

Revenge of the Nerd

Chapter 1 by aaabbbzzz

Katelyn sat for a moment in the locker room after getting dressed. She was ready to go home but was upset about how the other girls were treating her during gym class. Just turning 19, she had started college and had felt like it was really hard to fit in. A lot of the other girls would bully her or say mean things about how dorky she was. As she sat thinking about ways to get revenge she heard the door open.

Walking into the locker room was one of Katelyn's bullies. Carla was also a 19 year old girl who started attending the college at the same time as Katelyn. However, she and some of her friends from high school decided to take similar classes so they could hang out. Back in high school they used to make fun of the nerdy girls and now Katelyn was their next victim. When she saw the sad girl sitting on the bench she couldn't resist saying something cruel.

What do you want Carla? I'm just trying to get going, haven't you picked on me enough today? You and your friends need to stop messing with me.

Oh, what's wrong Katelyn? Are we hurting your feelings or something? You're just a loser who doesn't need to be here. Why don't you sign up for different classes like how to not be such a nerd. I swear, all you do is whine about everything.

I can't wait to see you tomorrow. It's so funny to watch how pathetic you and your feelings are. Like why even show up anymore? You're doing this to yourself, it's so easy to pick on you, and so much fun.

Just fucking leave me alone. I'm not saying anything else to you today. It's really getting on my nerves. Go ahead, continue to be a bitch, I think you'll get what you deserve sooner or later.

Carla giggled at Katelyn's threat and started to walk away from her. As she headed towards her locker, Katelyn started to feel like she couldn't just let her get away with this anymore. She wanted to get revenge on Carla and all the other bullies who had been causing her a bad time. Fortunately for her, she had been working on something in her spare time that might help her out. Behind Carla's back, Katelyn pulled out a device and pointed it at her bully.

You're going to pay for how mean you've been Carla. You and all of your friends have been such bitches to me and so many other unfortunate girls. I think it's time you get what you deserve. I guess you can say, it's time for my revenge. You're about to regret all the bad things you've ever done.

Before Carla could turn around and laugh at Katelyn's remarks, she started to feel odd. When she finally realized what was happening, her body was being shrunk down by Katelyn's device. She yelled at her to stop, but there was no hope anymore. The nerdy girl wanted to get her revenge on all the girls who had given her such a hard time. When Katelyn was down shrinking her bully, she was nothing but a tiny doll helpless on the floor.

Oh my god, it actually worked!
You don't know how excited I am to test this device out. Seeing how small you are now instantly made me feel so much better. I've had a lot of alone time and sleepless nights trying to think of a way to get back at you girls, so I created this shrink ray to take matters into my own hands. As you can see, you wont be able to bully me anymore.

What the hell, a shrink ray? Katelyn this is crazy, change me back right now! I promise I'm sorry and I'll get the other girls to stop. You can't just use that thing on me like this. When I tell someone about this you will be in so much trouble!

Katelyn could tell that Carla was begging for forgiveness, but she couldn't hear the tiny girl's pleas. When it seemed like she wasn't being heard, Carla got up and started to run as fast as possible away from the giantess. Unfortunately for her, it only took a few slow steps for Katelyn to catch up with her. Within less than a few moments, she brought her foot down on the shrunken girl, easily ending this pathetic chase.

Owww! Please get off me! What the fuck is your problem Katelyn? This isn't right, even by my standards. Okay okay, I give up! I've learned my lesson and I wont tell anyone about this. Just please don't step on me anymore, you're going to break my back!

I don't think you get it yet Carla, so let me make this clear for you. I'm the one who's in charge now, and you will obey my every command unless you want to suffer my wrath, got it? You never stopped when I begged you to, so why should I start being nice to you? I'm telling you you've earned this. Being in this position is what a little bitch like you deserves. Now play along like a good tiny doll before you make me more upset.

Staying put after hearing her tone, Carla looked up in despair to see a gigantic hand coming right towards her. It was horrifying to sit back as her vision became darker as Katelyn got down to pick her up. There was nothing she could do to help herself at this current size. The tiny girl's only hope was for the giantess to be nice to her. Knowing that she was angry about being bullied made everything Katelyn did extra scary.

I find it kind of cute to watch you try your hardest to convince me to change you back. I'm sorry Carla but that's not an option I'd ever consider. You don't understand how painful it is to be bullied every single day. I've hated coming to this class because of you and your friends. Why did you have to be so cruel? We could of existed together without any conflict, but you had to push your luck didn't you?

Please Katelyn, you know this isn't right! I know we were mean, but we were just being girls. I had no idea how hurtful our words have been to you. My friends were the ones who started it, I just had to go on with it to stay in their group. You would understand if the positions were swapped. It's so hard to make friends around here so I just did what I had to. I'm so sorry how it made you feel though.

Do you think I'm that stupid? All I'm hearing from you is a bunch of bull shit. Anyone would try to throw their friends under the bus in this situation. Either way if it was their idea, you played along with it. You can't tell me they forced you to bully me or anything, you did this because you're just a bratty bitch. Now, let's get out of here before anyone else shows up. I want to take you home to give you your punishment. Nobody will be able to save you from me when we're all alone in privacy.

Putting the tiny girl away in her purse, Katelyn left the locker room just in time. Another girl walked past her, unaware of shrunken Carla screaming for help. After leaving, there was no hope left for the tiny woman. She would be at the mercy of the girl she had caused so much pain to. Katelyn was ready to get her revenge, without having a single second thought about what she was doing. It just seemed right to her to put Carla in her place.

After a short walk, Katelyn made it back to her house. Quickly, she ran up the stairs and locked the door behind her before any of her family members would notice that she was home. Katelyn still lived at her mom's place with her old sister. The both of them were always busy with work so she was excited to be all alone with her brand new pet. Immediately, she put her purse on the ground and reached in to grab the shrunken woman.

Here we are Carla, welcome to your new home! You will most likely spend the rest of your life here in my room. I hope you took some time to let reality hit you while you were in my bag. This isn't a dream, it's actually a nightmare. I'm so excited to finally get my chance to make you suffer after treating me so badly. That little ride you had in my purse will most likely be the last break you'll ever receive.

You can't be serious
Katelyn, there's no way I could spend the rest of my life in here. Are you crazy or something? You're being more inhuman than me and my friends were. All of this is just more than I deserve.

Well maybe you should of thought about consequences when being so fucking cruel. I don't care if you think this punishment is worse, it's what you had coming. Calling me crazy just makes me even more upset with you. You still have no idea how I can use this power over you do you?
Why don't we just get straight to the point so you can realize your new place in life.

Katelyn gently placed Carla on the floor and walked over to sit next to her window. She looked down at the shrunken girl with a threatening look, hoping to get her message across that she was not playing games. Katelyn was demanding her tiny pet to play along, or the punishment would become much worse.

Alright now that we're here, I think we should find out first how useful you can be to me. There would be no reason to keep your useless life alive if you can't offer me anything. Now, get your little ass over here Carla and treat me like I'm your goddess. I'm not going to ask you twice.

Slowly, the shrunken girl approached Katelyn's gigantic legs. She was scared about what the giantess would actually do with her. Carla never thought of Katelyn being a mean girl, but it made sense because of the way she was bullying her. As she got closer to her foot, she really started to wonder what the giantess meant by treat her like a goddess. It was a confusing request for the tiny girl who had never had to beg for anything in her life.

What do you want me to do Katelyn? How am I supposed to treat you like my goddess? You might be a giant, but you don't own me! I'm still a human and none of this is right at all. Please hear me out, I'll do whatever you say if you just grow me back to normal. We don't need to go through with this keeping me as a pet forever thing.

Katelyn didn't like how the tiny girl wasn't getting to her task like she expected. Instead of waiting around, she lifted her foot above Carla's head. In shock, she fell backwards onto her back and looked up in terror as her shoe brought darkness to her world. Screaming up at the giantess had no effect as Katelyn teased her pet by slowly approaching her. Eventually she was done having fun with this and brought her foot down, pinning Carla to the floor, while starting to apply more and more pressure.

You're so pathetic Carla. Are you stupid or something? It's obvious you can't do anything to fight back, so why do you have to make this so hard on yourself? I'm supposed to be your goddess now, so please show me some gratitude. If you want me to accept your apology then give me a reason to. Bow down and worship my foot. Beg me to spare your insignificant life by groveling at my feet.

After lifting her foot off her, Carla got to her knees and pushed her hands into the bottom of Katelyn's sole. The giantess wasn't able to feel what the tiny girl was doing so she started to remove her shoe. With it came a foul odor the quickly took over the air next to Carla. The shrunken girl quickly realized that this task was about to become even more of a nightmare. Scared to death, the tiny girl got to her feet and tried to run away as fast as possible.

Where the hell do you think you're going Carla? Didn't I give you a task to perform? This isn't how a pet should be treating their goddess. When I tell you to do something you will do it. Making me angry will only be hurtful to you. I'll give you to the count of five to turn around and beg me for forgiveness. Since you're new to this I'll give you a free pass, but don't expect anything else.

The giantess counted down to zero, giving Carla a chance to come to her senses, but the tiny girl thought it was a better idea to run. She sprinted with everything her little legs would allow her to, but her heart sank when she heard an earthquake behind her. Katelyn was standing up and was not happy with how Carla seemed to continue to disobey. Once again she would be able to easily catch her without any effort just like before.

Did you really think you could get away from me? This is just a game to me at this point. I could step on you, or continue to scare you until I get bored. Running away will just waste more of your energy that you will wish you had later when I give you more tasks. I really don't get how it's so hard to understand your current position Carla. Stop being so stupid and listen to your goddess before it's too late.

After stomping around for a few moments, Katelyn finally decided to step down onto Carla. The tiny girl screamed as loud as she could as she felt an incredible amount of pain on her back. Without knowing it, the giantess was putting too much pressure on the fragile little woman. It wasn't long until she started to lose consciousness. It seemed that Katelyn was being a bit too hard on her new little pet.

Oh my god, she's out cold! I guess I'll have to be more careful if I want to keep her around long enough to punish all of her bad deeds. I think I have an idea to wake her up though. Since she doesn't seem to understand her place yet I'll just have to dive deeper into my cruel ideas. This little lady isn't going to get off easy just because she thinks she can. I'm going to have to show her exactly who's the boss now. All of her bullying is catching up on her.

A couple minutes later Carla started to come back to life. She was awakened by a strange powerful smell, unaware of Katelyn's bare feet plopped up next to her. The giantess had dressed down and thought her stinky feet would be the perfect way to humiliate the shrunken girl. When she realized that this was where the stink was coming from she became afraid of her next task.

I'm glad to see that you're awake Carla and that I didn't hurt you. I'm sorry about that. I wouldn't want to damage you before I was satisfied with your punishment, so it's good to see that you're okay. I'm sure you're wondering what that smell is. Well my bare feet sort of stink after such a long day. I did just ask you to worship me earlier so we're not done with that. So I'm expecting you to get to it this time before I think about crushing you with my toes. Now, go on tiny girl, show me you're worth keeping around.

This time Carla did not hesitate to obey Katelyn's commands. In fear of something much worse, the shrunken woman got up and came over to her bare foot. She wrapped her arms around and pulled herself in, all while the giantess looked down at her with an unsatisfied look. Carla knew she had to show Katelyn more appreciation to make her happy. The giant girl that she bullied so much was not messing around when it came to punishing her back.

Good, it seems like you're starting to understand what to do. I'm proud of you Carla. I thought that I'd have to force you to do this more but if you're able to listen that's even better. Don't think that I'm just going to let you do a lousy job though. I want to feel that tiny tongue of yours run along my soles. It's not a proper punishment unless you get to taste the salty sweat of my foot. It feels so good knowing how you have to do this disgusting task.

Carla had no other choice but to submit to the giantess. Feeling like the smell was about to make her puke, she went on and started licking the bottom of Katelyn's foot. Her eyes started to water as the intense scent clouded her mind. This was the most degrading thing she had ever done in her life. But unfortunately for her this was just the beginning. Katelyn had many other ideas to punish her bully with, and humiliating her with her feet was just the start of it.

What a turnaround so far
Carla! You're lucky that I don't need to do anything worse with you. How is the smell of my feet? I can't even stand them from back here so it must be your whole world down there. Why don't I roll your tiny body around with them. I want to drench your body in my sticky sweat while you breathe in the strong odor.

No please don't do that! I'll keep worshiping better than before, I promise! Please Katelyn I don't want you to do this! Your feet smell horrible already, I can't be played around like this.

Carla was getting angry with the way Katelyn continued to handle her like a doll. She knew she had no way of fighting back, but being used as a toy like this made her scream. As Katelyn rolled her body around the bottoms of her feet, Carla shouted up at the giantess. She could tell the tiny woman was not happy with this fun little game she was playing with her, but it didn't matter. Katelyn didn't stop pressing her smelly feet against Carla's body until she started to get bored.

Alright fine I'll let you go. You're going to wish you begged me to keep doing this after you find out what my next idea is. I thought that humiliating you with my feet would be more fun, but I just have so many more fun games in store for you. It's only your first day though so I know you're going to have another chance to pamper my feet someday. I'll make sure they are extra smelly next time, maybe I can put you in one of my socks for a punishment too!

When Carla collected herself she looked up to see Katelyn unbuttoning her bra. What she just said to her made her fear for the worst. Forcing the tiny woman to bow down at her feet was already humiliating enough, so Carla started to panic. It didn't seem like the giantess was going to make things any easier for her. If anything, her situation was only going to keep on getting worse.

This is so funny, my bra is heavier than you now! If I put you in my laundry hamper you would probably be trapped in there for hours. Maybe we can do that as another fun game sometime. The smell of some of my socks in there can become toxic almost so I just know it would be hilarious to watch you struggle with that. I don't know if you realize what I'm doing yet little girl, but you will find out why soon enough.

After crawling out from underneath Katelyn's bra cup, Carla looked up in horror. Above her the giantess was removing the last piece of clothing she had on, revealing her bare naked body. Carla was scared about what Katelyn's intentions might be after dressing down. She was at the mercy of this girl that she bullied and the energy just seemed dark. When Katelyn was ready, she acknowledged the tiny woman, after letting her stare up in despair for a few more moments.

How are you feeling down there Carla, are you scared yet? Well you should be because I'm in a very demanding mood. Now would not be a good time to mess with me if you know what's good for you. Before we get started though I want you to take off your clothes as well. Don't make me wait long because I will lose my patience quickly. Strip down to nothing you tiny woman and hurry up, you have a lady to please.

Quickly, Carla ripped off her clothes to reveal her tiny naked body before the giantess. Katelyn giggled as she looked down to see the shrunken girl shaking from fear. It was amusing to watch her bully who always seemed so tough around her be reduced to nothing but a scared little doll. Carla was starting to hate herself for all the mean things she had done to Katelyn. If it weren't for all the pain she caused her she would not be here right now in this situation. Ready to finally begin her game, Katelyn bent down to pick up the shrunken woman.

I'm so excited to play with my brand new doll! The fact that this is revenge just makes it so much better. I hope you're starting to feel sorry for the things that you've done. Not like it matters anymore, but maybe some of your friends might apologize before it's too late for them. It's hard to believe how light you are too! With just two fingers I can pluck you whenever I want. Having power over you Carla is such a rush.

Katelyn placed the tiny woman in her hand and looked down at her for a moment. She loved feeling the dominance over Carla as she begged for mercy like she thought she deserved any. Her bully was helpless in the palm of her hand and bare naked. Without saying a word she inched her finger closer and closer. Carla saw this and started to scream even louder, hoping things wouldn't get too rough.

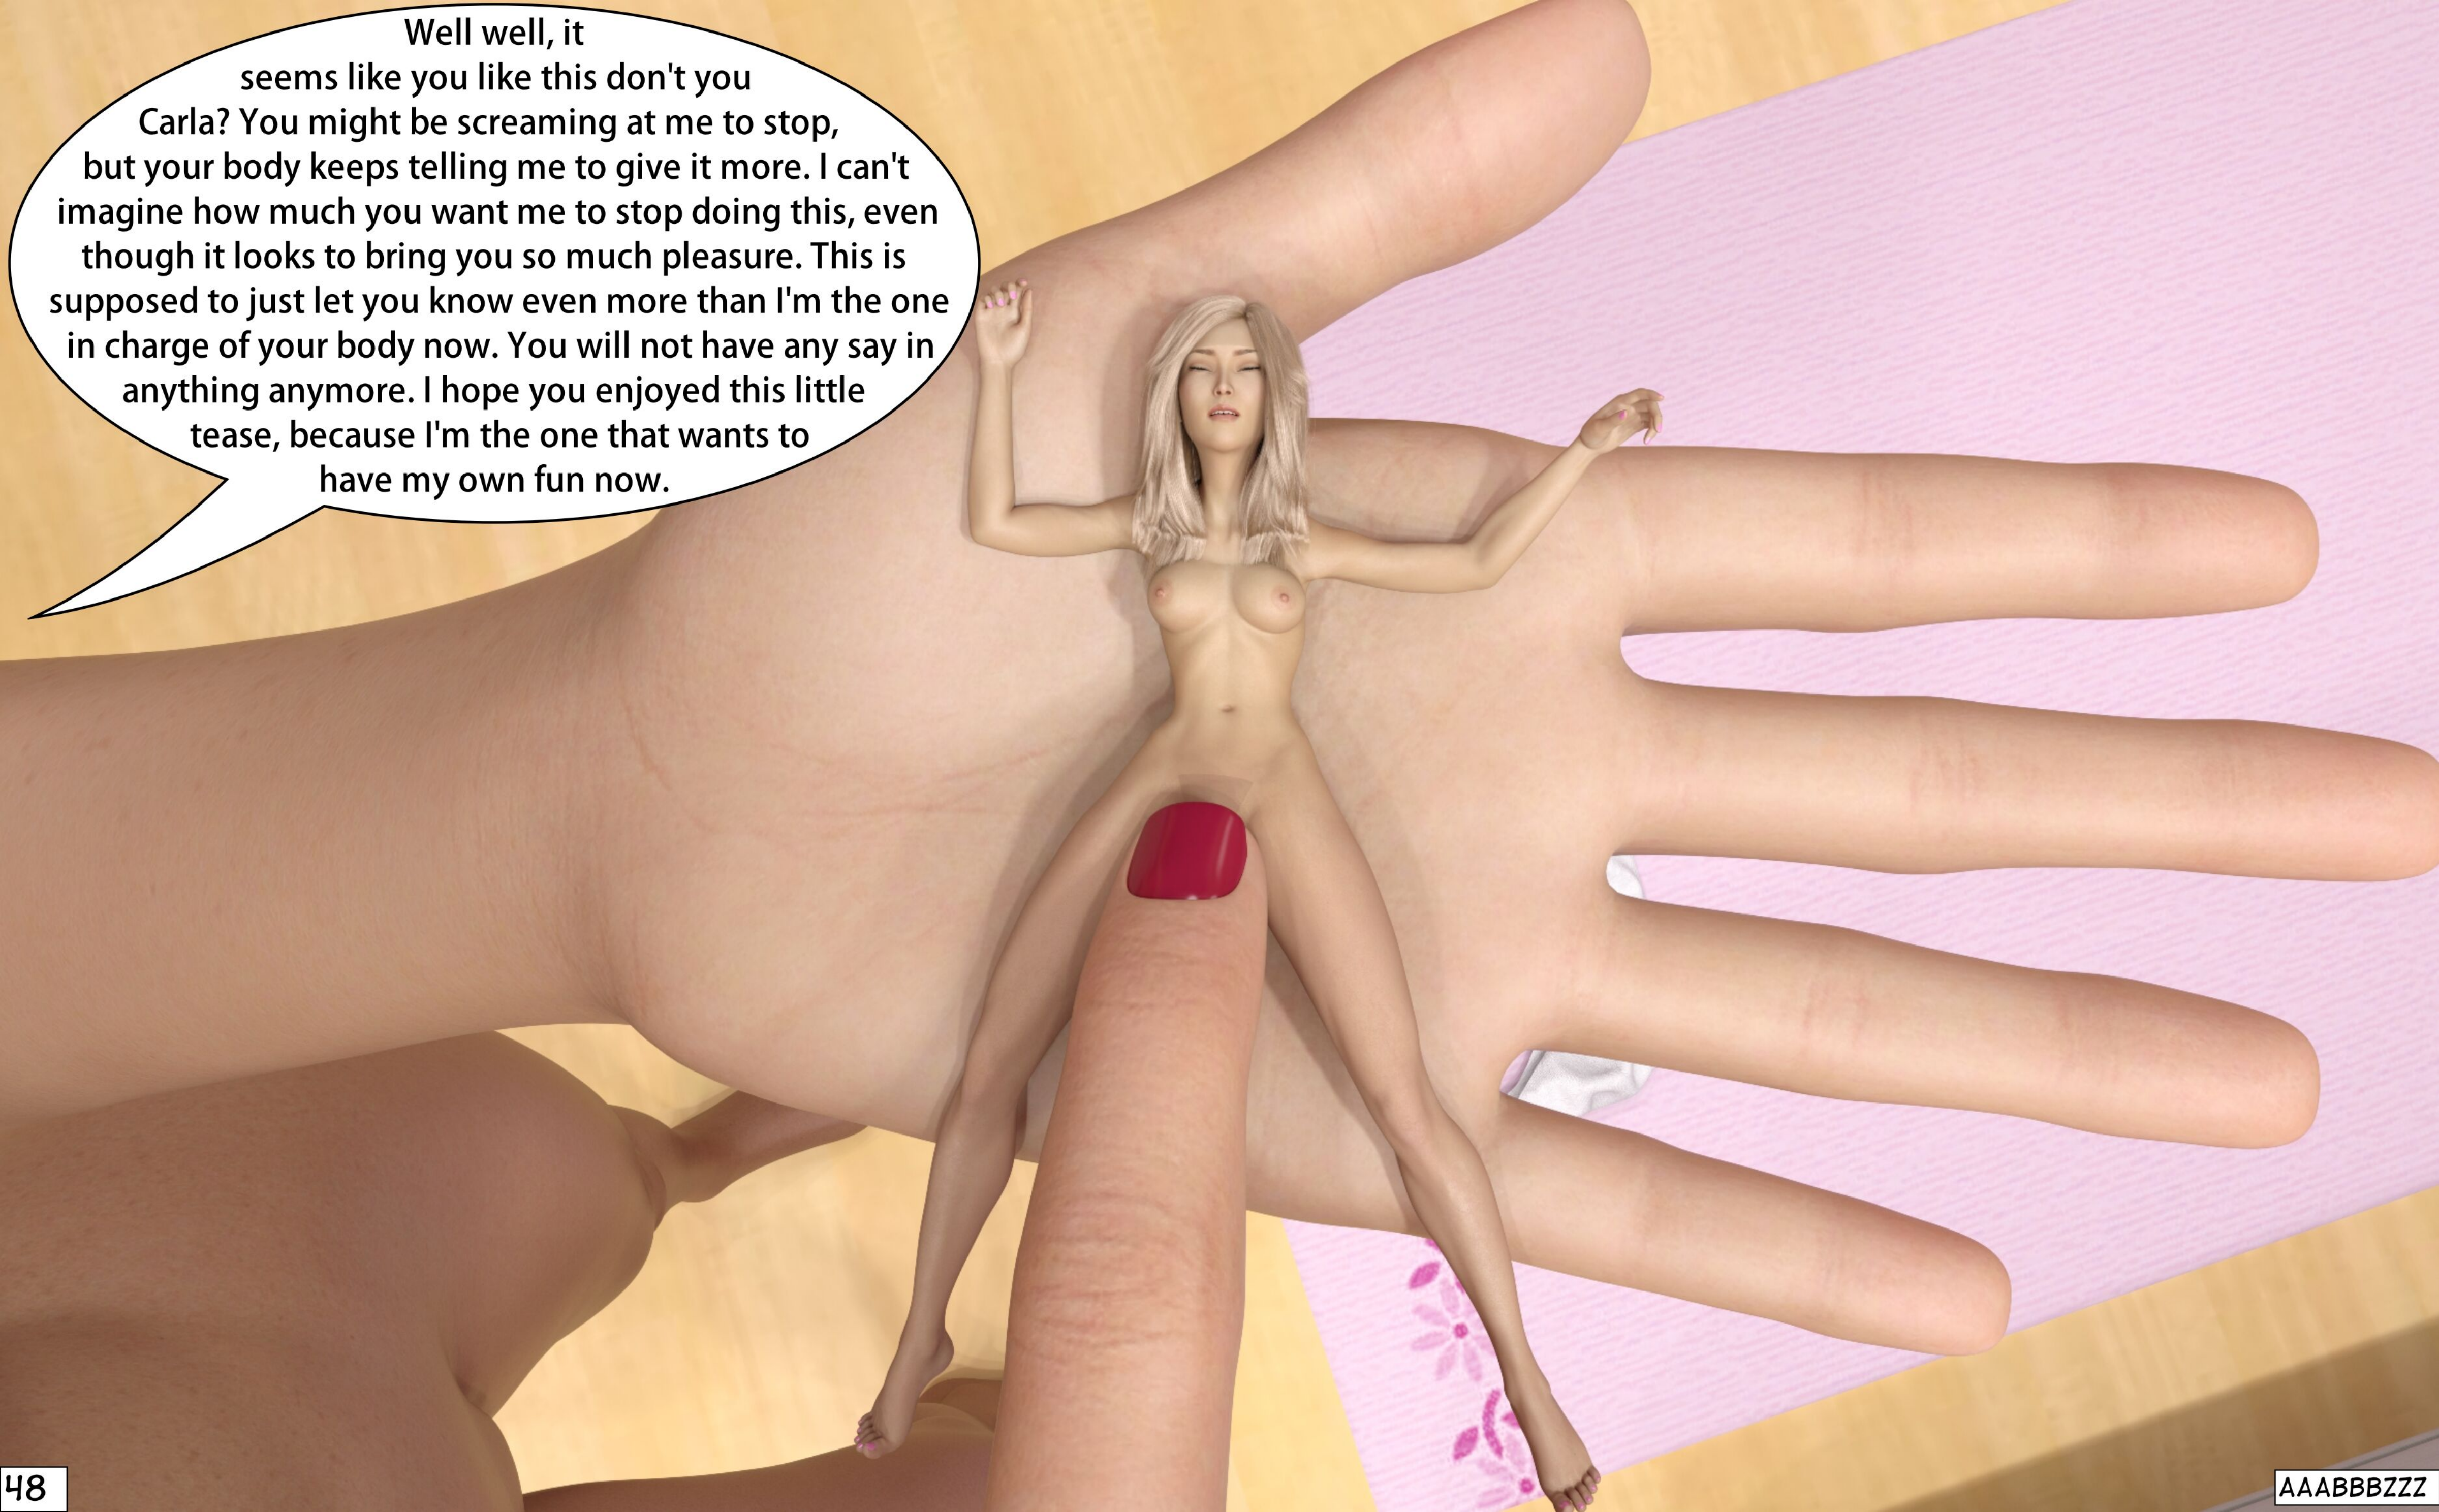

Hey hey hey what are you doing?
Get your finger away from me Katelyn! Don't touch me like that, are you a fucking freak or something? This is rape, you can't do this to me! You know this is so much worse than bullying somebody do you? Please you don't need to do this! I'll do anything else, please just give me another chance to worship your feet or something.

Ignoring her screams, Katelyn continued to gently rub her finger on the shrunken woman. After playing with her boobs she moved down to her most private region. Carla was in shock as the giantess used her finger to stimulate her tiny body. Katelyn smiled deviously, enjoying the way she was forcing Carla to feel. What scared the tiny girl the most was that her body was actually liking it. Katelyn's finger was turning her on against her will and it felt humiliating. The giantess noticed how her pussy was starting to get wet and continued to stroke her shrunken doll.

Well well, it seems like you like this don't you Carla? You might be screaming at me to stop, but your body keeps telling me to give it more. I can't imagine how much you want me to stop doing this, even though it looks to bring you so much pleasure. This is supposed to just let you know even more than I'm the one in charge of your body now. You will not have any say in anything anymore. I hope you enjoyed this little tease, because I'm the one that wants to have my own fun now.

Before she got too carried away, Katelyn stopped rubbing Carla and started to walk towards her bed. She held the shrunken woman tightly in her fist, feeling her body struggle to get some breathing room. It felt like she could easily be crushed by her fingers if more force was applied either accidentally or on purpose. Carla felt like her body had just been violated by the giantess. After being told to worship her feet, she did not think Katelyn would come up with a game as sick as this. To her horror though, this wasn't even close to the nightmare that was about to happen.

Let's get this into your head now so I can expect a better performance from you without needing to give you any more warnings. You are nothing but disposable to me Carla. If I don't think you're doing your task in the way I like it then I'll make you wish you did. I'm not worried about hurting you or leaving you tied up in a sock to starve or anything. I can always go shrink one of your other friends if you're not well suited enough to be my slave. Think about this now because you might not want to do what I'm about to ask you. The point is that you have no choice.

Carla landed on the bed after what seemed like a long fall. She was lucky that the sheets and mattress were soft enough to cushion her. Katelyn's last statement was the darkest so far. She could hear how serious she was in her cruel tone and knew things were about to become unimaginably bad for her. Behind her was Katelyn's giant ass descending upon her spot. Carla screamed out the loudest she had so far, but it was pointless as the giantess didn't seem to care one bit about her pleas.

What's that Carla? Is my butt too big for you to handle? This isn't even the game I had in mind. It's more of a transition into it. I'm giving you some time to think while you witness my dominance some more. I have the feeling you aren't going to give me what I want so I thought about starting off with a threat. You're going to get what you truly deserve, and it will be soon.

Underneath her ass, the tiny woman squirmed to survive. With all her strength, Carla tried to pull herself into the middle of Katelyn's cheeks, hoping that it would relieve some of the pressure. Unfortunately for her, the butt was just too heavy and impossible to do anything against at her current size. She cried out, feeling weak and defeated until Katelyn decided it was time to move on. This wasn't even the worst part of her punishment, but Carla wished it was.

You're so helpless and your pathetic little struggles are just funny to me. I never had a nice butt and your friends used to make fun of me for it, so I thought it was fitting to try and change your opinion. Now crawl out from under there so I don't accidentally squish you when I get onto the bed. You better hurry up too, I don't care if your body is feeling weak or beat up. We can finally get started on what I really want, this was just another warm up to scare you.

Katelyn allowed Carla to escape from underneath her ass and laid on her stomach next to her. She was positioned in a playful way, thinking about how excited she was to keep on toying with the shrunken girl. Carla became more worried as it seemed like this was all a game to the giantess. Her chances to convince her to stop just seemed impossible. As Katelyn rolled herself into another position, Carla braced herself for whatever would be her next task.

Alright Carla,
I'm done waiting now. I think I'm ready to give you your main punishment.
Walk on over to the center of the bed for me and make it quick. Hopefully for your sake, you've learned something so far. It should be obvious by now that I wont be messing around when I ask you for something.
I don't care what you think at all, so save your opinion to yourself. I'm going to have my way and if you don't fight it, things will be a lot easier for you.

The shrunken girl made her way to the center of the bed as Katelyn positioned herself with her legs spread. Carla worried that Katelyn was thinking of something sick for her to do, but when she saw her giant vaginal lips right in front of her, it seemed like her nightmare would come true. It was obvious the giantess wanted some sort of sexual pleasure from the tiny woman and that's what scared Carla the most. How was she supposed to satisfy her in that way at her current size? This was something she was about to find out in the worst way possible.

Come Carla, I want you to crawl up to my pussy. I'm getting very excited about the thought of abusing you with it. You may not think this is right, and neither do I, but it's a fitting punishment for a little bitch like you. I'm expecting you to get over here and start rubbing. I'm in need of some stimulation and it doesn't matter that you're a woman as well. You're no longer a human to me, just my tiny pet to obey my every command.

Reluctantly, Carla came over and started to use her hands to massage Katelyn's outer lips. Immediately, the giantess let off a soft moan of pleasure, happy to feel her tiny slave obey. For a moment it didn't seem real that she actually listened, but it made her feel good to know she was scared enough not to take any chances right now.

There we go
Carla, that's what I was expecting.
Your tiny hands are already making me wet down there, please don't even think about slowing down. You should actually try speeding it up a little if you want to make your goddess happy. Rub me harder my slave if you know what's good for you.

Carla was feeling completely humiliated. Being reduced to nothing but a sex toy to this giant girl that she bullied was the most degrading thing ever. As she tried her best to massage with her hands, the smell of Katelyn's vagina started to become more intense. The giantess was becoming moist in her private region. Having the tiny girl scared into doing this task was just making her more and more horny.

Feeling like she couldn't handle herself anymore, Katelyn used her fingers and shoved the tiny woman inside her. Carla's screamed became muffled as her world became dark and moist. The inside of Katelyn's pussy was a tight prison that squeezed her little body. This experience was something that would of never crossed her mind that was possible. Struggling for air and for an escape, Carla pushed on Katelyn's inside walls with all of her strength. Unfortunately her efforts did nothing for her as the giantess easily used her two fingers to continue to push her back deep inside.

Oh fuck.. how does this feel so fucking good? Squirm for me Carla, it only adds to my pleasure. This is the most enjoyable thing I've ever done. My bully is tiny and inside my vagina, struggling for her life. It turns me on so much! Don't you dare let me down now you tiny girl. Your goddess loves what she is feeling and is expecting nothing but more from you. Satisfy me with all that you have or else!

Carla's tiny body was pushed in as far as it would go. Flailing around for survival only turned Katelyn on even more. The tiny girl was horrified and doing everything she could to try and end this nightmare, but whenever she would be close to falling out she would just be shoved back in again. Her entire body was drenched in the juices and starting to feel weaker. This was complete torture without an end in sight.

I didn't think this was going to be this way. The feeling is something I never could of imagined. You're going to make me cum down there Carla. Please don't you dare fucking stop. Oh my god.. this is heaven. I'm getting so close, I just can't take it anymore. Fuck me, this is nothing but insane! My orgasm is coming close, I'm begging you to get me there. Make me cum my tiny slave, I'm demanding it!

After what seemed like an unbelievable build up, Katelyn finally came to her climax. She moaned loudly, not able to contain herself as waves of pleasure echoed throughout her entire body. Carla continued to squirm inside her, just making it even more intense for her. The giantess was in complete ecstasy, proud of herself for punishing one of the girls who had caused her so much pain. This was what true revenge felt like, and Katelyn became addicted to this feeling after just one dose. She wanted more, and luckily for her, she had her shrinking device so she would be able to teach the rest of Carla's friends the same lesson.

That was something else
Carla, holy shit. I never thought I'd enjoy something like that so much, it was unreal. You did well being my tiny sex toy. So well actually that I think this will be your daily job from now on. There's just no way I'm going to pass up feeling this way again. Are you trying to wiggle out of your prison? That's too bad, I'm not letting you out of my pussy just yet. I want to go back to the school and see if any of your friends are still there, and you're going to ride along with me, trapped inside me.

Katelyn stood up from her bed and pushed the tiny woman back inside her vagina. She was not letting her bully have the chance at a break, even though she did such a good job pleasing her. Carla felt like this was dark, but Katelyn didn't seem to care. The shrunken girl was just an insignificant being now. If for some reason she didn't survive it didn't really matter to the giantess. She had the power to use her device on whoever she pleased. This gave her the ultimate feeling of power and she wanted to use it for her satisfaction.

A woman with dark, wavy hair and black-rimmed glasses is shown from the waist up. She is wearing white lace-trimmed underwear. Her hands are on her hips, and she has a confident, slightly smug expression. The background is a simple, light-colored room with a white ceiling and a grey wall.

There we go! Now even if you somehow manage to escape my pussy, you will still be trapped inside my panties. You're not going anywhere Carla. Welcome to your new home for the rest of your life. Who knows how long that will be though. There is always the chance I might get bored of having you in there or maybe I'll swap you out with one of your friends. Either way, you are nothing but my tiny slave from now on. It feels so amazing knowing that this is what you deserve. You will never be able to bully another girl ever again.

With the shrunken woman tucked away inside her panties, Katelyn put her clothes back on and left her room. Carla had no way of trying to fight her way out from her prison. At her current size it was hopeless to do anything against the giantess who had her life under control. She thought long and hard about how sorry she was for bullying Katelyn the way she did. However, it was too late now to get any forgiveness. As Katelyn walked out into the outside world, nobody would ever know of her tiny pet held captive by her desire to punish her for everything she had done.

Back in the locker room, one of Carla's friends was just about to get dressed and go home for the day. Kelsey was also a 19 year old who knew Carla all the way back to her childhood. The two were best friends for years and were always on the same side when it came to bullying other girls. She was unaware that Katelyn had shrunken her friend and taken her captive for herself.

Just when Kelsey got up to go change, Katelyn walked into the room. She was out for vengeance and happy to find one of Carla's friends alone. Katelyn hated how Kelsey would team up to bully her, as if she was scared to pick on her herself. She pulled out her shrinking device and kept it at the same setting she used for Carla as she walked towards Kelsey, ready to get revenge on the second girl for today.

Hey Kelsey, I saw you go in there. Why don't you come out you bitch? I have some news about your best friend Carla that I think would be very important for you to hear.

Katelyn had always been timid around Kelsey, but for the first time she talked to her like she wasn't scared. With her shrinking device ready, she wasn't afraid of anything the bully had to say to her. Demanding for her to come out of the changing room, Katelyn quickly started to lose her patience. She wanted to shrink this girl down before anyone else would show up.

What took you so long, you didn't need to get dressed for this. Do you have any last words before I change your world forever? You and your friends have bullied long enough and I am so tired of it. You're going to wish you were nicer to all the girls you gave a hard time to.

I didn't expect to see you here so late Katelyn. Did you forget your math book or something? And what the hell do you think you're doing threatening me with that little toy gun you have there. I'm not stupid, but I'm proud of you for trying to stand up for yourself. It's pretty pathetic though, why don't you go home and study some more if you want to be left alone. Leave me alone or you will never hear the end of it from my friends.

Not getting the response she was hoping for, Katelyn pulled the trigger in a furious rage. It wasn't amusing to her how Kelsey thought this was all a joke. Within that moment though she found out that Katelyn was not messing around. When the beam of light hit her body she started to feel weird. The world around her expanded as her body was shrunken down. This was unexpected and scary as she got smaller right in front of the girl she just tried to tell off. When the effect wore off, she was the same size as Carla.

So, what were you saying about my device Kelsey? What a stupid little bitch you are. I should just crush the life out of you right now, but that would be too easy and quick. You deserve to suffer much more than that. How does it feel to have the tables turn on you like that so unexpectedly? I bet you don't even believe this is real right now, like you might of fallen into a dream. But I can tell you right now, this isn't what you think. You're about to find out the extent of what somebody will do when they seek revenge.

Kelsey was unsure of what to do. Hearing Katelyn's words just sent chills down her spine. Being so tiny and helpless before the giantess only made her want to run. Getting to her feet she attempted to sprint away, but her high heels and small size just made it impossible. Taking only a few steps forward, Katelyn was able to catch the shrunken girl and reach down to pick her up. She was now going to be another hostage to the girl she once bullied.

That was cute, did you really think you could outran me? Where did you think you could even go? It's so funny to watch what your little things do when they're scared. Carla was just like you when I shrunk her too. She didn't know what to do and was scared to death. But at least I was still able to teach her a lesson. The poor thing is practically numb now, worried that I might punish her worse than I already am now. Right now she's trapped inside my vagina without any way of escaping. Don't worry though, I think she will be alive to at least see what I've done to you too.

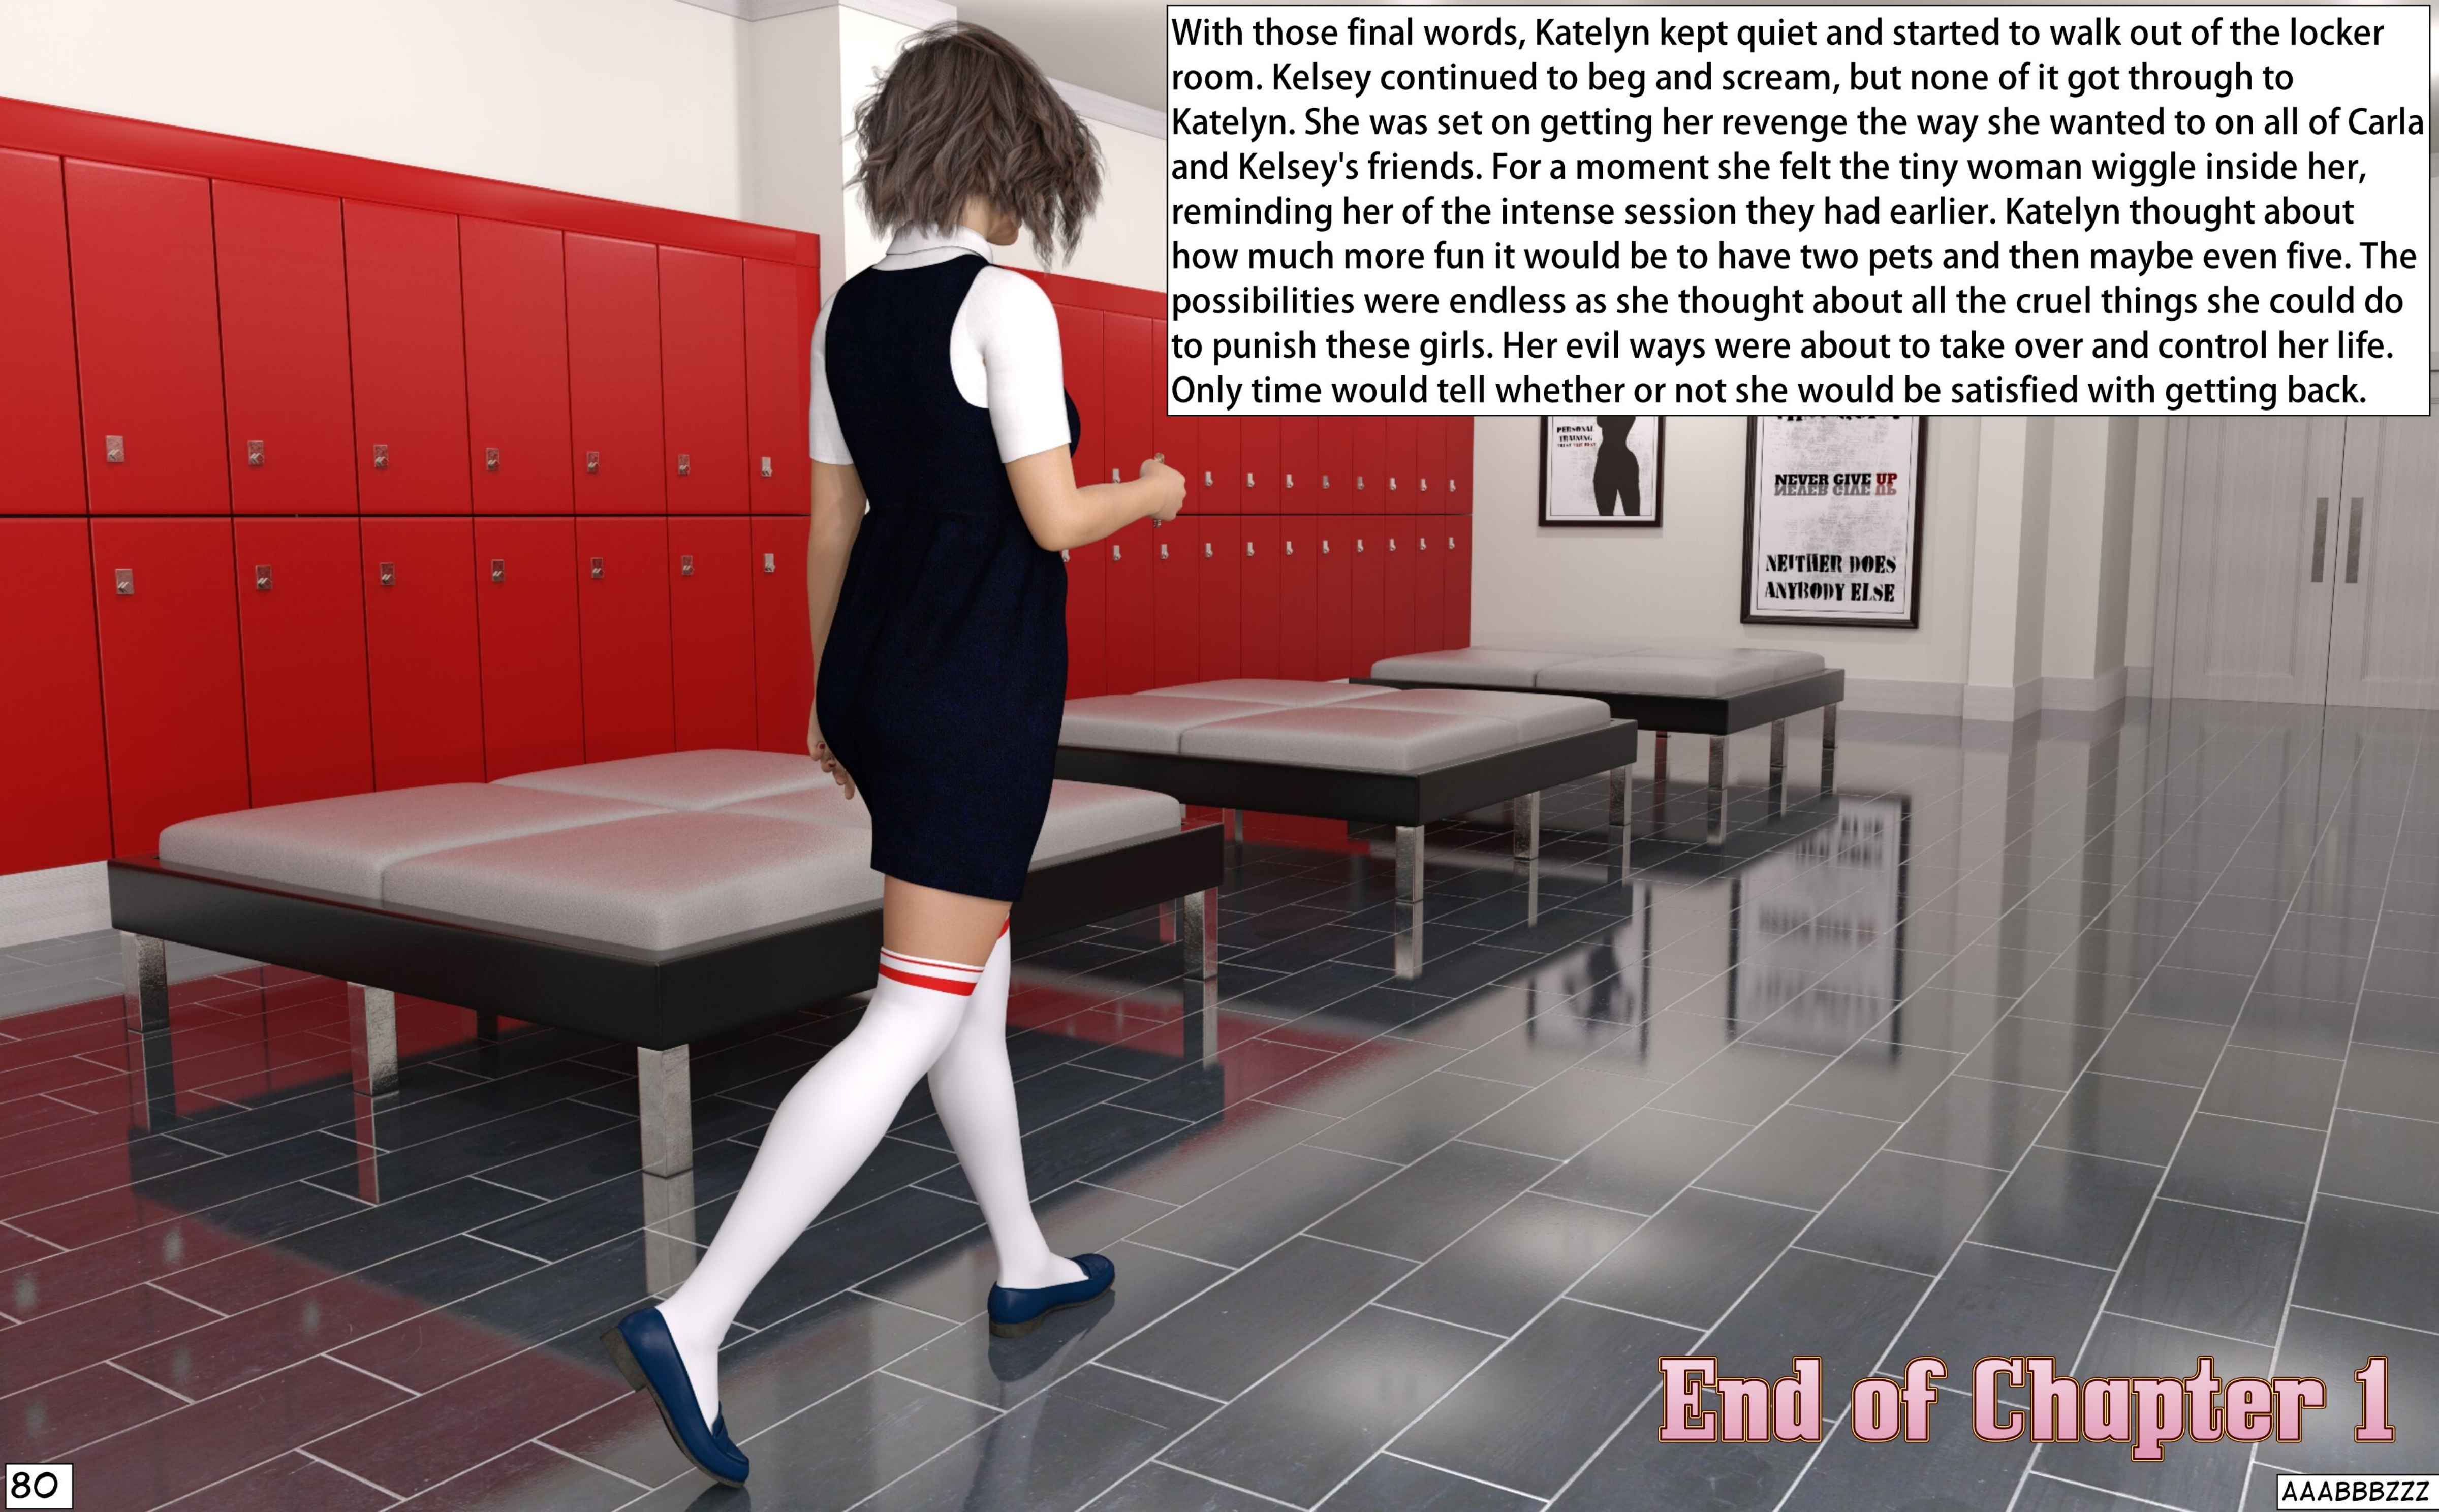

You're joking right? What on earth has happened to you Katelyn? This is beyond cruel! I'm sure me and my friends could apologize to you for everything we've done. You don't have to get your revenge like this, it's unheard of! Please just put me down and grow Carla and I back. We won't tell anybody about what you've done here, I promise! I'm begging you to reconsider.

I think you and your friends have missed your chance to say sorry. I'm going to shrink each and every one of you for what you've done. Of course you're feeling bad now that you're so small. I know it's fear that controls you and not how you really feel. Say goodbye to your old life of being such a bitch. At least eventually you'll be reunited with all of your circle. Too bad it will only be as tiny pets under my control. I can't wait to own all of you like my own personal doll collection.

With those final words, Katelyn kept quiet and started to walk out of the locker room. Kelsey continued to beg and scream, but none of it got through to Katelyn. She was set on getting her revenge the way she wanted to on all of Carla and Kelsey's friends. For a moment she felt the tiny woman wiggle inside her, reminding her of the intense session they had earlier. Katelyn thought about how much more fun it would be to have two pets and then maybe even five. The possibilities were endless as she thought about all the cruel things she could do to punish these girls. Her evil ways were about to take over and control her life. Only time would tell whether or not she would be satisfied with getting back.
