

The Best Cure is Love

Chapter 1

It was another ordinary Monday morning as nineteen-year-old Matthew Caldwell yawned and stretched his arms above his head.

"Time to grab a nice warm shower to wake myself up a little bit better," said Matthew to himself while rubbing the sleep out of his eyes.

As he stumbled half asleep out of his room toward the bathroom he could already hear the sound of falling water coming from inside.

"Great." He sighed as he walked to the bathroom door, preparing to knock a few times on it.

"Steph, could you hurry up, you know that I have classes early today and I can't be late."

After the shower turned off he heard her say, "Give me a few minutes Matt, I need to dry myself and then the shower will be all yours."

"Okay, then give a shout when you are done, I will be in my room." Matthew turned around and walked back to his room to prepare his backpack and grab the books he needed for his classes.

Matthew was a first-year med student at the local university; medicine was a passion that he'd got 'infected' with by his mother, Judith. He always thought it would be great to become someone who could help others by tending to their diseases and injuries. Another reason that fueled his passion happened just after his father had passed away, eight years ago. He had died a few months after being diagnosed with a rare, aggressive form of brain cancer. The image of his once-strong and happy father as he withered away in a few months, was always stuck inside of his mind. He swore to become a doctor, to one-day battle these horrible diseases in the hope of finding a cure.

"Matt. You can take the shower now, I'm done."

"Finally," said Matthew to himself as he walked back across the hall toward the bathroom.

Out of the bathroom came a feisty-looking redhead, wearing nothing but a matching set of white lace panties and bra.

"Hey there my lovely grumpy little brother," spoke the redhead, as she wrapped her hair into a small ponytail. "Now don't give me that annoying look, you know that a beautiful girl like me needs to have a quality shower time for herself."

"Yeah sure, I'd rather have you to take your quality shower time after I've had mine; you still have an hour before you have to go to your work anyway," he responded.

"Oh come on, Matt, I'm done now so don't get all pissed off at me."As she walked past she ruffled her hand through his short, dark hair, and gave him a playful little bump against the side of his leg with her butt. "Love you little brother," she said as she walked into her room.

Matthew could not help but to smile at her, even though she could be annoying sometimes.

The feisty redhead in question was Stephanie Caldwell, Matthew's twenty-two-year-old sister. Stephanie or 'Steph' as he and his Mom called her, was the spitting image of their mother Judith. His mother was more classy and professional housewife material, while Stephanie was more of a 'don't mess with me girl' while keeping a cute image. She was a little fixated on her body, as she worked as a model for different magazines and clothing companies. She had a few tattoos, including an amazing one honoring her father, and a pierced right eyebrow. She painted her nails black which went along with her chic image. Matthew also knew that she had small barbell piercings through both nipples. She stood out from the crowd, not only because of the red hair, but also because she had a nice, curvy, fit figure with what he guessed might be thirty-four DD breasts, that stood firm on her chest; and a great looking ass to boot. She always took good care of herself by doing yoga and working out together with her mother.

So how did Matthew know all these facts about his sister? It's simple: they shared a great bond together, especially after their father died. His passing had affected Stephanie hard.

Matthew looked up to his big sister. She was a tough woman, not afraid to stand up for herself; something he lacked. Matthew was shy and quiet around others, apart from his family and the few friends he had. Because of this his sister looked out for him in their younger years. He called her his guardian angel, which made her blush whenever he reminded her.

He heard her humming a song, as he made his way to his morning shower.

Matthew glanced at his right leg as the water rained down on his light muscled body. There on the upper thigh, was a huge scar that he had received from an accident with his bicycle as a child. The scar was another reason why Matthew was shy, even more so around girls. He thought they would find it weird and disgusting-looking.

"Well, time to get some breakfast," mumbled Matthew as he turned off the shower.

After grabbing his backpack from his room he made his way down the stairs toward the kitchen. The smell of pancakes wafted toward him, and he saw another figure with a long red ponytail standing behind the kitchen counter.

"Good morning Mom," he said as he walked toward a chair on the other side of the counter.

Judith Caldwell turned around and gave her son a smile and a wink over her glasses; she was on the phone. "Look Martin I don't care that the board came up with a sudden meeting, at least give me the courtesy to let me make my children a decent breakfast. You do know that this was supposed to be my day off after working overtime and busting my ass over the last month." Judith looked up at Matthew again, rolled her eyes and let out a sigh.

Matthew giggled at the cute face his mother made.

"Okay, I will be there in about 45 minutes; also, let them know that I won't be attending longer than a few hours, I want to spend the rest of the day with my kids at home."

Without even saying goodbye she ended the call and threw her phone back into her bag. "Sorry honey, they always know how to get under my skin, even after telling them that I had planned a free day."

"Something urgent?" asked Matthew, taking a bite out of his pancake.

"Yes, there have been reports of a new, rapidly spreading virus across the city for the last few days, so of course they plan a meeting exactly on my day off."

"Well I only have classes in the morning, so as soon you are done I will be here at home. Maybe we can do something together and relax."

Judith's face turned into a smile. "I will look forward to it sweetie, I'm in dire need of a good workout, and it's supposed to be sunny today."

"Deal," mumbled Matthew as he gobbled down another pancake.

Judith hadn't always been this cold or strict toward her colleagues, or more in general toward the outside world; nowadays, though, the only place she felt calm and good at was being home or while doing activities with her children. They had become even closer as a family, after her depression and the loss of her husband and father of her children. She had sunk into depression after the loss eight years ago, blaming herself and others for not being able to save her husband from his terrible fate. As a doctor, she took the whole thing even harder. She managed to crawl back out of that dark place thanks to both of her children; she always felt safe and secure when they were around her, and loved both of them with her whole heart.

Finding another man to be with was something she always rejected, despite Matthew and Stephanie's encouragement to start dating again three years after he had died. To her, nobody could replace him and the love she had for him.

"Earth to Mom, are you still with us?" said Matthew with a grin, as he watched her stare out the window.

"Oh, sorry honey, I was deep in my thoughts." She gave him another one of her warm smiles. "Well I got to go Matt, before they feel the sudden urge to call me again." She walked past him toward the hall, but not before planting a sweet kiss on his cheek, "Love you sweetie, I look forward to when I get back."

"Love you too Mom, see you later." Matthew could smell his mother's sweet perfume as she kissed and walked past him.

For a forty-two-year-old mother of two Judith still looked beautiful, Matthew's friends at school often called her a MILF, pissing him off in the process.

Judith was wearing a white blouse that showed off her ample bust (36DD, once again guessed by Matthew) under that a knee high tight but classy looking black skirt. On her feet a pair of high heeled black pumps that multiplied her sexiness by a lot.

Like always she wore her red hair in a long ponytail with loose strands of hair behind her ears, completing the look with her stylish glasses that she always had on, giving her an unbelievable sexy nerdy look.

Matthew was proud of her after everything she had been through. Thanks to the workouts and yoga she did with Stephanie she had a curvy and fit body equaling that of his sister, though more mature and with a few more "larger" parts.

Judith walked past the stairs toward the front door. Once there she stopped and shouted upstairs. "Steph don't forget that you have a important appointment today."

Stephanie's voice came back down at her "Sheesh Mom, I planned it myself so don't worry about it okay?"

"Just looking out for you sweetheart, good luck and see you later today, love you."

"Love you too Mom, bye."

As Judith walked out the front door she looked back at Matthew again and blew him a kiss before closing the door.

Seeing his mother off Matthew went back to eat his remaining pancake before he had to leave.

When he walked past the stairs toward the front door he heard a familiar voice shouting, "love hug." at him.

Knowing what was coming he quickly turned toward the stairs and opened his arms preparing to catch something.

Not a second later Stephanie flew into his arms with a loud giggle.

"Good thing that you still remember our childhood quirk's." said Stephanie with a grin on her face while staring into her brother's eyes as they held each other.

"Even better is that my reaction time is top notch before you managed to break both our necks." responded Matthew as he held his sister tight, not complaining as he felt her tits and hard nipples pressing against his chest.

Stephanie giggled again as she dazed into her brother's eyes for a few more seconds before giving him a sweet short kiss on his lips.

"What's that for?" asked Matthew.

"That's because you are my cute little brother, and to wish you luck today, guardian angel, remember?" Stephanie blushed as she said it.

"Well sharing is caring." said Matthew with a smirk on his face before returning a gentle kiss on Stephanie's lips making her blush even more.

"Wait, didn't you have a appointment soon?" asked Matthew as he released her from their hug.

Stephanie rolled her eyes, "I thought having one mother was enough Matthew, but to answer your question, I do have one but it has been pushed back a few hours."

"Oh, that means that you won't be here when me and Mom return, guess we will have to do something together since you will be working," answered Matthew.

"We can grab a movie or something in the evening to watch together with the three of us." said Stephanie as she adjusted her tight tank top and Daisy Dukes.

"Sounds good to me, well gotta go sis before I'm too late for class, good luck with the shoot and see you in the evening."

"See you later Matt, love you."

Stephanie closed the front door after Matthew went his way. Inside she leaned against the door letting out a sigh before sliding her hand down her Daisy Dukes toward her panties.

"Wet again..." She said as she rubbed her fingers over her pussy. "One of these days you will have to confront him with your true feelings Steph..."

She let out another sigh and started walking to the kitchen so she could eat her breakfast.

Judith was gnawing the end of her pen annoyingly as she checked her upcoming appointments and emails inside of her office at the Fairway hospital.

A couple of knocks on her door interrupted her as she heard a male voice say: "Coffee, coming in."

Martin came in with two freshly made cups of coffee and walked to Judith's desk, reaching out a cup toward her.

"Hope this will make up for the sudden call Judi, a pair of freshly made cups of coffee, none of that yucky machine made shit."

Judith's annoyed look turned into a smile again as she took the cup that Martin gave her.

"I'm not mad at you Mart, I was just pissed off at the Moment, you know how I always look forward to spending time with my children."

"I know Judi, I felt bad when the higher-ups told me to call you, knowing that you took a day off, but I had to follow the rules, being under them means slave mode," said Martin with a smirky grin.

Judith giggled knowing what he meant.

"You know this whole meeting felt as a waste of time, seeing that there is no epidemic or any important medical breakthrough, just a simple heads-up about a new sort of virus."

"I agree Mart.," said Judith while she took a sip of her coffee.

"I mean the only symptoms so far are that of a fever and in rare cases combined with small nosebleeds and throwing up, all infected patients that came in had been studied carefully not showing anything life threatening, it almost looks exactly the same as a bad case of flu and that's it."

"At least we can hope it stay's this way and won't evolve into something worse..." said Martin nodding and agreeing with Judith.

"Well I have to go Judi, another executive needs to shove their important hand up my ass to get things done, enjoy the coffee and have fun with the kids later." Martin waved at Judith as he went for the door.

"Thank you Mart and good luck today." Judith waved back at Martin with a big smile.

After Martin left she went back checking the last remaining dossiers and emails that she had to respond to.

Stretching out while letting out a yawn Judith thought about the free time she would be spending with Matthew and Stephanie once she returned home.

"Time to complete these last few files and then I will call it a day, looking forward getting out of these clothes and switching over to relax mode."

Judith finished her coffee and went back to do her remaining work.

It was lunchtime for Matthew as he sat outside the university with his best buddy Brian Turnell, catching some sun and talking with each other.

"Dude, you should let me hook up with your sister, she's a total hottie with a body to die for." said Brian with a goofy looking smile on his face.

Matthew answered: "And what makes you think she would want something with you? If you want your nuts ripped off then be my guest, I still remember her last boyfriend from a few years ago ending up with a black eye and a dislocated jaw after getting a little too touchy with her."

Brian's goofy smile faded away after he heard that.

"Yeah, I wonder why she is so cold toward other guys, looks like she doesn't really care for having a boyfriend. You know what I do notice Matt? When she's around you she always radiates some kind of happiness, smiles a lot and becomes more talkative. I wonder why..."

"Well we have been close our whole lives, even more so during and after the whole situation with my dad, I guess she just feels more comfortable around me and Mom."

"Mmm-hmm, guess so, but she still remains a hottie that I would like to... you know. Hey speaking of your Mom, she's still single right?"

"Really? Don't even go there, dude," said Matthew, slightly irritated.

"Ha-ha, calm down Matt I'm just fucking with you, we all know you are Mommy's sweet little boy."

Matthew responded with a friendly light punch against Brian's upper arm.

"Ouch, hey since when did you become this strong, have you been swallowing some magic pills your Mom can get from the hospital or something?" asked Brian as he rubbed his arm.

"My sister, remember? We workout together, you know how she did Krav Maga before modeling right? So she taught me a few tricks she learned."

"Remind me not to fuck with your sister; now I know why the poor dude became terrified of her."

Brian took a sip of his drink before looking back at Matthew.

"Hey Matt, you might want to hit the bathroom to clean up your face before going back into class, don't want to scare off our lovely female classmates do we now?"

"What are you talking about?" asked Matthew before he felt a warm liquid running out of his nose toward his mouth.

"Ah shit, a nosebleed. Guess I gotta take your advice. Don't wait for me, I'll meet you back at class, okay?"

Brian gave Matthew a thumbs-up and started walking back to the building.

"For fuck's sake, couldn't you start bleeding at the start of my break?"

Matthew held a tissue under his nose as he walked to the nearest bathroom.

Inside of the bathroom he felt himself becoming dizzy, shortly after cleaning his nose Matthew ran into the first stall and started throwing up.

"What the hell is going on with me? I felt great before lunch and now I'm here puking like a mad man, think I will visit the EHBO post before going to class."

At the EHBO post worked Linda Turnell, Brian's mother. She also was a good friend and former colleague of his Mom.

"Hello miss Turnell." said Matthew politely.

"Oh hi Matthew, and you can call me by my first name sweetheart, I have known you since the days I changed your diapers after all ha-ha. So what is going on? I don't see you often over here."

"I have no idea Linda, 30 minutes ago I was having my lunch outside with Brian and now I am feeling dizzy, throwing up and having nosebleeds. On top of that I feel extremely hot and started sweating buckets."

"Mmm-hmmm, sounds like a bad case of flu from my perspective, though I can't explain the nosebleeds...want me to take your temperature to be sure?" she asked.

"Go ahead, excuse me saying this but I really feel like shit Linda."

"I bet you do sweetie, okay let's see...yes you got a high above average temperature, like I said a bad case of flu. You can't follow your classes being like this Matthew, I'm going to inform your Professor and I want you to take a few days off."

"Shit, I can handle the classes but I promised my Mom to do something together on her day off, first Stephanie has to work till late and now I'm having the flu. She's not gonna like this, I feel bad for her." said Matthew with an annoyed sad voice.

"Oh don't say that Matthew, I know Judith better than anyone else, she loves both of you very much and I'm certain that she want's to nurse her boy and look after him."

"Guess so, but I still feel bad for her."

"You know what, I will send your mother a message while you go home, I will explain the situation to her, I'm sorry honey but in this state you won't be able to do much. Just go home, crawl under the blankets and wait for your mother to get home, she will know how to nurse you. Also don't forget to drink enough water."

"I will take your advice Linda, and thanks for helping me."

"No problem Matthew, hope to see you healthy again in a few days. And remember to drink enough water we don't want you to dry out."

Matthew sighed as he closed the door behind him. "Fuck," was all he said as he started walking toward his bicycle.

Linda grabbed her phone as soon he was gone, to message Judith.

Matthew kicked off his shoes at the front door, going straight upstairs toward his bedroom. He made a short stop at the bathroom so he could drink some water like Linda had told him.

Looking at himself in the mirror did not improve his mood at all. His face was ghostly pale, and he was still sweating buckets. "Fuck it," he said, as he removed all his clothes, not that it helped a lot, but he was glad to be out of the sweat-soaked clothing.

He grabbed an extra glass of water and took it with him to his bedroom. Once inside he crawled onto his bed naked while pulling a thin blanket over himself. "I'm sorry Mom," he thought as he looked up, staring at the ceiling.

Judith parked her car in front of the house. As she got out she saw Matthew's bike laying in the front yard. Usually he'd park it in the back yard. There was something wrong. Once Inside, she kicked of her black pumps before going upstairs. "Honey? Are you in bed?" she asked in the direction of Matthew's room.

"Yeah Mom, I'm in bed and feeling like shit," he responded.

"Okay sweetie, I will be with you in a minute. I'm going to change clothes and get you a cold, wet towel."

She stepped into the bathroom to remove her work clothes and put them in the laundry. She stripped off everything except for her black lace thong. She put on her 'relax' outfit: a pair of gray yoga pants and one of her older tank tops, which her curvy body fitted nicely. "You still got it, girl," she said to her reflection in the mirror. She walked to Matthew's room after soaking a towel in cold water. As she entered the room she could see her son's pale face sticking above his blanket.

"Surprise," he said. "Told you I looked like crap."

"I see sweetie, such a sudden change from this morning isn't it? Can you tell me what happened? Linda told me you had the flu but I would like to hear it from you."

She could see that Matthew was sweating a lot. His body odor was strong but not unpleasant; standing close to him made her feel ... hot? It was a strange experience that she never encountered before.

"I don't know exactly what happened, Mom; it started with a nosebleed after my lunch period. I went to the bathroom to clean myself up and started feeling dizzy. A few seconds later I was throwing up. I went to Linda and she took my temperature. I had a fever so she came to the conclusion that I probably have a bad case of flu."

"Nosebleed, throwing up, and a fever, mmm-hmmm. I've heard this befo -"
" she was thinking to herself when Matthew interrupted her thoughts.

"Look Mom, I feel bad and not only because I got sick, I also feel really bad for you Mom, I promised that we would do something together on your day off and look at us now, you must fee -"

She gave him a loving kiss on his forehead as she ran a hand through his hair.

"Matt, don't blame yourself honey, you simply got sick and there is nothing we can do about that. Don't even think that I'm disappointed with you, love. I can take off another day once you feel better again. Plus Stephanie's schedule got mixed up as well."

"I... Okay Mom, thank you, I love you too." She saw a smile return to his pale face.

"That's my baby." She stroked his cheek softly.

Judith placed the cold, wet towel on Matthew's forehead. "There you go sweetie, I will be downstairs to do some chores okay? If you need anything just give me a yell, Mom is going to be your personal nurse today."

Matthew's face brightened up even more as he saw his cute mother standing next to him with one of her big smiles.

"Thanks Mom, I already feel a lot better after talking with you, oh by the way, my clothes were soaked with sweat so I took them all off, I only forgot to put them into the washing machine, they should be in the bathroom."

"No problem honey, I will do that for you. You just take it easy and get better. Remember, if you need anything just let me know. I will leave the door open." She gave him another kiss on his cheek before going back to the bathroom.

Judith thought back to the meeting she had a few hours ago while cleaning up the bathroom.

"Could it be that Matt got infected with this new virus we discussed? He had all the symptoms we talked about..." Judith let out a worried sigh, "The only thing that was different was that smell he had around him, it made me feel hot, it made me feel... aroused?"

She looked down at her breasts and could see that her nipples stood out against the fabric of her tank top, she then traced a finger down her yoga pants toward her pussy. It felt wet; she was wet after being close with her son.

Shaking her head in frustration, she said to herself, "I... I... no, he's just sick. He did not do this to you. You need to focus on something else Judith." Having finished cleaning she went back downstairs and sat down in her favorite recliner. She kicked her feet up. Slowly she drifted away, still thinking about her son.

"Mom, Mom, please help me, Mooom."

Judith woke up and flew out of the recliner when she heard his cries. "Matt, I'm coming baby."

"Mom please ... It hurts ... Mom..."

She was up the stairs and in his room as fast as lightning.

"Matt, what is happeni -" She gasped and held her hands in front of her mouth. She stopped dead in her tracks..

Matthew had kicked off his blanket; lying flat on his back, she could see that he had a massive and thick-looking erection; it stood at least seven inches tall and was throbbing uncontrollably. The veins stood out down the side and a gob of precum had formed on the tip.

"Mom, I don't know what happened, I woke up to this. It hurts, Mom, and I can't control it, please do something, please." said Matthew, with a tear running down his cheek.

Judith was at a loss for words as she stared at her son.

"Mom?"

She snapped out of it as she heard him calling her again. She closed his room's door behind her and sat down next to Matthew on his bed.

"M-Mommy is here honey, I... I am here to help you like I promised. Let me s-see what I can do to n-nurse you."

She obviously knew what the problem was; Matthew's cock was throbbing violently, veins pulsing as more gobs of precum formed on his cock head. It needed release and quick too.

Judith knew she had to cross 'that' line to help her son. There was no other option at hand. She thought about calling an ambulance, but what if it even got worse or even fatal before it would arrive? Was this the doing of the virus she had learned about earlier this morning? If so, then Matthew had an extremely rare strain; previous patients had had none of the symptoms she was witnessing.

Her kids were the world to her; she would do anything to protect them from harm. Judith cleared her mind about the whole taboo thing, and decided she would go as far as she had to go, in order to make sure that her boy got healthy again. "M-Mommy is going to n-nurse you back to full health baby." said Judith as she reached out toward Matthew's throbbing cock with a trembling hand. She grabbed it tightly at the base as she slowly started stroking upwards toward his angry looking cock head that oozed with precum, she could barely hold it because of its thick girth.

She stopped at the top to spread the gobs of precum around his cock head with her thumb before repeating the stroking motions.

"D-does it feel better if I do this baby?"

Matthew was moaning softly, "Y-yes it does Mom, please keep going."

Judith sped up her stroking motions on his cock before she could smell the familiar odor again from before.

It started a reaction on her like it did earlier, but this one was much, much stronger. She could feel her body heating up and her pussy tingle with excitement. She felt her wetness becoming worse and worse as she sped up stroking Matthew's cock even faster.

"This virus is affecting other people too, at least my son's variant does, it... It makes me want to cum, I need... I need to cum." raced through Judith's mind.

"It feels so good Mom, the pain and pressure are going away, it's working Mom." moaned Matthew loud.

Suddenly Judith stopped stroking Matthew's cock making him look at her with confusion.

"M-Mommy needs help too baby" said Judith as she was breathing heavily while looking into his eyes, unable to hold back her body's urges. "Mommy needs her baby to nurse too."

Judith yanked off her tank top in a split second before Matthew could even reply.

A beautiful pair of heavy breasts with cute tiny hard pink nipples bounced in front of his eyes as his jaw dropped, forgetting the unusual situation they were in for a few seconds.

"Scoot over." said Judith with a demanding tone as Matthew moved farther to the wall next to his bed. His cock throbbing at the sight of his half naked mother.

Judith laid down next to him with one arm supporting her as she used the other to gently guide Matthew's head toward her big breasts.

"Please suck on my breasts baby, you will help Mommy too won't you sweetie?" said Judith with a aroused horny tone.

It didn't take long before Matthew cupped his mother's breasts and took one of her hard nipples into his mouth, sending her over the top as she felt her body burn.

"Ugh. Yes baby, Lick, suck and kiss Mommy's tits as she strokes that big cock of yours." True to her word she reached back to his throbbing cock and stroked it harder than she did before, making different motions with her hand to intensify the pleasure.

"Mom it feels so amazing," moaned Matthew between his licks, sucks and kisses. "You smell and taste so good, I love you Mom."

He took her hard nipples into his mouth while softly biting on them, causing another intense reaction. "Oooh yes baby, keep doing that. Mommy's tits love your attention, Ugh, yes, yes." Her yoga pants were now a soaked mess as she squirted small amounts of juice every time he gently bit on one of her nipples.

Matthew placed his feet flat on the bed in a swift motion as he started rocking up and down his hips, literally fucking Judith's hand in the process.

"Oooh you naughty boy, fucking mommy's hand as you suck her tits, ugh yes, go on baby yes."

He jackhammered away into his mother's tight soft hand while sucking her tits ferociously. After a few minutes he could feel his cock reacting.

"Ugh fuck, it's coming Mom, I can feel it, I'm going to cum from your sexy soft hand Mom."

"Do it baby, shoot that thick cum of yours all over mommy's slutty hand. Give it to me baby yesss." She screamed.

In an instant Matthew erupted with an inhumane roar, shooting thick long ropes of cum all over the place including his mother's hand and even reaching her tits.

At the same time Judith climaxed, shooting squirt after squirt of pussy juice into her already soaked yoga pants.

They collapsed next to each other holding hands, covered in sweat and breathing heavily, they both turned so they could look into each other's eyes.

Matthew spoke first. "Mom, I love you so much," he said as a new tear ran down his face.

She caressed his cheek wiping away the tear. "I love you too honey, I love you so much." She leaned forward and kissed him on the lips. Matthew responded by kissing her back. It didn't take long before they were softly moaning and rolling their tongues into each other's mouth.

After a few minutes of passionate mouth wrestling they got interrupted by Matthew who let out a high-pitched yelp as he looked down at his groin.

"Oh my," said Judith softly as she followed his eyes downward.

Matthew's cock was standing tall and proud again, the veins still clearly visible while his cock throbbed away once more. New gobs of precum were forming on his cockhead.

He turned back to his mother and started to blush. "Mom d-do you want to ha ... have..."

"What is it baby?" she asked, caressing his blushing cheek. "Don't be afraid, I'm here for you."

"D-do you w-want ... to have s-sex with me?"

She paused for a few seconds. She knew that this subject would come sooner or later.

He spoke again before she could answer his question. "I ... I never have done it before so I can understand if you don't want to, or knowing that we will cross a line even further than we already did..."

"Honey I would love to have sex with you now, I already made up my mind once I started masturbating you. My only concern is do you really want it? Your virginity is something special and should be shared with someone you truly love, not your old mother."

That last sentence lit a spark in Matthew. "You are not old Mom. You are the most beautiful woman I know. There are only two people I truly love and you are one of them. So yes Mom I want to lose my virginity to you."

Now it was Judith's turn to blush as tears rose up in her eyes. "Yes," was all she said with a teary smile to answer his first question.

He smiled back. "Thank you Mom, I love you."

Judith stood up next to the bed and pulled down her soaked yoga pants and thong in one push revealing her full curvy ass to Matthew as he watched with open eyes. She wiped away the ropes of cum that her own son had shot onto her with the now-crumbled-up, soaked yoga pants. "Guess Mommy needs a new pair," she said to herself. After cleaning herself up, she turned around.

Matthew's jaw dropped once more as he observed his mother's now-naked body. He had known she was good looking, but holy fuck, this was a whole new level. Goddess tier. Her fiery red hair remained in a long ponytail, but now with a few strands coming down around her face; she was still wearing her glasses which gave her that unbelievable sexy nerdy look, even fully naked. Her big breasts stood firm and proud on her chest as Matthew followed her fit, curvy body downward. Under her cute belly button sat a small but neatly trimmed tuft of red pubic hair, followed by an amazingly wet, glistening, tight-looking, juicy pussy. He could see her female nectar running down her thighs in small streams toward her cute feet.

"Wow Mom, I know I've been saying this a lot, but you are gorgeous." Matthew's cock throbbed even harder, squirting out a small amount of precum.

"I can see that.," giggled Judith while putting the loose strands of hair behind her ear.

"Please scoot over again honey, Mommy needs to get into "position"." purred his mother with a seductive smile.

Matthew nodded and watched what she was up to while his cock still throbbed away.

Judith crawled back onto the bed, placing Matthew's pillow against the headboard.

He didn't mind the sight as his mother's perfect ass wiggled with every movement she made.

Being happy with the result, Judith turned around and laid back down against the pillow seeing her son watching her with excitement.

"Well come on over, or are you just going to stare?"

Matthew gulped before crawling back to his mother.

Judith reached out for his throbbing cock, scooping up the gobs of precum with her hand before bringing it back and rubbing it between her large bust.

"Come closer with that bad boy sweetie, I'm going to do something that your father loved to do with Mommy."

Matthew sat on his knees in front of Judith before she placed his sturdy cock in the valley of her breasts.

She pushed her tits together by crossing her arms over her chest, trapping Matthew's cock tightly with no chance of escape.

"Now go ahead baby, fuck Mommy's big tits like you fucked my hand." Judith's eyes sparkled as she looked deep into those of her son feeling her juices running again between her legs.

Matthew started rocking his hips back and forth slowly, seeing only the tip of his cock appearing at the end of his mother's tit sandwich.

"That's it baby, Mommy's going to use her whole body to cure her sweet boy. You can go faster if you want."

"Fuck Mom, it's really tight but so soft at the same time. It's even better than your hand." moaned Matthew as he followed his mother's advice, rocking his hips back and forth even faster.

Judith looked at him with delight as he fucked her tits feeling his cock burn on her skin with every movement.

After a few minutes she stuck out her tongue, surprising Matthew by licking the tip of his cock every time he trusted forward.

"Oooh Mom, I love you." moaned Matthew even louder than before.

Judith watched in silence as her son fucked her tits even harder. Him not knowing that she had another trick up her sleeve.

As Matthew trusted back she began her surprise attack, she quickly unfolded her arms freeing her breasts and her son's cock that was stuck between her tit sandwich.

She caught Matthew's cock in her mouth with a small gag as he thrust forward, still expecting to be trapped between her tits.

"Oh fuck," he yelled as he felt his mother's mouth clamping down around his rock hard cock sucking it like a vacuum.

Matthew stopped his motion and looked at her, seeing his mother looking back at him with those sparkly eyes giving him a wink.

As if they had telepathic powers, Matthew knew what to do; he knew what his mother wanted him to do.

He stood up on the bed so he could thrust easily into his mother's mouth.

Judith gave him another wink without ever letting go of his cock, letting him know he could continue.

Matthew restarted his thrusting, but now instead of being between his mother's tits he was fucking her soft mouth.

He could feel her tongue swirling around the length of his cock as he thrust inside of her harder and harder.

Judith used every oral trick she knew to please her son.

"Holy... Shit, Mom you are amazing, ooh fuck." moaned Matthew as he saw his drool covered cock going deep in and out of his mother's mouth.

Judith grabbed Matthew's ass with both of her hands pulling him toward her and taking him even deeper into her mouth.

"Fuck mom, ooh you're going to make me cum like this," screamed Matthew as he thrust even harder into her mouth, almost his full length. "It's coming again Mom, shit oh shit, ooh Mom."

"Gvhh Mmhmy yhhhr chhuhm (give Mommy your cum)," mumbled Judith before she brought one of her fingers to the entrance of her son's anus.

When he felt her finger prodding his asshole he roared and grabbed her head, shooting jet after jet of thick cum deep into her mouth.

Judith swallowed each and every load managing not to spill a single drop of her son's man milk.

Matthew released his cock with a loud plop from his mother's mouth as he fell back down onto the bed breathing heavily and feeling dizzy.

"Mom... You... Are...amazing."

She let out a few coughs before answering.

"Baby... You nursed and gave Mommy your special medicine.," giggled Judith as she calmly laid back against the pillow feeling up her soaked pussy.

"I still can't believe this feels so good Mom, and I'm so happy I can make you feel good too."

"Then I hope you are ready for the grand finale sweetie, Mommy is getting tired after all this nursing, my boy is a tough patient." purred Judith with a seductive tone.

Matthew smiled at her before looking down his groin.

There it was again, and he couldn't believe it, his cock was standing straight up oozing precum just like it did before.

"I wonder what kind of strange virus I got infected with Mom, I mean the flu is one thing but this is on a whole other level."

"I'm amazed too honey, you had all the symptoms that I was informed of about a new virus, what we are both witnessing now hasn't been seen before." said Judith as she slowly stroked her pussy lips spreading her juices around it.

"I hope we manage it Mom, I'm already feeling a lot better and it's not really hurting anymore so I guess we are making process. It's has to calm down at one point doesn't it?"

"I hope so sweetie, like I said we still have one round to go..."

"Actual sex..." Matthew paused before speaking again.

"I'm ready Mom, I want...I want to make love to you." He blushed as he looked into his mother's eyes.

"Then come over here baby, Mommy is going to make a man out of her boy." Judith spread her soaked legs showing her tight wet pussy to her son.

Matthew crawled back between his mother's legs in no time as Judith took his hard throbbing cock into her hand.

She slapped it on top of her pussy and clit a couple of times, drops of pussy nectar and her son's precum scattered across her belly.

Then she guided it toward the entrance of her pussy, rubbing it softly against her tight pussy lips that made wet squishy sounds.

"Oh my god, my own son is going to fuck me with his big cock, I'm going to allow him to fuck his mother." mumbled Judith to herself.

"Are you really sure about his honey? we will be crossing the last line with this." she asked for one last time.

"Mom, I love you and I want this, I want you to be my first."

Judith and Matthew shared a deep passionate kiss leaving a strand of saliva hanging between their mouths when they parted.

"Then push baby...push slowly and make love to Mommy." whispered Judith softly as she braced for impact.

Filled with excitement Matthew did what she asked for, he could not believe he was about to lose his virginity to his mother.

He felt his cock being sucked inside his mother's tight wet hole, experiencing a new pleasure that overwhelmed everything they did before.

"Oh god Mom, it's so tight and wet, it feels so good Mom." moaned Matthew as he carefully inserted himself deeper and deeper into his mother's pussy.

"Ugh, slowly baby slowly, oooh god it's been so long since I did this."

"Mom I'm not hurting you, am I?" asked Matthew with a concerned voice as he watched his mother lie under him breathing heavily.

"No sweetie, it's just that Mommy has to get used to... Oh ... your hard cock, I've never had one this... Ugh ... this big and thick."

Reassured by her words, he pushed even deeper before he felt that they were fully connected, hitting her cervix with his cockhead.

"Mom. Oh Mom I'm fully inside." Matthew looked down observing their connection before he felt his mother shuddering and bucking her hips.

"Ugh. Ooohoh, I'm chuuummmmi... Ooooh," she yelled loudly as she had her first orgasm from fucking her son.

Matthew watched his mother as he felt her juices running around his cock before she started squirting against their bellies.

"Ooh. Ooh. mh mm... My. Wow... Baby, I've never ... come from someone ... just entering ... oh god ... you are a perfect ... fit." She took Matthew's face into her hands as they started kissing again while being connected deeply with each other.

After a few minutes of making out Judith spoke again: "I love you so much baby, now go ahead and start moving, Mommy is ready you."

He started thrusting slowly as she pushed her hips back, meeting his every movement.

"Yesss, that's it, keep going honey, you like being inside me don't you?"

"Oh Mom, it feels so amazing.," moaned Matthew as he increased his thrusts.

"It's like a dream Mom, I'm having sex with someone I truly love, I don't care that people say it's wrong. I love you and I love doing this with you."

"Mommy loves it too, Mommy loves having sex with her naughty boy, oh. Yes that's it baby keep going like that." She wrapped her legs and arms around her son's body, crushing her tits against his chest. "Baby, kiss me please, kiss Mommy as you make love to her."

Matthew leaned down further catching her lips with his own, they were now both gyrating their hips into each other as they kissed.

The room reeked of sex, and soft sounds of sweaty bodies slapping away could be heard inside of it.

Judith's juices were now flowing out of her pussy, soaking the bed with every movement they made.

Both were far away in their own shared world, not caring about anything that happened outside of it or anyone that would judge their relationship; mother and son connected physically and mentally, making love together.

Judith broke their kiss as she held him close, looking deep into his eyes. "It's time for Mommy to cure you sweetie, we are going to switch positions, Mommy is going to ride her baby until he feels better."

Matthew nodded as he pushed himself up, slowly sliding his hard cock out of his mother's wet pussy.

"Just give me a minute honey, you really know how to use that massive tool of yours." said Judith with a big smile as she looked up at him.

"Happy to hear that Mom, as long you gain enough pleasure from it then I am gladly to help you out with my tool."

"Oh you have no idea how much Mommy loves your help sweetie, although ... I might have screamed it out once or twice."

He laughed as he watched her blush.

"Now lay down mister, doctor Caldwell is going to give her patient a special examination." said Judith as she stood waiting for him next his bed.

"Yes ma'am." He lay down in the same position as his mother had been.

Judith climbed back onto the bed, straddled her son and aimed her tight, wet pussy at the tip of his slick, rock-hard cock. "Are you ready for Mommy? We are not making love this time baby; this time, we are going to fuck."

"You have no idea Mom, let's do it." He said excitedly as he watched her straddle him, and then run the tip of his cock along her wet pussy lips. Matthew thought back how Steph called herself his guardian angel; now he didn't mind having two of them.

The ceiling light reflected off her sweaty, sexy body, giving him a great view of her curves, her red hair even more fierce-looking than before. Further below he could see her juices dripping and running down his cock as she smacked it against her clit and pussy lips.

"Then here ... we... Go... Oooooh fuuucck." screamed Judith as she slammed herself down on her son's fat cock in one go.

Judith started bouncing up and down giving Matthew a great view of his cock going in and out his Mom's soaked tight pussy.

"Oh ... fuck... Mom... You weren't kidding when you said we were going to fuck. Oh shit Mom."

Matthew's bed started creaking loudly every time Judith slammed down onto him.

"Less... ugh ... talking and more... Oh yes ... fucking, now grab my big tits baby. Yes yes," she yelled.

Matthew leaned up and grabbed both of his Mom's big bouncing tits into his hands while trying to pinch her diamond-hard nipples.

"Yes. That's it baby, follow...ugh. Doctor Caldwell's advice, Oooh fucck." She placed her hands on top of her son's, forcing him to squeeze her big tits, stimulating her ever more.

"Such... A good...ughh...boy, yes push up into Mommy as she fucks you. oh yesss."

Matthew pushed his hips up every time his mother came down, slapping their bodies hard against each other; sweat, precum and pussy juice flew around them.

After a short while it was his time to dominate her. He released his hands from her tits as she came down, then he quickly bent his knees and placed his feet flat on the bed, making his mother fall on top of him, mashing her tits against his chest.

They now lay face-to-face, staring into each other's eyes.

"Oooh you naughty boy, what are you going to do... Oooh fuuuuucckkkk."

Matthew grabbed both of his mother's curvy ass cheeks and started pistoning hard into her pussy, lifting her off the bed.

"Yessss fuck Mommy. Fuck Mommy. Fuck Mommmmyyyy." screamed Judith at the top of her lungs.

Matthew could see his mother having orgasm after orgasm, as he fucked her harder and harder.

"I love you. I love you I love you I love youuuuu." she yelled, then kissed and licked every part of her son's face.

"Mom I can feel it again, it's coming Mom. I'm going to cum."

"Cum inside baby. Hammer away and cum deep inside Mommy's pussy. Mommy wants her son's baby batter."

"Oh shit oh shit ooh shiiit, it's here Mom. I'm... I'm cumming."

"Yesssss do it. Do itttt. Cum for Mommy. Make Mommy cum from your thick sticky cummmmmmm."

"Mooooooooooooom." screamed Matthew as he rammed his cock to the brim into his mother's soaked pussy before shooting jet after jet after jet of thick cum straight into his mother's womb.

"Yessssssssssssssssssss." shouted Judith as she felt her son's cum invading her pussy. She started climaxing, having her biggest orgasm yet, squirting a huge amount of juice on the two of them.

They both collapsed together, both shuddering and twitching from their intense orgasms, they held each other's hands as they could feel their heart's bump away.

It took a few minutes before Judith rolled off her son next to him exhausted.

Both still breathing heavily as Matthew spoke first.

"Mom... this was the best experience I ever had so far in my life, you are amazing and I love you so much."

Matthew looked down at his groin seeing his cock finally limp.

"Not only the best Mom but also the best doctor in the world, you managed to tame the beast." Said Matthew with a laugh.

She laughed back squeezing her son's hand softly.

"Told you I was going to nurse you back to full health, and don't sell yourself short honey, you were quite the lover, I've never felt this good during sex before."

He smiled as he squeezed back then realised he had come inside her.

"Eh, Mom...? I came inside you... a lot... I might have impregnated you."

"Don't worry sweetie, I can't get pregnant anymore. Your father and I decided that having two children was enough for us."

He let out a sigh of relief.

"Hey, Mom. What will happen to me now? I feel normal again, not sick like I was when I came home, but ... am I fully cured?"

"That's something that we will have to observe sweetheart, you had symptoms that no one else was diagnosed with; we managed to stop it for now, but maybe it will come back," she said, turning toward her son.

"Will you help me Mom? You know ... when I get this 'certain symptom' again?"

Judith ran her hand through his hair. "Honey I'm your personal nurse, remember?, I will be here when you need me; oh, and sweetie?" She showed him her inner thigh. "You are not the only one with a scar."

"How ... how did you know I was ashamed of my scar Mom?"

"Because I'm your mother sweetie, and I felt exactly the same when I was your age. When I met your dad he showed me not to be afraid of my body. He told me he didn't care how I looked because he loved me."

Matthew smiled as he pulled his mother on top of him so they could kiss again.

"Say, before we cuddle could you check the time honey?" asked Judith.

Matthew took his phone from his nightstand. "It's a little past four, Mom."

"Okay, so that means that Steph will be back in about three hours. Could you set the alarm for 6:15? I need to wash our clothes, and you have to refresh your bed before she comes back."

"Sure, no problem Mom."

"Now, where were we...?" she purred, kissing Matthew on his lips.

Judith fell asleep, cuddled next to him. He looked at his cute mother with a soft smile. "I'm so lucky. You're so amazing, I hope we never stop doing this together." He kissed her on her forehead before something caught his eye.

Mom had closed the door when she came in ... hadn't she?

Chapter 2

BEEP! BEEP! BEEP! BEEP!

"Oh, shut up," mumbled Matthew as he woke up from a short but satisfying nap. He reached for his phone on the nightstand and turned the alarm off.

6:15PM, just as Mom had told him ... speaking of Mom, where was she? He looked around his room. The door was now opened wide, making it clear that Judith had left. Oh right. She was going to wash our clothes after we'd 'examined and cured' each other.

He got excited again, thinking back to what he and his mom had been up to a few hours ago.

Time to take off the sheets; can't leave this worn-out, soaked stuff lying around here. He gathered everything and headed toward the bathroom, finding Judith standing there in front of the mirror, dressed in her bathrobe.

Her long red hair fell straight down her back, almost reaching her tight curvy ass. His gaze followed along and down to her amazing legs and cute little feet. He could easily see her voluptuous breasts poking out from her sides.

"Like what you see, honey?" she asked in a seductive voice, as she watched him through the mirror.

"Oh yes, Mom; every time I see you it gets better and better."

She giggled. "Nice to see that I still make an impact on young men. So tell me, how are you doing? Not feeling sick anymore?"

"No Mom, I feel fine now. You must have really cured me from that strange virus. At least I hope it worked. Like you said, we should stay alert."

"We will honey," she said as she gathered her red hair into a long ponytail. "For now I'm glad that you are okay, and remember if you feel anything strange or you start to get sick again then come to me immediately. Could you give me my spare yoga pants and tank top, sweetie? They are on the washing machine."

"Sure." He grabbed her clothes and handed them to her. "Say Mom, if I did get rid of the virus do you think we can still have se-"

Suddenly they both heard the front door open.

"Mom, Matt, I'm home! I grabbed some food on my way back here!" could be heard, followed by the sound of heels clicking on the floor.

"She's back earlier than planned, good thing I told you to set that alarm."

"Okay honey, just leave it on the kitchen counter, I will be down in a minute!" called Judith before turning back to Matthew. "Look baby, you understand that we can't let Steph know what happened today. And don't mention that you were sick; we just had some quality mother and son bonding time."

"Oh, we sure had Mom!" said Matthew with a goofy grin.

She rolled her eyes, holding back her laugh. "I'm serious Matt, not a word!"

"Just joking Mom, I perfectly understand. I don't want our relationship to end."

"That's my sweet boy." She gave Matthew a soft kiss on his lips. "Now take a shower before you come down, you still reek of sex." She threw on her clothes and made her way down to the kitchen as Matthew turned on the shower.

"So, sweetie, how was your appointment today?" asked Judith, while setting out the plates for dinner.

"Oh, just the usual job Mom, Stephanie sighed as she answered her Mother's question. "It was a shoot for a new clothing company. They requested some simple stuff. All we had to use was a green screen to add different backgrounds for each theme. They had some technical difficulties with it so that's why the job got pushed back a few hours.

"Look Mom, next time something like this happens I will cancel the appointment. I looked forward to be spending some free time with you guys."

"All three of us did, Steph, I already discussed it with Matt. I will request another day off soon so we can have our day together. I will let you know so you can adjust your schedule. Speaking of your schedule, you still have that other job tomorrow?"

"Uh, yes and no."

"What do you mean, 'yes and no'?" Judith looked at her daughter.

"You know Vanessa Jones, right? My personal photographer?"

"Oh yes, she was your old classmate, right? Of course, I remember her."

"Yup. So we had planned our shoot but she got a call today. Her parents asked her to look after her little brother. He got sick with some strange infection, and they were on a trip out of town. So, her being the good big sister, she accepted."

"Oh. Well, I can understand. I mean you probably would have done the same if Matt got sick, right?" answered Judith, blushing slightly and with a vague smile followed by a laugh that sounded suspiciously like a giggle.

"Okaaay... " Stephanie looked at her. "Anyway, I told her I could relate, being a big sister and all, so I had no problem with her looking out for her brother."

"So, what is the problem then? You got other photographers that could help you, right?"

"That is the problem Mom. The only one available tomorrow is that creepy fuck Lester Crestianos. No way I'm going to work with him since it's a bikini shoot."

"Language honey! And aren't you over-reacting a little bit too much? I mean is it really that bad?"

"Oh, you don't know him Mom, but I have seen him checking me out every time he was with us on the set. He has been ogling my ass since Vanessa introduced him to me." Stephanie stuck out her tongue in disgust, making Judith giggle at her. "But! A Caldwell does not give up that easy, so I made my own plan."

"So, tell me sweetie, what did the evil genius mastermind Stephanie Caldwell come up with?" giggled Judith again.

"Ha-ha Mom. Very funny. But to answer your question: I borrowed some equipment from Vanessa; you know, the basic stuff to make good-quality photos. I learned a lot about photographing by being together with her on most of my shoots. So, I will be taking them myself, here at home tomorrow. The weather is perfect for it."

Judith almost dropped the plate from her hands. "Oh... Okay ...Um, maybe Matt could help you with your photos then?"

"Mom, Matt has his classes, maybe if he could clone himself or something, then yes he could help me out," giggled Stephanie.

"Uh, no. He... He will be at home for a couple of days."

"Oh? What did he do? Did he burn down the university or something?"

"No... No. He, uh... He has a project running that allows him to work from home. Yes that's it, Linda's son Brian is his project partner ... he studies one subject and Matt does the other one; after a few days they have to combine their research and present it to their professor."

"Well, if he has the time for it between studying, then I guess I could use his help with it. You have to work, right Mom?"

"Yes, yes, I do, another meeting and such; it's probably going to be a long day, but I hope that I will be able to go home earlier."

Stephanie felt her pussy tingle and getting wet as she thought, "I'm going to be at home with Matt, alone with Matt, making photos in that skimpy bikini!"

Matthew came into the kitchen. "Evening ladies, is dinner ready? I'm hungry and can eat for ten."

His mother greeted him; he could see her smiling from behind the kitchen counter.

Then he spotted Stephanie, sitting with her legs crossed on one of the chairs. She was wearing her red hair in the same short ponytail as he had seen this morning. Her outfit had changed to a black tank top, showing off her beautiful breasts clinging tightly around the fabric. Her Daisy Dukes were traded in for tight light blue denim jeans that made her perfect ass even more visible. On her cute little feet, she wore four-inch, open heels that matched her top.

His cock stirred in his pants. "What the fuck is wrong with me?" He wondered. I have always seen her in outfits like this. He snapped out of his thoughts. "Hey Steph, how was your shoot toda- "

"Love hug!" was all he heard; he braced for impact as she flew into his open arms, crushing her tits against his chest. "Oh my, you smell nice little brother," said Stephanie before she kissed him softly on his lips. "I got a surprise for you Matt. What do you say to some classic brother and sister bonding time? Mom had hers today so I will claim it tomorrow."

Now Judith felt her pussy tingle, thinking back to what she and her son had been up to a few hours ago.

"What? Uh... Tomorrow? I think I got things to do tomorrow."

"Oh, Matt, you silly goose, Mom told me all about your university project. I know you got to study; but I'm sure you can take off some time for your big sister, won't you?" She made a cute pouty face while looking into her brother's eyes.

"What? My project?" His mother, still standing behind the counter, caught his attention with her nervous laugh. "Oh yes," he laughed too, "My project; of course. Uh-mmm. Sure. I can make some time for you. Why wouldn't I want to spend time with my beautiful sister? Count me in."

Stephanie made a little jump and hugged Matthew tighter, giving him another kiss on his lips. He could feel her hard nipples poking into his chest; his cock stirred again.

"Great! Now if you don't mind, I also need your help for a simple photoshoot here at home. It's nothing hard, just a few pictures of me posing. I already have the equipment so it should be done pretty quick."

"Okay that seems good to me. So what are we shooting for?" asked Matthew.

"That, my cute little brother, that is something you will see tomorrow; but I think you will like it." She gave him a wink before releasing him.

"Now let's get this dinner started; just like you, I could eat for ten."

Matthew and Judith glanced at each other before joining Stephanie for dinner.

After dinner, they moved into the living room. Matthew watched his sister claim the recliner. "Sorry Mom, but tonight I will park myself on the front row. Let's watch that movie I talked about, now that we are together," she said as she kicked off her heels before plopping down.

"Sounds good to me sweetie. Matt and I will take the couch."

Matthew snuggled up against her. Judith placed her hand in his, and their fingers intertwined.

"All right, it's starting. I heard that it's pretty good so no talking through it, okay?"

"We hear you, your highness," he said before turning his attention back to his mother.

He could smell her sweet body fragrance when he gave her a small kiss on the side of her neck. She turned her head and gave him a kiss back on his lips. Her eyes were sparkling when they met her son's. They slowly started making out, quietly moaning into each other's mouth as their tongues wrestled.

"Mom I'm getting hard." He placed her hand on his cock.

"Matt, kissing is one thing, but we can't go any further. Your sister is right in front of us!" whispered Judith.

"She can't see us from her position Mom, only if she would stand up out of the recliner and turn around. Let me handle this. I have an idea. Steph, could you turn up the volume a little higher? We can't hear the quieter scenes over here."

"Ugh... Okay it's done, now stop interrupting the movie."

"Love you too." he said before turning back to his mother. "Now, where were we with our "examination" doctor Caldwell?"

Matthew slightly lifted off the couch to pull down his own yoga pants. His hard-erect cock sprang free, releasing a small gob of precum from the tip.

Judith could feel herself getting wet again as she guided her hand toward her son's hard-throbbing cock like a magnet. "You want Mommy to nurse you again, don't you? You naughty boy of mine." She whispered with a seductive voice before circling her hands palm over his cockhead, spreading his precum around it.

"Oh yes Mom, give me your usual check-up to make sure I won't get sick again. Oh god Mom I love you."

She knew that what they were doing now had nothing to do with the situation that they were in earlier, now it was pure lust and love, wanting to make each other feel good.

Judith pulled back her hand from his cock, making him look up at her. "Sharing is caring, right? Isn't that what you always say?" She pulled up her tank top, releasing her two big breasts with a nice bounce. "Come here baby, if Mommy is going to nurse you, then you better make sure to nurse Mommy in return."

Matthew's cock throbbed even harder, seeing his mother's beautiful globes bounce in front of his eyes; her seductive voice and words made him squirt out another gob of precum.

She guided his head toward her left breast and he took her diamond-hard nipple into his mouth. "That's it baby, drink your medicine from Mommy's big tits." Of course, she could not produce milk anymore but the thought of it made her even wetter. "Ugh... Yes, baby just like that." She went back to slowly stroking her son's throbbing cock, spreading precum all around his shaft. "You like that honey? You like naughty doctor Caldwell giving her patient a special examination?" Her hand gyrated in long powerful strokes around his rock-hard cock.

"Doctor... Ugh... Caldwell is my favourite doctor, oh yes... My mom is the best doctor in the world." he moaned louder as he softly bit into his mother's hard nipple.

Judith could feel her pussy juice flowing now. "Shhh baby, not too loud." She pushed her breast harder against his mouth, silencing his moans.

He began sucking harder and faster. "Yes, like that, oh yes sweetie, you are going to make Mommy feel really good if you keep this up." She shot a quick glance toward Stephanie, making sure she was fixated on the movie.

After a couple of minutes Judith slowly pushed him away from her now drool-and-sweat-splattered breast. "Mommy needs her medicine baby, lie down on your back and keep an eye on Steph."

Matthew nodded and did as she asked.

Judith shifted to the left, facing him before lowering her mouth onto his cock, swallowing it to the root in one go.

His teeth ground against each other as he felt her sucking his cock like a vacuum between her wet lips, bobbing up and down on his shaft. He slowly rocked his hips up when she bobbed down onto his cock, mashing softly against her drooling mouth.

It was his turn to keep a close eye on Stephanie; soft gagging sounds and moans could be heard as he fucked into his mother's mouth. "Mom I'm going ... it's coming Mom, oh god." he whispered.

She could feel his cock tightening as she bobbed down one last time, keeping it down her throat without letting it go. She rotated her tongue around his shaft, bracing herself for her son's thick cum.

And then Matthew exploded; jet after jet of thick, gooey cum shot down her throat as he tried his best to stay quiet.

Judith could feel herself climaxing as thick ropes of cum shot down her throat. Her pussy squirted juice as she moaned softly with her son's cock trapped in her mouth. She managed to swallow it all before releasing his cock with a soft plop.

She rolled down her tank top and took his hand, slowly pulling him up against her. "And? Did Mommy help her cute patient with his problem? Was the examination a success?"

Matthew was breathing heavily. "Mom, you were amazing again." He quickly pulled up his pants and leaned over, planting a big kiss on his mother's lips.

"Mhmmm... Oh baby you managed to make a mess out of Mommy too." She guided his hand down her pants so he could feel her soaked pussy. "The apple doesn't fall far from the tree, right?" They both laughed softly.

Stephanie yawned and stood up in front of the recliner, stretching out her arms. "My dear family, I'm sorry but I think I can hear my bed calling for me. This stupid day made me tired so I'm going to sleep." She bent over to pick up her heels. "Mhmmm... What is that sweet smell that's hanging around here?" She looked in the direction of the couch where Judith and Matthew were sitting in the same position as they had been before their 'examination'. The room was quite dark so she spotted neither the wet spot under her Mother nor her soaked pants.

"Oh. Well Matt, being the dummy he is, spilled some of his nectar juice ... you know, the one we bought from the market." answered Judith as normally as possible.

Stephanie rolled her eyes. "Matt, first you almost forgot about your big project and now you are throwing juice around. Get some good sleep later because I need to have you concentrated tomorrow. Don't want you to break any of Vanessa's equipment, okay?"

Matthew gulped before speaking. "Oh uh, don't worry, guess I'm a little tired too from this weird day. I'm going to help Mom and then go straight to bed."

"Good to hear, now doesn't your favourite sister get a goodnight kiss?" She said as she released her red hair from her ponytail.

"Of course you do, Steph." He walked up to her for her kiss when she suddenly pulled him toward her. Her breasts crushed against his chest and he could feel her nipples once more, though this time they were even harder. Stephanie smacked her mouth against his lips, slipping her tongue inside.

Matthew could not believe what was happening. She always asked for a goodnight kiss, but now she was straight-up making out with him. What the hell was going on with her today?

Stephanie released her lips from their kiss and looked into his eyes. "I love you little brother." she said quietly before turning around. "Goodnight Mom, goodnight Matt, see you both tomorrow, love you." She walked away like nothing happened.

Judith was already busy trying to clean the couch. She did not see what was going on between her children. "Goodnight sweetie. You paused the movie, right? Oh, and Steph, could you do the cooking tomorrow?"

Stephanie's voice came from upstairs. "Yes, and yes Mom, don't worry about it."

"Good, now Matt if you want to go to bed then go ahead, I will deal with our 'results' here, but before you go please come here." She patted the place on the couch next to her.

Matthew, still a bit flabbergasted, snapped out of his thoughts and sat down next to his mother. She took his hands into hers and intertwined her fingers with his. "Listen Matt, if anything, and I mean anything happens tomorrow then call me immediately. Even with a slight headache, nosebleed or whatever, I want you to call me straight away."

He opened his mouth. "But Mom don't you thin-"

Judith gave him a kiss to silence him. "I mean it Matt, you've seen what happened between us and I don't want to see Steph being dragged into this. She might be acting tough and hard-to-get all the time, but I know my little girl and this infection does not make any difference between people."

Matthew sighed. "Okay Mom, I promise. If anything happens I will stay away from her and will contact you."

She softly caressed his cheek. "Thank you honey, now give Mommy a kiss." They both locked their lips together and made out for a few minutes before he stood up, ready to go upstairs.

"Goodnight Mom, I love you."

"Goodnight sweetie, I love you too. Sweet dreams." She returned to cleaning as Matthew went upstairs.

"What a crazy day it was. Wonder what tomorrow will bring you Matt" He thought to himself before falling asleep.

*****

"Wake-up Matt. Come on little brother, we both overslept a little."

Matthew felt a soft hand running through his hair. His eyes opened slowly, followed by a short yawn. Stephanie sat next to him on his bed in nothing but a bathrobe, the same one his mother had. He first focussed on the cleavage spilling out over the top of her robe before looking up into her big green eyes. "Good morning, Sis. Forgot to set the alarm. I slept like a log, though."

"Same here. I was physically drained yesterday. But I'm looking forward to our 'bonding' day," she said with a big smile. "Look, you can take a shower first; I will make us some breakfast in the meantime."

"You sure? I don't mind making breakfast," he said, rubbing the sleep from his eyes.

"No, it's alright. Gives me some extra time to go over the camera equipment as well. I will input the right settings on the camera so we won't have to do that before the shoot. Then I take my shower after our breakfast so I can get into the bi... Uh, the clothes right away. The only thing I ask of you is if you could prepare the rest when I'm upstairs."

"Like the tripod that I saw? Yeah, I can do that, want me to set it up outside or do you want me to wait for you?"

"Uh, yeah about that, I was thinking to shoot some pictures inside first, those can always come in handy for the client. But other than that, I would be happy if you could set it up." She stood up next to his bed and gave him a soft kiss on his forehead, showing off even more cleavage.

"Anything for you, Steph. I look forward to shooting those pictures."

"I bet you do, and you are not the only one." Giggled Stephanie. She spied an empty glass lying on the floor in his room. "Ugh... Matt how many times do I have to tell you to bring your used glasses back downstairs?" She bent over to pick it up.

"Oh yeah... Uh, sorry about that, I was really thirsty yesterday so I to-" His sentence was interrupted because of the sudden sight before him.

Stephanie was bare-naked under the bathrobe. He could easily see her on full display as she picked up the glass. Her perfect little ass and her amazingly smooth-shaven, tight, and juicy-looking pussy were now a few inches away in front of him. He could even see that she was slightly moist down there.

"See something you like little brother?" She purred softly to herself as she stood back up and turned back to him. "You heard me, right? Next time, bring them downstairs."

"Uh... Oh yes, d-don't worry, I will not forget it next time," Matthew laughed nervously.

"Good. Now go take your shower and I will see you at breakfast."

"Oh. Okay I will be done in a bit." He said as he watched his sister walk out of his room. "Is she doing this on purpose? I'm sure she knew she was naked under her bathrobe. First that kiss... And now she's showing me her pussy. What the hell is going on?"

"Well Judi I hope you had a good day with your kids because we are in for a treat today," spoke Martin as he took another big gulp from his coffee.

"Oh y-yes, it was a wonderful day, Mart. We did a lot of uh... Activities together." Judith laughed lightly.

Martin looked at Judith, an eyebrow raised. "Are you okay, Judi? You seem a little out of it. You usually are ready to tear one of the board members a new asshole because of meetings like this."

"Oh, we just did ... like I said, a lot. Guess I'm just a bit tired, that's all. Anyway, you said something was coming up?" she asked as she sipped from her coffee.

"Yup, John-fucking-Keating. Does the name ring any bells?"

Judith rolled her eyes with a disgusted face. "Ugh. God, not that guy. I was so glad he was transferred up state to the Green Pike Hospital. You remember how he always used to hit on me, claiming he would be the 'next-best-man' for me? Stephanie told me she would rip off his nuts if she ever met him, saying that he insulted dad with his words."

Martin laughed. "Oh I remember that little girl. Cute-looking; but tough as nails, and she had a good mouth on her, not afraid to speak her mind. Well, I can't say she was wrong with the words she used. Many people here thought - and still think - the same."

"She still is a sweetheart though, it's just... Stephanie changed a lot after Jeremy died. She became much more aggressive to the outside world, I guess me being in the same mindset during my depression rubbed off on her. I think she wanted to show me how strong she was as a person during that time. I mean she, as a fourteen-year-old girl, took care of the house and her little brother Matthew while I was a sobbing mess. People still judge her based on her appearance and personality to this day, while they have no idea what she went through."

Judith took off her glasses as a tear streamed down her face. "God. Never thought I would hear from that asshole again. Told you he was bad for me. Even his name makes me cry." She gave him a small smile as she wiped away the tears.

Martin stood there quiet for a while, letting her calm down. "You know what, Judi? I will go to that meeting for both of us. Then afterwards, I will come back here with the notes on what was being discussed so we can look it over. People here know what happened between the two of you; so I'm sure they don't mind you not attending."

"I... Thank you, Martin."

"No problem Judi, that's what childhood friends are for. Now here, have another one of my amazing coffees. Relax a little. I will be back before you know it, and I will make sure to flip him the bird while we are at it."

She was now laughing again. "Be sure to do it. Oh, before you go Mart, what will they be discussing, exactly?"

"Ah, almost forgot about the reason why we are here today. It's about that new virus that has been going around. They had patients with new symptoms up at the Green Pike Hospital. They also managed to make rough statistics based on patients across the whole country. So, who knows what they found out."

Matthew came to mind with Judith. "Maybe they have discovered something that comes close to the symptoms that Matt had." She felt her pussy tingle, thinking back at what happened yesterday.

"Interesting... Well, good luck Mart. And I hope to see you back, in a bit."

"I will, as soon Mister Keating's ass has left the building. Take it easy, Judi." He waved at her before leaving her room and closing the door behind him.

Judith looked at the photo of Stephanie and Matthew on her desk. "Please be okay, my babies."

Matthew took a big bite out of his pancake while watching Stephanie making more of them. She hummed a song as she worked the burners. She was so like his mother: her hair, the shape of her body, her big green eyes, and the sound of her voice. The only difference was height: Judith was taller by a few inches.

"You know, this reminds me of when Mom was... Not herself, after Dad died."

Stephanie stopped for a few seconds, taking in his words before turning off the stove. She took her plate with pancakes and sat down next to him at the kitchen counter. "You're right. I was thinking about the same thing, when I started making pancakes. Back then, you were a hyperactive shit-head running around me, asking if they were done every ten seconds." She smiled. "And look at you now: being a good boy, eating in peace."

Matthew smiled back at her. "Yeah. Sorry about that. You know how kids are at a young age. Though I'm glad you were there, Steph, being a second Mom for me when everything was a mess. My guardian angel."

They sat together, silent for a while.

Stephanie dropped her fork and stood up from her chair. She turned to Matthew who now could see that she was crying. She walked up to him and threw her arms around him, burying her face in his neck and started sobbing.

He did not say anything and pulled her onto his lap. He held her close as he felt her tears drop on his shoulder. The only sound in the kitchen was Stephanie's sobs as Matthew slowly rocked her back and forth.

"I ... I'm sorry Matt. You know thinking back to those times makes me emotional, everything just came out now, years of pent up frustration came out," said Stephanie after a few minutes.

"Steph, you don't have to apologize, you should not be ashamed to cry."

"I know, but it's hard for me: Miss Don't-Give-A-Fuck, crying her eyes out. I know you always looked up to me Matt, seeing me like a role model..."

"And I still do Steph, and I love you no matter what. Cry when you need to cry. I won't think any less of you; you always will be my beautiful big sister, my guardian angel..."

"Matt..." Stephanie started sobbing again, now tears of happiness and love streamed down. She took Matthew's face into her hands and slowly kissed him on his lips.

Matthew pulled her close and returned the kiss, he slipped his tongue inside her mouth. She moaned softly and responded by using her own tongue. They were now making out. Brother and sister getting closer with each other, another forbidden kind of love, but they couldn't care less.

She let go after a while. "I ... I guess I need to take that shower, get ready for the shoot." She said quietly while blushing.

Matthew wiped away her tears. "You should. Those photos are not going to shoot themselves, you know. You go get that shower and I will prepare everything."

She let go of him and smiled before walking toward the stairs. She turned around at the bottom. "Matt. I love you... So much."

He smiled at her. "I love you too, Steph."

*****

Judith was busy with her computer when someone knocked on her door. "Judi, I've survived the meeting and I managed to give Johnny boy the finger, can I come in?"

"No problem Mart, come on in." She answered.

Martin came inside with a pile of files and documents, he took a seat next to Judith and placed the pile on her desk. "Here you go, all the statistics, analyzations and patient documents. Thank the lord that meeting is over." He sighed.

"Was it that bad? Why do I even ask, with someone like Keating in the room I can pretty much guess how it went." She said while overlooking the documents.

"Oh Judi, you should have seen him, He has not changed a bit from when he worked here. The man still does not understand the concept of teamwork and kept rambling on and on how "he" discovered this and that about the virus. Remind me to take duct tape, or even better, a stapler next time to shut his big mouth."

Judith giggled, imagining Keating being strapped into an office chair with duct tape covering him from top to bottom. "So, did he ask for me or something?"

"Nope, but he sure was scanning the room when everyone came in, he expected you to be there since your name was mentioned in one of the emails about the meeting. He then tried to shift his attention to Lindsey, but you know how she is."

Now she started to laugh. "I would like to see him try going up against her, he would turn into a permanent resident at our morgue here... Anyway, enough about Keating, can you brief me on the important parts before we go through this pile?"

"Sure, I still need to go over them myself so I will tell you the two important parts that were discussed at the meeting."

"Anything Special?" Asked Judith with a slightly concerned look.

"Well, it's something we have never witnessed before so I guess it is."

"So, first is that they found out which gender is affected the most so far, after the outbreak of the virus a few days ago. Ninety-two percent of the victims are male, young or old, it does not matter. Remember, these are statistics from across the whole country, so when you compare the numbers it is quite rare for females to get infected."

"Second part is that most patients suffered from poor blood circulation through their body after they went through the first symptoms, you know, those that we knew of, fever, nosebleeds etcetera. This caused numbness, stinging pain in limbs and muscle cramps. Even a few patients were unable to move around at all for a while because of this, I tell you Judi this virus is something else."

"Now nothing so far has been life threatening. For some it lasted a few hours while others had it for a few days. After that stage, their bodies went back to normal, no fevers or nosebleeds, their blood circulation was steady and so far, it is unknown if the virus is gone or if it will start affecting them again."

Judith nodded while she thought back at how Matthew was unable to move himself after he called out for her to help him. She was certain that he went through the stage that Martin just told her about.

Still, this did not explain why he also had a huge erection when she found him. That had to mean that the blood flow to his penis had to be extremely increased instead of being slowed down. There also was the body odour he produced that made her want to do the things they did. Was he a step ahead in stages or did he really suffer from a unique variant?

"This whole virus gets weirder by the day." She said softly as she looked at the picture of her children.

"Yup, and that's why we are here, to find something to prevent it from spreading, to counter it and, to eventually cure it. So, you ready to conquer this pile Judi?" asked Martin.

"Yes, let's start. The faster we are done the better, it's probably going to take a while to get through all of them. Say could you make us some of your delicious coffee before we start?"

"Now you mention it, good idea. Give me five minutes and I'll be back with a full pot. You want something to eat while we are at it?"

"Uh sure, just grab me some sandwiches from the cafeteria." Martin nodded and went out of the room. Judith opened her bag and took her phone out.

Matthew was busy setting up the camera, he already attached the tripod and was now putting on the correct lens for making indoor photos.

"Looks good if I say so myself, maybe I should go with her sometimes when she has a shoot somewhere, I don't think she would mind, especially after what happ-

Then the house phone went off. The phone's melody came from the kitchen where it rested on the counter. "It's probably Mom." He thought to himself before entering the kitchen and picking up the phone.

"Caldwell residence, you're speaking with Matthew."

"Hi sweetie, Mom here. Just checking in on you. How's it going? Still doing okay? Tell me you are okay honey."

"Calm down Mom, I'm fine, still feeling the same as I was this morning, no fever or nosebleeds or whatever. I'm busy setting up everything for the shoot here."

"Oh... Thank god, that's good to hear," spoke Judith with a relieved voice. "And Steph? is she doing okay? Did she make breakfast for both of you like she promised me?"

"She's doing okay as well Mom, she's preparing for the shoot now, and yes she made us pancakes, you better watch out for her Mom, she has some serious pancake baking skills, rivalling the ones that you make." The only thing he could really think about is the make-out session they had during breakfast.

"Great! It's good to hear that you and your sister can get along so well, now before I go honey, please remember if anything happens-"

"Then I will call you immediately." He interrupted her before she could finish her sentence. "Don't worry so much, Mom. If something happens then you will be the first to know."

"Alright honey, I trust you. I will be home late since we got a lot of new information to go through. Be a dear and help your sister with dinner, will you?"

He smiled and laughed. "I will Mom, we have been helping each other through the day, I had no problem helping her with all her needs so far."

"What's that supposed to mean? Oh, one of your silly jokes again... Anyway, give Steph a big kiss from me and I will see you both tonight. Love you sweetie."

"Love you too Mom, see you later." Matthew placed the phone back on the counter and returned to adjusting the camera.

*****

"God Steph, when will you tell him your true feelings? You even made out with him for Christ's sake. And now it comes to this? You are going to seduce him in this skimpy bikini? Just grow a pair and tell him the truth girl..."

Stephanie was busy applying her make-up for the photoshoot, it was true, her client really requested a shoot in this bikini, but deep down inside of her she knew that that was not the only reason why she accepted it.

The bikini was small, very small. The bottom just barely covered her pussy and ass, her hips were only covered by two thin strings tied together on each side. If this did not get his attention then the top would certainly. Just like the bottom, her top only covered her nipples and a small part around them while the remaining flesh of her big tits stood out proudly.

It perfectly showed off her fit and curvy body, the dark colour matched her black nail polish and her red hair made sure that she would be the centre of attention.

She felt that her pussy was moist and that her nipples were pushing against the small patch of fabric that covered them. "It's just like when I kissed him, and that smell he emitted, it made me so... So horny, I felt so aroused by just smelling his fragrance." She took a deep breath as she watched herself in the bathroom mirror "It's now or never Steph, no turning back anymore."

She left the bathroom and walked downstairs to the living room.

"Alright, camera is ready, couch is moved out of the way and the lighting is perfect. Now all I have to do is wait for Steph and we can start the show." mumbled Matthew to himself.

"M-Matt, I'm ready for us to m-make the pictures." He heard his sister say behind him before he turned around. "Good Steph, I just finished settin-" He stopped mid-sentence to take in the sight that he was witnessing. "Holy shit Steph..." He could feel his cock throb again as he watched his sister stand in front him, almost naked.

She looked shyly at the ground, her face becoming more blushed by the second. "S-surprise little brother, D-do you like it?"

Matthew was lost in his thoughts. "Goddamn, she's so beautiful, I can feel myself growing hard by just watching her. Why am I so attracted to her? I never felt like this before... Damn, is it me or did somebody turn up the temperature?" He could feel himself starting to sweat.

Stephanie rubbed her thighs together slowly, she could smell it again, the same fragrance from before but now even stronger. Her pussy was now reacting when she looked at her brother, she could see the outline of his cock that pressed against his pants. "M-Matt I asked you a question, d-do you like my bikini?" She asked again, trying to shift her focus.

He snapped back out of his thoughts. "Oh... Y-yes, sorry I was a bit overwhelmed. I did not expect this to be the subject of our shoot. But yes, Steph you look b-beautiful in it, you have an amazing body sis."

"T-thank you Matt, so s-shall we start? Is everything ready?"

"Y-yeah, I set it up just like you told me, we are ready to go." He turned on the camera, adjusted the lights and then gave Stephanie a nervous smile and a thumbs-up.

She walked past him to the centre of the room. He closely watched her every movement with delight as her tits bounced with every step she took. "I-I will start with some standing poses and after those we can make some with me on the couch."

"S-sure Steph, you know what's best." he said as placed himself behind the camera. "Go ahead, I'm ready to shoot."

She took on a variety of different poses, some of it were close-ups from her chest and face, for other ones she turned around to show off her backside and ass. Doing this in front of her brother made her more aroused with every pose. Was she doing this for the sake of better pictures or was she trying to get her brother's attention even more?

"Y-you are doing, g-great sis, I got some... Really nice... S-shots." Matthew felt himself losing focus, he started breathing faster and he could feel his limbs becoming heavier while his cock began to harden and throbbing wildly. "Fuck no, not now, shit... I'm going to..." He lost his balance and slowly slumped down against the couch that was behind him. "God... It's hurting... Again, got to... Call Mom."

"You think we should go on to the couch shots now Matt? ... Matt?" asked Stephanie, waiting for his response. She was still standing in a pose facing the wall before she turned around.

"Matt did you not hear me? I asked if we shoul-" She stood still for a few seconds before realising what had happened. "Matt!" She flew next to him on the floor and took his hands into hers.

"Steph... Listen... I want you... To get the phone... And call Mom," he whispered with a trembling voice. "Steph... Get Mom on... The phone."

Stephanie was panicking as she sat next to him, tears starting to appear in her eyes. "God... I-I must help him... What should I do? Just like Mom? Or call her? Make up your mind Steph!" She could see his rock-hard cock throbbing away, a large wet spot formed on the front of his pants. The smell was now intoxicating, she felt her pussy juice leaking out.

"Steph! Goddamnit... Get... The phone." Matthew watched his sister sitting next to him, he felt her hands gripping his tighter and tighter. "Steph! Get phone... Call Mo-"

"I'VE SEEN IT, MATT! I'VE SEEN AND HEARD EVERYTHING!"

Matthew became silent as he felt Steph's nails dug into the skin of his hands, he watched his sister confess, tears streaming down her face. "I-I've seen it all Matt, you and Mom. In your room, on the couch, that virus that you both talked about. I know everything, Matthew."

"I'm not going to run away from my feelings anymore Matt, this time I'm going to help you, just like I always did when you were younger. I'm your guardian angel." She reached for the strings on both of her bikini top and bottom. "This time, I will take Mom's place."

"Steph..." He watched her remove both pieces of her tiny bikini. His jaw felt open.

Just like his mother she had a beautiful pair of full breasts, she even inherited the same cute small nipples from her, though Stephanie's had small barbell piercings through both. Further down he observed her well trained body before he reached her special place. She was shaven smooth, he could see the juices dripping out of her pussy. "It's having the same effect on her..." He thought.

He did not protest as his sister reached out for his pants. "Let me take care of your clothes little brother..." With a swift motion, she took off both his pants and underwear. He tried to get rid of his shirt himself but he was too weak to lift his arms. "I got you..." Was all she said before taking off his shirt.

And there he was again, naked and with a mean looking erection that throbbed away. Just like yesterday it started producing gobs of precum on the tip while veins popped out and pulsed alongside his shaft.

"Let big sis help you..." said Stephanie as she straddled his lap. She threw her arms and legs around him, this allowed her to start rocking her wet pussy lips up and down against the shaft of his cock. "Ugh... Oh yes little brother this feels so good."

Matthew could feel her wetness spreading around his shaft as his cock throbbed and slapped against her pussy. Precum and pussy juice splattered around between them.

He was not thinking straight anymore and leaned forward to take one his sister's diamond-hard nipples into his mouth. "Ooooh yesss Matt, that's it, suck my nipples hard, yesss, big sis loves it when you do that." She started kissing the top of his head and forehead while he sucked harder on her nipples, switching between them both after a few sucks.

"I've waited so long for this Matt, you have no idea how long I lusted for you." Hearing these words coming from her made him want her even more. He started rocking his own hips up and down so his cock and her pussy were now rubbing even harder, faster and tighter against each other. "Yes, do it Matt, rub my tight little pussy with that fat cock of yours, oooh yesss."

After a few minutes he could feel the strength in his arms coming back, was doing sexual activities some kind of antidote against the virus? Whatever it was, he had his sights on only one thing, giving his sister all the pleasure she deserved.

He grabbed both of her ass cheeks and pulled her even harder against the shaft of his cock. "Ooooh Matttt, yesss, you're rubbing me so goood." Stephanie threw her head back as she felt her pussy starting to squirt each time they rubbed against each other. She pushed her big tits into his face and Matthew used that opportunity to softly bite on her rock-hard nipples. "Aaaah, you're driving me crazy, oh yes Matt I'm... I'm going to cum, you are going to make your big sister cum all over your cock."

He could feel her shuddering before she let out a huge roar, "Oooooo Matttt I love youuuuu!" she started climaxing, shooting out a fountain of pussy juice onto both of their lower bodies and soaking the carpet under them. After what felt like an eternity she felt forward into Matthew's arms, breathing heavily and still twitching from the intense orgasm she just had. "She also is a squirter, coincidence or not?" Thought Matthew as he held his sister tight against him.

Stephanie looked up into his eyes after she recovered from her orgasm, he could see that hers were now sparkling with love and lust. Without saying a word, they both mashed their lips together and started making out, moaning softly as their tongues wrestled into their mouths. Matthew pulled her even closer, he felt her pussy lips sliding over his cockhead as he did so, his wet-hard cock plopped between the crack of her ass while her tits smashed against his chest.

They sat there for a while, running both their hands over each other's body, exploring every nook and cranny while staying connected with their mouths.

Stephanie released their kiss and spoke first. "Matt, I love you so much, ever since you told me that I was your guardian angel I started having even deeper feelings for you, it got worse as I saw you grow up, my little brother becoming an adult." She softly caressed his cheek.

"Steph... I-I never knew you had these feelings for me, I mean we always have been close but this... This is something on completely different level."

"You don't like it?" She said with a sad pouty expression.

"No... No, not at all. I'm glad we can do and that we did this now, I mean I love you and you are very important to me, but why did you never come to me and told me about your feelings?"

She let out a small sigh before she answered him. "Look Matt, I might not be such a bad-ass, big-mouth sister after all, I simply could not tell you, I was afraid you would find it disgusting and weird and that you would hate me if I ever told you."

Matthew stroked a few strands of red hair back behind her ears that were covering her face. "Steph... I could never hate you, you know how close we are and we always shared everything, no matter the subject. I'm sure I would have listened and understood your feelings. But what did change your mind so suddenly?"

"Yesterday changed everything Matt, after I came back early from work I could hear you two going at it upstairs. I was shocked at what I saw when I peeked inside your room. It was right before the first ejaculation that Mom gave you. I was frozen from that moment and did not leave before you two fell asleep. I heard and saw everything Matthew... I even started playing with myself and came every time you both climaxed. After that I went out again, trying to take in everything I just witnessed."

Matthew felt her hugging him tighter as she told her story to him.

"I... I guess I became jealous of Mom, I lusted so long for you and seeing her doing all those things with you fuelled my fire. I know she started out with helping you because of the things that virus did to your body." She looked down and could see that his cock was still in the same state as before. "But it affected her too, just like it does to me now. After that first ejaculation you both changed, it was no longer just helping you out. You continued making love with each other, trying to give each other pleasure. And that's exactly what I longed for, making love with you. Now you must understand Matt, I love Mom and always will, but, at that moment it felt like betrayal. She got something what I wanted so bad but never dared to go for. That's why I gave you that extremely awkward goodnight kiss, that's why I showed you my pussy and that's why I broke down at breakfast and made out with you... And look at us now... Finally."

New tears ran down the side of her face as she looked back into her brother's eyes. They both leaned forward and gave each other a long sweet lovers kiss.

"And look at us now..." repeated Matthew softly after they broke their kiss.

He suddenly stood up while holding onto Stephanie, he lifted her up with him before he dropped himself and her horizontally onto the couch. She looked at him with confusion as she laid on top of him.

"Look at us now Steph, I'm going to make love to you. I'm going to give you the pleasure you deserve and longed for all this time." She gave him a big teary smile before giving him another kiss on his lips. "Thank you, Matt... I love you."

"Anything for you sis, I love you too. So... Could you turn around? I want to sixty-nine you."

She purred in response to his request. "Oh, little brother... you have no idea how much I want to." She turned herself hundred-and-eighty degrees, placing her soaked pussy in front of his face while she now witnessed his hard-throbbing cock a few inches from hers. "It's sooo big little brother." She giggled before running her tongue over his cockhead, spreading the precum around it and tasting it in her mouth. "You taste so good Matt, it's time for big sis to make you cum and shoot your sticky load, mhmmm."

"Likewise, sis, you got some delicious looking pussy on you." Matthew felt and saw the drops of pussy nectar fall onto his face while small streams leaked down her thighs.

"Ladies first" Said Stephanie with a cute voice before she took his cock into her mouth, twisting her tongue around the shaft while she bobbed up and down.

"Oooh fuck Steph, that feels so good, I love your mouth sucking on my cock." Moaned Matthew loud. "Ugh here... Let me return the favour." He spread her pussy lips with his fingers and started licking up and down her slit, poking his tongue onto her erect clit every time he came across it.

She started moaning but refused to let go off his cock, the vibrations she made doing so made him moan even louder, the feeling was so overwhelming that he started to trust his hips upward into her mouth. She followed his motions and lowered herself onto his mouth, gyrating her own hips onto his face while he still used his tongue to pleasure her.

They both went at it like this for a while, their hips gyrated and thrust harder and harder as they got more and more pleasure. Stephanie was now deepthroating Matthew while he multitasked by using his fingers on her clit as his tongue ravaged through her pussy.

Stephanie released her brother's throbbing cock from her mouth with a loud plop. "Yesss Matt, that's it, lick your big sister's wet tight juicy cunt while she sucks your fat cock!" She loved talking dirty to him, it made her ever more aroused. "Keep this up and you are going to make sis cum again." She focussed her attention back on his cock and took it all the way in, sucking it vacuum with her mouth.

Matthew lifted her a little. His face was soaked with his sister's pussy juice. "Keep going Steph, make your little brother cum with your soft sexy mouth!" He let her go and she fell onto his face again. He went back to licking her pussy while his left hand played with her clit and his right hand grabbed a handful of tit flesh from her right breast.

They could feel their orgasms coming up, Matthew's first and Stephanie's second. both placed a finger right onto the entrance of each other's asshole preparing to give the final push toward climax.

Matthew sunk his thumb into his sister's asshole with one swift motion, her eyes shot open and she followed her brother's action by pushing her own finger inside his.

This was the final straw for him, he bucked his hips up and started unloading shot after shot of thick gooey jizz into his sister's mouth, he was certain that she was going to swallow it as her mouth got even more tight around his cock.

He now felt his sister bucking and grinding her hips against his mouth. Matthew's cock plopped out of her mouth and she started screaming loudly, a small amount of his cum ran down his shaft. "Fuuuuuckkkkkk, Matthewwww!" spray after spray of juicy pussy nectar shot in his mouth and across his face as Stephanie screamed her lungs out.

They both were breathing heavily now, she rolled off his face so he could breathe freely without drowning in her pussy and her juices. Matthew took her hand into his and held it tight. She responded by squeezing back at him.

"My god... Steph... That was one amazing orgasm..." She turned around so that they were now laying on top of each other again. "Please give me a clear warning when you open the floodgates next time, you almost drowned me!" Stephanie giggled. "Then please be a gentleman next time and do the same for me little brother, your poor sister almost choked on your spunk, good thing that she likes it so much." They were both laughing now. Matthew ran a hand through his sister's hair and she did the same to him before they gave each other another deep kiss.

"Steph, I'm so glad that you told me how you really feel, I love doing this with you, you are amazing sis." She cuddled up to him. "I feel the same way Matt, I don't want this to end between us. I want to be with you forever."

She looked down and saw her brother's cock standing full mast again. "Oh my..." She spoke with a soft voice. "Hey, that's the same thing Mom said, seeing it like that after my first ejaculation." Matthew had a goofy smile on his face. She looked back up to him. "It's amazing, you just shot a huge load and now it's ready for round two? Does that virus increase your stamina or something?"

He sighed. "I have no idea Steph, I guess it does but if it weren't for you or Mom then I would be in a world of pain. It's fucking weird..."

She nodded, then started to blush. "So, Matt... Does this mean that we will go...? You know, all the way?" She took hold of his hand and squeezed it tight.

"I'm up for it, I would do anything to make you feel good Steph, so yes I would gladly make love to you." He felt her squeezing even tighter.

"Matt I... I'm... I never went all the way... I'm still a virgin..." She confessed quietly while biting her lip.

"So? I still was one yesterday, are you ashamed of it or something?"

"Well... No... Uh yes... I guess so... I mean I'm your big loudmouth-tough sister. I... I just wanted to save it for someone special, someone that I truly love. Oh god, that sounds so cheesy..."

"I think it's cute Steph. That shows that there is this cute, romantic side hidden behind the tough sister I know. A side that only I got to see so far." Stephanie blushed even harder as she gave him a light punch on his chest. "I-Idiot..."

Matthew laughed, seeing his sister acting all cute and innocent. "Then let me rephrase my answer into a question for you my dear sister. Stephanie Caldwell, I would do anything to make you feel good, will you accept me as your first and make love together?"

"Jesus Matt, and I thought I was cheesy..." she rolled up to him and gave him another deep kiss. "I think that say's enough, doesn't it?"

"I guess it does." he answered before pulling himself and Stephanie up into a sitting position. Matthew sat down against the back of the couch and placed her onto his lap, facing him. Her wet pussy was now grinding against his hard-slick cock shaft, just like it did the first time. "Are you ready for this Steph?" He asked as he held her tight against him.

She nodded and lifted herself up, placing her pussy lips on top of his cockhead. His precum and her juices came together, dribbling down his cock. "I'm ready Matthew, I dreamed of this and it's finally coming true... Make love to me little brother..."

Stephanie slowly sank down onto her brother's hard cock. "Shit Steph, you are so tight..." He could feel her pussy gripping his cock like a vice, Judith was tight after not having sex for eight years, but he experienced a whole new pleasure with his sister's virgin pussy. "M-Matt guide me... Please hold me." She asked him with her eyes closed.

He took hold of her ass and slowly guided her down his cock until they both felt resistance. He was at her hymen. He tried to penetrate even slower but Stephanie forced herself down onto him. She let out a sharp pitched yelp as she kept on pushing herself down until they were fully connected "Aaaah... Ooooh... Matt... Ugh..." She was twitching and had buried her face into his neck, her breathing became slow and heavy.

"Steph? Are you okay?" He asked with a concerned voice.

She answered him after she calmed down a little. "I-it's so... Big... How can something... Like that fit? Oh god Matt..." She started kissing his neck softly, working her way up while he was still buried deep inside of her, feeling both of their combined juices leaking out of her pussy, onto his legs and the couch.

"Matthew... We did it... We are making love, like I always wanted..." She swung her arms around his neck, looking deep into his eyes as she pressed her tits against his chest. "Do it Matt... Kiss me, and do it... Make us cum together Matt... Make love to your big sister."

He pulled her closer, tightening his grip on her ass as they started kissing each other. At the same time, he slowly started rocking his hips up, penetrating Stephanie while she responded with a short grinding motion. The sounds of wet bodies slapping together and lustful moans roamed through the Caldwell residence Livingroom.

Matthew felt his cock hitting her cervix with each deep thrust. Again, she was so like his mother. Even the beating of their hearts matched, both busy keeping up with the forbidden act of love that they were committing, brother and sister crossing the line, a line that they gladly crossed without any remorse or shame.

They both got used to each other after a few minutes of slow fucking and kissing. Matthew shifted to sucking and licking the inside of Stephanie's neck and the top of her chest, giving her the time to catch her breath. "Oh, Matt I love it... Yes, just like that little brother... Oooh yesss... Give your sister what she longed for. Mmm-hmmm."

"Steph... Let's step it up a notch, god, your tight pussy is milking me," he moaned while kneading his sister's ass cheeks. "Yes, please do that little brother. Let your sister's tight wet pussy make you feel good. Oh fuck yes, right there, don't stop, Matt."

He stopped his thrusting and focused on guiding his sister, Matthew pushed her body up and down with his hands that were still on her ass. Stephanie followed his guidance and started bouncing harder and harder on his cock. Sweat, precum and pussy juice now scattered around them every time she smacked down onto his lap.

"Ooooh Matttt, it feels sooo goood, tell me that you like my tight pussy, tell me it's going to make you cum." She said while moaning louder and louder, slamming down harder with each bounce. "Fuck Steph, I love your tight pussy, my big sister's tight wet pussy is going to make me cum, Oh fuck!" He could feel his balls reacting.

"Then cum inside me little brother, cum from that tight pussy and let me cum from that fat, hard cock. Yesss, do it Matt, cum inside your big sister's cunt. Mark me and make me yours, Ooooooh fuuuccck!" She bounced one final time and then slammed down with all her strength. "Cuuummmmmminnnnnggggg!" She screamed as she climaxed from her brother's cock, shooting squirt after squirt of pussy juice against their bodies.

"Steeeeephhhhh!" yelled Matthew at the same time as he felt his sister's pussy tighten so hard that it almost felt like it would rip off his cock. With his cockhead rammed against her cervix he shot spurt after spurt of thick potent semen into his sister's womb.

They both fell while their bodies twitched from their orgasms. Matthew held his sister tight, making sure his cock did not slip out of her. To his surprise his cock remained hard, rock-hard. "This fucking virus..." He thought to himself.

"Matthew... Oh Matthew... I never expected that sex would be this good, I can feel your thick cum inside of me. It's so good Matt, please never leave me..."

Stephanie cuddled up to her brother as she slowly felt their combined juices seeping out of her still occupied pussy. "Steph please tell me that yo-"

"It's safe Matt... Don't worry... I'm using the pill, Mom made sure I was ever since my first boyfriend. He sighed with relief. "But... I would not mind if you were the one that would get me pregnant Matt..." She whispered quietly with a blushing face.

Matthew blushed back at her, not knowing how to react to his sister's statement, it made her giggle. "Aww, look at my cute little brother." She pulled him close and gave him a deep kiss on his lips. "Let's just cuddle for a few minutes Matt, I have to recover after that. And I can still feel that hard cock of yours throbbing inside my pussy, so I suspect another round coming up"

He laughed. "So, did you enjoy it Steph?"

"Of course, I have, did you not hear me scream my lungs out? But to be honest I expected feeling a lot more pain after you broke through my hymen. Well it did for a short time but then it just... vanished, only pleasure remained."

"I'm glad I was your first sis, I tried to go slow with you, but after I penetrated you, you took over. First you relaxed and went with the flow, after that you became fiercer by the second."

"Guess I'm a naughty girl that likes it rough Matt, take that as a hint for round two lover boy." She said with a seductive voice. "But first let me prepare a little longer, want to make out some more?"

"Oh, you don't have to ask sis." Matthew used one hand to grope her ass while the other mauled onto one of her big tits. Stephanie started moaning. "I love you Matt..."

She said before they both were kissing each other passionately.

They were fully recharged after a few minutes.

"Ready for round two... Girlfriend? ready to... Fuck?" Asked Matthew with a seductive grin on his face, looking deep into his sister's lust filled eyes.

Stephanie blushed and purred back at him. "I do... Boyfriend, I want you to fuck me. I want you to fuck me hard and make me cum." She could feel his rock-hard cock throbbing away, which was still buried deep in her cum soaked pussy.

"Then I know the perfect place to do that dear sister, wrap your legs around me and hold on tight." He told her. She nodded and did what he asked of her.

Matthew stood up from the couch in one smooth move while holding his sister. She squealed and giggled when he did so, his cock penetrating deeper into her because of the sudden movement. "Ooooh fuck Matt, are you going to fuck me while standing up?" She moaned as she felt her pussy tighten around his cock.

"I could, but no Steph, be good girl and wait, good girls get rewards." He smiled at her before picked up a pillow from the couch with his free arm. Stephanie blushed and giggled again, she held him tight, getting more excited by the second. "All those workouts paid off, didn't they little brother?"

He laughed again. "Let's go my beautiful princes."

Matthew walked from the living room to the kitchen, Stephanie bounced on his cock with every step he took. "Ooooh Matt, this already feels so good." She moaned.

"Trust me, it will get a lot better." he stopped in front of the counter where they had their breakfast this morning. "Hop onto it Steph and lay back, here, put this pillow behind your head."

She was so excited and turned on. Matthew's cock slipped out of her with a loud plop. "Oooh Matt..." She moaned again as the mixture of freshly freed sperm and pussy juice ran out of her pussy onto the counter. She could see why he had chosen to fuck her here, it was the perfect height, he could fuck her hard and deep because they would be perfectly aligned if she laid back onto it.

She got into position, spread her legs and looked up to her brother while she played with her soaked pussy. "Matthew... Fuck me... Fuck me hard... Fuck this tight juicy cunt... Ravage me... Please, I need it Matthew."

Matthew's cock throbbed, leaking an incredible amount of precum. "I will do anything for you Steph..." He took his rock-hard cock and smacked it on her clit a few times before pressing it against her soaked pussy lips, getting ready to fuck her crazy.

"You know Steph... I want do it here because I think this where the final spark got lit between us..." He looked deep into her eyes. "I love you Stephanie."

"And I love you Matthew" She said while looking back at him.

He dragged her closer toward him and placed her legs over his shoulders. Stephanie let out a giggle. This was it, her brother gave her a nod and she responded with her own. And then she felt it, all the way inside in a single push.

"Ooooooh myyy gooo... Fuuuuccccckk!" She screamed as she felt her brother's cock ram all the way in, hitting her cervix with each thrust. "Fuck me Matt, fuck me fuck me fuck meeeee!" Matthew was pumping into her like a machine, each loud smack against her caused their combined juices to splatter all over them. They were fucking so hard that the counter creaked each time he rammed into her.

"Oh my... Fuck Steph, your tight... Ugh... pussy is so fucking good!" He moaned hard while holding his sister tight, making sure that she did not slip from his grasp.

"Harder Matt, Harder! Fuck your big sister's nasty wet tight cunt! Fuck me like you want to impregnate me! Yessss Matt, fuuuuccckkk!" She was going wild because of him, she felt like she had a mini orgasm with each thrust. She kept on looking deep into her brother's lust filled eyes as he kept on fucking her harder and harder.

Matthew focussed on his sister's big tits after a while, they were bouncing wildly because of his ferocious fucking, it gave him an idea. He slowly let go of her legs as they fell next to each side of him, as a reaction Stephanie locked them behind her brother's waist, pulling him even closer and deeper into her. "Ooooh Matt, you naughty little brother, I see what you want to do but don't stop fucking me, Yesss!"

He smiled at her as he leaned over slightly, taking a big tit in each of his hands. He clamped her hard nipples between his fingers and started mauling away at them while keeping on his fast-fucking rhythm. This placed him in such a position that he could even fuck her harder and deeper.

"Yessss Matt, fuck me like that! Fuck me while you play with my big tits!" She placed her own small hands over his, so that they both were putting pressure on them. "Matt! You are going to make your big sister cum like this! Ooooh Yesss, fuuuccck meee!"

Pussy juice was now squirting out of Stephanie as her whole body started to buck and tremble. "Steph... Oh Steph! I'm close, I can feel it coming Steph! Little brother is going to pump you full, little brother is going to pump his big sister full with his thick cum!" Yelled Matthew, fucking her hard with all his remaining strength. "Do it Matt! Cum in your big sister! Mark my insides with your potent baby batter! Pump my cunt full of it! Yessss!" She screamed back at him.

He gave one final push and buried his cock deep inside of her. "Stephhhhhhhh!" screamed Matthew as he had his largest climax yet, his cock throbbed hard with each shot of thick cum that he blasted deep into the depths of his sister's womb, he came so hard that his balls started to hurt.

"I love youuuuuuuuuuu!" Yelled Stephanie as she felt herself and her brother explode, her nails dug into the hands of her brother. Each rope of cum he shot into her womb made her squirt hard. She bucked up and down wildly as her eyes rolled back into her skull.

Matthew let himself fall forward, he was exhausted and could barely stand anymore. His sister caught him as her large bust softened his fall. She threw her arms around his neck while her legs were still crossed behind his waist. He buried his head to the side of her neck.

They both laid there, breathing heavily, shuddering and twitching from their most intense orgasms yet.

The kitchen was a mess, the counter was soaked in body fluids. Pussy nectar, sweat, precum and sperm was splattered all around them, even reaching the kitchen tiles below them. The couch area in the Livingroom was pretty much in the same state.

It was Stephanie that spoke first after a few minutes of recovering. "I guess it's shower time little brother." She giggled. Matthew looked up to her. "I think we got more things to clean my sweet sister." They both started laughing. "Oh!" shrieked Stephanie as she felt her brothers cock soften inside of her. He then heard her whisper something in his ear. "And now there are two best doctors in the world..."

She took his face into her hands. "I love you Matt..."

"And I love you Steph..." answered Matthew. They closed their eyes and started kissing each other softly and passionate.

Judith stepped out her car and walked up to the front door of her house. "I'm glad we were able to finish early, I did not expect us to go through those documents so fast... I wonder how Matt and Steph's photoshoot went, maybe they are still busy with it."

She opened the front door, kicked off her pumps and closed the door behind her.

"Aaaah, feels good to be back... Kids! I'm home!" She said as she walked towards the kitchen.

Chapter 3

The door to the kitchen and Livingroom area slammed open as Stephanie and Matthew were still tangled up together on the kitchen counter, she still with her arms and legs tightly around her brother's body. Their heads flew up towards the door and both of their eyes almost popped out of their skull.

Judith stood there frozen, shocked at the sight before her. Her bag slowly slid down her forearm before it plumed to the ground with a loud bang that rang through the eerie silent kitchen.

"No... Fuck no!" Thought Matthew to himself as time itself seemed to go slow motion. Stephanie remained silent, she could feel both her and her brother's hearts bump away with an unbelievable speed, only this time it was not out of excitement but out of panic.

They simply laid there while their mother stood in the opening of the door, minutes seemed to go by without any of them moving or speaking.

Until Judith softly spoke, almost whispering. "Y-you... You... P-promised..."

Both Stephanie and Matthew could see the tears stream down her face before she turned and went upstairs, leaving her bag and the items that were in it scattered across the floor.

"M-Mom! Wait!" Matthew jumped up trying to go after his mother upstairs only to be stopped by his sister that pulled him back.

"I will talk with her Matt" She calmly spoke.

"But I-it's my fault! All of this Steph! I'm the one tha-"

Stephanie kissed her brother full on the lips, silencing him. It seemed to do the trick as he calmed down. "I... Will talk to Mom. I still have to confess some things to her Matt, it's time to stop keeping secrets from each other."

Matthew looked his sister in her eyes that spoke a thousand words, he could see that she was confident, speaking from her heart. He could see the sister that he looked up to so much.

"Okay... Okay Steph. I'm sorry for flipping out all of a sudden... But please let me talk to her after you have said what you want to say to her."

She caressed his cheek with her soft hand and gave him another kiss. "Thank you, Matt... I will call you when I'm done. We will clear everything up today between the three of us... It's going to be okay Matthew."

He smiled at her before returning the kiss. "I love you Steph..."

She started blushing again. "I know... Matt? Could you pick up my bikini and give it to me?"

Matthew responded in surprise. "Uh... Are you going to talk to Mom wearing only that?"

She started to giggle. "No stupid! Let me finish speaking first before asking questions. Also give me your shirt, it's long enough for me to cover my bottom as well."

"Oh sorry, don't mind me. Must be the adrenaline!" He stood up and went to the Livingroom to pick up their clothes, or what was left of them as they were spread all over the room. He put on his own boxers and brought the requested clothes back to Stephanie, who was still naked from top to bottom.

"It's hard to resist not to jump you when you sit like that over here Sis." Stephanie and him started laughing for a few seconds before turning back to being serious.

"Everything is going to be fine Matt, I promise." Said Stephanie as she dressed herself in the still skimpy looking outfit.

"I know Steph... I can feel it, today is where we will grow closer together. The three of us."

She looked at him before leaping her arms around his neck and pulling him close again for another deep kiss. "It will Matt... Now, be a good little brother and clean up the mess we made. Would you?"

"Oh right, almost forgot about it, probably going to take some time to get everything spick and span."

"That's good, this is not going to be a small talk between me and Mom. And please Matt, only come up when I call you."

"I will Steph, I promise." Said Matthew as he was filling up a bucket with warm water and cleaning detergent. "Good luck Sis, tell her everything."

Stephanie only nodded before she went after her mother. She knew exactly where she would be. Judith always went to her room to talk with her about her problems, hardships and other topic's after the death of her father. When it came to serious stuff they would always speak with each other first, not that they wanted to leave Matthew out of it but it just felt better to her if she could talk it over with her daughter first.

She could hear sniffing and sobbing as she came closer to her room, she was right. She peeked into her room through the small open crack of the door and could see her mother sitting on the side of her bed, the same place she would always sit when she wanted to discuss something.

Stephanie entered. closed the door and walked to her bed where she took a seat next to her mother. They did not speak; body language was enough for them at the moment.

Stephanie hugged her mother tight as Judith returned the hug, burying her face into her daughter's neck and started sobbing harder again. "Release it all Mom... I know how you feel, let it all out." Whispered Stephanie as she comforted her mother.

It went on like this for a while, after a few minutes Judith calmed down and was now on speaking terms.

"I...I'm sorry sweetheart, it's just so much to take in... But he promised me Steph, he promised me something and he did not keep his word." She spoke softly while rubbing the remaining tears from her eyes.

"He had no choice Mom... WE had no choice, to be honest... It was more my fault than his. I should have contacted you as soon as I could but... I didn't."

Judith took her daughter's trembling hands into hers. "You knew it, didn't you Steph? About me and your brother... That goddamn virus... And what we did... I'm... I'm such a horrible mother."

"Don't say that Mom!" Yelled Stephanie. "You did what you had to do, and I did the exact same thing today. You are the best Mom in the world to us and you know it! You protected your son no matter how far you had to go, and I... I did the same..." Now Stephanie's eyes were filled with tears.

"You know... There is more than just that between the three of us Steph, more than just trying to protect him." Spoke Judith with a teary smile.

"Love..." Whispered Stephanie. "Mom... I'm in love with Matthew, I'm in love with my brother!"

She felt her daughter's hands gripping hers even tighter as small tears trailed down from her eyes.

"We both are sweetheart... Everything changed for me yesterday, I had locked away feelings for my son that a mother should never have. But it is how it is, I finally realized how much I love him yesterday and I went along with it. I found a new happiness that I never felt before... But for you honey... I know you struggled with it long before the past few days."

Stephanie wiped away her tears as she looked her mother in the eyes. "You... You knew Mom? You knew how I felt about Matthew? H-How...?"

"Sweetheart... I'm your mother. I could see it, I could feel it. How you acted around him when you were together, how you smiled so much more and the way you spoke about him... So many things that hinted towards your true feelings, I wondered when you would finally tell him the truth. Guess I interrupted your confession earlier." Judith was now smiling.

"But... But Mom, why did you not talk to me about it? It's something wrong, something disgusting according to society... So why?"

"Honey... If I did something like that... It would tear you apart, I wanted to see my little girl happy... And you were, and still are... I know it's not okay for a mother to act and think like this but... I accepted it, I want my children to be happy, no matter what. Fate already once ripped my happiness away from me with the death of your father... How could I do something just as horrible like that to one of my children. I just was too afraid to talk with you about it, afraid that it would tear our relationship apart, thinking that you would take it the wrong way if I ever mentioned something like that. And look at us now... Talking about the thing I was so afraid of to confront you with."

Stephanie had new tears in her eyes, not from sadness but from happiness. Happy that her mother always had accepted her true feelings, happy to hear how much she loved both her children, even after she went through a horrible period that collapsed her perfect family life. She then realized that she loved her mother even more than she ever did before, and she acted upon her newfound feelings. Maybe feelings that always were inside of her.

She lunged at her mother, Judith fell back softly onto the bed. Stephanie was now on top of her. She looked down and could see the same smile on her mother's face that she remembered her having if she was happy. "I love you Mom." Was the only thing she said before kissing her deeply and passionate, she stuck out her tongue and was surprised that her mother reacted. She could feel her opening her mouth and accepting her tongue inside.

And there they were, mother and daughter making out with all the passion in the world. Judith brought her hands onto her daughter's exposed bikini clad ass, softly kneading and rubbing her cheeks which made her respond with louder moans and a more furious tongue action.

Not to be outdone by her mother, Stephanie shifted her body slightly so that both of their large breasts came into contact with each other. She placed her stiff nipples onto those of her mother and started gyrating her chest with small movements, stimulating both their breasts and nipples that made them moan even louder.

They both could feel their pussies getting more soaked by the second. Judith felt her daughter's juices seeping into her skirt as it stuck to her legs.

Stephanie released their passionate kiss and breathed heavily for a few seconds before speaking.

"M-Mom... Let's remove our clothes... Please!"

Judith smiled again and simply nodded, making her daughter smile back at her.

Stephanie was naked in a few seconds, throwing off her borrowed shirt and the skimpy bikini. It took a little longer for Judith as she was still in her work attire. Stephanie started rubbing her soaked pussy at the sight of her mother undressing. Judith noticed this and simply smiled at her with lust filled eyes, she took her time taking off her clothes, almost giving a sort of striptease.

Both of the girls had seen each other naked so many times, whether it was at a clothing store or in their bathroom. They knew what their bodies looked like, but not in an aroused state.

"Gosh, I hope I look like you when I get at your age Mom, you are so beautiful!"

Judith blushed. "What do you think? You are my cute daughter, of course you will look as beautiful!"

She laid back down on the bed again, Stephanie climbed back on top of her. Now they were fully naked and could feel every bump, nook and cranny of their bodies. Their wet pussies on top of each other, mingling their juices into one combined stream of nectar that soaked the bedspread. Two pair of big tits mashed together, hard nipples pushing into one another. And to top it off two hungry mouths that explored each other with passion and love.

They laid there for a few minutes, exploring both of their bodies while keeping on kissing. Judith then released their saliva soaked mouths and spoke.

"Baby... have you ever... You know, done it with a woman before?"

Stephanie giggled and nodded. "Yes... With Vanessa, why do you think we always work together. Our work can be stressful sometimes, so we uh... 'take care' of each other once in a while."

Judith blushed deeply. "Oh my..."

"And you Mom? Ever experimented with a girlfriend before? Linda maybe?"
Asked her daughter with a sly smile across her face.

"N-No, I only had sexual experience with your father... And your brother recently."

"And now with me, your daughter. Looks like I will get to pop your cherry, the female way!"

She reached her hand down to her mother's soaked pussy and inserted two fingers right away, she knew that she was soaking wet so it was easy entry. She placed her mouth onto the diamond hard nipple of her mother's left breast and started sucking on it.

"Ooooh! Mhmmm baby!" Judith placed her right hand on the back of her daughter's head and guided her down onto her tit, just like she did with Matthew. With her left hand she cupped her other breast and started kneading it softly, rubbing against her nipple in the process.

She was in heaven. It felt so good, her daughter knew exactly how to stimulate her body on all the right places. Maybe their bodies acted similar because they looked so much the same. She had to admit, she loved it when her son fucked her, and now her daughter as she was giving her the exact same incestual pleasure. "Yes darling! Just like that! Suck Mommy's tit while you fingerfuck her tight and wet pussy!"

Stephanie was amazed by her mother, she had not expected her to go along so easy. Fucking your son was one thing but adding your daughter to that list?

They laid there for a while till Stephanie stopped. "Mom, I want to taste you... I want to lick and suck my mother's pussy."

"Mhmmm baby... Mommy want's the same, turn around and get back on top of me honey."

Stephanie turned around and placed herself back onto her mother again. They were now in a sixty-nine position. Judith looking at her daughter's wet, smooth shaven and delicious young woman pussy. And Stephanie looking at her mother's soaked, tight mature cunt. They both could not wait to devour each other.

"Mom? Did you... Did you get turned on when you saw me and Matt together?"

She hesitated before answering. "Y-yes... I was angry at the moment, but seeing both of you... so intimate with each other... Yes, I got turned on."

Stephanie smiled. "That's all I wanted to hear." She then placed her tongue on her mother's wet slit and slowly started to lick up and down, pressing down on her exposed clit every time she went over it.

"Oooh sweetie!" Moaned Judith before doing the same thing to her daughter's tight pussy, only she started sucking softly on her clit while penetrating her with one finger.

"Mommy yes!" Mumbled Stephanie while still attending to her mother's pussy. She spread her pussy open with her fingers and stuck her tongue even deeper inside, now really scooping out her female nectar.

Both females were now entangled in a pussy eating frenzy, their faces covered with each other's pussy juice. Judith started gyrating her hips onto her daughter's mouth, Stephanie reacted by doing the same to her mother. The room was filled with muffled moans of pleasure and the smell was intoxicating. The bedspread was a mess and so were their sweaty bodies.

Judith then added two more fingers into her daughter's pussy and started fingerbanging her. Squirt after squirt of juice shot out of her with each motion. "Oh baby! Just like your mother! You naughty girl, show Mommy how much you like it!"

"Yes! Yesss! Fuck my pussy Mom! Make me cum all over you!" Stephanie was a little lost for a while due to her mother's actions. She then regained her focus and attacked the juice leaking mature cunt in front of her. She rubbed two fingers over her mother's large clit in quick motions while stabbing her tongue in and out of her pussy, almost like a hard cock going in and out.

"Yesss baby! Make Mommy cum like that, let me spray all over!" Moaned Judith even louder. Both their pussies were now spraying and splattering fresh pussy nectar all over them, indicating that they were not far off from one hell of an orgasm.

"Oh baby! Mommy is... Mommy is going to cum!" Yelled Judith.

"Me too! Mom... Cum together! Make me cum with you!" Responded Stephanie.

She then pinched her mother's engorged clit between her fingers and stabbed her tongue as deep as possible inside of her pussy. At the same time her mother rammed four fingers deep into her daughter's cunt, hitting the right spot that triggered her climax.

They both came at the same time. Two loud growls followed by sprays of pussy juice shooting from their exploding cunts. They held each other tight as their bodies bucked and shook from their intense climaxes.

And then there was silence, after a few minutes of after effects from their orgasms they both regained some strength.

Stephanie slowly turned around again and crawled back up to her mother so that they were face-to-face. She wiped the loose streaks of red hair from her mother's face and looked deep into her eyes.

They were glowing with love and happiness just like hers. She gave her a big kiss, one that Judith gladly returned before they both cuddled up together.

"I love you so much Mom." Whispered Stephanie.

"I love you too sweetie." Responded Judith as she held her daughter tight.

*****

Matthew was waiting patiently in the just cleaned Livingroom, oblivious to what was happening upstairs. He sat on the couch flipping through the channels on the television just to kill some time. He wasn't actually watching as there were running a thousand thoughts through his head.

"Will Mom hate me now? Will Steph be able to calm her down? What will I tell her?"

He turned the television off and angrily threw the remote away next to him.

"Matt, you fucking idiot... You promised her and there you were, cock buried deep into your sister." He ran both of his hands through his hair. "She trusted you for fucks sake... And you just threw everything away."

"Everything went to shit because of you!" He kicked at the empty bucket that stood on the floor, it flew towards the kitchen area. "Might as well put back the cleaning stuff, maybe Mom will be at least a little bit happy seeing everything cleaned up again."

As he walked into the kitchen he spotted his mother's bag on the floor, along with the items that were scattered across the kitchen. "Mhm, totally forgot about that."

He started gathering the items and putting them back into her bag. He stopped when he came across a small gold necklace that had a locket for pictures on it, she had always worn it each and every day. It was engraved with the letter J followed by a heart and another J. "I didn't know this had a locket, I always thought it was solid..."

He opened it carefully and examined the small pictures that were inside of it. On the left he could see a young couple hand in hand at a wedding. Obviously, it was his mother and father at their wedding. He smiled. "They always looked so in love with each other..." On the right side he could see a picture that had the four of them in it. Stephanie was holding onto him as his parents hugged them from each side, all of them had a big smile on their faces.

Matthew only gulped as he thought back to better times for all of them.

Another small picture slipped out of it as he tried to close the locket. He picked it up and looked at it. It was a very recent picture with his sister, his mother and him. Matthew sitting in the middle while his mother and sister hugged him from each side, again their faces had smiles of happiness on them. He then returned the picture, locked the locket and placed the necklace back into her bag.

"I have to fix this... No way that our relationship can end like this." He looked at his watch. "It has already been one-and-a-half hour since Steph went upstairs... I know I told her that I would wait for her call, but I can't wait any longer. I need to see Mom and talk with her."

*****

He walked towards the stairs before hearing a loud giggle and a high-pitched yelp, the giggle was obviously Stephanie's and the yelp was his Mother's. "Wow! I guess Steph really had a good talk with her, hearing them all giggly like that. I think they won't mind if I would join them now."

The sounds of them changed as he took each step upstairs. It started to sound like moans, moans that he was all too familiar with as he had heard the same ones before. "What are they doing? And why are they in Steph's room? Hmm... Time to get my sneak on."

He slowly shuffled towards his sister's bedroom door before stopping in front of it. "I can hear them moan... Wait a second! No way that this is possible... Mom would never do something like that... Would she?"

He put his hand on the door knob and turned it quietly as possible. "I know you creak once in a while door, but please be quiet this time." Mumbled Matthew to himself as he slowly opened the door. He pushed it open far enough to peek inside of her room. His jaw dropped and his cock started twitching at the sight he saw.

Matthew could see his mother and sister engaged with one another, their pussies mashed together, their big tits bouncing up and down and both their heads flipped back with their eyes closed.

He was watching the two most important women in his life scissor-fucking each other. Moan after moan of pleasure came from their mouths as he heard their wet soaked pussies make squishy sounds. He could see their clits rubbing against each other with every up and down motion.

"Oooh yesss Mom! I told you that you would like this." Moaned Stephanie as she tweaked her right pierced nipple with her fingers.

"Mhmmm! I love it sweetie! It's so good! No wonder you and Vanessa do this together." Moaned his mother in return.

"Wait what? Steph and Vanessa?" Thought Matthew as his pants started to tent. He kept on watching for a few minutes, watching his mother and sister make love to each other, the female way.

He tried to fight his lust for them, but failed in the end. "I can't take it anymore." He said to himself before lowering his freshly precum stained boxers. He took his hard-throbbing cock and started stroking it slowly. "I can't believe it! So fucking hot!" Gobs of precum dripped from his cockhead onto the carpet under him. Matthew had been aroused before, but seeing them both like this flipped a switch. His cock was throbbing on overtime, it felt like he could cum by the slightest touch. "Yes... Like that Mom, fuck your daughter's tight pussy. And you too Steph... Make Mom feel good with that delicious cunt of yours." He panted.

The three of them kept on going for a while, Judith and Stephanie scissoring each other while Matthew yanked his cock slowly as possible, not trying to cum or to make a sound.

The only thing he forgot was that his mother had eagle eyes while her glasses were on.

"Oooh! Mhmmm! Honey wait... wait a second. I thought you closed the door behind you?" She asked her daughter as she spotted the slightly open door.

Stephanie jumped up in a split second from their erotic position. "Matthew Jeremy Caldwell!" She yelled towards the door.

Matthew froze in shock, his hand letting go off his cock that remained as hard as an steel bar. "Fuck, Fuck, Fuck!" He thought to himself, remaining as silent as possible.

"I know you are there little brother! Might as well come in, now that you have exposed yourself!" Yelled his sister again.

He just stood there, his mind wanted to leave but his body stood completely frozen because of the sudden situation.

"It's okay sweetie, you can come in. Don't be afraid dear, we won't eat you." Said Judith with her soft motherly voice. Stephanie looked back at her, her words could be taken in different ways.

Matthew let out a huge sigh. "I already fucked up anyway, might as well live with the consequences..." he put his loose boxers in front of his erect cock, trying to hide it with minimal success. He then opened the door with a soft push and walked in with his head facing the ground.

"Well, Well, look who it is, peeping Tom himself..." Said his sister with a stern voice.

"I'm so sorry, I-I did not me-" Whimpered Matthew before his sister shut him up again.

"Shut it little brother! Get on my bed... Yes there, right in the middle between Mom and me. Don't you dare to look up at us, and get rid of those boxers!" Ordered Stephanie before winking at her mother.

Judith softly giggled and wondered what her daughter was up too, still, she felt a little sad the way she acted towards her son. She knew it was an act but she still felt bad for him.

Matthew's cock remained throbbing with the beat of his heart after he removed his boxers, a stream of fresh precum leaked down his shaft.

"Oh my, look at that little brother, where you playing with yourself while you watched me and Mom's private conversation?"

"Y-yes, look I told you I'm so-"

"Did I say that you could speak? Only talk to me when I ask for it." Spoke Stephanie again with her stern voice.

Matthew nodded.

"Good, now, did you like it? Did you like seeing your mother and sister fuck each other?"

He gulped before speaking. "Y-yes."

"Such a naughty little brother... Mom, do you think we should punish this bad little brother of mine?"

Judith giggled again. "Well, he has been a bad boy for spying onto us, and for breaking his promise with me. Might as well give him a little punishment."

"You heard her, you bad, naughty boy! Lay back on the bed and close your eyes! And this time obey me, open your eyes only when I tell you to do so!"

Matthew nodded again and did as his sister told him.

He then could feel two different soft small hands rub his cockhead, spreading precum around his shaft and onto their hands. What he did not see was that his mother and sister rubbed their precum soaked hand between the valley of their large busts.

"Let's do it Mom, let's punish this naughty boy." Purred Stephanie.

"Mhmmm, get ready for it, my naughty son." Giggled his mother.

He could feel four soft pillow-like humps of flesh wrapping around his rock-hard cock, the pressure was amazing as it got tighter and tighter. He already had a good idea what was going on but kept his eyes closed.

"How is the punishment, little brother? Tell Mom and me how it feels" Asked his sister with a seductive voice.

"Amazing! It's so good and tight!"

Stephanie looked at her mother. "Does he have permission to open his eyes Mom?"

"You know I can't stay mad at my baby boy sweetie. It's okay honey, open up and look..."

Matthew opened his eyes as soon he could and looked at what was happening. Stephanie was watching him with an unbelievable sexy expression while his mother started blushing heavily. Seeing their faces alone made his cock throb even harder, which was impossible as it was being held tight by the pillow like flesh that surrounded it.

Both their big tits were mashed together at each side of his shaft, their hard nipples pressed together making them moan softly. The only thing Matthew could see of his cock was the tip of his head that stuck out from between those two mountains of flesh.

"Now stay quiet, look and enjoy your 'punishment' little brother." Purred his sister.

She then looked in the direction of her mother and nodded. They started moving up and down slowly while pressing their tits together even tighter.

Matthew moaned loud as he felt his cock being sandwiched, emitting more and more precum with each stroke. He could hear the squishy sounds as their tits swallowed his cock over and over again.

"You like it baby? You like your Sister's and Mommy's boobies wrapped around your cock?" Moaned Judith.

"Y-Yes Mom, It's so good! It feels like I'm fucking a tight pussy!"

"Good boy... But it's a punishment, so get ready for... this!"

Stephanie released her tits and dove down onto his cockhead with her mouth while Judith now fully wrapped her precum soaked tits around his shaft. His sister sucked and licked around the head while his mother squeezed her large bust tight around his cock.

"Ooooh Fuck! Yes, please do it like this!" Squealed Matthew.

Judith and Stephanie could feel their pussies leaking large amounts of juice again, they got so excited seeing their brother and son enjoying their bodies.

"I Wuv Pwunushin Wyuo Lwitle Bwther (I love punishing you little brother)" Mumbled his sister while she sucked on his cockhead, moving her tongue over his slit at the same time.

Matthew simply laid back and almost blacked out from the intense stimulation he was receiving. He let them do their thing and carefully watched their faces, they were filled with lust and love as they playing around with his cock.

After a while he could feel it coming up. "Mom... Sis... I'm going to cum! Please make me cum!"

That was the que for them to both stop with what they were doing, confusing Matthew as they denied him to cum. "Wha? No! Don't stop, please!" Yelled Matthew.

"We are going to cum together little brother, remember, it's a punishment... Mom, let's do it."

They both got back into their scissor-fuck position, only this time Matthew's cock was sandwiched in the middle of it.

"Enjoy it dear, let's make each other feel really good and come together..." Judith caressed his cheek softly before nodding, giving the signal to start moving.

Their wet soaked pussies started rubbing up and down against Matthew's precum coated cock shaft. The three of them moaned hard in union, feeling incredible pleasure coming from their most sensitive parts. The girl's pussy lips literally wrapped around the rock-hard shaft, making lewd sounds as they slid up and down. Their clits hit the side of his cockhead each time they slid up, giving them amazing stimulation, they knew that it wouldn't take long anymore.

The same thing happened to Matthew, he already was on edge after their titfuck combination and now felt both of their delicious cunts wrapping around his throbbing cock.

The room was filled with loud moaning, erotic sounds coming from their nether regions and the slight creaking of Stephanie's bed. Her bedspread turned into one giant sponge that had soaked up an incredible amount of sweat, pussy juice and precum.

Matthew took ahold of his sister's and mother's hand. "It's cumming! I'm going to cum!"

"Cum for us little brother! Make your sister cum with you!" Screamed Stephanie, herself on edge.

"Do it baby! Show Mommy how much you can shoot! Do it!" Yelled Judith in ecstasy.

They all exploded at the same time in one huge climax, Matthew shot an unbelievable amount of thick cum in the air that landed all over the place, including on his sister and mother. Stephanie and Judith bucked their hips up at the same time, shooting a geyser of pussy juice all over their bodies and onto the bed. The three of them shook wildly, experiencing a type of orgasm that they never had before.

Matthew fell back onto the bed totally exhausted, with his last remaining strength he pulled up both his mother and sister to each of his side. Stephanie was out, she had fallen asleep after the grand finale, he held her close to him and let her snuggle up against his body.

He then tried to turn his face to the other side to look at his mother, but before he had the chance she was already locked with his lips, giving him a kiss like he never had before.

They started making out softly as her tongue entered his mouth. She cuddled up to him as tight as possible, throwing one arm around his neck and pushing her tits against his chest. Matthew wrapped his free arm around her sweaty body and pulled her even closer without letting go of their intense kiss.

They stayed like that for a good ten minutes, not letting go of each other, making out.

Matthew then looked deep into her eyes before speaking. "Mom... I'm so, so sor-"

Judith stopped him with another kiss. "It's okay sweetheart, everything is okay. It's behind us now. The only thing you need to know is that I love you so much baby."

He could see the love in his mother's eyes and smiled. "Soooo... You and Steph, any explanation please?"

She started to giggle. "Later honey, let's just... rest first. Mommy is tired after dealing with the two of you." She placed her head on her son's chest and slowly drifted away.

Matthew took a last good look at both his mother and sister before closing his own eyes. It has been another wild and strange day at the Caldwell Residence.

Judith had taken a day off after yesterday's events, she relaxed on her recliner with a good book. Dressed only in her sweatpants and an old tank top, she didn't even bother to put on a pair of bra and panties. She had no worries on her mind anymore, she felt really good after speaking eye-to-eye with her son and daughter into the late hours of the night. They discussed everything what happened between them in the last few days. The three of them became an even closer family than they already were.

Stephanie and Matthew started acting like a young couple around the house, reminding her of how similar they looked like Jeremy and her when they were at their age. She knew that her children loved her as much as she loved them, there was no jealousy involved in their newfound relationships. Though she did address them that they should never act outside like they do inside the house, outside they were brother and sister, inside they could be the lovely couple they wanted to be.

Judith had the house for herself today, at least until evening. Matthew joined his sister on one of her photoshoot's. He enjoyed helping her with it, and after yesterday they could not say no to each other.

Suddenly the phone rang from the kitchen, Judith snapped out of her daydreaming and walked up to the kitchen with a loud yawn. She picked up the phone to see who was calling her on her relax day.

"Linda? She knows that I always work today, why would she call our home number... Maybe it's something urgent or private. Or it could be Brian trying to reach Matthew... Well, let's hear it."

She accepted the call. "Hi Linda, or Brian, you are speaking with Judith."

"Judi? Is that you? Oh thank God! Look, can I come over? It's really urgent. I called to your work but they told me that you had a day off. I have to tell it to someone, and I know that someone is you."

"Uh... Yes, sure! I'm always there for you honey, come on over, I'm not doing anything important anyway."

"Thank you, Judi! Thank you! Alright, I'll be there as soon as I can, ten minutes or so."

"Okay, but don't rush yourself over Lin, I don't want you to have an accident on the way here."

Linda had already hung up, "She sounded panicked, I hope nothing horrible happened to her..." Thought Judith.

She started preparing coffee for both of them to kill time.

The doorbell rang as soon the coffee was finished, "Wow, that's quick!" Said Judith before opening the door.

Linda rushed in and hugged her tight, "I need your advice Judi! Something... Something happened with him!"

"Lin, calm down! Here, let me take your coat first. I made coffee for us and it really looks like you could use some. Go ahead, it's in the kitchen on the counter, take a seat and I will be there in a second."

Linda nodded and went to the kitchen.

"She really is nervous and panicking, I can't believe this, the cool and calm Linda suddenly on edge?" Judith took care of her coat and followed Linda to the kitchen, inside they both sat down next to each other.

"Okay Lin, calm down and tell what's going on. Is it something to do with Chris?"

"No, not at all it's... It's Brian..."

"Let me guess, he got himself into trouble again? Not surprised by that when I hear Matthew talk about him."

"Judi, it happened after Matthew came to visit me at the nursery. He told me he was with Brian all day before that. You remember the fever and nosebleeds he had, right? Well, when Brian came home it... It happened to him too Judi!"

Judith went silent and prepared for the worst scenario since Brian also suffered from the same symptoms her son had. "Go on Lin, I'm here for you." She said with a soothing voice.

"The poor boy was sweating buckets, He joked around telling me he felt fine but I knew better. I had sent him upstairs to get into bed, for once he listened to me and did as I told him. Everything seemed okay once he went to bed, but after about two hours I could hear him scream in panic! Judi, I had never been so scared in my life as I rushed towards his room!"

"S-so what h-happened?" Answered Judith nervously, preparing for what came next.

Linda gulped and looked down. "My poor boy... He was naked, stiff as a board on his bed like he couldn't move and his... his penis was swollen, erect, nothing like I had ever seen before..."

"He screamed for my help Judi! He was in so much pain... I panicked and I... I..."

Judith could see tears forming in Linda's eyes, she placed her hand on hers and held her tight. "It's okay Lin, you can tell me everything, I'm here for you."

Linda calmed down slightly, and spoke softly again after letting out a huge sigh. "I...I masturbated him Judi... I masturbated my own son until he had an orgasm..."

There it was. This confirmed what Judith feared, Linda's son also had the virus variant her son suffered from. Was it because of their close contact they had that day or was it pure coincidence? Before she could ask something, Linda continued.

"And not once Judi, I masturbated him to climax three times before the swelling calmed down. And you know what was the worst of all? I...I got aroused... I was horny because of him; his smell was so... Intoxicating. He fell asleep after he came three times, the swelling was gone and he seemed okay. I then cleaned up everything and decided to stay with him in his room..."

Linda took a short pause, giving Judith the time to talk. "Is that everything that happened Lin?"

"No Judi it's not... I couldn't... I couldn't control myself because of seeing him and smelling him... I...I started masturbating myself Judi... I gave myself an orgasm while thinking about my baby boy..." She started to sob. "I don't know why it happened Judi... I love him so much, but it was like I was controlled by something... God, you must think I'm some horrible mother, don't you?" She said while looking at Judith.

Now Judith took a big sigh before talking. She was about to reveal to her best friend that a similar situation happened to her and Matthew, though, she wouldn't tell her that instead of only masturbating they went all the way, the fact that she loved it and the fact that she and her son were fully awake, knowing damn well what they were doing. She knew she could trust her, they always shared everything and helped each other on every front.

"Lin... It also happened to Matthew... Everything you just told me happened to my baby as well."

Linda held their hands even tighter and awaited what Judith would tell her more.

"I relieved him too, until he was normal again. And yes, I got aroused too, I... I even enjoyed it. Like you said it was that smell that... That activated some kind of hidden switch deep in my brain. Of course, I did it to help, surely that was priority number one but... I had to help myself too, this doesn't make us bad mothers Lin, mothers will do everything to keep their child safe and we did."

"There has been talk about some kind of new virus at work, the symptoms Matthew and Brian had are a part of it, except for the swelling of the penis, and that strange smell. Brian is now the second person I personally heard of with this symptom. And before you ask, no, I haven't told anyone yet that it happened to my son. I simply can't, it would ruin our lives if this came out so I'm patiently waiting for new news."

"How did you deal with it? I mean with Matthew; did you talk about it? And... Did it happen again to him?" Linda was now a lot more relaxed after hearing that she wasn't the only one that had this happen to her and her son.

"We did talk Lin, a lot... We talked for hours and believe me sweetie, it's the best thing you can do. Don't be afraid to do so, I know how tight your bond is with Brian, with Chris being away all the time. He loves you as much as you love him, I'm sure you make everything better together."

Judith couldn't tell her about what happened to Matthew and Stephanie. For one, she did not know if her son and Brian did suffer from exactly the same variant of the virus, it could affect their bodies in different ways, even after they both had those strange erection's. For second, she simply did not want to make her best friend worry even more, she already was on edge.

"And no Lin, it did not, it hasn't happened again, Matthew seems to be the same old self after being home for a few days. I would advise you to do the same. Keep an eye on him and talk, comfort each other and simply... Love each other. Be strong for him and he will be strong for you."

Linda's eyes were watering again before both of them hugged. "Thank you, Judi, thank you so much for being my best friend. You have no idea how good this felt for me to talk about it with somebody I can trust." She then gave Judith a kiss on her cheek and hugged her again.

Judith smiled as she hugged her back.

"Now, how about a new fresh cup of coffee? I think ours turned a little bit on the cold side." She asked.

Linda's smile returned to her face as well. "Count me in girl! I need a good shot of caffeine after dropping all that weight off me... And I meant it Judith, thank you so much."

"No problem sweetie, it will be our little secret. Oh Lin, I have to ask, but did Brian had any contact with other males? and I mean at least longer than three hours."

"You mean after Matthew visited me? Uh... No, I don't think so, he had one self-study class after his break and then went straight to home after that. Chris is away for work so no, the only contact he had the longest was with me. Why did you want to know?"

"Well, we found out that ninety-two percent that were infected across the country were male, so it's very rare for females to get the virus, the most of us get affected by it, not infected with it. What I'm trying to say is that you really need to look after Brian for at least three days, without getting him in contact with other males. We still don't know how fast the virus infects someone else."

"Don't worry, I will. I will protect my baby no matter what. Doctor's orders?" She asked with a smile.

"Doctor's orders." Responded Judith, laughing.

It has been three weeks since the Caldwell family's lives had a major turnover. Everything seemed to go back to normal, except for the part that the three of them made love on a regular basis. Matthew had sex with his mother and sister almost every day, sometimes the three of them together but mostly one-on-one due to their busy schedules. The virus had not showed itself during this period of time. Judith really started to think that her son was cured of it by having sex regularly, no new information about it was discovered at the hospital or elsewhere across the country, there even seemed to be a steady decrease of infected patients.

Linda and Brian's lives changed drastically as well, though not on the same level as the Caldwell's... Yet. Brian became a lot closer to his mother, he stopped hanging around school after his lessons were done. He stayed inside the house during the weekend to again, spend time with his mother. Matthew had noticed how much happier his friend was after he went through the same things that he went through. They knew what happened to both of them but did not talk about it.

Linda talked a lot to Brian and Judith after their situation, she started to notice that her feelings for her own son were growing stronger each and every day. She loved having her boy around her and embraced the time that they spend together. She even caught him looking at her with a certain gaze in his eyes and their hugs and kisses changed from something motherly to far more passionate and erotic. She knew something bigger would happen sooner or later.

Judith has finally taken a week off to make it up to her children like she had promised, Stephanie dismissed any appointment she had planned for that week and Matthew had a break from his studies. This time they would be together at last.

"So, kids, what do you think of the place? Did the brochure gave you two enough things to look forward to?" Asked Judith as she was sipping on her morning coffee, dressed only in her bathing robe.

Matthew and Stephanie nodded, "It looks awesome Mom! But... I think I have seen some of these buildings before, at least from a long time ago..." Spoke her daughter with a puzzled face.

"That's because you have been there before sweetie, and you too Matthew, only you were too small to remember anything. It's the resort your father and I always went to when we had enough free time. It has changed a lot after all these years because the owners were so successful with the place."

"Yeah I can probably guess why." Mumbled Matthew while munching on a piece of bread. "I mean they got almost everything. A beauty spa, two pools, a big restaurant and the rooms look incredible. I got to ask Mom, how in heavens name can we afford this?"

Judith giggled. "We don't, it's free for a week."

Matthew and Stephanie looked at their mother with disbelieve, making her giggle again.

"Let me explain, your grandparents started going there when it was just a small camping ground. They enjoyed it so much that they went there every year with vacation, and so of course, I went there as well each year. Your father and I kept the tradition going and visited it when the two of you stayed with our parents."

"Oh! So that's where you both went once in a while. Guess we didn't care because it was always fun at Grandma and Grandpa's house." Interrupted Stephanie.

Judith nodded. "Yes, as much as we loved you two, sometimes we needed some time for ourselves to just... Relax and not having a care in the world. But I'm tracking off my explanation. Just like our parents, we became good friends with the owners, Ms. Leonora and Mr. Stanley Kibbitz. The two of them were devastated when they heard about what happened to me and your father. They felt so bad that they offered me to come over with the two of you to just forget everything for a while."

"But you didn't... Right?" Asked Matthew, feeling a little sad for her.

"No... No, I did not honey. My depression made me forget about a lot of things, their invitation included. So, I wanted to surprise you two with this trip and contacted them again. They were so happy to hear from me and told me that the offer still stood, they also looked forward to meeting both of you after all these years."

"I remember that it was a lot of fun back then, going to the place as adults seem to be just as good with all these new things to see and do." Spoke Stephanie overly excited.

"You got me there, Sis! Mr. and Mrs. Kibbitz seem like really nice people to meet. When will we be able to go Mom?"

Judith stood up. "How about today? I will take my morning shower so you two can gather your clothes and other things that you want to take."

Stephanie jumped for joy. "Alright Mom! You really are the best in the world! Come on Matt, let's pack our stuff and get this thing going." Matthew followed his sister up to their rooms.

"Oh, before you go you two, Stephanie could you make us some snacks after you are done packing. And Matthew, do you mind filling up the car? It's a three-hour ride towards the coast so I want everything prepared perfectly before we go onto our little adventure."

"Mom, you don't even have to ask, we would do anything for you." Replied Matthew from upstairs.

Judith smiled. "They are so sweet, I'm so glad we are all happy together again." She thought to herself as she cleaned up the plates and cups from their breakfast.

*****

They all got ready in less than an hour and went on their three-hour ride towards their destination. They switched it up so that the three of them took over the wheel from one another after an hour of driving, giving them time to eat and enjoy the sight as they came closer to the coast. The weather was going to be hot in the coming week so their trip was timed perfectly.

They had dressed themselves according to the weather.

Matthew was wearing shorts and a loose t-shirt, he hated flipflops so he stuck to his sneakers.

Stephanie had on her famous Daisy Dukes that showed off her curvy bottom, on her feet she had a pair of open high heels that matched her top; A flower patterned summer bustier that once again, showed off her incredible body.

Judith, just like her daughter, was not far off the sexy meter herself. She too was wearing open high heels that matched her other piece of clothing; A short bright colored summer dress that wrapped around her body perfectly.

Matthew looked with delight, seeing his mother and sister dress themselves that way. He knew that they did so to excite him, and it completely worked.

His mother noticed him peeking and lusting over them. "You like what you see baby?" She asked while she slowly opened her legs for him to see between them. She wasn't wearing panties.

He gulped when he could see his mother's pussy in full glory, it was shiny so he knew that she was moist and excited already. "When you put it that way Mom... Of course I like it, you two are so hot and sexy. I can't wait to fu-"

Stephanie interrupted him. "To fuck us? Oh little brother, we got something special for you tonight. So be a good boy and keep your cock in check. Tonight, you can go all out with us." She said seductively.

"You can do that for us sweetie? Can you be a good boy for Mommy and Sis?" Added Judith.

"Jesus, you two, stop making me horny. But yes, I would chop off my arm to be with the two of you. Matthew Caldwell is going to be a good boy and wait, I promise!" Answered Matthew.

The girls started laughing, Judith took his hand and intertwined her fingers with his. "I love you honey, this week is going to be all ours, all three of us together."

*****

"Oh my God, look at you darling! You look so good after all these years! And... Oh wow! Little Stephanie and Matthew! How the two of you have grown!"

They had arrived at the resort after a peaceful ride and were greeted outside by an elderly pair. A very happy elderly pair.

"Welcome back you three" Said Mr. Kibbitz as shook hands with Matthew. "Goddamn boy, you look just like your..." He stopped his sentence, realizing what had happened all those years ago.

"It's alright Stanley." Said a big smiling Judith while hugging Mrs. Kibbitz. "We have given it peace a long time ago, so please, be the happy couple that I have always known!"

"Oh! Ha-ha, don't mind me, just blacked out for a second." He let out a cough and continued. "Like I said. Goddamn son! You really look like your old man, I could spot that mug from miles away!" They all started laughing. "And you missy, I can tell that you inherited the looks of both your mother and grandmother, I know I always have to say that my wife is the most beautiful creature on the world, but let me tell you, the Caldwell females come a very, very close second!"

"Stanley!" Yelped Leonora with a smile, she gave him a weak punch on his shoulder. "You old rascal you!" Again, they were all laughing.

Stephanie blushed from Stanley's words. "T-thank you Mr. Kibbitz, I appreciate the kind words... But I can't really remember the two of you, not matter how hard I try. I was so little back then."

Leonora took her hand. "Oh sweetie, don't worry about all of that, we are so excited to see you all again and I'm sure that a lot of new memories will be made this week. Feel free to use all of our accommodations, and if you want to chat with us then simply walk up to us. We will be all around the resort every day, our staff has been informed of the three of you so ask them if you are in need of something. Oh! And please call us by our first names, we are very longtime friends of your family."

Leonora's kind words relieved Stephanie, she walked towards her and gave her a big hug. "I will Leonora, and you too Stanley, thank you both so much for doing this."

"Ha! No sweat pumpkin, say Matthew, I got something great to show you. I don't know if your mother ever told you about it but me and your dad used to work on an old timer. Care to see it with me? To this day I still work on it from time to time."

Matthew loved classic cars, something he probably got from his dad. "What is it? Please a little spoiler to get me into the mood."

"Okay just a little though, it's a classic 1970 Dodge Challenger, but we made a lot of adjustments to it and let me tell you, we did not nickname it 'The Beast' for nothing."

"Wow! A classic muscle car!" He looked to his mother. "Do you mind Mom?"

Judith was happy seeing her son all overjoyed. "Go ahead sweetie... But what about our luggage, could you help me and your sister first before going?"

"That's not a problem darling." Spoke Leonora. "The staff will take it up to your room, you and Stephanie could get something to eat at the restaurant before exploring our resort, it has changed a lot since you were last here."

"Mhm... Sounds like a solid plan, what do you say Steph? Care to take a bite with me before going around the place?"

"Sure Mom, I can use some food in my stomach now."

Leonora clapped her hands. "Alright, that's set then! Go ahead honey and take Matthew to see 'The Beast'." She said with a giggle. "And you two darlings enjoy our restaurant and our other accommodations, I have to run some errands now since you three are not the only guests. Remember, if you need any information ask our staff or ask for us. Your key to the room will be at the check-in counter at the main entrance, just say that you are the Caldwell's and everything will be dealt with. Now enjoy your stay and we surely will meet again soon!"

Judith gave her a big kiss and thanked both Stanley and Leonora. Matthew went with Stanley while she and Stephanie went for some food. She could feel that it was going to be a great week.

*****

Judith and Stephanie sat down in a lounge area connected to the restaurant, it was quiet over there so they could eat in peace. After a couple of minutes Stephanie asked her mother a question, she got all serious so Judith knew it was something big and she sort of already knew what she would be asking her.

"Mom about tonight... I... I want to go through with what we talked about in the past few weeks."

Judith sighed. "Are you sure honey, and Matthew... have you talked to him about it?"

"We did Mom... Matthew told me that if I was ready for it then he would be too. He loves me so much Mom, he said that if something like that would ever occur then I would be the one for him, the one he wants to share the happiness with forever."

"You know that it will be a huge responsibility honey, Matthew still has his studies for at least three years, you have your own job to attend to and you know that I will be working a lot too. Not only that, but you will have to keep it a secret from everyone you know, you might even have to tell them it happened after a one-night stand, and you know how people will respond to that."

"Mom, despite that Matthew agreed with me, he would still continue to focus on his studies. But he will take full responsibility after his classes each day. I can see it in his eyes Mom, and you know that he doesn't lie to us, no matter what." Stephanie held her mother's hand tight. "And I can handle all the bullshit that people will talk about me, like I have always done."

"I believe in both of you sweetheart, I just don't want to see you two get hurt... But now about work, how will you do that?"

"I will stop for the time being, at least with the modeling. Vanessa knows Mom, she knows about me and Matthew."

Judith's eyes went wide after hearing her daughter's words. "She knows? Honey why would yo-"

Stephanie interrupted her. "It's alright Mom, Vanessa is to me like what Linda is to you, we have been best friends since we were two little girls. She could tell from a young age that I was in love with him, we never had any secrets for one another. You can trust her Mom, I can trust her. She is really happy for me and is giving me full support. I will be doing photo editing, so I can work from home and keep my eye on... Our baby."

Judith and Stephanie had been talking about her wanting to get pregnant a lot in the past few weeks, Judith was skeptical at first but she could see how dedicated and serious her daughter became when talking about the subject. She knew her daughter through and through, and she knew how strong of a woman she was. She ultimately gave her blessings, being prepared to help her daughter and son through it all the way. Judith had always looked forward to grandchildren of her own, something she and Jeremy looked forward to.

"You haven't been taking the pill, right?" Asked Judith totally calm.

"No, that's why I didn't let him cum inside me all this time, he wanted to but he has suspected nothing so far. I wanted it to be a surprise for him... a surprise for tonight."

Judith smiled softly. "What a silly family we are, aren't we honey?"

Stephanie laughed. "We might be silly, but we love each other, and that's what counts!"

She then gave her Mom a long hug and a deep kiss on her lips. "Thank you, Mom, for everything so far. You are one amazing woman and I'm glad that I'm your daughter."

This brought her mother to tears and she started sobbing softly while she hugged her daughter even tighter. They sat there for a while as the warm sun started shining brightly high up in the air.

Stephanie was swimming around one of the large pools at the resort, she was on cloud nine and slowly drifted around, not having a care in the world.

Judith was enjoying the bright sun as she laid on one of the pool chairs in her bikini, she wanted to get a tan badly as she disliked her silky white skin. Matthew thought it was cute but she wanted some change, Stephanie always had a tanned skin, something she inherited from her father and Judith often wished that she looked more like her skin wise.

She almost fell asleep before her phone rang a cheerful tune, snapping her out of her nap. She took it out of her bag and wondered who was calling her.

"Oh, it's Martin, must be something work related... Heck, might as well answer him. They are lucky that he is calling otherwise I wouldn't be bothered to pick up." She accepted the call.

"Hi Mart! Everything okay over there? There must be a reason for you calling me."

She could hear an excited Martin answer her. "Hi Judi! Sorry for bothering you on your little vacation trip but it's a shit show out here, and it's a positive shit show!"

Judith started to giggle. "Serious Mart? You and a positive 'shit show'? Come on don't let me hanging and tell me!"

"I tell you Judi, it's nuts! Okay, it's about the virus, the statistics are going insane in a good way. infected patients keep getting better and the infected count keeps dropping and dropping every day."

"You mean that it's just... Disappearing or something?" She asked curiously.

"That's exactly what I mean Judi! It's acting like it's some seasonal influenza, the only thing I hope is that it won't return!"

"So, they are giving up on research on it?"

"Not at all, they keep on looking for a cure, even if the virus would totally disappear. But the numbers don't lie Judi! It's going down and it's going down fast!"

Judith felt herself getting excited. Would this mean that Matthew's infection would go away too? Or was having sex with him on a regular basis really a sort of cure to counter the virus? She thought back at how her son did not had any more outbursts of it for the past few weeks.

"That's great Mart! I can't believe it! I'm happy that you decided to call me with this news. It will make my nights over here even more relaxing!"

He started laughing. "I told you Judi! It's a positive shit show! Now, I gotta go and get back to work. Have a great time over there and don't forget to send us some pictures, I heard it's quit the resort."

"I will Mart, I will. Good luck with work this week and I will see you see soon. Thanks for the call!"

"The pleasure was mine Judi, have a good one. Enjoy your stay and see you next week."

Judith ended the call and threw her phone back into her bag, "That really was some great news! Well... Where was I... Oh yes! Time to get my tan on."

She laid back, closed her eyes and enjoyed the burning sun on her skin.

After a while she could hear Stephanie call her out, she once more snapped out of her nap. "Mom! Wakey wakey! Your phone has been ringing for a while now!"

"Oh my... Okay, thanks sweetie, enjoy your swim as I get interrupted... Again!" She grumbled.

Stephanie giggled and went back into the pool.

"Who is it this time... Oh! Linda! Someone else that I don't mind answering." She accepted the phone call again.

"Hi Lin! Nice of you to call."

"Hey Judi! Look I didn't want to disturb your vacation, but a lot has happened over here and I just needed to share it with my bestie!"

"It's alright hon. I'm enjoying the sun and trying to get a tan at the moment, so you aren't disturbing me at all."

"Okay, good to hear that everything is going well over there, look I'm not going to wind around the subject with you so I will just say how it is. Chris and me are getting divorced, he has been cheating on me with one of his female colleagues for the past year."

Judith was shocked, if there was one couple that she never suspected to be divorced it was Linda and Chris. "But how? How did you find out about all of this, he was overseas right?" She asked confused.

"One of his other colleagues has been good friends with us for years, he suspected something was going on and observed Chris's actions. He felt so bad for me that he contacted us over here. Of course, I did not believe it at first but he recorded visual and audio evidence of him and this other woman."

"Oh my God... Lin I'm so, so sorry honey."

"No, it's... It's alright Judi, I suspected this would happen in the long run. He became distant to me over the past years, and even more so with Brian. As our boy grew up he became less and less involved with his duties as a parent, as if he regretted ever getting a child. Me and Brian became so much closer Judi, Chris looked at me sometimes with some sort of jealousy in his eyes. I think he became jealous of Brian because of the time I spent with our son. He always had a little bit of ego after all. So, I think he decided to act for himself instead of being open and honest to the two of us."

"Lin, you know that I'm always here for you, if you want to talk when I get back..."

"Judi, I appreciate it, but... So much more happened, with me and Bri-"

Judith could suddenly hear a high-pitched yelp coming from Linda. It was quiet for a little while before she could hear voices whispering, one Linda's and another... Male... Brian? She pushed the phone against her ear, hoping to catch what they were saying... And she did.

"Honey! You can see that I'm on the phone!"

"Mom, how can I resist you when you are butt-naked, shaking your ass that seductively to me. Please come back to bed Mom."

"I will sweetie, let Mommy finish this call and I will be all yours agai-" Judith then heard a smacking sound followed by Linda's squeal. "Oh baby! You naughty boy! Calm down a little and let me finish!"

"Mom your juices are running down your legs, just look how wet your pussy is... And I'm ready again, here, feel me."

Judith could now hear soft squishy smacking sounds now, sounds she was all too familiar with. She now knew what was going on. Linda and

Brian had taken the same step in their relationship just like she and Matthew had a few weeks ago. Her best friend also got into an incestuous relationship with her son. Part driven by running emotions because of the whole Chris fiasco, but she knew for damn sure there was love involved, a lot of love between the two of them.

"Oh baby... Baby please, you are making Mommy really horny. Let me finish my call before I can't resist any longer."

Apparently, Brian turned a deaf ear to her words, and started describing what he was doing to her, as if he was aware that they could be heard.

"You are such a beautiful woman Mom... I love how you squeeze me, how hard your nipples are for me, poking against the palm of my hands, waiting for me to suckle on them while I... While I fuck that wet and tight pussy of yours. Finish the call Mom... Finish the call and come to me, I'm going to love you like you deserve to be loved."

Judith could then hear the distinctive sounds of kissing, followed by soft moans.

"I will baby, give me ten seconds and Mommy will let her man love her."

She then heard a few loud cough's before she got a happy sounding Linda back on the phone.

"Sorry dear, Brian needed something from me. I tell you that boy can't resist me when he wants something from me."

Judith giggled, knowing all about what she meant. "It's okay Lin, so, me and you, some coffee and a slice of home-made cake when I get back?"

Linda laughed. "you know it girl, just enjoy the rest of the week there, when you get back we can talk till our mouths start to hurt. Just a warning though, I have a lot to talk about."

"I bet you do" Said Judith with a sly grin on her face. "And, good luck with the whole divorce Lin, remember, call me when something urgent happens."

"I will sweetie, thank you so much. Now let me get back to my son, he needs his Mom."

"Give him hell honey."

"Oh Judi, I will... I will."

*****

After a sunny day of relaxing the Caldwell's went to the restaurant for a well needed dinner, it was already pretty late since time passes twice as fast when you are having a good time.

"Man, I'm starving! Look at all this food that we can pick, I'm going to eat for ten!" Said a hungry Matthew, his sister was close behind him."

"Ugh... You pig. Go easy on it, you can come back as many times you want. Don't embarrass Mom and me in front of the other guests."

"Sorry Sis, but I got to stack up for this 'surprise' that you both had for me tonight."

Stephanie started to blush thinking about it. "Okay... Just act decent little brother."

They walked back to their table with their plates filled, Stephanie shared with her mother who was already seated.

"Hey Mom, good looking there, I can tell that the sun is doing his work on your skin."

"Thank your sweetheart. I told you, this place is incredible. So, how was your time with Stanley? Did you enjoy seeing the project that he and your dad worked on?"

"It was great! We tinkered with it all day. I didn't know that Dad had such mechanical skills, him being a photographer and all."

Judith smiled. "Me and my Mother always said that he had a pair of golden hands, everyone was so surprised when he told us all that he would be pursuing photography instead of something else with his talent. But his decision really rubbed off onto one of our kids, wouldn't you say?" She said proudly while looking at her daughter.

Stephanie blushed again, she kept pricking her fork into the food instead of eating it.

"Is something the matter sweetie? Usually you aren't as quiet." Asked Judith slightly concerned.

"Oh... No, I'm just... Not really hungry, I guess..."

"Steph, you have to eat something, you can't go through the whole day on that one sandwich you ate while driving here."

Matthew stood up from the table. "Since we are on the topic of food, I'm getting myself a second plate, be back in a bit. And Steph, Mom is totally right."

Judith watched Matthew walk away before she placed her hand on her daughter thigh.

"Honey, please tell me what's bothering you."

Stephanie placed her own hand on her mother's. "I'm nervous Mom, I wanted to ask Matthew about the pregnancy thing here. I guess I don't have the guts to ask it..."

"Is that all? I have known you longer than today sweetie, you are scared of what he will say when you ask him. Isn't that it?"

A small smile crept onto her daughter's face. "You really know me from inside out... Don't you Mom?"

"Ask it when the time is right Steph, not here in this busy restaurant. Ask it tonight, before we... Well you know what. Don't be afraid of your own brother, you know that he loves you."

Stephanie let out a big sigh. "You are right Mom, I'm just... Overthinking things... Thanks Mom." She then stuck a big piece of meat on her fork and ate it down in one bite. "Wow! This is some great meat. Excuse me Mom, let me get some more of that for us."

Judith smiled and patted her daughter's butt as she walked past her. "What did I do to deserve such pure and cute children." She thought to herself.

Matthew returned with his full plate, passing his sister who gave him a blow-kiss.

"So, what's up with her Mom?" He asked. "What did you do her to cheer her up so fast."

"That's something between girl's honey, let's just say that we are on the same line again."

"Woman." Said Matthew as he rolled his eyes making his mother laugh.

The rest of the dinner was a great time for the three of them. They talked a lot about the resort and heard some entertaining stories about their father and mother that Judith told. They then decided that it was time to go upstairs, preparing for the night to come.

"Hi, sorry for being so late but we still need to get our room key, It's for the Caldwell's"

The receptionist behind the counter went through his computer. "Oh yes, Ms. Caldwell. You and your children will be sleeping in the King's Suite this week, Mr. and Mrs. Kibbitz made sure that everything was in order. Your luggage is already upstairs, the bar has been fully filled and everything is sleep ready. Here is the key, you will find the room on the upper floor. It's the room to your right when you step out of the elevator, I hope you will enjoy your stay."

They thanked the staff for their help and went to their exclusive room, once inside they were stunned at how it looked.

"Oh my God, Mom this is amazing! Look how big it is, the main room is almost three times the size of our Livingroom at home!" Said an amazed Stephanie.

Matthew was scouting around the rooms. "The same thing can be said for each room here; this suite is huge! And the king-sized bed in the main bedroom is incredible, we will sleep so good on it!"

"Who says that we will be sleeping together? And who says we will be only sleeping there?" Said Judith with a seductive voice before spotting a bottle of champagne with a letter attached to it.

Stephanie noticed it too and handed it to her mother. "I wonder what's in it."

Judith opened the letter and read it out loud.

"Dear Judith and kids. We know that you three went through a horrible time after the death of Jeremy, even if it has been a long time ago. We hope that you will enjoy your stay at our resort for the next week, and that it may help you all relax and wipe away those sad times from long ago. We have known a lot of customers but the Caldwell's always held a special place in our hearts. We can see how strong the bond is between you and your children Judith, we admire that, to see a family so full of love and kindness towards each other, no matter what happened. So, we decided that from now on, you and your children can visit our resort twice a year, a full week on our costs. We hope that you will accept our offer, you have always been family to us and we hope that many more generations of Caldwell's will visit this special place. Keep your heads up and let the love stay strong between you all. Many kisses and hugs, Stanley and Leonora Kibbitz."

Stephanie held her mother as they both wiped away the tears that formed in their eyes.

"these are really special people... Good kind-hearted treasures of people." Said Matthew softly to himself.

Judith closed the letter and stuck it into her bag. She then looked into her daughter's eyes and smiled. Stephanie returned the smile and nodded, then held her mother's hand tight.

"Take a seat on the sofa over there honey, your sister and I are going to change. Make yourself comfortable and we will back before you know it." Spoke Judith to Matthew as she walked hand in hand with her daughter towards the main bedroom.

Matthew did as he was told and started to wait patiently for his mother and sister. He could feel that something big would be happening soon, his cock started to harden and throb in his pants. He then decided to take off his clothes, already knowing he won't be needing those this night.

*****

Judith and Stephanie were changing into their 'special' outfits inside of the main bedroom.

"How are you holding up honey?" Asked Judith while putting on a pair of high heels.

"I'm fine Mom, I'm ready for it. I've been dreaming of this moment for so long... Tonight is going to be the night, I can feel it." Responded her daughter while she brushed her red hair.

It took a few more minutes before they were done. Judith again took her daughter's hand.

"Ready?" She asked, Stephanie nodded and smiled. "Let's go." She said and opened the door.

Matthew heard the door opening and focused immediately in the direction of it. His jaw dropped and his eyes widened when his mother and sister came walking out of it hand in hand. His cock went into overdrive, started leaking precum and even hurt a little at how hard it was throbbing.

"Surprise baby." Said Judith with a very erotic and seductive voice. Matthew was a little bit confused at how she acted, normally she was the shy one instead of his sister, but this time his sister was as shy as can be, blushing heavily and trying to avoid his aroused gaze.

"Oh my. darling, I see that you already took care of those pesky clothes for us... Do you like your Sister's and Mommy's outfit baby?"

Matthew only nodded as the image was being burnt into his brain. They both were totally naked on top, their big breasts standing proudly and firm with nipples as hard as diamonds. The only pieces of clothing they were wearing were a tiny black garter belt, attached to black stockings and a pair of black fuck-me high heels. They were totally the center of attention, their long red hair worked so well with the black contrast, making them look hotter than ever. He could also see their bare pussies, glistening with moisture as they came closer and closer.

Judith took a seat next to Matthew on the large sofa, his sister sat at the other free side of him. She grabbed her brother's hand tight and started to talk with a trembling voice.

"M-Matt... I... I want to a-ask you something b-before we... Before we start." She looked into his eyes with her own tears filled ones.

Matthew then surprised her by wiping away her tears with his free hand before placing it on her head, ruffling her hair soft and sweet.

"It's about pregnancy, isn't it?" He asked with a soothing voice.

Stephanie's eyes widened. "Matt... How... How do you know..." She asked softly.

"How do I know? Sis you have been not acting like yourself these past few weeks after you came to me with the whole getting pregnant talk. I suddenly couldn't cum inside of you anymore, you became nervous around me and you were daydreaming so much that it became scary."

She looked down slightly embarrassed. "S-sorry, it's true, I've been so nervous ever since..."

"Sorry? What for? Steph, you don't have to ask me anything because you already know my answer. You only had to give me a sign that you were ready to take our relationship further."

Stephanie quickly looked up to him with glistering eyes. "S-so you... You mean... You want it too?"

"Sis... I already said it so many times before. I want to be with you for the rest of my life." He then retracted his hand and took ahold of his mother's hand, intertwining their fingers. "And with Mom... Look Sis the only thing I will say is... I'm ready for it, and I know that you are too. So let's make love today Steph, and let's let our love start a new chapter of our lives."

His sister lunged forward with a tear filled smiling face and mashed her lips against her brother's. "I love you, I love you, I love you!" She moaned as their tongues literally fucked each other's mouths. He cupped her ass with one hand and drew his sister even closer to him.

Judith watched her son and daughter make out like she had never seen before. She then felt a strong arm around her waist pulling her on top of her son. Before she knew it, she was straddling Matthew and felt his rock-hard cock pressing tight between her butt cheeks, throbbing heavily and coating her behind with precum.

"I got you now, you naughty mommy minx!" Said Matthew before latching his mouth onto one of his mother's diamond-hard nipples, sucking it like a mad man.

"Oooh baby! So sudden! What did I do to deserve this? Oh yes! Suck Mommy's tit!"

"You know damn well what you did mother! Flashing that tight pussy of yours in the car, showing that sexy body of yours in that skimpy bikini. It's time for mommy to get punished by her son!"

Matthew knew his dirty talk had a lot of effect on his mother. He could feel her juices running down his waist as she grinded back and forth onto him, she did it in such a way that his dick nudged up and down her ass-cheeks with maximum pressure.

"Yes honey! Mommy has been naughty, but only for you!"

He rocked his hips with the same motion as his mother did before he felt his other hand being pulled towards a very, very wet and tight place. He looked to his left and could see that his sister had jammed three of his fingers deep inside her juice leaking cunt. "Fuck my pussy little brother! Make love to me with every part of your body! Mom! Kiss me!" She spoke loud with a demanding tone.

She sat on her knees, giving Matthew perfect entry for him to fingerfuck his sister's tight pussy. She then wrapped her arms around her mother and kissed her full on the lips.

Judith moaned loud and accepted her daughter's tongue deep inside, she pushed it back with her own and a fierce tongue-fuck battle started between the two of them. Saliva ran out the sides of their mouths each time they gasped for that little bit of air.

Matthew had never witnessed his mother and sister being so hot and horny, he could feel his cock harden even more as it juggled up and down between his mother's soft ass. Speaking of juggling, in front of his face bounced two perfectly, big tits that demanded some more sucking action. He threw his head forward and started licking, sucking and kissing his mother's globes like he never had before.

Judith placed her left hand behind her son's head, pushing him even harder and tighter against her bust. With her other hand she mauled at her daughter's equally impressive breasts while still attacking her mouth with an incredible force.

The three of them had just started their special night but were already soaked in sweat. Kissing, fucking, touching, tasting and pleasuring each other like they never had before. The expensive sofa was already coated with a vast variety of bodily fluids, it was going to have to endure a lot this night.

The large room was filled with loud moans, squishy sounds of wet bodies being rubbed against each other and it smelled of sex. Mother, daughter and son having the most incestuous night of their lives yet.

They went on like this for a full ten minutes, pleasuring each other just enough to not make them cum. Stephanie released her kissing battle with her mother with a loud smack before speaking. "I want you to fuck Mom little brother, I want you to fuck Mom hard while I watch." She then dropped herself into the corner of the sofa, spread her legs wide and started fingering her soaked, tight pussy with a gaze filled of lust and love. "Fuck your son Mommy, make him cum deep inside of your pussy."

Judith could feel Matthew placing his rock-hard cock at the entrance of her soaked lips. Before she could even speak she felt it being rammed deep inside of her, knocking against her cervix, completely filling her up to the brim. She threw her head back in pleasure and screamed.

"CUMMING!" was all they heard before her body started trembling and bucking against her son's body. Squirt after squirt of juice shot over Matthew and the sofa as his mother was having an impressive orgasm. He could always make her cum straight away if he entered her in one go, mother and son were a perfect fit for each other.

Matthew held her tight. "You okay Mom? Sorry if it's so sudden but I can't hold myself back anymore."

Judith breathed loud a few times before she started rocking her hips again, taking her son's cock deep inside of her. "Just fuck Mommy baby, please fuck Mommy like you want to. Tonight, is our night, let's make love like we never made love before."

He smiled and gave her a big kiss. "I love you Mom." Was all he said before latching himself onto her nipples again, slowly rocking his hips and down, matching his mother's motions.

Judith kissed him back and held him tight. "Mommy loves you too baby... Now fuck Mommy."

Stephanie was panting as she watched her own mother and brother fuck like rabbits. "I love... Ugh... My family." She managed to whisper as she played with her wet, swollen pussy lips.

"That's it honey... Ooooh yes! Keep on sucking Mommy's tits while ploughing her deep."

Judith gyrated her hips slowly to hit her every sensitive spot. Her creamy juices sipped out of her well filled cunt as she slowly smacked up and down on her son's meat-rocket.

"Your gripping my cock like a vice Mom! It's so fucking tight and wet, I've never felt you like this before." The smacking sounds became louder as Matthew started thrusting up into his mother's cunt, splatters of sweat and precum combined with pussy juice scattered across their bodies and onto the sofa. He kept sucking on his mother's sweat and saliva soaked tits, making her moan loud each time he bit carefully on one of her hard nipples.

"Mommy is... Oh!... So excited because after tonight she will be a grandmother of her children's child." She noticed that her son reacted to her words because he started to suck and fuck her harder. "You are going to cum deep inside of your sister, won't you baby? My baby is going to become a daddy tonight... And that daddy will keep on fucking grandma, his mama forever... Won't you?... Papa?"

The dirty talk of his mother did it for Matthew, in a flash he stood up while Judith was still impaled on his rock-hard cock. She let out a loud shriek of pleasure. "Oh baby!" Before Matthew spun around and placed his mother onto the sofa. He could now fuck her even harder and deeper. He paused for a second as his throbbing cock was still inserted deep into her juice squirting cunt.

"You are such a naughty, sexy mother, Mom. You know exactly what you do to me when you talk like that. I'm going to make you cum hard Mom, I'm going to fuck you so hard and deep that you will scream my name... Mama."

Judith looked her son deep into his eyes with a sly grin. She then wrapped her legs around his waist and pulled him towards her. "Then give it to me baby... Fuck your naughty Mommy as hard as you can, fill her pussy up with your thick baby making semen. Fuck me... Papa!"

"Do it little brother! Fuck Mom until she can't stand anymore! Show her who is the man of the house!" Yelled a highly aroused Stephanie, her thick cream was leaking and coated the sofa as she worked her erect clit on her pussy.

Judith pulled herself up and whispered into her son's ear. "Kiss me when you cum baby, now, make me the happiest Mom in the world tonight. I love you baby." She then also wrapped her arms around her son's muscular body and held on tight. "Do It! She yelled."

Matthew flexed his whole body and started hammering into his mother's willing cunt. He fucked her so hard that with each thrust the sofa creaked and moved a little. With each thrust in and out a loud sloshing sound was heard followed by a very hard smack, their combined juices sprayed all over the place, onto the floor, onto the sofa, it even managed to hit Stephanie's legs a couple of times.

"Yesss! Fuck me baby! Fuck me, Fuck me, Fuck meeeee!" Screamed Judith as hard as she could, not caring if any of their neighboring guests heard them. "Fuck me like you will be fucking your sister in a bit. Yes baby! Make Mommy cum all over your incestuous cock!"

Matthew was grunting hard as he rammed in and out of his mother. He laid his head next to hers and panted into her ears. "I love you Mom" he repeated over and over again as he kept on increasing his speed and strength.

Judith place one hand on the back of his head and held him tight next to her. "I love you too baby, Mommy loves her little boy so much." She moaned back as she felt his cock starting to expand. "Cum inside of Mommy sweetheart. Fill Mommy up with that delicious cum of yours."

"Here... It... Cums!" Said Matthew before kissing his mother full on her lips, he kept his promise and his mother ploughed her tongue inside of her son's mouth. Her eyes then widened as she felt rope after rope of thick potent cum being shot inside her womb. She started bucking and trembling, experiencing an orgasm she had never felt before. She refused to let go of her son's mouth and moaned hard, she felt her son doing the same.

She held on tight when she felt Matthew slump on top of her body, her tits and hard nipples were mashed hard against his sweaty chest. She then slowly released their kiss.

"Honey... T-that was... Amazing!"

Matthew started to laugh. "I thought you would scream my name Mom?"

She then giggled. "Couldn't you decipher it from my moan? I really said it sweetie!"

They both laughed again. Matthew pulled his exhausted mother up next to him. She looked at her son's cock as a thick stream of semen slowly ran out of her pussy. "Look at you baby, still hard after this?"

"That's why I ate all those plates of food Mom, I got energy for the whole night. Besides, we still got a dream to fulfill, don't we Sis?" He said while looking at his sister who was still rubbing her sticky slit up and down.

Stephanie started blushing again but she kept on looking her brother deep into his eyes. Matthew could see that she was ready, he could see the love and passion in her beautiful eyes. It was time to take the last step, a step that would connect them together forever.

Judith kicked off her heels, adjusted her stockings and garter belt before she stood up wobbly and slowly walked to the big recliner on the opposite side of the sofa. She sat down on it, leaned back and flipped her legs over each side, starting to rub her well filled pussy slowly. Her pussy juice combined with her son's thick cum streamed out of it, dirtying the clean recliner with their fluids.

"This time I'm on front row. Show Mommy how you two make love, show me everything." She said while keeping her eyes focused on her son and daughter.

Matthew held his hand out to his sister, she gladly accepted it and before she knew it she was in a tight embrace with her brother.

"Shall we begin... My dear wife?" Said her brother seductively. Stephanie played along, feeling butterflies in her stomach. "Yes please... My dear hubby... Let's make our dream come true."

They started making out full with passion and love, both exploring each other's mouth until every nook and cranny was explored. Their hands roamed over their sweaty bodies, groping, petting and kneading as much as possible. His reformed hard cock was throbbing against her trained stomach, smearing precum all over it as her pussy leaked an incredible amount of juice that ran down her thighs and legs.

Judith watched with delight while slowly rubbing her freshly fucked cunt. Seeing them like this made her realize that they were meant for each other. The amount of love they had for each other made her think back to how she and Jeremy were at their age. As she watched she suddenly spotted a falling star outside through the window, as if it was a sign from above, blessing their lives and relationships. Tears started to well up in her eyes. "I miss you so much, my love." She spoke softly to herself.

Matthew then whispered into his sister's ear. "Remember the first time we fucked Sis? You asked me if I would fuck you while standing up... How about we give it go, show off to Mom?"

Stephanie smiled. "Baby, you don't even have to ask." She threw her arms around her brother's neck and jumped up. Matthew caught her ass in his hands to hold her up while she crossed her legs around his waist. His cockhead had already slipped into his sister's tight pussy, he was ready to penetrate her completely.

"Fuck me gentle little brother, let's start on a normal pace. I want to make out some more while you fuck me."

"Whatever you want my princess." Said Matthew before slowly entering his sister.

Stephanie followed his movement with her hips so that they came together perfectly with each thrust.

"Yesss. Fuck me like this. Make love to me Matt. Let's make this a first night of many to come. Mommy and Daddy making love."

She smacked her lips against her brother's so that they could taste each other again. Both of them moaned hard as they softly slammed together. Stephanie pussy juice ran down her brother's shaft and balls, trickling down onto the carpet, soaking parts of it with each step Matthew made.

He wanted his mother to see how her children made love, so he took a step after each thrust into her direction until they were standing in front of the recliner. He smiled at her and turned his focus back onto his sister.

Judith licked her lips and smiled back, she was totally hypnotized by her children. Her hand was spreading the thick cum of her son around her pussy as she rubbed herself faster.

Stephanie broke the kiss to talk. "You can fuck me harder now baby, stick that hard cock of yours deep inside your sister's pussy, fuck me like you fucked Mom."

He did as she told and loosened his arms and hands that were cupping and kneading her round ass. This made her slide down onto his cock, penetrating her deeper. "Oh fuck yes!" Moaned his sister as she felt her brother's cock knocking against her cervix. "Fuck me! Fuck meee!" She yelled.

Matthew picked up the pace and started thrusting up into his sister's pussy, her vagina walls were like one giant clamp that closed itself around his cock. "Shit Sis! Your pussy is swallowing me deep inside, it's trying to milk me." He yelled back. Fresh pussy juice now splattered around with each thrust deep inside his sister, his legs were shiny wet because of it, the carpet under them got the same treatment.

"Yes! My body knows little brother... It knows that tonight it's going to be pumped full with your potent seed, seed that will coat your sister's ovulating womb and fertilize her egg. You are going to make me a Mommy! Little brother is going to become a Daddy, and Daddy is going to fuck Mommy's naughty pussy every night!"

Her words had the same effect on Matthew as the ones his mother spewed out some time ago, he started slamming into her like never before. He felt her cervix kissing him every time he rammed in completely.

"Yes! Yess! Feel it Matt! Do you feel how much my womb want's your thick seed? Fuck meee!"

He fucked her for a few minutes like that, the both of them gazing deep into each other's eyes before making out once more. The standing up was taking the toll on Matthew's legs as they became tired after minutes of intense fucking. He then made a move that surprised both his sister and mother.

"Eep!" Yelped his mother as Matthew laid Stephanie between her legs, her lower back against her mother's cum soaked pussy and her head onto her pillow-like breasts.

Stephanie looked up to see her mother's face. "Oh, hi Mom!" She said with a confused but cute looking expression.

"Hi there sweetheart!" Smiled Judith back. "Enjoying the ride your brother is giving you?"

She nodded. "Uh-huh you know how good your son's... Ooooh! Fuuccck!" She screamed.

Matthew's lust took over, he started to fuck his sister deep and hard again, it felt like his cock became even harder than it was as he watched his mother's and sister's big tits bounce up and down because of his explosive thrusting.

He hammered away into her like he did to Judith. Deep, hard and fast, hitting every sensitive spot of her pussy. He loved seeing his sister like this, she had her eyes closed and a big smile on her face, enjoy the fuck her brother was giving her.

Judith reached for the twin bouncing globes of her daughter in front of her, she kneaded the flesh and pinched her sensitive diamond-hard nipples.

"Yesss! Touch me Mommy! Play with my tits while Matt fucks me crazy!" Screamed Stephanie excited.

Just like the sofa, the recliner started to move and make creaking sounds as Matthew rammed into his sister faster and faster. Their juices ran down it like a waterfall, Matthew made Stephanie's pussy squirt juice with each thrust inside, Judith got affected by some sort of chain reaction. Each time her daughter got fucked and her body moved up and down, it would caress her sensitive pussy and tits because of the friction. Matthew was well on his to make himself, and his mother and sister cum at the same time.

Stephanie was now slowly losing her mind, she was going to experience an orgasm like she never had before. Her mouth started to drool a little before she started to talk to her mother.

"Mommy... Mommy kiss me... Kiss me while Matt impregnates me. Please Mommy..."

Judith didn't wait for a second, she kissed her daughter deep and started making out with her. Her hands kept on being busy with kneading and mauling her daughter's large bust.

Matthew was breathing heavily and grunting hard, seeing his mother and sister making out did not really do him a favor, he kept increasing his thrusts until he could feel his cock starting to expand. His balls started to hurt as they kept on getting tighter, they screamed for release each time they slapped against his sister's asshole. He knew it was time.

He leaned forward so his head was close, next to his sister's and mother's.

"I'm going to cum Steph, I'm going to cum so hard and deep inside your ovulating womb. I promise you, you are going to be the best Mommy in the world... Just like our Mom is to us... Ugh!... Here it comes Sis... Here comes our child!"

Stephanie quickly pulled her brother's head together with hers and her mother's, now the three of them kissing and licking each other furiously just before Matthew came.

Matthew roared like an animal as he had the ejaculation of a lifetime, spurt after spurt of thick potent child-making seed shot straight into his sister's ovulating womb. Her pussy swallowed his spurting cock inside as it sucked vacuum around his shaft. Both Stephanie and Judith started to buck and shiver as their climaxes exploded at the same time. They screamed their lungs out as their pussies squirted an unending stream of juice. Mother, daughter and son, brother and sister, experienced the most amazing climax of their incestuous relationship, together.

Matthew opened his eyes as the sun shined bright through the windows into the room, he could feel two warm and curvy bodies cuddled up to him. On each side a red-haired beauty, softly snoring with satisfied smiles on their faces.

He looked up at the clock hanging on the wall in their room, it was already early afternoon. They had been sleeping for hours now. He could remember little of what happened after their wonderful night, he did remember that his mother and sister were knocked out after their climax and that he carried them both onto the king-sized bed one after another before falling asleep between them.

He watched his sister with a big smile. His big loud-mouth sister cuddled up next to him with her hand on his chest and her leg across his own, the mother of his child, the woman that he was going to spend the rest of his life with.

Suddenly he felt movement on his other side, he turned his head and was greeted with the beautiful eyes of his mother, gazing into his own.

She yawned. "Good morning baby, did my sweet boy sleep well after everything."

Matthew kissed her forehead. "Good afternoon Mom, and yes, I slept like a... Baby." He laughed.

Judith giggled. "Oh my! Afternoon already? You really worn your mother and sister out sweetie!"

"And myself included... I'm thinking about staying in bed the whole day. What do you say Mom?"

"Sounds like a great idea honey, your sister is not complaining, so, why not?"

They quietly laughed and cuddled even closer to each other.

"Say Mom... Do you think that it worked, do you think that we will have a baby?"

She stroked her son's hair softly. "Sweetie... Let's just enjoy the rest of our week. We can test your sister when we get home... But to answer your question... I would be surprised if she did NOT get knocked up. Honey, you filled us both up like I have never experienced before."

Matthew felt relieved from her words but a little thing kept gnawing at his brain.

"But what if... What if that virus altered my sperm?"

Judith sighed softly. "Honey... Honestly, I think your infection got cured a long time ago."

Her son looked at her slightly confused. "You think so? How?"

His cute face made her giggle again. "Let's just say... let's just say, that the best cure is love..."

She gave him a peck on his lips and closed her eyes. "Just get some rest baby, we still have a whole week to enjoy."

Matthew wanted to respond but he felt that it was good as it was, he held his mother and sister close to him, closed his eyes and drifted away again into a deep sleep.

The remaining days of the week were filled with joy, love and new memories that made them realize how much closer they all had become, something that they wanted to last for as long as they lived.

The first day after they got home was an incredible tiring one for Matthew, after a full lecture roster at his university, he also had to work till late on his job. His mother had it even worse as she had to work a nightshift.

Matthew opened the front door and slumped inside, with a well-rounded kick he closed the door behind him and threw off his shoes in one go. "Steph, I'm home!" He yelled.

Before he could even move, he heard loud footsteps coming down the stairs with an incredible speed.

In a split second he could make out his sister's face, tears streaming down her sides but not out of pain or sadness. They were accompanied by a beautiful smile.

She jumped into his arms and gave him a big loving kiss on his lips.

"Woah! Calm down Sis, what's the matter?" He asked as he gently placed her on the ground.

She grabbed his hands and placed them on her belly, looked up to him and spoke as the tears kept on streaming down her face.

"Matt... We're going to be a Mom and Dad! I'm positive! I'm pregnant with our baby!"

Epilogue - Five years later.

It was a bright and sunny Saturday; the local park was full of families enjoying their well-deserved weekend. On a bench overlooking the playground sat a young couple. A young man with a red-haired woman sitting on his lap. One of her hands holding his, and her other gently rocking a baby-carrier back and forth. Inside of it slept a small baby boy, peacefully without any care in the world.

They both looked up when they heard and saw a small red-haired girl calling out to them. "Mommy! Daddy! Look what Grandma got me!" In one hand she had an ice-cream cone filled with three colorful flavors of ice. Her other hand was intertwined with one of an older, also red-haired woman.

They approached the bench and the little girl carefully ran towards the young couple sitting on it. The young woman picked up the little girl and placed her onto her own lap, stroking her hair softly.

The older woman sat down next to them, taking over rocking the baby-carrier. The young baby boy in it yawned cutely and kept on sleeping like a log.

"Olivia, sweetie. What do you say to Grandma when she bought something for you?" Asked the young woman to the little girl.

She giggled. "Thank you, Grandma Judith!"

"Good girl, now don't eat that too fast or you will feel bad, okay?" The girl nodded and continued to enjoy her ice cream.

"Gosh Mom, you really love to spoil her, don't you?"

Judith laughed. "Oh, come on Steph, let me enjoy being a grandmother, you know how much I love these two little bundles of joy. And you can bet on it that little Jeremy over here will get the same treatment that his big sister has right now."

Stephanie rolled her eyes and looked at the young man she sat on. "Come on darling, please say something to Mom."

"Hey! Leave me out of this, this isn't very much different than the treatment we received from Grandma and Grandpa when we were little Steph!" Said Matthew with a big smile on his face.

She started to smile too. "I guess you're right, sorry Mom, it's those motherly instincts, I swear."

Judith giggled. "It's alright dear, I was pretty much the same when you two were small. Being protective of your children is a good attribute honey."

The three of them kept on chatting for a while, waiting for Olivia to finish her ice cream.

"Mommy I'm tired" Said Olivia as she rubbed her eyes.

"Then why won't we head on home." Spoke Matthew as he stretched his arms. "How about we take a bath when we get back Olivia? Daddy still has the finish the submarine story that you liked so much."

Olivia hopped off her mother's lap and looked at her father with her big green eyes. "Yay! Let's go Daddy!" She pulled his arm, trying to get him off the bench.

"That's an effective way to get her into the bath, you should share me one of your stories darling." Said Stephanie before she kissed Matthew.

The three of them stood up laughing and started walking back to their house.

So, what exactly happened to the Caldwell's in those five years? Well obviously, Matthew and Stephanie birthed two children. Olivia was born nine months after the events at the Kibbitz resort. Little Jeremy had been born recently, about one-and-a-half month ago.

What happened to the virus? Well to be honest, the only one that could say what happened to it for one-hundred percent would be Mother Nature herself. The virus just simply... Vanished, thinned out after it ravaged across the country, just like so many other viruses that dissolved over time. At least everyone would be prepared if it would ever reappear again, a vaccine was made after a long period of intense research. Ironically it had hurt a lot of people, but it also brought together a lot of people, in all kinds of different ways possible...

Matthew and Brian graduated cum-laude from their university. After their studies they were both approached by the same hospital that Judith worked at, yes, I said worked. Matthew took over his mother's doctor position, and he and Brian worked directly under Martin, who got promoted to director after a long career. Even Linda went back to her former work at the hospital as a nurse after her son graduated, she said that she missed working there. But Judith knew that that was not the only reason, she and Brian became so attached to each other that they wanted to stay together as much as possible.

Judith was happy to retire. Everyone at the hospital was sad to see her go, and deep inside Judith felt the same. But she knew that this was the right decision. She now had enough time to spend with her children and grandchildren, she loved helping Stephanie with the kids when Matthew was working. She had never touched the money that her husband left behind when he died all those years ago. It was enough to keep supporting herself and her children as she kept on living together with them. Just like Linda and Brian it was impossible for them to separate after everything that happened, her children loved her and she loved them equally as much.

A part of the saved-up money was later used to buy a new house in a nearby town at the other side of the city. Matthew and Stephanie could be themselves that way, a cute young couple in love without anyone recognizing them, knowing that they were related. It was a hard decision for Judith as the house that they would be leaving was filled with memories from the past. Deep inside she knew it would be for the better, she said goodbye to the place and was ready to start a new chapter of her life, together with her children and grandchildren.

A few months after the move started Stephanie's new career as well, she was approached by her best friend Vanessa with the idea of starting their own small photography company. It became quite a successful little company in the following years, they shot for a lot of local companies but also managed to get in contact with bigger, well known brands. Stephanie did most of the photo editing and the financial stuff so she could be at home with her mother and children. Olivia already started to follow into her mother's footsteps as a child model, she loved going with Stephanie to their studio to have pictures taken of her. Like mother like daughter said Vanessa often.

Mr. and Mrs. Kibbitz were delighted each year when they would see a reservation for the Caldwell's at their resort. They enjoyed meeting up with them each year, especially the first time they got to meet Olivia. Many more great memories were made over the years and the Caldwell's promised to keep the tradition going. This year would be the first time that they would meet little Jeremy, so they a lot to look forward to.

Linda and her son Brian. Their relationship became something based purely on love. Judith and Linda met up after she returned from that week at the resort. There was a lot of talking involved, revealing's made to each other. Their friendship became something even more, unbreakable even. Linda now knew everything about Judith and her children and vice versa, she openly told about her and Brian, how the divorce with Chris went well and how they also moved away from their old home. Just like Matthew, Brian wanted to stay together with his mother forever, they had deeply fallen in love with each other after everything that happened in that short time. Why don't we take a small peek at their daily lives? Now that they also worked close together...

It was well past midnight, both Brian and Linda's shifts just ended, but instead of going home the two of them met each other inside of Judith's former room, the room that was now appointed to Matthew and Brian. The door was closed and the lights were dimmed.

Sounds of kissing and moaning floated through the room. Linda sat on her son's desk, her legs spread and her right breast out in the open. Her skirt was rolled up to her waist and her panties were shoved aside, her pussy glistened with wetness, small streams of pussy juice ran down her thighs and onto the desk as a strong hand ran up and down her slit, sometimes pinching her erect clitoris. Her eyes were closed and her mouth was in a furious battle with another.

That other mouth belonged to her son Brian, he held his mother close as he caressed her tight and wet pussy gently. His hard cock rubbed against her left thigh, spreading small streaks of precum around it. His tongue darted in and out of his mother's mouth, dueling hers and swapping saliva between each other.

Brian then separated himself from his mother and dropped onto his comfy chair. He held out his hand to her. "Come to me Mom." He said with lust filled eyes. Linda giggled, took his hand and let her son guide her between his legs. His cock was throbbing and leaking precum. Linda placed herself above it and aimed her nectar dripping pussy, waiting for the right moment. She slowly sank down and felt her son's big cock spreading her tight pussy lips, she kept lowering herself until she felt it hitting her cervix. She then threw her arms around his neck and gave him another big kiss before speaking.

"You have been such a naughty boy baby, I've seen how you kept looking at Mommy when she was working close to you."

Brian kissed her back. "What did you expect Mom? Look at you and your sexy nurse outfit, those legs of yours are to die for. I couldn't wait until we got home, I had to have you now."

Linda giggled again. "I guess Mommy has been a naughty girl too, I showed myself off to you like that on purpose. To be honest, I wanted you to bend me over right there and then and fuck my tight little pussy right on the spot."

Brian started rocking his hips up and down, slowly penetrating his mother. She started to moan softly, enjoying her son's rhythm before he asked her a question.

"Say Mom... Would you still be able to have children?"

"Mhmmm, just like that baby. Oh yes... I can sweetie, Mommy is still very fertile if she would get rid of her pills. Why the sudden question?"

"Well... I've seen Matthew and Stephanie with their children, and they look so... so... you know what, never mind."

Linda could see in her son's eyes that he was holding back, so she decided to strike with a punch.

"Do you want Mommy to bear your child baby?"

Brian's eyes widened. "Uh... Well... Y-yes... M-maybe if you would... You know... Want to..." He spoke nervously.

Linda smiled at her cute son, giving him another big kiss. "I will sweetie, I've always wanted more than one child but your father never agreed with it... I can start stop taking the pills now if you want."

Brian's eyes lit up. "Y-yes! Mom I love you!" He blurted out as he starting fucking her hard.

"Oooh baby! Yes! Fuck Mommy like that! Show me how you would fuck me if my womb was ovulating! Ram that fat cock into me!" Screamed a highly aroused Linda.

It went to be a long night for Brian and Linda. They kept on fucking for several hours, Brian cream-pied his mother at least three times before they were spent. They cuddled up into each other's arms and had a long talk. That night they had set their sights on a new goal, a goal that would take them across the final line of their incestuous relationship.

*****

"Did she give you any trouble Mom? I know how she can be when she has to go to bed."

"No sweetheart, I read her a bedtime story and before I knew it she was drifting away off to dreamland."

Stephanie smiled with relief. "And Jeremy, honey? Did our little man gave you any trouble?"

Matthew laughed. "Not at all, he even kept on sleeping through his diaper change, I tell you that little guy is just like his father when he's tired."

Judith, Stephanie and Matthew had gathered around the Livingroom after putting the kids to bed. It had been a long but fun day, one of the many day's that they enjoyed together.

"Oh! I still have something to give to you two on this special day." Said an excited Judith as she reached for her bag.

Today was a sort of anniversary for all of them, today was the day that Stephanie got pregnant with Olivia five years ago. The day that changed their lives forever. They always did something special on this day to celebrate it.

Judith picked three small boxes from her bag. "One for you Steph, one for you Matt and one for Mom herself, go on, open it!"

They opened them at the same time and were greeted by a small golden necklace, one containing a small locket to put pictures into.

Matthew recognized it immediately. "Mom! These are same as the one Dad gave you all those years ago!"

Judith nodded, small tears were already forming in the corner of her eyes. "Just... Just open it darling, and look inside of it."

Stephanie and Matthew did as their mother asked and were greeted by something that made them very emotional as well. On the left sat the old picture with the three of them together with their father and husband Jeremy, taken all those years ago. On the right was a brand-new picture, it showed Olivia holding little Jeremy in the middle of it and Judith, Stephanie and Matthew surrounding them with the brightest of smiles.

"Oh Mom..." Sobbed Stephanie before she lunged towards her mother and embraced her in a tight hug. Matthew did the same and joined his mother and sister. They cried together for a while thinking back to their past, but also to their future. It was an emotional experience, but one that ended on a bright note.

"We love you Mom" Spoke Stephanie for herself and Matthew.

"And I will always love you too, my beautiful children." Responded Judith.

They sat there cuddled up together for a while, just enjoying each other's presence.

After a while Stephanie looked at her mother, she looked back at her and nodded with a grin.

Stephanie and Judith stood up in front of Matthew who looked up slightly confused.

"Does Papa Matthew still have some energy left for his sweet mother and sister?" Asked Stephanie with a seductive voice. She then held her hand out.

"Yes Daddy Matthew, does my stud of a son still have some bite left to entertain his sister and mother?" Asked Judith after her daughter, also holding her hand out.

Matthew laughed and stood up in a split second, he took their hands and held them tight.

"Ladies, you both know where our bedroom is, and you can be damn sure that I always leave some energy over for the two most important and beautiful women in the world."

Stephanie and Judith both giggled as they were led towards the bedroom by their brother and son, knowing that they won't be sleeping soon at all.
