Princess Boys

These boys get to find out what it's like being a girl!

Adults Only

Fantasy Entertainment

Some boys dress up like a princess for a costume party or just to have fun with their sisters playing a dress-up game; many of these boys willingly put on dresses and even lingerie, but most are coerced into it by a bossy sister who wants a sister or mother who wants to see him as a girl.

Boys rarely pass up a chance to play dress-up with the girls!

Picture Album #37 - Princess Boys

Often boys dress up like girls for Halloween or a costume party, but boys also do it for school plays, on a dare, attempting to be funny, and with their sisters playing dress-up. Many boys willingly put on pretty dresses and even fancy lingerie, but most of them are talked into it by a sister who longs for a little sister or a mother wondering what her son would look like if he had been born a girl ... and some boys are forced into dresses as a punishment. When boys do crossdress, one of the cutest costumes is a classic princess dress so here we are presenting pictures of princess boys assembled from our large private collection as well as from contributions sent to us by our readers.

When Eddie was two years old, he told me he wanted to be a girl like his sister. I bought him girls' clothes for dress up fun and even fancy panties to wear under his regular boys' clothes because he insisted on it. My husband and I were sure he would outgrow his attraction for girls' clothes but now he's going on nine and he dresses up like a girl more than ever!

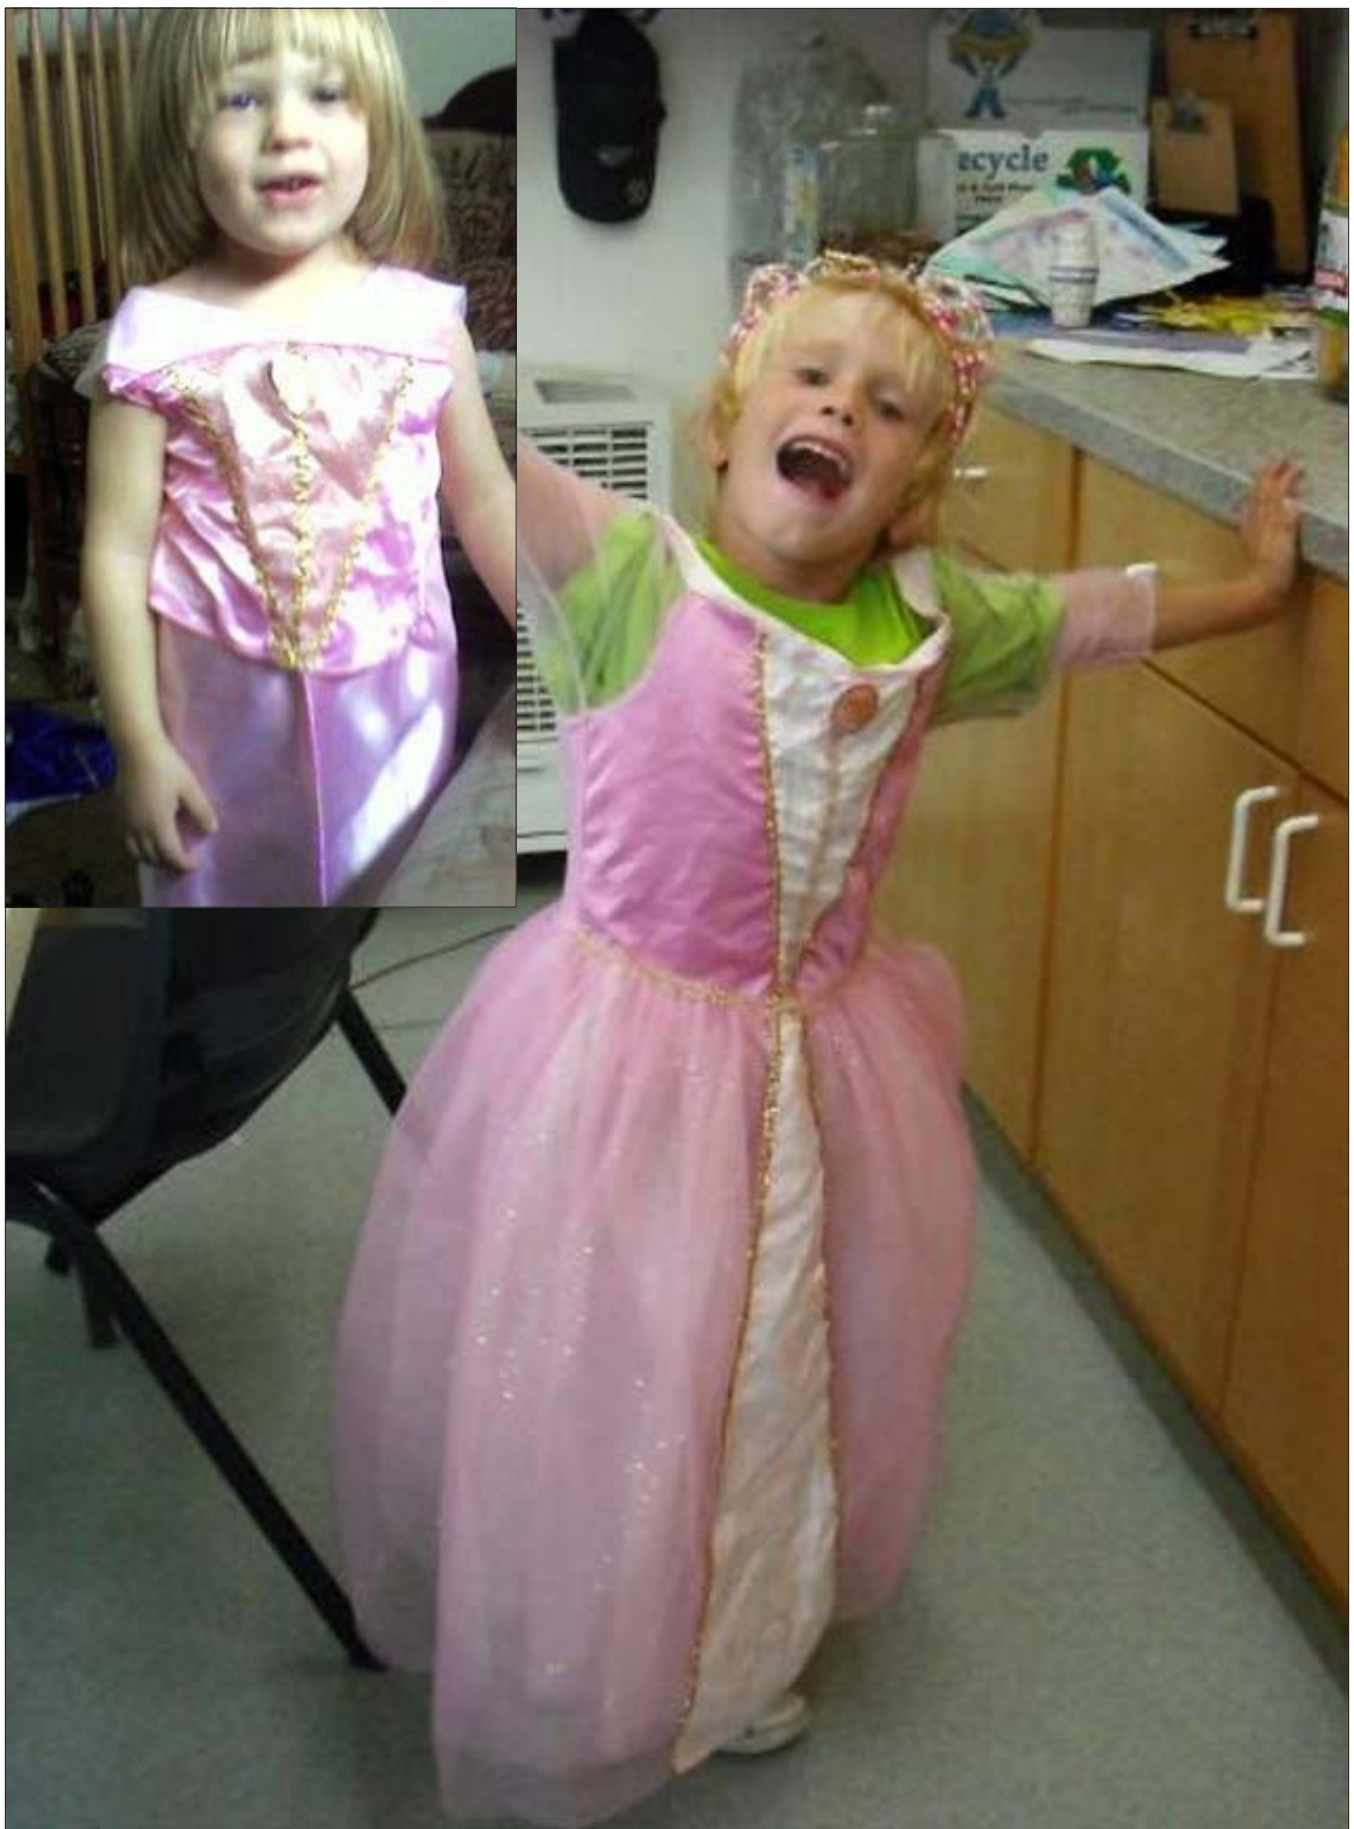

In this picture you can even see a bit of his pink panties peeking out over the top of my satin harem girl pants!

I got hooked on panties because my sister always ran around in just her nylon princess panties and she'd even let me wear the pretty pink panties whenever she'd insist on dressing me up like her little sister.

Since Dougie likes to play with the girls next door, his older brothers won't let him play with them.

Since Jimmy wouldn't stop teasing his little sister at her princess birthday party, his mom forced him to put on a princess dress and play with the girls.
