Sugar Pills REVENGE Part 2

Stacy ogled at herself for what felt like an eternity. She could still feel her frame expanding around her at a rapid pace, the muscles in her body bulging out larger and stronger than before with each passing moment. As her frame continued to evolve, she could feel the weight of her engorged breasts disappearing, as if she had no issue carrying it amidst the muscular frame building around her each second.

Marie however was in complete shock. In the moment, all the rage that had boiled up inside her led to a rash decision. Now, staring in the face of her greatest rival, the person who made sure her life was a living hell up to this point only growing stronger made her regret that moment of indecision. No matter how large she had become, the sight of what Stacey was becoming made Marie feel so... Small.

"I have no idea what the fuck you did to me,
but it better not fucking stop!"

"I can have anything I want with tits like these."

"If somebody doesn't like it, they'll get a nice talking to... with these fists!"

"I really have no idea what you did to me you big idiot, but don't worry, I didn't forget about you."

"Because it doesn't matter if you're taller than me now..."

"I'm still a growing girl..."

"I'm only growing bigger..."

"And stronger..."

"And more pissed off..."

"There isn't anybody who can tell me what to do now!"

"And the first person I feel like pushing around."

"Is the goofy little bitch who thought doing THIS to me was a good idea!"

"I'll give you a second to beg one time. Make it count."

"Y... You got so big..."

"I... I'm still getting big!"

"Don't think a growth spurt will save you now you dumb bitch, only means I still have some growing in me too!"

"Though I wouldn't mind a GOOD challenge out of you for once, so let's see how this plays out."

"I... I'm not growing..."

"A good challenge..."

"I think I can provide that for ya, small stuff!"

"That and so much more!"

Marie was slowly being floored by the room itself. She could feel every inch of her body expanding at the seams. Being forced against the ceiling of room only furthered her growing euphoria. Seeing Stacey, having moments ago gone on her braggadocios banter now looking stricken with terror over the words she decided to say only made the reality of the situation that much sweeter. But Marie knew from the feeling in her chest that this was just the beginning of whatever was happening to her...
