CHAPTER 7

Seth was surprised that he'd actually been able to drop off to sleep. After he got off the phone with his mother, he closed his blinds and tried to let the darkness envelop him. Even though he was anxious for what the rest of the day might hold, he fell into a peaceful slumber, his dreams full of thoughts of plugging his cock into his mother's and sister's hot tight cunts and sucking mouths.

Almost an hour and a half later, he woke up, feeling groggy from sleeping more soundly than he would have anticipated. He chocked it up to the blissful contentment he was feeling from dumping two loads onto, and into, his sexy mom.

Rousing himself, he pulled on his boxers and made his way to kitchen. He grabbed himself a snack and scooped a Red Bull out of the fridge. He'd never had a problem with his endurance and stamina when it came to filling Lizzy's mouth with cum, being able to get it up and come time after time. But, "What the hell," he thought, "a Red Bull or two couldn't hurt. If Mom is anything like she showed me earlier, which I'm sure she is, I think I'm going to have a busy night."

Feeling somewhat content after his snack and drink, he figured he'd better get ready for 'Prom Night'. It had been a while since he'd talked to his mother and, although he knew how long women take to get ready for these types of things, he hoped he wouldn't have to wait much longer. At the end of the day, he knew he'd be taking his sister's cherry, and the thought of that was making his cock stiffen already.

Seth ran the shower and did a thorough job, following that up with a close shave. He took care to comb his hair and brush his teeth, wanting nothing to go wrong, just like he would for a real date. Just as he was finished, he heard his phone ping, signalling a text. He picked it up and saw the message was from his mother.

"30 min more, see you in the living room" was all it said.

"Great, only a half hour left to wait," Seth thought as he put down the phone. Getting dressed, he slipped into a nice pair of white fitted boxers, the stretchy material forming around his substantial package attractively. He went to his closet and pulled out the suit bag with his new clothes. He pulled on the crisp white shirt his mother had picked out, and followed that up with the trim-fitting pants of his new navy suit. A pair of tan leather shoes complemented the suit perfectly, as did the stylish silk tie with a geometric pattern that his mother had picked out as well. Looking at himself in the mirror after tying his tie, Seth gave himself a rakish wink as he slipped the suit jacket over his shoulders and into place.

"Not bad, not bad at all, you sexy bastard," he said out loud as he smiled at the elegant young man looking back at him from the mirror. His mother had been right about the suit, it looked great, as did the whole ensemble she'd picked out for him. Seth hadn't seen the new dresses his mother and sister had gotten for themselves. They'd done that on some shopping trips months ago on their own. He was anxious to see how they'd look.

He strode to the kitchen and grabbed himself a second Red Bull from the fridge. Popping the lid, he took a good pull on it, downing half the can in one shot before setting it on the granite-topped kitchen island.

"My, my, don't you look handsome."

His mother's voice made Seth turn. She was standing a short distance away, leaning provocatively against the wall at the opening to the hallway that led to the rest of the house. Seth gulped as he looked at his mother, feeling his heart skip a beat as his eyes raked over her. "Wow, she's so fucking gorgeous," he thought to himself as he took in every succulent detail.

She was wearing a red dress that fit her like a second skin, the stretchy material following every delicious curve and flowing contour of her shapely hourglass figure. It had a deep plunging neckline that left a sizable portion of her large breasts exposed, and a hem that ended halfway down her full creamy thighs. As usual, his eyes were immediately drawn to her sumptuous bustline. The narrow straps over her shoulders were stretched taut, straining under the substantial weight they were carrying. The tight dress, and whatever kind of power bra she had on underneath it, had those mammoth breasts of hers swelling up and almost threatening to bust free of the dress. Seth had never seen her cleavage look so long and so sinfully deep. He knew he'd be sliding his cock into that inviting valley soon enough.

The deeply-scooped neckline exposed an abundance of tit-flesh, and Seth figured the V-shaped top edge of the dress was barely covering his mother's nipple area, there was that much skin exposed. Seth found himself literally salivating as he hungrily eyed up those tremendous breasts that were all but spilling free. He had to force himself to look down further, wanting to take in everything at once, but having trouble drawing his eyes from those spectacular tits. Finally, he shook his head, breaking himself out of the trance-like state those mouth-watering breasts had over him.

As his gaze moved lower, due to that imposing set of guns, he could see that the brilliant fire-engine red material of the dress was casting an imposing shadow on her midsection. The clingy material adhered tightly to the projecting shelf of her tits and then nipped in teasingly to follow the enticing curve of her narrow waist, the deep shadows emphasizing even more the substantial size of those voluminous tits above. His eyes followed the tight red dress as it flowed out over her wide womanly hips and then smoothed in as it molded itself to the enticing line of her shapely legs. He gulped as he looked at the front of her right thigh. The dress had a wickedly teasing slit in it, about five inches long and rising from the hem of the dress to a point just south of the equator. As she leaned provocatively against the opening in the wall, with that leg angled slightly, that sexy slit drew his eye like a magnet, his eyes feasting on the soft smooth skin of the creamy thigh visible beneath the slit. The inverted-V shape of the slit was like a teasing arrow, pointing upwards towards the hot mature pussy Seth knew was lying in wait just a few inches above the seductively high hem of her dress.

His eyes scanned downwards, taking in the alluring sight of her shapely tanned legs, which were bare, and looked incredible with the shoes she was wearing. Those shoes made Seth take a sharp inward breath, his cock giving a noticeable twitch as he looked at the tantalizingly sexy shoes. They were pointy-toed slingbacks, a style of shoe that he absolutely loved. Like the dress, they were brilliant red in color, with dangerous-looking pointy toes and rapier-like 5" stiletto heels. They were definitely 'come-fuck-me' shoes, and Seth wanted to do exactly that as a pulsation of blood had his stiffening cock pushing against the front of his fitted boxers.

He forced himself to look back up over her exquisite form, his eyes finally coming to rest on her pretty face. She'd put on makeup for a special occasion, her eye shadow a mix of magenta and bronze that looked fantastic with the ocean blue of her eyes. She'd applied some mascara, which made her already-long lashes look even more seductive than usual. And her lips, her gorgeous full lips. "Fuck me, just look at those," Seth said to himself as he could only stare at his mother's inviting mouth. Her lips were painted in a glossy coating that was just as boldly red as her dress, and he could see that it had a 'wet-look' shine to it that just seemed to be begging for a cock to part those soft luscious pillows. He couldn't help but picture those lips wrapped around his cock, glistening wetly as he sawed his cock back and forth between those bright red cushions of pleasure.

Her lustrous blond hair had been brushed to a gleaming shine, the soft flowing curls framing her pretty face like an angel's halo. A glittering diamond earring dangled from each ear and shimmered beneath her canopy of golden blond hair. She'd matched the earrings with a silver necklace with three matching diamond stones dropping down to the top of her cleavage. Seth let his eyes take in the whole ensemble, and thought his mother had never looked more beautiful. She looked glamorous, sophisticated, and sexier than any movie star he'd ever seen.

"Mom, you look...you look absolutely stunning. That dress, your shoes, that jewelry...everything. I love it."

"You don't look so bad yourself, sweetheart. I'm so glad we picked out that suit for you. You look so handsome, I'm kind of glad we're not at the real prom, otherwise your sister and I would have to fight off all the other girls, and I'm sure their mothers as well."

"The way you look, Mom, I don't think you'd have to worry about that at all. I can tell you right now that none of those girls, or women, could even compare to you. With that dress you're wearing, it wouldn't be a fair fight at all."

Seth didn't know that Sonya had an ulterior motive in mind when she'd picked out that dress. After she and Dani had gone out months ago and found a prom dress that Dani was happy with, Sonya decided that she'd get something new for the special occasion as well. It wasn't very often that a mother had two of her children officially graduating on the same day, along with all their friends who they'd grown up with over the years.

Those thoughts had gone through Sonya's head while she'd been shopping for just the right dress. Thinking about her children's friends reminded her of how so many of Seth's friends had grown up to be handsome young men. She hadn't been oblivious to the way they'd all looked at her over the years. She found it charming, and wickedly exciting. It reminded her of her senior year in high school, after her father had taken her virginity. Once he'd taught her to experience the joys of sex, there was no stopping her. Not only had she become the football team's cock-sucking mascot but, by the time she graduated, she'd ended up fucking and sucking off nearly half of the graduating class and nearly all of the male staff, including the principal. She was called down to the principal's office more than any other student. But while the other students thought she was being given a lecture, she was usually on her knees, the principal's long thick cock buried in her throat. She'd go back to class smacking her lips, the fresh taste of cum lingering on her taste buds.

Sonya had thought back on those times, and how much she loved being the little cum queen for all those young boys on the football team and in her classes. She remembered the stamina and endurance of those boys, and how her mouth and pussy were just buzzing after they'd taken turns using her. When she was shopping for dresses that day, she felt her pussy creaming just thinking about it. As she pawed through one dress after another, it dawned on her that she had a chance to experience that kind of pleasure again. Seth's friends were all over 18 now, so that wouldn't be a problem. And from the way those boys all looked at her, she knew they just needed a little prompting to get things started. The right dress would be just the thing to get those hormones of theirs raging. And so, when she saw the red dress, she knew it would be perfect.

The prom celebration had been slated to be held in one of the convention rooms of a major hotel in town. Sonya's plan had been to rent rooms in the hotel as a special prom night gift for her two kids. They could get dressed there, go to all the festivities and after-prom parties, and not have to worry about getting home if they ended up a little tipsy. She had planned on renting a room for herself as well. She knew that a few coyly placed glances or winks at Seth's friends would get things started easily enough. And once she got a couple of them into her hotel room at the same time, word would spread like wildfire, or, word would spread "like her legs", Sonya thought to herself as she paid for the dress, a smile on her face.

Yes, she'd planned on fucking nearly all of Seth and Dani's graduating class that night, having missed getting teenage cock on a regular basis like she had in high school. She couldn't help but picture taking on three of them at time, the virile young boys making her airtight, a sizeable teenage cock plugged into each of her three holes. Along with that, while those three were making use of her willing holes, she pictured a number of other boys kneeling naked on the hotel room bed next to them, jerking off all over her at the same time. And then they'd take turns at her, with new boys coming into the room again and again. She thought of how wonderful that would be if it went on all night long, all those young boys drowning her with gallons of teenage cum. She'd give those boys a night to remember for the rest of their lives, that's for sure.

Alas, when the pandemic hit and everyone's life ended up in turmoil, her nasty little plan quickly came to an end. Within a month, Prom Night had been officially cancelled by the school board, leaving her two kids, and Sonya, depressed about the whole thing.

"Well," she thought to herself, "it looks like this red dress is going to come in handy after all. Seth loves it, and I'm sure that big beautiful cock of his loves it too."

"Thank you, sweetheart. I'm so glad you like the dress, and that I've actually got a chance to wear it. I'm so sorry that your special night was cancelled. I know how depressed Dani was about the whole thing. But I'm sure we can think of a few things we can do for her to make it a wonderful night just the same. Don't you think so?" Sonya finished speaking and gave a little twirl, giving Seth the full view.

"Fuck me," Seth muttered to himself as he looked at his mother's exquisite form. Her full curvy heart-shaped bum looked incredible in the dress, the clingy material flowing like liquid silk over the soft curves of her backside. He couldn't see a single panty-line anywhere and knew she was either wearing a tiny thong, or nothing at all. If he was to bet on it, he'd bet that there was nothing but a bare pussy under there. And when she moved, that provocative slit over her one thigh drew his eye again, the teasing glimpses of the smooth skin of her upper thigh sending another pulsation of blood to his stiffening cock. She'd turned slowly, giving him an amazing view of those massive tits in profile, looking over her shoulder at him with a naughty glint in her eye that promised of more exciting things to come.

But she had mentioned Dani, and what they could do for her tonight. "Yeah, Mom," Seth said as he let his eyes roam blatantly over her gorgeous body, "I think we're going to have an amazing time tonight. We'll make sure Dani has a lot of fun but, I'll tell you right now, I can't wait to get my cock back inside you again."

Sonya felt the same as she looked at her son, wanting to drop to her knees and wrap her lips around that all-day-sucker of his and never stop, but she used all her willpower to push those feelings away. "Just be patient a little while longer there, tiger. Remember, this is going to be a special night for your sister too. But don't worry, from now on, you'll get to fuck Mommy as much as you want, any time you want."

"So Dani's really going to let me take her virginity?"

Sonya nodded, a broad smile on her face. "Oh yeah. I can tell she's been thinking about it for a long time. She can't wait."

Seth's couldn't keep the smile off his own face. "That's great. And since she looks like a younger version of you, I'm sure she'll be just as hot, even if she isn't as experienced."

"That's the perfect thing about her. She's very eager and willing to learn, and I have the feeling that we can both teach her a lot of things." Sonya gave Seth a coy look. "I've already started."

Seth cocked an eyebrow. "What? Already started?"

Sonya slowly strode over and stood in front of him as she reached up and straightened the knot on his tie. "Yes, we had a nice time together when we were getting ready. Like I said, she's very eager to learn. You might even say hungry." She accompanied her last statement by giving him a playful nip on his bottom lip.

Between the sensual tease of his mother's perfume wafting into his senses and reading between the lines of what she was saying, Seth felt himself reeling. "You mean...you mean..."

"Yes," Sonya replied with a smirk. "Your sister certainly knows how to use the pretty little mouth of hers. I think you're going to be very pleased with her."

"Oh man," Seth gasped under his breath as he realized what his mother was saying, what must have happened for her to say that about Dani. "So she...you and her..." Again, Seth found the words he was searching for hard to come by.

"Yes, my pussy was just buzzing after she used those lips and tongue of hers on it," Sonya said as she smoothed her hands down over the front of his chest before leaning in and whispering into his ear, "but not nearly as much as when you were pounding that gorgeous cock into me." Sonya stood back, but not before raking her teeth over Seth's earlobe, which made him shiver with excitement.

"Jesus, Mom, th—" Seth started to say.

"Mom, I think I'm ready." His words were interrupted by Dani's tentative voice coming from down the hallway.

"All right, dear. Come on in and let's see how you look." Sonya turned and said quietly to Seth, "Are you ready to see how your prom date looks?"

Struck dumb by what he'd just heard about his mother and Dani, Seth could only nod. He took a deep breath to try and pull himself together, but all that went away in a hurry when his sister stepped into the room.

"Wow!" was the first word that came to mind when he saw her. He knew his sister was pretty, and had a terrific body—fuck, he'd jerked off to her enough times to know that—but he never knew she could look this sexy and glamorous. The dress she was wearing was beautiful, absolutely gorgeous, and Seth thought it suited her perfectly. It was a stunningly vivid navy blue color, but it was hard to describe since the dress was made up of multiple layers of different material, with some being lacy while other's beneath were of shiny satin, giving the dress an iridescent quality that caught the light in fascinating ways as she moved.

Like with his mother, Seth's eyes were first drawn to his sister's sumptuous chest, where her dress fit nice and tight. The top part of the sleeveless high-collared dress, from her shoulders to her waist, was tightfitting, with the whole bodice portion covered with intricate lace. Beneath the delicate brocade covering, he could see shiny blue satin that formed from her waist up to her breasts only, with the upper part of her chest and shoulders naked beneath the intricate lace. The edges of the lace at her neck and arm openings were bejewelled with small glittering rhinestones sewn here and there into the fabric, making the dress look extremely feminine and pretty. He could see that there were no bra straps going over her shoulders beneath the pretty lace. She either had to be wearing a strapless bra, or the dress had reinforced bra cups built right in. Even through the sexy lace of the brocade, he could see the generous swells of his sister's breasts, her cleavage almost as deep and dark as her mother's.

As she stepped into the room, Seth could only stare at those big tits, the lace and shiny blue satin covering them shifting mysteriously as the light caught it in a million different ways at once. Like her mother as well, the prominent thrust of her gorgeous breasts was casting a distinct shadow on her stomach, emphasizing how big those tits really were.

Seth allowed his gaze to drift down. The waist portion of the dress was made of the semitransparent blue lace as well, with no material underneath an area about three inches wide right at her waist. The defined lacy area was littered with the tiny rhinestones as well, drawing your attention to her slender waist and emphasizing her pronounced hourglass figure. Seth caught glimpses of his sister's tanned skin that he knew covered her toned abs. He'd seen her in her soccer and training gear enough times to know how taut and firm that stomach was. And the dress fit nice and tight right there, showing what fantastic shape she was in.

Things changed abruptly with the dress below that. The shiny satin material went out in a distinct flounce once it went over her hips. He could see fold upon fold of the shiny fabric as the bottom part of the dress went about halfway down her thighs, with more of the delicate lace in another layer over the numerous layers of satin. The design of the bottom part of the dress was in drastic contrast to the top, making it almost look like she was wearing an old-fashioned crinoline beneath the dress, giving it that playful, 'flounced' look. But unlike those old-fashioned dresses that spread out wide to the floor, this was definitely a mini, the bottom edge of the flouncy part ending teasingly high on his sister's strong toned thighs.

Seth's eyes scanned downwards over her bare legs, past her dimpled knees and trim ankles. Her feet were clad in strappy silver high heels, with dagger-like heels that were as high as the ones his mother was wearing. A single silver strap crossed Dani's delicate feet just above her toes, while a second silver strap circled her ankle to secure the shoe in place. They were incredibly sexy, especially since Seth had never seen Dani wear anything like that before. Her toenails and fingernails were painted a gorgeous bright navy as well, matching her dress perfectly.

He drew his gaze back up to her face, and he could see that his mother had helped her with her hair and makeup. Dani looked incredible. So different than he'd ever seen her. Her long blond hair framed her lovely features in flowing curls that kissed her shoulders. His mother had pinned certain parts of her hair back and up, causing occasional tendrils of wispy gold to lick tenderly at her neck. Her eye makeup was beautiful. Very sophisticated, very glamorous, and very sensual. The smoky pink and bronzy tones made Dani's bright blue eyes jump, and made Seth's cock noticeably pulse as he looked into those deep blue orbs and smiled. He couldn't keep himself from smiling even more as he looked at her pretty mouth, her full lips a brilliant gash of red, her lipstick shining to him in greeting, as if they knew they'd be kissing his big cock soon enough.

Seth thought Dani looked perfect. From her gorgeous face to her sexy shoes, he'd never seen her look so stunning. The dress itself was a beautiful combination of sexiness, carefree playfulness, sophistication, and pure fun, just pure fun—all the fun that a young girl deserved on 'Prom Night'.

"Dani, you look fantastic. Really, absolutely fantastic," Seth said once he'd taken a deep breath to calm himself. He could see his sister blushing under his words of praise. It was rare, if ever, that they talked to each other with anything other than sarcasm or derision. He felt good saying what he had, and his sister deserved to hear how beautiful she looked.

"Thank you, Seth," Dani replied. "You look great too. That suit makes you look very grown up and handsome."

"Well," Sonya said, "I've already ordered the food just before I came out, so it should be here shortly. I also want to give each of you something to mark this special occasion." She stepped over and picked up two small packages she'd put in the drawer of a side table. She handed one to Dani and one to Seth.

"What's this all about?" Seth asked, testing the weight of the small box in his hand.

"Just a little graduation present for each of you. Go ahead, open them." With no further coaxing, Sonya watched as her two children opened their gifts.

"Mom, this is great. It's just the one I wanted," Seth said, a big smile on his face as he held up his new watch.

"Yeah, it didn't hurt that you left that ad in the magazine open for me to see every day or two," Sonya replied as she gave her son a quick peck on the cheek.

"Oh, Mom, this is so beautiful." Sonya and Seth looked over as Dani took a shiny piece of jewelry out of a long slender box.

"Here, honey, let me help you with that," Sonya said as she stepped over to Dani who handed her the glittering prize.

Seth couldn't quite figure out what it was until his mother stepped behind Dani and brought her hands forward and around to Dani's front. She lifted her hands up and started fastening something around Dani's neck as Seth slipped his new watch around his wrist. It only took a few seconds of skilful manipulation before Sonya stepped away as Dani turned to face both of them.

"Wow. Dani, that looks so beautiful on you," Seth said, his mouth gaping open as he looked at the wide rhinestone choker circling Dani's slender neck, a couple of inches above the lace collar of her dress. The shiny choker, with probably over a hundred little stones, picked up the small glittering jewels sewn onto Dani's dress perfectly. And with her hair pulled somewhat back from her face, and with those wispy tendrils of hair licking at her neck, Seth thought the choker looked sexy as anything on her. He felt his prick give another pulsing surge as he looked at how incredibly glamorous and cock-hardeningly sexy that simple piece of jewelry looked on his sister.

"He's right, Dani. It looks perfect with your dress. I hope you like it."

"I love it, Mom, I really love it," Dani said, a big smile on her face as her fingers went to her neck to touch the glittering stones.

"I'm so glad. You've both worked hard this year and you deserve it. It's too bad your prom night was cancelled, but we'll do our best to make this a night to remember for both of you. With that in mind, Dani, since Seth is basically your date for our special 'Prom Night', let's pretend he's just come over and picked you up, and you want to thank him for asking you to the prom by giving him a kiss."

"Oh, okay."

Seth could see that Dani was a bit nervous, which was the last thing he wanted, especially since he knew he'd be taking her virginity later on. He wanted things to go smoothly, and for her to be really into it. Sensing her timidity, Seth stepped over and stood in front of her. He reached down and tenderly put his hands on her shoulders, feeling the cool smoothness of her skin beneath his fingers. He looked into her eyes, seeing the shyness there, the trepidation, but the curiosity of her desire as well. He gave her a quick nod and a knowing smile, letting her know with that little look that everything was all right, that she was safe, that he would never hurt her.

As he lowered his face towards hers, she looked up at him, her eyes slowly closing as his mouth came closer to hers, his soft lips finally pressing against her waiting mouth. Dani thought she almost might faint, she was so overcome with emotion as her brother's mouth pressed against hers. She felt the tip of his tongue teasing at her lips, and she eagerly let her lips slip open, allowing him inside. His soft tongue slithered into her mouth, pressing warmly against her own, causing her to whimper with arousal.

Seth was thrilled. He was worried his sister would be afraid, tentative, and clumsy with their first kiss. But Dani surprised him, her beautiful lips pressed warmly against his as she opened her mouth, letting him explore the hot wet depths of her mouth with his tongue. They kissed passionately and, when he drew his tongue back, she surprised him by following, giving a soft purr as she let her own tongue be drawn back into his mouth.

Seth remembered his mother saying only moments ago how wonderful Dani's 'pretty little mouth' was and, now, he was finding out first hand. They finally parted, both of them breathless as they stepped back, wondering if they'd overstepped the boundaries of what their mother had in mind for them.

"Well, that was one hot kiss," Sonya said, a naughty smile on her face, "but it's 'Prom Night', guys. That kiss needs to be even more special. Here, Dani, let me show you."

Dani took a step back and Sonya came closer, stepping into Seth's waiting arms. She brought her hands up and circled his neck romantically, pulling his face down to hers. Dani watched as Seth kissed his mother, his lips pressing hotly against hers, both of them with their eyes closed in blissful contentment as they surrendered themselves to the pleasures of a lover's kiss. They kissed for a long time and then Sonya pulled her mouth away from her son's, leaving him gasping.

"Dani, you need to show your date how much you care about making him feel good, make him happy it was you he asked to the prom."

Dani watched as her mother took Seth's hand and placed it on her breast before moving in closer for another hot kiss. She saw Seth squeeze and heft her mother's massive tit as their lips pressed hotly together, their tongues duelling inside her mother's mouth. She saw her mother's hand slide down the front of Seth's body until she reached his groin. Her mother's fingers closed around the sizable appendage beneath her brother's pants, her groping hand causing him to moan deep in his throat.

"There, now didn't that seem like more fun?" Sonya asked as she quickly stepped back and straightened her dress, leaving her son standing there wondering what kind of lust-filled truck had just run over him. Sonya tapped Dani on the arm. "Go ahead, your turn."

Already excited by their first kiss, Dani was eager for more. She moved back into Seth's arms and did as her mother had done, circling her arms around Seth's neck like she'd seen in so many romantic movies, her face turned up to his.

Seth, his cock already surging with need, didn't hesitate as he lowered his mouth and planted one on his little sister, running his tongue into her willing mouth as he kissed her hard and deep, sensing that was what she wanted. At the same time, he ran his hand up the front of her dress, feeling the delicate lace beneath the palm of his hand as he cupped those sumptuous tits of hers for the first time.

"Fuck, they're big," Seth thought as he gently squeezed the voluminous orbs. "Not as big as Mom's, but pretty goddamn big."

It was then he felt Dani's hand trace down the front of his chest. She was kissing him back feverishly, her tongue enthusiastically duelling with his as he held her close. Her fingers moved lower, right over his package, and then she paused as she found it, the solid slab of man-muscle beneath his pants. She gave a little gasp as her fingers encountered the thick column of meat, and then they traced inquisitively along the entire length, as if measuring it. He could feel her heart pounding in her chest beneath his mauling hand as he groped her, her fingers now curling around the substantial girth of his prick, molding itself to the hard fleshy cylinder lying just beyond her grasp.

"That's better, Dani," Sonya said. "See, didn't I tell you that would be more fun? Now, to really thank your date for asking you to the prom, you might want to get on your knees and suck him off. That way, you can take a load out of him right now, help him take the edge off so you two can have a nice relaxing evening together. Otherwise, with the way you look in that dress, it'll be like he's walking around with a loaded gun in his pocket."

Eager to do as her mother said, but even more anxious to actually see her brother's cock for the first time, Dani did as her mother suggested, she dropped to her knees in front of Seth, her face mere inches from his bulging groin.

"Because you're also in a hurry to get to the prom, just take his dick out through his fly to suck it, don't take his pants right off. You don't want your parents to come out from watching TV and catch you sucking off your date in the foyer."

Seth smiled at the scenario his mother had described, thinking that would be the perfect way to start a date for the prom. He'd been sure that he'd be taking Lizzy to the prom, but having their own little Prom Night at home, with his scorchingly hot sister as his date, was even better.

With her heart beating rapidly with excitement, Dani nodded after listening to her mother's instructions. Not hesitating for a second, she reached up to Seth's waistband and quickly found the tab of his zipper. She drew it down, the raspy metallic sound like music to her ears.

"Well, she is an eager one, isn't she, Mom?" Seth said as he glanced over at his mother, smiling like the cat that ate the canary.

"Oh, she's eager all right," Sonya said with a nod as she stepped closer and stood next to Seth. "You'll soon find out how good she is with that sweet mouth of hers too. Like I said, I think we're both going to be using it a lot from now on."

Dani was thrilled as she heard them talk, glad that her brother seemed pleased by her enthusiasm, and happy that her mother seemed to promise that there'd be many more of these illicitly exciting encounters to come. She reached her hand up and slid her slender fingers into the opening of Seth's fly, feeling the stiff bulge beneath his underwear. With his help, she pulled down on the waistband of his underwear until she saw the thick root of his prick. Reaching up with her other hand, she wrapped her fingers around it and drew the swollen rod out through his fly. As the engorged head came free, it unfurled and throttled in her direction, spewing drops of precum onto Dani's upturned face.

"Holy fuck!" Dani thought, seeing her brother's enormous prick in real life for the first time. From all those times she'd spied on him, she knew his cock was huge, but that hadn't been enough to prepare her for seeing it throbbing in all its glory, mere inches from her face. She'd been happy with Jimmy's cock, but it looked like a toy cap-gun compared to this cannon. It was so big, and so hard, and so fucking powerful-looking that it took Dani's breath away. The thick veiny shaft was pulsing, pumping hot teenage blood to the enflamed knob. The broad flared head was engorged and throbbing, the crimson crown calling out for something hot and wet to sink into. She could see why her mother had gone crazy over it. Dani was feeling the same after mere seconds of looking at the gorgeous cunt-splitter. Her pussy was creaming like mad, her panties soaked with her flowing juices.

"There it is, sweetheart," Sonya said as she stepped closer and snuggled up to Seth, her arm going around his back as he circled over her shoulder and pulled her close to his side. "That's the cock that's going to take your virginity, that's going to make you scream with pleasure again and again. Once you've had that cock inside you, you'll never be the same but, trust me, you'll never want to stop."

Dani felt dizzy as she listened to her mother's words and looked at her brother's cock. Her mouth was salivating like crazy, and she was afraid she was going to start drooling all over herself.

"Here, sweetheart," her mother said as Dani watched the older woman reach down and wrap her hand around the base of Seth's cock. She pointed the drooling tip right at Dani's face. "Wrap your lips around your brother's beautiful cock and suck it. Suck it until he gives you a nice creamy reward."

Flushed with excitement, Dani leaned forward and opened her mouth wide. Seeing her jaw drop, her mother moved her hand and plugged the head of Seth's cock between her parted lips. It was sinfully hot as the pebbly glans pressed against her soft lips. Dani instinctively feathered her tongue forward, delving it right into the centre of the wet tip. Her taste buds came alive as the slimy cock-sap gathered on her tongue.

"Mmm," she moaned as her eyes closed and she pressed her lips forward, wanting more.

"That's it, that's a good girl," Sonya said as she gave Seth a lascivious wink. They both watched as Dani leaned forward, her lips stretching out wide to accommodate her brother's treacherous girth. Her lips finally slipped fully over the broad mushroom head, trapping it inside her mouth. Dani instantly pushed a big wad of saliva to the front of her mouth, bathing the massive head with a warm coating of spit.

"Oh fuck, yeah," Seth groaned as his sister's tongue rolled deliciously over his enflamed cockhead. His mother had been right—Dani's mouth was something special all right. He could tell already, and she'd barely started. It was only a second or two later that he felt her move forward once more, taking more of his turgid prick into her mouth.

"That's it, suck it, suck it like a good little sister," Sonya encouraged as she snuggled closer to Seth. With her hand still wrapped around the root of her son's cock, she started to slowly pump it back and forth, jacking it off into her daughter's mouth as Dani sucked.

Seth couldn't believe what was happening. This was better than any dream he'd ever had. Both his mother and sister were dressed to the nines, looking gorgeous in their new dresses and, now, his mother was jerking his cock as his sister sucked it. "Fucking unbelievable," he thought. Wondering if he'd ever have a chance like this again, Seth reached over with his free hand and brought it up along his mother's flat stomach, his cupped hand finally reaching the underside of one enormous tit.

"Mmm, that feels nice, sweetheart," Sonya whispered as she looked up at him for a second, her blue eyes sparking with excitement. "Why don't you reach right inside the top of my dress and take them out. They're yours to play with as much as you want."

"Oh fuck...yes!" Seth thought as he didn't waste a second. He slid his fingers right down inside his mother's tight top and even snuggler bra. It took an effort, but he pulled one massive tit up and out of the confining bra cup. He let it go, watching as it settled nicely on the outside of her dress. He did the same with its partner, taking out her other breast until it sat next to the first one, her spectacular tits spreading out over the full breadth of her chest.

"Jesus, they're massive!" Seth said to himself as he reached over and filled his hand with the jutting orbs, letting his fingers explore the delightful wonders of her enormous tits. Her skin was soft as rose petals, while her nipples quickly became hard as bullets as he rolled them between his thumb and forefinger.

"Mmm, that's good," Sonya said as she gave him a naughty wink and rested her head on his shoulder, her sensuous perfume firing his flaming libido even more. She tipped her head forward and looked down at her daughter, the girl's pursed lips moving lewdly up and down her brother's thrusting erection. "That's it, Dani, keep sucking, see how much you can take while I jack him off right into your mouth."

Seth's attention was drawn back to his sister. He watched as she kept bobbing back and forth, taking more of his cock into her avidly-sucking mouth each time. He could see gobs of spit dangling off the underside of his throbbing prick as she worked it like a pro. Her cheeks caved in to envelop his cock in a hot buttery sheath, at the same time as her tongue rolled teasingly all around his veiny shaft and bloated cockhead.

"That's my girl, keep sucking, keep sucking your brother with that slutty mouth of yours."

Seth got even more excited when his mother kept pumping his surging prick, the fingers of her circling hand bumping into Dani's sucking lips on nearly every stroke.

Dani was just as turned on as her brother when her mother talked about her like that. She was loving sucking her brother's cock, loved it more than anything in her whole life. She felt like she could do this forever, her lips wrapped around his big hard cock, slurping up a river of precum as it kept oozing into her mouth. Her pussy was on fire, and she was tempted to shove her hand under her dress and get herself off, but she knew her mother was directing this little scenario, and she didn't want to disappoint her in any way. Redoubling her efforts, Dani drove her head forward once more, using a massive wad of spit to lubricate the way.

"Oh fuck, Mom, she's incredible," Seth hissed. "I don't think I can take too much more."

"That's fine, sweetheart," Sonya said as she turned her head and spoke to him quietly. "Just let me know when you're about to come."

Seth nodded as he dropped his eyes to Dani's bobbing head, her blond hair flailing sensually back and forth as she sucked like a wild thing. He squeezed his mother's huge tits, feeling the mounds of soft flesh ooze out between his fingers, her hard nipples almost looking up at him, as if begging to be sucked. That was it for Seth. Having finally gotten the chance to feel and caress those enormous tits he'd jerked off to for all those years was all it took. He felt those telltale contractions start in his midsection as semen started to speed up the shaft of his cock.

"Okay, Mom," he gasped out in a hurried whisper. "I'm gonna come...I'm gonna come."

Dani felt her brother's cock seem to puff up even more as her mother's hand kept pumping back and forth, precum continuing to sluice across her tongue and setting her taste buds on fire.

"That's it, Dani. Keep sucking...keep sucking..." Sonya said, feeling the pulsing start beneath her stroking hand. At the last instant, she pulled Seth's cock out of Dani's sucking mouth, leaving the girl gasping, her lips pursed forward like a fish out of water. Sonya pointed the tip of Seth's raging prick right at Dani's face, just as the first thick rope of cum jettisoned forth.

"Aaah!" Dani gasped as the streaking ribbon of semen caught her full on the face. A second volley rifled forth, her mother directing that one downwards, spraying a thick white stream of spunk all over the front of her dress. This was followed by a third, and then a fourth massive shot, her mother alternating between pasting Dani's face and the front of her chest with a river of white.

Seth could barely stand, his mother's stroking hand working magically as it pumped out a torrent of cum all over his sister. Seth totally unloaded, flooding his sister with more thick white semen than he thought possible. He'd never been so aroused, so fucking excited in his entire life as he was right now. He hadn't expected his mother to pull his spewing prick out of his sister's mouth, but watching his load spray all over her had Seth's balls churning out even more. He kept coming, and his mother kept pumping, wad after wad and rope after rope of viscous white spunk pelting his sister's pretty face and thrusting chest. Seth was shaking and his cock kept spitting, dousing her with a massive load of jizz. As the tingling sensations of his intense climax finally started to dwindle, he glanced down and saw that his sister's face and the front of her dress were both a total mess, her face and the top part of her dress almost totally obliterated beneath a layer of cum.

Dani hadn't expected that either, but when that first blast hit her full on the face, her brother's warm white cum hitting her skin, she felt herself come. Her pussy had started twitching like crazy and she could barely keep still as she gushed into her panties. And to her shock, her mother had started spraying cum all over her new dress, wads and strands of thick white seed raining down on her pretty dress. It seemed to go on forever, but Dani loved it as those ribbons and gobs of sizzling spunk continued to pelt her face and chest, coating her with a glistening layer of her brother's gooey semen. She'd been surprised, but she found it wickedly exciting at the same time, as if this was proof of how sexy and beautiful her dress was, and how much her big brother liked seeing her in it.

"Dani, you look so beautiful with your brother's cum all over you like that," Sonya said as she looked down at her daughter, her hand now moving slowly over the length of her son's spent cock, flicking the final drops of spunk onto the front of Dani's dress. Her son had shot a huge load, with gobs of the stuff dangling off Dani's pretty face lewdly, thick strands swaying back and forth as they hung off her chin. The front of her dress was almost covered with a coating of glistening white cum, shimmery ribbons and wads of pearly seed clinging nastily to the lacy blue fabric.

"But Mom," Dani said as she looked down at herself, "what about...what about my dress?"

"Don't worry about your dress, honey," Sonya said dismissively. "We can have it dry cleaned. That's what prom dresses are for. Trust me, dry cleaners are used to seeing dresses that look like that the day after prom."

Sonya thought back on the little black minidress that she'd worn on her prom night. Yes, it had been a real mess the next day. Of course, the eight guys from the football team she'd been with that night, plus the coach and the school principal, had something to do with that, not to mention the two loads her father had pumped out all over her when she got home. Yes, she was sure the dry cleaner must have gone through a gallon of those cleaning chemicals to get all the cum stains out of that dress.

"Besides," Sonya continued, "you look so pretty and sexy like that, with all of that cum all over your face and dress. It's as if that's what you were meant to do, to be your big brother's personal cocksucker. What do you think, sweetie? Do you think that's what you'd like to be from now on?"

Dani felt herself flush, but she couldn't deny what she was feeling, and that her mother was absolutely right. Dani had never felt more excited, more alive, than when she had her brother's cock in her mouth. She felt complete, as if she'd found something she'd been searching for her whole life, and the results of what she'd longed for all these years was right there for them all to see, a glistening white coating of her brother's thick creamy cum all over her. "Yes," Dani admitted, lowering her head shyly.

"What's that, sweetheart?" Sonya asked, pretending she hadn't heard Dani clearly. "What is it you'd like to be?"

"My...my brother's personal cocksucker," Dani replied as she dropped her eyes, her bit of movement causing a dangling strand of semen to drop off her chin and land on the spot where her right nipple was thrusting out against the front of her tight dress.

"Do you think you can help your sister with that? Help her be your personal cocksucker?" Sonya asked Seth as she stepped back and, with difficulty, stuffed her boobs back into her bra and dress.

"Definitely," Seth replied as he did likewise, tucking his semi-hard dick into his underwear and zipping up. "Dani can suck my cock any time she wants, anywhere she wants. I'll make sure I fill that belly of hers with cum every day."

Dani felt herself blush again, this time more from excitement than from embarrassment. Her mind was racing, wondering what her life was going to be like from now on. She thought about what Seth had just said, that he'd feed her his cum every day. She couldn't think of anything she wanted more. Her pussy was dripping like crazy just thinking about it, and wondering what they had in store for her next. She couldn't wait...
