June 2016, 02:00 pm, shortly after second lunch

A few Minutes later...

the German Minister of Defence Maria von der Leiden is on her way to instruct the people about a new crisis...

I hope my hair looks ok.

It's so hard to find a good hairdresser here

Hmm... there was something with the new Airbus, but who cares...

These shoes are killing me...

As you can see, Gentlemen; there is a problem. Unknown activists have broken into our laboratories and have stolen a highly-potent, concentrated formula. They called Ms. Makel today, and have told us that they want to use it to show us their power. To retrieve that formula from them, they have declared a ransom of 10 million US $; they don't want any Euros, as soon as possible.

Ahem, excuse me, can someone bring me some water, please?..

And... why are the blinds closed? It's dark in here. Open them, please.
