A close-up photograph of a person's hand reaching out towards a textured, light-colored surface. The hand is positioned on the left side of the frame, with fingers slightly spread. A soft shadow is cast by the hand onto the surface below it. Two comic-style speech and thought bubbles are overlaid on the image. One is a blue-outlined speech bubble pointing towards the hand, and the other is a white-outlined thought bubble with three small circles leading to it, also pointing towards the hand.
