A comic panel featuring two anime-style female characters in a room. On the left, a girl with long orange hair in a high ponytail with a large blue bow is wearing a light blue jacket with pink floral patterns. She is looking towards the right with a slight smile. On the right, a girl with long dark blue hair and purple eyes is wearing a black choker with a gold bell, a black sleeveless vest over a black top, and black wristbands. She has her hands clasped in front of her and is looking at the orange-haired girl. A speech bubble from the dark-haired girl contains the text. Between them, the word 'GIGGLES' is written in a stylized purple font. The background shows a doorway and a textured wall.
