CHAPTER 02

Early the next morning.

They were both in the kitchen eating breakfast. Sophia was dressed in a sharp stylish suit, while she stood and finished her coffee.

It was her first day being Partner of the firm. But more than that, as she was in the kitchen with her son, she wondered if Bradley had actually heard her last night.

She got a little carried away with her new vibrator before realizing that it might have been too loud.

She tried reading her son's body language to see if he was being awkward around her, but so far, nothing.

She shrugged it off,
hoping he hadn't heard the buzzing sounds.

"I ordered more things online," she said before sipping her coffee again. "It should arrive in about a week."

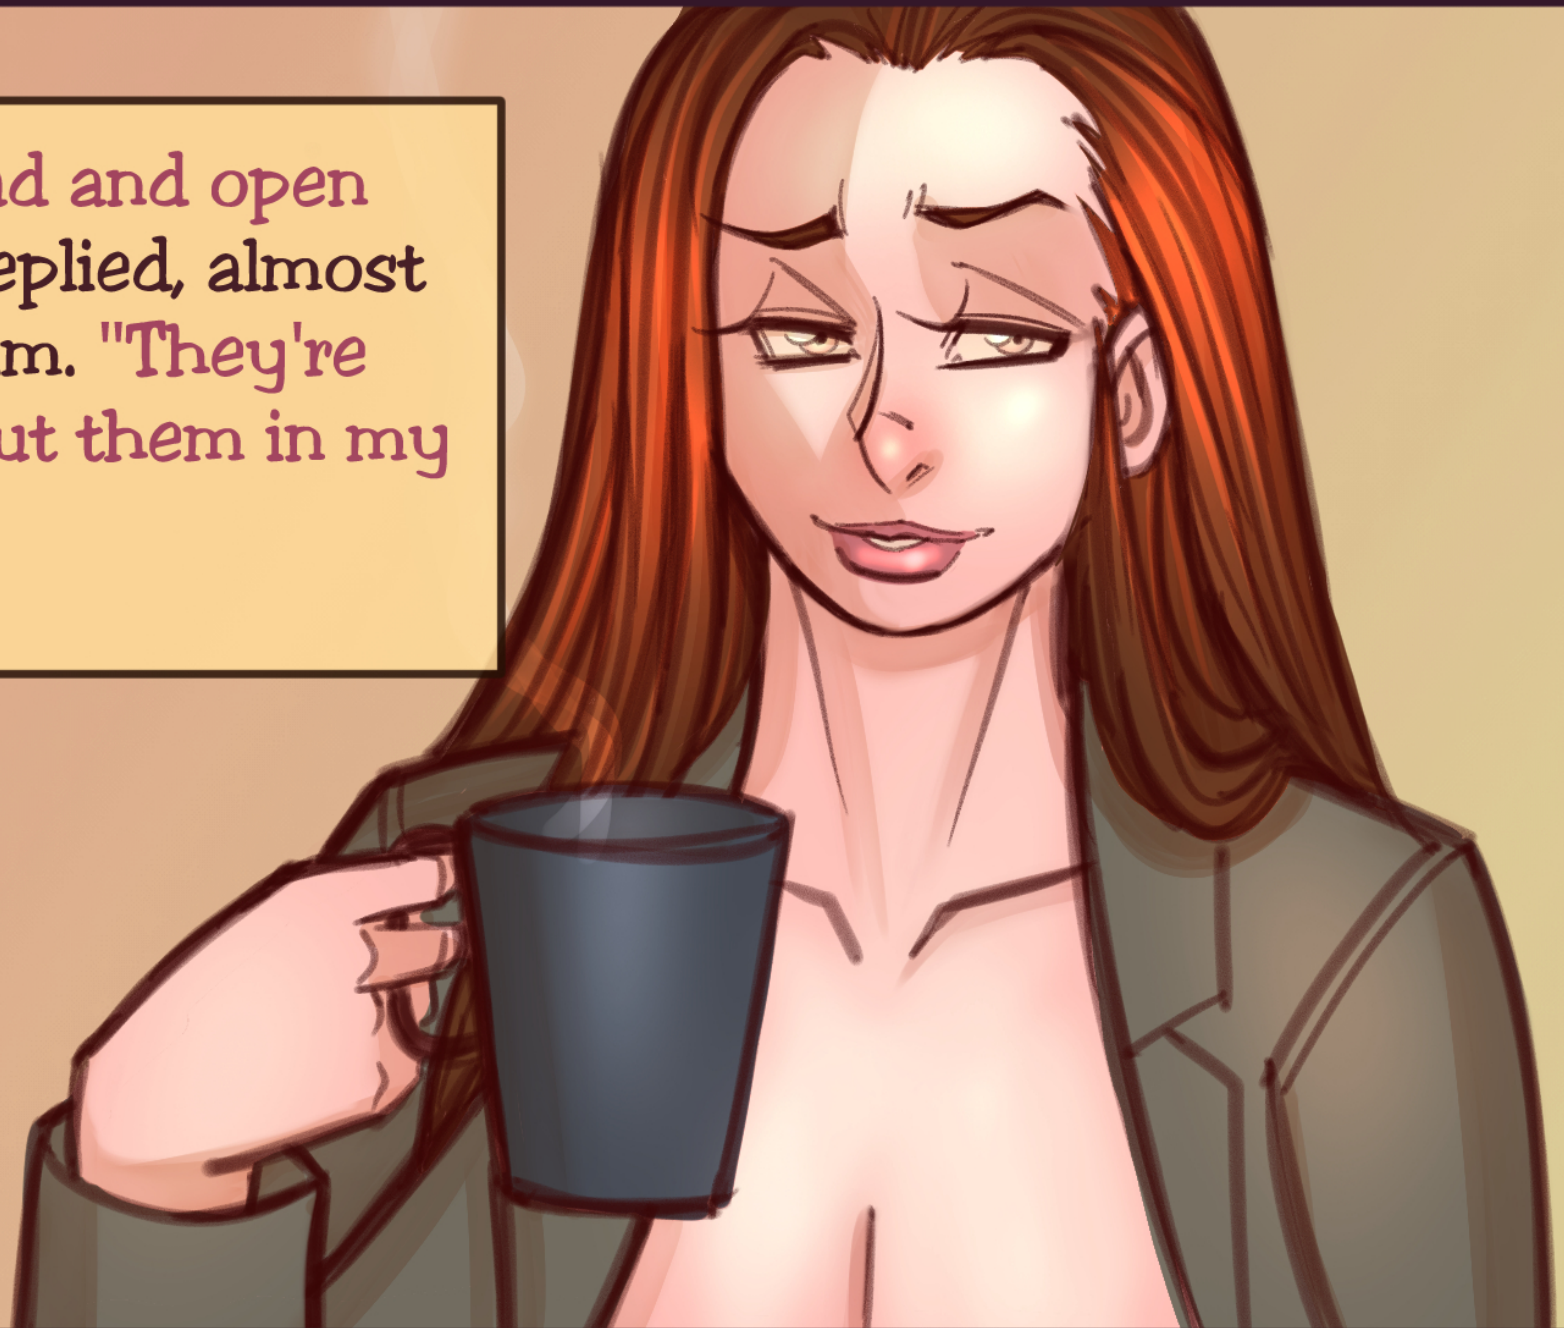

"Should I open it for you?" he joked. "Or should I just leave it in your room?"

"Go ahead and open it," she replied, almost daring him. "They're books. Put them in my room."

"Oh..."

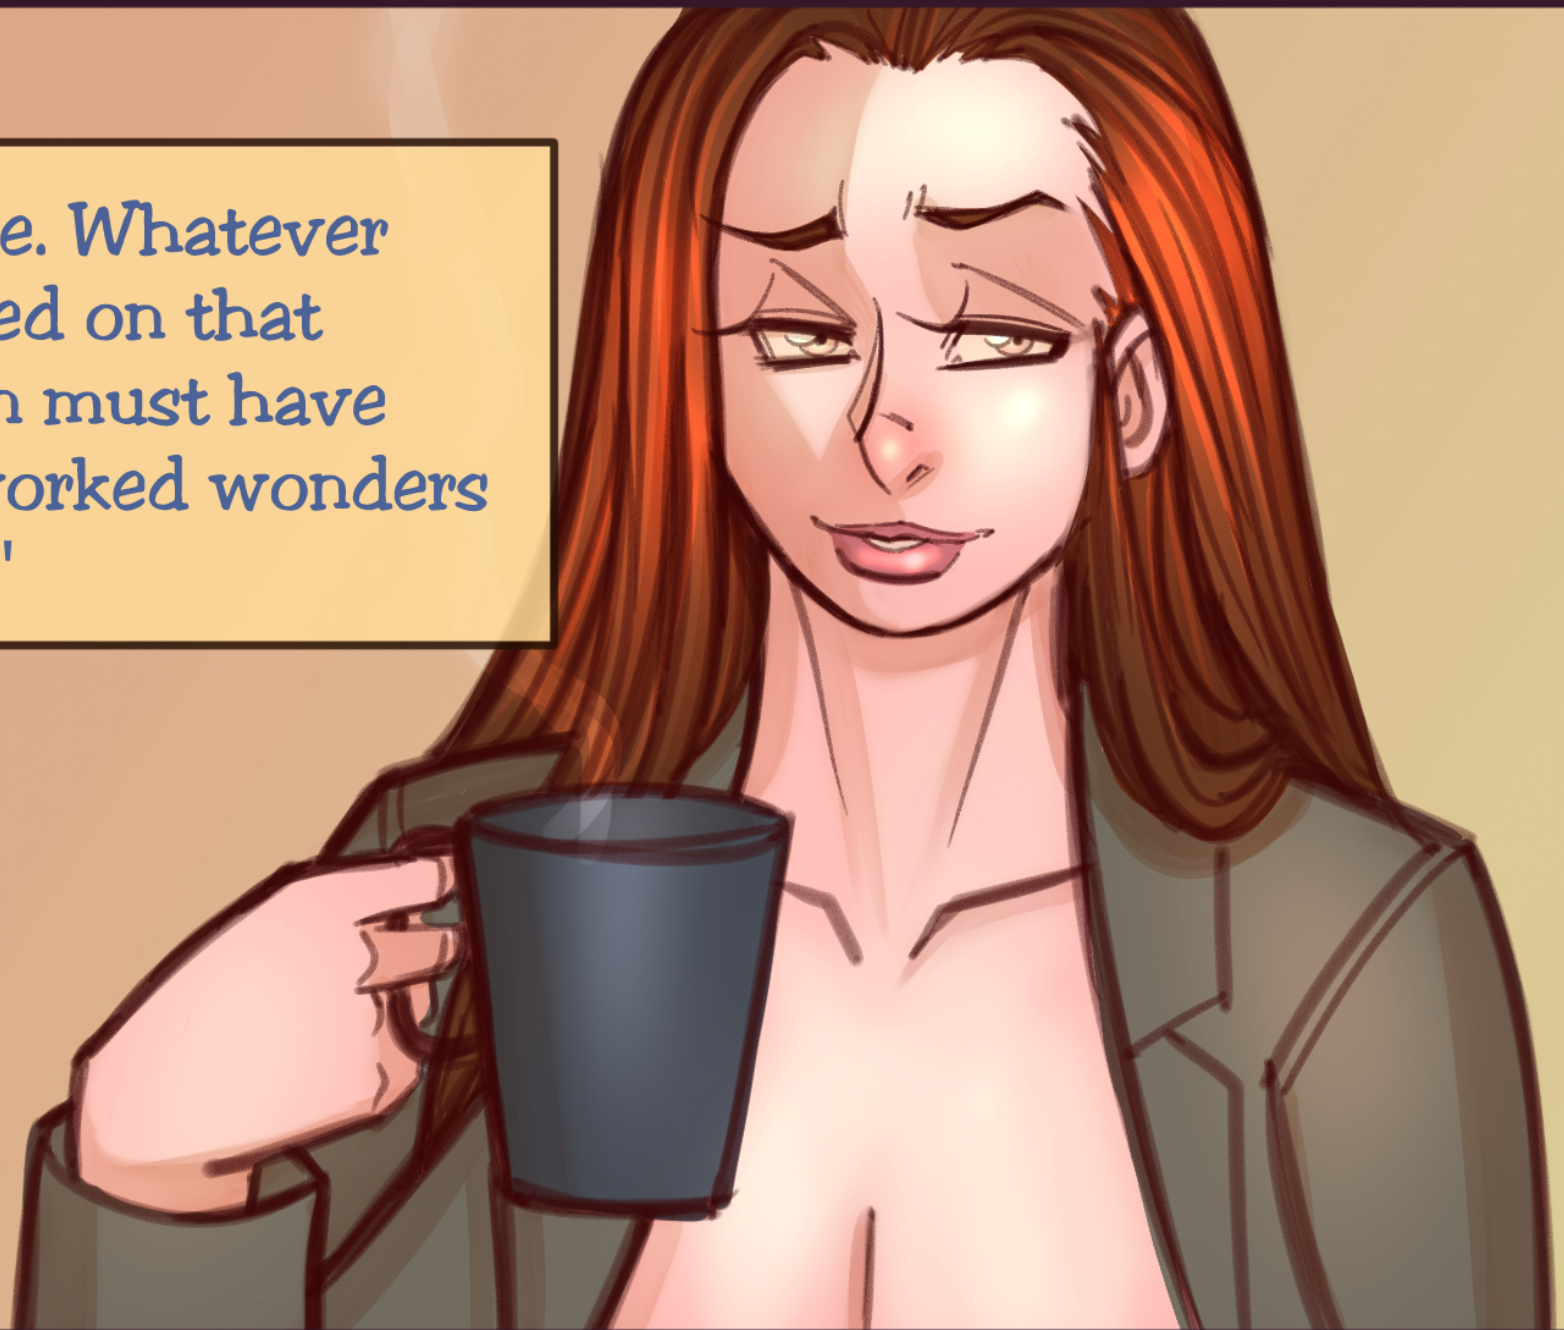

She laughed.

"Don't worry, they're spiritual books. A colleague recommended them to me and I'd like to keep an open mind."

"Oh, nice. Whatever happened on that vacation must have really worked wonders on you."

"Why? Because I'm a hippie now?"

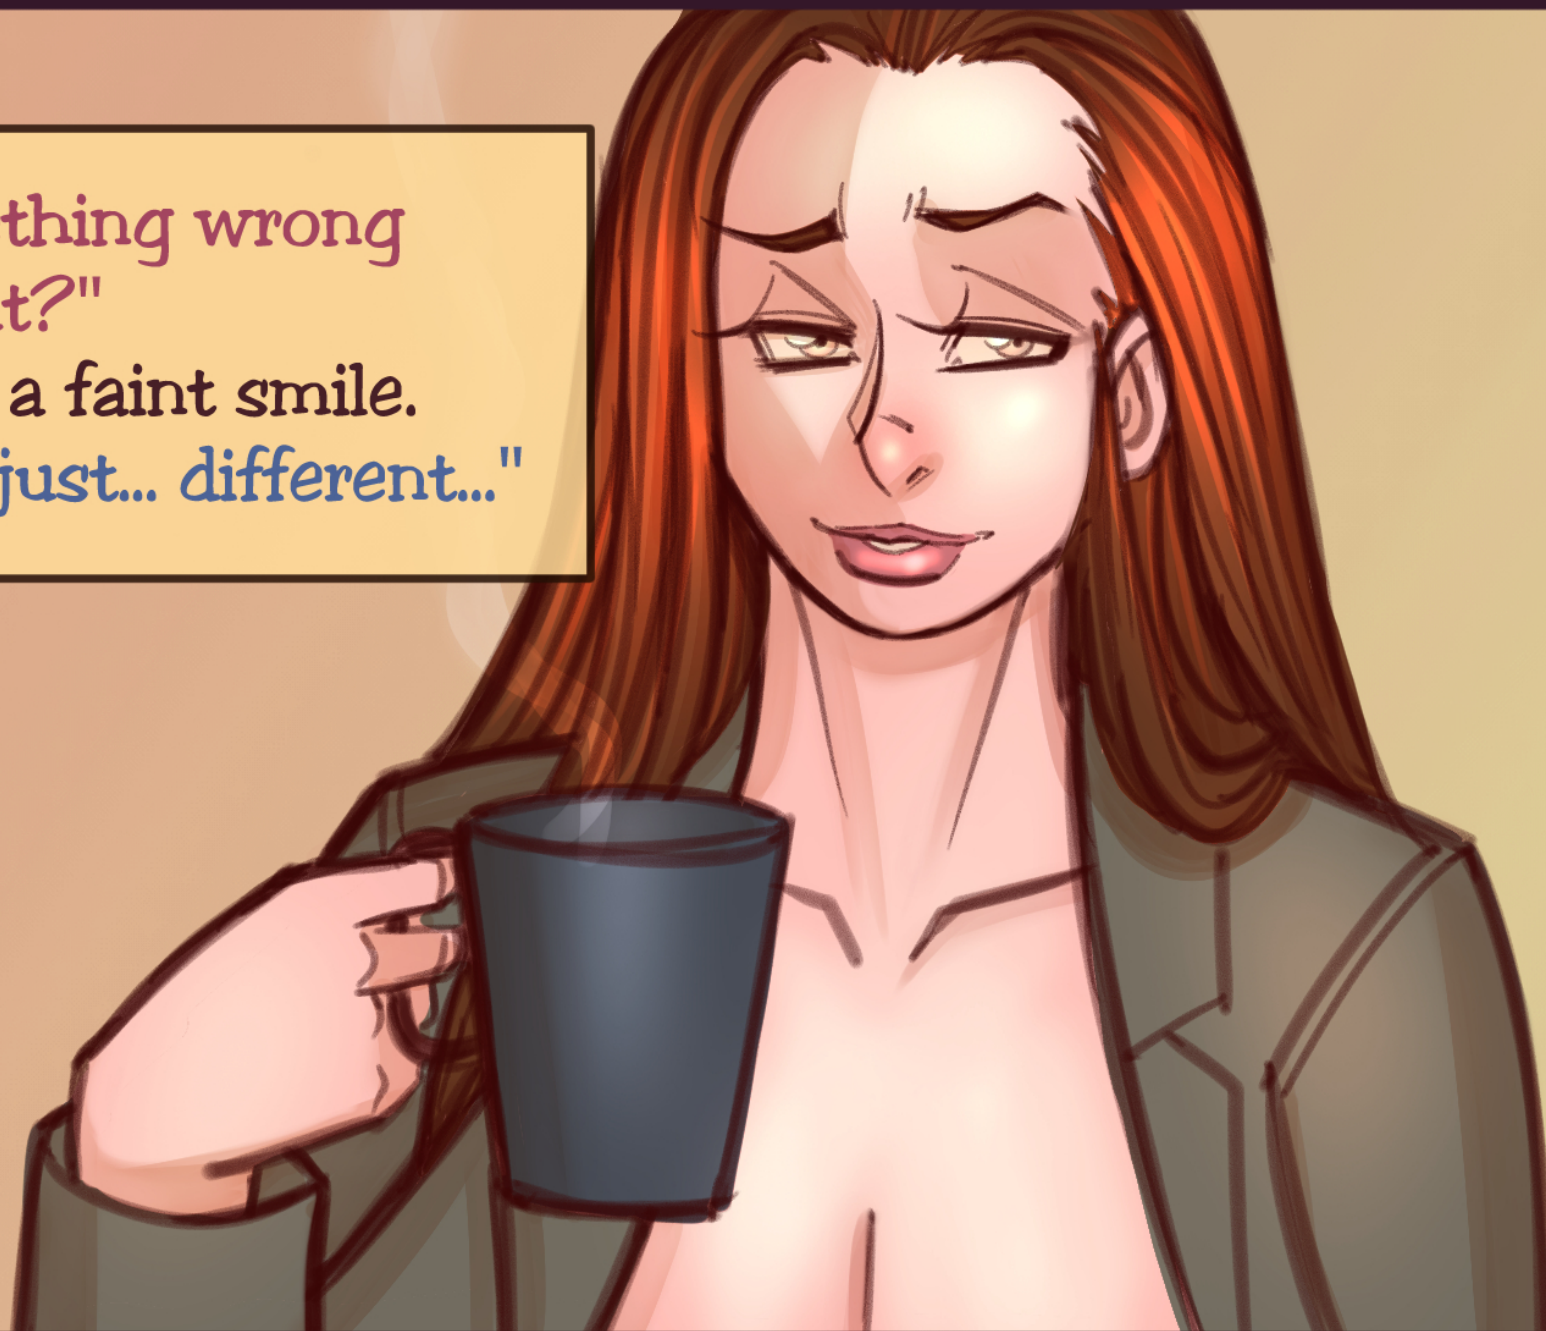

"Mom, you've become a hippie lawyer," he replied.

"Is something wrong with that?"

He gave a faint smile.

"No. It's just... different..."

It was the clue that Sophia was looking for. Her son had definitely heard her masturbating with a vibrator last night, and frankly, she hoped that her cheeks weren't turning red.

A few months later.

Sophia won her first major settlement since becoming Partner.

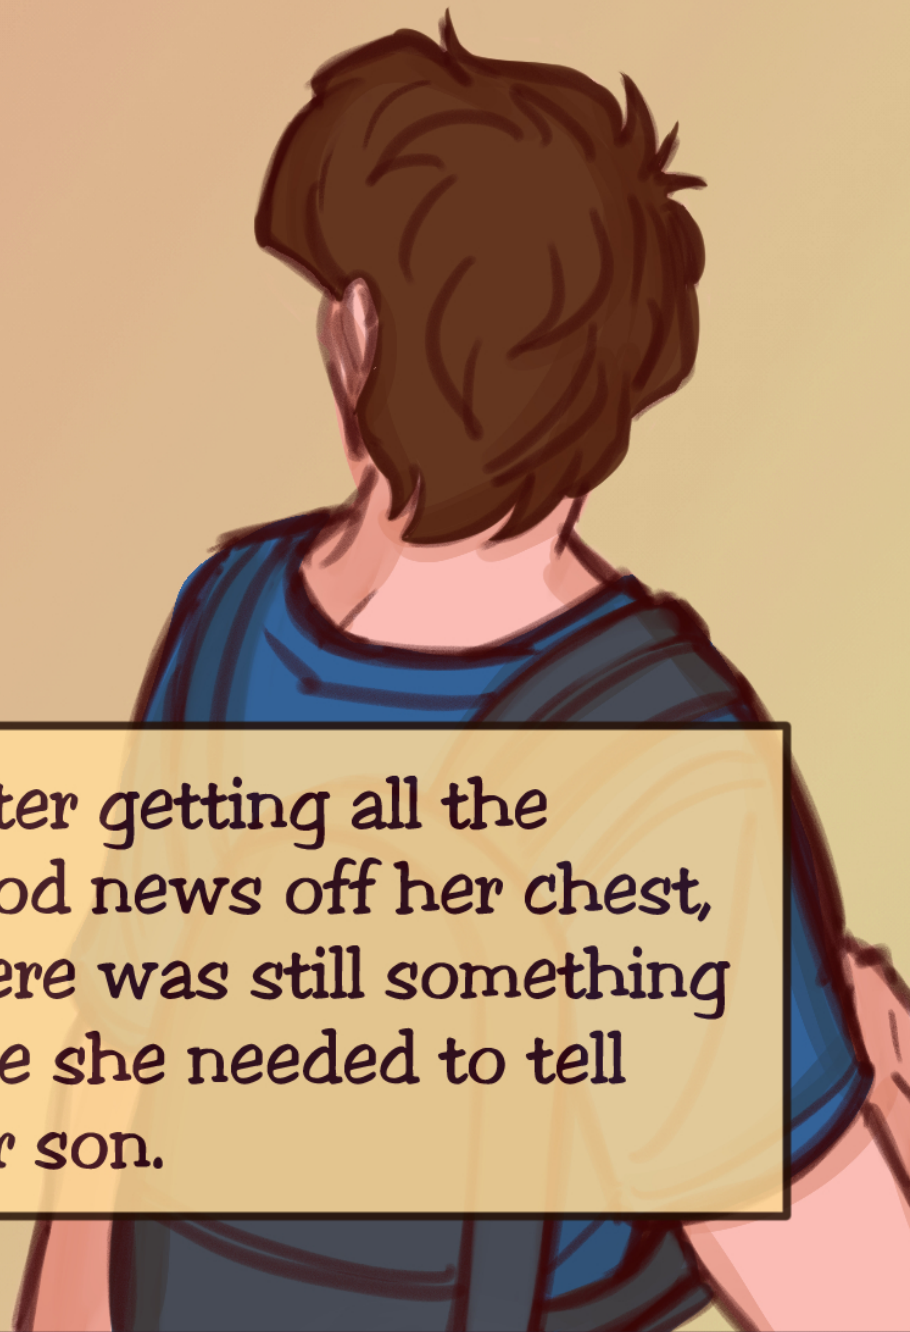

She had spent a considerable amount of time on a fraud case which involved complex financial matters.

The other party
rather than going
to court with her.

She tried explaining it to her son a few times during dinner, but like most college students, he wasn't interested in those sorts of things.

After getting all the good news off her chest, there was still something else she needed to tell her son.

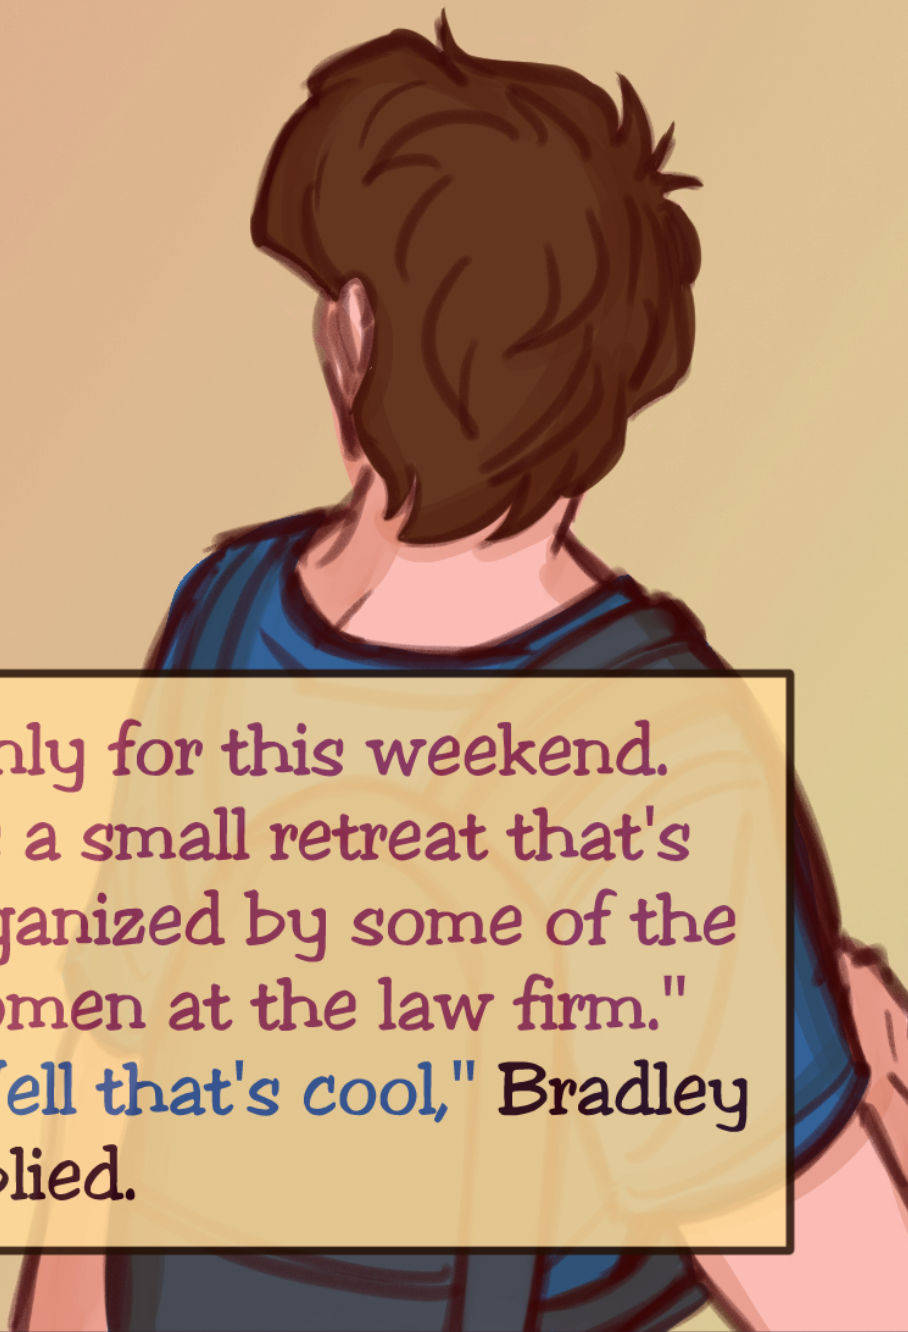

"I'm going on yet another short vacation," she said happily.

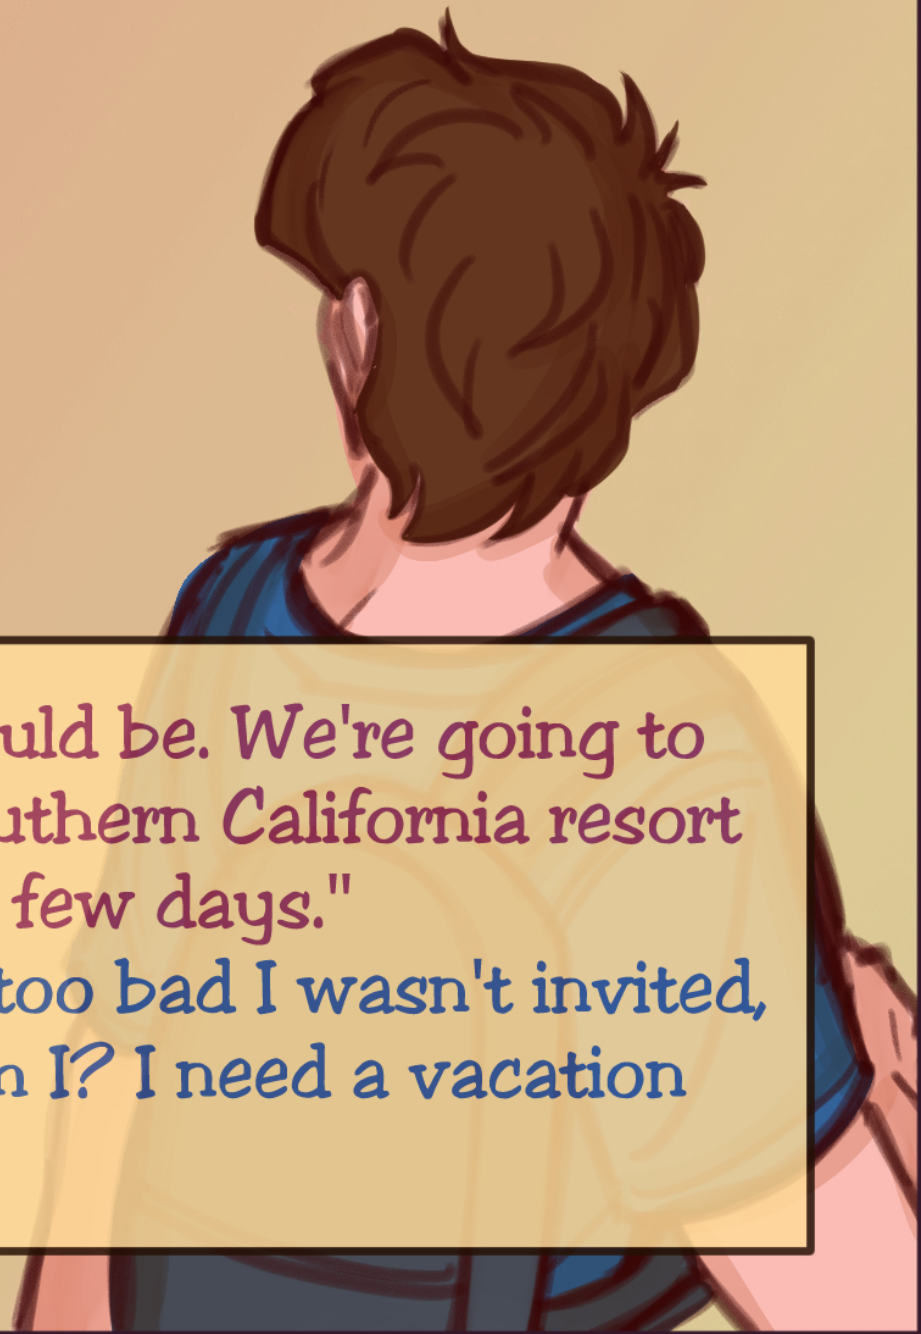

"Only for this weekend.
organized by some of the

"Well that's cool," Bradley replied.

"Should be. We're going to a Southern California resort for a few days."

"It's too bad I wasn't invited, or am I? I need a vacation too."

Sophia smiled and shrugged.

"Women only. It was my senior Partner's idea.
Let's just say that the women of this firm have a special bond."

"Nice."

"I know, right? Anyway, I'll leave you some cash and I hope this house remains intact when I come back."

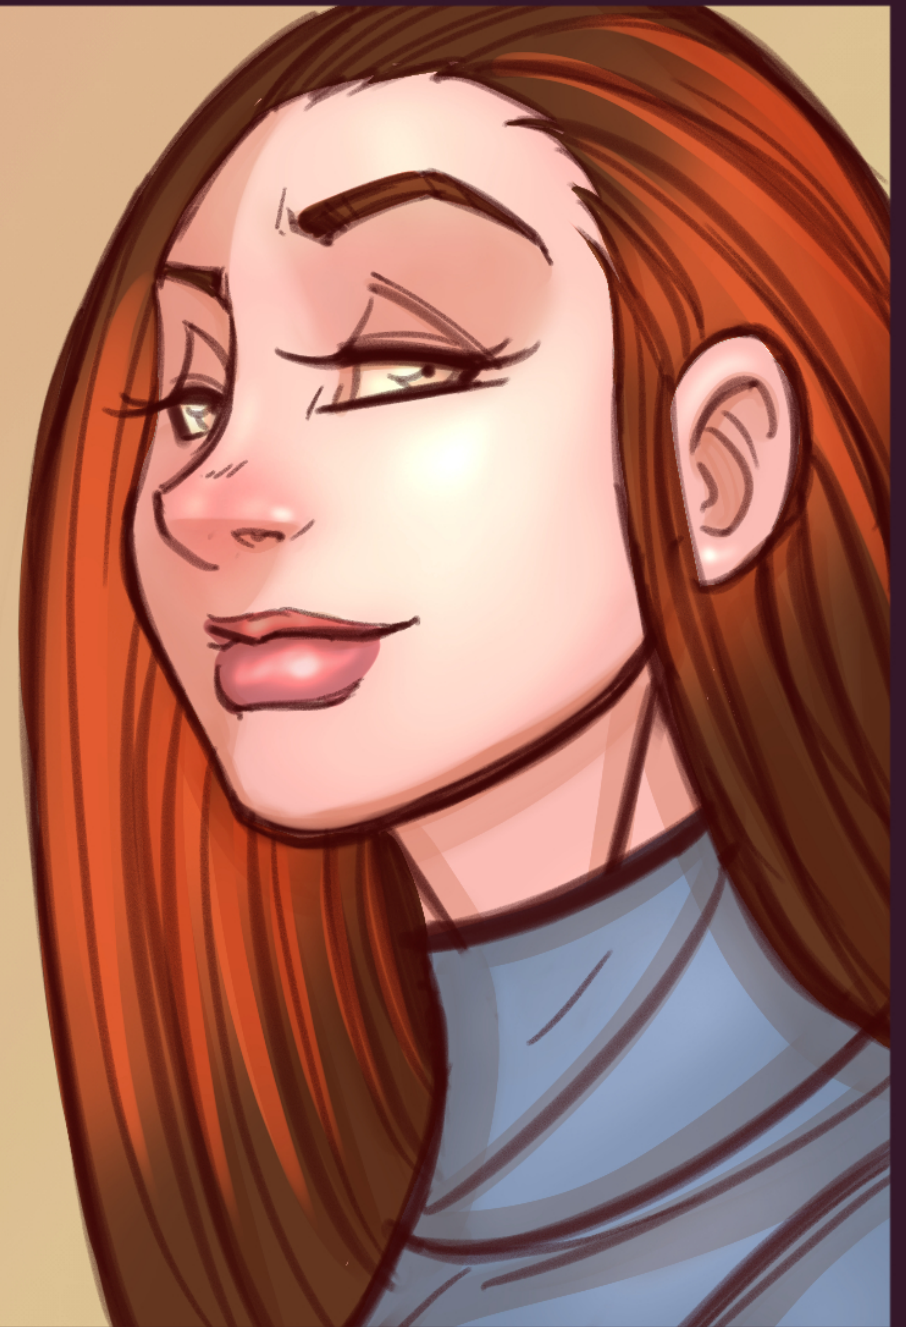

"It will, trust me. And you deserve this. You work really hard."

She smiled again.
"Thank you. I feel good about things.
I'm excited."

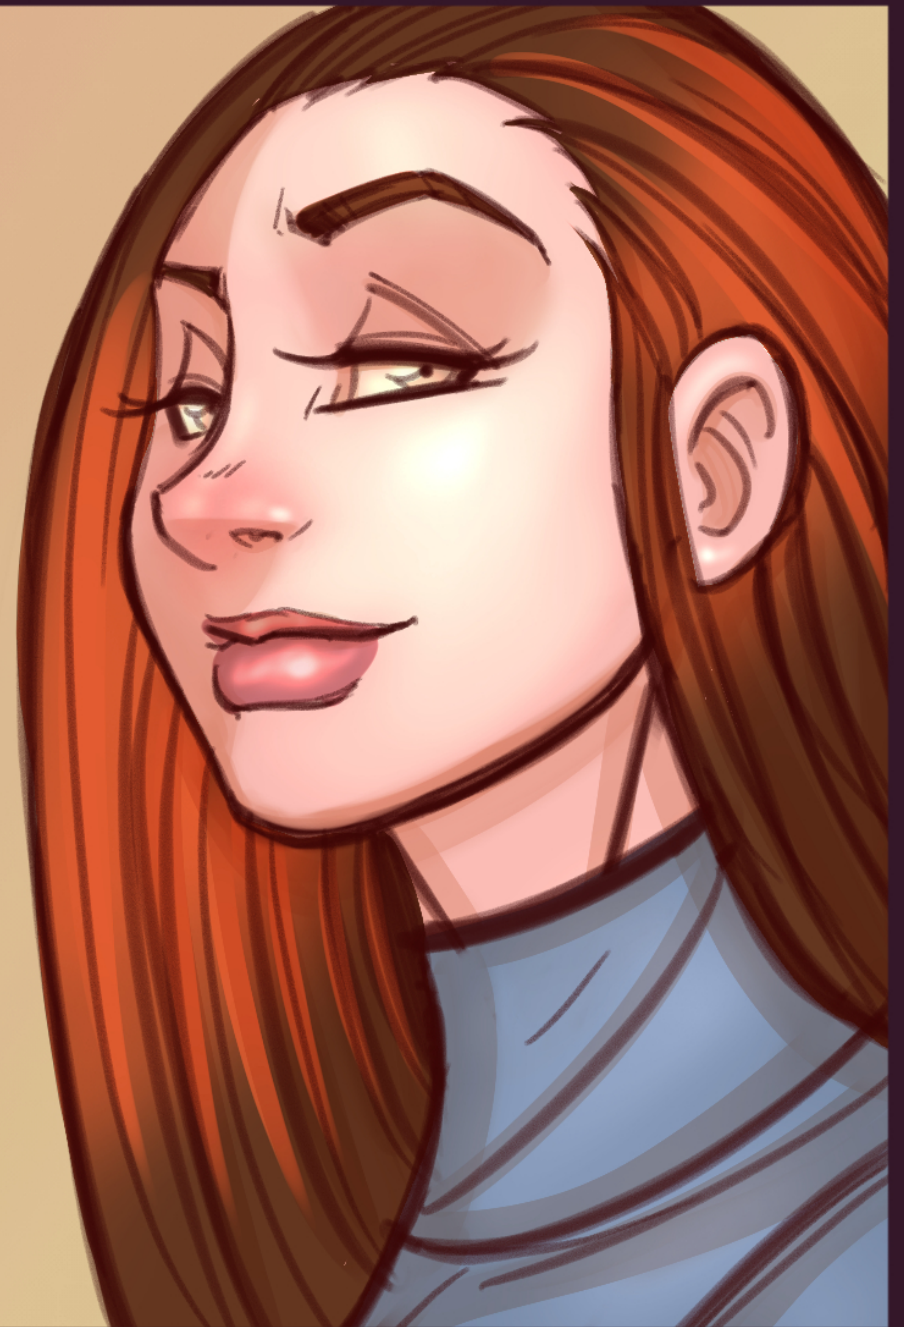

"It's hard to explain,
but I finally feel that everything is coming

"I can tell. You seem

Sophia agreed.
Part of her newfound happiness was thanks
to her new vibrator,
but that was her little
