

Shino Kuribayashi let out sigh of boredom as she wandered through the aisles of bookshelves of the large library at the Magic Academy in Rondel. The team was there today doing some research, reaching out to the locals and forming connections with the Academy. She got stuck with Itami, Lelei and Arpeggio, Lelei's sister. As usually, Arpeggio was competing with her sister and the two of them had dragged Itami into. Shino didn't want any part of that, so she wandered off into the library to get a look around herself. The library itself was a massive place with many floors filled with books of all various kinds that had anything to do with magic. There many rooms and many hallways and doors. Before long, Shina realized she was lost. On top of that, she hadn't seen anyone for the last ten minutes. She tried her radio, attempting to call for help but only got back static.

"Shit," Shino said as she took in her surroundings, finding herself in what looked the basement of the library as the book shelves and the books themselves were covered in a thick layer of dust. Magic crystals kept the area lit up providing just enough light to allow one to see. Shino was dressed in her battle dress uniform, carried her rifle and pistol but left her helmet back in the humvee.

"Guess I better go back up," she said and was turning to leave when she caught sight of a book situated upon a pedestal in the middle of the area and away from the other books. What stood out the most to her was the fact that it was wrapped in chains. "What is that?"

Shino cautiously approached the book, her eyes roving over its dark, weathered texture and what looked like a large closed eye in the middle of the cover. The book was large for its size, over two feet tall and almost just as wide. In all, it gave an ominous feeling to Shino. Suddenly the eye in the middle of the book opened up, causing her to jump back in shock.

"Well looky looky here! A prostitute presents herself!" exclaimed a voice from the book as they roved over Shino's body, particularly around her large breasts.

"A what?! You fucker!" screamed Shino in anger, having snapped out of her shock. She could feel the eye leering over her body as if she was a prostitute and it only fueled her rage.

"Aw, is the little slut getting angry?" mocked the book. Unknown to Shino, the book was provoking her on purpose and it seemed to be working.

"I'll show you!" yelled Shino, the book's words getting to her and in a fit of rage she slammed the butt of her rifle into the book, knocking it off the pedestal. As that happened, the chains binding the book shattered, flying off in pieces in all directions. The book landed with a heavy thud and suddenly, short stubby legs and short muscular arms sprouted from the main body of the book.

"Haha! I'm free!," exclaimed the book and it was only then did Shino realize what she had done wrong. "Thanks to the slut for freeing me!"

"Oh you bastard! I'll kill you!" once more, Shino was driven by anger to punish this book that was calling her a slut. She thumbed the safety off on her rifle, raised it to her shoulder, aimed and fired a burst at it.

"Oh you gotta be quicker than that, bitch!" heckled the book as it jumped out of the way, dodging the bullets. For the next several minutes, Shino kept firing at the book and in return the book kept dodging. Bullets flew in all directions, striking shelves and books. Bouncing off of the stone walls to strike against other things. Until the book, in its ignorance, didn't pay attention to where it was jumping to and smacked itself face first into a bookshelf. Shino took advantage of this break and emptied the entire magazine into the book. Bullets shredded the entire thing, filling it with holes and tearing apart its book cover. It elicited a wail as it fell to the ground, smoke rising from its shredded body.

"Kahaha! That's what you get bastard!" exclaimed Shino in victory as she stared down the unmoving book. "Damn, I damaged my rifle again."

Shino turned around, placing her back to the book, something that would lean to her downfall. The book suddenly burst open with its large eye detaching itself from the book and flying through the air at such a fast speed that Shino only had time to turn around and open her mouth in shock. Said eye flew right into her open mouth, wedging itself in place and from there, inky pitch black leather like tentacles began to spread out from the eye to spread along the skin of Shino's skin.

"Mmnpgh!" screamed Shino as she tried to bite down on the eye in an attempt to destroy only to find her jaw unable to do the job as it felt like biting rubber. She tried using her fingers to pry it out but instead, they became trapped by the leather that seemed to have a mind of its own. She fought with all her strength to pull her hands free but it was no use and moments later, her eyes wide in terror, Shino's entire head was encased in the leather like tentacles.

"Keke! You dumb slut! Always check to make sure your foe is dead!" cackled the book through the large eyeball. "I'm going to make you pay for that! I'm going to rebuild my body and then I'm going to break you and turn you into my little toy!"

A chill of terror ran up Shino's spine as she continued to wrestle with the eye and the leather tentacles that were now spreading now to the rest of her body. She jumped and threw herself into the walls and shelves in an attempt to break free, even throwing herself on the ground. She was glad that she could still breath despite the leather covering her face but fear and terror were starting to take root in her mind. More so the words that the book had just spoken. Shino rolled along the floor, smashing her face into the ground to see if that would daze the eye.

"Nice try toy," said the book. "My turn!"

Shino's eyes went wide beneath the leather as tentacles went beneath her bra and wrapped up her breasts from the base all the way up to the nipple. Overwhelming pleasure racked her breasts and nipples as if a thousand tongues and fingers were playing with them. She moaned in response to the forced pleasure and to her horror, found her body reacting to the touch, her nipples becoming erect. As the pleasure continued to flow through out her body, the book cackled as its main body that laid shredded upon the ground began to regrow, healing from the damage.

"Let's get ride of these clothes," growled the book and using some of its magical power, Shino's uniform, bra and panties suddenly exploded into small shreds of fabric, exposing the rest of her body to her captor. A second later and her boots and socks followed, leaving her completely naked. With her clothes gone, the leather tentacles quickly spread over the rest of her body, wrapping her up in a cocoon of leather. Shino struggled against her bindings, rolling around on the floor to get free. The entire time the book cackled at her efforts and then it sent its tentacles down between her legs and into her body. Shino screamed in shock as an even stronger, overwhelming wave of pleasure struck her body as tentacles pushed up into her pussy and ass while another teased her clitoris.

"Mngp!" Shino moaned and whimpered around the eyeball gag, as she tried to resist the pleasure, the feeling of lust that was growing suddenly within her mind. Her pleasure was quickly rising up the cliff, heading towards the drop to give her body what she wanted. Deep down in her mind, she knew that if she did, it would spell the end of her.

"Keke! Just give in slut. You know you want to," teased the book as its main body continued to grow back. Its tentacles continued to play with Shino's breasts and her nipples while pumping in and out of her lower holes. For the next several minutes, Shino continued to struggle, to resist and to hold off. But the book decided to push her over by opening small little mouths over her nipples and clitoris. With a silent command, the mouths bit down on the nubs of flesh. That was all it took and Shino screamed as a powerful orgasm thundered through her body to the laugh of the book.

"You're mine now bitch!" the books body floated back up into the air followed by a bright flash of light. A second later it stood over Shino's bound form, watching as she writhed in pleasure on the ground, basking in the after glow of the orgasm. The book cupped her chin, forcing her covered face to look at the gaping hole where it's eye would sit.

"I'm gonna train you well bitch and then you're going to give birth to my children," said the book, its words sending a chill up Shino's spine before another orgasm struck, her eyes rolling up into her skull.

Several Months Later. Earth: Tokyo, Japan.

Deep in a dark alley within the city of Tokyo, Japan, a woman knelt on the dirty ground on her hands and knees. She was naked save for a thick, wide metal collar around her throat, a crimson red leather bondage hood that encased her entire head save for her ring gagged mouth and a nose hook that pulled up on her nose. Metal cuffs were clasped onto her wrists and ankles with a short chain connecting them, preventing her from moving far. Runes were inscribed all along the metal collar and cuffs, glowing an unearthly red collar. Her massive swollen breasts, full of milk, hung down inches above the ground over a swollen stomach. Sweat and bodily fluids covered her body as well as some grime and dirt, a sign that she had been held captive for some time. This woman was none other than Shino Kuribayashi. After her capture and kidnapping by the book, she was sexual tortured and trained everyday to become an obedient pet. The training lasted for several months right there deep in the library. Her captor, the evil book, used its magic to modify her body and to keep her healthy. Its also placed a spell upon her body that suspended its need for nourishment, thus she could be kept alive for all eternity.

Shino resisted as long as she could, hoping that she would be found, rescued by her friends but it never came. Unknown to her, the evil book used its ancient magic hid her presence from anyone, preventing her from being found at all. The JSDF and her friends went into a frantic trying to find her and almost came close but the evil book once more used its magic to teleport them both to the gate on Alnus Hill. It inly learned of Shino's world after studying her memories and saw an opportunity to explore a new world. When the next group of people went back to earth, the evil book casted a spell that cloaked it and Shino from being discovered and thus, they made a clean get away to Earth without anyone knowing.

"My little Slut," cooed the evil book as it stood there before Shino, holding onto her metal leash. "Its almost time for you to give birth to my offspring. When they come into this world, we will take over this world and no one will stop me."

Shino only whimpered in response to those words, a shiver of terror roving over her plump body. She was terrified of what she was going to give birth too but there was nothing she could do to stop it or her Master. The runes on her bindings made her obey his orders without end. On top of that, the months of training and torture made her subservient to her Master. The last attempt at resistance earned her a punishment that she did not want to go through. Shino was now a toy, a slave of the evil book.
