Old Crush New Flame

Steven was a very successful college professor, but his life changed when a particularly tall student followed his classes, and discovered that his boss is an old flame of his... What surprised him most was they were still growing!

1. “Alright students, see you next week.” Steven said as he ended the lecture.

The students quickly stormed off the lecture hall, tired from a long day of lessons. There was one, however, who didn’t stand up: a blonde girl, her head resting against the desk, was clearly in the world of dreams.

Steven sighed, it had happened again... this was his 5th lecture of his class and that girl always fell asleep. He didn’t really mind, he didn’t take these things personally, but sleeping through the entire lesson was not something any professor could tolerate.

2. “Excuse me, miss? The lecture is over.” he said with a stern voice, but the girl didn’t even flinch. Thus he approached her desk, noticing that she looked way bigger from up close.

“Miss?” he shouted again, this time the girl flinched. She sat up, stretching her long arms. Steven stood agasp as he saw that even if she was sitting, she was still taller than him.

“Hmm? Where is everybody.” she mumbled.
“Ah! Thanks for waking me up dude. I really needed that sleep though...”
Steven couldn’t believe this girl “That is no way to talk to your professor! Apologize or I’ll be forced to take disciplinary action.” he shouted.

3. “What? You’re the professor? Sorry, you are so short I thought you were a freshman or somethin’.” the girl said as she slowly stood up.

Steven watched her get bigger and bigger, until she stood right before him. The girl was huge, he barely reached her chest! She was wearing high heels, but she was extremely above average nonetheless.

Confronted with such a huge woman, Steven couldn’t help but feel intimidated. He was just five feet tall, and whenever he saw someone that much taller than him, the old insecurities about his height reemerged.

“I… I…”

4. “So, what were you saying, shorty?” the girl asked in a mocking tone.

“I… I’m not a freshman, I’m your professor! And if you continue with this rotten attitude, I’ll…”

“What are you gonna do? Put me in detention? This isn’t high school anymore!” she laughed.

Steven was red from anger, but also from embarrassment “I’ll call the dean!” The girl just laughed “I’ll spare you the trouble, I’ll call her myself!”

5. About 30 minutes later, both Steven and his unruly student sat in a smaller class. As they waited, they suddenly heard the loud clicks of heels.

“Kelly dear, did you call? Oh…”

As the door opened, an enormous woman was revealed. She was even taller than the unruly student, so tall in fact she had to bend over just to pass through the door.

Steven gulped, he had only spoken with the dean through the phone, he didn’t know she was this massive… and why did she call the student by name?
“Mom, there you are! Took you long enough! This guy has been pestering me the whole lecture, tell him to stop!”

6. "Kelly, show some manners! You're talking about your professor... and an old friend of mine." she said with a warm smile "Sorry Steven, my daughter can be quite a handful sometimes."

Steven's head was spinning, it just couldn't be...

"What? You're telling me you know this gut?" Kelly asked, puzzled.

"Of course! We went to high school together, isn't that right Steven?"

Steven looked up, and up, he barely reached the woman's navel. But the face was unmistakable, it really was his old high school crush: Amanda. She was the hottest girl wherever she went, all the guys were enamoured with her, something she often used to her advantage.

Besides her looks, Steven loved her because she was so short, one of the few girls who didn't reach his height even with high heels. So seeing her this enormous, and with an amazon for a daughter, was quite the shock.
"I..."

7. “Oh it’s so nice to see you again! Had I known you were one of my professors, I'd have contacted you sooner!” Amanda said, grabbing Steven like he was a toddler and hugging him. His feet were lifted off the ground, while his face was pressed against Amanda’s prodigious chest. She had always been full in that department, but now each was bigger than his head!

“Am... can’t... breathe!” he shouted but the voice came out muffled, suffocated by the huge jugs.
“Oh God... this can’t be real... I wish I were anywhere else.” Kelly said, covering her face from embarrassment.

“You must have so much to tell me! Say, how about we go somewhere nice for lunch break? It’s on me of course. And Kelly, next time you’ll treat your professor with some respect, understood?”

“Ugh, yes ma...” Kelly said, defeated, while Amanda literally dragged Steven out of the room.

8. “You know, in hindsight that girl looked familiar... I can't believe you have a daughter now.” Steven said.

“Yes, my pride and joy... even if she can be a handful sometimes. Well, all her mother! What about you Steve?”

“Well... I’ve been so focused on my career... I didn’t really have time to, you know, find someone.” he said nervously.
“I get that, our jobs require a lot of time and effort. And being a single mother also hasn’t been easy. Sometimes I regret having spent way too less time with Kelly, and now she’s in college! How time flies...”
“Yeah. Speaking of jobs... I can’t believe you’ve become the dean of our college, Amanda. But I always knew you had it in you.”

“Well, you know me, I've always been an ambitious girl. But you’ve got your dream job too, I’m so happy for you! Though...” she giggled “Doesn’t this mean I’m kind of your boss now?”
Steven didn’t know what to say, he just watched as this huge woman giggled like she was a high school senior again. She was right, she was his boss, but what would this mean for the future?

9. “Ups! I’m so messy, I just dropped my knife!” Amanda said. She was cutting her meal when the knife suddenly slipped… though Steven wondered if she had done it on purpose.

“Don’t worry, I’ll get it.” Steven said, crouching down below the table.

From that angle, he could see Amanda’s endless leg, the perfectly smooth skin smelling of lavender. Her calves were so thick, they were like thrice his arm. He couldn’t imagine how thick and strong her thighs must have been.

He also saw the knife, right behind her huge heel.

“Woah, her feet are huge… but they look so feminine. I can’t believe how someone this big can be so elegant…” he thought as he reached for the knife.

10. “Got it!” Steven said.
As soon as he grabbed the knife, he could see Amanda’s foot slip out of her heel. He saw the huge, slender toes teasingly wiggling, a faint scent of lavender and sweat permeating his nostrils.
“Enjoying the view down there?” Amanda giggled.

Steven immediately sat up, blushing “Uhm... no! I mean... I was just trying to get back the knife and...!”
“Shh...” Amanda whispered “After all these years, even after you became professor, you remain the same shy boy as ever. It’s adorable.” she said as she extended her leg, pressing her foot against Steven’s crotch.

He moaned a little as he felt the big and soft sole against his pants, the toes reaching his navel. It was warm, and despite its size she was extremely delicate.
After having paid, Amanda proposed “Do you want to go on a little walk? I don’t live far from here.”
Naturally, Steven accepted.

11. As they walked towards her house, the two talked about the time spent apart. Then, however, their discussion was interrupted by a peculiar sight: a parked car, completely crushed, the asphalt around it was cracked too, deep fissures spreading from what looked like an oddly shaped crater.

"Oh my God, what happened here?!" Steven asked, shocked.

Amanda sighed "I don't know... good thing there was no one in the car though."
"It looks like a meteor has crashed in the street! I can't imagine anything doing so much damage."

"Yeah, a meteor describes it very well... either way, I'm sure someone has already called the authorities."

12. Steven couldn't know, but from a bird's view it was clear: the crater was obviously foot shaped! Only that the foot was so big, so long, that at least half a dozen cars could be flattened under it. A sane person would think it's only a coincidence, or maybe some form of elaborate prank, but Amanda knew what caused it.

So, she eagerly walked past the site.

13. “It was a very nice lunch, Steven.” Amanda said with a gorgeous smile on her face, showing her perfectly white teeth.

“Yeah... what a weird morning: first I discover you have a daughter, then that you’re the dean of my college! Life sure can be crazy sometimes.”

“Oh believe me, you’ve seen nothing yet.” Amanda said with a mischievous voice, quickly bending down and planting a kiss on Steven’s lips... or face rather, since her lips were so big.

Steven was left on the sidewalk, unable to move or speak. He could only see Amanda walking inside her house, laughing and occasionally glancing back. She then winked before disappearing from view.

14. A few weeks later, Steven still struggled to return to normalcy. How could he, knowing what he knew? Having your friend as your boss is cool and all, but it also came with some downsides...

Mainly her daughter.

"Morning "professor!" He heard a loud feminine voice as soon as he entered the lecture hall.

Steven turned around in shock, he didn't think there was already someone in class, and what he saw almost caused him to faint. Kelly was already there, sitting on the desks. Yes, the desks, because that's the only place where she could possibly fit her rear. She was so much bigger than before...

15. “Kelly?! What the hell happened to you?” he shouted.

Kelly just giggled “Ain’t it obvious? I grew taller! I’m a growing girl after all.” she said as she stood up, the wood creaking under her weight. She took her first step, the entire lecture hall vibrating slightly, the chalk from the board raining down as well as the dust from the ceiling.

“Kelly, you’re 18... and even if you were still growing, people don’t just grow three feet in a few weeks!”

“Four feet, but yeah I get what you mean. What can I say, I’m special.” she said, playing with her hair. Standing before Steven she realized just how tiny he was now, he struggled to look at her navel! He was closer to her crotch, and he could almost see under that short skirt.

16. “Woah!” Kevin shouted as he was shoved by a huge mass, pinning him against the wall.

Now he could only see a wall of pink, soft on the surface yet extremely firm below. From the sliver of light coming from the crack, he realized he was being squished by Kelly’s ass, each cheek almost as big as his torso.

“Kelly, what’s the matter with you!?” he shouted, though his voice came out muffled.
“Aw come on, don’t lie to me, you’re enjoying this as much as I am.” Kelly giggled
“You know, you’re holding out more than most. I’ve done it with the whole football team, but once they ended up under my ass they all folded… weaklings!”

17. “Kelly… please… I can’t breathe…” Steven pleaded.

The ass soon released him, and he could finally took a breath again. That lasted only for a few moments though, because soon after he felt the ground missing below his feet and he was pinned once more against the wall, this time by a pair of breasts bigger than his head.

“What was that, you’re struggling to breathe?” Kelly giggled “Maybe this is better? But I bet you’re still without breath, admiring these.” she said as she jiggled her boobs, they were soft but so heavy Steven still struggled to breathe.

“W-where is this going Kelly? I’m your professor! And the lecture is supposed to start in twenty minutes!”

Kelly sighed, her hot breath washing over her tiny professor “Seriously? You’re still thinking about that stupid lecture? Mom is right, you really are a mega-nerd. Well, it’s her loss.”
“W-what? Woah!”

18. Kelly grabbed Steven in her strong arms and carried him like a baby, walking out of the university building.

“Kelly! Where are we going?”

She laughed “Where do you think we’re going? I’ve been a naughty girl, we’re going to the dean.”

“Y-you’re bringing me to Amanda?”

“Yeah! She told me to call you but... well... I couldn’t resist a little tease.”

“Little tease? I almost passed out!” Steven protested.
“Well, that’s how we do it in my family. Believe me, I’m the gentlest one.” Kelly laughed.
Steven gulped.

19. Kelly dropped him off right at the entrance of her mother's mansion. It was a huge place, with tall ceilings certainly made to accommodate the two enormous women living in it. But when he reached the living room he was shocked: despite the high ceilings, all he could see was two pillars of white flesh.

"A-Amanda?" he stuttered.

20. “Ah, there you are!”

It was Amanda’s voice, but it was louder, deeper. As Steen got closer he realized he was just a bit taller than her knees! She had grown even more than Kelly!

“Amanda! What happened to you? You’re even bigger than your daughter!”

She laughed “Well, I’m still the boss of the family, ain’t I? By the way, sorry if she has been rough, I always tell that girl to be more gentle with boys but she never listens... Well, I can’t blame her, the power is intoxicating. Don’t you agree?”

21. “I... I guess so.” Steven said, though it was getting harder and harder to focus on what Amanda was saying.

As he looked up, he saw that Amanda wasn’t wearing any underwear. Instead, under that short skirt, he could see her private parts: huge, dripping wet, it was clear that her pussy was hungry... hungry for him.

“Earth to Steven?” she giggled, putting on a fake pout “Oh, you guys are all the same, you’ve got eyes for only one thing... but girls have so much more to offer.”
“Uhum...” Steve said, trying to look her in the eyes but failing.

Between him and her, two blimps were blocking the way. Were they always this huge? She always had a great pair of tits but now they were monstrous...

22. “I see what you’re looking at! That’s highly unprofessional, you know that?” she teased, getting on her knees with a booming thud and putting her breast on Steven. He suddenly felt a weight far exceeding his own press on his back. He tried to resist, putting his hands up like Atlas holding the globe, however there was no way to resist such a mass.

“Amanda... please, you’re crushing me.” he pleaded, thinking he got her mad.
In truth, Amanda was having the time of her life, living the dream of teasing his tiny love once more.

23. “Aww, maybe that was a bit too much.” she said, lifting him up like a doll and putting him at eye level. To do that, he had to be on the first floor.

“Sorry, I got carried away.” she said with two puppy eyes, Steven immediately forgot why he should be mad at her.

“God Amanda, you’re so beautiful…” he said in genuine awe “I thought you were the hottest girl around when we were in high school, but even that Amanda would pale compared to what you are now.”
“Aww, come here baby!”

The two kissed once more, this time it was much longer and passionate. Suddenly, Amanda stopped kissing his mouth and instead began smooching his entire body, until she reached his lower parts.
“Uh oh… someone is getting excited.” she smiled.

24. The two moved to the bedroom, a spacious room with a gigantic king sized bed at the centre. Incredibly even such a huge bed looked small compared to Amanda. The mattress creaked as she sat down, her legs spreading all the width of the room. She was naked, Steven could finally admire her in all her glory.

The breasts, despite being as big as her head, were round and firm, reaching all the way to her belly button. He also saw the pussy nestled between her powerful legs, a small and trimmed bush above it.

Her hair was wild, her eyes set on the tiny man and his manhood.

“Do whatever you want to me…”

25. Steven wouldn't be told twice, he immediately got on his knees and began kissing the feet of the goddess. Even a small part such as the big toe was so much bigger than that of a regular human, it was as long as half his face.

As his lips came into contact with the smooth skin the toes slightly curled, he could feel the powerful muscles beneath. Even the big toe had enough strength to overpower him, that much was sure.

Amanda watched the scene amused "Didn't know you were a foot guy, Steven, but I guess I should have expected it. You were always the submissive type, weren't you?"
"Yes, goddess." he said, continuing to kiss that divine foot.

"Hmm." Amanda moaned, the tiny lips felt so good.

26. As Steven continued to kiss the foot, the huge appendage suddenly moved. Amanda shifted one foot right above Steven's head, while the other rested on his crotch.

"Yes, worship them, worship me!" Amanda moaned, getting excited by the minute.

Steven was surprised by how easily he was handled by the huge pair of feet, but once he saw the foot loom above his face he couldn't help but hug it and start to worship it. The toes were so big, there was no way the big toe was able to fit in his mouth so he had to settle for the little toe.

Meanwhile the other foot was hard at work, pinning his member between the big and second toe and starting to violently jerk it.

"Hmm, get hard and moist for mama." Amanda said, working with surgical precision.

27. After a while, Amanda sat up and grabbed her little lover, putting him right in front of her massive chest. Steven was left speechless by the huge mass of flesh, so much bigger than his head and who knows how heavy. He could see the nipples growing hard, taking up a good portion of the areola.

“Aww you look so cute in front of my giant titties... almost like a baby wanting his mama’s milk!” Amanda giggled.

Steven felt emasculated by that comment, but he couldn’t say that Amanda was wrong. Confronted with those huge mammaries, he really looked like a baby. Might as well go for it...

“Hehe, that tickles!” Amanda giggled as Steven began sucking on the huge, engorged nipple. He struggled to get it all into his mouth so instead he bit on it, causing Amanda to gasp and moan.

28. Now that both had enough foreplay, Amanda wanted the real deal.

She got on all fours, her massive body sprawling all over the room, only her torso was laying on the bed while her legs spread far apart. Steven approached her, even if she was on all fours her pussy was just at the right height. The hungry vagina, already wet and moist, was waiting for him.

He didn't waste a second but as he inserted his member he felt like he had stumbled into an enormous cave... was he even big enough to satisfy this goddess of a woman?

"AH! Ohhhhh it feels so good!" Amanda moaned as soon as she felt the tip of the penis, even if she was enormous she had grown to be very sensitive.

"You like that?" Steven groaned, squeezing her huge ass, his little hands sinking in the thick and muscular flesh.

29. “I... AH! AH!” Amanda screamed as the pleasure was getting too intense.

After going for the biggest doggy style in history, Amanda shifted position. Steven was powerless to stop the motion of that mountain of a woman, he had to get out lest he ended up upside down.

Amanda wanted more, Amanda wanted it all... and Steven was eager to give it to her.

“AH! AH! Keep going!” she moaned, at each thrust Amanda moved in unison, the mattress creaking and the bedframe hitting against the wall, the motion so strong it caused little cracks on the wall.

THOOM!
THOOM!

Suddenly Steven felt some tremors. He wasn't sure what caused them, his mind was on an entirely different planet, but he could feel how the floorboards vibrated, and the pictures on the wall falling down.

"My God... she's so big and strong." Steven thought as everything shook.

Amanda moaned as she moved her hips at each thrust, but it wasn't her who caused all that ruckus...

31. “That was amazing… easily the best sex I’ve ever had.” Amanda said as the two cuddled in bed.
Steven was resting atop his lover’s torso, nestled between the two enormous breasts. He looked at her beautiful face, her hot breath washing over her and her smile intoxicating him… she was perfect.

“I.. I can’t believe I’m not dreaming. This isn’t a dream, right?” was the only thing he could say.
Amanda was amused. “No little one, it’s all real.” she said, giving him a kiss.
“When can we meet again?”

“Oh how eager you are, aren’t you? Well little one, my schedule is very tight but… how about next week? The university's football team is gonna play, and I’ve got the best seats in the whole stadium.”
“Enjoying a football match with the hottest girl in college? Count me in!”

32. A week later, Steven went to the stadium eager to spend some time with Amanda. However, as he got there, he began to realize something was off... the entire place was empty, it certainly didn't look like a game was about to be hosted there.

Even more curiously he found no guard, no ticketmaster, but everything was open. He found his way into the field, where finally he saw someone. A female figure, dressed in cheerleader's clothing, and barefoot. It was an odd sight, even weirder as he got closer.

"Holy shit..." Steven said, the figure before him was massive, much taller than even Amanda!

33. “Kelly?!”

“Ahh, professor! How nice of you to come for my practice session!” Kelly said with a beaming smile, looking down. She barely saw him from between her breasts, but she realized he was about as tall as her knees now!

“Practice session? I thought there was going to be a game today?”

“Heh, that might have been a lie... but I am practicing hard for it!” Kelly said, doing a few jumps and pirouettes. She was very agile for a person her size, but each time her big feet impacted the ground Steven could hear a thud. He also saw that she left an imprint on the grass, barely noticeable but it showed how heavy she was.

“Ta-da!” she said as she spun around, her heavy tits almost bursting out of her dress. They jiggled violently, moving almost as energetically as the giant pom poms.

34. "Wow Kelly, that looked great! But... uhh... I actually came here to meet your mother? She told me she was going to be here."

Kelly put on a fake pout "Aww, why do you only want to see her? I'm just as good." she said.

Steven didn't know what to say. Looking up he saw Kelly's huge, athletic arms wrap around him and lift him up in the air.

He gasped, however the air was soon squeezed out of his lungs as Kelly pushed him closer with a bear hug, her breasts all around him.
"Besides... Don't you like having the stadium all for ourselves? I really enjoyed our little session in class, didn't you?"

Steven was petrified, what were Kelly's intentions?
"Kelly... I..."

35. “Alright, that’s enough teasing dear, you’ll give the poor man a heart attack!” a powerful feminine voice said, before a hand even more massive than Kelly’s grabbed him. Before, the hands of the giantesses were able to handle him like a puppy, now he was like a doll!

“Amanda! Oh my God how is it that you’re even more enormous every time I see you!”
“Hey! I’m also growing!” Kelly protested.

“Seriosuly… how are you girls so enormous?!”

Amanda laughed “Oh honey, it’s all good genetics! And I’m glad I passed them down to my daughters.” she said, just before the ground began to shake.

THOOM!
THOOM!
THOOM!

36. "You invited HER as well?" Kelly groaned, unbothered by the increasingly stronger earthquakes.

"Her who?" Steven asked, having trouble standing upright. The earth wobbled rhythmically, little chunks of dirt and grass flying around like oil on a hot pan.
"Well... since we've been getting really close lately, I thought it would be fun to have a family reunion!" Amanda said "So I invited my youngest daughter Krystal as well."

"Y-you have another daughter?" Steve asked, scared as now everything shook "And why am I meeting her at the stadium?"
"Well, Kelly couldn't just skip her cheerleading practice, but since there aren't many other places big enough for her I thought it was the perfect occasion!"

"W-what do you mean by that?"
As Steven asked, a huge portion of the football field, including him, Kelly and even Amanda, was cast in darkness.

37. "MOM?" a voice pierced the heavens, so loud that Steven had to cover his ears. Suddenly a gigantic hand, as big as a house, grabbed both Amanda and Kelly. The palm was so huge that the two giantesses completely disappeared inside of it, Amanda was barely as big as the fingers were long and Kelly was even smaller than that! Even the pinky finger was wider than her!

"Oh my God!" Steven shouted, seeing how at the other end of the football field two gigantic knees impacted the ground, raising a huge dust cloud and causing a terrifying earthquake. The earth trembled again as the titan stood back up.

"HEY MOM! GOOD TO SEE YOU! YOU TOO KELLY... DID YOU SHRINK WHILE I WAS AWAY?"
"I did not shrink! I'm taller than ever!" Kelly pouted while Amanda laughed "Come on girls, don't fight, not in front of my boyfriend."

Steven gulped... Did she say boyfriend? He didn't have much time to think about it though as Krystal's attention soon shifted onto him.

38. “OH, HE’S HERE? I CAN’T SEE HIM.” the titanic Krystal boomed.

“Yes he’s somewhere in the field, so please be careful!” Amanda said.

“I’m here!” Steven shouted, hoping the titaness would hear him. However he was as insignificant to her as an ant was to him, there was no way his puny voice could be heard all the way up. She was so huge that her face was partially in a haze, he couldn’t even see it all since her ballooning breasts blocked most of it.

“Careful!” Steven screamed in horror as he saw the gigantic bare foot lift directly over him, covering him in its shadow.

39. THOOOOOOM!

The foot impacted the ground with a boom that was heard for miles, it was so strong that the shockwave by itself caused Steven to be flung back. He landed on the grass fortunately, so he wasn't injured, but he had escaped a worse fate by mere inches...

As he opened his eyes again he was met with Krystal's toes, a row of five perfectly pedicured digits, each much bigger than him. The nails, by themselves about his size, were shiny and with sharp edges, looking like they were able to cut through steel.

The feet were also so heavy that they cracked the ground, sinking for a few feet and raising the earth around them. Steven found himself elevated by a few feet, but even then he wasn't taller than the toes.

40. “AH, THERE YOU ARE!” Krystal boomed as she finally noticed something next to her big toe.

Then, her hand came down to pick him up, if it looked enormous compared to the two giantesses then it looked gargantuan to Steven. He was smaller than her fingernails! “I’m gonna faint…” Steven thought there was no way this colossus would be able to pick him up without breaking all his bones or pop him like a grape.

But that didn’t happen, instead she grabbed him with a surgical precision, he only felt a slight pressure from the enormous digits.

He was then lifted up in the air, getting dizzy from the sudden change in altitude… it was like climbing a mountain in seconds.

41. “HELLO THERE! MY YOU’RE SMALL, DIDN’T KNOW MOM WAS INTO SHORT GUYS... YOU LOOK CUTE THOUGH!” Krystal said as she took a better look at the tiny man.

From up close her voice was even more devastating, Steven felt his ears ringing, and her breath hit him like a hurricane. She was so enormous that he still couldn’t see all her face, only her chin and lips. They were thick and luscious, glistening from liters of lip gloss applied on them. Like her mother and sister, she too must have been extremely beautiful but her size far surpassed even Steven’s wildest dreams.

“H-hi Krystal, nice to meet you!” he stuttered.
“AWW, DON’T BE SCARED, I’M A GENTLE GIANTESS!” she said. To demonstrate it she brought him closer to her lips and gave him a kiss, drenching him in saliva. Steven was left stunned and dizzy, but at least he was alive.

“WELCOME TO THE FAMILY! I HOPE YOU LIKE GROWING GIRLS, BECAUSE THERE’LL BE A LOT MORE OF US SOON!” Krystal laughed.
Steven smiled as well. Even bigger and stronger versions of the three girls? He couldn’t have asked for anything better. He was sure that life could only be great with those three around.
