jealousy of everyone in the room.

“Whatever you want babe.” Todd kissed me on the neck inhaling my scent. Nothing mattered to him as long as he could have me. I felt his hard cock pressing against my ass.

“Everyone follow me to the bedroom. I need a workout today.” I grinned at my boys. They all followed me like eager puppies.

They all went at my body at the same time. Half a dozen mouths worshipped my beautiful womanhood as their temple. I reached for a cock and sucked it into my mouth. Todd took my pussy while another filled my ass. It was the best kind of sex to be filled from so many positions at once. They other didn't stop either. They licked my clit and sucked on my breasts. These men were here to satisfy me their queen.

I came so many times I dropped back onto the bed exhausted. Still I had more stamina than the men who were all asleep boneless. I had conquered all of them.

My pussy and ass was dripping cum yet I still wasn't satisfied. Maybe it was time to add another boy into my collection. It didn't cost me much effort.

As a woman, I could do anything I wanted.
