A highly detailed, muscular man in a sailor's uniform (white cap with a blue band) is shown in a crowd, shouting with an intense expression. He is the central focus of the image. The background is dark and filled with blurred figures of other people, suggesting a large gathering or event. Two speech bubbles are present: one near the man's head and another further to the right. The overall lighting is dramatic, with highlights on the man's muscles and the crowd's bokeh lights.
