

This is the beginning of a new urban legend haunting the World Wide Web, some will call it a curse, others a blessing in the near future. Here we meet Karin. Karin is just an ordinary girl with a passion for computer games and her livestream. But soon, everything will change for her. But, see for yourself.

Oh,
seriously?
snort

Is this
the best you've got? Total noob
move, dude.

Feel my
pro skill!
Beginner
alert!

My mom
could teach
you Noob while
she sleep.

How much
did you fork out
to a goldseller bot
to unlock that
level?

Whenever this hot woman appears on your screen, and you, yourself, are a girl, your fate is sealed. However, this isn't happening too frequently yet, because...

Hey!
What the hell?
Where'd that pic pop up from?
Damn it! I was this close to nailing the first kill on the Dungeon Boss!

Guys, hold
up. I got thrown onto my screen with a picture of a naked, busty slut!

LOL, not
funny Guys, definitely not...
Hey! Since when did I
have big. fake tits,
seriously?

In less than 1 hour, your inner bimbo slut will emerge, and you will be completely transformed into a Bimbo... This, of course, applies to trans women as well.

The issue with this phenomenon is this: as swiftly as the image emerges, it vanishes just as quickly, leaving the viewer, even with just a fleeting glance, fully exposed to its effect. And so it was with Karin...

Oh? It's gone again? What was that? Hm... everything seems normal, antivirus isn't picking up anything.

10 minutes after the picture appeared on Karin's desktop.

Guys, I'm back. , we still have the raid to conquer...

Hey guys, what was that? Seriously, you're playing like... are you distracted or something?

What? Me and makeup? No way, that's like totally for girly girls, not my style at all.

Amaz2k12

After about 18 minutes.

Ohhh...
Oopsie... guys...
my character, like, totally
bit the dust again... would you mind waiting for
just 3 minutes,
pwease?

Like, what
do you mean by,
"Karin, your hair is totally blonde"? I'm not blonde, silly.

Approximately
25 minutes later

Like,
Oh My Gosh!
If you guys let my
Lady die one more time,
I won't show my titties
to you. I, like, totally swear! giggle

Even though Karin's mind has already approached the bimbo lifestyle level to a considerable extent, she is by no means a bimbo yet. However, when her shirt can no longer withstand the steadily growing mass of her breasts and tears apart, she becomes aware of what the allusions of her MMO friends, who saw and commented on her transformation online, meant...

Halftime
32 minutes.

Like, OH!
MY! GOSH!

Like, what happend to my tiddies? Dey are, like,
sooo huge an'
stuff!

Like, OH!
MY! GOSH!

And, like,
my hair too? Why is
my hair, like, soooo long,
and, like, when did
I become a
blondie?

As Karin grapples with the task of freeing her burgeoning breasts from the confines of her torn shirt, the sensation of weight and mass becomes increasingly palpable. Each movement seems to accentuate the burgeoning volume of her curves, transforming her once delicate posterior into a cushioned expanse akin to resting upon plump pillows.

After 40
minutes

Yet, as a sudden surge of growth propels her petite frame, she finds herself descending to the ground, landing gracefully on all fours. Thankfully, the impact is softened by the ample cushioning of her expanding bosom, offering both support and comfort amidst the tumult of her transformation.

Amaz2k12

Hey there,
fabulous friends!
Seriously, are we going
to keep going with this snoozefest game? Boring! How about we switch it up and make
it, like, super fun?

48 minutes
later

Amaz2k12

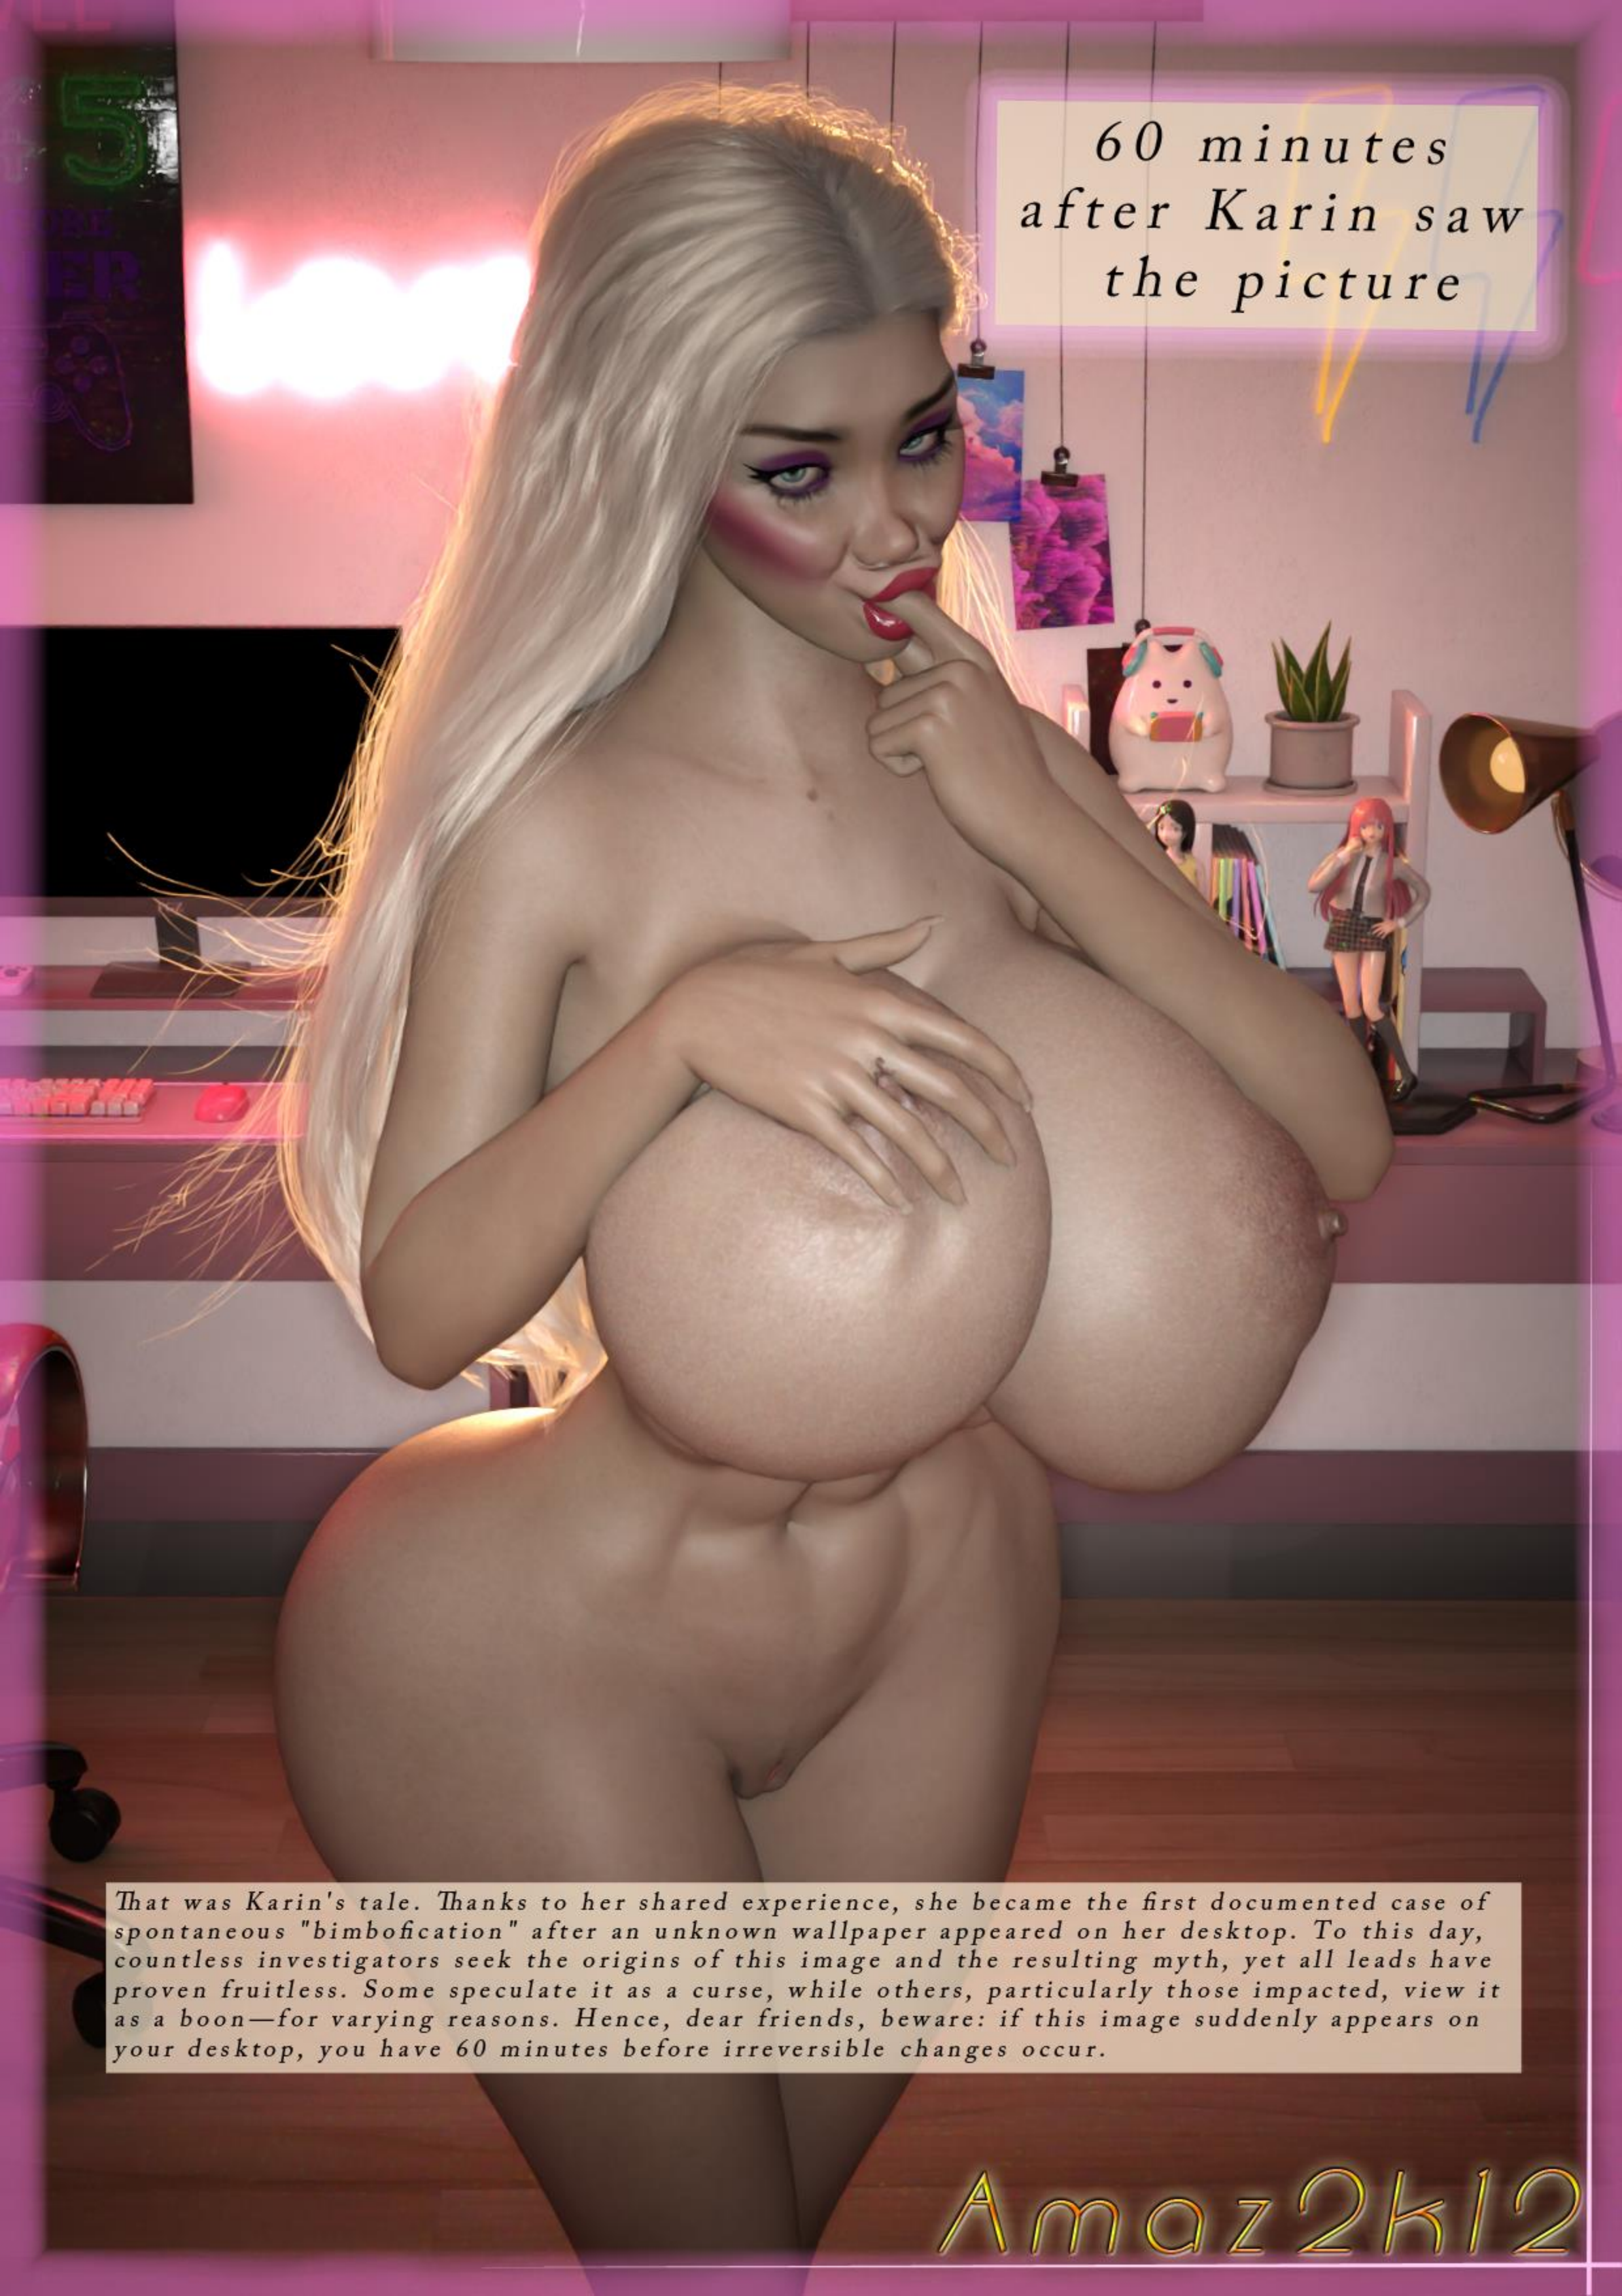

52 minutes
later

Look how,
like, super big,
my big phat titties are...
but my head is completely in a pink cloud... but I don't care
because my pussy is,
like, so totally
wet... see?

OMG, you
guys are like totally amazing! I've never seen
so many donations before - like,
should I totally stream more often?
This game is, like, sooo boring,
but streaming is, like, way
more fun... teehee!

Karin's drastically changed appearance doesn't go unnoticed on her stream. Just about 60 minutes ago, she was in the middle of a raid in her livestream, and not only has her viewer count massively increased, but she's also receiving one hefty donation after another...

A 3D rendered character with long, flowing white hair and large, prominent breasts. She is shown from the waist up, looking thoughtfully to the side with her hand near her chin. The background is a room with a desk, a computer monitor, a keyboard, and various decorative items like a small plant and figurines. The lighting is soft and pinkish.

60 minutes
after Karin saw
the picture

That was Karin's tale. Thanks to her shared experience, she became the first documented case of spontaneous "bimbofication" after an unknown wallpaper appeared on her desktop. To this day, countless investigators seek the origins of this image and the resulting myth, yet all leads have proven fruitless. Some speculate it as a curse, while others, particularly those impacted, view it as a boon—for varying reasons. Hence, dear friends, beware: if this image suddenly appears on your desktop, you have 60 minutes before irreversible changes occur.
