No Choice for Allen

By BC

Allen and his sister Alice had a wonderful life as kids. They had successful parents, who were both lawyers with the ability to provide them anything that they wanted. They had the best of everything, as they lived in a very upscale neighborhood and went to the best schools. Allen was 10 years old and Alice was 12 years old. They wore only the latest styles in clothes and their house was one of the biggest on their street. They had a maid, a head butler and a nanny that had been with the family since Alice was born. They loved Beth their nanny as she watched over them as a Mother hen.

Both kids were smart and did very well in school. They were just beginning to find their way in what interested them most in extra circulars. Alice chose the clarinet while Allen with help from Mom was taking up the piano. Both participated in the school band and loved it.

Alice inherited her father's genes and was tall and dark haired while Allen much to his chagrin inherited his mother's genes and was rather small and blonde headed with a face that was way too cute for a boy, and when they were alone Alice loved to play dress up and she could make Allen look almost angelic with very little effort.

Things were great for the Lanes, and as promised to make up for all the times that Mom and Dad were away from home tied up with this case or that. They were headed on a spring break family vacation, just the four of them.

They packed up and left the next day for the Virgin Islands. They went island hopping visiting the lessor populated tourist traps. They did manage to scuba dive in the sparkling blue green waters and collect shells along the shores of the beaches. They ate out at the best restaurants and all worked on their tans. It didn't take long in the hot spring sun to develop some major tan lines. The kids watched the huge cruise ships coming into port with thousands of passengers on them, waiting to come to shore.

Then suddenly without unloading the ships all headed back out to sea. Dad asked around and found out that there was a rouge storm kicking up without warning. He didn't see this coming as there was no storms predicted. The man told Dad that they should find shelter. He asked where the shelters were, and he got a jeep to take them to the closest one. One after another they tried only to find out that they were packed to the max and there was no room. "Will you take the children and we will find another place."

"Yes I think that we can squeeze the little kids in, but, I'm so sorry that if you came too we wouldn't be able to even close the storm doors."

"We'll go with you Daddy, we want to stick together." Alice begged. "No honey you go here now and I'll be back for you soon. This will all blow over fast and then we'll be together again." Dad told her and rushed back to the Jeep and they took off and Allen and Alice never saw their parents again. The jeep no sooner pulled away when the giant 25 foot wave washed them away and as the wave retreated it took the Lanes back out to sea never to be found again.

The kids had no money or ID's, and didn't know what to do. They walked for days to all of the shelters through the debris, hungry and thirsty looking for their parents but, without any luck at all. People here on the island all tried to help each other out and it was this spirit of kindness that saved the kids' lives. They were given food and water and these people helped look for their Mom and Dad with no luck.

It was three days later that the Red Cross showed up and began helping the injured and hungry. They brought in Machines to help dig the mostly destroyed building that lay in a heap on the ground.

Finally, Alice got the attention of a Red Cross nurse and told her that they were from LA and were here on Vacation and that they haven't been able to find their parents since the storm.

The Nurse addressed their scrapes and bruises and then got Allen and Alice something to eat as she filled out a profile on each of them. Where did they live, did they have anyone back home? Grandparents, Aunts or Uncles, older brothers or sisters? The nurse then checked out their stories and found that they had no one back home. She made arrangements to fly the kids back home, and for now they were placed in foster care shelter with several other kids. It took a while but, was finally decided that the very expensive house would be sold and divided in a trust fund for each of them to be paid out on their 25th birthday.

This was the first time that they lived in the way other unfortunate kids had to live. They lost all the luxury's they'd been born into and had until this time in their lives. No more pampering nannies, no servants, on million dollar home with their own rooms and bathrooms. Yes it was going to be quiet an adjustment for each of them. They got in their share of trouble and fights with others never having to live a normal life, or one like many of these underprivileged kids. The other kids also resented them for the spoiled lives that they were born into.

Weeks and then months went by and the two Lanes children still resented having to wear good will or hand me down clothes, or the fact that they couldn't go to their own school, and had to be home schooled like the rest of them by the head mistress here at the orphanage.

Then one day Ms. Withers called them into her office. There was a handsome man dressed well and a pretty lady sitting there. They were introduced and it was explained to Alice and Allen that the Kelly's wished to take them home on a trial bases through foster care and if it worked out.....adopt them!

Neither of the kids were too keen on the idea but, neither were they happy living here in the orphanage. Hearing the word trial, Alice spoke up for both of them and agreed. She also knew by now that there was always the chance of being split up as she'd already seen other siblings have that happen to them. As a matter of fact being kept together was sometimes harder that being adopted at all.

They packed their meager belongings and went home with the Kelly's. on the ride Ms. Kelly (Marge) told them how long that they've wanted children of their own, but, were just never blessed and they were really excited about becoming Alice and Allen's parents. "The first thing that we need to do is get you some decent clothes, after hearing about your story it's a miracle that you escaped with your lives let alone your clothes. I never did learn why they couldn't retrieve some of your nice things from the house before they sold it." She said

"Well actually they did bring us some things but, we were made to share them with the other kids. Most of them were designer styles and the older kids helped themselves to them and didn't return them to us." Alice told her.

"Well honey everything that we buy you may not always be designer, but, they will be clean and stylish and you'll fit in with the kids in your new school. We are so very sorry for your loss and want you to know that we will not try to ever make you forget your parents, but, we hope that you'll come to think of us as a family. As you learn to trust us I want you to know that you can always come to me with anything that is bothering you." Marge said.

AS they approached their new home the kids were looking out the window and each thinking that this might just be ok, living with the Kelly's, it sure beat the heck out of living at the orphanage. Inside the house was clean and very tidy and they found that they each had their own bedrooms even though this place wasn't as big as their old home.

The very next day Marge took the kids shopping for new clothing and she pretty much let Alice pick out most of her things. Allen on the other hand was a little disappointed as he felt that the things that Marge picked for him were a little on the immature side. He also argued when Marge took them both to a jewelry store and got their ears pierced, but, in the end Allen walked out with both ears sporting new diamond studs.

Now that the adoption was final and the children were to be a permanent part of the family and their names were changed to Kelly, Marge was the happiest that she'd ever been. This was a dream come true for her.

They were enrolled in the new Private school and Alice seemed to adjust faster than Allen could, but both began to study hard and slowly make new friends. As the weeks and months rolled by Allen's hair began to grow longer and longer. At first he thought it was really cool and made him feel like super hero or pro athlete he saw that many of the other boys had long hair but, his just kept growing and he eventually asked Mom (as Marge wished to be called) on many occasions, if he could get a haircut or at least a trim.

“Yes dear I made an appointment for you on Saturday at my hair dresser.” She told him and he didn't know at that time the difference between a barber and a hair dresser, and these were the early signs of when his life would began to change, in ways that he could never imagine.

As he walked out he saw himself in the mirror and couldn't see where they had taken any off at all. The long trusses now had a spiral curl in them and his eye brows were not just neatened up as the beautician was telling him, they now had an arch and were much thinner than before. With his soft features and new hairdo he looked for all the world like a pretty young girl.....more than that he bordered on beautiful.

“Mom that didn't help a bit now I really look like a girl. I don't like this at all, as I'm a boy and I want to look like one. I want to go home and cut this long hair off myself.” Allen told her.

“You'll do no such thing young man that was a very expense haircut and there's a very good reason why I've had this done the way it is. We'll be able to do all kinds of fun things with it, and I think you'll grow to like it as well. We have a few more appointments today before we are done.”

With those words, Allen tried to figure out where this was all heading, just as they pulled into a place called the doll house. Once inside Allen felt really out of place as he looked around while Mom talked to this other lady. All he could see were fancy looking dresses, and wigs and shoes of all sizes and styles, some with straps, some with heels, and others shiny flats.

When Mom came back she told them that they were going to play a little dress up game. Alice told Mom that she was too big for games like these and that she much preferred to play sports because she was not the real girly type of girl. Then when Allen jumped in and said “What about me.....I’m an actual boy and I’ve no business being in here at all.”

“Allen honey I would never do anything to hurt you or purposely embarrass you. This is a weekend thing only and I so hoped that you’d allow me this one simple little favor and play along with me. No one will ever need know that it’s you and I promise on Monday when you go back to school you’ll look just like the young boy that you always do, or at least as much as you can. You don’t know just how beautiful you are.” Mom told him

“That’s just it Mom. I already have a hard enough time taking all the kidding that I take over my looks. I on many occasions get mistaken for a girl as it is. I’m always the last to get picked on team sports or gym class, and what you’re asking, if it’s what I think it is, surely does nothing for my self-esteem or ego.” He told her.

“Well humor me just this one time and if you don’t see what I see, or think it’s fun, then I won’t ask you again.” She said.

“I don’t know Mom I just don’t believe that I should even be in this place, I would die if anyone from school ever saw me in here let alone playing dress up with you or for you.” Allen said.

“Nonsense Allen, not that many people even know you at this point and besides, this place has private booths and no one at all will see you.” She replied.

Finally Mom took him by the hand and almost drug him to one of the back booths. “That’s enough Ellie, if you won’t cooperate than I’ll force your hand and dress you myself and drag you all over town so everyone can see you. Now I’m not asking you for an arm or leg, just a little cooperation and we can have fun with this, just to see how you look dressed up all pretty, like you were in a beauty contest.” She told him.

Bell the owner of the shop then took his measurements which were easy to do as he really had no girl-ish shapes at his age. Then the night mare began. He was given a pair of white girl’s panties and hurried to pull them on for modesties sake. Next came a matching white vest. Allen wanted to die when he saw the dress they were pulling over his head and down into place. He could feel them buttoning up the buttons on the back of the little girls dress. Mom then pulled on a pair of white ruffled socks as he could hardly been down in the dress. She then slipped on a pair of patent leather shoes and latched the strap across the foot.

Then if that wasn’t humiliating enough this other lady came in and told him that her name was Dee. “I’ll be doing your make up today and unless you want to walk out looking like a clown, I need you to follow my orders and hold still for me.” She told him.

As Dee went to work on his makeup she said. “It’s my understanding that you are going to be in the little Miss Beauty pageant coming up soon. I don’t usually predict these things but, honey with your face and looks and a little training you are going to be a shoe in.”

“Great that’s just what every boy wants to hear, and nobody said anything to me about being in any old beauty pageant, this is just a onetime thing for my Mom.” He said.

Dee darkened his long eye lashes that he’d inherited from his birth mom. Then used a black eye liner to outline his upper and lower eye lids. She then blended in several shades of eye shadow and then used an eye brow pencil to darken his brows. She used a rose colored powder to brush onto his cheeks giving him the look of higher cheek bones. Then she out lined his lips with a lip pencil and colored them in with a red lip cream using a brush as if painting a mural. She then finished with some lip gloss leaving his lips shiny and smooth. She then brushed is long natural blonde hair out and let the long bouncy curls rest on his shoulders. A few spritzes of a sweet flowery perfume and she declared him done. His face had not one single blemish.

When Mom and Ms. Bell saw him they were speechless for several moments. “Wow.....Dee, you’ve done a wonderful job.” Mom finally said.

“No.....it was way too easy, being that this young lady was already beautiful before I even started. Allen looked in the mirror and was himself in total shock at the image looking back at him. There was this beautiful young girl looking back where his face should have been.

“That’s it then Marge you have a week to get her ready for the first contest coming up next Saturday in Spring Dale. You’ll have to work each day after school to learn what’s expected of the contestants. I’m telling you though that Allie here is a shoe in to win this without any doubt at all. Now would you rather be called Allie or Ellie honey? Jean Bell asked.

“Mom I can’t do this and I don’t want to do this” Allen said not being able to take his eyes off of the image in the mirror. “Besides I look like I’m about 5 or 6 years old.” He said.

“That’s the point honey and it’s even more reason that no one will recognize you, plus your brain might be saying NO but, your body and heart are saying YES.” Mom said.

Mom filled out the application and handed them back to Jean along with the entry fee. “I’ve waited so long for this opportunity and we are going to make the most of it, I can assure you of that.” She said and took one of the booklets on what will be expected of each contestant, such as walking, and where to stand, how to do a little twirl with one hand on her hip and some other different beauty queen stances and on and on.

Allen dreaded the ride home in this ridiculous costume with full makeup, so that Daddy could see for himself that he was wrong and that Allen could now fool anyone. Allen didn’t disappoint Mom as Dad didn’t believe that this was really Allen. He was sure that they were trying to pull a fast one and put one over on him. Then Ellie (as they’d decided on) went over and climbed up on Daddy’s lap and gave him a kiss on the cheek. “Yes it’s really me Daddy, Ms. Bell did this to me and now I’m going to be in some dumb old beauty contest and I don’t want to do this as I’m a boy not some dumb old girly girl, and on top of that I’m ten years old and I’m in the 4th grade and they want me to act like I’m a 7 year old girl just so I can be in this pageant next week in Spring Dale where ever that is.” Ellie said.

“I know son, but, it’s just for the one week end. Try and think of it as kind of a Halloween costume and it will be fun. I’m sure that the other boys in the pageant feel the same, so you won’t be the only one there in costume.” Dad said. “You know.....we were originally only going to adopt Alice, but, she really isn't the kind of girl to be in pageants and then your Mom saw you. You were just the right size, you were humble and most of all you were beautiful even as a boy. So that's how much she loved you right off. You'll look back on this experience one day when you are older and laugh about it." Dad told Ellie

"Come with me now my precious little darling and let's go wash up and get your makeup off. Give Daddy a kiss and a little curtsey like Madam Bell showed you earlier." Mom said.

A confused little Allen kissed his new Daddy and said good night I love you then got up and did his best to give Daddy a curtsey and he and Mom were off to the bathroom to remove his makeup. "Allen honey don't worry this will end soon and in the mean time I can't get over just how beautiful you really look, I'll be there cheering you on and I just know in my heart if you'll give it a chance that you'll really have fun with this. It will be like playing a character in a play or a movie, and you'll be the star." Alice told her little brother and gave him a hug.

After his makeup was off and Mom unbuttoned the dress and pulled it off over his head she started to help him remove his unmentionables he grabbed her hand and said "Please Mom a little privacy I'm not a little baby and I can finish undressing and take a shower."

"Ok darling I'll bring you in some sleep wear and leave it on the vanity." And she stepped out and Allen hurried and finished undressing and jumped in the shower. He heard Mom moving about the bathroom. "Ellie honey that's no way to take care of your underclothes, I don't expect that you would know all these things that females know but, I do expect you to learn as we go along." She said

Allen heard her leave the room again and he reached out to find a nice fluffy towel ready for him. He dried himself and then found a new pair of pink panties and a long night gown. He covered himself with the towel and called out for his Mom. "Mom where are my own under pants and pajama's, I can't wear these things?"

Mom came in and told him that by wearing these night gowns and panties that they would make him feel more feminine and keep him more in character and no one outside this house would ever know that he was wearing girl's sleepwear. Mom then brushed and blew out his long hair with the hair drier and brush. Then before going to bed that night she rubbed this moisturizer all over his face. He didn't have a single flaw in his skin but, she was determined to keep it that way.

The rest of the weekend past with Mom and Alice showing him how to walk and how to pose. By Sunday evening his leg muscles and back were aching from walking in these shoes even though they only had a 1 or 2 inch heel. He begged to get his hair cut before going to school on Monday, but, the best he could get Mom to agree to was at least a low pony tail. "You work hard this week and maybe we can get it cut shorter. If you win a high placement next Saturday we'll use the winnings to purchase a real hair wig and then we can shorten your own hair and use the wig on pageants." Mom said.

So the new week began and he went to school in his pony tail, but, others still saw him as a very cute girl, even though they only said this to each other behind his back. Mom warned him not to be biting his nails or she would paint them Red or Pink or Orange. He got really embarrassed when he was asked to the school dance by three different boys and was so tempted to get some scissors a cut his hair off himself, despite moms warning. He thought a spanking or punishment would be better than this but, he feared pissing Mom off to the point that she'd send him back to the orphanage, even though he didn't know that they couldn't do that now that they had formerly adopted him and Alice.

He practiced each night in a dress that Mom always had ready for him as soon as he came home from school. Then before he knew it they were on their way to Spring Dale for the promised beauty pageant. He was so nervous he could barely move. "Don't worry squirt I will be with you all the time and won't leave your side." Alice promised. "I much rather that you took my place instead." He told her. They weren't there very long and Deb and Ms. Bell showed up. Ms. Bell was carrying a plastic bag that had his new dress inside, and Deb was carrying her big makeup kit. They found a cubical and went inside and helped him with his unmentionables and then right to work on his nails and makeup. Mom had filed his nails the night before but, Deb touched them up a bit more and then began to paint them a bright red, while they dried she rolled his long hair in these big round prickly rollers and added a little setting gel to them. Then she began on his face putting these little dots all over and then blending them in with a makeup sponge. She added a little white creamy stuff under each eye and then over each eye and then using a makeup brush with the softest hairs on the end began brushing and blending that too before taking an eye liner pen and applying a black eye liner on his top and bottom eye lids. Then Deb brushed on a dark mascara to his eye lashes, followed by applying 3 different shades of eye shadow. She then used the white again with a brush just under the eye brows and then darkened his thin arched brows with an eye brow pencil. She checked his nails and found them to be dry now and continued on to use a lip pencil to outline his full pouty lips before applying a bright red lip cream to fill in his perfect shaped lips. She added some gloss and then applied a fine powder all over to set his makeup. They pulled the beautiful formal dress over his head together so it wouldn't smear his makeup and zipped it up the back, then wrapped the matching belt around his thin waist and tied it in a big bow in back. He slipped his white pantie hosed feet into the 2 inch heels and then sat, while Deb brushed out his natural long blonde hair with the spiral curls that laid across his shoulders. Deb then replaced his ear studs with these long dangle diamond ear rings, added a matching silver neckless and bracelet on the right wrist and a dainty silver watch on the right. Mom then put this big ribbon that came over one shoulder and met at his waist on the opposite side and had a huge round disk with the number 12 on it. He was now physically ready for his first ever participation in a beauty pageant even though mentally he was out to lunch so to speak.

“Come now Ellie darling you have to pull yourself together and get with the program. I need you to focus for the next hour or so baby.” Mom told him.

One by one the girls were paraded out onto the stage and he at least had the advantage of watching what each girl did presenting herself to the judges. Then finally he heard himself being called out “Next we have number 12 Ellie May Kelly.” It took all of her will power to make her legs move and even then she thought that she was going to fall flat on her face but, with the grace of God she was able to stay up right even if it wasn't 100% perfect walk out there. She stopped and placed one foot forward put both hands on hips and did a couple of little turns as they'd practiced all week long. She remembered to smile showing off her perfect white teeth, and then turned all the way around and walked back off stage.

When all the girls had taken their turns and the judging was in Ellie / Allen hoped against hope that he wouldn't hear his name called. 2nd runner up Jill Smyth, 1st runner up is Karen Wells, and to nights winner is Ellie May Kelly. His cheeks turned red again but, couldn't be seen under his makeup. Mom

Jumped up and down as if she'd won the pageant herself and nearly pushed Ellie May back out onto the stage, where she was handed a beautiful bouquet of flowers and Gold trophy along with a ribbon draped over her head with a medallion on it saying Queen of her age bracket (ages 7-9)

Ellie was helped by Alice changing into the simple dress that she'd worn to the pageant and they started for home when Mom pulled over at a nice restaurant and they met up with Ms. Bell and Deb to have a celebration dinner as it were. As Ellie's nose picked up the wonderful aroma of steak and other fresh foods she suddenly realized that she hadn't eaten all day long and was starving? After they finished she leaned over to Alice and whispered that she had to go to the bathroom. "What do I do now?"

"Excuse us Ellie needs to use the ladies room so I'll go with her." She said. As Ellie had always considered this as no man's land she went straight into the stall and did her business after Alice reminded her to sit down to go. When she came out and went to the sinks to wash her hands she first noted her bright red nails and then as she looked up she still couldn't believe that she was looking at herself. Her makeup was still perfect and her red lips still matched her nails. Alice took out the lip stick that she carried in her purse and showed Ellie how to reapply it to her lips after a couple of ladies walked out, mumbling about the little girl being too young to wear makeup.

They rejoined their Mom and started once again for home. "You were head and shoulders more beautiful than anyone there tonight Ellie I was so very proud of you. Ms. Bell says that there is another pageant next Sat. and Sunday at Elk bow. It's farther away and will be an overnight two day affair. If you qualify on Saturday then you'll need a second gown on Sunday, and I just know that you'll win again." Mom said.

Ellie gave a little sigh and thought that if he'd known at the time of their adoption that this was to become his fate that he might just have said NO when the judge asked first Alice and then himself if they wanted to be adopted by the Kelly's, but, who could have seen this coming?

The new week started out kind of rough as some of the girls right away noticed Allen's finger nails and thin arched eye brows, and the way that his ears sparkled from the diamond studs he was wearing. He took some kidding at first and then seemed to be accepted by the girls. The boys were too young to figure out what all the fuss was about with the girls all kind of taking Allen Kelly in with them. Things went along smoothly all week until Thursday evening when, once Mom told him to shower and change into the clothes that she laid out on the bed for him. Alice helped him dress and then Mom came in and did a quick make over job on his face. She brushed out his hair and then handed him some nylon pantie hose and a pair of 2 inch heeled pumps. It took him quite a while to figure out how to pull the pantie hose up.

Allen noticed that Mom was loading a large suit case into the Van and then called out for them to hurry and said they had a long way to go tonight.

Once they were safely out of town by around 50 miles, Mom pulled over and into a nice looking restaurant. They were taken to their seats and the waitress took their drink orders while they looked over the menus. Allen was way too nervous to eat, but, Mom then ordered him a small steak and a baked potato and a salad with dressing on the side. When the meal came and he just looked at it Mom said "must I feed you like a little baby Ellie May, or are you going to eat like a big girl"

He was embarrassed enough, so he picked up his napkin, put it on his lap and then slowly began to eat. The steak was wonderful and he suddenly became aware of just how hungry he was until he almost choked when he looked over and saw Brad Evens a boy from his class staring a hole through what he believed to be this really pretty girl. (I.e. Ellie) Little by little Ellie could sense that the boy didn't recognize her and her heart stopped beating a hundred miles an hour. She smiled at Brad and then continued to eat her meal. Once they finished Alice took her by the hand and they went into the ladies room to freshen up. Alice had Ellie hold still as she took out a light pink lip stick and coated Ellie's lips with it.

Mom paid the bill and they were on their way again. They got to the hotel around 9:30 pm and Mom said that they all needed a good night's sleep as the next two days would be very busy. Allen just couldn't get to sleep thinking about what he was going to have to do all over again just like last week, tomorrow. He must have fallen asleep at some point as he heard the alarm and Mom telling him to get up. After he'd gone through his Ellie May morning rituals he took a shower being careful not to get his hair wet. He then dried and dusted his whole body with this fragrant powder.

Mom had set out for him the proper young ladies under garments along with a blouse and a short mini skirt, plus a pair of little girls white tennis shoes. She then brushed out Ellie's long blonde hair, parted it down the middle of his head and then brushed and gathered one side tight and put a scrunchie on it to hold it in place. Next she did the same on the other side, she adjusted them high on the back his head and this made him look a couple of years younger than his soon to be 11 years old. She added a little pink lip color to his lips and declared him ready.

Deb and Ms. Bell were to meet them at noon to go and start getting ready for this afternoons pageant, so Mom thought that going out for a light breakfast and a little window shopping in the mall would be a good break for Ellie and also good practice as they sat down in the middle of the mall and did a little girl watching. Mom felt that if Ellie concentrated on the movements and hand jesters and the way other young girls walked that it would be good for her own self-image.

Once again Ellie found that even though she didn't feel like going out in public dressed this way, her body betrayed her and she felt the hunger pains take over her objections to way she was dressed.

They found a nice restaurant and were seated right away. Through her self-consciousness Ellie was sure that ever boy and man in the place was staring at her, and knew her secret. Truth be told they were looking but, only because they saw this beautiful young lady. Even in regular clothing and no makeup she looked so pure and sweet and innocent. Her wonderful facial expressions, her milky smooth skin and beautiful white teeth and those eyes that sparkled. Yes it was easy to see that this young girl was something special. After they ate Mom asked for the check and they got up to leave. Once again Ellie felt as if all eyes were on her.

Next they went to this really upscale mall with lots of clothing stores. Ellie's prayers were unanswered as Mom took her hand and pulled her in to the first store which turned out to be aimed at teens. Mom had her try on a couple of tops and a skirt or two and that ended up buying two outfits for Ellie, which only meant that she wasn't going to let him out being a girl anytime soon. Ellie didn't like this at all but, at least these clothes (if there was anything positive about them) were not for a little baby. They were at the very least meant for an 11 or 12 year old. Ellie as predicted won first place again, hands down. On a point system no one was even close. She had the body of a little girl but, the face and hairdo of a much, much older girl. So it went week end after week end traveling from one pageant to the next. She was accumulating a room full of trophies and ribbons over the next three years.

She was now 14 years old and it was getting harder all the time to become Allen again on Monday mornings for school. The school wrote home to his Mother about his long hair being unacceptable for an 8th grade boy. Marge's answer for that was to buy him an expensive boy's wig and hide his own hair. Allen still seemed to fit in better with the girls than the guys. It was at this time that Ms. Bell hooked Marge Kelly up with a Doctor that she knew that could give Allie these little pills and shots, which would be just enough to slow down her Male metabolism so she might be able to continue to compete in the pageants.

Mom being so worried that she'd have to give up this dream of hers to have a daughter that could compete in these pageants, let alone have a daughter that was as beautiful as Ellie, and one that won these pageants where ever they went, and over the years they traveled far and wide. Poor Ellie was really a mess mentally as she tried to go back and forth from Boy to girl and back again. She no longer worried about school as the other kids quit teasing and just accepted Allen as a weird little effeminate guy. He always wore his shirt and vest and pants but, they had to be tailored to fit his changing figure. His face was always blemish free and soft, making some of the girls envious of his complexion. It was these fears that caused her Mom (against) Dad's advice not to do this, that being to take Ellie to this Doctor for an exam and checkup.

On the way to the Doctor's office Mom told Ellie, who looked almost angelic "If the Doctor asks... you are to tell her that you love being a girl and are most comfortable when you are able to live that way! If you don't you know by now what will happen to all those pictures and videos."

"Why Mother.....what is she going to do me? She's not going to do anything permanent is she? Ellie asked fearing the worst.

“No dear, you know that I’d never do anything to hurt you. This is just a checkup and exam. You’ve been on such a busy schedule that I’m sure that your system is a little run down, so we are going to see if you need any vitamins or supplements” Mom told Ellie.

The exam was quick and painless, unless you count being completely naked in front of a couple of strangers. The nurse got things ready and the Doctor came in and gave Ellie a little shot under her arm which made it go numb almost immediately. Now Ellie couldn’t see or feel what the Doctor was doing, she could only feel a little pressure under her arm.

What the Doctor was doing was inserting a time release tablet of estrogen and a testosterone blocker to slow down his release of puberty at Marge’s request.

What they didn’t count on was actual changes in his body rather quickly. Not anyone thing major, just little things like the beginning of the redistribution of his fatty tissues. If you were to find him without a top on, which he never allowed, you could see the beginnings of small breast developing, and his hips and butt were also changing and showing signs of getting bigger. The biggest change at this point was his brain and this had him all mixed up emotionally. Now being a Jr. in high school he was feeling and thinking feminine thoughts, but, fighting to maintain his role as a male. It was very confusing. His body continued to change and he was not comfortable with the changes at all. Ms. Bell and Dee still had the ability to make him look much younger than his actual age. He continued to participate in pageants and easily win. But during the week being around the other students one minute he wished he could ask a girl out on a date and the next minute he was thinking about how cute several of the boys in his class were, and wondering what it might be like to be asked out by one of them?

Allen tried to talk to his Mom and tell her about these mixed feeling and that he no longer wanted to pretend to be a girl on the weekends and participate in the pageants.

Dad overheard that conversation and piped in. “Marge that’s enough I’m putting my foot down now. You’ve had you dream come true at Allen’s expense for long enough now. Let the boy be a boy for goodness sake.”

“But Ken just look at Ellie, why there hasn’t been a natural born girl in all this time that is as beautiful as her. Ellie was meant to be a girl, she was just born in the wrong body.” Mom said

“Give it a rest Marge, it was different when he was just 8 or 10 years old but, he’ll be going thru puberty any day now, and he has the right to a normal teen age life. I’ve turned my head on this whole matter and let it go two or three years too long now. (Dad had no idea about the estrogen and testosterone blockers that had been swimming around inside Allen’s body for the last two years. He actually had to wear a tight tee shirt or wrap his growing breast to hide them now) so enough is enough let’s let it be for now and let Allen decide if he wants to continue.” Dad told his wife.

Then a strange thing happened, it was time for the annual Sadie Hawkins dance at school and a girl named Cathy Turner who really liked Allen stopped over at his house on the way home from school. Mom answered the door and Cathy said. “Hell o Mrs. Kelly my name is Cathy Turner and I’m here to see Allen. It’s our annual Sadie Hawkins dance next Saturday and I’d like to invite him as my date. I’m sure that you’re familiar with this old tradition where the girl asks the guy and they trade places for the night. I’ll wear the tux and Allen will be required to wear a dress. I’ve been hinting all semester for Allen to ask me out but, he never did, so I’m now going to ask him out. Even though this is kind of a freaky night to ask someone out on a first date. But, hey I figure what have I got to lose.” She said smiling up at her Mom hollered up to Allen “Allen come down here honey you have a guest. Allen came down not expecting anyone, so his hair was flowing down over his shoulders and he was wearing sweat pants and a matching sweat shirt, and he had on his flip flops, and he hadn’t removed the nail polish on his toes yet. As soon as he saw Cathy it hit him and he almost ran to the bathroom. “Sorry I’ll be right there I have to use the bath room. He went in and couldn’t find anything to hide his toes so he dashed up the stairs to his room. He knew that he didn’t have time to use the nail polish remover and besides he knew that Cathy would recognize the smell of the remover. He put some socks on and slipped into his crocks and went back down wondering why one of the most popular girls in school was here at his house? As he came down he apologized saying that he need to go up to his room. He’d also tied his hair back into a pony tail.

“Hi Allen sorry to just drop in unexpected like this but, I wanted to know if you’d be my date for the upcoming Sadie Hawkins dance next Saturday at the school. Almost all the kids will be there and I think that it would be a lot of fun to go. I’ve been waiting for months now hoping that you’d ask me out and now because of the Sadie Hawkins dance it’s proper for the girls to ask the boys out. It will be a lot of fun because we change places, the girls wear suits or tux’s and the guys wear dresses.” Cathy said

“Gee I don’t know Cathy, I thank you for thinking of me but, I’m not sure but, I might be out of town that whole weekend with my Mom.” He said looking for a way out. He’d often dreamed of asking Cathy out but, felt that she was out of his league and now especially not while wearing a dress, when it would be very possible for him to look better than any of the girls that when to school there.

“Oh no Honey, Cathy said that the dance is next Saturday and we won’t be going anywhere that week end. I think that it would do you some good to get out and mingle with kids your own age, as you worked hard all year and now you deserve some fun.” Mom chipped in.

“So that’s a yes then Allen? I’ve been looking forward to this dance for a long time now and I’m really looking forward to it knowing that I’m taking you as my date.” Cathy said and thanked him and left before he could say no.

Now Cathy was no plain Jane herself. She was very pretty and always dressed sharp and clean and her perfume stood her out from others. She was captain of both the cheerleaders and the debate team. She was an all A student and on the student council and for some reason was very selective of the boys that she’d ever dated. If any of them became too aggressive she quickly shut them down and never gave them a second date. OH YA.....and she was also a black belt and could handle herself in any situation.

Allen was standing there still several minutes after Cathy left thinking to himself “what just happened”. He was in a dream like state of mind when suddenly he heard his Mom. “Allen.....Allen are you alright dear?”

“Mom did you just accept a date for me with Cathy on my behalf. I didn’t get a chance to even think about it and she was out the door and gone. I’d love to take her out on a date but, not in a dress and looking like a girl Mom. She’s one of the most popular girls in the school and if the other kids see me dressed up with makeup and a gown they are going to figure out why I look like I do.” He said.

“Nonsense Allen, we’ll just tone it down. We don’t have to make you up like we’ve been doing for the pageants and shows. I want you to go and have some fun for a change, and don't you think that it's kind of special that this Cathy girl had hoped all year that you'd ask her out? She obviously thinks very fondly of you from what she said? ”

“Well yes I guess it is but, like I said I'd much rather it be in my boys clothing and not some dress. I'm already almost sick thinking about it.”

“Again honey that's just silly, since you were just a little child of 9 or 10 years old you learned to perform in front of 1000's of people and hard marking judges without being found out so I think that you'll be just fine at a school dance.” Mom told him. “Which by the way is a Sadie Hawkins dance and any boy that attends the dance will be dressed up as a girl in some way or another, so you already know that you won't be alone. Plus you're going to be the date of one of the most popular girls in the school.”

“Yea I guess so as long as we don't overdo it and make me look too good, because that would only confirm what most of the boys already think about me now.” He said.

The week passed slowly and Allen got more nervous as days went by until finally it was Saturday morning. Mom got Allen up early and he came down after his morning ritual in the bathroom. Mom had eggs and bacon and toast all ready for him but, he had a hard time eating as his nerves already were working overtime. He dressed in his good lingerie and wore a simple top and a pair of shorts, he wore a pair of open toed sandals and asked his Mom where they were going.

“Why the salon of course. Dee is waiting to do your nails and hair then she's going to stop over this afternoon and help with your makeup. I know that by now that you are pretty good at doing your own after these many years of practice, but, just the same Dee wants to help out and see you dressed for your date.” Mom said.

Everything when just as Mom had told him, except while he laid back and let Bev work on his nails, he fell asleep and wasn't aware that she'd cleaned his nails and then added these long oval extensions that stuck out a quarter of an inch past the ends of his fingers. Bev then buffed and filed and shaped them even more. She then painted them bright red then did his toes in the same red before adding a second coat to his finger nails.

Allen was upset that he'd fallen asleep and allowed Bev to do this but, before he could speak up and complain Dee moved him to the sink and washed and conditioned his hair two times. She then wrapped the ends of his long over the shoulder hair in these big rollers and then sat him down under one of the big hair driers, handed him a 17 magazine and turned on the drier. After the timer went off Dee removed the rollers and brushed out his beautiful auburn hair and let it cascade down over his shoulders with the big spiral curls on the ends. When he turned to look in the mirror the curls swished to the side and then fell right back in place again.

The next stop was the shoe store where he was fitted for and purchased a pair of strappy open toed pumps with 2 inch heels and three pairs of nylon stockings and a black garter belt. “Ok Mom this is getting out of hand I'm not supposed to look like a real girl or a runway model, I just wanted something simple.....remember?”

“Yes dear but, no self-respecting young lady would go without these things.” She said and then picked out a matching black bra and pantie set. The bra was a 34 A+ and was actually tight on him. Next they grabbed a quick salad and water and were on their way back home. By the time they got there Ms. Bell and Dee were waiting on them.

Ellie first put on a shower cap and took a nice long shower. She patted herself dry and then as she'd been trained rubbed this sweet flowery lotion all over her body and then dusted herself with powder without even thinking about it. She tucked herself back between her legs and then pulled up the silky panties. Next she put on the bra and was more than a little upset that her breasts not only filled the cups but, practically spilled out over the top leaving an unmistakable little cleavage. She rolled the nylons up her slender legs and began to wish that she could just disappear somewhere into the night all alone. Her long red finger nails made it a little harder to attach the nylons to the tabs of the garter belt, but, she finally managed to get the job done learning to use the pads of her fingers and thumb. It took a little doing to put her feet into the heels and buckle the straps but this too she managed.

Dee then took over and did her makeup. She told Ellie that making her face look simple and plain was an impossible task. "You my child would look beautiful even without any makeup at all." Dee went to work putting on a light base and blending it in. then she used a little blush on her natural high cheek bones. Then she worked on her eyes. She used a liquid eye liner on her top and bottom lids, then used mascara on her lashes. Followed by eye shadow using three different colors. She next used an eye brow pencil to darken her brows. Then she used a lip pencil to outline her full pouty lips and then painted them with a red lip cream, blotted them and added a second coat, followed by some gloss. She added these chandelier ear rings and a couple of necklaces a watch on one wrist and a bracelet on the other. She spritzed some perfume behind her ears and on her wrists and had her rub them together.

Then Ms. Bell brought out the clothes bag which contained her dress. It was the traditional little black dress. She stepped into it and pulled it up with help.

It was form fitting and hugged her body's curves. It had 2 inch wide shoulder straps and zipped up the back. She tried several times to pull the dress up to hide her blossoming bosom to no avail. She looked in the mirror and said "Mom please I can't go out like this" as she could not only see the very tops of her boobs but, she could clearly see some cleavage, not to mention that the tight fitting skirt of the dress came down only to mid-thigh showing plenty of leg.

Just as Ellie was about to run from the room the doorbell rang. Mom held her arm so that she couldn't move. Dee answered the door and thought for a moment that the person standing there was an actual young man. "Please come on in." she said.

Hi I'm Cathy I'm here to pick up Allen for our date. Is he ready to go?" she asked looking strangely over at Ellie and trying not to stare. "Why yes Allen or should we call her Ellie is right here before you. I'm Dee and I'm a makeup artist and friend of Allen's mother. I'm afraid that I might have gotten a little carried away in doing Allen's makeup and hair tonight. I hope that you will still want to take him to the dance as your date. It was not my intention to embarrass either you or Allen, it's just that once I got started I couldn't stop until he looks like he does now. I guess if you'd like I could remove his makeup and start over again and try to make him look plainer than he does. The problem is he just has one of those faces that looks good with or without makeup, he was cursed with the genes of a model."

When Cathy caught her breath she said "No please, Allen.....or Ellie looks unbelievable and I'll be proud as can be to be her escort tonight for the dance. After all it is a Sadie Hawkins dance so we'll have a good time tonight I'm sure and I'll get your daughter back to you safe and sound Mrs. Kelly. Most likely no body there will even recognize Allen or believe it if we told them, and I sure won't give away of his secretes or tell who my date is. In keeping with the theme of the night I got you a corsage and I chose White as I knew that it would go with any color dress you chose. Speaking of dresses this one seems to fit you like it was made for you?” Cathy said. Then Ms. Bell spoke up here and said “I’m afraid that the dress was all my idea honey. I own a boutique and just got in a lot of new dresses and when I saw this one I just had to bring it for Allen for the dance tonight. I do admit that I had to make a few alterations here and there.” Then Cathy approached Allen who seemed to be frozen to the ground and she carefully pinned the corsage to Allen’s dress, and he thought that he’d faint any second now as her fingers brushed against the top of his breast while pinning the corsage to his upper left part of his dress.

“I’ve one last surprise Allen honey, I brought along this fur coat to keep the chill off of your shoulders.” Ms. Bell said and slipped the beautiful black fur over his shoulders.

“Wow.....talk about being out classed, when we walk into the dance no one will even notice that I’m there. You look out of this world beautiful Ellie, and I’m a really lucky girl to be your date.” Cathy said. “Well, shall we go darling your carriage awaits us.”

Outside Ellie saw the big black limo that he thought Cathy had rented. “Cathy.....you....you rented a limo for us?” he said. “No.....well not actually anyway, it’s my parents car and driver and they have graciously lent them both to us.” She told him.

The driver looked at Allen with what could only be termed as lust in his eyes as he opened the door and then tipped his hat to them. Cathy didn’t seem to catch the wink and lustful stare or this driver would be looking for a new job. Allen had never known such luxury, or extravagance. The ride to the school was short and Ellie prayed it could have been much longer. As they pulled up to the school and the driver opened the door Cathy got out first and almost had to drag Ellie out of the car.

“Ellie.....come on honey you have nothing to fear. We are going to have a great time tonight if you’ll only relax and loosen up, I’ll be right by your side and remember every girl in here tonight is really a guy so they aren’t going to be asking you for a dance, and every guy is really a young lady. Now there is the chance that some of our girls (the really cool ones) are dressed as guys and they might just ask for a dance, but, I’ll be keeping you close to me all night. After all I’ve been wanting to date you for the longest time, so I’m not real keen on sharing you babe.”

As predicted all eyes were on them (or actually Allen) as they walked in. they checked their coats and right away Cathy took Ellie to the dance floor where a slow romantic song was playing. “Ellie honey you move about in those heels like you were born in them. You are better than me in heels and I’m the real girl.”

Allie in a soft sweet whisper of a voice said “Well ever since you asked me to this dance my Mom made me practice by wearing these awful high heels every night as soon as I got home from school until bed time. She said that she didn’t want me to embarrass you by falling down and breaking an ankle or a leg or something like that.”

“Well I’ll have to thank her someday as I love the way you glide around so elegantly and effortlessly. I feel the rhythm through your body, and to tell the truth it excites me. You really are a kindred spirit Ellie, and I can’t believe that you can wear heels and move around better than I can and I’m the one that should be wearing them. It really does kind of turn me on. As a matter of fact everything about you turns me on. I swear I can’t believe that one of the hot girls in our class hasn’t snapped you up.”

Both Cathy and Ellie each were feeling and experiencing strange new feelings within, for one another. Cathy asked Allen how many girlfriends he'd had. When he told her that he'd never actually ever had one she asked how often he dated then. His reply both shocked her and excited her at the same time. "I've worked almost every week end and so I've never had the time. I traveled a lot with my Mom and was away in many different cities. I helped Ms. Bell." He told her.

"What was your job, I mean what, did you actually do." Cathy asked "I helped where ever I could to promote her fashions and clothing lines. I didn't really do all that much, just ran errands did whatever she needed done. Much to my dismay, without really wanting to I learned a lot about women's clothing." He said.

I'm not trying to embarrass you but, did you help by modeling her clothing line? I could easily see you, being a model as you have the body and looks and your beautiful face would easily make you top model qualified." Cathy said sincerely.

Allen tried to deny any such thing on his behalf, but his face turned beat red and his attempt to deny it was really weak.

"It's ok Ellie May, but I'm curious, was this something that you wanted to do, or was this something that you were made to do by your mother and her friend Ms. Bell? When he didn't answer she continued. "Ellie trust me your secret is safe with me, and I'll take good care of you. Trust me Ellie I'm just really interested and also a little turned on over you story." Cathy told him.

The night was a thrilling success for Cathy and Ellie on the other hand felt more insecure than ever before. Given the fact that the women in his life to this point always had control over his life, and now he sensed that another woman (albeit a younger and more beautiful one) had the leverage and means to further control his life as well. It always seemed that he had 'no choice' but, to do as someone else wanted him to do.

Suddenly he became aware of the fact that Cathy was holding him close and firmly. Even in his heels she was several inches taller than him. He hadn't even been aware of the fact, that he'd been resting his head on her shoulder. When he looked up into her eyes she bent down and pressed her lips to his full plump red lips and sent sparks shooting all over Ellie's body. Then he felt her tongue trace his lips and slowly work its way into his mouth and dance with his tongue. He felt so light headed that he could barely keep from falling, and most likely would have if it hadn't been for Cathy and her upper body strength "Now don't tell me that you've never been kissed before?" she said.

Ashamed to admit it he just looked down again hiding his red face. Cathy pulled him close again and said "its ok honey, but, you'd better get used to being properly kissed if we stay together, as I aim to see to it that your sweet lips and mine are going to spend a lot of time together."

They danced the night away and Cathy told a couple of girls to find someone else as this one is mine.....all mine she told them. Even a couple of the real guys asked her to dance because the just couldn't believe that this beautiful person wasn't a real girl.

Cathy looked down and noticed the contrast between her soft blemish free white complexion and her soft red full smooth lips. Ellie's green eyes sparkled from the overhead lights of the hall. Cathy danced them over to one of the darker areas of the hall and kissed him again. "You know that I told your Mom that I had been wishing all year that you'd ask me out? Well that's true, but, it didn't look like you were going to do that so I had to take the initiative and do the asking, and I'm so glad that I did. I should have done this months ago." She told him.

They got their coats and Cathy summoned her driver and car and Carl the driver was waiting for them as they came out. Once in the limo Cathy said. "Carl we'll be going to my house" "Yes Miss Cathy" he replied and without any other comment the big limo began to roll. Cathy then rolled up the window between the front seat and the rear seat. She settled back in her seat and put her arm around Ellie and pulled him close to her.

Once they arrived at the Turners huge home, Cathy took Ellie by the hand and they went into the great room. She took his coat and told him to relax that she'd only be a moment. She turned on the big fire place and dimmed the lights and slipped out of the room. Allen sat nervously awaiting her return and wondered what she was up to.

Cathy had removed her suit and put on a sexy bra and panty set and a see through silk robe. As she came into view she stood in front of the fire place and Allen could see the silhouette of her bra and panties and her shapely body through the lingerie. She imposed a beautiful image. She slowly walked over to Allen and cuddled up next to him.

They began to kiss and make out, and both were getting more and more turned on. Allen was so aroused that he was wasn't even aware that at some point Cathy had unzipped the back of his dress and it now hung loosely from his shoulders. Cathy softly pulled it down to his waist and began kissing him again as he tried to put up a mild resistance. When she had him moaning again she undid his bra and let it fall down with the dress. As she reached over to tease what she thought would be a flat chest. She was shocked to find more than just a couple of little bumps. Allen gasped at her touch which sent little bolts of lightning throughout his body, and he felt a stirring in groin like he'd never felt before ever. For Cathy's part she couldn't believe what her hands found there on his chest. She couldn't stop massaging and manipulating the twin mounds and for the first time she actually questioned her own mind as to whether Ellie was really Allen or not. Now she just had to know for sure, so with one hand she continued to pleasure Ellie's breasts, and with her other hand she slowly moved down to her groin and it took some doing but, finally felt the bulge tucked back between his legs. This only served to cause Allen much discomfort as his small cock tried to grow from the over stimulation, and it was trapped tightly in its folded position.

"Ellie honey I think that you need to call your Mom and tell her that you are spending the night here. Carl just informed me that the roads are closed due to a dense heavy fog. The state police have issued warning to stay off of the roads." Cathy told him.

As Allen did as he was asked, his Mom wasn't happy about this situation, Allen I don't like you staying at this girl's house without her parents being home." "Mom you don't have to worry about me and besides I am 18 years old now." After turning on the news and seeing for herself the same report that Cathy had told her about she realized that there wasn't much they could do about it until morning. Cathy then took the phone and promised to have Carl their driver take Allen home as soon as the fog lifted in the morning.

There wasn't much Mom could do about it right now and so she agreed and then a few minutes after they'd hung up, it hit her that Cathy called Ellie.....Allen! How did she find out about his secret, then Marge Kelly suddenly remembered that the date tonight was a Sadie Hawkins dance? Of course

Cathy knew and besides she also said she'd hoped all year long that Allen would ask her out.

Then back at the Turners Cathy gave a little grin and told Ellie to follow her and that she would lend her a nightie. Allen tried to pull up the dress to hide his firm mounds with the slightly upturned nipples, from sight and followed Cathy.

“Come honey there's no need for all of this modesty, we are all girls here.” She said and with that she began undressing Ellie leaving her panties on affording her some modesty.

“Cathy may I have my bra back please, I feel naked without it.” Ellie said. “No worry honey I have a nice nightie for you to wear, and it's positively the most luxurious imported silk you've ever seen or felt, and it keeps me stimulated every time I move, all night long.

Well Cathy wasn't kidding, the moment the silk nightie touched Ellie's breasts it made her shiver and sent goose bumps down her spine.

Cathy once again took Ellie by the hand and pulled her along behind her to Cathy's bedroom. The room was huge and had not one but two big walk in closets. It also had its own bathroom. Then right between the two big windows was this big queen sized canopy bed draped with some silk and sheer drapes. There were matching end tables two big dressers and a huge lighted vanity.

Cathy pulled the inexperienced and shy Ellie over to the big bed. She pulled the throw pillows off the bed and then pulled the big quilted comforter down. Ellie started to object but, Cathy held a finger to Ellie's lips. “It's ok Ellie honey I promise that I'm not going to hurt you.” And with that she pulled Ellie up onto the bed and then rolled her onto her back and began kissing her. She started by kissing her cherry red lips and then moved on down to her neck. Next she slid back up and kissed her ear and letting her hot breath send chills all over her body. Next she slid Ellie's night gown down and began kissing and licking and lightly nibbling little bites on her up turned nipples and dollar sized areolas.

Ellie had never in her life experienced anything as wonderful as the pleasure that she was feeling all over her body. Her body shook from head to toe at least three separate times. (Which were orgasms, but, Ellie didn't know as she'd never experience one before) then if that weren't enough Cathy put her hand around Ellie's penis and began to stroke it up and down, then she leaned over and began to lick it and get it all wet before taking it into her mouth and making love to the smaller than average penis.

Ellie's eyes rolled back in her head from the pleasure, then not even realizing what was happening Cathy straddled Ellie and eased herself down onto his hard cock. As she began to slide up and down Allen's eyes suddenly opened and saw Cathy's beautiful naked body rise and fall back onto his own. The feelings from the friction caused by this contact was indescribable, and as he looked up into her beautiful made up eyes that's all it took and he exploded, being unable to hold back.

"Oh no Cathy I just came inside of you.....what are we going to do, Oh please tell me that you are on some sort of birth control?" he said hoping "Don't you worry honey I'm almost 75% sure that I'm safe." She smiled down at him still riding his softened penis.

"Cathy those are terrible odds. We are both only 18 years old and are weeks away from graduating. Don't you want a chance to go to college? As for me Ms. Bell and my Mom have me lined up for some modeling jobs. Getting pregnant and having a baby wouldn't be good for either of our futures."

"You are probably right honey, but it sure was fun. I've fooled around many times before on dates but, I've never gone that far before.....I mean to say that I've never gone all the way before, but, I don't regret one bit of what we just did. You totally turned me on as you offer the best of both worlds. Plus the fact that I may not be protected 100% just makes it that much more exciting to Me." She told him. "Now come let's go and take a shower and get cleaned up." She said taking him by the hand and starting for the huge walk in wall to wall shower that Ellie could put her whole bedroom into.

"Cathy.....Please.....you know how shy I am and it's still a little embarrassing to stand naked in front of you, so if you don't mind could I shower on my own?" Allen asked.

"No way sweetie.....I can't believe that you'd still be bashful or embarrassed with me after what we just spent the last hour doing together and you'll be even less bashful after we shower and help each other wash with these wonderful soft ocean sponges that I ordered on line." She told him anxious to rub their naked flesh onto each other.

The sponges were everything that they were advertised to do. Cathy put some fragrant smelling soap onto the sponges and she started first. She began by washing his back and then she reached under Ellie's right arm and began to wipe the soapy sponge across his chest. She had him turn around and as she continued rubbing she couldn't get over how perky and firm Ellie's breasts were becoming. She rubbed against his nipples causing him to shutter as the streak of pure pleasure coursed through his chest and down into his groin.

After Cathy instructed Ellie how to return the pleasure of washing her with the soapy sponge, they helped dry each other with the soft fluffy warmed towels, which came close to feeling as good as the shower.

They then got dressed again in the silky lingerie, and the cuddled up in Cathy's huge bed with the silk sheets. The intense love making session and shower plus the night on heels as they danced the night away at the Sadie Hawkins Dance had really taken its toll on Ellie. She was asleep as soon as her head hit the pillow.

Then at some point during the night Ellie woke feeling horny and wanting to repeat their love making session with Cathy again. He began to kiss her neck and ear and rub her shoulders and back and then she put one hand on Cathy's breast and his other between her legs.

As Cathy woke up to these sensual feelings she grabbed his hand. "Whoa there you little sex nymph. The first time was free but, now you are going to have to work for it if you want to get pleased." She told him.

"I do Cathy, I really do. That was the first time in my life that I ever felt my whole body feel a live and stimulated to the point of an orgasm." "Ok then like I said you are going to have to work for it." Cathy said and laid back down onto her back with her legs spread wide. "Start kissing lover" she told him, and when Allen moved up and tried to kiss her on the lips, she held up her hand and pushed his face away. "Not there my little pet. Down there and she pushed his head down to her other lips, the ones on her vagina. "Come my little beauty, do I really have to draw you a picture? I want your pretty lips down here kissing my pussy lips." And with that she pushed his face right against her mound. "Now get that tongue moving girl." She said.

It took a little time for him to figure out what she wanted but. He started to get in the swing of things. 'This isn't so bad' he thought to himself 'and I kind of like the taste' he told himself.

Soon Allen was kissing and licking and making Cathy moan and groan. She squirmed and bucked and raised her hips up to mash her mound into his face even more. Then Allen got a little more adventures and began to use his finger and trace around her anus. When Cathy responded in a positive manner Allen inserted his finger in her ass and began to piston his finger in and out while continuing to lick and suck on the little bud that his tongue found and made her let out these little screams.

“Am I doing it right now?” he asked. “Are you kidding, I think that I must have had at least four orgasms in a row. You my darling are a fast learner. If you hadn’t stopped I was just about to pass out. Come take your panties off I think that you’ve earned some loving of your own.” She said.

“Cathy then gave, as good as she’d just gotten. She kissed his lips with her cum still on them and then moved down to his breasts. She could tell right away that Ellie’s boobs were getting bigger, as they were more than a mouthful now. After sharing the pleasure that came from stimulating her tender breasts, she moved down and took Ellie’s penis in her mouth and began to make love to it. Then she turned and got on all fours and looked back at Ellie. It took a few minutes before he actually caught on to what she was offering to him. When it hit him, he scrambled to his knees and moved up behind her. Cathy reached back between her legs and took a hold of Ellie’s swollen penis and guided him into her moist and ready vagina. Allen stood still and Cathy again took the initiative and began moving her ass back and forth on his manhood.

It didn’t take that long and Allen was moaning and groaning and then couldn’t hold back as every nerve in his body was tingling as he had his second mind blowing orgasm and shot rope after rope of hot man seed into Cathy’s hot pussy. Both of them collapsed, exhausted, and trying to catch their breath, onto the big bed with his cock still inside of her.

Slowly as his penis began to shrink back to normal, he pulled out with a “Plop” sound and he rolled over onto the bed next to Cathy, who was also trying to recover. She kissed him on his lips and said. “Come on lover boy, let’s go shower and clean up. I need to wash that hot load of sperm out of me or you will end up being a father or mother or whatever we decide you are.

They washed one another again with the special soft sponges and Cathy shampooed and rinsed and conditioned Ellie’s long hair and then did her own while Ellie began to dry herself off. “I think that I’m going to start calling you Cat for short, because you are as quick as a Cat at everything that you do.” Ellie told her.

Cat had Ellie sit while she brushed out her long hair. She picked up a hand drier and brushed and dried Ellie’s hair that now reached her shoulder blades. She pulled her hair back tight and put a scrunchie around it to hold it in a long pony tail high on the back of her head. Cat then told Ellie to go and put her makeup on while she did her own hair. Cat looked down at her own naked body and then over to Ellie’s and couldn’t get over the fact that Ellie’s breasts were just about as big or bigger than her own now and Ellie’s body now had all the right shapes and curves. Her waist was tiny and her hips and ass full. She stood almost five foot six inches barefoot. Cat still wasn’t sure just how this was happening but, Ellie’s sexual orientation was now at the point of no return. Yes Ellie was all woman now and a very feminine woman at that.

It was now morning and Cat gave Ellie one of her strapless bras that was almost too small but, it showed the tops of her breasts. Next a pair of matching panties and a suspender belt with adjustable tabs. Ellie's practiced hands rolled up some gray nylons and attached them to the tabs. Cat went to her dresser and took out a soft angora sweater that hugged her stomach and the top pulled down off either shoulder. Next a straight black mini skirt that barely covered by three inches, the tabs on the suspender belt. Then finally a pair of black pumps with three inch heels. She gave her a pair of long dangle ear rings made up of a series of gold balls that started out small and got larger as they reached two inches long. She could feel them hit her cheeks every time she turned her head. A matching neckless was made up of the same balls, the biggest one in the center and smaller ones on either side.

"I hate to end our date Ellie, but, I promised your Mom that I'd have you back home safe and sound this morning." Cat said.

The driver was waiting for them with the door already open on the big limo's back seat. Cat had given Ellie an overnight bag to take home the close that she'd worn the night before at the dance.

As the big limo drove away, Ellie said. "Cat, this isn't the way to my house."

"I know I just told Carl here to take us somewhere for a quick stop as I have one more little gift for you honey." Cat said and as Ellie started to say something Cat again held her finger to Ellie's lips and said "It's ok honey, it will only take a couple of minutes."

Before she could try and figure out where they were going, the limo pulled up to this little building outside of town. On the walls it said Tattoos and piercings. "Oh no Cat my Mom would kill me if I came home with a tattoo." Ellie said

"No worry doll, I just want to get you a second ear piercing, and that's something that most girls our age have these days." Cat said. "Now don't make me have Carl here pick you up and carry you in there" and tell them about your secret.” Cat said knowing that she wouldn’t really do that to Ellie.

Once inside Cat ordered two real diamond studs and a third one on this little chain. Ellie sat still while the young lady no older than herself measured and marked the spot on each ear, then loaded the diamond stud into the gun and ‘POP’ it was done. She didn’t say a word thinking of Cat’s warning but, wondered where in the world is that third diamond going to go. She didn’t have long to wait as the girl had her lay back on the table and spray this numbing spray around her belly button and then mark it. She waited a little for the spray to do its job and the loaded the stud into the gun and “POP” it was over. As Ellie sat up the diamond stud wiggled back and forth on the little chain.

Cat then pulled the tight sweater up a little and the belly piercing was plainly visible. Cat then paid the girl and gave her a nice tip too, and they were on their way.

“Oh Cat I can tell you right now that my Mother isn’t going to like this at all.” Ellie told her, and she was right, as soon as they walked in the door Mom picked up on the fact that Ellie was sporting the little hanging belly piercing. Ellie didn’t know that Mom had her lined up for a little modeling before school started.

After Cat left Mom told Ellie not to change that they were going for a little ride. Ellie’s heart started racing as she found out where they were going. Mom pulled into this salon that advertised tattoos and piercings.

“Mom why are we here? Are you going to have them remove my belly piercing?” Allie asked. “Why no dear, not at all. It seems that you like getting pierced so we are going to get you a couple more piercings, and I don’t want to hear a single word out of you. If you do I'll expose you before everyone like you've never been exposed before." Mom told him.

"Mom why are you doing this? The belly piercing was done in good taste and is out of sight." Ellie said.

"Well the next time that you do something to your beautiful body without asking me first you'll remember this." Mom replied

"But, Mother.....I'm over 18 years old now, am I not old enough to make my own decisions?" Ellie said

"Don't you Mother me missy, and if you think that you are old enough to do as you please, then maybe it's time that you move out and make your own way in life. That means you pay for a place to live, your food and makeup, your cell phone and the clothes on your back and all the many hundreds of things that you've enjoyed for free living under my roof. So that means you walk away with only the clothes on your back and let's see how long you can make it without my help."

"Well what has happened to all the money that I won in the pageants over the years. I thought that we were investing it for my future?"

"It took most of that money and much more of my own to keep you in gowns and essentials for those pageants. Plus that makeup that Ms. Bell provided and her and Dee's travel and services. (She lied) As Bell and Dee loved doing it and got good publicity along the way.

Ellie wasn't sure if Mom would really do that to him but, he didn't want to test Mom as he remembered when he was young and how she made him compete in the pageants until he was too old to take part in them. He was actually almost 3 years too old, but Mom was able to give him those pills and shots that made him look so much younger than he actually was. So with those thoughts in his head Mom once again put the fear of God in him just like those days long ago. He'd figured it out that those pills and shots and the implant under his arm, were the reason that his skin was so soft and flawless, and that he never got hair all over his body, and he never grew any bigger than he was at five foot four inches. Instead he developed a lean and curvaceous body and his face was almost reshaped, his unwanted breasts were proof enough on their own . His jaw line was more pointed and his nose was small but up turned a bit. His cheek bones were now higher. His bright perfect white teeth really sparkled when he applied his strawberry red lip stick and his pale smooth skin helped high light those red lips, but it was those eyes that really captured your attention and wouldn't let you look away.

While his mind wandered over all these things Mom had picked out a matching set of nipple bar bells. The man told Ellie to remove her blouse and bra, he'd seen 100's of breast but, thought that these were about as perfect a pair as he could ever remember seeing, when she hesitated about baring her bosom to a stranger, she saw the look in Mom's eyes she did as the man asked. He took some alcohol on a napkin and cleaned her nipples and the area all around them. Next he measured and put little marks on each nipple to make sure that they were even. Then he took this little clamp and clamped it onto the nipple, he then took this large looking needle and pushed it through the nipple and clamp. Ellie gave out a loud squeal but, didn't move. Then he did the same to the other nipple. He left the needles in for a while and then turned them around several times before replacing them with the little bar bells. He then took the other little ball and screwed it on the end and tightened it.

Mom's plan was originally to pierce her tongue as well but, told her that if she disrespected her again then that would be done the next time.

Mom then took Ellie's bra and put it in her purse. When Ellie then put her silk blouse back on, Mom told her to leave the two top buttons undone. Ellie quickly learned that with every movement that she made the blouse rubbed across her tender sensitive nipples, causing little waves of pleasure to course through her chest.

It took several days before her nipples healed to the point that she could once again wear a bra. Cat had called several times but, Ellie told her that she was busy and couldn't get out.

Finally after about a week went by Mom agreed to let her go shopping with Cat whom she still wasn't that fond of. Cat picked her up in the big black limo and Carl opened the door for her and waited while she went in to get Ellie. Mom had a few words for Cat and told her that Ellie needed to be back before 11:00 pm, and that she didn't appreciate her taking Ellie to get piercings without her consent.

Cat apologize and said she didn't think that it was distasteful at the time but, agreed that it wouldn't happen again.

They went to the mall, and Cat told her to stop worrying about some- one that went to school with them noticing or recognizing her. She told her that she would just have to learn to live with the fact that she was now and always would be a beautiful woman. With that one exception she was now all girl. They bought a couple of skirts and tops and Cat insisted on paying for them. Then it was back to Cat's house. Her parents where once again packing their bags and heading off to, who knows where, for business. It turned out to be some business in Hawaii.

Mrs. Turner said that she was glad to finally be able to meet her and apologized for having to run off like this, and promised to make time to visit after this trip. She offered to let Cat and Ellie join them in Hawaii at her expense, but, Cat said her Mom would never let her go.

She couldn't wait to get home and tell Mom about the offer and begged her Mom to let her go. She explained to Mom that Mr. and Mrs. Turner would be staying with them except for their business meeting. "Mom this is a wonderful opportunity and the Turners were asking me along as a guest so it wouldn't cost us anything." Ellie said

"If I agree to this and let you go, then when you get back I want you to give me your word that you'll look into doing a little modeling. I got a call from a studio that got some of your pictures while working with Ms. Bell and they would very much like to have you come and do some modeling for them and the pay is nothing to snob your nose at either." Mom replied

"But. Mom what about school, I thought that we already had the student loans all arranged for me to start the fall semester at state, and I have the scholarship too." Ellie said confused about this situation.

"Well honey, it's like this.....I haven't signed the paper work yet to co-sign on the loan, and if this modeling gig works out, you'll be making so much money that you'll be able to pay in full the fees for college, maybe even by the spring term.....and who knows maybe you'll love the modeling so much as an adult that you'll want to make a career out of it?"

"But Mom, you know that I've never been comfortable being in the spot light. Please don't black mail me into this, it's just like I was kid again and didn't want to be in those little girl pageants, it's just not me." She said

"Well I'm sorry honey but, I think that as a mother I'm a little more experienced and qualified to know what's best for you. You know that I could force the issue and stop college too, and if you'll do this my way you will get your vacation in Hawaii before you have to go to this modeling agency. Plus there's still a month and a half before school starts, so you'll be able to see if this is a good fit for you. There is always the slight chance that they say you don't fit their plans and then you could end up with your trip to Hawaii, a chance to see if you like modeling, and still start school all before fall." Mom said

"So what you're telling me is that the choice is mine, but, in reality there really is 'no choice' at all." Ellie said

"Well that's a little crude but, yes I guess that's what it comes down to. At the very least it will make you be a little more feminine and you'll learn a lot about what being a grown woman is all about and what we go through to live as a woman in today's world."

"Mommy dearest.....just look at me, how much more of a woman could I possibly become. Over the years you and Dr. Lee have seen to that. Except for that one last little thing between my legs I'm all woman from head to toe. I know now that all those trips to Dr. Lee's office for shots and those times when she put me to sleep while she made these little procedures to enhance my feminine facial features which have left me looking very pretty were all about. So yes I'll take your deal so I can go to Hawaii with the Turners. But, I will hold you to your word that if I really hate modeling and don't want to continue, you'll let me quit."

Ellie forgot for the moment all the fuss with Mom, and was very excited about the Vacation in Hawaii. She was packing her bag, when Mom came to see if she could help. This surprised Ellie, as she knew that Mom didn't really want to let her go with Cat, but she thought that maybe getting away from each other for a few days would help Ellie to relax and do the modeling gig with a little more effort.

The next morning Cat was there to pick her up about 7:00 am. Ellie gave Mom a hug and a kiss and then went over to her Daddy (as she'd come to call him) and gave him a big hug and a kiss on the cheek. Dad winked at her and slipped a $100.00 bill in her hand. She'd talked to Alice on the phone last night for half an hour, as Alice was still away at school. She'd gone to these early classes trying to catch up on a couple of classes that she done poorly in.

"Ok I'm ready to go now." Ellie said and then one more hug for Mom. As they walked to the car Carl said "You look real nice Miss Ellie" and he took her bag and put it in the trunk. The girls were already in the back of the big Limo as Carl closed the door.

Ellie was nervous as they approached the plane, as she'd never flown before. This was the Turners own private jet. They got on board and she found the big leather seats to be very comfortable. Cat held her hand as the plane rushed down the runway and soared up into the clouds. Once at cruising altitude a pretty young flight attendant brought them drinks and a nice dinner plate. This was the royal treatment, for sure. Ellie had just fallen asleep it seemed when the plane began its decent. Once on the ground and the door opened Ellie for the first time could smell the warm salty breeze. With the time change it was almost the same time as when they took off. A limo whisked them away to their temporary home for the next week. It was a beautiful bungalow right on a private beach along the ocean front.

The girls hurried and changed into their bikinis and walked down to the beach front and waded in the blue green water. The Turners went right to work on their business but, where back in time to have dinner with the girls. The food was out of this world, Ellie experienced new tastes with every bite.

As they asked the girls what they'd done the day Cat told her Mom that they just walked along the beach checking the place out. Then Kate (Mrs. Turner) had a surprise for them. "I have a favor to ask of you two. You'll be earning your trip, so to speak. These very important and influential business friends that we are dealing with, could mean multi billions of dollars to our firm, they have two sons here with them about your age. While we were talking and getting to know each other, the subject of kids came up and we told them about you two, and they in turn asked if you'd go out with their boy? Well because this seemed important to them, and this work deal is so important to us..... I accepted for you."

"Now Ellie you don't have to do anything that you don't want to do and I know that you probably aren't prepared for dating here. I'll take you and Cathleen shopping in the morning and you can pick out three or four outfits, maybe a couple of Hawaiian dresses and whatever you want, and I'll buy them for you. You too Cathleen. All I ask is that you hang out with these boys and try and make them happy to have someone to be with. I think that this is their first time here as well." Kate said.

"What's the matter with them Mother are they ugly or deformed so that they can't make their own friends, so their rich Momma has to arrange escorts for them?" Cat said.

"No as a matter of fact they are very much all male and quite good looking from the pictures that I saw. You could do a whole lot worse let me tell you. I'm not suggesting that you bed them down or marry them dear, just try and be friendly and have a little fun."

"See Ellie this is how real life works, you can't really get anything for free. There is always a price to pay sooner or later. So your free trip to Hawaii just came with a bill to pay." Cat said

"Come now Cathleen how bad could it be? You don't have to spend the whole trip with these boys,

They paired up, each boy picking a girl. Ellie felt uncomfortable as both of these boys appeared to be spoiled young rich kids to her, that always got anything they wanted. Now both Cat and Ellie were almost 19 years old. Tim rushed over and beat Tom to be with Ellie. Turns out that Tim was only 17 years old and Tom was 18 years old. In addition to Tim being two years younger than Ellie, he was also about two inches shorter.

They went to dinner at a seafood restaurant along the coast and had a great meal and talked about home and school, as the boys both kind of bragged about their athletic skills. Both boys were very handsome and it appeared that they knew it, and they talked about how many girls wanted them. Although it was not unbearable it was getting a little boring. They laughed and got to know each other a little better.

Tom then said “I know for sure that our parents are out for the night and won’t be back until morning, so I say let’s go back to our bungalow and hang out for a while.”

“Ok but first Ellie and I need to use the powder room, so if you’ll excuse us for a minute we’ll be right back. When they returned the boys retrieved their jeep and Tom drove them back to the Tuckers Bungalow. Tim tried putting his arm over Ellie’s shoulder and his hand came to rest on her breast. She removed hit at least three or four times. Once home the boys tried to get them to go swimming. When they told the boys that they didn’t have swim suits, the boys grinned and said “who needs them? No one is home and it’s very private here.”

As the night went on the boys got braver about making out. Cat and Ellie tried to be friendly without letting things get out of control. Finally Cat told them to back off, saying that it wasn’t going to happen. And then the boys played their Ace in the hole card.

“You do know that our parents and yours are working not on a, Million dollar deal, but, a multi-Billion dollar deal. If we were to tell them that you were rude and totally unaccommodating to us all night, I know that my Mom would pull out and go elsewhere with their deal.” Tom said

“Well you little ass wipe, are you telling me that if I don’t make out with you, you are going to tell Mommy that I was a bad girl and didn’t let you play Doctor with me?” Cat said

“Basically that’s right, I’ve seen it before. We can tell my Mom what good host you were or we can tell her that you were great hosts and showed us a good time. Now you might think I’m just bull shitting you, but, what would your parents say to you about lousing up a Multi-Million dollar deal. Now all we want is a little fun and a BJ and my Mom will get a glowing report and a strong recommendation.”

Cat took Ellie aside and told her that she wasn’t sure but, she really couldn’t take a chance on this, it was just too big of a deal. She’d heard her parents talking about it. Deals like this are what makes it possible to have trips to Hawaii.”

“I don’t know Cat, I don’t think that I can do this. You know that I’ve never been with a boy before, and I wouldn’t know what to do.” Ellie said

“They only want a blow job, and that’s really no more than just sucking your thumb. Baby I’m really sorry to ask you to do this but, you’ll just have to learn on the go.” She said and before Ellie could answer her Cat said. “Ok guys but just a blow jobs and no more.”

“Yah.....sure we can live with that.” Tom said and two boys began stripping down. Tim was so hot just looking at Ellie that he almost came pulling his underwear down. Ellie one again felt as though she was put in a position to ‘have no choice’ she looked over at

Cat and she was on her knees between Tom's legs. She took hold of Tom's cock with one hand and leaned forward and began kissing and licking the big cock. Embarrassed out of her mind Ellie willed her body and lips to do the same. She thought that she was going to be sick for a minute and then found that Tim's penis was not as offensive as she first thought. She began to get into a rhythm. Her thinking was to get this over with as fast as possible, but, then became intrigued about the smell and taste. Soon another taste was added as Tim's pre cum covered her lips. This went on for only a short time as Tim looked into her face with her red lips around his cock and without warning to Ellie, he shot gushing rope after rope of hot cum against the back of her throat. She tried to pull away but, Tim grabbed the back of her head and plunged his seven inch cock into her mouth and held it there, forcing her to swallow so she could get air into her lungs. With one final plunge Tim pulled out and laid back on the bed exhausted.

Ellie's jaws were sore and ached from being stretched out for so long. She started to wipe her lips off on the bed sheet but, Tim stopped her and told her to use her tongue and finish the job right. Even though he was a full two years younger than her he had a commanding type of voice that prompted her to do as told, and so she did use her tongue and finger to clean up the rest of the cum on her lips and chin.

It took Cat a little longer as Tom was experienced and knew how to better control his feelings and stopped her from time to time to delay the inevitable climax and orgasm. Ellie was still shaking from the ordeal that she'd just been put through. She was actually a little traumatized from the experience, and just wanted to go home. She got up and went into the bathroom and found some mouth wash and used it several times. She found her purse and brushed out her hair and redid her makeup. When she came back out Cat was sitting on the edge of the bed with a big smile on her face. She's obviously enjoyed her encounter with Tom.

Cat walked over to Ellie and asked her if she was alright. Ellie told her that the act wasn't as bad as she thought it would be, but, now she just wanted to go home. "Let me clean up a little and we will go.

Tim told Ellie that he wanted a kiss and they would take them home. "I have been looking at those plump red lips since the minute that I saw you. I know that I'll have dreams about them for nights to come. Holy shit girl do you even have a clue how beautiful you are? I don't suppose that you'd like to marry me would you." He grinned.

"No disrespect but, that's not exactly how I'd like to be treated, and forced to give my future husband a blow job on the first date, so you're right I wouldn't like to marry you. Plus how long have we known each other, 10 and 15 minutes?

They were finally on their way home when the Jeep pulled over and stopped at an EZ-Mart. Tom ran in and came back out with a small envelope. He reached in and pulled out several pictures taken from a strategically placed web camera. He handed the girls copies of each of them with cocks deep in their mouths.

Cat took them and tore them in little pieces and said "That's really low you Ass. We gave you what you wanted and now you're going to pull this on us."

"Hey those were excellent pictures, but, don't worry I had 4 prints made of each of them. I don't want to use them but, they are kind of an insurance policy if you will. You see we want to go out again tomorrow night for some more fun, and thought that after tonight you might refuse to go. So in addition to the big deal our parents are working on, if you do refuse then putting these in the hands of the right people might cost your family Billions of dollar, according to my Father. So in light of all this we are formally asking you out again tomorrow night.” Tom told them “Oh yah wear something nice we are going to a really fancy restaurant, under garments are not needed but, bring a swim suit.....or not.”

When they got home the Turners were already there. “Well.....how did it go girls? I trust that you had a good time and that the boys were fun to hang out with? The Tuckers were so glad to see you girls here with us. They travel so much that the boys don’t get much of a chance to make friends.” Mr. Tucker said. (Yah I don’t doubt that, the way that they think about and treat women.) Ellie thought

“Let’s just say that it wasn’t what I would have suspected from boys from their back ground and breeding. They were a little rough around the edges. Most of the evening was fun and interesting, but, they seemed to be a little full of themselves” Cat told her Dad

“Wait.....they didn’t force you to do something that you didn’t want did they? They didn’t hurt you or anything like that? I know that we have this big deal with their parents that we are close to close on, but, not at the expense of them taking advantage of the two of you.” He asked

“No Mr. Tucker we’re fine, no one was hurt. (I just had to suck the first cock that I’ve even seen. She thought) It’s just that they like to brag about themselves and all that they have, and everywhere they’ve been. I think that they are just a little spoiled and used to getting what they want and haven’t had the pleasure of dating two strong willed girls like us that can say no and mean it. As a matter of fact they have asked us out again tomorrow to go swimming and then maybe dinner and a show in the evening. We accepted, so I hope that, it’s alright. We’ll show them a good time without giving them what every young boy, their age, seems to really want if you know what I mean and I’m sure that you do.” Ellie told him hoping that she wasn't trying too hard to sell this whole thing. Then as she noticed where his eyes were focused. She gave a little cough which caused him to look up to see that she knew right where his thoughts and eyes were at, causing him to blush red faced.

(Honey if I were a young man again I'd play every card in the deck trying to get into those sweet young panties of yours. So I can't blame them for trying. He thought to himself) "Ah.....Yah.....sure if that's what you want to do then you go ahead and do it. Just be careful and if you get in any trouble you call us right away." He told them.

"We will Daddy, you and Mom just go and have a good time and don't worry about us, we'll be just fine." Cat said.

In their room finally alone Ellie turned to Cat. "Just what in the hell am I supposed to do, when they come tomorrow to pick us up and I can't do what they told us to do, about wearing no underwear. When he reaches down between my legs expecting to find a nice clean shaven vagina and gets ahold of a penis, all be it a small one, It can't be mistaken for anything but, a penis, that's going to blow their minds and probably your Dad's big deal?"

"Ok now don't go flipping out on me. There's always the possibility that this will turn him on, it just might be his thing. Or tell him you just started your period and have to wear a belt and pad for a few days, he's a 16 year old kid, what can he know about these things? "Cat told her. "If you just do an extra good job on your makeup and wear something sexy He'll probably get off just looking at you."

The next day the girls got ready and about 9:00 am the boys showed up in their jeep to fetch them. They were both dressed as requested. They each had on these simple summer jumpers with no lingerie underneath. Their finger nails and toe nail were painted to match each outfit. Cat being a blonde wore an orange dress with matching nails. Her open sandals were white and allowed her orange nails to shine. Ellie wore a white jumper and soon came to regret it in the bright sun light with no lingerie underneath. The sun made it almost see through. Her long auburn hair was in long spiral curls and she chose fire engine red for her luscious plump lips and had matching red nails. Her open sandals were red and the sunlight made her nails sparkle. Cat helped her by shaving her pubic hair off completely leaving her soft and smooth down there. Then she went a bought some surgical tape and taped her small penis up towards her belly. They each carried a large hand bag with their swimwear and make up and personal things, like ID's, Credit cards and such.

As hoped for the boys were speechless when they saw the girls. They headed for town and found the mall, where they went in and out of stores until the boys picked out different sexy outfits for the girls to try on. At this specialty shop they had them try on these really sexy short dresses. They were so soft to the touch, and had square neck lines that showed the tops of their breasts and buttoned up the back. The skirts flared out at the hips and came down only three inches below their private parts, so that they couldn't bend over without showing those parts. They found colors to match each of their sandals with the three inch heels, ensuring that they had to bend down at the knees to pick up anything from the ground or floor, or risk showing their private parts.

Much to the girls chagrin the boys made them change into the new dresses. Arm in arm they then walked into one of the most famous restaurants on the island for lunch. The five star rating was not given to the restaurant for nothing. Their lunches were supreme. Then after the lunch they took the girls to the show, not bothering to ask them what they wanted to see. It turned out that the movie was x rated with plenty of sexual scenes. They sat in the middle of the theater and once settled in the girls were embarrassed at what they saw on the screen.

“Tim this show is not appropriate and I think that we should leave right now. I don’t appreciate you bringing us here to view this type of trash. Now we’ve given into your blackmailing demands, but, I think that it’s time to act like proper well bread youths.” Ellie told him.

“Hey darling you’d better start believing that you’re my bitch until I tell you otherwise. Screw your proper upbringing and breeding. I now have pictures of your beautiful red lips around my cock from several different angles, and pictures of my cum all over your lips and chin. If you think for one minute that I won’t send them to my parents, the Turners, and yes that includes your Mother back home, as I googled where you live. I’ll also plaster the internet and Facebook with these pictures too. Now I want you to knee down and practice what you learned yesterday.....and you’d better look like you’re loving that cock. No acting or pretending, you’d better get into the mood I want to see your eyes sparkle and moan like you’re loving to do this.” Tim told her.

Ellie started to say something but, Tim put his finger to her lips and then moved the same finger to the send button on his phone. “You have 2 minutes to put those beautiful lips and tongue to better use then talking, starting now.” He said and showed her the phone again.

Ellie knew right then and there that once again ‘there was no choice for Allen / Ellie.’ Slowly she did as ordered and stooped down between Tim’s legs as she didn’t want to kneel down on these dirty floors. She also had to try and keep her balance on the 3 inch heels and remain as modest as possible and not show her bare ass.

“You’re running out of time bitch, you’d better get to sucking my dick or I push the send button. Wouldn’t the Turners and your parents be really proud to see what a slut you’ve become? You do a good job and I’ll start deleting the pictures.” He told her.

Ellie pulled his pants down and took hold of his cock. Fearing the fact that he would push the send button, she got right to it and began licking and kissing the penis all over. She spit on it for lube and then took it into her mouth. Using both her lips and tongue she began to make love to the cock to get this over with as soon and possible. “Do you want my big cock baby?” he asked “Oh yes Tim, but, it’s so big and fills my whole mouth up.” She replied. “Do you want me to go deeper?” he asked. “Yes.....yes Tim but, please be gentle as I’ve never had it down my throat.” She answered.

After several minute of this back and forth sexual teasing, Tim asked “Do you want me to cum in your mouth so you can swallow all of my built up man seed?”

“Oh yes” she said. “Then go ahead and say it. Tell me that you want my cum in your mouth.” He said

“Yes baby.....I want your hot salty cum in my mouth.” She said. Tim looked down and saw that beautiful face and luscious red lips around his cock and try a he might to hold back, he couldn’t do it. It took only seconds and Tm felt the orgasm building and “BOOM” wave after wave of cum shot out of his cock like a canon going off. Ellie tried her best to swallow and keep up with the hot seamen flying down her throat as rope and rope of Tim’s sperm pumped in.

Then the biggest surprise of her entire life happened. Tim pulled her up and told her to watch the movie for a bit while he loaded up for round two.

“Look over there Ellie baby, doesn’t that look a lot like those two people over there?” he said and pointed to the two lovers just across the aisle from them.

Ellie looked and said “OH my God, I think that, that really is them, what are they doing in here?” She said.

Just then the picture changed and as she turned her head back towards the big giant screen, what she saw there made her turn white as a ghost, for there on the screen she found and heard herself sucking and blowing Tim’s cock and answering all of his degrading questions, with “Yes” in a moaning sexual voice. Even asking for his cum in her mouth

Then when the movie came to an end, everyone in the theater began clapping, further humiliating her. Big tears began to run down her cheeks.

“I’ll bet you never figured that you’d become a movie star. Much less a porn star, at that. I’ve paid extra to buy you a copy of the movie for yourself, so you can watch it over and over. The management however owns the original and will not sell it. He might be willing to let you work in one of his strip clubs to work it off?”

“Tim.....you awful little man, what have you done to me? Ellie said.

“Oh come on Ellie May, you loved that and don’t try and tell me that you didn’t. Right now baby tell me that you loved my dick in your mouth and tell me that it excited you to see yourself on the big screen, dressed like a movie star and performing sexual acts.” When she didn’t respond he took out his phone and showed her the send button.

“Oh mom how I wish I was home right now being held in your arms, who would have ever thought something as disgusting as this could ever happen to me? I just wanted a nice vacation in Hawaii” she thought. "Tim I loved your big dick in my mouth." She said. "Louder" Tim demanded. "I loved your big dick in my mouth." She said quite loud.

"Now the rest of it. He ordered "Ok.....alright I guess that it was exciting to see myself on that big screen, and it makes me wet having all of those people watching me and knowing that they were jacking off from watching me." She said loud enough that she didn't have to repeat it.

Ellie turned to see what Tom was doing with Cat. Tom had Cat leaned over the seat in front of him with her bare ass towards him. Then she noticed that his cock was inside of her and she was rocking back and forth on that hard penis, and moaning and groaning like there was no tomorrow. She appeared to really be into it as she rocked harder and harder.

Ellie then turned and looked at the huge wall screen and watched Cat, not making love but, fucking Tom and loving it. She was oblivious to the movie on the wall that she was now staring in. Finally she screamed out loud and fell back on Tom's lap, as he released a huge load into Cat's pussy.

All of a sudden she was aware of what he'd just done as his cum ran out of her pussy and down her legs. "You ASSHOLE" she hollered "I told you not to cum inside of me. I'm not on any kind of birth control." She said looking at him with hate in her eyes. "I'd better not get pregnant you dumb ass." She added. "You are going to have to take me to a drug store and get one of those night after.....day after, or whatever the fuck they call them."

"Alright, don't have a heart attack. Come on Tim let's get out of here." Tom said and as they got up to go, people began clapping and cheering. Causing both girls to blush and then turn bright red. Tom and Tim thought that this was really cool and each of them took a bow and waved at the people, (almost all men) as they walked out.

“Would you girls like to stop and get a bite to eat, it’s still pretty early. Or have you had enough meat for one night.” Tim said laughing.

“No thank you we are more than ready to go home, you’ve embarrassed us enough for one night.....and humiliated me more so than I’ve ever been in my whole life. Don’t you think that’s enough for one night?” Cat said. “Before we do anything else you have to go to the Drug store and get me that Day after pill.” And he did at least to this one decent thing and stopped and got her the pill, as he didn’t want her to get knocked up and have a baby with her at his age.

“Ok but, on the drive home I want you to suck my cock some more.” Tim told Ellie, but, she was just too tired to fight him anymore and reached over to find that he’d already undone his pants and had his cock out. Tim stopped her and said. “Ah.....Ah.....I want to hear you ask me if you can suck my big dick, and tell me that you love sucking my big Pecker.”

“Come on Tim haven’t you had enough fun for one night at my expense?” Ellie said.

“Hey sweet heart do you want to go home tonight or not, or better still, do you want a copy of your starring roll to go home before you. Yes we bought five copies each of the movies you made tonight.” He threatened.

“Ok.....you’ve made your point. Tim honey you know that I’ve come to love sucking and making love to your big cock. Please baby.....may I suck your dick and make you cum in my mouth.” Ellie said and looked up to see the little shit once again recording her every word on his phone.

“That’s better sweet cheeks, yes you may blow me. But, you’d better get at it, because if I don’t cum by the time we get you back, then we'll be going for a much longer ride and I'm going to take that cherry of yours period or no period." He said. Ellie then used every bit of the skills she'd learned over the past couple of nights and had Tim moaning in no time. Then he once again shot his load of sweet and salty mix of cum down her throat and she didn't spill a drop. Against her own will she couldn't help the fact that she was actually acquiring a taste for his cum.

She was repairing her makeup just as they pulled into their bungalow "Give us a nice big kiss like you mean it and thank us for all the cum, and we'll call it a night.

Almost like being in a coma, each girl repeated the request and got out of the jeep. As they did Tom said see you girls tomorrow around noon.

As they entered the bungalow the Turners were home early and enjoying cocktails. The looks on their faces indicated that their meetings went well. "Good news Girls, we closed the deal and will be returning home tomorrow. We are sorry for cutting your vacation here short, but, we have much to do to get things moving back home." Kate said.

As Kate saw what looked like relief on their faces she asked "Is everything OK girls? I thought that you would be really upset and disappointed at leaving so soon. According to the Gale Tucker her boys both said they had the time of their lives. I guess they were quite smitten with the two of you." Kate said,

"Yeh those little pricks should have been after what they did to us" Ellie mumbled under her breath.

"Yah, they were really cool, but, we'll never see them again, so we can't build any kind of relationship, and besides we are just anxious to get back home with our own friends." Cat told them.

The flight home was uneventful and they were soon back in the limo and on their way. Carl the limo driver dropped Ellie off at her house and took her bags in for her. Her Mom met her at the door and was a little surprised at how Ellie greeted her. Ellie hugged her like never before and wouldn't let go. "Well.....this sure is a welcome greeting, I'm surprised as when you left for your trip, you gave me the notion that you didn't want to be here and now you're here with such a warm return home. I like it, and I missed you but, didn't think you felt the same." Marge told Ellie.

"Oh Mom, I'm sorry and I've never been so glad to be back home again. The trip was wonderful and we saw some beautiful things in Hawaii, but, I also learned that there are some very mean people in this world. We met a couple of boys that fit that description. The sons of the people that the Turners had to do business with. I'm fine now that I'm back home but, I'm sure glad we don't have to deal with the likes of those two anymore." Ellie told her and then hugged her again and then went and hugged her Dad I love you Daddy and wish all the men were as good and decent as you are." She told him.

Things settled down over the next couple of days, until Ellie began to get emails from that awful Tim Tucker, asking her if she'd like him to come and visit her. She promptly replied that she didn't want to see him again ever. He then asked if she'd like a copy of the movie that she starred in to share with her parents. He then told her that he was heading to Thailand for the next couple of months with his parents on a couple of major acquisitions, and wouldn't be available, but, maybe when he returned in a couple of months.

Ellie got an idea in her head and couldn't wait to discuss it with Cat, and called her and told her about Tim getting her email and threatening her again. She told her that she had an idea and needed to talk with her but, not over the phone.

The next day Cat drove over and picked her up after Ellie had asked her Mom nicely if she could go to lunch with Cat. Mom liked this new attitude and said yes she could go.

They didn't go anywhere fancy, but, the place was quiet and Ellie filled Cat in on Tim's call. Here is what I was thinking, let's go to your Dad and tell him only the highlights of what those boys did to us for several days. I'll get that bragger Tim to tell us where they are staying. Thailand is famous the world over for turning boys into girls. Now I know that your Dad has a lot of power and influence in the business world. I'll bet that he has access to some pretty scary people. When your Dad knows some of the things those boys did to us, he could have these guys picked up without anyone knowing who's behind it and turned over to the right kind of people there In Thailand that could turn them into Girls and make them work in some of the seedy bars over there. What do you think?" Ellie asked

"Wow.....all this from the shy little boy girl that I met only 7 months ago. You're unbelievable baby, but, I love it. Those bastards really put us through it for 4 days, and My Dad might even have them castrated when he finds out what they did.

Just as Cat had suspected after telling her did what they did. He did know the right people to do the job without leaving a trace back to them. Their Fee was given and Mr. Turner said he would have paid double that amount. He offered a million dollars, half now and the other half with proof when the job was done. And so it was the plan was put into action, and within a day Ellie never heard from Tim or Tom again. The Turners told them that no one ever needed to know about any of this. He made them promise as part of the agreement to forget it ever happened and to never tell anyone about this or they could all end up in prison.

By the end of the week Mom finally brought up Ellie's promise to at least try the modeling profession. After Hawaii Ellie was hesitant to try anything, but, agreed to hold up her end of the deal with Mom. "Good because they are anxious to get started and have several jobs waiting on you. I told them we could be there the day after tomorrow." She said.

That morning Ellie showered and powdered herself then put on a light pink lacey bra and matching thong panties. She then put on a suspender belt with 6 inch hanging tabs. She rolled on a pair of nude nylons and attached them to the 6 hanging tabs, then slipped her feet into a pair of 3 inch heels with straps across the top and sides and buckled them closed. The not knowing what they would have her wear she just slipped on a black mini skirt and a simple white tee shirt. She brushed out her long auburn hair and applied her makeup, which made her look sexy and beautiful at the same time.

"That's what you're wearing Ellie, you look like a hooker." Mom said. "Mom, I figured if they are going to use me as a model that they will have me changing into whatever they are selling or advertising for and I'll be in and out of different clothes all day long, or maybe all day for one job? So I thought it best to wear something simple that I can get in and out of easily." "Alright I guess I see how that makes sense, but, I still think that you should always be dressed your best and present the beautiful woman you've become. Honey just look at you, you are more feminine and woman than most natural born women are. I believed from the beginning that being a beautiful woman was your destiny from the very start." Mom drove and parked in the big lot close to the studio.

"Now I talked to a MS. Stone this morning and they are expecting you now, so you go ahead on in and I'm going to run to the mall and pick up a couple of things and I'll be back to watch you do your thing." Mom told her Ellie got out and found the door locked so she went around to another door and it opened easily. She walked in and some guy named T.C. (Tony Cass) yelled at her. "It's about time lady, you've got our whole line shut down waiting on our leading lady." He said, did you fill out your paper work? She didn't know what he was talking about as Mom always took care of the paper work and legal contracts. The next thing she knew this guy named T.C. was thrusting a bunch of forms in front of her and telling her that she should have already signed these. "Never mind we don't have time to find them. This is a standard contract whereas you'll work for us and no one else for the next three years. Hey.....you are at least 18 years old aren't you?" He asked. Yes sir" she answered. Then this T.C. guy scared her and caught her off guard. "Come ON Girl, sign the dammed papers so we can get moving, we have people waiting." So she began signing her name on the forms without really getting the chance to read them. Ellie had no idea that by mistake she'd entered the wrong side of the building and that this was not the modeling studio that she thought she was in. it was instead a seedy little video studio that made short porn tapes.

"Good God you are really a beauty honey." He said and yelled out "Makeup" and two people, a man and a woman ran out with their makeup cases in hand and added more black eye liner on top and bottom eye lids, then use a smoky gray eye shadow. They finished up by making her lips a brighter red and added some lip gloss.

"Ok honey, you are a house wife and your hubby has just come home from work. Your line will be, (hi baby your dinner is in the oven, we have about 45 minutes. how was your day?) When Ellie just stood there looking at him, T.C. said. "Come on Julie did you even bother to read the script?"

"What script, I didn't know anything about a script, this is my first day here." She replied.

"Oh that's just freaking great. I take it that you CAN read then. Or are you just another beautiful air head that Ricky found for me to try and work with? Ok.....listen up baby, your lines are short so you look over hear and we'll print your lines on the chalk board. Alright take it from the top.

"Julie standing in the front room. First of all lose the T shirt and slip on this cut off blouse and leave the top 3 buttons undone. Ah that's better.'

Jake: Jake enters the house.

Julie: Hi baby your dinner is in the oven, we have about 45 minutes. How was your day?

Jake: It was a bitch, working for that damned woman and she is pissing me off more and more each day.

Julie: "Poor baby, well like I said, we have about 45 minutes, do you want Mama to try and make it all better?"

Jake: yah that's the only thing that got me through the day with that bitch, thinking about those sweet lips and fine ass of yours"

Ellie....."Wait just what kind of modeling is this? This looks more like a play or movie or something and I'm not into this sort of thing."

TC: come on now girl, I've been really patient with you. You show up late, you don't know your lines and now you don't like the clip. Now I know that you're beautiful but, do you think this job is beneath you and your sorry ass? You signed a contract just minutes ago that says you'll do whatever the fuck I tell you to do.....Without question. Now get your sorry ass over there and read the fucking lines and do as I tell you or I'll sue you and your family and friends and next born child for everything you own. For Christ sake your mother told me that you'd do whatever it takes to make it into the industry. Now if you make me play dirty I can. I have your address and I won't hurt you as you're going to be my money maker, but, I'll break both your mother and fathers legs." He threatened

Ellie once again felt as if she had no choice, her mother put her in this disgusting situation and she felt that it was her responsibility to do whatever it took to protect them.

So she read her lines and did whatever they told her to do. They took a little break and brought everyone out some water to drink as being under the hot lights for a time made them thirsty. What she didn't know was that they spiked her water bottle and shook it up good so the little drug they slipped in it couldn't be seen.

After sitting for a few minutes they resumed the short film they were making, only now she was beginning to feel a little strange. Soon she was getting horny and didn't object when they pulled her skirt and panties down. The look on their faces was priceless as her small penis fell out of the panties. Jake flipped her over and lubed up her hole with one of his fingers and then did the same to his big cock. Slowly he pushes the head of his big penis past her tight sphincter muscle. Even with the drug and feeling so wanton, she let out a whimper and then a scream. TC loved it and the camera captured every bit of it. Jake began pumping in and out, and despite her brain yelling Stop, her body began to betray her brain and the pain began to turn to pleasure. Each stroke of Jake's cock brought more pleasure until she went over the top and screamed as her little cock shot out rope after rope of cum, the first in her life. Then she was ordered to kneel down and take Jake in her mouth and finish him off. It didn't take long as she tried to get all of that big black cock in her mouth and Jake tightened up trying to hold back but, just couldn't as his cock exploded gobs of hot semen into her mouth and down her throat. She had to swallow as fast as she could to catch her breath;

“Ok people that’s a rap, good job. Julie you did an excellent job here today, but, before you go I’d like to see you in my office.” TC told her. Everyone trickled out until it was just a couple of people checking out the movie, and her and TC.

In his office he dropped his pants and ordered her on her knees. She was still on the drug induced high and didn't hesitate for a second. She had him in her mouth and was using her tongue like she'd learned a few weeks ago in Hawaii.

“Julie baby.....was that really your first time getting fucked in the ass?” TC asked

She shook her head yes and then slid off of TC's cock long enough to say that yes it was her first time.

“Baby I have to try that.” And he helped her up and bent her over his desk and being smaller than Jake, he slipped right in and as she tightened up her sphincter muscle she put a death grip on his cock like he'd never felt before in his entire life, and he'd been in this sex business for a long time.

It didn't take long and he was ready to cum, he told her to drop to her knees and suck his dick, and then as he looked down at this beautiful face and those plump red lips around his cock he came and came some more. Whoa.....baby that was unbelievable, you really are going to make us both some big dollars honey.

Ellie put her clothes back on and washed her face in a dingy little bathroom and then repaired her make up.

As she stepped outside looking for her Mom, she couldn't find her anywhere. She got her cell phone out of her hand bag and dialed her Mom. Mom said it would take around 30 minutes for her to get there again, as when she had come looking for Ellie the first time and no one was in the studio, she thought that Ellie called a cab to take her home.

“When Mom finally got there she said where in the world have you been Ellie?” I’ve looked everywhere. Ellie knew that her Mom had said she’d be there in just a half an hour, but she then told her that the director wanted to go over several lines and give her a run down for tomorrow’s shoots, and she’d lost track of time.

Each of them thinking the other was mixed up. Mom thought she was at the modeling agency and Ellie thinking that Mom lined her up to go to TC’s studio, hated her for it but, didn’t want to talk about the disgusting things she’d just been made to do. “Mom I have to be there early tomorrow morning for makeup and wardrobe, so may I just use the car and drive myself.” Ellie asked “Sure honey I think that that should be just fine, but, you don’t want me to come along and watch? I just received the paperwork and I’m surprised that they started without signing on first. I have them all signed and everything looks to be in order.” Mom said.

“Thanks but they had me sign several pages of papers today before we began shooting, so I took care of it myself.” Ellie said and took the papers Mom had signed on her behalf and tore them up and threw them away in the trash.

“What do you mean that you took care of the legal documents and signed everything yourself. Did you read them carefully?” Mama asked.

“Well as much as I could. You see they were waiting on me and yelling that I was holding up the shoots and costing them money, but, we couldn’t start until the papers were signed, so I signed them. I tried to tell them that my Mom always took care of the legal papers and such, but, they kept yelling that I was late and holding them up and costing them lots of money by making the other Models wait too.”

Cat called and wanted to know how her first day as a high class model went. When Ellie told her about that memorable first day, Cat could not believe that Ellie’s own Mom would do that to her, especially after her Mom was so adamant about her chastity.

The next morning Ellie was up and 5 am and on her way to the studio by 6:00 am for what God only knows what was to happen that day. A woman named Rose was there to meet her and said that she was going to be doing her hair, as requested by TC for the noon shoot. So she took Ellie back to a little in house salon. Once there she washed and rinsed her hair and towel dried it, but, left it damp. She applied some sort of lotion and then began by scribing a line in her hair right down the middle and then the long task of putting her hair into 6 long corn rolls. This was a tedious task and took a couple of hours to complete. This really changed her looks. Next Rose turned her over to Latasha for Makeup.

Latasha started by applying this black eye liner on her upper and lower eye lids with a very small needle pen, virtually tattooing the black lines on her lids permanently. She added these long false eye lashes by using a super glue product. Latasha then inserted these big two inch silver hoop ear rings. She told her to stick out her tongue, but, Ellie told her that her Mom was dead set against her getting any more piercings. Latasha then told Ellie that the Boss wanted that done today and that she (Ellie) had signed off on it. She told her that they could do this the easy way or the hard way and that was her only two choices. If I need to I'll call over Bruce and he'll make you wish you'd chosen the easy way.

Ellie once again was put in a position that she really had no choice at all, and stuck out her tongue. Latasha was careful to spray only the tip of her tongue with a quick numbing spray, and did both sides of her tongue. She then washed her hands and put off these medical gloves. She put a dot on Ellie's tongue about an inch from the tip and then using a special piercing gun placed it on the dot and pulled the trigger. 'POP' and it was over, except for the pain she was going to feel for quite a while to come. Latasha then carefully screwed on the opposite end of the little bar bell and tightened it so that it was very secure.

Next came her makeup. Blue and grey eye shadow were blended in followed by darkening her high arched thin eye brows. Then Latasha added a little color to her cheeks and then used a lip liner to outline her plump full lips and then applied her red lip cream and gloss.

They had her strip down, and then put a low cut bra on her that kind of lifted her perky young breasts up. They next pulled a red and white horizontal t top on her that was quite tight followed by a red high cut thong and a pair of Red shorts that were very tight and short.

While they were doing all of that Rose had remove her long nails and cleaned and buffed them to get ready for her new nails. They were an inch and a half long and curved downward on the ends. Another lady then showed up and painted her long curved nails a bright red. She was looking more like a hooker all the time. While she sat there letting the finger and toe nails dry. Latasha came over and offered her some orange juice and a small sweet roll. Ellie was both thirsty and hungry by now, and so she gladly accepted the little snack. (Which of course had a drug mixed in to make her relax and less resistant.....and horny too.)

The first scene was in a bar and this huge black man, Jerome, helped her out when these two white business men were hitting on Julie and wouldn't stop until Jerome intervened and sent them flying out the door.

Then Jerome took her home to his house as she was too drunk to get home on her own. Or even tell him where she lived. Then the next day Jerome went out to work leaving her there alone.

Enter Jerome's sister (Ta short for Teresa) a pretty college girl coming home for the weekend. Julie (Ellie) wakes up with a splitting head ache and finds this beautiful light skinned black girl in the shower. Julie is in the kitchen looking around for the stuff to make coffee when Ta comes in with a towel wrapped around her and shows her where everything is to make the coffee. After a couple of cups of coffee and waking up they talked for over an hour and then ended up in bed together. Ta really liked her right away so the acting was easy for her, and when she discovered that Julie had a little something extra in her panties, she liked her even more.

Enter Jerome home from work and finds his sister in bed with Julie. He storms in and orders Ta to go to her own room and he starts asking Julie questions about where she lived and as she sat up her beautiful full boobs were in plain sight and she made no effort to hide them.

What happened last night she asks him and how did I end up here. Jerome then tells her that she was falling down drunk and these two white guys were hitting on her heavy and wouldn't stop. I bounced their white asses out the door. You were so drunk that you couldn't even tell me where you lived so I brought your drunk ass home here with me.

So did we do anything.....I mean sexually speaking? Julie asked.

“No not last night but this morning you rolled over real early and grabbed old Jerome's cock and kept saying “Oh my God that's big, and I've never had a black cock. Well let's just say that you can't say that any more. So you ready for another round, because I am wanting me some more of dat ass, and he took it, only this time Julie didn't have any drug to mask the pain. Jerome hugged her and kissed her and rolled her over and took him some of that nice virgin ass.

“CUT.....” TC yelled out. “That's a wrap for today, great job people. We'll pick this story line up again tomorrow, so Julie I want you to stay in your roll as it takes too long to get you ready.” TC ordered.

So Ellie just slipped on her blouse that she wore to the studio this morning and her little mini skirt. Then without even thinking about it she touched up her makeup and headed out to her car. She drove about 4 miles and the car quit on her and wouldn't start again. She turned her flashers on and just sat there for about 15 minutes, going over all the shit that she'd been through these past days. She was about to call for road service when this motor home pulled up and stopped behind her. This big tall black man introduced himself as Don and asked if he could help. “Yes please that would be great.” Ellie said telling him her name.

“It's getting a little chilly tonight so while I look this over for the problem why don't you go and sit in my motor home where it's nice and warm and comfy.” Don told her.

About 25 minutes later Don entered the motor home holding a wire harness and said that he could fix it in a jiffy, he told her that all he had to do now was hook this harness back up.

“How long will that take Don?” Ellie asked. “Well that depends on you Ms. Ellie. I don’t want your money or anything like that but, what I do want is a blow job and a good old fashioned fuck. You help me and you’re on the road in 5 minutes after we are through.” He told her.

It seemed like another life ago she was Allen, it seemed like years now that she was Ellie May Kelly. But, as the title says, once again Ellie really had no choice. She felt defeated even before he asked, as she thought while he worked on her car that she’d pay one way or another. So she told herself she might just as well get this over with. She just hoped that when he discovered her little secrete he didn’t do anything violent.

Don approached her slowly and said. “Don’t be afraid, I’m kind of an old fashioned romantic and I don’t like or do anything rough. I much prefer to make love and not just have sex. You are a beautiful little flower and I’ll never do anything to hurt you so please relax.” And with that he took her hand and led her to the back of the motor home. Once there he turned her slowly and kissed her. His kiss was soft and gentle and nothing like the men she’d had to deal with at the studio the past few days. He slowly caressed her back and then began to undress her. He marveled at his good luck when he saw her breasts bare and firm. He slid his hand down her hips and over her butt. Finally Ellie afraid of what was coming steeled herself for his reaction as he gave out a whistle and unfolded her little penis. “Well, well what have we got here? I wouldn’t have gusted it or believed it if you’d told me right up front.” He said and then put his hand on her shoulder and pressed down softly.

She dropped to her knees and began to give him the best blow job of his life. He couldn't believe what her mouth and tongue could do to him. He had to push her away before he came right there and then. "Oh baby you're the best I've ever had. Here.....set down for a minute and let us both cool down for just a little bit. Then he kissed her ear and then down her neck to her left tit. He lingered there sucking it out and then hearing the popping sound, as his mouth let go. He then kissed her belly and then shocked her as he took her little penis in his mouth and licked and sucked her like she'd never experienced before. "You've got one really big clit here honey, and it seems to like a little attention as it's growing bigger.

Next Don reached in the drawer on the night stand and took out a tube of KY gel and rubbed it all around her little male pussy and when he'd got her all covered he put a big drop on her hole and pushed a finger in and lubing up her hole on the inside. He then covered his penis with the gel and slowly worked his way inside of her. Ellie gave a little squeal and then began riding his cock and pushing back and forth before he could start. As much as she didn't want to admit it she was beginning to like being taken by these big black strangers. Don pounded away for several minutes bringing her to an orgasm as his big long and fat cock stretched the sides of her boy pussy. Then he pulled out and turned her around and pushed her to her knees and rubbed his cum coated cock against her lips. She opened her mouth and he pushed himself in. Ellie could taste her own hot salty cum on her tongue, and it wasn't so bad she thought. Don then turned her around and pushed her back onto the bed on all fours spreading her legs out wide and pushing her ass back towards him. He couldn't believe this young woman as she went right at it, humping his cock like a starved dog. Ellie pushed in and out then side to side. She orgasmed twice more before sending Don over the top to a major climax. He had to pull out as the sensitivity was just too much.

“Holy shit girl, you are something else. I’ve never enjoyed sex like that before. If you’re interested I could just hook your car up behind my motor home and pull you around with me. We could head out west to Arizona where it’s warm and spend the winter together?” He offered.

“Sorry I can’t do that, my Mom and Dad would have the police tracking me down and Daddy would blister my ass until I couldn’t sit down, besides I have a binding contract with a modeling agency and I have to be back in the morning for work. They would put out their bounty hunter I was told and he wouldn’t necessarily be a nice Guy.” She told him and suddenly realized that she hadn’t called home herself. She found her purse and pulled out her phone and dialed home.

“Mom.....yes don’t worry, my car acted up and quit along the road side. This nice man pulled over to help me and just now managed to fix my problem and I’ll be on my way. Alright see you shortly.” She said and hung up, then turned to Don “I really do have to get home, if you’d be so kind as to install that wire thingy I’d be ever so grateful.”

“Ok honey because after what you just did for me.....it’s the very least that I can do for you by keeping my word. Give me just a few minutes and I’ll have you up and running again.” Don told Ellie. It only took a few minutes and Don had her car running again.

For some reason Ellie felt compelled to give him and hug and a kiss and thank him, not only for fixing her car but, also for being the first man to actually make soft, gentle love to her and not just have selfish rough sex with her. Don’s way was surely more pleasant and enjoyable.

She arrived home about a half an hour later and as she walked in the door Mom met her. “OH MY God, Ellie May what on earth have you done to your beautiful hair.” Ellie had forgotten about her new hairdo and had become used to it over the course of the day.

“Oh I forgot about it. The beautician on staff did this first thing this morning for the shoots that we worked on most of the afternoon, and the director said not to change as we had more shoots tomorrow and I have lines to study tonight, but, for now it just feels so wonderful to be home and looking forward to my Momma’s cooking, they actually gave us soul food for lunch to help us get into character for the scenes we were working on. Black people sure eat some weird foods. My role is to be this poor Black man’s wife. According to the script we met at a party where I was going to college and he more or less kid napped me, I had too much to drink and couldn’t even tell him where I lived, so he took me home with him and decided to keep me. His family took me in and tried to make me be like one of their own, hence the corn rolls and trashy clothing. ” She said.

Ellie.....what on earth does this have to do with promoting a clothing line or advertise a product? This whole thing sounds a little fishy to me. This was supposed to be a top line agency.” Mom told her.

Well I don’t really know Mama you’re the one to set this whole thing up and you’re the one to drive me right there to the studio. Then they made me sign all those contracts. I told them right then that my Mom always takes care of the legal work, but, they said they’d been waiting on me and that I was costing them money by holding up the shoot. They also said that they couldn’t start until the contracts were signed. I didn’t know what to do so I just went and signed them, so that we could get started.”

“Do I have time to shower and change clothes before dinner, ignoring the fact that Mom was still in shock at her corn rolled hair and the clothes she had on that made her look like slutty house wife of some big black man.

“Yes.....please do, I can’t believe that you ran around wearing that little bit of nothing. And just what are they advertising dressed like that.”

“Mama, once again, this is the job that you yourself got me signed up for. Trust me I sure didn’t want to do this, and I was totally embarrassed at first when they did my makeup and gave me my first outfit. But, then I realized that I had to keep up my part of the deal we made so I could go to Hawaii with Cat and her parents.” Ellie told her Mama.

“Well I never dreamed that they would exploit your beautiful body in this way. I thought they were doing ads for top fashion clothing lines or make up and jewelry lines like they told me about. We can talk more about all of this after you shower and put on something decent to wear, I’ll have dinner ready by the time that you are done. But, I hope that you’ll use a little more fashion sense in dressing for dinner. I wouldn’t want to have Daddy see you the way that you looked when you came home.

After showering and changing clothes Ellie took some time applying her make up. Then she put on some jewelry, selecting a pair of drop down leaf earrings and a matching gold neckless and a gold bracelet for her right wrist and a small gold watch for her left wrist. Next she chose a cute little black dress with square neck and two inch wide shoulder straps. The dress was about 5 inches above the knee. She slipped on a pair of tan nylon hold ups and smoothed them into place and then finished with a pair of three inch high heeled pumps with a strap and buckle around the ankle. She touched up her lips and then added a little gloss which made them sparkle and shine in the light.

As she walked into the dining room, Dad couldn't help but, notice something different about his daughter right away. She walked with a sway in her hips and her pear shaped ass seemed to move in rhythm with her upper body and her breasts.....oh my goodness her breasts could hardly be contained by her bra. The bare tops peeked over the top opening of her tight dress. They seemed to be bigger than he remembered.

Ellie walked over to her Dad and gave him a hug and a kiss and said. "Hi Daddy I've missed you. It seems like we keep missing each other with us both working a lot."

She felt a little strange as she became immediately aware of the fact that her Dad was staring at her breasts and couldn't seem to pull his eyes away. He was staring with a lust that she'd never seen from him.

Mom broke the trance as she asked Ellie to help her bring dinner in. "Have a seat dear and stop staring at your daughter." This caused them both to turn red with embarrassment. "Ellie I'd hoped that you'd picked out something a little more conservative. If you're going to go around advertising your goods then you may have to make a sale one of these days. Plus don't you feel that, that is a little cruel to stand before Daddy and make him get all excited and look at his daughter with lust in his eyes"

"Mama that was never my intention I just wanted to feel pretty again after these past couple of days, and I never even thought that Daddy would look at me in that way." Ellie said

"Well for goodness sakes, he's a man isn't he? And he's only human. The way that you are dressed you couldn't walk in anywhere without causing a big stir. You are a beautiful woman, although I don't care for the corn rolls at all." Mama told her.

“Well would you like me to run up and put something else on Mama? Plus about the corn rolls, the director told me to leave them in to finish the scene we were working on, and besides unless you know how to remove them we are in trouble because I don’t have a clue as to how to take them out. I don’t know why Black people think that they are so fashionable and cool, but, I like my hair the way it was before.” Ellie said making Mama happy that she felt that way because Mama liked her long flowing hair too.

The home cooking was just what Ellie needed. The dinner was great and the conversation was good. But, Ellie felt a little embarrassed about what she’d been directed to do. So she was vague in her answers to all of Mama’s questions. At least to this point Ellie thought that this is the place that Mama had intended for her to go. After all who would have thought that this business was in the same building as the modeling agency?

The next morning Ellie was back to the same place she’d been the past couple of days. TC had one of the hands bring in fresh donuts and juice. TC made sure that Ellie got the doctored up juice to make her feel a little stoned and more pliable for the upcoming scenes. She changed into her shorts and halter top with the help of the makeup team and they told TC that she was ready.

Ok people today I want to finish off with a bit more real acting. Jerome are you up for the real thing today?” TC asked the big black man.

“You bet I am, I’ve been really wanting some of that little white girl’s ass again since that first day she walked in here Boss.”

“Ok people let’s make this count, take your places. Now Jake (Jerome) just comes home from a hard day’s work at the construction site. He expects his dinner to be ready and Julie had been busy cleaning all day and hadn't even started dinner yet. "What the fuck woman you still drunk or something? You know I wants my dinner when I gets home."

The effects of the drugs she'd been given began to kick in. "I'm shit Jake. I've been cleaning all day, so I says that we order some take out for tonight, as I'm just as tired as your big old black ass." She said.

"Yeh but, you're going to pay for it bitch." Jake told her. After Jake had gone out and brought home dinner consisting of Chinese sweet and sour chicken and fried rice with 2 egg rolls. Julie began to clean up the dishes and the kitchen, when she felt her Man standing behind her. He undid her halter top and let it fall to the ground. He then put his big strong arms around her and cupped her fantastic breasts. He let one hand trace down her belly to her shorts and unbutton them and pull down the zipper. Then he pulled them down her legs and slapped her ass and told her to step out of them. She did as he ordered. Next he pulled her panties down and had her step out of them as well.

Now she stood at the sink stark naked trying to finish the supper dishes. Jake was kissing her ear and neck and lightly tickling one tit while rubbing her big clit with the other. Then she felt his manhood rubbing up against her boy pussy. He bent her over the sink, and put a big glob of KY gel on her hole and rubbed it inside of her, then he slowly worked his big thick and long cock up her ass, only this time it was for real, and Ellie let out a squeal as he entered her back side. Then Jake began his pistoning motion in and out. Ellie tried to disengage from the monster cock, but, Jake put his big hands on her shoulders and held her in place. Soon the pain turned to pleasure as the big cock rubbed across her prostate which then caused her to moan and groan and want more of this wonderful feeling. Jake reached around and turned her head so he could kiss her. It didn't take long and her tight ass made him shoot a huge amount of cum right up her ass and it leaked and ran down her legs as he pulled out. “Now that’s what I call desert baby.”

Ellie couldn’t believe her own feeling after that, mostly because she’d never had an orgasm like that before. She got this warm feeling thinking about Jerome, he was really a great lover and made sure that she got off before he looked for his own feelings. But, she was shaken from her thoughts as TC began to speak.

“That was great people, you made me believe in Love again just watching the two of you. I think we have all we need for our movie so that’s a wrap and Ellie you can change back and have Rose take out your corn rolls now, unless you like them and want to keep them.” TC told her. “But I’m working on a new movie that we’ll start on Monday and I want your long flowing locks back by then.”

“Hey.....Ellie you want to go and grab dinner someplace? I can drop you off later or bring you back here to your car. What do you say, I’d like spending a little more time getting to know you.” Jerome asked.

“I don’t know how long it’s going to take Rose to undo these corn rolls in my hair. But, if you still want to after that, yes I’d like that.

With that, she hurried back to Rose’s shabby little salon station and waited to be taken care of. Taking them lose was several times faster than the time it took to put them in. when she was done Rose brushed and brushed trying to get some of the tight curls out of Elle’s long hair.

Finally done with her hair, she applied fresh make up and put on a nice dress she’d worn that morning before changing and shooting the scenes with Jerome. Jerome stood when he saw her coming and complimented her on how she looked.

He helped her into his new Cadillac Escalade and off they went. Ellie called her Mom and told her that she wouldn't be home for dinner as she was going out with a friend. She told Mom that Jerome and she had been working together and he asked her out to dinner.

Jerome surprised her as they pulled in to one to the hottest new restaurants in town. She'd heard about the place from Cat, and Cat told her it was impossible to get in without a reservation. Jerome had planned this ahead of time and did have a reservation for them.

"Good evening Mr. Jackson, yes we have your usual table ready." And took them to a nice table by a window overlooking a lake. Jerome helped seat his date. "Thank you Jerome.....Wow this is truly a side of you that I've not seen before. When I see how rough you can be while shooting the scenes we've done together I was kind of worried about accepting your invitation for dinner. I guess I really didn't know what to expect, but, you seem to be highly respected here." Ellie said.

"I have had a good education and my Mama always taught me how to treat a lady, and you are the most beautiful lady I've ever been with."

"So tell me Ellie how on earth does a beautiful well-mannered and smart lady like yourself, get into the nasty porn business?" He asked.

"Because I was not so smart that first day I showed up at the studio. My Mother had arranged with a friend who wanted me to be one of her new models, So Mom dropped me off and as I tried a couple of different doors trying to get in, the door to TC's studio opened and I walked in and TC started yelling this and that and was expecting a lady to fill his open spot for the scenes, and I was just in the wrong place at the right time. He thought that I was the lady his friend was sending over. Then TC started yelling that I needed to sign these contracts before I could work. I was so mixed up and confused as Mom always took care of the legal paperwork. So with TC yelling that I was holding up his scenes and costing him money I was intimidated into signing a three year contract. As I learned what he expected from me I told him I quit and started to walk out. He then waved the contract in my face and said he owned my ass for the next three years and if I walked out he'd sue me, and then get his goons to go and break both of my parent's legs and then do the same to me. So there you go that's basically my story. Unless you want me to go back to my child hood and tell you how Mom turned me from a boy to what you see today?"

No Baby we can save that for another time, I'm just glad that I got hooked up with you and I'll do what I can to talk with TC, as we go way back." Jerome reached across the table and took her hand. "At the very least I'll see to it that no one else but, me get to use that pretty little round ass of yours." Jerome promised her.

Ellie looked up at this huge man with strong muscular arms and upper body. Although he looked rugged he seemed to have a soft spot where she was concerned and it seemed sincere. They made small talk getting to know each other better and enjoyed a wonderful meal that reminded her of her trip with Cat's family and all the great places that they went to eat.

Jerome then told her that he was going to try and fix the mistake that she made and if he could he'd get her into the modeling agency that she was supposed to be in to start with. "What about the contracts that I signed with TC?" she asked

"You let old Jerome take care of that, as I don't want my woman being used in some trashy porn." He said and leaned down and kissed her tenderly on her smooth and creamy rid lips. "Come now I'll take you back to your car, or you're welcome to stay the night with me if you like."

"I think that I'd like that very much and even as I'm nineteen now and can legally do as I please this is all pretty sudden and I think that I'd like to tell my parents what's happened to me and kind of break it to them gently. My Mother is going to have a cow when I tell her that her precious little beauty queen has been forced to make porn movies because I went into the wrong door at the right time. Oh my God I can just see Daddy's face too when they hear about all of this."

"Are you sure that you really want to do that to them, there's no good reason that they ever have to know. You'd be sparing them a lot of hurt and in the end it won't make you feel better, will it?" Jerome asked

"Honey you can't know how embarrassing it's been almost all of my life, as my Mom dragged me kicking and crying to beauty pageant after pageant, just so I could win another trophy and some money that I never got to see or use. I was a healthy boy and she manipulated me into what you see here today. I'm not a real woman, but I'm not a man either. I'll never have a family and kids and grandkids to enjoy. I'm just a big mess inside of my head." She told Jerome who listened to every word she said.

"Baby we can take this as slow as you want to, but, I'd like to give us a chance to see if I can't make you happy. I can wait as long as you want, but, know this.....I'm going to do what I said and then I'll be here waiting for you to be my partner for life." He told her

Jerome took her back to her car and there he gave her a great hug and an even better kiss. He lingered so lightly on her perfect plump and smooth lips until she felt something within her began to tingle. She pulled up and took a huge breath of air. “Wow you really know how to take a girls breath away. Thank you for dinner and the wonderful evening, but, I’m afraid that if I don’t leave right now, that I might not leave at all. See you tomorrow?” she said

It was a struggle all the way home in her mind, if she should tell her folks what happened or not, but, finally decided to keep it to herself at least for the time being.

Now while Ellie was safe at home Jerome visited TC at his home. He told him that he needed to talk to him.....alone. He then told the dirty little man that Ellie wouldn’t be doing any more porn for him. I promise you that I’ll have a great replacement in here for you in a day or two. Then when TC told him to fuck off that she was his to do as he pleased for the next three years. It was then that Jerome surprised TC and he lost his cool. He grabbed the much smaller man turned him around and pulled his belt loose and tied TC’s arms tight behind him. He flipped him over the back of the couch and pulled his pants down then spit on his hole and forced himself into TC’s behind. He wasn’t gentle either. He pounded away at the little man’s ass, causing him to scream out in pain. Jerome kept up until he shot a massive load of cum up TC’s ass. Then he picked him up like a little kids doll and literally threw him on the couch face up. He brought his big hard black monster of a cock over dripping with cum and pressed it to TC’s lips. He reach back down and roughly grabbed TC’s cock and balls. “Go on, suck me dry and if I even feel your teeth on my cock I’ll pull your dick and balls right off of your body, and stuff them down your throat and then sit here and watch you bleed to death.” “I mean it TC back off and leave this one alone, I’ll get you a suitable replacement that’s more willing to do the type of movies that you want to do. Don’t make me come back again, or you won’t like it a bit.” Jerome told him.

The next day Ellie showed up and walked in and told TC that she was done and would not be doing his dirty porn any more. Then she looked around to find Jerome to back her up. She looked at TC and saw that he had a black eye and some cuts on his face he was limping badly too. She had no way of knowing that Jerome was lying in a hospital in another state. TC had sent a bunch of his goons to visit old Jerome. They jumped him and beat the hell out of him and even went so far as to partially castrate him. They made sure that his pride and joy big monster cock would be useless even if he were to live through all of this , then they put him in his car and carefully with gloves on to be sure and leave no finger prints, broke the brake line and sent him down this treacherous winding mountain road. His car crashed over the guard rail and rolled down the hill. This would have surely killed a weaker man, but, Jerome clung to life by a thread. The rescue team had to use the Jaws of Life to cut him out of the vehicle.

After Ellie left that morning she also was not aware that TC's goons paid a visit to her house and roughed up her Dad and broke one of his legs. They then grabbed Mom in her night gown and robe and gagged her and put a bag over her head and took her with them to the studio.

“So my little bitch, you'll work for me and do anything I tell you to do. If you're looking for Jerome he is lying in a hospital as we speak clinging to life by a thread.....Oh yes He'll never fuck anyone ever again, my men took care of that. Then they paid a visit to your home and roughed up your Dad pretty good and broke his right leg.”

“You're lying TC and you can't stop me from leaving, and Jerome is going to be really pissed when he gets here.”

out to the ambulance. "If that's not enough for you how about this bitch alive and in living color."

She looked over and two of the goons were holding her Mom up and they pulled the bag off of her head and she could see that she was gagged. "Now you were warned not to try and fuck me over, so as you can see that if you want your family to live you'll do what the fuck I tell you to do, and if you don't care about them I can have my boys use their knives and rearrange that pretty face of yours and you'll still work for me until I tire of you. Even though it would be a pity to cut up your face and make you ugly, I'd do it if I have too.

Then on cue as TC nodded to the boys they took their knives and cut off Mom's robe and night gown. They forced her down on the floor on all fours and this other black man came out. She recognized him as Jake the first guy she made a film with. He dropped down behind Mom and spit on her hole and then worked his big cock inside of her stretching her pussy to its limit. Another big black guy pulled her gag off and told her to suck his big black dick. He warned her if she bit him or didn't do a good job her daughter would pay for it. Margery's eyes opened in horror at the size of this huge dick in her face. She didn't even do oral sex with her husband and didn't know what to do. Soon the guy doing her doggy style found her sweet spot and despite herself she began to moan and groan, with her mouth around the big black cock. She'd never known this type of pleasure and had at least three orgasms in a row. Finally the two guys got off at the same time. One filling her cunt with man seed and the other shooting rope after rope of cum down her throat. She collapsed on the floor still shaking for another orgasm. She couldn't look at Ellie and felt nothing but shame even though she had no choice. Ellie ran over to her Mom and covered her in her torn Robe and nightgown, and stroked her head and whispered that it wasn't her fault and it will be ok as long as I do what that dirty little man wants me to do, that being staring in his adult movies. So once again there was No Choice for Allen / Ellie. It looked for all the world as if she was going to be an Adult movie starlet.

Ellie let Rose and Latasha prepare her for this new film he was about to start. This time she was made up pretty with her hair brushed out and her makeup done very conservatively. She was beautiful and dressed nicely in a pretty dress that still showed all of her womanly charms to the max.

The plot was for her to be going shopping and as she was getting into her car she would be attacked by these three pretty rough looking characters and dragged back into her home. They tore her clothes off of her until she was naked and then she had to make them lunch. One of them was always there to watch her, to make sure there was no funny business like putting poison or something in the food.

Suddenly there was a knock at the door and one of the guys answered it to find Julie's Mother there. Hi she said, what are you doing here and where is my daughter?

"She's in the kitchen, come on in and I'll tell her that you're here." As she stepped in the stranger closed and locked the door, causing her to wonder what was going on.

She was ushered into the kitchen and gasped as she saw her beautiful daughter standing there preparing food stark naked wearing only her 3 inch heels, and this huge bleak man called Jake standing behind her with his hands busy all over her naked body.

"Hey.....you, get your hands off of my daughter right this minute." Her Mom hollered out.

“Boys I think that you need to teach Mother here to mind her manners and know her place. This here is my new wife you old bitch. She wasn’t invited in my home and she sure as hell ain’t going to tell old Jake here what he can do with or two his woman. So boys maybe Mama here isn’t getting enough at home, maybe you all should show her a little of our good old hospitality and Family ties.” Jake said grinning.

(Now both were told just before the scene started that any reluctance on either of their parts, TC would have his boys tear their house down and destroy everything in it. Then they’d go visit Daddy in the hospital and put something in his IV to cause his heart to stop. Then they would break one of Mama’s legs and put a splint on it their selves and still make her perform and use her sexually as they pleased. They also showed them the picture of Big Jerome all bandaged up and in traction. It was these things that made them do as told, as they couldn’t bare the pain of watching each other suffer at the command of this horrible little man.)

The scene played out with both Mother and daughter getting used and abused in every sexual position, by these dirty, nasty men, and most times by more than one at a time. Mom and Ellie both fought enjoying this in any way, but, their bodies betrayed them and finally gave in to multiple orgasms with wave after wave of mind blowing, body shaking orgasms, to the point of passing out from sheer exhaustion. TC called it for the day threw water on them to bring them around and told them to go straight home and rest and be back tomorrow or else.

Mom was so helplessly out of it that Ellie drove them home. She helped Mom into the house and ran a bath for her. Not knowing it TC had their house bugged she used the sound of the running water to cover her phone call on her Cell phone that she’d hid before leaving that morning. She called Cat and told her all that had happened and Cat got her Dad to come in and listen. He told her to go to the Studio in the morning like she'd been told to do, that way most all of this TC guy's men would follow them there, and that he take it from there. "How can I ever thank you Mr. Turner, it seems like you get me out of one mess after another."

"You just do like I told you and I'll get you and your Mother out of there before I deal with this TC fella and his goons. You can tell me later how such a sweet, innocent girl like you keeps getting herself into these situations. Try and get some sleep honey and don't worry I'll have someone in the room watching your Dad 24 / 7 and there will be a car out front watching for his goons in case he or they decide to pull something in the night. We'll see you tomorrow." He said.

She didn't know how Mr. Turner did what he did but, true to his word as Ellie and her Mom pulled into the studio and entered the building, TC began to shout out orders as usual, he had several of his goons running around setting up lights and getting ready for what they thought was going to be whole lot of fun and sex for the day. TC told Ellie and Mom to go back and let Rose and Latasha get them ready.

When they got back to the little dingy room they called their salon they were surprised to see Rose and Latasha bound and gagged and the three big men who looked like Navy Seals stood waiting. The one in charge held a finger to his lips indicating they should keep calm and quiet. One of them told Ellie to go out and tell one of the goons to come back there as Rose needed help. When he entered he was quickly and quietly taken care of and rendered unconscious. Then the three of them walked out into the main studio.

TC yelled "Who the hell are you guys and what are you doing in my studio. I just about to shoot a movie and I don't need an audience so get the hell out of here."

"I don't think that you are shooting anything but, you big mouth for such a little man. Your movie days are over." He then showed TC a pile of money that they took from his safe at home, then one of them grabbed the camera's and smashed them on the floor, then broke all of his expensive lighting. They found all of the tapes and movies that the man had made over the past two years and smashed, tore and cut them to little pieces.

TC yelled out to his so called security guards to take these guys out and kick their asses. The biggest one lunged at one of the rescuers and he never knew what hit him. The ex-Seal moved in a flash and struck the big man in the throat and then the chest and he was on the ground gasping for air and couldn't catch his breath. One of the other Ex-Seals approached TC and before TC could pull his pistol from the holster the Seal grabbed his hand and began breaking each one of TC's fingers.

They finally had each one of them tied up and put bags over their heads and took them out and threw them in the Van. They drove to the little private airport and were met by the other goon who tried to get into Dad's Hospital room, they took care of him in short order. All were loaded into this private jet and were in the air in no time at all. They flew for some six hours and landed to take of some fuel, then another six or seven hours and they landed rather roughly. As the door opened they felt the heat right away. They had no clue where they were but, they were in the desert deep into Afghanistan. They were dumped out and heard the plane take off leaving them still tied and with the hoods on. It took them quite a while to get loose having to first shake the hoods off and then use the teeth to get the ropes off one of them and then he in turn untied the others.

It was nothing but, sand as far as they could see. Their clothes had been cut off of them and they stood in the hot sun naked. They finally found a couple of trees for shelter. They learned that if they could make it across the hot sand without clothes or water there were high mountains all around them. Needless to say they were never heard from again.

They all left together in the Turners big limo and went to check on Dad. He was in no pain and felt much better once he saw that his family was ok. They closed the door and Ellie then told them all how all of this mess got started as Mom dropped her off at the Modeling studio and about the doors being locked and how she found the open door by mistake and then all that had happened from then on.

Mom felt awful and took the blame saying that she should have gone in with Ellie that first day and made sure that everything was right.

“You couldn’t have known Mom after taking me to the place that the modeling agency told you were to go. Plus after all that we know about that horrible little man now, it might not have made any difference? He might even have involved you too right from the start as he tricked me and forced his will on me. It didn’t help that I was so naïve that when I didn’t see any other models in there that I didn’t turn around and walk back out. It was just that the timing was perfect the way they told me I’d been expected and they were waiting, and his yelling about me holding them up and then more or less bullying me into signing the contracts without being aloud to read them. Then after that first day is when he started threatening me as I tried to walk out. Then as I went home I thought well Mom must know what she’s doing, she set all of this up ahead of time, but, then it just kept getting worse until he began carrying out his treats on my family if I didn’t do as ordered.”

“Then there was poor Jerome who tried to protect me and now lays in a hospital bed somewhere, thanks to TC’s goons. He went to TC and told him I was done and roughed him up. It was then that TC sent several of his goons after Jerome and jumped him and almost killed him sending his car over the railing and down the deep cliff. So that’s pretty much my story just the way it happened.” Ellie said.

“My God girl you’ve really been through it for someone so young and with so much to offer. If you still have any desire to become a model I have a friend who owns and runs one of the top agency’s in town. I believe that she would be thrilled to have you come work with her. Your story will never be known to anyone but, the people in this room, and I do believe that you did nothing to solicit anything that happened to you. Plus I can promise that you will never ever hear from or see any of the people involved in causing you so much pain.” Mr. Turner promised Ellie.

“Thank you so much, I love you for all you’ve done for me, but, I think that I need a little time to help both my Mom and Dad recover. If the offer still stands in a month or so, I’d be able to make a better decision, and get myself back to thinking more clearly.” Ellie said.

“Yes dear my offer will always be there and if you’d prefer to do something else, well I’ve been blessed with being in a position of power and wealth over several companies and all you have to do is ask. After all it was you who was strong enough to come to me over the boys’ in Hawaii and what they put you two through and that let me get my daughter Cat out from those spoiled hoodlums.” He told her.

Then as a special favor to Ellie, Mr. Turner found out which hospital Jerome was in and had him moved closer to home so she could visit him and help nurse him back to good health.

Cat and Ellie remained best friends and Cat didn't know if it was what all Ellie had been through or what, but, the flame kind of faded as far as them being romantically involved. She could tell that Ellie really cared for Jerome and so she encouraged her to follow her heart.

After a month went by Ellie took Mr. Turners offer and asked to meet with the modeling agency he'd spoke of. As predicted she was an instant hit with the woman in charge and started modeling right away. It didn't take long and Ellie saved enough money to get her own apartment. Several more weeks went by and Jerome was finally released from the hospital, and Ellie brought him home to live with her. He began rehabbing and working out little by little. More weeks passed by and he was finally able to walk without crutches.

After six months he was almost completely healed and got a job as a security man at one of the Turner's biggest plants. They began to go out as a couple and they turned heads where ever they went, him being so big and black and she so elegant, beautiful and very white. It brought them much joy with only them knowing Ellie's secrete. He was always a gentleman with her and she loved the attention, and hung on tight to his arm with her arm wrapped around his.

Finally there was peace and balance in her life as she liked her work and like even more coming home to Jerome who was usually there ahead of her and she could smell something good cooking in the kitchen. He always greeted her with a kiss and hug, and for the first time in her life gave her No Choice, but this time in a Good Way.
