The doctor huffed and looked at me hard, "This is going to be hard for you to see."

"I can handle it, Doc. Just get me in there. I have to try."

Doc nodded and told the nurse to bring a wheelchair and gave me permission to move into Sue's room. He also suggested everyone go get some rest and a decision would be made the next evening about Sue's situation. A nurse in scrubs came in with the chair. She had long brunette hair tied in a bun and covered with a mesh screen. She was around 5 foot 10 inches tall, strong and well defined as if she were a bodybuilder. Her name was Cathy.

She helped me up and, after locking the wheels, allowed me to move to the chair with her assistance. We rolled into Sue's room and the sight was heartbreaking. She had a forced breathing tube, was hooked into a heart monitor, and she had several IV's hooked up. The IV's were a mix of saline to flush her system, glucose to keep her energy up, and neostigmine as a reversal agent along with diazepam to prevent convulsions.

She had a catheter and the bag was partially full.

My emotions were in my throat and I could not help shedding a few tears as the nurse skillfully locked me in beside her. I held Sue's hand in mine and began to softly speak to her. As a med student I knew comatose patients can hear, so I stimulated her with that for a while.

Sue was totally unresponsive. After a bit the nurse went about her other duties in the ICU as I continued to calmly talk to Sue. After a few hours of talking to her, I got up from the wheelchair and leaned over her, whispering into her ear, "baby! Wake up! I have morning wood and I need your help please."

There was a reaction on the heart monitor.

The ICU nurse came rushing in as I continued, "baby, I really need to make love to you. I need you honey, please wake up and help me."

Sue's heartbeat quickened and she started moving her fingers. The nurse said, "Don't care what you are saying! Say some more! She is coming out of it. As soon as she starts trying to breathe on her own I will take out the breathing tube."

I kissed Sue's neck under her ear and whispered as the nurse listened in, "Baby, little bro needs to fuck your luscious ass this morning. Can I lube you up and take you there? Please honey?"

The nurse's eyes got big at about the same time Sue started gasping for air. "YESS!" Cathy yelled as she moved with practiced speed to deflate the bulb in Sue's airway and pull out the breathing tube.

Sue gasped for breath as the tube was removed and she moaned before opening her eyes. Trying to focus as she batted her eyes at the light in the room, she looked at me and smiled, "Harry, where are we? Is the party over? I must have passed out."

Cathy yelled for the ICU doctor and I just laughed with tears flowing freely down my cheeks. "I knew me wanting to butt fuck you would wake your ass up!"

The Doc ran in and stopped at the foot of the bed as I relayed to Susan what all had happened. He watched her closely to gauge her response levels and just smiled at what he saw. After I was finished, Sue just looked at me and smiled, "You know, you really do make a good knight in shining armor. You keep saving everyone and they are gonna put up a statue of you in the town square."

Everyone just laughed. Doc spoke up, "Nurse, discharge her from ICU and give the two of them a room together. Minimal oversight. I am sure they will want some privacy."

Cathy smirked, "I am sure I can find some KY here somewhere." The doc just looked at her with a raised eyebrow but kept his thoughts to himself.

Sue just giggled and said, "How sweet! Harry, we really should invite her to dinner sometime."

Cathy blushed deeply, it was very cute.

"Cathy, would you be so kind as to be our guest at The Club next Friday evening?"

Cathy was dumbfounded, "THE Club? The members only club? Where the Governor eats?"

"Yes, we would be honored. You, too Doc. I will make sure with the hospital that your schedules are clear if you would be so kind as to accept our invitation."

Doc just raised an eyebrow and nodded with a smile. Cathy gushed and you could see her mind working overtime about what to wear. "So, 5:30 pm sound good?" Both nodded their acceptance.

The staff moved quickly to transfer us to a double room and just as Sue and I had pushed our beds together and were laying naked under the sheets (Sue still had IV's so we were just cuddling), EVERYONE in the family burst in. Both moms, Lillie, Marion, James, Mavis, Pet, and DD were there. Sue just laid over my side, her arm draped over me with her head on my shoulder.

Marion spoke up, "Ok, so we are spoiling your makeup sex. Just so you know, you are being nominated for a medal by the Mayor. Seems you have become the local political poster boy, nephew."

I just looked at him.

The Governor himself is coming by along with a few local politicians, State Senators and House members: you know, the typical jump on the good news bandwagon kind of thing.

I still just looked at him.

"I am having a uniform worked up for you. They want you to be their poster boy for the new state level war on violent crime and push for law abiding citizen gun ownership campaigns. Pay you to do commercials and stuff, if you are interested."

"Commercials." I said. "Medals?" I asked. "Political activism?" I queried as I looked at Sue...She was beaming.

"Marion, I am too straight shooting to be a politician...pardon the pun."

James responded, "Maybe that is exactly what people need these days. A politician who actually puts his or her actions where their mouth is."

I looked at James and Marion, "Let's not get ahead of ourselves. This really isn't a career choice for me at this time. But, Marion: Make sure the politicians know who they are snuggling up to. I'm not one to worry about how I say things....plain speaking and stuff."

The two men just smiled and looked each other in the eye and I had the distinct impression they were planning shit behind my back. I figured what the hell, let the old men have their fun. Life is too short to be pissy about good intentions.

DD gave me a big hug and whispered in my ear that she was glad her Master and Mistress were OK. I patted her behind and told her the feeling was mutual...that I was looking forward to being pleased by the family pet once again when we got home.

Pet then hugged us both, "Powerful Master is now a famous hero! Girl is so proud!"

Kisses and hugs and caresses and handshakes went all around before Leesie spoke up, "Okay everyone, they are fine. We have a pool party and an award ceremony to plan." The men chuckled and the women squealed and everyone left with waves and blown kisses.

Sue laughed after they left. "You catch that look between Uncle Marion and dad?"

"Yep."

"You know grandpa was the Lt. Governor of the state, for like 16 years, right?"

"Oh shit. I thought they were planning something."

"I think you better get your LEO certification ASAP."

"I don't mind, but I want to finish Medical school before I get into politics."

"You have three years before election year. Think you can get it all done by then?"

"Yes, if these distractions will back off, I can." I held Sue close as her breasts pressed against my side and we lay there in silence, just enjoying the warmth of each other's bodies.

Friday came fast. DD, Lilly, Leesie, Sue and Barbara all decided to dress up as submissives and James, Marion, and I dressed to the hilt in formal wear. We all had the Governor's advanced security team vet us Thursday and we learned he had paid for the whole Club to be secured for the award ceremony next Monday.

When Marion had said he was getting a uniform worked up for me, he failed to mention it was a TAILORED uniform that required several fittings. The shop was paid extra for the rush job and they assured Marion it would be ready by Saturday if I made all the fitting schedules.

James had brought up my car and we three men sat in the living room waiting for the ladies to come down and join us to go eat.

They came down the stairs one at a time and stood before us, and the view was mouthwatering. They all had collars with short leashes. None wore bras or panties, and each woman wore a skin tight dress that showed off their best attributes to the fullest.

Nipples were high and the headlights were on.

Each of us men went down the line, deep kissing each woman as we fondled their breasts, not a word was spoken. I took Sue's and DD's collars, James took Leesie's and Barbara's, and Marion took Lilly's.

Marion and I took our pets in Sue's car while James took his in their Bentley James had taken out of storage.

I have to say, the women were putting on a show. Bobbing boobs, swinging hips, short skirts, the works. They had all three of us guys adjusting our pants and dragging our tongues on the way to the cars.

Sue and DD and Lilly made sure to flash lots of bare pussy and show off their butt plugs as they got into the car. From James's vocal reaction, both moms did the same.

This was going to be a fun evening.

"DD?"

"Yes Master?"

"What did you think of our doctor in the ICU?"

"Master, he was very cute. Does Master want girl to entertain him this evening?"

"I would not presume to ask, but since you brought it up, would that interest you?"

DD just smiled, "He will be putty in my hands, Master."

"Let's see if there is a spouse or girlfriend issue and play it by ear then?"

"Girl will know, immediately, Master. If girl hands you her leash, you will know."

I nodded and smiled. Yeah, this was going to be fun.

When we arrived, Doc and Cathy had just arrived and were standing at the entrance to the Club. Our favorite Valet was there and his jaw dropped as he helped the ladies disembark. Knowing he got an eyeful as evidenced by him shifting his pants. Each woman made sure to flash him and give him a big kiss before walking up to be with Doc and Cathy.

Doc and Cathy witnessed the whole scene and both mouths were wide open when I walked up. "High class does not mean boring!" I said, and both of them closed their mouths and laughed.

Cathy looked me in the eye, "I think I over dressed."

She had on a burgundy, mid-thigh dinner dress with a halter top that nicely shaped her breasts. The fabric between them scalloped down to show a nice amount of cleavage. "No, I think you look absolutely scrumptious!" I returned with a smile. Doc just shook his head and laughed. They were obviously not a couple and neither had rings on.

DD took one look and smiled as she handed me her leash. I held it out to Doc, "Doc, my pet here, whose name is DD but would prefer you call her Pet or Girl, will need more attention than I will be able to give her tonight. Would you be so kind as to show her a good time?"

As Doc took her leash with a trembling hand, DD pressed her large breasts against him and pulled his ear to her lips, "Girl doesn't bite, Sir: well unless you ask her to. She is yours to do with as you please tonight and this girl would love to please you in any way you desire." With that she blew in his ear and I thought the poor man was going to faint dead away.

Cathy just roared and Sue walked up to her, offering her a collar. "Care to join in the fun, Cathy?"

Cathy's eyes bulged and she took in a sharp breath. She looked at me and slowly nodded. Sue handed me the collar and I made sure to make lots of light finger contact on Cathy's neck as I fastened it around her throat.

Sue asked, "Are you wearing panties, Cathy?"

When she nodded yes Sue asked, "Well, would girl mind if I remove them so she can be in character?"

Cathy turned deep crimson and nodded yes. Everyone gathered around to hide her as Sue pulled up her dress and pulled down her panties...well, what there was of panties.

She had dressed sexy.

Sue reached into her purse and pulled out a shiny butt plug and lubed it up. "Turn around, Pet, and spread your cheeks." Cathy did as she was told and Sue gently pushed in the well lubed butt plug.

"Oh my goodness!" Cathy moaned as she was plugged, in public, right at the front door to the most exclusive dinner club in the state.

Her trembling hands were on my shoulders as Sue stood up. Her lower lip was between her teeth. "Well, pet, I hope girl is going to really enjoy her evening. Master has lots of plans for his new pet."

Pete was at the door and was just shaking his head with an ear to ear grin. "Always a pleasure to have you and the ladies, Sir. You keep life interesting. Good for you." He opened the door for us and all the ladies gave him a huge hug as they passed.

Mavis had set aside the private dining room for us off to the side of the main room. There was a nice oblique oval glass table with a large paned, one way mirror on one wall facing the main eating area. One end of the table butted up against it.

There was one entrance, a coded door, going into the main dining room. Mavis spoke to everyone once they entered, "This room is soundproof, so if you want anything, just use this intercom (she pointed to a button on the wall next to the door) and I will see to it that your needs are met."

"The waiters will knock before entering and you should open the electric lock with this keypad (which she handed to James). Your two waiters will be with you shortly and will be assigned to you only during your visit."

James nodded and smiled, "Will you be joining us, Mavis? We always enjoy Chef's and your company."

"Mavis smiled, I am truly sorry, but we are quite busy this evening. Although, Chef will be in for a moment to say hello. Harry?"

"Yes Mavis?"

"Chef has put your injected pork loin on the menu. I must say, it is selling out almost daily. She is very thankful you allowed her to use it."

"I will be sure to tell her how honored I am that she felt it was worthy of her expertise."

Mavis just shook her head and looked at Sue, "He just has no clue, does he?"

Sue winked, "Which helps to make him so special."

Mavis left and everyone was waiting to know the seating arrangements. I took Cathy's and Sue's leashes and brought them to the left of the table next to the window and seated Sue at the window seat.

When I had done so, I slipped both hands under her top and tweaked her nipples as I kissed her neck. I did the same With Cathy as I seated her in the third seat and her breath quickened as my fingers ran delicately over her hard nipples.

I asked dad to sit at the head of the table with Mom and Leesie to either side. He seated his girls, following my lead with the breast fondling. Barbara almost came right then and there. Marion then followed, sitting Lilly one down from Leesie so he could sit between them: he took extra time fondling Lillie's breasts to the amusement of all.

DD looked at Doc and said, "This girl is your pet for the evening, Master, do as you please." At which point he took her leash and seated her across from Sue and me. He leaned over her shoulder and softly nibbled her earlobe as his hands wandered under her top to play with her large breasts. DD moaned her pleasure saying, "Thank you Master, your pet enjoyed that immensely."

Doc just said, "Damn, I think I am falling in love." and sat down.

The table was fantastic for sightseeing. All the ladies had their dresses set so their pussies were visible through the table top. Needless to say, man and woman alike were enjoying the eye candy.

At that point there was a knock at the door and our two waiters walked in with Chef. She walked up beside me and said, "Great Master, this girl is proud to say your pork loin is a massive hit. Even the Governor has selected it as the main course of choice for his party next week."

"Well I am very pleased you have done so well with it. I am looking forward to tasting your improvements on the basic recipe."

"I'm so sorry, did I, I mean, did this girl hear that right? You have a recipe for pork that the Chef of the most exclusive dinner club in the entire state has incorporated into her menu?" Cathy interrupted, somewhat frazzled.

Chef answered, "It is our most requested menu item and, truth be told, is an actual operatic play of Caribbean flavors you will find nowhere else: except in the Great Master's kitchen of course.

Cathy looked at one of the waiters who was busy enjoying the eye candy and said, "Yeah, I want that!"

I kissed Chef's hand and thanked her for her diligent work. She then surprised me, "Great Master, there is an annual Great Chefs of the State competition at the end of the month. Would you allow this girl to enter your pork loin into the competition?"

"Chef, that would honor me and please me greatly. I am sure, with your expertise and tweaks, it will take pride of place."

Chef was all smiles as she left and the waiters were finally able to close their mouths and place the menus and take drink orders. James asked if anyone was against him ordering a Rose wine with the first course and everyone agreed. He ordered several bottles of the Italian Santa Margherita Prosecco Rose that was not too sweet and had a light, spicy, peppery finish which would go well with our diverse dinner selections.

Everyone wanted to try the pork loin, but I suggested that Doc and DD share different main items so Doc could get more of a feel for the Chef's abilities. I mentioned the same to Cathy and they both agreed to pick something else and share.

The waiters returned with the wine and Lilly did the honors, commenting on how well it cleaned her palate. She gave an approving nod and drinks were poured all around with full glasses of water, dishes of sliced key limes and lemons, along with dishes of sugar and sweetener colored to represent their type.

James spoke with the waiters, explaining the issue with wanting to try a full range of Chef's choice offerings. One waiter spoke up, "Sir, with your permission, may I make a suggestion?"

"Absolutely! Please!"

"If you and your guests would allow, we can bring some Chateaubriand to the table with whole pork loin which we can then cut to order. We can also bring platters of fried or boiled prawns, steamed lobster tails, or braised quail if you like."

"That is an absolutely fantastic idea! You just earned a special tip young man."

The waiter beamed.

After everyone ordered their salads, the group decided on Marinated Pork Loins, Chateaubriand, and Lobster Tails for the main courses with mixtures of Au Gratin potatoes, sauteed squash, baked sweet potatoes, or asparagus sauteed with balsamic vinaigrette. The side dishes were to be brought in chafing dishes and served individually as requested.

As we were deciding on our orders I had moved my hands up both Susan's and Cathy's inner thighs, softly caressing their soft skin. Both ladies widened their thighs and gave Doc an eyeful of hairless, wet pussy through the table. Doc soon followed suit with DD who also opened to give him full access and the rest of the table soon picked up the action.

The waiters returned with the salads to women moaning and exposing their sexes to finger manipulations. The waiters did their best, but all the sex was distracting them to no end. Leesie and Barbara had mercy on them and they each called one over and began to give them blowjobs right there at the table.

Neither of them lasted long. After both waiters had recovered, Barbara dropped her top and had both of the boys suckle and milk her breasts which they both did enthusiastically.

DD shivered as Doc began to rub her clit and she asked, "Would Master like his pet to service him under the table?" Doc groaned his yes and DD dropped her top to expose her breasts as she went under the table and pulled down his pants to give him a blowjob. The view was fantastic as Doc's eyes rolled up into his skull.

I looked to Cathy and said, "Pet, I do believe your Matriarch wishes to give you some special attention before our main course arrives." Whereby, Susan went between her thighs under the table and ate out her pussy. By that point, everyone at the table was having a quickie of one form or the other as the waiters set out the salads.

In a matter of moments, everyone had climaxed and cleaned up with towels the waiters had brought and we all settled in to eat our salads. The tension in the room had abated a bit, but the smell of sex was heavy in the air.

Marion lifted his wine glass, "A toast to the man of the hour who has saved all our lives with his quick thinking and situational awareness. To the local town hero, Harry!" Everyone at the table, including the waiters who lifted water glasses, shouted "Hear Hear!"

"But I am no hero," I protested.

Marion replied, "Nonsense nephew, you have saved the lives of nearly everyone at this table. That is more than I can boast after 30 years in Law Enforcement. Hero indeed! Deal with it, accept it, and say thank you in your most humble of manners you wish, but hero you are."

Another round of "Hear, Hear!" and more drinking as the table erupted in individual conversations over salad.

Eventually dinner arrived and carts with the chafing dishes were spaced along one wall. Each person got a cut of the pork loin, the Filet Mignon, and a small lobster tail, dressed in butter. Everyone insisted on trying the pork loin together so everyone took their first bite.

The table went into a stunned silence. First, the meat was tender: as in cut it with a fork tender. It was very moist and the flavor profile started with hints of key lime which then transitioned through nutmeg, cinnamon, black pepper, and cloves, ending in a palate cleansing fresh ginger and honey. Damn, Chef was right, this was an opera of flavors you had to take time to enjoy. She took my original recipe and turned it into a culinary weapon of mass destruction.

Everyone loved the Filet and the Lobster: both cooked and seasoned to perfection...but the Pork Loin was beyond...at a whole other level of culinary art.

Cathy was beside herself. "This is your recipe?"

"The basis of my technique is there, yes, pet. But this is way beyond my abilities. Chef has created a masterpiece."

Lillie was crying. "I fucked up. I should have tried this last."

James nodded, "I know what you mean."

The waiters just grinned. "That is basically the response our guests are giving. Chef has been called countless times from her kitchen for people to praise her. She has been offered over half a million dollars for the recipe, which she has refused. And, Sir, she gives you the credit every time. In only a week's time, that dish has become famous across the whole state.

"Well, I know she is busy tonight so I won't call her in, but could you have Mavis stop by, please?"

"Absolutely, Sir," and one waiter stepped out to get her.

Marion then erupted, "Shit."

James looked at him, nodded and replied: "Yep, she is going to have to have someone looking out after her when she is off the books. Someone will abduct her just to get at this recipe. It is the crack cocaine of food."

Doc looked at Cathy and said, "These people live well, well indeed."

DD looked at Doc and smiled, "Well, Master, if you keep pleasing girl as well as you have, you just might find yourself invited into the family."

Doc looked at DD and smiled, "You took the words right out of my mouth, my pet."

Doc then asked what everyone did for a living and he was quite surprised to hear DD was a clinical psychologist on staff with the local Law Enforcement agencies who specialized in PTSD treatment and crisis counseling.

"Damn! A fellow doctor? Please can I have your number? I mean, for professional reasons, of course. I have lots of families and patients who need that type of counseling."

DD smiled and said, "Master, Girl will give you both her office number and her personal number. Give the office one to anyone you wish. But the personal one is for your eyes only." Doc smiled and gave DD his personal number as they exchanged them to several oohs and aahs from everyone at the table.

Dinner went by all too quickly and it was time for dessert. Our waiters asked, and everyone was way too stuffed to even think about it. However, I asked all the women to lay on the table with their knees drawn up and separated so we men could enjoy some of their personal desserts.

All the women immediately complied and the men, including the waiters, did a round robin around the table, bringing each of the women off several times each. The men, again with the waiters assisting, then did the round robin with cocks in wet, hot, inviting pussies as we went from woman to woman around the table. When one came, they sat out, along with any woman who climaxed until everyone had enjoyed the game to completion.

The waiters then looked at James, "Sir, when you said a special tip, we had no idea. You da man! And ladies, each of you is a special, memorable, and cherished person in our hearts."

Lillie smiled, "Aww, give a young man some pussy and he immediately sings your praises and becomes a silver tongued devil! I like it," as she and the other women at the table snickered and agreed.

I looked at Lillie and chuckled, "Like you just figured that out about men! Eh Uncle Marion?"

Marion just smiled from ear to ear, "Hell, I am marrying this Siren after all." To which everyone laughed.

It was at that time that Mavis entered the room. "I hope everything met everyone's expectations?"

James piped in, "Exceeded, Mavis, exceeded even my very high level of expectation."

I looked at Mavis, "I am sure Chef has heard praises for her pork loin from everyone who has tried it. But would you let her know that I was overly proud of her for taking my dish to the next level. She has proven, beyond any shadow of a doubt, that she is truly a master of her art. I am very pleased to know such a great master in her own right."

Mavis nodded and smiled, "She will be beside herself to hear your praise. Your opinion means a great deal to her."

James was kind enough to pick up the tab and he asked Mavis how many people were expected for the award ceremony. Mavis said she received orders for 50 people.

I just shook my head and walked outside with my two submissive women.

Cathy and Doc were excited when Sue and I asked them to come by the lodge to enjoy a nightcap. When we all arrived at the house, clothes came off and everyone jumped into the pool to relax. Well, everyone but DD and Doc. She excused herself wanting to show Doc her bedroom. We all knew what that meant and were happy for her. Seems the two were a big hit.

I rather quickly pulled Cathy to me and slowly began to enter her pussy. "Has my newest pet enjoyed her evening so far?"

Cathy got all doe eyed as I slipped inside her. She had no idea Sue had put on a lubed strapon and let out a surprised yelp as Sue pulled out her butt plug and replaced it with her cock. Together Sue and I took pet's body and used her. From her moans and squeals through her multiple orgasms we both kissed her neck and played with her breasts and hard nipples until she cried, begging us to let her rest.

About that time we heard both Doc and DD screaming at the top of their lungs that they were cumming. Marion smiled, "Damn, they got it bad, Harry. Smart move on your part. DD is a smitten kitten and Doc is beside himself."

"Well Uncle, I really am thinking of hanging out a shingle for matchmaking. Seems I am a natural." I chuckled.

I grabbed Mom and slipped my still hard cock inside her as I played with her tits. Sue had thoroughly cleaned her strap-on and we both gave mom a DP as we massaged her nipples. Mom was near comatose after her fifth climax and she just rested her head on my shoulders as she floated through her orgasms.

"Harry, son, please cum in your mother's pussy? After that scare last time, I need to feel my baby's cum inside my hot cunnie. Fill your mother up, baby."

How is it that a mother just knows how to press her son's buttons? Within just a few strokes I went from a nice, easy, slow, sensual fuck to being an animal, pounding mom's pussy as she moaned in delight. I came buckets as I filled mom's cunnie to the brim with my seed. My cock pulsing in dry heaves before it was all done.

Mom went over to Cathy and they had some fun nipple play as Sue went over to Lilly and continued her ass play as Marion began to pound her pussy into oblivion. Dad and Leesie were just having a gentle lovemaking session.

After a bit, DD and Doc joined us in the pool, walking up and slowly entering down the steps. I say walking, DD was having a hard time of it. The look of just having had mind blowing sex on both of their faces.

Doc looked at me as DD molded her body to his with her head on his shoulder and he shook his head, "Harry, I know DD is part of your family, but.....I am begging you, please give me your permission to court her. She is the brightest, most endearing, and sensual woman I have ever met and I want to explore where this relationship can go."

I decided to play along, knowing full well DD could make up her own mind, "Is this what you want DD?"

DD just smiled with half open eyes and nodded, "Yes Master, please allow the family pet to pursue this relationship. She is very happy at the moment."

I looked at Doc, "Then you have my blessing, Doc. But, if you mistreat her, or abuse her, or break her heart, there will be hell to pay."

Doc smiled, "Spoken like a true Patriarch, Harry. No, I will cherish her as long as she will have me."

DD smiled and said, "Careful what you wish for there, Master. You might just find you have a life partner."

Doc looked deeply into her eyes, "I hope, no I pray, that ends up being the case. But, you are an exceptionally intelligent woman, and even though you are playing the role of a submissive, we both know you own the power in this relationship. And the strength of your self awareness and self confidence are things I find very attractive and extremely sensual indeed."

DD checked with me privately and asked if it was OK if Doc spent the night. "Honey, you are a member of the family. If you want Doc to spend the night, the weekend, the week, the month, or forever with you in your bedroom, it is your decision. I know your natural family was a mess, but you have us now. And you are loved and cherished by all of us. My only request is you work out the free use aspect with him so we all know where the boundaries are."

DD started crying and Doc came rushing over, "Is everything OK?"

DD took a deep stuttering breath before answering, "Doc, you are staying the night tonight so we can discuss things and get to know one another better. There are things I need to tell you about my biological family and my new family here and I want to get to know more about this man I have obviously been smitten by."

Doc smiled, and to his credit, all he said was, "Yes Ma-am."

I looked at Doc and said, "She has a tender heart, Doc. Be gentle with her as she opens up to you. You have no idea, yet, how difficult it is for her or how much it means that she is willing to do so. I think it is a good idea for us to go fishing tomorrow morning after breakfast. That sound good to you?"

Doc earned extra points in my book when he actually listened to the unspoken words between the lines and just smiled, "I look forward to it, Harry. Might I say that those words, coming from someone as young as you are, would normally cause me some angst. But you have a calm, commanding presence about you that is subtle, yet powerful. I can see what others are saying about you...you will go far, Harry. Far indeed."

"Eh, I am just a man. I do manly things. My father taught me at an early age that being a man is not something you fake, it is something you are or you aren't. False machismo is merely the expression of a child trying to convince themselves they are a man. Real men know who they are, accept who they are, and act accordingly. Taking care of loved ones, my family, is important. Thank you for accepting that."

Cathy slept with Leesie and James that night as Mom and Sue wanted cuddle time with me. I slept like the dead with boobs and legs draped over me all night.

I awoke the next morning to the bedroom door closing and Sue was alone in the bed with me, watching me wake up.

"Leesie came in and got mom, they are making breakfast for everyone while Cathy helps James with his morning wood. Speaking of which, my dear. When you woke me from my coma you promised me you would bugger my ass and that was almost a week ago. You are remiss, my dear fiance'."

"You are absolutely right! I am so sorry, baby!"

"Well," Sue smirked, "Mom brought some anal lube and got me ready for you." Sue turned around and spread her upper cheek to give me easy access to her dark rose. I turned onto my side, aimed my now rock hard cock, and gently took my lover's ass in one, long, slow, determined stroke up to my balls.

I made slow, languid love to Susan's ass as I held her close in my arms. I alternated fondling her nipples and pussy as I reclaimed her luscious ass. It was tender lovemaking and we both came together and just lay there after climaxing for a few moments as we cuddled.

The smell of coffee and bacon roused us both and we went to the hall shower only to hear Cathy and Harry having a ball in their shower. Sue and I decided to join the fun and soon the oversized shower was full of hands and cocks, breasts and kisses and....we did eventually get cleaned up."

We all dried off and started to head downstairs to breakfast in the nude when Cathy spoke up, "Uh, is this normal attire for breakfast?"

Sue kissed her nipples and said, "Now it is!"

We descended the stairs with female giggles and male chuckles. It seems DD and Doc had spent a good bit of time talking and she had informed Doc of the living arrangements. We all sat down to a wonderful breakfast of fresh ground coffee, vegetable juice, orange juice, mounds of bacon, scrambled eggs, artisan toast, real butter, vanilla pancakes, and early season maple syrup.

After breakfast, Doc asked Frank, who was of similar build, if he could borrow some fishing clothes. "I am sure we can find something that will fit you. Let's go on upstairs as the others clean up breakfast and we'll get you kitted out."

I began to help clear the table and DD stopped me. "You go get ready, we got this. Oh, and Harry?"

"Yes, DD?"

"Be nice please, I think he is a keeper."

"Yes, DD. You told him everything?"

"Yes, and we made the most tender love afterwards it broke my heart."

I looked her in the eye, "I am so happy for you. No, I will not scare him off."

"Thank you....dad." she smirked as she walked into the kitchen.

"All part of the provided family services, my dear girl." I smirked back. "Ladies, pike or catfish for dinner?" I realized my mistake when I got a chorus for both.

I went up and put on my special T-shirt and made sure to bring my pistol. I thought twice about it then realized my fishing expeditions had not really been that safe so far so that baby went in my waistband.

Doc came downstairs with James, both decked out for fishing, so we loaded up the boat and headed out.

"Glad to have you along dad."

"I have not gone fishing in decades, thought I might give my hand a try."

"And play a bit of referee at the same time?" I winked.

"Well, there is that. DD knows how protective you could be if you got a mind to. She asked me to come along, but don't mind me. I am only here as a courtesy."

We rigged up for pike and began making a round around the lake, casting into the brush with a mix of top water and slow sinking jigs. "Doc, I really only have one question for you, if you don't mind."

Doc chuckled and said, only one? Damn! DD prepared me for the Harry inquisition!" he laughed.

I chuckled, "Only one. What are your feelings about our free use policy at the house? You seemed to be rather protective yourself last night with DD and I just want to make sure none of us overstep with bad assumptions."

"Fair question," Doc mused. "I would be dishonest if my protective instincts didn't kick into overdrive after DD and I talked last night. I swear that woman is amazing. I have watched closely everyone's interactions, and the love between everyone is evident. Everything is done with each other's needs and feelings brought into consideration. And, I know DD looks up to you as the father she never really had."

Doc paused for a moment, "I guess what I am saying is this lifestyle is new to me, but I like it. I am beginning to care deeply for DD as well. And to come into the family and just change things because I am feeling intimidated is just foolish and, frankly, a bit immature."

"As of now, I have no issue with the dynamic of the family. DD and I agreed to keep things status quo for now and see how we felt as time progressed."

"Fair enough," I said. "If you start to feel differently, let us know immediately. I promise you we will understand and respect your mutual decisions on the matter."

"And if the decision is not mutual?"

"I suspect that would work itself out as well. You are your own man and DD is her own woman. You work it out if you are dedicated to one another. If you cannot, then it would likely be the beginning of the end of your relationship."

"You have a point," Doc agreed.

"Do you have any questions for me?"

"Just one," he smiled. "What if I wanted to have sex with Sue?"

"Let me answer that this way, When DD first came to be with us, she and I were in bed and wanted to have sex. DD was concerned about what Sue would think so I called her on the phone and Sue's response was, 'Don't you dare let any concern like that stop you from having sex with Harry. We have a free use family and that means free use.' So my response to you is, don't you dare let any concern like that stop you from having sex with Sue, or either of our mothers (I looked to Frank who nodded agreement). I would be hypocritical to say or feel otherwise."

"In fact, I strongly suggest you ask her for sex. She has the smoothest pussy I or dad have ever fucked. You would love it."

"Yes, I noticed that at dinner last night. DD said much the same about the topic and I just wanted confirmation as, like I said, this is all new to me."

"I know it seems impossible, but there really are no jealousies or hard feelings." If I walked up right after fishing and wanted to take Lilly in the ass right in front of Marion he would very likely massage my balls as I pumped my cum into his fiance'."

Frank chuckled, "and be sucking on your mother's tits as he did so."

Just at that time, Harry got a monster bite and hooked a large pike. I worked the electric motor as he fought the fish. Doc helped with the net and we threw him into the cooler. He was so large we had to cut off his tail and head to fit him in.

We had worked around to the property Sally owned. The estate had put it up for sale. Doc mused, "I wonder what they want for that? I have been saving up to buy a place but I didn't see the point with it being just me. But now, with DD, I might be in the market."

I looked at dad and we smiled at each other. "Well, Doc, it just so happens all of us have a civil lawsuit against the estate and they are selling the place to pay off the lawsuit. If you want to live there with DD, we can just let the lawyers know and they can sign over the place to us and you two can live there as long as you are a couple. I am sure everyone would agree to that, don't you think, dad?"

"Absolutely. Let me make some quick calls while you two fish."

Dad called the family and got permission and then called the lawyers and the paperwork would be set by Monday afternoon. Dad turned to us and smiled, "Done deal, you can move in on Tuesday."

Doc just shook his head, "You folks don't fuck around when you want something done, do you?"

Dad just smiled, "Nope. Why fuck around when you can have your choice of prime pussy just for the asking?"

Doc and I laughed, "Dad, you know that was sexist as hell."

"What? And you think the ladies don't feel the same way? Last time I checked that bridge had two lanes on it."

Doc and I laughed again, "True that!"

At that very moment both Doc and I hooked two decent sized pike and Dad took the tiller of the electric motor as Doc and I did the fisherman's dance around the boat to land them. It was funny as hell and Dad laughed so hard he was in tears and almost fell overboard.

Having caught three good sized pike, we went to the channel in the lake bottom and I put out the bait can. We put out bottom rigs with treble hooks and catfish bait and had a few beers to celebrate our impending triumphant trip back to the house. Dad told Doc not to say anything to DD yet. One of the Lawyers was bringing by the key to the place so we could look around.

The only thing that could match the fish dance with the two pike was doing the fish dance with three lunker catfish. It was hilarious. Three grown ass men going over and under and around each other as we danced all over the boat trying to keep the lines from being tangled. How we didn't sink the whole thing is still a mystery to this day.

With the fishing done, we went over to Sally's doc and grabbed her boat and we drove both back to our pier. The ladies were all inside and had strict instructions to keep DD occupied and out of the loop.

While we were cleaning the fish, the Lawyer drove up, saw us at the doc and came right over, giving Dad the key. "Sir, this really simplifies everything for all involved. If you are sure, go ahead and claim the property and we will just get the paperwork done and signed Monday evening."

Dad smiled and thanked the Lawyer, "I will give you a call in a few hours and let you know. There is a certain lady who has the final say in the matter."

"We will await your phone call, Sir." And with that, he left.

We finished up cleaning the fish and brought them into the kitchen, having cleaned up the boat already. We three men got a quick shower, letting the ladies know we were imminently going for a boat ride.

After quick showers and redressing, all of us went to the boats and DD raised an eyebrow. "That is Sally's boat. What gives?"

Dad said, "All will be revealed, DD. Just humor us for a few minutes, please."

Doc, DD, Sue, Barbara, Marion and Lilly all took our boat and Cathy, James, Leesie, and I took the other and we moseyed along to the property and tied up at the doc.

We all gathered in a semicircle on the bank facing Doc and DD and James handed her the keys. "Go, check out the place and see if you would like to live here."

"Wait, what do you mean?"

I spoke up, "We settled our civil lawsuit with the estate and the house belongs to us. Well, to you if you want it."

DD's eyes got big and welled up. She took the keys and we all followed her and Doc up the short trail to the house.

The place was an Atrium design with two levels. The side facing the lake was all triple paned storm glass. The glass was the new electrostatic glass that could move between being a one way mirror to fully clear with the turning of a rheostat on the wall.

The living room and master bedroom were lakeside with a nice balcony off the bedroom. The front side of the house had two smaller bedrooms with a shared bath. And the kitchen area was in the front on the first floor. The place had been professionally cleaned up to make it ready to sell and all the furnishings were new. Even the linens and towels were new. Appliances were just installed as well.

The house had a full house electric generator that automatically came on with any power outage, something James said he just put on his list for our place. There was no pool but the back porch did have a full sauna and an extra large hot tub off to the side.

Doc looked at DD after we had all taken a tour and asked, "What do you think?"

"I love the place, but there is no way you or I could afford it."

Leesie then said, "DD, I don't think you understand. The paperwork we are going to sign on Monday, should you accept, will turn this place over to you and you will be the sole owner of the property. All you have to do is pay property taxes on the place when they come due."

DD's eyes started to tear up. "This is too much, I can't accept this."

I looked at DD, "you are family now. Besides, a tenth of it belongs to you, anyway."

DD looked around, burst into full on crocodile tears, and blubbered as she hugged everyone. James got on the phone and told the Lawyer to write up the paperwork, and we took the boats back to the house to get the cars and move Doc and DD into their new home.

Cathy was just at a loss for words. She looked around at everyone and seemed to be sad.

"What's wrong Cathy?"

"Well, this has been such a fantastic weekend. But when it is over, I will leave and go back to my job and probably never see any of you again. It is rather depressing, really."

DD scoffed, "Oh hell no! You are moving in here with Doc and me! This place is too big for just the two of us. Besides, whose pussy is Doc going to eat while he is fucking the shit out of my ass?"

Doc just dropped his jaw and Cathy jumped up and down like a little girl in a candy store, "Really?"

"Really. No way I will be able to keep this place up by myself. And I like your company."

DD said, "Harry, can you help me mount the swing on the balcony outside the bedroom?"

I smiled, "I will, but may I suggest putting it inside the master bedroom? There is plenty of room and you will be able to use it year round."

Sally said, "Swing? What swing?"

DD smiled, "We will just have to get Doc or Harry to show you the swing, Cathy. Trust me, you will love it."

We all laughed and went to the boats to get DD moved into her new home.

In the end, we set the swing up inside as I suggested and Cathy was still curious about it. DD helped me undress Cathy and we set her up in the swing and tied her in. DD then sucked on my cock to get me hard and I slipped into Cathy's now wet pussy.

"Oh fuuuck!" she exclaimed as I bounced her back and forth, moving from the tip of my cock to being ball deep and bumping against her clit to push her back again.

"Momma likes?" I asked.

Doc moved to her head and dipped his cock into Cathy's waiting mouth and the two of us used her like a human masturbation toy. Judging by her multiple climaxes...she liked very much. I did note she deepthroated Doc without issue. I was going to have to try that one one day then decided, what the fuck. "Switch" I said, and Doc and I traded places as we spit roasted Cathy again.

Everyone was watching and we were all amazed Cathy could take me balls deep down her throat. I was a bit depressed I didn't last very long because I was soon unloading down her throat while Doc was emptying his balls in her pussy.

The rest of the ladies then asked DD if they could have some fun with it tomorrow and it was decided Sunday was break in the new house warming party day.
