A PRINCESS PRODUCTIONS PUBLICATION

Carole Jean

Each month, Carole Jean, a good friend and popular author of forced crossdressing stories, gives us permission to Princessize a drawing from one of her many publications. By "Princessize," we mean that we colorize and sometimes artistically alter the drawing. At times we only make a few minor changes, and at other times, we make a lot of changes -- all designed to reflect our (and we hope our loyal followers') interests.

This month's drawing, by Juan Sole, is from Carole Jean's newest book, "Norm - Schooled to Be Girls!" Norm. In this drawing, Norm has been put into his complete school uniform for the first time, and the school photographer is taking a picture of him that will be sent home to his family to show them the progress he is making.

All of Carole Jean's stories focus upon the humiliation of the poor protagonists as they are coerced into wearing sissified outfits and girls' clothes and then forced to appear in public so shamefully outfitted. The most distinctive feature of Carole Jean's books is the abundance of artwork. She has an exceptionally talented artist illustrate almost every other page of her stories.

Carole Jean has published books both under the name Carole Jean and under the name "Bill."

The Carole Jean books include: "Bound to Be a Maid", "Now He's Louise & The Beribboned Gang", "Crave X -- A Wife's Revenge", "The Sarah School", and "The Male Maid Book of ABC's."

The Bill books include: "Bill's Humiliation in Panties", "Henry's Vacation in Panties", "Darwin's Womanhood", "Jeff's Humiliation", and two of our favorites: "Beautified Bullies" and "Schooled with Girls." You can purchase all her books directly from her website: <http://www.petticoatpunishmentart.com/>

I'M A BOY

One girl was called Jean Marie
Another little girl was Felicity
Another little girl was Sally Joy
The other was me, and I'm a BOY

My name is Bill, and I'm a head case
They practice making up my face
Yeah, I feel lucky if I get trousers to wear
Spend evenings taking hairpins from my hair

CHORUS:

I'm a BOY, I'm a BOY
But my mom won't admit it
I'm a BOY, I'm a BOY
But if I say I am, I get it...

Put your frock on, Jean Marie
Plait your hair, Felicity
Paint your nails, Little Sally Joy
Put this sissy dress on, Little Boy

Chorus...

Wanna play cricket on the green
Ride my bike across the street
Cut myself and see my blood
Wanna come home all covered in mud

Chorus...

Watchdoggie!

It's a conspiracy! Right-wingers tout 'family values' and left-wingers decry inequality toward females, yet both groups often agree on one thing: errant males are the enemy. Males start wars and are responsible for most of the carnage throughout history. More specifically, male hormones are the culprit and must be contained and constantly monitored. The way to save humanity from itself is to stop those hormones from ruining our men and boys, who in turn are ruining our world.

These radical groups advocate making grassroots changes right in their own communities, schools, churches and homes. They see the problem at its worst in young boys approaching or in the early stages of puberty, many of whom have difficulty controlling their actions because they cannot handle the hormones surging throughout their bodies. And if such boys aren't kept in check, they risk becoming abusive, disgusting and worthless members of society. The way to cure them, these radical groups maintain, is to subdue them with a good dose of panty and petticoat discipline. Therefore, males who can't conduct themselves in a proper manner are forced into fancy dresses and frilly lingerie. Such clothing shocks them out of their selfish, destructive thinking and makes them receptive to learning how to act properly. Lessons that, the leaders of this movement insist, will serve the boys throughout their lifetime.

Watchdoggie! underwent petticoat punishment at the hands of nuns and the girls in his fifth grade Catholic school during the 1950s. He still vividly recalls every aspect of that punishment, a thoroughly humiliating experience that forever changed him. Yet that experience also taught him that our society looks down on females and considers them inferior to males; that is why petticoat punishment is so effective in humiliating young boys. Radical groups bent upon destroying the male world circulate propaganda to their followers. Watchdoggie! monitors these groups, who are working to destroy present-day society! After almost 50 years, Watchdoggie! is still haunted by the pain and anguish he suffered undergoing petticoat punishment. As therapy, he creates petticoat punishment pictures that he can identify with, images that illustrate what happened to him, and one of his pictures we present above, a parody of "The Who - I'm a Boy" album cover. By abreacting in this way, Watchdoggie! relieves the pain he still feels from the humiliation and terror he suffered while being punished in a dress and panties.

Sissy of the Month

One way to get him into a skirt: It's fun to see a guy getting a boy to put on a skirt, in this instance a grass skirt. The guy shows him how it looks and shows him how to dance in a grass skirt, then he takes it off and puts it on the boy. Then the boy dances around like a big sissy! From an unknown movie clip. Does anyone know what movie this came from? We'd like to find it.

Sissyboy Coloring Book

A new feature!

Now, each month, thanks to legendary sissyboy writer and illustrator Jonathan Bebe, we are providing our subscribers with a page from our coloring book they can color and add their own details, including a new caption or dialogue. In this picture, Michael is getting a gift from his auntie. She's giving him a box of panties because he's been such a good little sissyboy.

Ma Kelly's Panty Boys: Christian

This month, we present the picture of twelve-year-old Christian, another one of Ma Kelly's boys.

Ma Kelly was crazy. Nobody disputes that. Still everyone loved her and didn't question her ways. She was a heavyset woman who had owned the local dry goods store for over thirty years. When she retired from the store, she hired a string of others to run the store for her, but one-by-one she fired them all. Some she caught stealing, some didn't treat customers with proper respect, and the others just didn't do things the way she wanted them done.

So she looked for something else to do that didn't require her to get up early in the morning (she loved to sleep in) or stock shelves (she had a bad knee and it was getting worse). She tried opening a baby-sitting service. It went well but she almost immediately barred taking any toddlers because she wasn't into changing diapers, and she soon stopped taking care of preschool kids because she couldn't take her eyes off them for a second otherwise they'd get into some kind of trouble or start fighting with each other. But she did find her niche overseeing boys after school, and since the school was only doors away from her home, it was an ideal set-up. The boys were in the six- to twelve-year-old category, and she could control them with a minimum of supervision, leaving her a lot of time to watch her daily soap operas and game shows.

Just as she was starting to have success with her babysitting service, she had an opportunity to sell the dry goods store. The sale went fine, but the last manager of the store had mistakenly ordered a gross (12 dozen) each of girls' pink tops and pink rhumba panties instead of just one dozen of each. The new owner didn't want to be burdened with this inventory since it was just a small country store and would take a long time to sell off that much merchandise. So not knowing what she was going to do with them, Ma Kelly deleted them from the store's inventory and took them home with her prior to the sale.

The babysitting service was going along fine. Ma took in boys after school and watched over them until their parents got off work and came to pick them up. The day one of the boys got himself all dirty playing in the mud; she made him take a shower and washed his clothes. She didn't have any clothes for him to wear while his things were being washed and dried. That is until she remembered the boxes full of panties and tops left over from the store, so she dressed him in a pink top and pink rhumba panties. That boy was Donald Tierski (he was pictured on our march 2003 website). Realizing that boys are built a little differently than girls, she had him put the rhumba panties on backward to afford him a little more room in front. Donald didn't like the idea of dressing in those clothes, but when she explained she had nothing else for him to wear, he blushinglly agreed. Like most of the boys she took care of, Donald was a farm boy used to minding his parents, so he went along with her with barely a tear in his eyes.

Of course, when the other boys saw him, they went into hysterics, and they didn't quiet down until Ma Kelly gave them her famous evil look and severely bawled them out. Donald was normally a very active and destructive child. He'd break just about everything he touched. But after being put into the panties, he became quite withdrawn, gentle and docile. Ma was amazed at the transformation. Despite being told not to tease Donald, the other boys couldn't resist the temptation, and whenever Ma Kelly wasn't around, they got on Donald's case. After finding Donald crying because of all the teasing, Ma made all the boys take off their clothes. Then she put them all in pink tops and silky rhumba panties. She reasoned that they wouldn't make fun of Donald if all of them were dressed just like he was dressed. It worked! Not only that, all the boys became very quiet and sweet. They only talked in whispers and sat quietly on the floor watching television with her (her soap operas and game shows) and didn't fight with each other.

Once Donald's clothes were dry, Ma didn't let him change back into them until his mother showed up to pick him up. When she saw Donald and all the other boys in pink tops and panties, she was puzzled, but Ma explained to her what had happened and Mrs. Tierski understood, and when Ma told her how the girls' clothes made all the boys so much more manageable, Donald's mother laughed but said it did make sense. Then Ma got her okay to use girls' clothes on Donald anytime it was needed. Ma carried on that same conversation with each mother or father as they came to pick up their boy. All the parents had known and loved Ma for years and didn't question how she wanted to treat the boys, especially since she got them all to be such sweet little kids within such a short period of time.

Well, within days, pink tops and sissy pink rhumba panties were the standard uniform for all the boys in her care. From the moment they walked into her door they had to change into their girly clothes, and weren't allowed out of them until one of their parents came to pick them up. For most of the boys that was the most embarrassing moment. To have their mother, or even worse their father, see them dressed in lacy pink panties was extremely shameful. The parents loved the results. They had nothing but praise for Ma Kelly, and most of them reported back to her that their boy's behavior had immediately improved from the day they were pantied. In addition, some of those parents either threatened their boys with girls' clothes to be worn at home or even worn out in public if they went back to their destructive, malicious and naughty ways.

Ma Kelly was practicing petticoat punishment even though she probably had never heard of the term. What she had done out of expediency became the way she treated all her boys. There was no spanking, no verbal or mental abuse (other than having their masculinity torn down in the eyes of their parents and siblings, who often came along with the parents to pick up each boy just to see him so sweetly attired in pink panties). Word quickly got out and these boys were miserably teased by their friends and schoolmates, but that was a good thing. It made them even quieter and sweeter. After being panty trained, none of Ma Kelly's boys ever started a fight or got into most any other kind of trouble. As other parents heard about Ma's success, she was soon taking care of a houseful of sweet little panty boys!

In the coming months, we will present more photos of Ma Kelly's boys for your enjoyment.

A woman who is a slave to fashion dreams of having a wealthy husband who is a sla

Masquerade

This month we reached back into our old, old files to bring you this picture from a 1920s women's magazine showing a woman who looks like she doesn't know which pair of shoes she should wear. At her feet is a man falling over a stack of shoe boxes obviously trying to do her bidding. He's bent over with his skirt up and exposing his thigh-high stockings, medium-heeled shoes and ultra frilly panties. A poor guy posing for this shot did get a break, they hid his face in a falling stack of shoe boxes. The caption on the photo reads, "A woman who is a slave to fashion dreams of having a wealthy husband who is a slave to her fashion!"

Netball boy banned

Skirt OK
but girls-
only rule
bans him

By Anna Foster

NOT naturally sporty, ten-year-old David Messing was delighted when he found a game he enjoyed.

He joined his school club, and despite being one of the few boy players, felt very much at home.

But he was devastated to learn that he will be banned from playing in tournaments -- simply because he is a boy. Rules set by the area league only allow girls to play in tournaments.

David, a pupil at Bornehill Junior School saw no sense in the rule.

"I have been trying many sports, and I have found netball is the one I really like and am good at," he said.

"The other boys don't take it seriously, and some call me a sissy because they say it's a girls' game and not for boys."

David Messing wants to play with the girls even if he has to wear the regulation girls' uniform.

David, who is in year five, is not upset even though he has to wear the same outfit that the girls wear -- including a short navy blue skirt with pale blue satin bloomer panties underneath. The panties actually have a bit of contrasting white lace about the legs.

"A lot of the boys tease me about wearing the whole kit, especially the lace panties, but I don't care. I love playing netball, and if I have to wear a skirt and girls' panties to do it, I will. These girls are strong and smart. Even if I do wear the skirt and panties, I just do it because I have to. I'm not a sissy and these girls aren't sissies. They could beat a lot of boys if other boys tried this game."

Drawings from "Frederique"

Artwork from "Frederique" a book written in French and published in 1913. The story is about a boy who is abused, thoroughly dominated and completely feminized. The book was translated into English and published as "Miss High Heels" and ranks as one of the greatest classics of crossdressing literature. These colorized drawings from the original book show the boy being forcibly dressed in a slip and corset by the maid, being made to show his servitude by kissing his mistress's feet, having his mistress flaunt her thinly veiled body at him while he is in a dress, and having his ears pierced while he is tied to a chair.

Local boy caught wearing his sister's panties cums up with 13 shitty excuses

Queen City, IA: Jason Leeks was caught by his mother red (or should it be pink!) handed wearing his big sister's panties. Misses Leeks hasn't seen a male doing his business since her husband absconded seven years ago, so she waited and watched as her son gave the panties a test ride, and only after he came to the finish line did she announce her presence.

Caught in this embarrassing situation, the befuddled boy could only shoot off one poor excuse after another. Here are some of the things he said to his mother as he tried to explain himself: 1. It was dark and I couldn't see what I was putting on. 2. I didn't have any clean underwear, so I put these on. 3. I thought you bought me some new fangled underwear. 4. Somebody put them in my underwear drawer. 5. I found them. 6. I'm practicing for a school play. 7. I did it on a dare. 8. I'm trying out a costume for Halloween. 9. My regular underwear was irritating me. 10. I was just curious. 11. My tight jeans don't slide on over my old underwear. 12. It's the latest fad at school; all the boys are doing it. 13. What's the big deal?

Yeah, that's what we want to know: what's the big deal?
