AHH NO, I'M

I FORGOT

A man with a large nose and a surprised expression is peeking from behind a white wall. He is wearing a grey tank top and black socks. A speech bubble is next to his head.
