

Me and Kenny had been friends since high school. I had been two years older than him and he had sort of looked up to me since i was a smart , good looking guy who always got a lot of attention from girls. Kenny was one of those motor mouth types who was always rambling, and i liked this as i was more introverted and it was always easy when someone else would drive most of the conversation.

We had always been friends but also somewhat competitive. We both bragged about who would be more succesfull in life and would make more money. I had taken an accounting route and while i was doing fine, pulling in a little over 6 figures, i was a little bit jealouse of Kenny's success in wall street. I didnt know his salary for sure but i knew based on the place he worked and his position he was making a small fortune, probably over 300k per year after bonuses.

I was 28 and he was 26 when we met up in las vegas for some gambling.

Kenny was as talkative as ever and i had to struggle to get a word in edge wise as we talked about work at the blackjack table. Our dealer was a seductive young women who we both flirted with to no avail. Kenny gave her a huge tip when we left the table and tried to see when she got off work but she didnt seem very interested. I guess his big talking personality has served him well in wall street but i had seen the pathetic side to it as well and had a nice chuckle to myself.

We had both gotten a little horny from staring at our sexy dealer so we decided to go to one of the pools to scope the chicks.

I was in excellent shape, although only 5'11 i was ripped. Kenny was a little bit taller but skinny and very little muscle tone.

We picked a spot by a group of girls who looked to be on a bacholorette party, they were all smoking hot, all 5 of them college aged in bikinis.

It wasn't long before kenny struck up a conversation with one of them, sally, who was a tallskinny blonde girl with a perfect face. Sally was friendly enough to kenny but i could tell she wasnt really interested in him. She was giving him subtle "not interested" signs as he tried to up his flirtation.

She perked up a little when she saw me, and i introduced myself and felt instant chemistry. I knew that she was more physically attracted to me and i felt the male power that comes from being selected by an attractive female.

Sally and i talked for about 15 minutes as we got a few drinks while kenny tried his luck on some of the other girls. I knew he had a thing for blondes and was relishing that i was the one who was making progress with his "first choice" sally. I guess wall street isnt everything i thought to mysef.

Kenny was able to get some good conversation going with one of the other girls and they eventually invited us back to their suite to "pre game" Before going out that night.

Well that was the plan at least , what ended up happening was me and sally started making out and she took me to her bedroom. Sally was a hot ,perfect girl, 20, UCLA student and her body was absolutely flawless. She had perfect skin and her slender arms and face were like a movie star quality. Her skin was tan from

The the CA sun and she had beautiful

Blue eyes. I had a full erection as we started grinding on her bed, sucking each others faces. She really needed to get fucked and i was happy to oblige.

We heard some laughing in the connected bathroom and sally wanted to investigate. Kenny had been fooling around with julie, a short pretty brunette.

The shower in the suite was giant , with multiple shower heads, some sort of special room and we decided in our drunkenness that we would all four take a shower. The girls and guys stripped.

I was trying not to stare at the girls but it was hard not too, sally had incredible tits. They were not huge, but they were big and perfectly shaped with huge tight nipples. While short, Julie had a nice pair of tits as well . They were huge in fact, and i was suddenly aware at my luck to be in this situation.

As me and kenny stripped i snuck a peak to see what he was packing and felt a small sense of dismay that his cock was bigger than i had expected. While i was no small fry , i was about 6.5"errect, kenny looked to be easily 8.5" or more
And he wasn't even fully erect yet.

Kenny noticed my hesitency and flashed me a cocky grin.

"Looks like i got you beat " he said, making sure the girls knew what he was referring to.

Sally did a double take. Her mouth opened
Wide in a classic "oh my god" pose.

"Wow that's a big dick" she said to kenny. Kenny smiled arrogantly and nodded in agreement. He wagged his dick for her and sally continued to stare, her pretty blue eyes locked on his cock.

Humiliated by this change of events, i tried to pull sally toward me. She gave me a kiss and proceeded to stroke my cock with her hand. Julie started giving kenny a blowjob as we were now all four in the shower.

Sally looked over to see danny and julie and it was obscene. Julies mouth was stretched wide and her eyes were looking up at kenny in worship. Kenny had a half squint, grinning in pleasure as he made eye contact with sally.

"Jesus i can't believe how big your cock is!" Sally said, stroking kenny's ego at my expense for the second time. She was still Stroking my cock but it was clear that her mind was elsewhere.

"Ok its fucking huge" julie agreed, before
Eagerly taking him as deep into her throat as she could.

Kenny pushed on julies shoulder to stop her and he took a step closer to me and sally. Sally, eyes glued to his giant member put her hand on his cock, and made a gasp, she gave him a kiss and began stroking his cock with her other hand.

Sally was now in between me and kenny, stroking both of us. I was unhappy as the balance was clearly not in my favor. Sally was looking at kenny and seemed in complete awe of his size while her other hand continued to dutifully stroke my more modest size.

"I think i need to use both hands" she said and stopped stroking my cock and began giving kenny a two handed job. His length and thickness were enough for her to have more room even after using both hands.

Sally started leaning her perfect body into kenny and she looked into his eyes. The mood was changing and it was clear that she wanted Kenny to fuck her.

"You have the biggest cock ive ever seen" she told him and in a sexy voice. Although she had rejected him earlier in the day, it was clear his cock had changed her opinion of him.

"Would you like to be pumped with it?" Kenny asked

"Um... Yea... I mean, umm... Please!" She was a little jumbled.

"You didnt want me earlier today" kenny joked

"Um yeah, i didnt know about this. you won me over, stud. " And she gave him a deep kiss as she continued to stroke his massive pole.

Kenny lifted sallys slender body up against the wall and proceeded to fuck her. And this was done in such a way as to leave no doubt who was the superior male. While julie and i stood and watched, me with my dick in my hand, kenny proceeded to pound sally against the wall with long strokes.

Sally was moaning about his big dick the whole time. As he increased his pace she wrapped her legs and tiny arms around his neck and started screaming

"Big! Big! Big!"

Over and over again with each thrust

"Big! Big! Big!"

The slapping sounds from sallys breasts where loud and jullie began to masturbate and cheer kenny on.

"Give her that big dick. God thats so hot" julie said.

Kenny started groaning as sallys legs were shaking in orgasm.

"Im gonna cum" he moaned

"Oh god Please !I need it!" Sally yelped

"Big!" She moaned again as kenny gave her another deep thrust and began milking his big dick in her

"Ohhhh!" Sally moaned as danny gave a loud groan.

"Holy shit stud! Holy shit you stud!" She moaned as she felt his ropes of sperm deep in side her.

"Those are Fucking huge balls " she moaned and started kissing him in ecstasy.

The other girls, having heard all the screaming had come into the bathroom to see the action. At that point, kenny slowly withdrew

His cock from sally to show the girls his size. They gasped and were whsipering to each other in shock

"What a gorgeous cock" i heard someone whisper.

Meanwhile my avg size penis was getting no attention and i didnt say a word.

The rest of the trip was spent with me by myself trying to reconcile my masculinity while kenny proceeded to fuck sally multiple times per day.

Any competition between me and kenny had been put to an end with sallys eager annointing of him.
