

The Confession

Chapter 1

Jack Nelson was your average high school senior, average eighteen year old boy; he was just well average you could say. He played football in the fall, nothing spectacular he was only a second string cornerback. Even though he got to play on special teams he never stood out in any of the games. During the winter he played basketball yet spent all his time on the bench, only getting to play in a blow out. Spring he played baseball which was probably his best sport, he was not the star player yet he contributed and started on a regular basis.

On the baseball team is his best friend Kevin Welch, Kevin is the team's best pitcher drawing a slew of college scouts at all his games. Besides sharing a lot of the same interests Kevin had something else Jack was interested in as well. Kevin's mother Kelly, Jack had been in love with her since he was a freshman in high school.

Kelly did not have super model good looks, she was not built like a porn star, and she was average. She wore her brown hair short, has green eyes, her breasts were 34b from the bra he saw in a laundry hamper one day. Kelly also had a nice round ass not fat with just enough meat on it to round it nicely. The one thing Jack thought made Kelly's body stand out or at least to him was her legs. Her legs are long, with nice muscle tone and the color of them were lightly tanned to match her usually tan skin.

Jack loved spending as many overnights and weekends at Kevin's house so he could be around Kevin's mother. He was excited because this is one of those weekends he would be spending with the Welch's. When he got to the Welch's house with Kevin, Kelly was on the front porch retrieving the mail from the mailbox.

"Hi Mom." Said Kevin

"Good afternoon Mrs. Welch." Jack said politely.

"Hi sweetie, Hi there Jack." She said looking through the mail. "There is a fresh pan of brownies on the counter if you want a snack."

"Thanks Mom." Kevin said going inside.

"Thank you Mrs. Welch." Jack said following Kevin.

The two boys threw down their book bags and ran down the hallway to the kitchen. Sure enough there was a pan of brownies on the counter still warm from the oven. Jack got a knife from the silverware drawer, while Kevin got two glasses and poured some milk. Jack got a couple of small plates from the cupboard and cut two brownies from the pan. He took them to the table and Kevin joined him with the milk, the two boys took a big bite and a large gulp of milk.

"You are such a goof ball." Kevin laughed.

"How so?" he asked.

"You are so polite whenever you are around my mother." Kevin badgered.

"Well Kevin you could take lessons in respect to your elders and politeness from Jack." Kelly said in a mock stern like voice.

"Okay Mom." Kevin laughed.

"The brownies are very good Mrs. Welch." Jack said.

"Thank you Jack." She replied.

Jack followed her with his eyes as she wiped up the counter of crumbs and then she put the dishes in the strainer away. He never thought jeans and a t-shirt could look so sexy on someone yet Mrs. Welch was giving him some serious wood in hers.

"Come on Jack. Let's go up to my room and play some x box." Kevin said.

"Your father is bringing home pizza for supper tonight." Kelly shouted after them.

The two boys played games until Kevin's dad Bill got home with the pizza, Jack liked Kevin's dad as well. The man always would find time to do things with them whenever Jack came over so it was always fun. Jack however could not see the attraction Kelly would have to the man, he is a couple inches shorter than her, mostly bald and a nice little pot belly growing in the front of him. Jack had never saw any pictures of Bill when he was younger so he figured he must of let himself go after years of marriage.

The pizza was good and it came from a pizzeria made the way pizza should be made, not like they do at those big chain restaurants. Bill kept everyone entertained with his funny stories and jokes, the man did have a good sense of humor. Bill suggested that the boys help with the yard work on Saturday and he promised Sunday they would go fishing.

"Wow Mr. Welch, that sure sounds cool." Jack said.

"Good and maybe while we are at the lake we can have a picnic." Kelly added.

"That is a great idea honey." Bill said. "Make a list and I will go to the store and pick up everything."

"I better check the tackle boxes before you go Dad, just to make sure we do not need any tackle. It has been a while since we have gone fishing." Kevin explained.

"Yeah I rather get what I need before we go rather than having to stop." Bill said.

Kelly began to clear the supper dishes and Jack stood up and gathered up the two pizza boxes. He followed her into the kitchen and watched as she scraped all the leftover food into the garbage. Then she took the boxes from Jack and put the leftover pizza into a plastic container that she had on the counter.

"Would you be a sweetie and take the boxes outside for me Jack?" she asked.

"Sure thing." He said.

"You know where Bill keeps pizza boxes and cardboard right?" she asked.

"Yes Mrs. Welch in the old tool shed." He answered.

He put the boxes in the old tool shed and went back into the house, everyone was in the living room. Bill was looking through the pay per view movies on the digital cable trying to find something good to watch. Everyone but Kelly agreed to I, Robot, she said she would probably read some of her book while the movie played.

The movie was not too bad, not great, yet it had some really good special effects in it. True to her word Kelly must of read half of the paperback novel during the movie, she saw the movie was showing the credits and stretched. She let out a big yawn as if to hint to Bill who was snoring in his easy chair that it was time for bed.

The four of them made it up the stairs and entered the appropriate bedrooms, Kevin and Jack intended to stay up and play games for a while. After a couple hours of playing the two boys finally decided it was time for bed. Jack slept for about an hour and he woke up having to go to the bathroom really bad. He crept quietly out of the room and down the hall to the bathroom.

After he finished going to the bathroom he flushed, washed his hands and started to creep back down the hall for Kevin's room. He ended up stopping by the closed door of Bill and Kelly's bedroom, he could hear soft moaning sounds coming from the room. There was no denying it those were the sounds of sex going on in the room, Jack got instantly hard and pulled his cock from his shorts he brought to sleep in.

He stood in the hallway jerking off while imagining he was the one in the bedroom making love to Kelly. He heard Bill let out a loud moan that he was going to cum and Jack too shot his cum. Quickly he put his cock back into his shorts and crept back down to Kevin's room. It was a good thing he did cause Kelly had gotten out of bed to go to use the bathroom herself as well.

The next day Bill left with his list that Kelly had given him to get from the store and the list of fishing tackle that Kevin had given him. Kelly kept the two boys busy with yard work, first they did the front yard where Kevin mowed, Kelly pruned and Jack trimmed the weeds.

It was a nice war spring day so Kelly wore a pair of jean shorts and a snug tank top, several times she could of swore she caught Jack trying to look down it. She moved the boys to the backyard, where she had Kevin finish mowing and she had Jack help her paint the old tool shed. She had the house and the separate garage painted last summer so they would match, now that she had some help she would have the shed to match as well.

Kelly had a lot of fun with Jack painting the shed, they would accidentally paint each other or they would intentionally paint each other. Jack wanted to run inside and jerk off again, so much direct closeness to this beautiful woman was giving him a hard on. Yet he stayed outside to enjoy as much time as he could with the object of his desire.

Bill got back and Kelly left Jack to finish painting the shed, she ran over to help him get the groceries in the house. Kevin stopped mowing to get the fishing tackle and put the new tackle in the boxes. He hopped back on the mower and finished the last patch of lawn in the backyard; Bill wanted him to help him cut down a couple old branches off one of the trees that lined the border of the property.

"Jack seeing how you're almost done with the shed, would you run the weed whacker around the backside of the house, the garage and shed for me?" Bill asked.

"Yes Sir Mr. Welch." He replied giving him a mock salute.

The two of them laughed, Jack finished the shed in a few minutes, and he put the paint back in the garage. He figured while he was out of sight and he would have time to take care of his throbbing cock. The young man stroked his cock at a fast pace trying to get it to cum in record time. He did not know Kelly was standing in the doorway to the garage watching in shock the whole time. She watched in shock as the young man finally shot out several thick ropes of cum on to the floor of the garage.

Jack put his cock back into his jeans and then rubbed his cum into the floor of the garage so no one would notice. Kelly stepped out for a moment to compose her self and then entered the garage.

"Oh hey Jack." She said trying not to sound nervous.

"Uh, Hi Mrs. Welch." He said nearly jumping with surprise. "I was just looking for the weed whacker."

"I think Kevin left it out front dear." She told him.

"Okay thanks." He said hurrying past her.

Kelly went over and looked down at the wet spot on the floor after the boy was gone. She thought to her self that boys would be boys and this was just a normal occurrence for a young man growing up. She got the coolers she would need for the lake tomorrow and then went back to the house to finish getting everything ready.

Everyone was pretty tired and they ate a supper of left over pizza, sandwiches and some chips. Bill told them this is the best the lawn and the house in general looked in years and was proud of the work everyone did. The four of them hit the sack early because Bill wanted to be on the road by six a.m. the next morning.

Six a.m. came pretty quickly and the four of them all got up, Bill and the boys got the SUV loaded up. They were on the road in a half hour; Bill said it would take around an hour to drive up to the lake. Instead of stopping along the way for breakfast, Kelly packed some orange juice in those snack size bottles and some granola bars.

The boys helped Kelly get the SUV unloaded when they got to the lake, while Bill went down to the dock. His small motor boat was at its usual berth, he checked everything out and then he checked the motor. The caretaker did his usual good job in the up keep of his boat and was well worth the cost of storing it at the lake year round.

Kelly and the boys got down to the pier after unloading the vehicle; the boys loaded the fishing gear on to the boat. Bill got the boat started and the four of them were off onto the lake to see if they could catch some fish for lunch. Kelly was not worried if they did not catch fish she had Bill get hot dogs and hamburgers, charcoal so they would not go hungry.

As the day wore on it got hotter being out in the middle of the lake, the fish were biting good. Bill caught a trout and so did Kevin, while Jack caught a perch, Kelly lay on the bow of the boat just catching rays. Everyone took off their sweatshirts they had wore on the way up cause it was cool that morning, now that it warmed up everyone was hot. Jack gasped when he saw what Kelly had on under sweat shirt; she wore a blue floral bikini top.

Jack had a hard time trying not to stare, even though Kelly was in her late thirties she kept her waste trim to wear a bikini. After another hour of fishing, Bill decided it was time to head in and clean the catches for lunch. While the three of them cleaned the fish Kelly got the fire going on barbeque pit you find at most campgrounds and parks.

The fish was probably not going to be enough for everyone to eat, so she suggested they cook some of the hamburgers and dogs. Everyone ate well and got pretty full; they sat around relaxing for another hour.

"Well boys better get loaded up." Bill said. "I'm going down to double check on the boat; make sure it is secure to the berth."

Kelly and the boys got the SUV loaded up by the time Bill came back up, Jack thought he disappeared so he would not have to load or unload. They were back on the road and heading for home, all four of them got the SUV unloaded and the gear put away.

"Bill I will take Jack home, you drove all day." Kelly said.

"Thanks babe." He replied thankfully for back that was aching.

Kelly put the top down to her Sebring convertible and waved for Jack to get in; he put his bag in the backseat and got in. Kevin came over and the two of them gave each other a high five and some funny adolescent hand shake.

"See you in school tomorrow buddy." Kevin said.

"Yeah man, thanks for the cool weekend." Jack replied.

Kelly got into the car and started it up, she backed it down the driveway and they were off to Jack's house. Jack was distressed to the fact that one he was with the object of his desire and two she still had the bikini top on. He was constantly shifting his seat as his cock got very hard and strained against his jeans. Kelly could not help to notice the young man's discomfort and had an idea to what was causing. Yet she had a hard time to believe that she could be the reason for this kid's sexual tension.

"Jack are you alright, is there anything you want to talk about?" she asked.

"No not really." He nervously responded.

"Are you sure?" she asked turning down his street.

"Yes." He replied looking towards his house and sanctuary.

"Well we are not going to stop unless you tell me what is wrong." She said driving by his house.

"WHAT!!" he shouted aloud.

"Now are you going to tell me what is wrong?" she prodded again.

"I'm sorry Mrs. Welch. I'm in love with someone." He replied hoping it would get him off the hook.

"Great." She said. "Is it a girl in your class?"

"No. She does not go to our school." He said trying to move so his hard on would not be pushing so hard.

"Really from another town or maybe a freshman in college?" she asked.

"No, Oh god I can't take this much more." He said as she stopped at a stop sign. "Mrs. Welch I'm in love with you. I think about you all of the time and I can not get you off of mind. I think you are the most beautiful, sexiest woman alive and I love you."

"Oh my." She said putting her hand up to her mouth in shock.

Jack did not give her a chance to say anything more; he opened the door and got out of the car. He reached in the back and grabbed his gym bag, Kelly watched in her rear view mirror as the young man ran back down the street for his house.

All the way home she thought about how to handle this problem, she was flattered that a young man would find her attractive. She was also sure that she could not allow this kid to continue to have feelings for her. Should she call his parents and talk to them about it, should she talk to Kevin about it or should she find a chance to get Jack alone and talk to him.

This was definitely a difficult situation to handle; she did not want to hurt such a nice young man like Jack. She had to try and find a way to let him down easy, Kelly also being a woman had a momentary devilish thought as well, what a thrill it would be to have a young man to satisfy her in a way she had not felt in years.

Jack meanwhile lay in his bed trying to figure a way out of his predicament, he had confessed to Mrs. Kelly Welch his undying love for her. Now all he could think of was how to develop a plan to make her his.

Chapter 2

Jack spent most of his week following the weekend away from his good friend Kevin, if he did not have practice he devoted his time to the computer in his room. He surfed the net trying to find stories of young men seducing older women, yet none of those really seemed very realistic.

Jack was also very relieved that she did not tell anyone about his little confession in the car last Sunday. He could only imagine what Bill what do to him, Kevin would probably kick his ass, and he would be humiliated at home or at school if anyone knew.

The only conclusion he could make after trying to figure out how seduce Kelly was that he either had to worship her from afar or get her out of his entirely. He had a lot of various pictures of her on his hard drive that he brought up. He looked through the various folders of pictures that he had taken over the last few years. These provided his fantasy materials a good many times while he was alone in his room at night.

With his mother downstairs making supper he opened a folder called "Fun at Kevin's Pool". He was able to sneak a lot of great pictures of Kelly in her conservative blue two piece swimsuit. Kevin undid his jeans and pulled his cock out of his boxer shorts gently fondling it to get it erect. He leaned back in his chair and closed his eyes mentally imagining Kelly in the blue two piece swimsuit. In his mind his fantasy of his best friend's mom started to play out.

He pictured himself and Kelly being alone by the pool, she was laying on her stomach on her lounge sunning herself. Jack muttered something stupid about looking for Kevin which she replied he's not home. Jack turned to leave when she reached up and grabbed his hand beckoning him to stay.

"Would you rub some lotion on my back Jack." She said seductively.

"Uh okay." He replies.

He dreams he is rubbing the lotion into her shoulders, massaging it in knowing he is doing a good job when he hears a deep moan. His hands in his fantasy go from her shoulders down to her lower to her shoulder blades. His breathing is now in short breaths as the he can almost feel the softness of her skin.

Jack begins stroking his cock faster and faster now; he allows his hands to roam further down her back to her swimsuit clad ass. He gently starts to pull it down the bottoms and.....

"Jack get washed up for supper." His mother calls up to him from the kitchen.

"Oh shit." He moans as he shoots a powerful load all over his keyboard.

"JACK SUPPER!" his mother yelled this time.

"I'm coming mom." He hollered.

Jack grabbed some tissue and cleaned up the mess he made on the keyboard, he hated when he would cum all over like this. He was good about cleaning it up because he did not want his mother to find out. Jack shut his computer down and went to the bathroom to wash up for supper. Later on tonight he would be back on his computer, with his pictures of Kelly Welch and his fantasies of her.

Kelly too was on her computer at her house as well, Kevin was busy doing homework and Bill was working late. She too was searching for information through many different websites on how to deal with her smitten young admirer. She found information that was too clinical for her to understand or explain, she found a lot of motherly type advice that could be considered to be old fashioned and she found the perverted milf stories.

She did not want to embarrass Jack, so she felt that it was a good idea not to tell Bill about what happened. She definitely did not want to tell Kevin, her son and Jack had been friends for so many years. Kelly did not want to tell Jack's parents either, so it was really up to her to nip this in the bud and get him to look for girls his own age.

Kelly read a few of the perverted milf stories she had found, they all sounded so unbelievable to be true. Could anyone possibly believe stories of older women seducing young men she thought? How about the opposite stories where a younger man seduces an under sex housewife? She found Jack to be an attractive young man for his age yet she really could not picture herself having sex with him.

Kelly was surprised to find that she was getting a little wetness on her underwear, the fact that a young man did find her attractive was a little exciting to her. She would never really come out and admit that she found this exciting; she masturbated a few times to the thought of this herself. She was feeling the urge to have an orgasm with the more stories she read while at the computer.

Dinner was in the oven and Kevin was busy with homework, so she erased her history on the computer. She got up from the desk and headed up stairs to her bedroom, Kelly lay down on her bed and she slowly unbuttoned her blouse, and then unhooked her bra. She undid her jeans and slid them down her legs; she put her hand inside her panties and rubbed her pussy.

She stuck a couple of her fingers in her wet pussy and began to finger fuck herself on her bed. Her thumb was gently brushing her sensitive clit as she closed her eyes and thought of when she was younger. Bill had taken her out for dinner and a movie, after the movie he took her to Lookout Hill a popular make out spot.

Bill got her in the back seat of his car and the two of them were kissing passionately steaming up the windows. Bill had her blouse unbuttoned and he was clumsily trying to unhook her bra. He finally got it unhooked and he roughly fondled her small tits like most teenage boys with no experience do.

Bill managed to get his hand up her skirt and inside her panties; he knew nothing of stimulation and began immediately to finger fuck her young pussy. She vividly remembered that night in her memories, despite Bill's inexperience this was the night Bill and her lost their virginity.

"Kelly I have a condom." Bill whispered in her ear.

"Oh god Bill." She whispered back. "I love you."

"I love you too Kelly." He said "I really want to be with you right now."

"I think I'm ready Bill." She said.

With that invitation Bill reached up her skirt with both hands and slid her panties down and off. He clumsily undid his pants and pulled out his cock, he unwrapped the condom and quickly slid it on. Kelly instinctively spread her legs and hiked her skirt up, Bill nervously got between them. The combination of the condom's lubrication and her own wetness allowed his cock to break her hymen and slide into her pussy.

"OOOOhhhhhhh!" she moaned. "Just be gentle Bill, it hurts a little."

"I love you Kelly, I won't hurt you." He said softly.

Bill took his time and was gentle; he made nothing but slow gentle thrusts despite his excitement wanting to go faster. Kelly fell in love with him even more for being gentle with him, once her pussy got accustomed to the foreign invader she wanted more.

"Faster now Bill, oh yes faster baby." She moaned.

This was all Bill needed to hear he pounded his cock in and out of her virgin cunt faster now. He could feel her nails dig into his back and he could feel her body tense from time to time under him. Her loud moans were driving him mad with an animal lust; he had never felt such power as he brought his virgin girlfriend to orgasm.

"Oh yes Bill yes YES YES YES YES." She was screaming as she had an intense orgasm.

"Yes babe I'm going to cum." He said
"AAAAAAAAAAHHHHHHHHHH!"

Bill lay on top of her as his cock spewed over and over again in the condom; he laid there and kissed his love. Kelly's body now tensed up on the bed and her hips bucked up high as she brought herself to orgasm over her memory. As she lay on the bed with her eyes closed, relaxing from the intense climax she had just had. She again pictured herself in the back seat of Bill's first car, only this time she looked up from the back seat and it was not a young Bill looking down her. She saw her son's best friend, her new admirer staring down at her.

Kelly opened her eyes quickly; she was brought back to the reality that she had to get this situation with Jack over with and out of her mind.

"Jack." She said aloud.

Kelly freshened up and got down to the kitchen where her son was already seated at his seat for dinner. She got the casserole dish out of the over and put some on two plates for her and her son. She got another plate and put some more on it, she wrapped the plate in foil turned the oven down to keep it warm for Bill.

She brought the two plates over to the table and handed one to Kevin, she took her seat and sat down to eat. They made the usual mother son conversation during the meal and finally she asked him about Jack.

"Where has Jack been lately? She asked.

"He said he has been busy, I don't know he has acted a little strange since the weekend." Kevin explained.

"Has he mentioned why he is acting strange?" she asked

"No, he is probably just nervous with the regional title game coming up." He said "We have to go out of town and play next weekend."

"I almost forgot I will be one of the chaperones for the game." She said. "Too bad it is the same weekend of your Dad's annual sales convention. I will have to tape it for him."

"Is it okay if I ask Jack if he wants to room with us at the motel?" Kevin asked.

"Sure I guess." His mom replied. "I thought his parents are coming?"

"No his Mom and Dad have to go out of town for a wedding the same weekend." Kevin explained.

Kelly knew now she only had a couple of weeks to have Jack learn that a relationship between the older, married, mother of his best friend was not possible. If she could not it would make for a tense weekend staying in a motel room together for a night, even if her son was going to be there too.

Chapter 3

It was a week before the team would be going out of town for the championship game and having to spend the night out of town. Kelly was on her way to the grocery store when she saw Jack was riding his bike. She slowed down and followed him to the town library where he put his bike in the bike rack and chained down. Kelly rolled into a parking space and got out of her car following the young man in. She found him in aisle getting a book off the shelf that contained love sonnets in it; she blushed figuring the young man was going to send her one of them. Jack turned and saw the object of his desire standing in the aisle way. He took a moment to look her over from head to toe as if he was taking a picture in his mind for later.

"Uh Hi Mrs. Welch." He said.

"Hi Jack." She replied. "Can we talk?"

"Sure."

They found a table on the far side of the library away from the other kids doing research projects for school and other folks just reading. Jack could feel his stomach start to turn and twist as if someone was tying it in knots.

"Jack let me start out by saying your confessing your undying love for me was one of the most flattering things that had ever happened to me. You are a sweet young man and someday you will make a nice young girl or woman very happy." She explained.

"I'm sorry I fell in love with you Mrs. Welch, it really created some problem for us." He replied looking down at the table.

"Jack you should not be sorry, sometimes things like this happen that are beyond your control. Sometimes you get feelings like yours for someone who cannot return them to you; it is all part of growing up." Kelly could see tears welling in his eyes.

"I guess you do not want me coming over anymore or be friends with Kevin." He sobbed.

"On the contrary dear, I want you and Kevin to continue being friends. Of course you can come over as much as you like as long as you remember that there is no chance of me having the same feelings for you as you do for me." She said reaching out for his hands.

"I will try, but it will be hard for a while." He sniffed.

"I know it will be hard for you for a little while." She said. "You will see that I am right about all this and you will feel better."

"I'm kind of feeling better already." He said.

"Great and I hope you will be ready for next weekend?" Kelly asked.

"The big game, I sure will be." He replied.

"Kevin told me that your parents would not be able to go and asked if you could stay in a room with him and I. I have no problem with it if you do not mind sharing a motel room with an old lady." She said looking for him to smile.

"I won't mind." He said with a smile starting to form.

"Alright see you next weekend." She said getting up to leave. "Bye Jack, glad we got to talk."

"Bye."

Jack watched Kelly walk away from him, the sway of her well rounded ass in the jean shorts she was wearing was only adding to the hard on in his pants. He waited until her car pulled out of the library parking lot and he shot for the bathroom so he could hide in a stall. Jack quickly got his cock and began to stroke it as if he needed to relieve himself in thirty seconds or less. Sure enough he was rewarded by an intense orgasm as he shot his cum in large thick jets onto the door of the stall. Jack stood there for a moment to catch his breath and watched cum slowly trickle down the door. Then he got a small handful of toilet paper and wiped off his cock and then the door. He could only imagine the fantasies he would have about sleeping in the same motel room as Kelly. Meanwhile at the Welch house Kevin was laying on the couch watching music videos on Fuse and snacking on tortilla chips. The doorbell rang and he muttered a curse, then he got up and answered it. An attractive auburn haired woman in her forties was at the door carrying a briefcase.

"Kevin I'm Colleen Masters and I represent the state university athletic department." She announced.

"Nice to meet you Ms. Masters." He said extending his hand. "Would you like to come in?"

"Yes I would like to take the opportunity to show all the state university has to offer you in academics, baseball and campus life." She explained.

"Well my Mom and Dad are not here right now so I can not make any decisions without their okay." He explained.

"I understand I would never try to talk you into anything without the consent of your parents. This is just a preliminary visit to show you how interested state is in to giving you a scholarship to attend our university." She explained further.

Kevin was impressed with what he saw to begin with, this woman was voluptuous, probably in her mid forties, large breasts, nice ass and very shapely legs. She was dressed in a tight sweater that left her milky white shoulder bare and a short black skirt that showed off her legs very well. He led her over to the couch and wrapped up the bag of chips; he grabbed the remote and turned off the TV.

"Can I get you a cold drink or something before we start?" he asked.

"Sure a diet soda would be nice." She replied.

Kevin left to get the diet soda and Colleen put her case on the table, she got out all the information she needed to start her presentation. Kevin returned and sat down next to her, he handed her the soda which she took a sip. She got out the first booklet which showed all the classes available to Kevin at the university. There were definitely a lot of classes he would be interested in taking and a lot he would not be. He never really had given what he wanted to major in much thought, if Baseball did not work out for him he would need a good education to fall back on. Colleen told him he did not have to settle on a major right away he could wait until he found something that interested him. Kevin could not get over how hot this older woman sitting next to him is, nor could he get over how hard his cock was in his gym shorts right now. He could really use some relief due to the fact he was in between girlfriends right now. The smell of Colleen's perfume was very intoxicating as he stared into her green eyes listening to her explain the campus activities. Then she explained how good the baseball program was as well, he listened intently trying to ignore his boner. She was right the school had a good baseball program going to the College World Series the last ten years straight. They had won their conference title for the last ten years as well and at least a dozen of its graduates were in the pros, while several more were in the high minors.

"So Kevin do you see anything about the university to interest you?" she asked.

"Yes I do." He replied. "When can I meet the coach?"

"He will be back in a couple of weeks, he is on the other side of the country on a recruiting trip." She explained.

"So what is your job at the school?" he asked

"I'm the Dean of Admissions, the coach asked me to give you this preliminary visit so no other school had the chance to snatch you up before he could get back to meet with you." She explained.

"Oh." He replied.

"So can I get your paper work started and arrange a visit to meet with your parents?" she asked.

"Well I do not know about that." He replied. "You need to do one more thing to convince me how serious state is to sign me."

"Sure Kevin what is that?" she asked.

"Show me how good state is at taking care of one of these." He said standing up and pulling his shorts down to reveal his hard throbbing cock.

"Oh my." She said. "I was not expecting this."

"You take care of this and I will tell my parents I want to go to state." He said. "If not I will sign with one of the other many schools that will. Maybe I will give your top rival a call; they told me they could arrange something for this."

"I will see what I can do." She said nervously

She leaned forward and reached out for the hard cock of the young athlete in front of her. She gently took his cock into her well manicured hand and began to stroke it up and down. Her other hand reached underneath and cupped his balls, she fondled them softly.

"C'mon lady I can jerk off and play with my balls anytime." He said. Colleen leaned forward and engulfed his young cock into her mouth; Kevin threw his head back and let out a moan. Her mouth was so warm and wet, she was obviously very skilled in oral sex as she lovingly licked and sucked him. Kevin was really turned on by the wedding ring on the hand that was on his cock, he could not believe a married woman would do something this smutty to get him to play ball at her school. Kevin pulled his cock out of her mouth and leaned down to kiss her, she instantly stuck her tongue into his mouth. This older woman was hot for him so he sat down on the couch and helped get her sweater off. Then he unhooked the strapless bra she was wearing, he began to fondle and suck on her large tits. Colleen prided herself on the fact that she kept in good shape after having three kids, she spent countless hours at the gym to keep her body as firm as possible. She had always thought she did this for herself and her husband, now she seemed she was doing it for her school and her job. She could not believe that she was allowing this young man to have his way with her, in his living room while trying to recruit him. Kevin got done sucking her tits and got down on his knees; he pulled the skirt off, then her panties hose and panties. Colleen kicked off her heels so he could get them all of the way off of her. She spread her legs and the young man dove in between them to eat her wet pussy. She was happy that he must have already had some experience in this area because he found her clit and worked with his tongue.

"Oh fuck baby that feels good." She moaned.

"Oh shit." Kevin groaned as he pumped several loads of his young teenage cum into her. "God that was awesome." She sighed catching her breath.

"I can't wait to get to state university if all the pussy is as good as yours." He said.

The two of them lay on the couch together and shared a laugh before getting dressed; Kevin showed Colleen to the bathroom so she could freshen up before his parents would get home. They arrived about a half an hour later and they were thrilled that he wanted to go to state and thanked Mrs. Masters for being so convincing.

Chapter 4

The big game was finally here and the team went through it's warm up drills while waiting to take the field. Kelly sat in the stands with some of the other parents; she was disappointed that Bill could not be here to watch.

Kevin finally took the mound and took his warm up pitches; he did not want to give the other team too many looks at his plethora of pitches. He has a fastball that clocks around the mid nineties, a nice breaking curve ball, a hard sinking slider and a circle change to keep hitters off balanced. He was finally warmed up and was ready to face the first batter from the other team.

Kevin struck the guy out and then the next guy as well, the third batter grounded out to the shortstop. If this inning was a sign of things to come this would be a long day for the other team. The first three innings were scoreless for both teams; both pitchers were pitching very well. Kevin was piling up some great stats for the game, five strikeouts so far and he had a base hit.

Jack on the other hand was not fairing too well he struck out swinging his first time up and nearly dropped a routine fly ball. Jack was getting ready in the on deck circle to bat again when the guy leading off the inning hit a double it was up to Jack to try to move him into scoring position. The coach gave him the bunt sign and Jack nodded his acknowledgement of the sign. Instead of laying down a bunt on the ground he watched as the ball bounced off his bat and into the air.

The catcher made a great play and dove to make the catch; the runner on second had already broken for third. The catcher flipped the ball to the pitcher who turned and made a great throw to second for the out. Jack removed his helmet and slammed it down in disgust, as he was walking off the field the umpire threw him out of the game for poor sportsmanship.

"You are out of here!" he shouted.

"What you got to be fucking kidding me!" Jack said turning back around.

"You heard me kid." The ump said.

"Jack, c'mon man." Kevin said pulling him by the arm towards the dugout.

"Fucking bullshit." He muttered allowing his friend to pull him off the field.

Jack sat down in disgust while Kevin took a seat next to him; Kevin sat there quietly for a moment. He always seemed to know what to say when Jack was having a rough time, yet did not know what to say at the moment.

The inning was over and the coach came to the dugout while Kevin ran back out to the pitchers mound. The coach is a large intimidating older man, he was very knowledgeable on the game, and even though he was firm with his players it was more of fatherly type firmness.

"Jack, I never thought I would ever see such an outburst like that from you." He said.

"Yes sir." He replied not wanting to make eye contact.

"Kenny you go take over for Jack on the field, Jack I want you to just sit quietly and watch the rest of the game." He explained. "Think about your little outburst."

"Yes sir." He replied. "Good luck Kenny."

"Thanks Jack." said the kid taking his place.

Kevin continued to progress through the game, it was now the bottom of the seventh and the game was still scoreless. Kevin had already had a great game with twelve strikeouts, one walk and given up only one hit. Now his team was threatening again, this time with two outs and runners on the corners.

Kevin was up to bat; he took his place in the batters box and stood to await the first pitch. The other pitcher was pretty tired he threw a ball, then another and then one that Kevin fouled off. Finally the kid threw a curve that seemed to hang in the strike zone rather than breaking. Kevin swung his bat and crushed the mistake for a long drive to left center, the ball bounced off the wall and the runner on third scored.

In high school baseball they only play seven innings so this was the game winning hit and everyone ran out to congratulate Kevin. The team was now the state champs and they had to hang around the field for team photos. When all the hoopla was done with the coach said they could all ride back with parents or on the bus to the motel. Then get ready to go to the team dinner at a local restaurant.

The boys decided to go back on the bus with the rest of the team, Kelly drove her car back to the motel. She got up to the room before the boys and got herself freshened up to go out to supper. The boys finally made it up to the room and Kelly told them to shower and then get ready to go to supper.

Jack and Kevin took turns in the shower and got dressed, they came out of the steamed up bathroom. They were finally to go to dinner with the rest of the team; Jack could not help to give an appreciative look at Kelly. She was dressed in a tight pair of jeans and a nice blouse the also fit a little snugly.

The dinner was great at a nice Italian restaurant that had both pizza and some fine Italian cuisine to dine on. Kelly sat with a couple of parents she knew and the boys went to sit with the team. The dinner was a great success, yet Kelly could not help to notice that Jack was not having as much fun as the rest of the team.

She drove the boys back to the motel room, she let them get ready for bed first, the both brought shorts and t shirts to sleep in. Kelly went in and came out of the bathroom dressed in a night gown that came down to her knees. It was heavy enough not to be see through so she did not worry about being naked underneath.

The boys watched a movie on television for a little while and she sat on her bed reading from a book she had brought along. After the movie the boys settled down and went to sleep, Kelly turned off the reading lamp after she finished the chapter she was on.

Around an hour later Kelly heard one of the boys get out of bed and open the door to the room. She rolled over to see that Kevin was still sleeping in the bed so Jack was up and out of the room. She slipped on her slippers and got out of bed, she quietly left the room so not to wake Kevin to look for Jack. She wandered down the hall way and went outside to find the young man sitting under a tree out in the courtyard. She walked over to the tree, the young man did not look up to acknowledge her arrival, it looked to be he was crying.

"Are you okay?" she asked.

"Not really." He sobbed.

"You want to talk?" she asked again.

"Not really." He replied.

"Well I will just sit here with you then." She said sitting next to him.

Jack sat quietly for several minutes, he really wanted to be alone, yet he did not mind her coming down to sit with him either. Kelly carefully arranged herself so that her night gown did not ride up and expose too much leg.

"Life can be such bullshit." He finally said.

"Yes it can be." She said.

"My parents never seem to have time for me or what is important for to me. He said.

"They love you Jack" she replied.

"They have a funny way to show it." Jack said. "My dad is pissed because I decided not to go to his alma mater and I want to go to state with Kevin."

"Sorry." She said. "He will come to understand that you want to do what makes you happy."

"To top things off today I acted like a big jerk at the game in front of the team, the coach, the other kids and parents. You must of thought I was acting like a big baby when I had my little temper tantrum?" he asked.

"No, I was surprised by your behavior." She said. "I also know you have a lot on your mind."

"Yeah I do." He said. "To make things even worse I asked out every girl in our class that did not have a boyfriend. I got shot down by every last one of them and then to make things worse everyone in the school knows it too."

"Oh sweetie, I'm so sorry." She said putting her arms around him.

Jack buried his head into the nape of her neck and began to cry; Kelly held him and tried to calm him down by rubbing his back. His sobs grew less and less, Kelly soon realized that he was no longer sobbing; he was gently kissing her neck. She sat frozen not knowing what to do; she had never had another man kiss her other than her husband.

The young man was placing very wet and gentle kisses on her neck; soon he was working his way up to her ear. Jack gently kissed her ear lobe and then whispered into her ear 'I love you'.

Kelly snapped out of the trance she was in and drew back from him, she looked the young man into the eyes now. She could see his eyes were full of lust in them, she remembered seeing the same look in Bill's eyes when he was Jack's age. Before she could stop this she felt Jack put his hand up in back of her head and pull her face to his. The young man placed a kiss fully onto her lips; Jack was pleasantly surprised when she did not push him away.

Jack gently pushed her lips apart and slid his tongue into her mouth; Kelly was completely off guard by all of this at the moment. She knew she needed to break this kiss off yet she did not know how this would affect Jack in the frame of mind he was in. She did have to admit to herself the young man was a very good kisser as she found her tongue dueling with his.

Kelly allowed the kiss to continue, yet whenever one of his hands was trying to explore her body she stopped it. Jack managed to get a couple of quick feels of one of her firm breasts before she stopped him. He tried to get his hand up one her soft legs so he could rub her pussy, she quickly stopped him again. The two of them must have kissed for around five minutes when Kelly finally pulled her head away from his.

"Well when some young lady finds out what a passionate kisser you are, you will do very well with them." She said panting.

"Kelly I don't want any young lady, I only want you." He said.

"Jack we been through this, I'm married and old enough to be your mother." She explained again. "Trust me Jack, when someone realizes what you have to offer, you will make her very happy."

With that she got up off the ground and held out her hand to the young man to help him up. He did not let go of her hand when he got up and she let him hold it as she led him back up to the motel room. Jack got back in the bed with Kevin and she got back in the other bed, Kelly could not sleep though. She waited until she heard Jack start to snore and she got out of bed, she locked the bathroom door.

Kelly stood in front of the mirror of the bathroom and began to fondle her tits, squeezing them and pinching her nipples. She allowed one of her hands to trail down her stomach and hikes her nightgown up so she had access to her pussy. She eagerly began to play with her very wet pussy, frigging herself to a very satisfying orgasm. As she came she startled herself at what she cried out "Oh Jack", as she came.

She waited a moment to calm down and compose her, she found herself going back to sleep. She did find that she was able to get back to sleep until the alarm went off and the long drive back home was to be made. Kelly knew that she could not let another incident like the one under the tree happen again with Jack, having a young man have feelings the way Jack does for her was shamefully turning her on.

Kelly dropped Jack off at his house and they got back to their own house, Bill was not home from his meeting yet. Kevin got the mail out of the box and gave it to his mother, out of all the mail was one envelope that had no address or return address on it. Kelly opened it and began to read it, then she began to cry, she got up from the table and ran up to her bedroom. Kevin followed her upstairs and knocked on her door, she did not answer his knock so he yelled into her.

"Are you okay Mom!?"

"No, Kevin." She sobbed. "Would you let me be alone for a little while and we will talk about it a little later."

"Sure Mom as long as you promise." He said.

"I promise." She said.

Kelly went back to reading the letter that was inside the envelope, it was a few pages long. The more she read the more she cried, the letter caught her completely by surprise and was the last thing she thought she would find when she got home.

Bill did not have a business trip to go on, he used the weekend to pack up his clothes, belongings, tools and other various articles to leave Kelly. He had been having an affair with one of his female co-workers who lived in the next town over. He moved out and was going to live with her; he would be filing for divorce by the end of the week.

Kelly even got up and looked into his dresser drawers, finding them all empty, she looked in his closet finding it empty. It was true Bill was leaving her and now she was left feeling hurt and betrayed by the man she built a life with for twenty years.

Chapter 5

Jack got the news about Bill leaving Kelly for another woman, he felt sorry for his best friend at the break up of his parents marriage. Yet he felt that he may have a chance to show Kelly that he could love her more than she could ever imagine.

Jack gave them a few weeks to adjust to life without Bill in the house; after school was over he stopped by the flower shop. He picked out a nice bouquet of flowers and filled out a simple card that read, I'm here for you, love Jack. Jack paid the florist for the flowers and asked for them to be delivered to Kelly's new job.

Kelly was able to go to work at a local health center as a receptionist; her lawyer promised a decent spousal support settlement in the divorce. Bill was also very giving willing to sign the house over to her, half of all bank accounts they had together. Kelly instructed her lawyer to make whatever arrangements possible to make the divorce final.

The flowers arrived shortly before closing time at the health center; Kelly was surprised to see them. When she opened the card she let out a soft gasp finding out they came from Jack. Besides the fact that her husband left her for another woman she now had her son's best friend pursuing her in a romantic way. She could not deny that she too had been caught up in the idea of the young man being in love with her, yet she still was not sure if she could allow it to continue.

Granted she was free from Bill to do as she wished now, there were too many things to consider if she was to allow a relationship to blossom between her and Jack. First of all what would Bill say if he knew she had a young lover after he left, surely he would have some snide remarks. Kevin what would her son say if he ever found out that his mother and best friend were had a relationship together.

Kelly turned on her cell phone as she left the health center and found she had a voice mail from Bill on it. He had asked her if Kevin would come over and visits his new place, he had not seen the boy since before he left for the baseball game. Kelly got in her car and drove home, Kevin was sitting in what used to be his dad's recliner watching a tape of the championship game.

"Hey Mom, how was work?" he asked trying to be cheerful.

"Not to bad, they keep me very busy." She replied. "Your dad called."

"What did he want?" he asked not looking away from the television.

"He wants you to come over to visit him this weekend." She said.

"Well maybe I will go over, just to see what the stupid prick left you for." He said sarcastically.

"Kevin your father does not love me anymore." She said softly. "Try to forgive for what he did to me, he is your father."

"Alright I will give him a call." He said reaching for the cordless phone. "Hello dad."

"Hey Kev." He said.

"So you want me to come over this weekend?" he asked.

"Yeah that would be great." Bill said. "Friday night would be great."

"Alright see you then." He said hanging up. "Happy now mother."

"Yes I am happy." She said.

"Hey where did you get the flowers?" he asked changing the subject.

"Oh from an old friend." She replied.

Kevin watched his mother go into the kitchen and he decided to call Jack, he told his friend that he was going to see his dad. Jack really enjoyed hearing that his mother would be alone for the week This would give him the opportunity he was looking for to show Kelly that he could love her better than what Bill had.

After Kevin got off the phone with Jack he went out in the kitchen and sat down to have leftovers with his mother. The rest of the night was uneventful and the two of them went off to bed.

The rest of the week blew by; Bill arrived Friday afternoon to pick up Kevin. Other than a few civil words exchanged between them she kissed Kevin good bye and told him to enjoy the weekend. She went back inside the house and was not in there for five minutes when she heard the doorbell ring.

Kelly went to answer the door and to her surprise was Jack standing there with a large gym bag slung over his shoulder. She quickly ushered him into the house not wanting anyone to notice that he was there when her son was not.

"Jack what are you doing here?" she asked.

"Well I have reservations for the weekend at a nice bed and breakfast out of town." He explained. "I would like you to join me."

"Jack I can't" she said. "What if someone finds out?"

"Who is going to find out, we are going out of town where no one knows us." He said.

"I don't know Jack." She sighed.

"I will make a deal with you Kelly." He said. "You give me this weekend to romance you and convince you that you and I can have a relationship together. If I can not convince you then I will leave you alone and try to forget my love for you."

"It is a deal then. Give me an hour to pack my bag." She answered to his delight.

The drive took an hour to get to the bed and breakfast; Jack had sent payment in advance for the weekend. She requested a cot be brought to the room for Jack to sleep on and the clerk got it set up. Despite how tired the two of them were from the long trip up the two of them stayed up most of the night talking.

Meanwhile at Bill's new place with his new girlfriend Carolyn, Kevin was settling in to watch a late night movie with them. He was surprised to find out his dad was ten years older than the cute blonde who laid on the floor in the living room. Kevin had to admit that his dad's new girlfriend had a nice little ass and some perky little tits on her.

Somewhere halfway during the movie his father fell asleep, they both laughed hearing his loud snoring from his chair. Carolyn got up off of the floor and stretched out to relieve her sore body from laying on it so long.

"It is a nice night." She said. "Want to go out on the deck and talk?"

"Sure." He replied.

He followed her out to the patio doors and onto the deck; she laid down in a lounge while Kevin sat in a folding lawn chair. He was nervous as he watched the cute woman being around such a cute and attractive woman, while his dad was inside sleeping.

"Wow you must be some athlete." She said.

"Yeah going to attend state this fall." He said.

"Cool, we should try and get up there for some of your games." She said.

"That would be nice." He said.

"So tell me what you think of your dad's new girlfriend?" she asked

"You seem pretty cool and you are not bad looking either." He replied much to her delight.

"Thank you very much." She said. "You must have a lot of girl friends at home."

"No I play the field." He said.

"Real ladies man eh." She laughed.

"I do alright with them." He laughed.

"I bet you do." She said.

Kevin got up and went over to her lounge and sat next to her, he took his hand rubbed the inside of her leg. Carolyn did not make any effort to remove it; she looked up at him with a lustful look in her eyes. Kevin reached up and grabbed the button of her jeans and undid them, and then he slid the zipper down.

"So show me what you got stud." She moaned softly.

"What about my dad?" he asked.

"I like your dad a lot." She said. "Yet I think I may need the services of a young stud from time to time."

"Well if this is the kind of treatment I can expect from you, I can see me coming over on the weekends often to arrange whatever servicing you need." He replied.

Without any farther words he reached under her and grabbed the waistband of her jeans and panties. Carolyn lifted her ass and allowed him to slide them both off of her to reveal her completely shaved pussy. Kevin had never seen one on real person only pictures on the internet or in a dirty magazine.

Kevin spread her legs apart and got himself between them; he lowered his head to her shaved pussy and stuck his tongue out. Carolyn spread her pussy lips apart. Kevin eagerly began to lap up the juice in her slit all the way up to her clit. He defiantly knew how to eat pussy; Carolyn grabbed the back of his head and bucked her pussy against his mouth.

"Oh yeah stud eat my fucking pussy!" she moaned aloud.

Kevin continued to lick her pussy until she started to scream that she was cumming, he was satisfied with the job he did on her pussy he stopped eating it. He sat up and pulled off his shirt and opened up his pants to let his hard cock out. Carolyn took her shirt off to reveal her perky small tits and the fact that she had no bra on. Her pinkish brown nipples were fat and erect in the warm night air.

Kevin leaned back down and took turns sucking each tit, and then he embraced her into a passionate kiss as he slid his cock into her ready pussy. He started to jack hammer his young cock into her cunt while she dug her finger nails into his tight young ass.

"Out here." Carolyn called back.

"Well get inside so we can get to bed." He called again.

Instead of coming out on the patio they heard him get out of his chair and head upstairs. Carolyn and Kevin got dressed quickly and got back inside the house, they ran upstairs. Carolyn went to the bathroom to wash up and go to bed and Kevin went to the guess bedroom.

"Goodnight stud." She whispered at his door.

"Goodnight." He whispered back.

As Kevin laid in bed his cock started to get hard again thinking of the hot piece of ass he had just gotten on the deck. He felt a twinge of guilt for having fun with the woman who was his dad's new girlfriend and the woman who caused his parents to split. His animal lust soon washed away all the guilt and he began to jerk off.

Chapter 6

Jack and Kelly woke up late in the morning; Kelly used the shower and got dressed for whatever Jack had planned. Jack waited patiently for her to get done and he freshened up and got dressed for the day.

He was pleased to see what she was wearing when she came out; she had on a beige cotton skirt and a sleeveless white sweater. She looked stunning with her short hair frizzed out and her make up was applied evenly on her pretty face. Kelly had to admit to herself that Jack looked handsome in the khaki shorts and polo shirt he had on.

"Ready for brunch?" he asked.

"Famished." She answered.

The two of them went downstairs to the bed and breakfast's dining area and had a very nice brunch. Kelly found that she could talk to Jack unlike she was ever able to talk to Bill. The young man hung on her every word as she told him all kinds of details of her life.

After brunch they took a walk into town to do some window shopping at the local stores. Jack saw a cart with a guy selling flowers and he ran over to buy a beautiful bouquet, the smile on Kelly's face along with the light kiss on the lips was ample reward for them.

Jack suggested that they take a walk on the beach by the lake; a guy was renting paddle boats that you do with your feet. The two of them had a blast paddling the little boat around the lake away from all the other boat traffic. Jack found a secluded shaded area down the lake away from the other boats and swimming areas.

The two of them stopped paddling and sat in the shade enjoying the quiet; Jack took a yellow flower from the bouquet and stuck it in Kelly's hair. She smiled at the gesture, Jack decided to take a chance and he gave her a kiss on the lips. He was happy when she returned the kiss; the two of them sat together exchanging several soft wet kisses.

Suddenly the kisses turned more passionately and the two of them were making out with tongues dueling in and out of each others mouths. Jack gently reached under her sweater and fondled her bra clad breasts. They were not large, they were a nice firm handful being only 34b, and Jack could feel a nipple start to harden. He gently teased it with his fingers to get it fully erect.

Kelly was letting out soft moans; she was really enjoying the gentle fondling he was doing on her breasts. She suddenly felt disappointed when he stopped playing with it and slid his hand out of her sweater. She knew what he wanted when she felt his hand slide up the inside of her bare thigh. Kelly spread her legs a little more to give the young man the access he wanted.

She felt his hand brush gently over her wet pussy and over her pubic mound, he was surprised that this conservative mom he fell in love with was wearing a thong. He easily slid the fabric aside and gently searched her wet pussy for her clit. He found it and knew he found it from the soft moan she let into his mouth. Jack rubbed the clit while he kissed her; Kelly was really starting to get horny by his manipulation of her clit.

"Finger fuck me." She said breaking the kiss.

Jack slid one finger into her very tight cunt and gently worked it in and out of her pussy. Kelly hiked her skirt up and reached down with one of her hands to rub her clit and with her other she got Jack's cock out.

Jack managed to slide a second finger into her pussy; he could feel the muscles squeeze his fingers. Kelly gripped his cock harder and began to stroke it faster; she was letting out slow soft pants.

"Oh that feels so good Jack." She sighed.

"Yes it does feel good." He moaned.

"OH OH OH OH GOD I'M GOING TO CUM!" She moaned aloud.

"Oh shit Kelly." He groaned softly.

Kelly felt the warm spurts of his cum on her hand as she was jerking him off, both of them were satisfied by the afternoon orgasms they had. Kelly fixed her clothing and Jack adjusted himself as well.

"We should head back now." She suggested.

"Good idea." He agreed.

They got the paddle boat back to the rental and headed back for the bed and breakfast, Jack stopped by the stand in the lobby when they got back. It was loaded with leaflets from local restaurants; he found a nice one that looked real romantic.

"This looks like a good place to eat." He suggested showing her the pamphlet.

"Wow it sure does look nice." Kelly said. "I tell you what I want to go to a couple of stores alone. I will meet you at the restaurant at seven o'clock. You will not be disappointed."

"Cool." He said.

Kelly gave him a kiss good bye and left the bed and breakfast, she headed to the shopping area hoping to make it to the stores before they closed. Jack went upstairs and changed into a dress shirt and a pair of slacks. He sat in a chair and switched on the television to see if a ball game was on to pass the time.

Kelly found herself at the shoe store where she purchased a pair of red high heeled shoes. The heels were three inches long and she felt that they made her look more sensual as she walked in them. Then she went to a store and found a tight spandex red dress, it fit very snugly. The skirt would not allow room for to wear her bra so she paid for the dress and asked for a bag.

She wore the dress and put on the shoes she bought, the clothes and shoes she wore when she left this morning she put in the bag. Kelly bought some make up and hair care accessories at a drug store and went into the bathroom to fix them up. The clerk behind the counter let out an appreciative whistle when she came out. Kelly gave him a smile and walked down to the restaurant Jack had picked out for them to eat at.

Jack saw her come in carrying the bag; his heart skipped a beat or two when he saw the outfit she was wearing. They sat down at a candle lit table and ordered appetizers and wine for Kelly. The food was very good and they had a dessert that they shared between the two of them.

The restaurant offered dancing and after they let dinner settle they danced every slow dance possible. Kelly could feel the hardness of his young cock grind against her groin as they danced. She never thought she would fall in love again after reading the letter she got from Bill, yet here she was falling in love with her son's best friend.

Kelly had enough wine and dancing, she wanted to go back to the bed and breakfast and put the bed to good use. The two of them made it back to the room and burst in kissing wildly. Jack reached down for the hem of her skirt and lifted it off and over her head in one fluid motion. Kelly undid his shirt and then the pants; she giggled watching him try to shake them off.

She saw his naked form in the moon light that illuminated the room; she wrapped her arms around his neck and kissed him again. Jack reached under her knees and lifted her up in his arms and carried her to the bed. He placed her gently on the bed and pulled her thong down; he stood by the side of the bed admiring her body.

"My god you are so beautiful." He whispered.

"Make love to me Jack." She purred softly.

The young man got between her legs; he positioned his cock at the entrance of her pussy. Gently he slid the head of his cock into it, her body tensed up as she felt him try to enter. He gently slid inch by inch into her tight pussy into he had his entire cock buried inside of her.

Jack alternated from kissing her lips to planting soft kisses onto her breasts; he gave her nothing but slow gentle thrusts as he made love to her. He loved hearing her soft moans of pleasure as he continued to make love to her; he loved how good her tight pussy felt as its muscles gripped his cock. It seemed to pull his cock back in every time it would make it's out ward thrust.

Kelly lost track of how many orgasms she had, she had many that seemed to wash over her whole body the whole time. Soon she heard the familiar urgent groaning of her young lover as he shot his love seed into her womb. The two of them lay together in the bed, finally Kelly rolled onto her side and Jack spooned with her.

His young cock soon got hard again and he was trying to put it into her in the side ways position. She lifted her leg and he slid his cock right into her pussy, this time they made more animalistic sex. Jack thrust his cock into her harder and harder, Kelly was now moaning aloud.

"Oh god you make me feel so good Jack." She moaned.

"I told you I would." He whispered into her ear.

Jack was once again cumming into the woman he loved; once again they fell asleep in each others arms. Jack ended up on his back sometime during the long night; Kelly had awaked to use the bathroom. When she came back to bed she saw his young flaccid cock and she took it into her mouth. She had him hard again and he was awake ready for more of this woman.

This time Kelly climbed on top of him, she rode him up and down. Jack played with her tits and rubbed his hands all over her round ass. Jack was amazed at how well she could move her ass as she ground it up and down on his cock.

"I love you, I love you, I love you." He moaned over and over.

Kelly did not reply she just continued to ride his cock; she started to moan loudly while riding him. The closer she got to orgasm the harder she would bounce up and down on his cock. At the same time both of them tensed up and came together, Kelly lay on top of him for a few moments and then climbed off.

The sunlight of morning poured into the room, Jack was awake he got up and went to the bathroom. Kelly got out of bed and turned the shower on and got in, Jack waited a moment and then felt his cock start to stiffen. He climbed into the shower and began to kiss Kelly all over her neck and back. She instinctively leaned forward and pushed her ass towards him; he grabbed her by the hips and stuck his cock into her from behind.

The two of them fucked like this in the shower for several minutes, after having sex three times last night it was hard for Jack to cum. Kelly was starting to tire from the position so Jack suggested she turn around, not really knowing what he was up too she did. He told her to wrap her arms around his neck and he lifted spread legs up and slammed his cock into her.

"Oh yes baby fuck me." She moaned aloud.

Jack gave her a good long hard fucking in the shower; he had never heard Kelly swear very often. He was surprised as she moaned over and over for him to fuck her; he had to admit it was a huge turn on. Soon he felt the uncontrollable urge to shoot his cum into her; he groaned loudly and gave a final thrust into her pussy. As they were slowly catching their collective breaths panting in the hot shower together Jack once again told her he 'loved her.'

"I love you too." She said "I love you too."

Jack was so happy that he kissed her on her full lips; his weekend getaway was enough to convince her that the two of them could be together. Kelly felt alive again, like her life was having new meaning to it in the arms of her young lover. Kelly did worry though how they were going to keep their love alive when they get back home.

Chapter 7

Kevin has been riding high as of late, with the state baseball title and having sex with two hot older ladies. The young man was now looking for a summer job to earn some pocket money for school. He saw a help wanted sign in the local music store, so he figured he would go in and apply.

He saw a young guy behind the counter and asked him for an application, the guy gave him a clipboard with a pretty straight forward application on it. Kevin stood by the counter filling it out; the application only took him a few minutes to complete. He handed it back to the young guy behind the counter and turned to leave.

"Hey can you wait a minute." The guy said.

"Sure." Kevin answered.

The guy left the counter carrying the clipboard with him to the back of the store; he entered through a door that said office on the front of it. The clerk came out of the room with the most beautiful woman he had ever seen.

Kevin could feel his heart beating in his chest at the sight of her, tall, with long red hair drawn back in a pony tail. Her face was one that could not be duplicated by even the best of artists and green eyes that seemed to sparkle whenever the lights in the store hit them. To make matters all the better she had an incredible body as well, her milky white skin looked to be clean and fresh, small round breasts, just perfect to fit in his hand. Her milky white legs were long and muscular; he could only imagine how they would feel wrapped around him.

"Hello I'm Shannon O'Malley the store manager." She said sticking out her hand to introduce herself.

"Hi I'm Kevin Welch." He replied nervously taking her hand.

"Can you start this weekend?" she asked. "I'm the weekend manager and I need a clerk that can work from Friday night, Saturday and Sunday from open to close. You would get at least twenty hours a week and it pays seven dollars an hour."

"Sounds great!" he said trying to break his stare from those beautiful eyes.

"Good when you come in, bring your drivers license, social security card and we will do your employee paperwork. Also all employees get a ten percent discount on all merchandise in the store. So Kevin will I see you Friday night around six p.m. and we will get you started." She explained and then she flashed him a big smile.

"Yes I will definitely be here." He said.

"Good I will see you Friday." She said turning away and going back to the office.

Kevin stood and watched her walk back to the office, he admired the way her body swayed back en forth as she walked. The young guy who went back behind the counter stood and laughed watching Kevin's reaction to his boss.

"Forget it Romeo." He chuckled. "You don't stand a chance with her."

"Why?" he asked.

"Well for one her dad owns the store and I have watched a lot of guys come through in the six months I have worked here. One right after another they get shot down by the beautiful Shannon O'Malley." He explained.

"Has she shot you down?" he asked.

"Never asked." He responded. "I'm gay."

"Oh."

"You have nothing to worry about honey, you are not really my type." He said.

"Well I no offense buddy, I must say I'm glad to hear that." He laughed nervously.

"I'm Alvin." The guys said extending his hand.

Kevin hesitated.

"I don't bite and you can't catch being gay by shaking hands with someone." Alvin said.

"I'm Kevin." He said shaking his hand.

"Well good luck with little miss iron britches this weekend." He said.
"Every clerk before you quit after one weekend."

"Oh I think I will stick around a little longer than that Alvin." He said heading for the door.

As he went out to the street he could hear the guy in the store chuckling loudly, Kevin was honest when he said he never met a gay guy before. He did feel some relief that Alvin said he did not find him attractive and he was happy they would not be working together. The thought of Shannon put the homosexual out of his mind and once again he was on cloud nine as he headed home.

For Kelly and Jack it had been a few days since they had spent the weekend together, Kelly was coming out of the health center with the other co workers. She gasped when she saw her young lover leaning against her car. She hurried over to the car to avoid anyone she worked with asking any uncomfortable questions.

"What are you doing here?" she asked.

"We have not talked since we spent the weekend together." He said.
"I've missed you."

"Just get in the car." She said.

Jack walked around to the other side of the car and got into the passenger seat, he watched as she got in enjoying the fact she was wearing a short skirt. He loved how she dressed for work; it made him feel good to see her in nice clothes and make up. Even though most of the time when he saw her while visiting Kevin she did not wear much makeup.

"Jack you can not show up to my work like this again." She said firmly.

"Sorry." He said. "We need to figure out a way for us to spend time together."

"Jack what we had this weekend been a wonderful thing, you made me feel like a beautiful sexy woman again. You made me feel so alive and young, something I really have not felt in a long time." She explained.

"Kelly I love you and I want us to be together." He said. "I'm eighteen years old and that makes what we are doing legal."

"Jack doing that!" she said as his hand ran up her thigh.

"Stop what?" he asked.

The young man was very persistent as he hiked up her skirt and slid his hand down the front of her panties. He was very happy to find that her pussy was wet and he knew he was having some kind of effect on her.

"Take the next right and then go down Maple street to the park." He whispered.

Kelly obeyed what he had to say and turned down Maple and drove until she arrived to the park. He told her to park her car and follow him, she was a little disappointed when he pulled his hand out of her panties to get out of the car. She got out and followed him down the narrow paved trail until he walked off of it.

"Here follow me." He said extending his hand.

He led her down an unpaved trail, these trails could be found all through out the park. They had been made over the years as shortcuts by kids, young lovers looking for a place to have sex that was out of public sight. Kelly did not know it; Jack had found that this trail led to the garage in back of his house.

When they got to the garage he unlocked the back door and ushered her inside the garage. He led her up a set of wooden stairs and opened a door with a black and orange sign on it that read 'KEEP OUT'. Kelly did not know that Jack had a little home away from home in the storage floor of the family garage. His father had allowed him to do what he wanted to the storage floor so he could get him out of his hair.

Jack did a great job with it; he had a curtain in the window, an old couch, a coffee table, an old recliner for furniture. On one of those spools that cable or electrical wire came on he had a television and a VCR sitting on it. Jack pulled the coffee table out of the way to reveal that it was actually a pull out bed.

"Welcome my lady to our love nest." He said bowing to her.

"Jack what will I ever do with you?" She asked him.

Jack took her into his arms and held her close to him; he looked deeply into her eyes for several moments. Kelly could feel herself starting to melt; it was so romantic that this young man would go to all this trouble just so he could be with her.

"I guess there is only one thing you can do." He said. "Let me make love to you?"

He did not wait for a reply he just leaned in and kissed her on the mouth, Kelly eagerly returned the kiss. It had been a few days since their weekend of lust and she had been horny thinking about it every night since coming home. She thrust her tongue into Jack's mouth making him moan with pleasure.

She reluctantly broke off the kiss and started to unbutton the shirt he was wearing, and then she pulled it off his shoulders. He reached down to the hem of his undershirt and pulled it up over his head. Kelly kissed his chest and licked his nipples getting him to giggle, and then she kissed her way down his stomach. She gradually got down on her knees as she was doing this bringing her eye level with his groin.

Kelly reached up and unbuckled his belt, unbuttoned his jeans and then pulled the zipper down. She grabbed the waist line and pulled his jeans, along with his underwear down to his ankles. Jack shuddered when she reached up and took his hard cock into her hand and gently began to stroke it. She looked up into his eyes and saw they were full of lust as he looked down at her.

She leaned in and gently took the head of his cock into her warm inviting mouth, swirling her tongue around it. Jack could not believe how sensitive the head of his cock was until this moment. He started to buck his wanting to have more of his cock fed into her mouth. Kelly realized this and started to suck more and more of his shaft into her mouth. Jack felt like he had died and gone to heaven, he looked down and watched the woman he loved making loud sucking sounds as she pumped his cock in and out of her mouth.

Kelly felt his body tense up and then she felt both his hands reach around to the back of her head. She hoped he would realize that he would not have to hold her head when he was going to cum. When she felt the first few long thick spurts of cum flow into her mouth she eagerly sucked them down until she had pumped his entire load into her belly.

When she was finally done with his cock, Jack reached down and helped her to her feet. Then he got her to lie down on the bed, he pulled off her heels, then he pulled her panties and pantyhose down and off. She lifted her ass up and he reached under to unzip her skirt and pull it down as well.

Jack got himself between her legs; he gently spread her pussy lips apart and began to dine on her fine pussy. He teasingly avoided making any contact with sensitive clit; instead he nibbled at the pussy lips, licked and sucked the juice from her cunt. Then out of nowhere he flicked his tongue wildly over her clit, Kelly lifted her ass up in the air and let out a loud moan.

"Oh yes baby lick my clitty." She pleaded.

Jack did as he was told and was met with a lot of satisfying sounding moans and pants from his older lover. Soon she too had a powerful orgasm from his oral stimulation and the interlude allowed time for his cock to become hard again. Kelly had started to settle down from her orgasm when she felt his cock enter her, causing her gasp aloud.

"Make love to me." She whispered.

Jack gave her slow gentle thrusts allowing his cock to probe as deep as it could into her pussy. She could feel its full length enter as far as it could into her and back out again. He was hitting her g spot making her moan the whole time he was doing this, she had a couple nice orgasms. Now she was even more in the mood and wanted him fuck her hard and fast.

"Oh I love when you take your time with me, but now I need you to pound me hard with that cock baby." She pleaded.

She was pleasantly surprised when Jack reached down and grabbed her ankles; he sat up on his knees. He was able to pull her ass higher off the bed and he pounded his hard cock in and out of her pussy. Kelly put one hand on her stomach because she could feel the force of his cock in her stomach. Her other hand feverishly unbuttoned her blouse and started to pull on her nipples through the fabric of her bra.

"OH YES OH YES OH YES OH YES OH YES!" She moaned loudly over and over.

Jack waited until she told him she was cumming again after a moment for the orgasm to subside he rolled her over on her knees. He reached down and put both hands on her shoulders, slid his cock into her pussy and fucked her doggie style.

"OH FUCK, OH FUCK, OH FUCK, OH FUCKS ME, FUCK ME!" She moaned loudly.

Jack could feel that he was gaining power and he would soon possess her both mind and body. Kelly was having another loud and wild orgasm and Jack too could feel his balls tighten up as he unloaded his cum into her pussy.

After he finished cumming inside of her, the two of them laid on the pull out bed for several minutes. Jack held her in his arms and then he leaned down and kissed her on the mouth. She sighed and returned his kiss, Jack stopped kissing her long enough to say he loved her.

"I don't know if this is a good idea yet." She said. "But I think I am falling in love with you as well Jack."

"I wish you would say it then." He said softly.

"I love you too." She said. "Yes Jack I love you."

Chapter 8

The past couple of weeks had been a frustrating time for Kevin, for the first time in his life he was in love. The beautiful Shannon O'Malley had captured his heart and he was unable to express how he felt. He had talked to his best friend Jack about the feelings he had for her.

Jack just rambled on and on about how confessing was good for ones soul, he claimed he had confessed something recently and it changed his life. Kevin felt that he was not sure if he was ready to put his feelings on the line right yet. He had never felt this way about another girl and felt he was too afraid to get hurt.

Kevin tried to talk to his mother about his new found feelings of the love for someone and all she could say was how happy she was for him. He called his father who said why he doesn't come over and talks to his new girlfriend Carolyn about it.

Kevin borrowed his mother's car and drove over to his dad's new place and went up to the door. Carolyn surprised him when she answered it wearing her athletic bra a tight pair of spandex pants.

"Come on in" she said kissing him on the cheek.

"Thanks." He replied nervously.

"Your dad had to go back to work, so kind of catastrophe or something." She explained.

"Oh well I came over to talk to you anyways." He said.

"Really?" she said surprised. "Why don't we go into the living room then?"

He followed her into the living room; he watched her nice firm ass sway in the spandex pants she wore. They sat down on the love seat and she asked him what was on his mind? So Kevin told Carolyn how he had been working at a local record store and how he had fallen in love with his boss.

He explained how she is a business major at the state university and only a couple years older than him. She listened intently to his tale of how he felt and thought he looked absolutely adorable talking from his heart. She also noticed the effect of her exercise clothes on him by the bulge growing in his jean shorts.

"So what do you think?" he asked.

"I think you should tell Shannon how much you like her and take a chance." She said. "Once she realizes how great you really are you two will be very happy."

"I think you may be right." He replied.

"I also think you may need a little relief." She said reaching over to touch his hard on through his shorts.

"Uh I don't know Carolyn?" he said. "I would feel a little guilty with you being my dad's girlfriend and with my feelings for Shannon and all."

The young man made no attempt to stop her from touching his groin, even though he has feelings for someone else. The hormones flowing throughout his body had other ideas, ones of satisfying his teenage lust.

Carolyn slowly unzipped his fly and unbuttons his shorts, without thinking he lifted up his hips and pulled them down. He did not wear any underwear and his hard cock sprang free, Carolyn reached over and gently began to stroke it up and down.

"HMMMMMMMM that feels good." He moaned.

"This will feel even better." She cooed.

Carolyn leaned down and engulfed his cock head in her warm wet mouth, she swirled her tongue around the sensitive flesh. Kevin tensed up as her mouth slid further down the length of his shaft and then back up again. She gently fondled his balls with her long fingernails while slurping away on his dick.

Kevin reached down and lifted her sports bra up so he could fondle her firm tits; he gently squeezed the tit flesh and rolled her nipples in his fingers. Carolyn moaned softly with his hard cock in her mouth to the fondling, she reluctantly let his cock pop out of her mouth. She sat up and pulled her sports bra all the way off while he took his tee shirt off, then she stood up and pulled down her spandex exercise pants.

She climbed on top of the young man and slowly began to hump up and down on his cock. Kevin gave her a deep passionate kiss and then he started to suckle on her tits, the more he suckled the faster she rode up and down on his cock.

"Oh god your cock really feels fucking great in my pussy." She moaned aloud.

"Yeah you're a real hot fuck." He panted back.

Carolyn continued to ride him until she had a great orgasm; she climbed off of him and got on all fours. Kevin pounded her pussy from behind with all his pent up sexual frustration.

"Yeah baby fuck me hard." She moaned.

"Oh fuck you have a great ass." He said running his hands over the milky white ass flesh.

"Fuck my ass baby." She said. "Give me your fucking cock in my ass."

Kevin could not believe what he was hearing from Carolyn, did she really want it up her ass. She once again turned her head around and told him to fuck her ass; he pulled his cock out of her wet pussy. He lined it up with her puckered up asshole and forced the head in.

"Oh yes, oh yeah, stick up my asshole." She moaned.

Kevin slowly pushed the rest of his cock into her tight ass, he could feel her hand come around and pull him towards it. He could feel her other hand reach under and play with her clit. Finally he had it buried inside her to the hilt and her ass juice lubricated her asshole enough to where he could slide in and out easily.

He could hear her start to moan very loudly as he was now fucking her ass freely, no wonder his father left his mother. Unlike Kelly, Carolyn was more relaxed and easy going, damn she was definitely easy he thought. Finally he could not take it anymore and began to pump load after load of hot cum into her ass.

"Wow that was fucking awesome." He said collapsing on the couch.

"Yeah it was." She replied. "I wish your dad would fuck me like that more often."

"Thanks for the advice." He said kissing her on top of the head as she laid her head on his chest.

"Well if I hope things work out with you with this Shannon, if not you can always come visit me." She said

Meanwhile Jack went over to the health center where Kelly was supposed to be getting off of work. When he got to the health center he could see Kelly's car and a nice black jaguar sitting in the parking lot. He waited outside for several minutes and then decided to go inside to see what may be keeping her.

He went through the main door to find the lobby empty and her desk was empty as well. Jack heard laughter down the hallway and he decided to take a look to see what it was about. He got to the records room and peaked in to see Kelly standing by a large filing cabinet putting files away. Next to her was an older doctor, he was short, bald and a little pudgy, the man was obviously flirting with her.

"Oh Doctor Maxwell that is funny." She giggled.

"You can call me Ben." He said. "By the way you look very nice today."

"Thank you Ben." She replied.

Jack knew what the doctor meant, she had on a skirt that came right above the knee and accentuated her lower body. The thin blouse clung tightly to her and it was unbuttoned enough to give a sexual hint to her cleavage. Jack was getting pissed that another was hitting on his, well he was not sure what he could call her due to the fact their relationship was secret.

"Is your divorce final?" he asked.

"Yes it is." She answered.

Ben reached up and put his hand on her back and stood closer to her, he gently rubbed his hand up and down her back. She sighed at the boldness of his advance while she was putting the appropriate files in the cabinet.

"Well Kelly I have been a widow for the last ten years and I find you to be very attractive." He explained. "If you are not seeing anyone would be interested in pursuing a relationship with you."

Jack watched angrily as the man's hand started to stray towards her beautiful round ass, what bothered him even more was the long pause for her answer. Would she acknowledge the relationship she had with him or would she be more inclined to date a man her a little older.

Kelly put the last file in the cabinet and gently reached around, she took his hand from her back. She held on to it and turned to face him, she stood looking at him for what felt like an eternity to the three parties involved.

"Ben yes I' am seeing someone currently, thank you for the lovely compliment you are a nice sweet man." She said in a soft soothing voice.

"Okay I have to be going then." Ben replied obviously rattled by her answer. "Will you please lock up for me?"

"Sure Ben." She answered. "Goodnight."

"Goodnight." He replied leaving the room.

Jack quickly hid in an open exam room as the doctor left the health center; he waited until the door closed as he left. He felt relieved that Kelly considered what they have to be a relationship. Before she could leave the doctor's office he went in to surprise her, it was he who was to be surprised.

"Hi Jack." She said. "How long have you been spying?"

"Long enough." He replied.

"What did you think would happen, did you think I would do anything with Doctor Maxwell?" she said sternly crossing her arms across her chest.

"I don't know to be honest with you." He replied looking down at her feet.

"Jack my husband cheated on me and I know what kind of pain that can cause someone, I'm falling in love with you. This crazy kid who happens to be the best friend of son and it is driving me crazy that we have to keep our love secret." She explained.

"So I guess what you said today makes you my girlfriend." He said.

"Yes Jack I am your girlfriend." She said. "I just feel so guilty sneaking around and it's not fair to us to have to hide our love."

"Well after graduation next week I want to tell Kevin and I want to tell my parents that we are a couple." He explained. "I don't care about the consequences I only know that I want to be with you."

"I think you are right Jack." She sighed.

He stepped closer to her and takes her into his arms; he stands for a long moment staring into her eyes and then leans in to kiss her. They stand and kiss passionately for several minutes, Jack tongue eagerly explored her mouth and his began to do the same as he ran them up her skirt.

He broke the kiss off long enough to drop down to his knees reach up her skirt and pull her panties down. Kelly reached behind her and unzipped her skirt; she let it fall to the floor. She leaned back towards the doctors' large desk and pushed everything off the top of it. Jack got off of his knees and followed her over to it; he started to kiss her as he reached up and unbuttoned her blouse.

"Make love to me." She whispered.

"I love you." He said.

"I love you too." She said back.

Jack unhooked her bra and took turns suckling each of her breasts; Kelly reached down and freed his cock from his jeans. He kissed his way down her stomach and positioned himself in front of her pussy. Parting the folds of her labia gently he ran his tongue up the wet slit. Shivers ran up and down Kelly's spine as he licked her pussy, then he found her sensitive clit and began to assault it with his tongue.

She moaned softly with passion as her young lover brought to a nice orgasm on the desk. Then he stood up and put his cock into her, she wrapped her arms around his neck and pulled herself up. She kissed him all over the face and mouth savoring her own juices, Jack slowly pumped his cock in and out. He loved the way her soft legs felt as she wrapped them him, they ran up and down his backside as they made love.

Kelly had several small soft orgasms thanks to the gentle caress of her young lover and the fact that she now realized how much in love with him she was. This made making love even better when you did it with someone you love she thought. Now though she wanted him to unleash his passion give it to her pussy.

"Oh my love fuck me now, fuck me." She moaned.

Jack sped up his thrusts and began to rapidly pound his cock in and out of Kelly's pussy. She bucked her hips up and down so to meet his thrusts, Jack loved the way she screamed aloud as he fucked her. Suddenly he felt that he could no longer keep the flood of cum back and unleashed burst after burst into her pussy.

"I love you so much." He said kissing her.

"I love you too Jack." She said.

The two stayed in the office for several minutes kissing and caressing each other, his shriveling dick still inside her pussy. Finally they got dressed and Kelly gave Jack a ride home, Jack got bold when she pulled into the driveway and kissed her on the mouth for several seconds.

"I love you Kelly, see you tomorrow." He said getting out of the car.

"I love you too." She giggled.

As she drove home, she felt so young and alive, she has not felt this giddy in several years. Only a week away they would confess the love they have for each other and whatever consequences that will accompany it.

Chapter 9

Kevin was really excited as he got out of the shower and got dressed for his first date with Shannon. He had done the impossible and asked out the girl of his dreams, despite the rumors of many who had struck out before him. He got dressed, combed his hair and sprayed on his favorite cologne in preparation for his date. His mom is going to let him use her car and he had plenty of money for the occasion. Kevin had made reservations at a popular steak house in the area and would leave them time for a moonlit stroll through the park. Kevin ran down stairs to retrieve the keys from his mother who was sitting on love seat still in her work clothes. She let out a whistle on the sight of her handsome son all dressed up for a change, she gotten so use to seeing him in jeans and a tee shirt all the time.

"Oh cut it out Mom." He said holding his hand out for her keys.

"Well it's not every day a mother gets to see her boy dressed up so nice." She replied handing them to him. "I hope Shannon will think the same thing." He said. "She is a business major and not really interested in sports."

"Kevin it would not hurt you to get interested in something other than baseball." She said.

"I'm interested in something else, Shannon." He said. "So what do you have planned for tonight?"

"I think I might call up one my friends and go have a few drinks."
She answered.

"Well just be careful and watch out for pervs." He said kissing her cheek.

"I will." She said. "Have fun tonight."

"Thanks Mom." He said on his way to the door and gone.

Kelly waited until she heard the car drive down the driveway and then down the street. She got the phone and called Jack's house, she breathed a sigh of relief when he answered and not one of his parents.

"Do you want to come over tonight?" she asked. "Kevin should be gone for a few hours on his date."

"Why don't I take you on a little date tonight." He suggested.

"Where ever should we go and not get caught by anyone we know?"
she asked.

"Wait a few minutes and go for a walk, I will come by and pick you up and we can go a few miles out of town for ice cream." He said

"Wow a date." She giggled. "I love you." "Love you too." He said hanging up. "Mom I'm going out can I take the car?"

"No honey your father is taking me over to grandma's for a game of canasta so why don't you take his truck." His mother suggested. "Thanks mom." He said taking off. Kevin and Shannon got to the restaurant and the hostess sat them at a nice table for two in one of the dining rooms. Kevin was very impressed with the beautiful redhead on his arm as he entered the restaurant. Her natural beauty was only highlighted by the light amount of makeup she wore on her face. The smell of lilacs filled the air from the flowery fragrance of her perfume that she wore tonight. Her clothes were chosen well also, she looked both sexy and nice at the same time. The khaki skirt she had on was tight enough to accentuate her from the waist yet cut above the knee to not be too revealing. The black sleeveless blouse she wore showed off the form of her breasts. A gold necklace hung down on her neck line that sparkled in the light of the candles on the table.

"Wow this sure is a nice place." He said.

"Yes it is." She said with a smile. "So it sure will be cool that I will no somebody besides my friend Jack at State next fall." He said nervously.

"Yes it will be." She said. "Have you given any thought on what you will major in?"

"Not really." He said.

"Kevin I know you are not a typical jock." She said. "I can see it in the way you act and in your eyes that you can be so much more."

To his relief the waitress came and took their order for drinks, salad, appetizer and dinner. He was glad to have a few moments to think of something smart to say and decided to go out on a limb when the waitress left.

"Thank you Shannon." He said. "I do have one interest that no one really knows about other than my parents."

"Really, well tell me." She said eagerly wanting to know.

"I have a telescope and I enjoy looking up at the stars." He said. "I just don't know much about astronomy to major in it in college."

"Nonsense Kevin if you enjoy something like astronomy as much as you say you do it should be easy for you to major in it in college." She explained. "I could help you in some of your other classes if you need it."

"Wow thanks Shannon." He said smiling from ear to ear. "But, I do not want to interfere in your college life. I know your older and probably have lots of friends and maybe a boyfriend at back at college."

"I only have a few friends at school, I pretty much stick to the books." She answered as the salads and sodas arrived.

"No boyfriend?" he asked.

"No boyfriend." She said.

"Well that is quite a surprise that you do not have a boyfriend, you are very pretty and great to talk too." He said.

"See you got to know me at work first before you asked me on our date, not when you just saw how pretty I am. That is why I accepted to go out to dinner with you tonight." She explained.

"I have to admit I have never met anyone like you and if you allow me I would like to pursue a relationship with you." He said. "We can take it real slow and get to know each other more."

"Kevin I would like that very much." She said. "It is nice to be with someone who is sweet and sincere." She answered.

"I guess you could say you have a boyfriend." He said picking a radish out with his fork.

"Wow I guess I do." She answered. "By the way you are fired from your job at the record store."

"What, Why Shannon?" he asked aloud.

"I have a rule that I do not date anyone I work with." She said.

"That is alright if it means I get to date you." He said. "I will find something else or maybe do lawn care with Jack."

"You certainly are a good enough worker so you should not have any trouble in that aspect." She said.

"Enough about jobs and me, I want to know all about you." He said looking into her beautiful green eyes. Kevin sat for the next couple of hours listening to Shannon, he was fixated on her every word. His mind seemed to be working overtime recording her every word for future reference. Shannon was amazed at how attentive he was to her the whole time during dinner. She loved how he genuinely wanted to know everything he could about her and her life. After dinner Kevin suggested his walk through the park idea and it was convenient because it was only a couple blocks from the restaurant. She accepted his invitation and he stopped by the car to retrieve his letterman jacket for her to wear to keep warm in the cool night air.

Kevin took her hand and the two of them strolled hand in hand through the moonlight of the park. He loved how she laughed and rested her head on his shoulder from time to time during the stroll. After the stroll was over he drove her home and he got out to let her out of the car. Then he escorted her up to the front door of her parents home, they said their goodnights. Kevin turned to leave when she grabbed his arm and pulled him back to her. She wrapped her arms around his neck and he wrapped his around her waist. They stood for several moments before she leaned forward and he leaned in to kiss. It was soft and wet, it sent electrifying flutters through both of them. Shannon finally reluctantly broke off the kiss and the embrace to open the door to go in.

"Goodnight Kevin." She said softly.

"Goodnight." He said watching her as he stepped down the stairs.

Being on cloud nine and paying more attention to Shannon than to where he was going he staggered clumsily down them. He was lucky to right himself and not fall on the hard concrete of the walk way. They both laughed aloud and Shannon watched as he hobbled the rest of the way to the car before going in. Kevin for the first time in his young life realized that this is what it felt like to fall in love. In a town not too far away Jack and Kelly were having a great time eating a giant banana split at an ice cream shop. They were able to hold hands, act silly and kiss in public, it felt great. They sat at a little outside table and started to kiss passionately when Kelly heard a familiar voice.

"Kelly is that you?" asked the voice.

"Oh Hi Doctor Maxwell." She said with surprise. "I mean Ben."

"So this is your significant other." He said sarcastically. "Kind of young?"

"Well Ben what I do outside of work should not be any of concern of yours." She said.

"Sorry I did not mean to impose." He said. "See you Monday morning."

"Yes have a good weekend." She said.

"Nice meeting you sir." Jack said.

The two of them waited until the older doctor left and they had a laugh at his expense. Kelly and Jack decided to head for home, Jack turned onto an old back road that was not even paved. He drove for a mile or two until he came to a ridge that overlooked the town and turned off the truck.

"Make out Ridge." She said. "I have not been here in years."

"Why don't we get in the back I have a foam mattress and a sleeping bag laid out for us." He explained.

"You really do think of everything." She said getting out.

The two of them lay in the back truck making out and slowly undressing each other, soon they were both naked and in the sleeping bag. Jack slowly inserted his cock into her wet pussy, he could feel her beautiful legs wrap around him and pull him closer to her.

"Make love to me Jack." She beckoned. "Oooooooooohhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhh!" She moaned as his entire cock finally got inside of her pussy, he moved in and out in slow thrusts. He alternated from kissing her lips to sucking on her sensitive nipples. Kelly let out a series of soft moans as her young lover pleased her for a very long time. After several minutes Jack finally came inside of her pussy and the two of them lay in the sleeping bag until his cock went soft. They lay in the bag naked with his and hers love juices sticking to each others legs, they discussed how graduation was only a few days away. They rehearsed how they would tell his parents and Kevin about their relationship. A pair of headlights startled them for a moment; Kelly said it was probably another young couple coming up to have sex. The car pulled up next to his father's truck and it turned out to be the county sheriff instead.

"What do we have here?" he asked.

"We were getting ready to leave sir." Jack said.

"Very slowly reach for your pants and get you drivers license out young man." He ordered. "Yes sir." He said.

"Do you have yours ma'am?" he asked.

"It's in my purse in the truck." She said nervously.

"I will get it." He said.

The sheriff looked through her purse and found her license, he was satisfied with what he saw and put it back in. He returned to the back of the truck and looked at Jack's license; he wanted to verify he was eighteen.

"Well I guess it is legal what you two did up here." He said. "We have gotten a lot of complaints about parties on the Ridge. I take it you two are done with whatever it is you were doing?"

"Yes sir." They said in unison.

"Well get out of here." He said. "I will turn my back"

Jack and Kelly quickly dressed and got out of the back of the truck; they got in the cab and drove off for home. The sheriff stood and watched the taillights get out of sight when his radio squelched.

"Sheriff." He said in the microphone on his shirt.

"Is he old enough?" asked the disembodied voice.

"Yes Doctor Maxwell he is legal." The sheriff said.

"Thank you for your help." The doctor said.

After he left the ice cream parlor he followed them to the old dirt road knowing that the Make out Ridge was on it. He called the sheriff letting them know that an under aged boy and an older woman may be taking place. It really pissed him off that he was proven wrong as he drove his fancy BMW home.

Chapter 10

Graduation day finally came and the two boys received their diplomas, after the ceremony was over Jack's parents invited Kelly and Kevin over to the house for cake and ice cream. Kelly agreed and followed them to their home; Jack got a moment alone with Kelly out in the driveway when Kevin announced he had to use the bathroom.

"I think today would be a good time to tell them we are in love." Jack said.

"No Jack let's wait a little longer." She said as if she was distracted.

"No more waiting Kelly, we tell them today." He said grasping her soft hands.

"Okay, we will tell them." She reluctantly agreed.

Jack's mother was cutting up the cake and putting ice cream on the side of the little Styrofoam plates. His father was fiddling around with his digital camera and Kevin was on his cell phone talking to Shannon. Kelly took a seat at the kitchen table next to her son and Jack stood behind her. He reached down and placed both hands on her shoulders, he slowly began to rub them. Kelly tentatively reached up and placed her hand on one of his, all of this did not go unnoticed by Kevin who stared at them curiously.

"Mom, Dad I have something I would like to say." He said.

"Sure son go ahead." His father said.

"I have fallen in love with a beautiful woman a couple of years ago, finally she gave me a chance to show her that I could both make her happy and satisfy her needs. Mom, Dad, Kevin, I would like to tell you that Kelly and I are in love and we plan on living together when I leave for college." He announced to the stunned room.

"Holy shit you got to be kidding me Mom!" exclaimed Kevin.

"Oh Jack." His mother gasped.

"Great my teenage son seduced by this older slut, just like you see on the news." His father grumbled.

"Hey asshole, that is my mom you're talking about." Kevin said jumping out of his seat.

"Dad please refrain from calling Kelly a slut." Jack said calmly.
"Can't you be happy for us?"

"Happy!" yelled Kevin. "Fuck you Jack; I lost both my best friend and mother today. You want me to be happy for you."

"Kevin please understand." Kelly sobbed.

Kelly started to cry as she watched her son storm out of the house; she put her hands to her face as if to try to hide the fact she was crying. Jack did his best to comfort her by kneeling down and putting his arms around her.

"Jack I will give you a choice." His father said. "Give up this slut and everything will be alright. If you do not I will kick you out of the house, not pay for your college or your insurance on the truck I bought you as a present."

"What truck?" he asked.

His father reached into his pocket and tossed him a set of keys, Jack looked at them as he held them in hands. Jack's dad had purchased him a new pickup truck as a present for graduation.

"I don't need your money for college, I have a scholarship, I will live with Kelly and if I have to get a job." He said firmly. "I don't want the truck either."

"Get out of my house and the truck is yours, your mother had I put everything in your name." said his father who now went to console his mother. "We are going for a drive to calm down, you better be gone before we get back."

"No way." He said. "I'm out of here"

Jack's parents left the kitchen and left the house, he could here his Dad start his car and pull down the driveway. Jack took Kelly by the hand and pulled her out of her chair; he gently stroked her hair and wiped away her tears. He loved looking into her eyes yet it hurt him so to see them full of tears.

"I have no regrets." He said.

"What about Kevin?" she sobbed.

"He will come around to seeing our love is a good thing." Jack said

"I love you and now I have something I really need to tell you." She said.

"I love you too." He said. "So what do you need to tell me?"

"I'm pregnant." She said.

"Wow." He said. "I never thought of you getting pregnant when we started having sex."

"I don't believe in abortion and I will understand if you do not want to be tied down to a family at your age." She said looking away.

"Whoa Kelly you have me all wrong." He said. "I love you and I want to be a family with you and the baby. I will do whatever it takes to make all of this work."

"Oh Jack." She said throwing her arms around him.

The two of them began to kiss passionately in the kitchen; Jack reached up and began to slowly unbutton the front of her blouse. He unhooked her bra and began to suck her tits in his parents' kitchen. Kelly moaned softly encouraging her young lover to continue, even though in the back of her mind she should have stopped him.

Jack stopped sucking on her tits long enough to reach under her legs and scoop her up, she giggled as he carried her upstairs to his bedroom. Once inside his bedroom he laid her on his bed pulling off her shirt and bra. Then he slid her skirt down, her panties came next, Kelly watched as he undressed. When he was finished she held up her arms and beckoned him to come to her.

Jack slid his cock into her and began to make slow steady thrusts into her impregnated womb. Their love making was slow, intense and passionate, as Jack kissed her lips and neck. She let out soft steady moans of pleasure as her young lover brought her to several intense orgasms.

"Oh baby you and I are going to make love forever." She moaned.

"Forever." He grunted with his final thrust emptying his cum into his older lover.

Jack lay in bed holding onto Kelly for several minutes, the after glow was a long warm embrace. Finally Jack got up and put on a pair of shorts and a tee shirt, he went to his closet and in one swoop grabbed all of the clothes on hangers in it.

"You rest for a while babe, I will gather up my stuff." He said.

"Yes my love." She purred.

She watched her young lover run out of the room and down the stairs; he threw the clothes into the pick up truck parked out by the garage. He ran back up stairs and pulled three large gym bags from the top shelf in his closet. He went over to his dresser and filled them with various clothes, again he ran out.

He returned again, only this time he came back with some boxes that his family had out in the garage. He filled them with his books, pictures and other various items from the room. Then he disconnected his computer and placed it in the boxes as well, Kelly had gotten out of bed getting dressed.

"Can I help?" she asked.

"Sure would you go into the bathroom and grab my shaving stuff and toothbrush." He said.

Kelly went into the bathroom and looked in the medicine cabinet; she saw one large shelf that had women's products on it that was his mothers. One shelf that had articles on it that belonged to his fathers, the small shelf on top belonged to Jack. On it was just a toothbrush, a razor and a couple of small bottles of after shave.

She gathered up the items and left the bathroom to find Jack had emptied the remainder of the things from the bedroom. She then heard the sound of his new truck's horn blowing and she headed downstairs to find him waiting by it.

"Your chariot awaits my dear." He said holding the door open for her.

He helped her into the truck which sat a lot higher than her car; he disappeared once more into the shed and came out with a couple of toolboxes. He put them into the back of the truck and got it himself. The two of them had just beaten his parents by a couple of minutes as they passed them speeding down the street.

Jack stopped at an automated teller and transferred just about his entire bank account into Kelly's just in case his dad tried to take it from him somehow. Then the two of them were off to Kelly's house, the neighbors tried to make it look like they were not staring as they watched the young man move all of his stuff in.

Meanwhile Kevin had called Shannon to tell her what had happened; she immediately drove over and picked him up. The two of them drove up to a quiet pond that belonged to her father to talk over what had happened.

Kevin had spilled his guts about how he felt betrayed by his own mother and his best friend. He could not understand the attraction between the two of them and wished they had never told him. Shannon was a really good listener and she hung on his every word, after he finally finished she gave her best advice.

"Kevin your dad left your mom for a younger woman." She stated a fact. "It really hurt your mom to be betrayed by your father; don't you think she deserves some happiness now?"

"Yes, but not with my best friend." He said.

"What about Jack? You said yourself he never had much success through high school with girls. Don't you think he deserves to find happiness and have someone to love?" she explained.

"I want my mom to be happy and I want Jack to be happy." He said "I'm just not sure if I want them to be happy together."

"If you love your mom and if you are as good of a friend to Jack as he has been to you over the years you will come to accept their relationship." She explained.

"Damn your smart." He chuckled.

"Just smart?" she said raising an eyebrow

"Oh did I leave out beautiful, sexy, exotic, and sensual." He laughed.

"Yes." She said wrestling him onto his back.

Shannon climbed on top of him and looked longingly into his eyes, finally their lips met in a deep wet kiss. As the two of them kissed Kevin got bold and let his hand roam over her body. She wore a tight pair of jeans and a light blouse; even though it was casual she looked very sexy.

Kevin rubbed his hands under the fabric of the shirt; he loved the feel of her soft bare skin. He was even more intrigued when he did not feel a bra, Shannon broke the kiss off and sat up for a moment, and she reached down and pulled of her blouse.

She looked stunningly beautiful with the sunset in the background, making golden ripples of light on the pond. Shannon revealed two beautiful firm perfectly round breasts; Kevin reached up and gently caressed them with his hands. Shannon pushed back down on top of him and began to kiss him passionately again.

Kevin managed to roll on top of her and unbuttoned her jeans; he slid his hand inside of them. He ran his fingers through her bush until he found her wet pussy lips, she sighed softly as he gently caressed her pussy.

"I don't want to ruin the moment." She said reaching into her jeans pocket.

"You could never do that." He said.

She pulled out a condom and handed it to him; he looked at it dumbfounded for a moment. He looked down at her for another awkward moment and then began to smile at her.

"I want you, but I want to be safe and not get pregnant." She said.

"No problem." He said.

He reached down and slid her jeans down her long milky white legs, and then he pulled her panties off. She lay on the sandy soil in front of the pond ready to make love to him, for her first time. Kevin pulled his shirt off and then he pulled his jeans down, he took his underwear off. He opened the condom wrapper and took it out; he rolled it down the length of his penis.

"Please take it slow." She whispered.

He gently positioned his cock at the entrance of her pussy and slid it in slowly, as he did her body tensed and she let out a whimper. Kevin got the full length of his cock into her virgin pussy; he slowly slid it in and out of her being very gentle with his thrusts.

Shannon moaned and writhed underneath him, enjoying the new sensations of a cock being inside her for the first time. She wrapped her long legs tightly around Kevin and dug her fingernails into his back as she had her first orgasm. Kevin began to pick up the pace as he felt her pussy starting to loosen up after that orgasm.

"Oh god yes give to me Kevin." She moaned.

He really started to pump his cock into her hard; he could feel her long soft legs rub themselves up and down his back. Shannon announced a couple more times during the love making that she was cumming. Kevin could not take much more either and he emptied his load into the condom.

Kevin went back to her car still naked for making love to her; he found a large sleeping bag in the backseat. He found some matches and then gathered up some wood from a pile her grandfather had stacked.

He built a fire and the two of them got into the sleeping bag, even though they had no more condoms they did not make love the rest of the night. They talked, held each other, kissed, talked and fell asleep in each other's arms.

Chapter 11

The next day Jack was in the kitchen making Kelly breakfast in bed, he had bacon frying in one pan and another frying home fried potatoes. He heard the back door open and was surprised to see Kevin come into the kitchen. The two friends just stood and stared at each other for several long uncomfortable moments.

"Hey Kevin, would you like some breakfast?" he asked.

"No thanks." He said pulling out a chair. "Is my mom up yet?"

"Not yet, I thought I would surprise her?" answered Jack.

"Yeah you are full of them." Kevin snorted.

"Hhhmmmmmm, what smells so good." Kelly said entering the kitchen.

"Breakfast honey." Said Jack at the stove.

"Kevin good you are home." She said leaning down to hug him.

"Hey Mom, I just stopped in to talk to you two." He said.

"I'm so glad you did honey, I was worried about you all night." She said sitting down.

"I talked with Shannon last night and I did a lot of thinking." He said.
"It will take me a little time until I feel totally comfortable with the relationship you two have together. I know you were hurt by Dad's affair and him leaving you. So I guess what I'm trying to say is as long as you are happy Mom, I will be happy for you too."

"Thank you Kevin, I'm happy and I think you need to know that Jack and I are going to have a baby." She said buttering her toast.

"A baby." He said softly.

"Yes a baby." His mom said again cheerfully.

"Great and how do you and Jack plan on taking care of this baby?" he asked with a hint of hostility.

"Well I plan on working as long as I can, I'm going to sell the house and buy one in one of the little towns a few miles from the state university. I have pretty good savings account and I got a rather decent stock portfolio from your dad in the divorce." She explained.

"Yeah and I already have a part time job lined up on campus and some cash saved." Jack said. "It might be a little tough at times, but I love your mom with all of my heart and we will make it work."

"Well you two have everything figured out." Kevin said.

He got up out of the chair and leaned down to give his mother a kiss on the top of the head. Kevin then walked over to the stove and stuck his hand out for Jack to shake; when Jack reached up for it he grabbed him. Kevin gave him a big hug and hugged him as tight as he could for several moments.

"You better take good care of my mom and your baby." He said fighting back tears.

"I will buddy." Jack replied.

"Because you know I will kick your ass if you do not." He laughed.

Kevin let go of his best friend and headed for the door, he stopped for a moment to look back at his mother. She got up out of her chair and ran over to her son to give him a big hug and kiss.

"I have to go over to Dad's for my graduation gift." He said. "I love you."

"I love you too."

Kevin left his mom and Jack alone in the kitchen; Jack finished cooking and fixed a plate for Kelly and him. The two of them sat talking about how good things went with Kevin and how good his breakfast was.

Jack cleared the table off when they were done eating and took the plates to the sink; Kelly got up and slipped her robe off without him knowing it. She walked up behind him and wrapped her arms around him, Jack turned around to see his naked lover. She gave him a long passionate kiss and then slid down onto her knees in front of him. The gym shorts he was wearing already showed evidence of his growing boner.

Kelly reached up for his waist band and pulled the shorts down with her lover's growing cock in front of her. She reached up and gently began to stroke the length of it up and down until it got full hard. She then kept one hand on it and engulfed it into her wet mouth, Jack shuddered at the sensation.

Kelly sucked his cock in and out of her mouth getting the shaft all wet with her saliva; she reached under his ball sack with her other hand and fondled his balls. Jack reached down and placed both hands on the back of her head encouraging her to suck more of his cock and faster. She could sense his urgency and took the hand she used stroking him and ran it up to his muscular chest.

"Oh my god that feels so good." He said. "Oh suck me baby suck me."

Kelly made only muffled slurping sounds as she enjoyed her young lovers cock in her mouth. Suddenly she felt his whole body tense up and she knew what was coming next, she prepared herself to swallow his load.

"Oh fuck yes I'm going to cum" he moaned aloud.

Jack shot several thick streams of cum that she managed to swallow, she continued to milk every last drop of cum out of his cock. She kept gently sucking on it until it became completely flaccid in her mouth.

"Now that was a good breakfast." She said looking up at him.

They both laughed.

Kevin arrived at his Dad's house and knocked on the front door, he was surprised when no one answered. He could at least see Carolyn's car in the driveway and figured his Dad's was in the garage. So he just turned the door knob and went right inside, he saw no one in the living room so he went into the kitchen.

No one was in the kitchen so he checked the rest of the house; he went upstairs and could hear voices. The voices were coming from the master bedroom; Kevin thought it would be neat to surprise them. He got up to the door and realized it was not his Dad's voice coming from it, the door was open a crack so he looked in. It was his Dad's boss and his chauffeur with Carolyn completely naked on the bed.

Kevin watched as the completely naked black chauffeur stuffed his black cock in Carolyn's pussy. The guy was huge, he must have been at least a foot long and thick as well, and his Dad's boss an aging guy around sixty was sucking on her tits.

"Oh god Jamal fuck me hard baby." She moaned.

"I'm so glad Bill likes to go on these business trips so we can fuck his little slut of a girlfriend while he's gone." His Dad's boss said.

"Stuff yo cock in her mouth Mr. Jenkins." Jamal said.

"Here suck this slut." Mr. Jenkins said.

Kevin was surprised to see the older man had a big cock too; he took Carolyn by the hair and shoved it in her mouth. Kevin pulled his hard cock from his jeans and jerked off watching his Dad's girlfriend get abused.

Jamal pulled her legs right up and started to fuck her fast and very hard, Carolyn had to spit out the Mr. Jenkins cock so she could keep up with breathing. Jamal continued to slam her pussy as she begged for it to keep fucking her.

"Yeah Jamal fuck me with that big fucking cock baby." She moaned.

"Oh shit, I'm going to fill this tight white pussy." He moaned as he came.

Mr. Jenkins did not waste a moment, rolled Carolyn over onto all fours and began to fuck her already fucked pussy from behind. He waved for Jamal to open her night stand and the black guy pulled out a big dildo. The old man took it and worked it up her ass and fucked her pussy from behind. Jamal reached under her and roughly played with her tits and rubbed her clit as she fucked his boss.

"Oh fuck you make me into suck a fucking slut." She panted.

"Yeah baby oh god this pussy feels good." The old man moaned.

"Oh fuck I'm cumming fuck me, fuck me, fuck me." She said over and over.

"AGH!" yelled the old man.

The old man shot a load into her pussy and Kevin shot a load all over the door frame. He quietly crept back downstairs and wrote a note in the kitchen, he saw an envelope on the table with his name on it. He picked it up and opened it to reveal a card with a check in it from his dad and to his surprise one from Mr. Jenkins.

He added to his note that he got the card and would thank them and Mr. Jenkins for the gifts later. He knew he had to leave and go see his girlfriend Shannon, watching the sex that took place a few minutes ago got him hard again. He rushed out and got into Shannon's car which she let him use and sped to her apartment.

Chapter 12

Bill returned from his business trip a day early and did not bother to call home; he got his bag and left the airport. He drove to the local flower shop to pick up some flowers and then he drove home. As he pulled into the driveway to the house, he was surprised to see the car that belonged to his boss parked in the street. His boss lost his license to his third drunk driving conviction so he hired a black ex convict to drive himself around. He figured that maybe he was dropping off some paper work for Bill or maybe he had something for Carolyn. Bill met her at work, where she is the executive secretary to his boss Mr. Jenkins. Bill entered the house and yelled out that he was home, it was surprisingly quiet. He put down the bag and carried the flowers into the living room, no one was in there. He then went around the rest of the downstairs not finding his new girlfriend, his boss or his driver anywhere. Bill decided to go upstairs; a knot was starting to form in his stomach as he was starting to fear the worse. He heard the shower running so he headed to the upstairs bathroom first; he entered the steam filled room and pulled back the curtain. The naked form of his boss was standing in there lathering up with his soap on a rope.

"Oh shit Bill!" he exclaimed.

"Mr. Jenkins?" he said quizzically.

"Bill I did not think you would be back until Sunday." His boss said.

"I got the account and finished up early." He replied. "I caught the next flight home to surprise Carolyn. Where is Carolyn?"

"She is in the bedroom." Mr. Jenkins said. "You might not want to go in there though."

Bill stormed through the adjoining door into his bedroom to find Carolyn on top of Jamal straddling his face. The two of them were involved in a wild sixty nine as she was passionately sucking his large black cock. She looked up and was in shock at the sight of her boyfriend standing in the bedroom catching doing what she was doing. She immediately jumped off and grabbed a sheet that was thrown on the floor of the bedroom. Jamal also jumped up, he did not bother to cover himself he reached down and started to put on his pants. The whole time Jamal watched Carolyn's boyfriend in case the angry man was to make a violent move. "Carolyn would you please tell what is going on?" he said angrily.

"I'm sorry Bill, I just can't help myself." She said trembling under the sheet.

"Jamal get your ass down to the car and let these two work this out." Mr. Jenkins said.

The older man already put his clothes on, even if they did look somewhat disheveled. Jamal followed suit and quickly finished dressing, he and his older boss quickly left the bedroom.

"So how long has this been going on?" he asked.

"Since your Saint Louis trip." She answered. "Mr. Jenkins and Jamal stopped by so he could bring up some files that you had saved to the computer in the den. I was out in the kitchen making up some cold drinks when Jamal came up from behind me. He ground his huge cock against my ass, I could feel how big and hard he was. I was only wearing a light weight summer dress and he reached up sliding the straps off my shoulders. He turned me around and let the dress fall to the floor, I was naked underneath the dress. I trembled as he explored my body with his big muscular hands, I could not help myself when he reached down and showed me his large hard cock. He fucked me out in the kitchen like I never been fucked before Mr. Jenkins came in as Jamal had just finished cumming inside of me, he promised not to tell you about this and made suck his cock. He told me he would make sure you would have as many out of town assignments as possible so him and Jamal could come over and fuck me as much as they wanted." "Well I guess I finally know how it feels, I've cheated on Kelly off and on during our marriage and then I thought I was in love with you. So I left a perfectly faithful woman to be with a horrible slut. If you don't mind I'm going to pack up my things and leave, I have nothing left to say to you." He said fighting back tears.

"I'm really sorry about this Bill." She said.

"Please just let me get my things so I can leave." He said.

"Alright." She said walking out of the bedroom with the sheet still around her.

Bill got out a couple of suitcases from the closet and packed his things out of the dresser. Then he got his garment bags open and put his suits and jackets in them, he had all his clothes from the bedroom together and took them out to his car. He opened the trunk and put the contents into it, he then returned to the house and got his things from the bathroom, he left the soap on a rope behind. Then it was the den, he then went through the rest of the house and gathered up the rest of his contents. He had the trunk and the backseat of the car filled, he left a note on the kitchen table that he would be back for his tools in the garage after he gets settled in wherever he was going. Then he saw the thank you note from his son and that is when he knew where he was going to go. Bill left the house and drove to the home that used to belong to him; he signed ownership of the home over to his ex wife Kelly in the divorce. Bill thought he was quite generous in the divorce giving her the house, most of the savings, three quarters of the stock portfolio he had built and some alimony until she got a job. The drive did not take too long and before he knew it he was pulling into the driveway that used to belong to him. He shut the car off and walked up to the front door, he thought about just walking in. Instead he took the right approach and rang the door bell; Kelly took a couple of minutes to answer. She was surprised to see her ex husband standing at the door for the first time since the divorce. "Bill what a pleasant surprise to see you." She said.

"Uh Hi Kelly, good to see you." He said. "May I come in?"

"Sure I just made some tea, can I interest you in a cup?" she asked.

"Sounds good." He said.

"Just make yourself at home in the living room and I will bring in a tray." She said.

Bill sat patiently on the couch waiting for Kelly to bring in the tea, the house did not look like it had changed much since he had left. The only thing missing were pictures of him and some of the relatives from his side of the family.

"Tea is served." She said setting the tray down on the coffee table.

She poured two cups of tea from the little kettle that was on the tray, she also had some of those little jelly filled cookies on a couple of dessert plates. Once she had her tea ready she sat back in the chair, instead of joining him on the couch.

"So Bill what brings you over here today?" she asked.

"I would first like to say I'm sorry for any pain I caused you over my infidelity and the divorce." He said.

"Well I'm over that." She said. "I have moved on with my life."

"I left Carolyn today and I found out she was cheating on me with my boss and his driver. I realized how much it hurts to have someone you care about being unfaithful to you." He explained.

"Hurts don't it." She said bitterly.

"Yes it does." He said with a little sob. "Kelly I have no place else to go and no one else I can turn too. I wanted to ask if I could move back in and give our marriage a second chance, we could take things real slow and work on it."

"Bill our marriage was over from the day you walked out to be with that slut." She said with even more bitterness.

"So your saying you are willing to not give all the years we have been together a chance and let me come back." He sobbed.

"Our marriage is over and I have moved on." She said. "Besides I have someone else in my life now and unlike you I would not cheat on him, like you did me."

"You have someone else?" he both asked and sounded surprised.

"Yes I do." She said.

With that the front door opened and Jack strolled into the house, he was surprised to see not only Bill's car in the driveway, but to see him sitting in the living room. Bill sat and stared dumbfounded at the young man for a moment.

"Jack good to see you kid." He said. "Good luck with college this fall."

"Thank you Bill." The boy sounded confused.

"Jack I don't think Kevin is home and Kelly and I have some important things to discuss, so if you could run along." He said.

"No Bill." Kelly said. "Jack is a part of this too."

"What you got to be fucking kidding me!" he exclaimed. "He is just a kid, no older than our own boy."

"Jack has shown me that he is the loving, kind, sweet and gentle man I needed you to be all of those years. He is more the man, than you ever were to me and he is the father of the baby I'm carrying right now." She explained.

"Well this is fucking just great, I lose my slut of a girlfriend and now I find out my ex wife is robbing the cradle and fucking some kid!" he said loudly.

"Bill I'm going to have to ask you to leave now." Jack said firmly.

"What a kid telling me to leave the house I bought and paid for." He laughed.

"Bill I'm telling you to leave and not to bother Kelly again." Jack firmly said.

"This is fucking bullshit." He grumbled getting up.

The older man walked over to Jack who stood eye to eye with ex husband of his girlfriend and the father of his best friend. Jack did not feel afraid of the older man; he felt courage coursing through his veins as he faced off with the man. Jack won the stare down and the older man walked out of the living and then out the front door. Jack had followed him out a few steps behind him, he watched as he pulled out of the driveway. Bill blew the horn at him and gave him the finger as he sped down the street in his fully loaded car. Jack went back inside to find Kelly still sitting in the chair sobbing; she had her hands up against her face crying into them. The young man got down on his knees and tried to soothe his lover.

"He's gone now honey, I'm here with you now." He said.

"I thought he was going to hurt you before he left." She said.

"Don't worry about me Kevin taught me in the gym on the punching bag how to defend myself. I think I can take care of myself if I was ever provoked into an altercation with someone else." He explained.

"Well I'm so glad you are here my love." She said.

With that Kelly leaned down and kissed her lover on the lips, the kiss lasted for a few moments when Jack pulled away from her. He reached into his pocket and pulled out a little felt box, he slowly opened it up to reveal its content. The box held a diamond engagement ring and from the look of it must have cost him a pretty penny. "Kelly I love you with all of my heart, you are my lover, my friend and my inspiration in life. Now that we are together and the whole world is going to know it and the world is going to know you are going to have my child. It would not be right if I did not ask you to be my wife, my partner in life. Kelly will you marry me?" he asked.

"Oh my god Jack." She said in total shock. "Yes I will, I will marry you my love."

With that the two of them had a quiet evening together in living room, they ordered take out and rented a movie off of the cable. Sometime during the night they fell asleep together on the couch in each others arms. Kevin had gotten in sometime after midnight from being with Shannon; he saw his mother and his best friend in the living room on the couch sleeping. Instead of waking them up he went to the linen closet and pulled a large blanket off of the shelf. He went back into the living room and covered them up with it, gave his mother a gentle kiss on the forehead and left them to sleep.

Chapter 13

The next morning Kevin awoke to find a note on the table that his mother and Jack had gone to find a place to live near the state university. He poured himself a bowl of corn flakes and went into the living room to watch the sports report on television. He sat down on the couch and used the remote to turn it on; he then took a big bite of cereal.

A knock on the door interrupted the highlights of one of last night's games; he got up to answer it. He was surprised to see Shannon there waiting patiently for him to get up and answer the door. She looked very sexy with a tight tank top on and a tight pair of jean shorts. He ushered her in and she took a seat on the couch where her boyfriend was eating his breakfast.

"Hey I thought I would take your mom out for lunch and get to know her better." She said.

"Sorry babe you should of called ahead." He said. "Her and Jack went looking for places to live near the university."

"Oh so it is not all bad then." She said cuddling up next to him.

"What do you mean?" he said playing stupid.

"We have the whole house alone." She said.

"Oh." He said taking her in his arms.

The two of them began to kiss passionately on the couch; Kevin reached up inside of her tank top to knead one of her firm breasts. He was thrilled to feel she was not wearing a bra and he teased an already hardening nipple with his fingers. Shannon let out a soft moan as she enjoyed the manipulation of her breasts by her lover.

He slid his hand down the soft smooth flesh of her flat stomach and undid her shorts; he slid his hand inside of them. She let out a moan when he gently began to rub her wet slit through the fabric of her panties.

"Do you have any condoms?" she said breaking off the kiss.

"No I'm all out." He said.

"Well I guess this will have to do then." She said pushing him on his back.

She sat up and took off her tank top to reveal her firm milky white breasts with their hard pink buds for nipples. She got up on all fours and pulled Kevin's cock out of his gym shorts. She took it gently in her hand and began to stroke it; she got it to its full length in a few seconds of stroking. Kevin lifted his ass up from the couch and slid his shorts completely off so she had full access.

Shannon completely engulfed his cock into her wet mouth and she gave him a blow job that felt unbelievable. The two of them were totally oblivious that Kevin's dad was standing on the porch a few moments after her arrival. He was going to knock when he noticed what they were doing through the window. The man stood and watched his son and his girlfriend through the window; he reached down and started to stroke his own cock.

Kevin reach around during the blow job and pulled Shannon's shorts down, she could spread her legs a little and gave him access to her pussy. Kevin began to rub and finger her pussy vigorously causing her to moan with his cock in her mouth. Shannon started to suck more and more of his cock into her mouth; she was getting so horny from what he was doing to her pussy with his hand.

Bill stood on the porch stroking his cock faster and faster as he watched his son play with the pussy that was now on display for him. He was jealous that his son had a beautiful red head feverishly sucking his cock and he was now with no one.

Shannon did something she had never done before she had now willingly swallowed the entire load of her boyfriend as he blew it into her mouth. She continued to suck his cock until she was sure she had it all cleaned up.

"Oh baby I need you to make me cum now." She purred. "Eat my pussy."

With that she laid on her back on the couch and Kevin got between her legs, he ran his tongue up and down the slit. Her juices squished every time his tongue made contact, she was very wet. Kevin found her clit and began to rapidly flick his tongue over it again and again.

"Oh fuck yes baby make me cum." She said in between pants.

Kevin slid a couple fingers inside her pussy and fingered fucked her while he licked her clit. Shannon began to hump them as he did so; she fondled her tits and pulled on her nipples. His father was stroking his cock for all it was worth watching the action from the porch.

"OH YES OH YES I'M CUUUUUUUUUUMMMMMMMMMMMMMMING BABY!" she moaned aloud.

The two of them lay on the couch kissing and touching for several moments after her orgasm. Shannon had turned get up when she saw a man she did not know standing by a window. The man closed his eyes as he shot a thick load of cum on to the window, Shannon shook her head realizing what she just saw.

"Kevin there is someone on the porch." She said aloud.

"Holy shit!" he said jumping up. "It's my dad."

The young man leapt up and ran for the door, his dad put his cock back into his pants and ran for his car. By the time Kevin had the door open his dad was in his car starting it up; he did not even look back at his son who was yelling at him from the door. Bill backed out of the driveway quickly and sped down the street until he was out of sight.

Kevin went back into the house to see that Shannon had put her clothes back on; he took her into his arms. She was a little shaken up to realize that his father had jerked off watching them have oral sex on the couch.

"Hey why don't you take a shower and I will go out and get us some protection." He said.

"I want you to go to the grocery store too and I will make us a nice lunch." She said.

"Are you okay?" he asked.

"I'm a little shocked." She said. "I never expected to meet your dad that way."

"Maybe I should go find him and talk to him." He said.

"No I think you should wait, besides I need you here with me after that." She said burying her face into his chest.

"Alright." He said holding her close. "Why don't you come upstairs and I will get you a towel. Then I will get dressed and go to the store for the things we need."

"Make sure the doors are locked too." She said.

"Okay." He said.

With that the two of them went upstairs, Kevin got her set up in the shower and then he wrote down everything she wanted. He waited until she got into the shower and then he went to his room. He got dressed and then he went downstairs, he made sure the windows, the back door was locked and then he made sure he locked the front door. Kevin had no idea what would ever possess his dad to do such a thing and he hoped that Shannon would forgive him for it.

Meanwhile Jack and Kelly found the ideal place for them in a small town just a couple of miles from the university. The price was just right and hopefully the sale of Kelly's house would be enough to buy this one.

The house is a duplex set up for two families; the large house was essentially split into two halves. With both halves set up with two bedrooms, one and a half baths, kitchen, large living room and a couple of other rooms to use as the owner saw fit.

The house had plenty of closet space and a spacious back yard, each duplex had a deck built onto them so people could barbecue and enjoy the yard. Jack mentioned that renting out the other half would either pay bills or mortgage.

"Jack I have a better idea." She said.

"What is that?" he asked.

"If it is alright with you, why don't we ask Kevin and Shannon if they would be interested living in the other half." She asked. "All they would have to do is just pay utilities."

"You know babe that sounds like a great idea." He said. "Shall we take the keys back to realtor and make a deposit."

"No, not yet." She said wrapping her arms around him. "I want to make love."

"Here!?" he said.

"Yes." She said kissing him.

The two of them stood in the center of the room that would be their master bedroom; Jack ran his hands up her back. He gently reached up inside her shirt and unhooked her bra; he then ran his hands back down to her ass. Kelly had worn a short skirt figuring it would not be much longer that she would be able to.

Jack lifted the back of the skirt and cupped her round ass with both of his hands, Kelly's tongue shot into his mouth with much vigor. He broke the kiss off, he pulled her skirt and panties down, and while he did this she slipped her blouse and bra off. Jack took off his shirt and then he pulled his shorts off as quickly as he could. He resumed the kiss with his lover and pushed her up against the wall of the bedroom.

Jack reached down and pulled her legs up until they were wrapped around his waist and slid his cock into her wet pussy. Kelly thought she could feel his cock penetrate deeper than it had before in this position.

"Oh yes Jack fuck me hard baby." She said in his ear.

Jack slammed his cock in and out of her pussy as hard as he could while trying to support the weight of her body against the wall. He alternated between kissing her and sucking on her tits while he fucked her, soon he was exhausted and did not want to drop her.

He pulled his cock out of her and set her legs back down on the floor, Kelly stood looking at him disappointedly. She had a couple of wonderful orgasms, but she wanted his cock back inside her fucking her for another one. Then she giggled with joy when she realized what he wanted her to do.

Jack kept her still standing and turned her around; she leaned her arms up against the wall and let him pull her lower body to where he could get his cock into her. Then she moaned as he finally got it where he wanted it and slid his cock back into her. He put one hand on her shoulder and the other underneath her waist on her stomach.

"Oh god baby you fuck me soooooo gooooooooooooooooood." She moaned aloud.

"Yeah oh yeah." He panted.

The two of them grunted and groaned for several minutes in this position, Kelly had several more orgasms as she felt her young lover give one last hard final thrust. They stood still for several seconds as his cock finished spasming into her pussy. They got dressed laughing and giggling at what they had just done to each other in a house that they did not own.

"I cannot wait to bring Shannon and Kevin up here." She said. "You make me so happy baby."

"Only because I love you so much." He said.

"I love you too."

Chapter 14

The real estate agent watched the nicely dressed man enter her office and sitting down thumbing through a magazine. She got up from behind her desk and went over to introduce herself to the man.

"Hello I'm Bonnie Simmons, can I help you?" she asked.

"Yes you can Bonnie, I'm interested in a house on Maple Street." He said.

"Oh you're talking about the house on Maple good selection, let me call and see if anyone can be there so I can show you around." She said.

Bonnie left the man sitting in lobby while she went to use the phone; she got a hold of Kelly. Kelly explained that they were going to check out a property near the state university; Shannon however offered to stay behind to show them around.

"It is all set; her son's girlfriend will be their waiting for us." Bonnie explained.

"Great I will follow you over then." He replied.

Bill followed the mini van driven by the real estate agent to his former house, his cock twitched in his trousers thinking of his son's sexy girlfriend. Bonnie pulled into the driveway and Bill parked on the street. Shannon opened the front door to greet the agent and the person she said she was bringing. The young woman's mouth dropped when she saw who it was.

Bill was quite pleased to see the surprised look on her face as he followed the real estate agent up the walk. She stood speechless as he climbed the steps to the front porch and approached her with a smile.

"Hi Shannon I'm Bonnie and this gentlemen, I'm sorry sir I did not catch your name?" she asked.

"Bill Welch." He replied.

"Really are you related to the Kelly Welch that owns the house now?" She asked.

"Not anymore." He answered.

"Oh!" she said and left it at that.

"Hello Bill." Shannon said not offering to shake his hand.

"Bonnie you really do not need to be here, I will call you if I decide to buy." He explained.

"Is it alright with you Shannon?" asked Bonnie.

"Yes it is okay." She replied staring coldly at the man before her.

Bonnie headed back for her van and Shannon led Bill into the house, she watched as he brushed by her as she stood by the door. She closed the door behind them and he was already walking around the house.

"Bill where are you going?" she asked.

He did not answer he headed out to the kitchen, she followed him out to the kitchen and he was in the refrigerator getting a beer out. Bill was mildly surprised that Kelly had any in the house seeing how he was gone.

"Bill what are you thinking?" she asked.

"I'm thinking that this is going to be a wonderful opportunity to get to know you better today." He said.

With that he lunged towards her and wrestled her down to the ground, Shannon was caught off guard and hit her head on the floor. The sudden jolt from hitting the floor knocked her out cold, when she awoke she found herself lying on Kevin's mothers bed in just her bra and panties.

"Oh my head hurts." She moaned.

"It should, you hit the floor rather hard." He answered.

"Oh my god you took my clothes off and I can not move." She said realizing he had tied her arms and legs down.

"Yes we can not have you thrashing around a lot today." He answered.

"Please Bill think about Kevin, you cannot do this to his girlfriend." She pleaded.

"I'm done thinking about everyone else, the first thing I'm going to do is show my son what a slut his girlfriend is, he apparently found out mine was quite a slut. Yes I talked to my ex girlfriend after I left the other day and I found out that Kevin fucked her twice. Don't cry Shannon he did before he started seeing you, he has not since then." Bill explained.

"Bill please let me go." She begged again.

"Then after I pay my son back for fucking my slut of an ex girlfriend, I'm going to get a little revenge on that little son of a bitch who is now fucking my ex wife. Then I'm going to put that little slut back in her place of serving me and my fucking needs." He explained.

Bill started to undress himself until he was naked, he went over to the bed where Shannon laid helpless. He began to knead and play with her firm tits through the fabric of her lacy white bra. Bill pinched her nipples and pulled on them roughly through the fabric making the young woman wince in pain.

"Please Bill, don't hurt me." She was starting to sob.

"I won't Shannon." He said walking away from the bed.

She watched as he opened up a suit case that he must have had in his car and brought it up when she was knocked out. He set up a video camera and aimed it for the bed, once he was satisfied with the angle he pulled out a wide selection of sex toys and some lubricant.

"Unlike my son I will not violate someone that is his with my cock; I have something better for you." He explained going back over to the bed.

Bill sat down on the bed and reached over to her chest, he unfastened her bra and gave her tits a couple of rough squeezes. He then took a large dildo and applied some lubricant to it; he then pulled her underwear over and worked it into her pussy.

"Oh no please don't" she begged and squirmed.

It fell on deaf ears as he slid the dildo in further and further, then he slowly pulled it back out. Soon he had a nice fucking motion going with the large rubber sex toy and his son's girlfriend could not control herself.

"Oh god I wish you would stop oh god oh god oh god oh OH MY GOD!" She panted over and over until it got louder.

Bill jerked himself off with one hand while fucking her pussy with the sex toy with the other. Shannon continued to thrash around on the bed unable to control the flood of orgasms she was having from the toy and his vigorous use of it.

Both of them were unaware that Bonnie Simmons came back to the house; she wanted to know how Shannon made out with Bill. She also could sense some tension between them and wanted to make sure everything was alright. She could not find anyone downstairs so she went upstairs to look, she could hear noises of a sexual sound coming from one of the rooms. She tiptoed to the closed door and listened to the sounds that were coming from inside of it.

Bill waited for Shannon to finish cumming and then he pulled the dildo out of her pussy, it made a pop sound when he did. He tossed it aside and looked for an anal butt plug to use on her next.

"YOU FUCKING RAPED ME!" she spat aloud.

"No the dildo did all the work, besides you liked it slut." He laughed aloud.

"You bastard" she sobbed.

Outside the door Bonnie pulled out her cell phone and called nine one one, she whispered that a rape was in progress and gave them the address. The dispatcher immediately sent a couple of cars and told her to wait for them to arrive. Bonnie was going to go back downstairs and wait for the cars when she heard something.

"Now slut you are going to get anal, something I could never get Kelly to do." He said.

"NO MOT MY ASS!" she shrieked.

Bonnie decided she had to do something and she pulled out the pepper spray she had at the bottom of her purse. Her husband had her get a permit to carry it knowing that she may have to go in a bad neighborhood or work late. She reluctantly agreed with him and was glad she had done so today. She got the small canister ready and burst into the room, she ran towards Bill pointing it at his face.

"DON'T FUCKING TOUCH HER YOU ASSHOLE!" she screamed as she ran towards him.

"WHAT THE FUCK!" he shouted turning towards her.

Bonnie successfully emptied the entire contents of the pepper spray canister into his eyes. Bill immediately fell to the floor screaming from the burning sensation the spray was causing him. Bonnie started to untie Shannon from the bed posts, the door burst open downstairs and she could hear the rush of the cops.

"FREEZE!" shouted the first one through the door with his gun drawn.

"He's on the floor officer; I got him with my pepper spray." Bonnie said.

"Good work ma'am." He said.

The officers handcuffed him and led him down to a waiting squad car; the senior officer on the scene took statements from them both. Emergency medical technicians got Shannon ready to transport to the hospital to get checked out.

Bonnie told her she would call her parents and she would call Kevin, as soon as she got a chance she made the calls. Her parents rushed over to the hospital to be with her daughter, she then called Kelly's cell phone and explained what had happened. She told Bonnie that they would immediately rush home to be with Shannon, she told Kevin what happened.

He had tears in his eyes as he ran out of the home his mother and Jack planned to buy, Jack drove home. Kelly was amazed that he did not get a ticket as he sped all the way to the hospital. What would normally be an hour and a half drive turned into an hour drive with the way he sped.

Kevin rushed to be with Shannon and was allowed to go back into the emergency room to be with her. Kelly told Jack to wait with Kevin and she would go home to evaluate the damage done to her home.

She arrived back at the house and saw the front door would need some work from where the cops kicked it in. Other than that nothing else was damaged, she went upstairs and stripped the bed of its linen and put fresh linen on it. She went back downstairs and was going to head back to the hospital when she saw a car pull into the driveway.

The car belonged to Jack's parents, Kelly thought that this was really bad timing for she really needed to go. They got out of the car and she noticed his father was carrying a briefcase.

"I really need to go, can we talk later?" she asked anxiously.

"This will only take a minute." Jack's dad said coldly.

"Okay just a minute." She reluctantly agreed.

"In this briefcase I have two hundred and fifty thousand dollars, it is all yours if you leave my son so he can have a normal life." His father explained.

"It is all of our lifesavings, retirement; we sold off some stocks and some rental properties to come up with it all. It is yours if you give up our boy." Jack's mother said.

"That is a lot of money, but you cannot put a price on what I have with Jack." She said. "I love him, I plan on marrying him and I plan on having his baby that I'm pregnant with right now."

"Pregnant." Jack's mother said grabbing her husband's arm.

"Yes so instead of trying to buy me off why don't you worry about using that money on your future grand child? Jack would love it if you would make an attempt to reconcile with the two of us so we can all be a family." She explained. "I really have to go"

Jack's father got into the car to move it, leaving his wife holding the briefcase, standing dumbfounded. He pulled back into the driveway after letting Kelly pull out and went back over to his wife.

"Ernie we are going to be grandparents." She said.

"Hard to believe Vera." He said. "We made a mistake."

"Yes we did, you spent so much time with building your business and I spent too much time with charities. We did not watch our son go from a boy into a man, Ernie I want to be a part of our grand child's life. I want to reconcile with our son, please before it too late."

"Your right Vera, our son has become a man and he is in love. I guess we will just have to learn to accept it and be better grandparents than we were parents. Besides Kelly is a real nice woman and she seems to feel very strongly about Jack." He said.

"I'm going to call Jack right now and find out where they are." Vera said.

"Good idea dear." Ernie replied.

"He won't be able to answer." A voice said from the sidewalk.

"Why won't he be able to answer?" Ernie asked.

"Something happened here today to her son's girlfriend; they had the cops and ambulance here. They took her to the hospital so that is probably where your son is as well." Said the voice, which was a neighbor walking a dog.

"Let's go and see if we can help." Vera said.

"We better stop by my office first and put this money in the safe." Her husband said.

The two drove off for his office and the hospital; they went in to find their son sitting in the waiting room with Kelly. Jack stood up when he saw them come in; his father approached him and without warning took his son in his arms. Kelly and his mother began to cry as father and son embraced in the waiting room for the first time since they found out about his older lover.

"It looks like you have a new family and that makes them part of our family as well." His father said. "We forgive you if you can find it in your heart to forgive us?"

"Yes Dad I can. I forgive you too." He sobbed.

"Kelly could you let Shannon's family and Kevin know that we are here to help in way needed." Vera said wiping away tears.

"Yes I will." She said. "Thank you."

Before you knew it all four of them were hugging in the waiting room and taking the first step to reconciling. They waited in the waiting room together until they knew that Shannon was alright and would be going home soon.

Chapter 15

Shannon was ready to leave the hospital and Kevin was there to pick her up, she did not know what he had planned. She thought that he was going to take her home to her parent's house, yet he had something else in mind.

"Hey babe." He said cheerfully.

"Hey." She said kissing him on the cheek.

"Ready to go?" he asked.

"Sure am." She replied. "I need to put this nightmare behind me."

"Good, because I have just the thing." He said.

"Oh Kev, I just want to go home and relax." She sighed.

"You will get a chance to relax and talk, we will work on this together. I know my dad told you some things that need to be explained and I need to be with you so I can help you with what that asshole did to you." He explained.

"Alright where are we going?" she asked.

"Well I got us a cabin for the weekend, I have a trunk full of supplies, Jack's mom and dad rented it for us, gave me the money for the supplies and the car rental." He explained further. "They wanted to help us."

"We will have to go back to my parents house so I can pack a few things." She said.

"Your mother took care of all of that." He said. "C'mon let's get going."

"Well lead the way." Was all she could say? The two of them walked out of the hospital holding hands, Kevin parked as close as he could so they did not have to walk far. He opened the door of the car and the two of them were off on the road. It would be a two hour job to the cabin; Shannon rolled the window down and leaned back in the passenger seat. Kevin waited until they were about fifteen minutes into the drive before he began talking to Shannon about what had happened. At first she was very quiet and he thought she would not talk to him the rest of the drive. Finally she spoke and he hoped that what his father had done to her did not cause irreparable damage to their relationship.

"So what is going to happen to your father?" she asked with no hint of emotion in her voice.

"According to the D.A. he will be tried as a sex offender and even though this is the first time he has done anything like this the D.A. will push for the maximum penalty. It depends on the judge in the case, she may give him prison with the maximum sentence or prison with some mental treatment." He explained.

"I'm sorry Kevin I hope they lock him away for a longtime." She said.

"Don't be sorry, for what he did to you I hope they do lock him away." He said. "He hurt someone I love very much."

"Kevin I love you too" she said. "But I need to know, did you have sex with his girlfriend?"

"Yes I did." He said. "We had sex twice before you and I started dating."

"I see." She said. "Why did you have sex with her?"

"I'm just a dumb guy who could not control his hormones." He said. "Maybe subconsciously I thought I was doing to him what he did to my mother."

"So do you really love me or are you a dumb guy with his hormones going wild?" she asked.

Kevin could feel the stare that was fixated on him as he drove down the road; his stomach began to feel like it was twisting in knots. Even though it was eighty degrees outside he felt a cold chill run up and down his spine. He knew the answer to that question, yet he knew as well if it did not sound convincing to her all could be lost to their relationship.

"Shannon I have never been in love once in my entire eighteen years of life, I met you and I fell head over heels in love with you. Your long red hair, the glow of your skin, the softness of your touch, those emerald green eyes that can be as warm as the sun or as cold as ice. I cannot get enough of you; I only want to be with you from the time I get up to the time I go to bed. If I had to give up baseball and everything else in the world just to be with you I would do so in a minute. I love you Shannon O'Malley, more than I could ever put into words." He finished his speech and took a deep breath holding it in until he heard her response. Her eyes no longer felt cold when she gazed upon him, they now felt warm and he could see tears well up in them. She reached over and put her hand behind his head and gently scratched in with her long nails.

"I love you Kevin Welch, I love with all of my heart." She replied.

"I'm so sorry he hurt you and I'm sorry I did what I did." He said starting to sob himself.

"Kevin if we are going to get through this we need to put it in the past so we can move forward. When we get to the cabin we will go forward and try to forget the what happened." She said.

The two of them rode quietly the rest of the way to the cabin; Kevin drove down the old dirt road that led them to it. They both got out of the car, Kevin told Shannon to go in and relax while he unloaded the car. She went inside to find it to be very nice and rustic on the inside, the cabin was what could be three rooms The living room and kitchen were one big room with a large fireplace; they had a large couch and a chair for furniture in the living room. The kitchen had a table, stove and refrigerator, the walls had wildlife painting and actual wildlife hanging on them. Kevin brought the groceries in and then he brought in the two suitcases, Shannon went ahead and put the groceries away. Kevin went back outside and found the stack of firewood behind the cabin; he gathered up some and brought it inside.

"I will get a fire going." He announced.

"Good I will start dinner." She replied.

"Oh shoot I forgot to get the cooler." He said running back out the door.

When he returned he set the cooler down on the table, Shannon opened it and was surprised to find salad fixings, milk and some fresh vegetables. Kevin was full of all kinds of surprises today, she went ahead and put some things in the refrigerator and then got out a couple of pans to cook dinner. Kevin got the fire started in the fire place and then he went to the kitchen, he wrapped his arms around Shannon. He planted soft warm kisses on her neck while she was peeling carrots.

"You go ahead and get the vegetables, potatoes and salad going; I will cook up a little chicken dish my mother taught me to make."

"Sound good my love." She replied.

Kevin got some chicken that was in the cooler; in the zip lock baggie were four chicken breasts. He dipped them in some egg and flour, put them in the skillet and began to sautéed them. Shannon had the carrots in a pot to boil, wrapped two potatoes to bake and fixed a small salad. She set the table and watched as he added some apples, onions and mushrooms to the chicken.

"Could you hand me that apple brandy in that box over there please." She handed it to him. "And there should be some heavy cream in the fridge too."

She remembered the small bottle of cream and got it out for him, he splashed a large amount of brandy into the skillet. A large ball of flame shot up and made Shannon jump; she calmed down when he poured the cream in to the skillet to put the flame out. She watched in awe as he waited for the sauce to finish reducing and the dish was complete.

"Dinner is served." He laughed.

Shannon put the salad in bowls, while Kevin put all the food onto plates for them to enjoy. He put the plates down on the table and then pulled out one of the chairs for Shannon to sit down. He then went over to the light switch and turned it off, he turned on the radio to an easy listening station that played lots of love songs and then he pulled two candles out of a bag that was in with the groceries. The finishing touch on the meal was when he lit the two candles to set the most romantic mood Shannon had ever seen. The two of them ate a quiet supper gazing into each others eyes, after the supper was finished Kevin got up from the table.

"May I have this dance?" he asked.

"Yes you may." She replied.

Kevin pulled out her chair and took her by the hand as she got up from the chair; he led her to the middle of the living room. The two of them proceeded to have a nice intimate slow dance in the cabin. Shannon could not get over how good it felt to be in the arms of her love again after what had happened. The doctors could not find any damage to her vagina and told her there were no restrictions against having sex.

"Why don't I go get some blankets and make things a little more comfortable?" he said.

"Sounds good to me." She said kissing him.

Kevin came back with a couple of blankets, a couple of pillows and they spread them out on the floor. Before they could finish lying down on them they were already engaged into a passionate kiss.

"Make love to me." Shannon whispered.

"Are you sure?" he asked.

"Yes my love, make love to me" she whispered again.

"I got to get some protection from my bag." He said.

"No, it is more romantic and I love you. So what are we protecting each other from." She said pulling off her shirt.

"I love you" he said.

"I love you too." She said.

They went back to kissing, Kevin was lying on top of her, he managed to get her bra off and then he undid her pants. They slid them down, along with her panties, Kevin sat up and took off his shirt and then pulled his shorts down. Kevin got back on top of her and got between her legs, before he started to make love to her he looked at how beautiful she is. Then he gently slid his cock into her pussy, she tensed and wrapped her legs around him. She wrapped her arms around him and pulled him on top of her.

"Make love to me nice and slow." She whispered. He gently plunged his manhood in and out of her as slow as possible, he had to fight his urge to increase the pace. He kissed her neck, her breasts and ran his hands all over her skin; he had to admit the slow pace allowed him to enjoy Shannon more. Her whimpers of passion were soft and he could tell from time to time by her facial expressions when she orgasm. Shannon now urged him off of her and had him get on his back; she then climbed on top of him. She rode him, her hips controlling the pace and her stomach seductively moving in and out. Kevin wanted to thrust, yet Shannon forced him not too, she wanted to control this.

"Oh yes my love oh yes OOOOOOOOOHHHHHHHHHHHHH YYYYYYYYYEEEEEEEEEEEESSSSSSSSSSS!!!" She moaned aloud as she had a real intense orgasm.

Kevin got her off of him and he got her up on to all fours, he positioned himself behind her and slid into her pussy. He slowly fucked her in the doggie style position; he could not believe how intense the feeling was. After several minutes he finally shot load after load of sperm into her unprotected pussy. They lay on the blanket all night; they spent some time sleeping, only to awaken to make love. By the time dawn arrived they had made love six times, the two of them slept until the early afternoon naked and in each others arms.

Meanwhile back home Kelly had gotten some news from the real estate agent that a buyer whom looked at the house earlier in the week wanted to buy. The sale should go through by next week, as soon as she got off the phone she called the real estate agent handling the duplex she and Jack wanted to buy and share with Kevin and Shannon. She finished that phone call and went back upstairs to where Jack was in the shower; she took off her robe and got in.

"Good news baby." She said.

"Your in the shower with me, what could be better." He said with a sly grin coming over his face.

"In a moment" she giggled. "The agent called and we sold the house."

"Alright!" he shouted. "Now we can call the agent about the other house."

"I already did, are deposit will hold that house until the sale goes through on this one." She said. "So by the end of the week we should be getting ready to move."

Kelly reached down and began to stroke his cock; it did not take long for it to get hard. She got down on her knees and took his erection into her mouth; she began to pump it in and out of her mouth. Jack arched his back and moaned; he reached down and put his hands on the back of her head. Jack stopped her before he shot his load into her mouth; he pulled Kelly off of his cock and pulled her back up to a standing position. He gave her a kiss and a wink; he turned her around and slid his cock into her wanton pussy easily. The fucked standing up in the shower, with one hand Jack gently fondled one of her sensitive tits; with the other he massaged her clit while he slid his cock in and out of her.

"Oh yes baby fuck me, fuck my pussy." She urged him on.

"Oh yeah Kelly I love you and I love fucking you." He grunted.

"I love it when you fuck me Jack oh god I'm fucking coming." She started moaning and panting aloud.

As if they were synchronized they came simultaneously together, as Jack's cock began to shrink inside of her. He held her in his arms and then ran his hands down to her growing belly.

"Wow so this is the start of a new life." He said softly.

"Yes this is only the beginning." She said cuddling up to him.

Chapter 16

Once back from his weekend trip with Shannon, Kevin went to the bank pulled some money out of the bank. He then preceded to the jewelry store to buy an engagement ring for Shannon, he drove straight to her house. She was having lunch with her parents, Kevin asked if he could speak to her father alone for a minute. "Mr. O'malley sir, I love and respect your daughter, I want to propose to her with your permission?" He asked.

"Well Kevin, you are young yet, of course I and the missus were not much older when I did the same thing. If you really love my daughter and you want to ask her well then you have my blessing son." He replied patting the nervous young man on the back.

With that Kevin strolled over to the kitchen table and got down on a knee taking Shannon's hand into his. The look on her face was one of amazement and anticipation, never had she thought Kevin would do this. He pulled the ring box out of his pocket and opened it, it was beautiful as the diamond sparkled as much as her eyes.

"Shannon I love you with all of my heart and I would you become my wife?" He asked.

"Oh yes Kevin yes I will my love." She said throwing her arms around him with such force they both fell to the kitchen floor.

Shannon's father and mother could never be prouder, to gain both a son and a future major league ball player if his career was to continue as such. Most of all a young man who loved their daughter as much as the two of them loved each other. They stayed for a while and visited with her parents, then they excused themselves to go to see his mother and Jack. They too were happy for them and decided they would have to go out to dinner that night to celebrate. During dinner they decided on a double wedding and they decided to do it very soon, before they would have to start college. The two women were planning the details while the two young men watched wondering what they had gotten into. Kevin had another surprise for Jack as well. He had something important to ask his best friend and future step father. "Jack I know you are going to study business in college and even though I'm going to phys. ed, I plan on pursuing a career in baseball. If that career comes around, I want you to be my agent, I figure my best friend and future shall I say step dad will best know how to manage my career." He explained.

"Wow Kevin I don't know what to say." He said.

"Try saying yes." Said Kelly nudging him in the ribs.

"Yes I'll do it buddy." He said shaking his friends hand. The four of them went home and all went to bed after what had been a long day, the next morning Kevin was awakened by the sounds of Shannon getting out of bed in a hurry. She ran down the hall and he found her over top of the toilet getting sick.

"Honeys are you all right?" He asked.

"Oh gods I feel so nausea coming on." She said to wipe her mouth with her sleeve.

"Maybe I better take you to the doctor." He said.

"Maybe you better let me handle this son." His mom said quietly coming up from behind him.

"Okay Mom." He said. Kelly closed the door and knelt beside the young woman huddled over the toilet, she ran her hand through her hair and then down her back gently rubbing it. She had a hunch what was wrong with her and finally was able to ask her.

"Shannon when was your last period honey?" She asked.

"It was supposed to have been the day before his dad attacked me." She replied.

"Have you two been using protection?" Kelly asked.

"There have been a few times we got caught up in the moment and never thought about it. Do you think I'm pregnant?" She asked.

"Only one way to find out." Said Kelly. She stood up and went over to the sink, she opened the medicine cabinet above the sink. She still had another one of those pregnancy tests still in there and handed it to her future daughters' in-law. She left the room and Shannon used the privacy to take the test.

"Okay you can come back in Kelly." She said.

"Let's see." She said anxiously.

"Well is it positive?" Shannon asked nervously.

"It looks like I'm going to be a mother and a grandmother at the same time." She said to throw her arms around the girl.

"I'm having a baby." Shannon sobbed joyfully. The two of them made their way back down the hallway, after Shannon had brushed her teeth and gargled with some mouth wash. Kevin was up putting his robe on and Jack also met them in the hall in his robe.

"What's going on Kel?" Jack asked sheepishly.

"You'll see" She said to shush him.

"See what?" asked Kevin.

"I'm Pregnant!" Shannon exclaimed.

"Holy Shit!" Said Kevin taking her into his arms.

"Holy shit is right." Said Jack. " I never realized I could be a grandfather at eighteen."

"Oh shut up gramps." Laughed Kelly.

"Look who's talking a grandma." He said to tickle her. "Better refine your cookie baking recipe for all your future grand kids. Over the next few weeks everything was like a whirlwind, packing up the old house and moving to the new house. Getting everything, they needed for college, finding doctors for both of the future mothers. Then the trial of Kevin's father came up, Kevin was very proud of Shannon as she testified at the trial and then Kevin testified against his own father. The jury found him guilty and the judge gave him the maximum sentence, Kevin glowered at him as he watched his father shuffle out of the courtroom in the orange jumpsuit and shackles. He would now have to move on with his life without his father in it. As long as he had Shannon, his mother and Jack in it, it would be a good life. Finally it was a week before school started and in the backyard of Jack's parents the two of them got married. Kelly insisted that Shannon and Kevin go first, seeing how it was the first time for both of them. Then it was hers and Jack's turn. They had a wild time after the ceremony with all the relatives, friends and the huge reception. The three of them finished school over the years, raised their children and lived in the house in harmony. After school Kevin got drafted into the major leagues and signed with the New York Mets, true to his word Jack negotiated him a good contract. Shannon took over for her father who decided to retire and she ran his business. With her business savvy she was able to get his stores to grow and expand across half the state. She and Kevin had a little girl they named Michelle, then four years later twin boys' Jack and Kevin Jr. Shannon decided that three kids were enough and convinced Kevin to get a vasectomy, which he did during the off season. As for Jack and Kelly, Jack had started a huge career managing the careers of several different players. After they saw the great deals, Jack got for Kevin they started coming to him, mostly family guys who wanted to balance career and family. Jack enjoyed working out deals that were not just about money but about family as well. He and Kelly had a baby girl as well and they name her Claudia, then they had another girl they named Heather, then another they named Abigail. Finally they were about to give up on having a boy when Jeremy was born. , Soon after he was born Kelly entered menopause and could no longer have children. She was able to do medical transcription work at home for several different doctors until Jack's career took off. When it did, she was able to concentrate full time on being a wife and mother, as well as a grandmother.

Forty five years later

I take forty five years into the future. An older Jack stands by the open casket of his wife, his true love Kelly. He is sobbing as he looks down at his beautiful wife, his children comfort him and then step aside for their Aunt and Uncle to come over to the casket.

"Mom looks so beautiful, so peaceful." Sobbed Kevin.

"How are you holding up Jack?" Shannon asked.

"I miss her so much Shannon, I knew this day was going to come someday, yet nothing can ever prepare you for it." He said.

"Well I'm happy that she had you and she was happy to share her life with you. Everything does happen for a reason and I'm glad that after all these years to have you as a step father, a grandfather to my kids, agent and best friend." Kevin said hugging Jack tightly.

"I love you buddy and thank you." He whispered in his ear. "I will miss your mother terribly but I'm so glad for the love of my family."

The three of the stood by the casket hugging and sobbing, remembering of how event forty five years earlier brought the together and made them a family.
