Skinsuit Of The Elite
Part 2

By TSF AI

P.E. classes are chaotic everyone is distracted with changing moving and leaving belongings unattended that's the best chance I'll have to get Horikita's phone without raising suspicion

Horikita won't let her guard down around me... but around Sakura? She might lower it

This isn't about luck it's about timing all I need is one chance

...Sakura

Ah—
H-Horikita
-san...!
G-good morning...

...You're unusually early today

Y-Yes...
I thought
maybe... if I came early I wouldn't... bump into too many people...

... I see

There it is her phone is inside the bag... Now I just need the right opportunity

...You should hurry up class will begin soon

O-Oh
r-right!
Thank you Horikita
-san...

Perfect seems like she didn't suspect a thing

time to get my hands on her phone

It would seem it's locked with a code or face ID

I have two realistic options 1. force the passcode which takes time I don't have

... Or option 2. use what the phone already trusts which is her face but to do that I must become Horikita... I guess it's time to change roles again

I need to do this while the real Horikita
is busy with P.E
so she can't get in the way

Time to shed this Sakura disguise

...Huh? Seems like I forgot her glasses in the changing room

I don't have time to go and pick them up ... I need to get changed quick

It's all technique find the edge and the rest follows

Slow controlled No tearing precision over speed

One half undone The rest will follow naturally

Time to get the next skin on so I can find out who is pulling the strings

This will get me what I need her phone unlocks to her face and only her face

Smaller
frame softer fingers everything fits into place

Every inch closer makes the illusion more complete

No signs of distortion the transformtion is seamless her skin feels as real as the original

If I'm going to confront the person pulling the strings I need to complete the disguise

Horikita is ...Neat and precise never careless

So I need to be the exact same ... Which given my usual demeanor shouldn't be difficult to emulate

Playing the role of Horikita should be easier than playing the role of the timid and shy Sakura

Everything looks perfect so far.... Just the last piece of her uniform left

With this... My disguise should be flawless

With the uniform complete there's nothing to question I am Horikita Suzune

Face ID worked... Now lets see who you've been serving Chabashira Sae... So it's the homeroom teacher who is looking into me

Lets give her a call and ask to meet up with her under the pretense that I have info on Ayanokoji's past

...Horikita
I wasn't expecting a call Did something happen?

I wouldn't
call if it weren't important
I think I've found something regarding Ayanokoji's past

...Oh?
You've been unusually slow with results and now suddenly you have something? What exactly did you find?

It's not something I want to say over the phone there are too many variables but if you want real information you'll need to hear it from me directly

... Fine meet me in the classroom in 5 minutes don't be late...

I promise this will be worth your time

She bought it a face-to-face... that's exactly what I wanted

Time to find out what excatly she wants

One step closer Soon I'll know what Chabashira is hiding... and why she's so desperate for my past

...Horikita
right on time I'm interested to hear what you've found

As I said...
I'm sure you'll like what you hear...
