Hmm...
What prank should I pull on the Trailblazer next?
It has tobe perfect...

Lets try and find some inspiration

Maybe Himeko? A little chaos in command could be fun...

Or Rappa!
Going after the trailblazer
as a galaxy ranger could be fun

Speaking of galaxy rangers! I could use Acheron and just glare in silence until they panic!

Hmm...
As Black Swan
I could whisper creepy prophecies about them

Feixiao could challange them to a race and then trip them at the finish line

Too many options and none of them are great

Also
I can't help but feel like the trailblazer has probably made new friends that I don't know about yet

...Wait... who's watching me

Ohhh
I see you now

This is Perfect! You can help me decide the prank for the Trailblazer!

I can become anyone I want... so don't hold back on your imagination

I look forward to seeing what you can come up with~
