Satisfying the Boss's Hunger Part 11

Jen smiled at the gathered executives. "Right this way, ladies and gentlemen. Ms. Connors will be ready to meet with you in a little while, once she finishes reviewing your records. She is still deciding just where to fit PeriTech personnel into our operations here at OmniCorp as we finish this merger." Jen said, leading them into her office.

"Go ahead and make yourselves comfortable." Jen added, gesturing around the room. "I'm afraid that it may be a little while before Ms. Connors is ready for you."

"Thank you, Jen." Caroline Wilson, the PeriTech HR director said as moved to stand behind one of the chairs. She was the only one of the five who looked pleased with the delay, the rest were visibly upset, though they too claimed chairs around the room.

After a moment, Tak Henderson, the CEO of PeriTech spoke up angrily. "What? Look here, young lady, my appointment was supposed to begin five minutes ago. Don't you understand how valuable our time is to this organization?" The other three muttered their agreement.

Jen folded her arms across her chest and glared at the man. "I am well aware of the time, since I was the one who made your appointments in the first place. But Ms. Connors wants more time to prepare, and she calls the shots around here. You would do well to remember that going forward."

The CEO fumed, glaring back at Jen. "How dare you speak to me that way! I'll make sure Ms. Connors hears about this." He snapped before finally taking a seat.
Jen laughed at his threat. "Oh, by all means, do tell Sheryl. I guarantee that she values me far more highly than she does any of you."
Katharina Scarlet, Peritech's Vice-President, spoke up, trying to defuse the growing tension in the room. "Look, Jen was it? Be a dear and get us some coffee while we talk things over." She said, shooting a glare at Tak. "I like cream and sugar in mine."

Jen nodded. “Certainly, Ms. Scarlet. What about the rest of you?” She asked,
"I'll take mine black, but put plenty of sugar in it. None of that artificial stuff, mind!" Snapped the CEO of PeriTech angrily.
"Cream, no sugar for me." The Head of Marketing chimed in.
"Black, no sugar." Said the Production Manager, before turning to glare at his phone.

Jen turned to Caroline, who was watching the production with a sad smile on her face. "What about you, Ms. Wilson?" She asked gently.

Caroline smiled at Jen. "Oh, I'll come with you, I'm not too proud to fetch my own coffee."

As the left, Jen heard the Head of Marketing and Production Manager start to argue about which division was more important to OmniCorp. She couldn't help but grin as she contemplated the surprise waiting for the pompous executives when they finally got their meeting with Sheryl.

Jen raised an eyebrow, surprised at the other woman's answer. "I see. Well then, Ms. Wilson, just what is it you think I can do for you?"

"Please, call me Caroline." She smiled at Jen. "As for what you can do, I just wanted to make sure that Gabrielle, my secretary, does keep her place in your organization, or one like it. She really is as valuable as my colleagues think they are, and it would be a shame for her expertise to get wasted." She sighed. "I'd take her with me to my next position if I had one lined up, but as it is, I just want to know that she'll be taken care of." She smiled at Jen. "I'm well aware that you've got a lot more pull with Ms. Connors than you let on, and that she's not just marrying you for your looks.

Jen blinked in surprise for a moment. "I see. You're very well-informed, Caroline. Sheryl and I thought we had managed to keep our engagement under wraps."

Caroline grinned. "Oh, I have my sources. I'm confident that none of my colleagues know, or they'd already be trying to win you over to their cause." Her expression turned serious again. "But please, do think about my request. Talk to Gabrielle, I'm quite sure you'll find her a kindred spirit to yourself."
Jen smiled, surprised to find herself liking this woman. "I'll do that, Caroline. Your concern for your people does you credit. If she's as good as you say, I'm sure we'll find a place for her here." She gathered the first mugs of coffee. "I think we've kept the others waiting long enough."

"It's about time! Were you roasting the beans yourself in there?" The former CEO snapped as Jen handed him his coffee. The others grumbled as well, and Jen could see the impatience on their faces as she passed the coffee around.
"Let me see if Ms. Connors is ready for you. I'll be right back." Jen said, then disappeared through the door into Sheryl's office.

She returned a few minutes later. "Ms. Connors will see you all now." Jen announced, and three of the executives jumped to their feet, walking through the door to Sheryl's office as quickly as they could. They stopped just inside the door, overwhelmed with the reality of Sheryl's presence. Or perhaps their surprise was in seeing just what Sheryl considered appropriate clothing for this meeting.
As Caroline approached the door, Jen stopped her, shaking her head. "Except for you, Caroline. Ms. Connors will see you in an hour for a special meeting. Please bring PeriTech's personnel records with you, especially the files for any problem employees." She winked at Caroline.

Caroline blinked in surprise. "Yes, of course. Thank you, Jen." She said, turning to walk back out of Jen's office.

"Hah, I knew she didn't have what it takes." Jen heard the Head of Marketing mutter as she walked past Jen into Sheryl's office. She too stopped to stare up at the giantess who had bought their company.

Once all four of them had entered, Jen followed, swinging the massive doors shut behind them all. It was time for the fun to begin.

She stifled the urge to laugh as the cocky former executives of PeriTech finally took a good look at the size of Sheryl's office. Everything in it was built to her lover's scale, making even the former CEO seem like a small child in comparison. They were visibly uncomfortable, and the cushions on the floor in front of Sheryl's desk dismayed them still more.

"Well, sit down so that we can get this started. I'm a very busy woman, after all." Sheryl's voice boomed through the room as she gestured to the cushions from her perch on the edge of her desk.
The executives obviously wanted to argue, but they were visibly cowed by the giant woman whose presence dominated the room. Once they had all sat, Sheryl spoke again.

"I've called you here because my acquisition of PeriTech is obviously going to result in a number of redundant positions among our staff. I feel it important to cull the dead wood from my organization on a regular basis, and think that now is an excellent time to begin." Sheryl gave her audience a predatory smile.

The executives nodded, and the former Head of Marketing spoke. "I fully agree, and I think getting rid of Caroline was an excellent start."

Sheryl shook her head. "I wouldn't be so quick to judge, Lucy." She slid down from her desk as she spoke, standing in front of the marketer.

"PeriTech's advertising has been truly awful." Sheryl continued, moving to straddle the cushion where Lucy sat. "I'm not sure if I'll keep any of your staff, but I'm quite certain that I won't let you anywhere near OmniCorp's advertising division. Fortunately for you, I have a position you'll fill quite well." She said, squatting down over the woman's head. Lucy barely had time to scream before her head disappeared between Sheryl's legs.

"Mmm, yes, that's it, keep struggling." Sheryl stood and reached under her skirt, her hand lifting it enough for everyone to see Lucy's lower half hanging from between Sheryl's labia. Then, Sheryl sat down, forcing more and more of Lucy into herself, until Sheryl was the one sitting on the cushion.
"What are you doing to her?" Katharina gasped in shock. She stared in fascination at her colleague's plight, and Jen thought the woman actually looked turned on by the sight.
www.erofus.com

"I'm... Ooh, yes! Putting her to better use." Sheryl gasped out, holding Lucy by the ankles and thrusting the woman deeper inside herself.
www.erofus.com

As the other executives watched in horror, Sheryl began to was using Lucy as a human dildo, and each thrust sent her deeper into Sheryl.

"OH! Almost there!" She gasped, taking her hands off Lucy's feet. She let them all see Lucy kick uselessly at the air, then concentrated. Slowly, she pulled the last of the woman into herself.

Lucy's body only made a small bulge in Sheryl's huge body, but as the giantess came, that bulge ceased moving and became even smaller. Gasps of shock came from the watching executives as they realized what had happened.

Sheryl leered at the others. “Mmm, she’s all gone. Now who’s next, hmm?”

Jen stood by the door, watching the executives panic. They jumped to their feet and ran, desperate to get away from Sheryl.

www.erofus.com

"I've been very disappointed with the records on PeriTech's production schedule. You could be at least twice as efficient with a little better planning." Sheryl said as she pushed the man's ankles into her snatch. "I don't think you've got a future at OmniCorp either. But I'll make sure to get some use out of you before you go." She said, sitting down on the floor to enjoy his struggles.

She unbuttoned her top, tossing it aside as the man continued to plea for mercy. She played with her nipples as she moaned in pleasure.

"Please, let me out! You need me to keep things running!" The man moaned. "I'll take a pay cut, work harder, whatever you want!" He clawed at the floor in front of him, seeking something to grab onto as Sheryl's vaginal muscles pulled him inward.

Jen smiled as the former CEO of PeriTech started to pound on the door leading back to Jen's office. "That's not going to do you any good, you know." Jen said wickedly, as she watched Sheryl start to look around for her next victim. Katharina had found a hiding place behind Sheryl's desk, and Jen smirked as she saw her lover pretend not to notice the terrified woman's foot sticking out.

"No!" The man cried out, turning to face Sheryl as she strode over to him.
"That wasn't very smart, little man. Jen's the one who suggested that I trim PeriTech's surplus executives in the first place." Sheryl said, looming over him.

"Oh yes. You'll do nicely." Sheryl said as she stuffed the man's feet into her pussy.

Jen shoved on his shoulders, quickly forcing his body into her lover. "Don't worry, we won't waste much more of your oh-so-valuable time here. In fact, we're almost done."

"Please! Let me go! You can't do this to me!" He gasped as Sheryl's pussy engulfed his torso.
Jen ignored his screams as she pushed him the rest of the way inside. "Bye now, Tak Henderson. You'll be much better company as part of my fiancée."

The screams cut off as the CEO's mouth was covered by Sheryl's labia

His arms flailed about for another moment, then Sheryl came once more, and the last of him disappeared into her body.

Jen began to strip as the struggles inside Sheryl slowed, then stopped entirely. “Mmm, that was hot, love. I’m going to take you now.” She said, taking Sheryl’s hand and pulling her over to the desk.

"God yes, Jen. My pussy needs some loving attention."
Sheryl said, laying atop her desk, legs spread wide.

"Let's get these out of the way." Sheryl said, tugging on Jen's panties.

A flash of movement caught Jen's eye, and she spotted Katharina Scarlet staring at them from behind the desk. The woman had one hand under her skirt, and Jen winked at her. She heard a gasp and the sound of movement as the woman scrambled to find a new hiding spot.

"Mmm, you're nice and ready for me, Jen." Sheryl murmured as she stroked Jen's pubic mound, feeling how wet and aroused Jen was.
Jen moaned as one giant finger slid into her. It filled her perfectly, and she bucked her hips as Sheryl thrust in and out of her.
"Oh, Oh Sheryl! Yes!" Jen screamed as her body shook with orgasm. Sheryl kept going, holding Jen mid-orgasm for as long as possible.

Sheryl grinned. "Are you going to try and convince me that you're too important to PeriTech's success to be a snack for my pussy? Don't bother, I already know just how useless you've been as VP."

The frightened woman shook her head frantically. "No, nothing like that. But I... I can make it worth your while to let me go. I'm very good with my tongue, if you know what I mean." She said, licking her lips suggestively.

Sheryl grinned. “Really? Go ahead, demonstrate this skill of yours.” She sat in the chair, spreading her legs.

Katharina stepped closer, looking both nervous and excited at the same time. She hesitated when confronted with Sheryl's enormous pussy.

"Go on, unless you've changed your mind." Sheryl said.

"No, no at all. I'm just admiring your size."
Katharina said, clearly trying to hide her nervousness. She leaned in closer and gently took Sheryl's clit in her mouth, licking and sucking at it.
www.erofus.com

"Mmm. Flattery won't go far with me, little morsel." Sheryl said. She gasped as Katharina's efforts sent a thrill of pleasure through her body. "Ooh, you do know what you're doing down there! Do that again!" She commanded.

As the woman wiped her mouth, Jen walked over and put an arm around her lover's leg. "That was a nice show, Sheryl. Can I try her out too?"
Sheryl nodded, "You heard my fiancée. Strip and do that for her. If you're good enough, maybe we'll let you go."
"Gladly, boss." Katharina said, licking her lips, and to Jen's surprise, she sounded sincere. She helped the woman out of her clothes and got into position.

"Better work faster, Katharina." Jen said as Sheryl stood and moved to tower above them. She moaned as the woman redoubled her efforts.

Sheryl crouched down to straddle Jen and Katharina, leaning her breasts close enough for Jen to bury her face in as she came. “Ahhh!” She screamed her orgasm into Sheryl’s breasts as her lover sank down atop Katharina.

A startled yelp came from beneath Sheryl as Katharina sat up, plunging herself straight into Sheryl's pussy. Her hands beat frantically against Sheryl and Jen as she struggled to escape.

"Here she goes, Jen. Do you want a better view before I take her all the way?" Sheryl asked, rising up enough for Jen to see.
Jen shook her head. "Hang on, Sheryl. She's a terrible executive, but the sex was pretty good, even under pressure." She said. "Maybe we should keep her around for a while. I think she could make a good sex toy with some practice."

Jen led to Sheryl's desk, where Sheryl sat, her enormous body towering over them. Katharina paused, intimidated by Sheryl's physical presence. "Well? What are you waiting for?" Sheryl said teasingly. Katharina climbed up onto Sheryl's throne-like chair, and began playfully licking at Sheryl's clit.

"Get in my pussy," Sheryl commanded. "Deeper." Katharina obliged.

Sheryl parted her labia so Katharina could hear her words. "How about it, Katharina? Do you want to become my toy, or are you ready to join your colleagues?" She asked with a wicked grin.
"T...Toy." She gasped.

www.erofus.com
Sheryl grinned. “Well then, all you have to do is hold onto the chair until I’m ready to take you out. But remember, if I get all of you inside me, you’re going straight to my tits.” She let her labia fall shut again, and Jen moved Katharina’s hand to the lip of the chair, where she clung for dear life.

www.erofus.com

"I'm going to need you to get me dressed enough for my next meeting, Jen." Sheryl said, smiling as she made her vaginal muscles ripple around Katharina's trapped form. "I'm not going to be moving for a while, unless our new toy gives up." She grinned.

Jen smiled back. "Gladly, love." She said, picking up Sheryl's discarded top.
