Carter Lee,

and spend the rest of your life with Mia Chin?

.....

Carter, what are you doing?

It's your turn.
What on earth could you be daydreaming about so deeply?
Oh...
Well, you see...
For some reason, this doesn't feel real.

I still... feel like I'm stuck on that horrific day...
Oh, Carter...
You're thinking about that again?
Don't you remember?
SNAP
You saved everyone.

After pulling off such a heroic feat...
why are you still hung up on the past, Mr. Superhero?

Sorry...
Guess I was overwhelmed with hapiness that it felt unreal...

Now then,
we will proceed.

Next on the agenda is...
the ceremony in which the bride and the groom's elder sister...

swear allegiance to their master.

Just like last time, adding a hypnotic agent really does the trick.

It's time to say goodbye, Carter.
...!

When I snap my fingers, you'll completely lose consciousness.
I'll have Mei reset all your memories.

Alex wanted to kill you, but I stopped him.

Think of it as my final favor.

Goodbye, Carter.

...I wish you well.

- Three months ago -

If...

just if...

something goes wrong with me...

and I get consumed by that evil personality again...

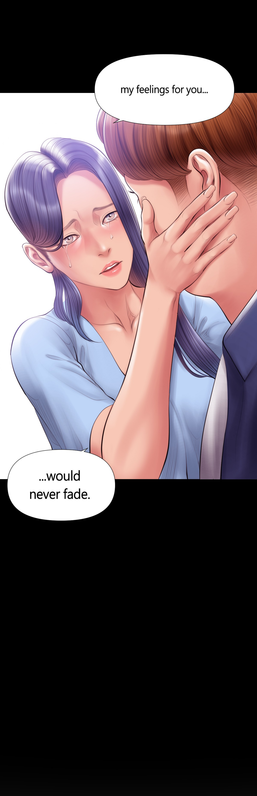

Don't bother trying to save me.

Because...

...seeing you get hurt is far worse than getting hurt myself.

.....
Why would you even worry abou...
.....
Even if...
I were to disappear...

Smoking hypnosis Season 2

END

Hello, everyone!

After four long years of work, finishing this story leaves me with a bittersweet feeling. I think this was the most intense period of my life. I gave it everything I had, never treating a single line of ink or a single word carelessly, because I wanted to finish without any regrets. Even so, I still have things I wish I could have done differently. There were many stories I didn't get to tell, and quite a few wonderful ideas from readers that I didn't have enough time to include.

I'm sorry to everyone who was hoping for a happy ending. As I worked on the final chapter, I was surprised by how much of an emotional toll it took on me. When I read NTR stories by other creators, it never affected me that much, but bringing a character I created to ruin was a very different experience. I think it was especially difficult because Carter was partly inspired by my own childhood. I could have ended the story in a more brutal and depraved way, but I wanted to offer Carter a small measure of comfort.

I didn't make this series alone. I was able to bring it this far thanks to the help and support of so many people. I'm especially grateful to everyone who translated my work.

My next project will probably be Jane's story, but if I can't come up with enough ideas, I may start with a spin-off about another character instead. I'm planning to open polls for a character popularity vote and for the spin-off sometime soon. I hope many of you will take part!

I've run out of energy, and my health has gotten worse, so I'm planning to take a longer break this time. I took breaks here and there, but because I was preparing for the next episode, I only had about two weeks of real rest. I always felt like I was racing against the clock. This time, I want to rest properly without that pressure, and give myself time to recover my health and creative inspiration. I'd also like to spend more time with my family, whom I haven't been able to give enough attention to.

I've usually been able to give you a definite date for my return, but I don't think I can do that this time. There probably won't be any uploads for a while. I might occasionally post an illustration or a story, but I can't say exactly when.

Once again, my heartfelt thanks to everyone who has loved and supported my work. This has been an incredibly happy and precious time for me. Please take care of yourselves, and I hope to see you again before too long.
