

The Shrinking Pool - Chapter 6

by aaabbbzzz

After a rough first day with Bailey, Ben woke up the next morning with an itch to escape. He didn't want to become a pet to this bratty girl. Even after hearing her threats, the little guy thought now would be the time to try and find a way out of her room while she was gone. He climbed over the top of his glass prison and was able to get himself on the outside easily. Normally Bailey would shrink her toys to a smaller size, but she loved how big Ben was when it came to being used as a sex toy. Disobeying her commands, the shrunken man continued to take advantage of this alone time.

A 3D rendered scene of a man in a room. The man is on the left, looking towards the right. He has a thought bubble above him containing text. The room has a wall with floral wallpaper, a wooden cabinet with a vase of red flowers, and a dark wooden door. The floor is made of large, light-colored tiles.

That was almost too easy to escape from. I'm starting to wonder if it was a trap or something. Oh fuck, I hear foot steps, and they're coming this way. I thought that girl was going to be gone doing errands or something for longer than this! I need to hide somewhere before it's too late. She's going to be pissed if she finds me outside of where she left me.

Ben ran to the bed before the door swung open. He didn't want to be caught by the giant girl in this position. But instead of seeing her, in came Bailey's mother Sydney who was looking for a toy to have fun with. Bailey had told her mom about Ben and offered him up as a plaything for her while she was gone. Even though it wasn't the girl he was hiding from, Ben knew he had to get out of sight from this giant woman still.

Sydney walked towards the empty glass cage in confusion. She had thought that Bailey had left the little man at a large enough size for her to easily spot. As her heels crashed down, Ben watched in fear as the giant woman went to look for him. He was lucky that he just climbed out, otherwise he would of been spotted instantly. On the other hand, Sydney would quickly find out that he wasn't there. If he wanted to escape, he would have to do it before she caught onto what he was up to.

A woman with red hair, wearing a white short-sleeved button-down shirt and maroon shorts, stands in a modern bedroom. She is looking down at a tiny man who is visible through a glass display case on the floor. The room features a bed with a grey headboard and white bedding, a nightstand with a lamp, and a window with blue curtains. The walls are decorated with a white brick pattern and framed pictures.

That's odd, I thought she said she left a tiny man for me in her cage. It doesn't look like he's big enough to be seen like I thought. Maybe Rachel must of got to him before me. I'll have to ask her because I really want to have a pet with me today. All of my good ones just keep on giving up. Bailey made it sound like this one might be a bit better than the recent ones we've had. It's such a shame none of these shrunken bugs can be useful at all.

Luckily for Ben, Sydney wasn't going to look through Bailey's room for him. She had thought that there had been a miscommunication because she didn't think the little man would be big enough to escape his cage. Ben watched from the floor as the giantess walked towards the door. As she reached for the door knob he thought that this might be his chance. If he was able to slip through the door without her knowing, then he would be in a better position for an escape. Getting out of Bailey's room was the first step to freedom.

Fuck I was too slow. I really felt like that was the best chance I've had so far. There's no way I can get through this door at my current size. I'll need to figure something else out before Bailey comes back. It looked like her mom was looking for something. It seems like they go through a lot of little people like me so she didn't even react to me being gone. I'll have to hope this was for the best.

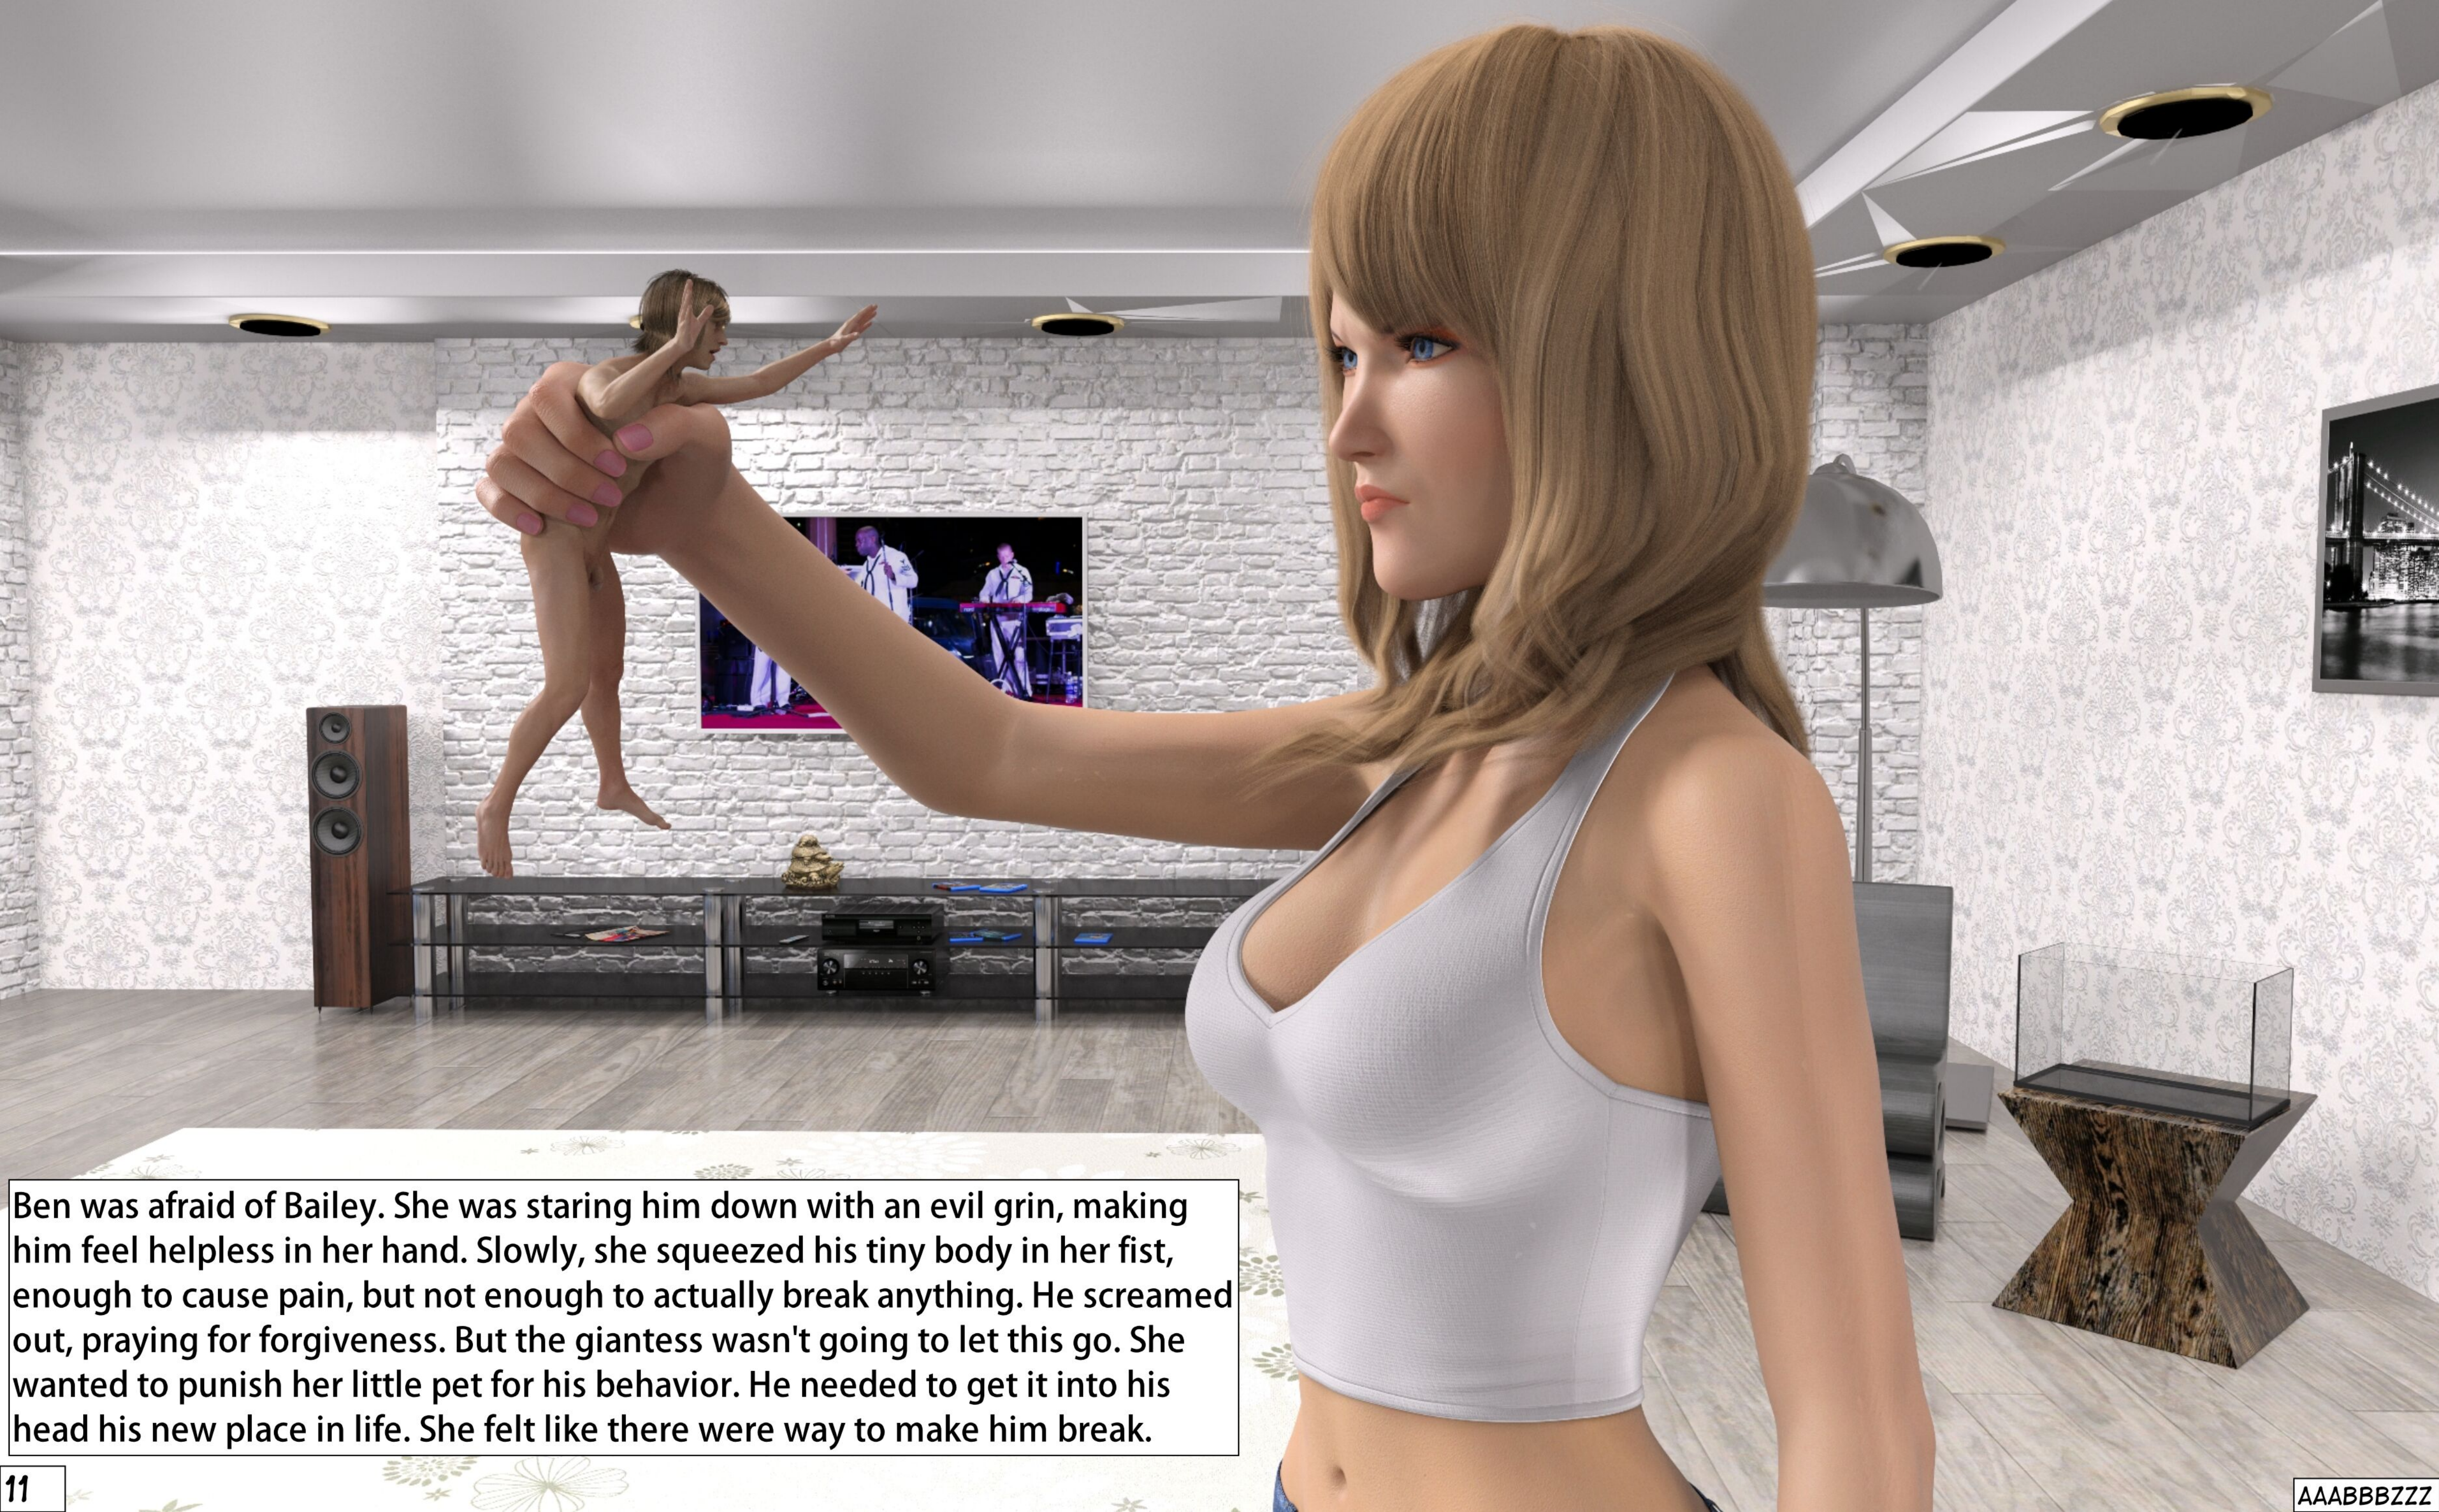

Ben, I'm back! My mom told me that you weren't in your cage. I hope she was lying to me because you know what's going to happen if you're not there!

Before Ben had any time to look for another way out of the room, he heard another pair of feet walking towards the room. Running underneath the bed table just in time, he watched as Bailey came into the room. She seemed to be in a good mood, but he was scared what would happen when she didn't find him where she left him.

When Bailey saw that Ben wasn't in his cage she started to become furious. Her mood swung from being happy and playful to angry and upset. She wanted to let her mom use him for the day, but hearing he was gone she had to check it out. It was obvious that he had to be somewhere in her room. There were no other escape routes for him that he would be able to get to at his current size. When she turned around to search for him, it wasn't long before she found him on the floor.

There you are! What the fuck are you doing out of your cage little man? You were told to stay put, but now I see that you can't be trusted at that size. I hope you didn't get too excited, because I'm about to ruin your day. I already gave you warnings about what would happen if you tried to run from me. Now you will need to be punished. When I'm done with you you'll wish you just stayed in your glass prison.

Ben was afraid of Bailey. She was staring him down with an evil grin, making him feel helpless in her hand. Slowly, she squeezed his tiny body in her fist, enough to cause pain, but not enough to actually break anything. He screamed out, praying for forgiveness. But the giantess wasn't going to let this go. She wanted to punish her little pet for his behavior. He needed to get it into his head his new place in life. She felt like there were way to make him break.

You know what, I'll get to you. But first there is something I need to go do. Take this time to think about what you did, and prepare for my return because I won't be easy on you when I get back. You better be scared Ben, nobody fucks with me and gets away with it. There is only one way for you to learn a lesson and that will be through my punishment. I just hope you actually get something out of this or you will just end up dead in no time.

Bailey wasn't going to just leave Ben alone at this size again though. Since he was able to escape so easily she decided to shrink him down further, even though she loved him at his current size. She pulled out a spray bottle that had the chemical in it. Her mom made it for easy use to play around with their pet's sizes. Normally Bailey's toys would already be too small so it was rare for her to use this. Unfortunately for Ben, he was about to become much much smaller.

There we go, that's much better. You had your chance to be good and stay at your current size, but you ruined it. Now you will have no chance at escaping at your new microscopic size. You're the size of a bug now. I hope that nothing bothers you while I'm gone, because you're so helpless now. I'll be right back in a little bit. Be a good little man now and prepare yourself. When I return I will have some games I'll want to play with you.

After shrinking Ben down to less than an inch tall, Bailey walked away from the little guy without a single bit of regret. She didn't care what would happen to the shrunken man, or how he felt about being so tiny. He was just her toy to do whatever she wanted with. Ben looked up at his new gigantic world, afraid of how much larger Bailey and her family was now. Before he was at least the size of a doll, but now it felt like even an accident could end him. Hoping he wouldn't get any smaller, he wanted to get ready to do what she asked for. Ben wished that maybe she would grow him to a larger size if he was able to please her.

Down at the pool, Carly was relaxing in her bikini. She had thought that Ben was just straight up ditching her, so she wanted to go somewhere so she could take his mind off him. Bailey had a feeling she might be down here after running into her yesterday. There was no shrinking chemical in the pool at the moment so she brought her spray can instead. After Ben tried to escape her she wanted to do something extreme for revenge. Shrinking his girlfriend down seemed like the proper punishment to get the little man to learn his place.

Hi Bailey,
how are you? It's funny seeing you down here again. I never found my boyfriend yesterday so I've decided to just say screw it. If he's going to run from me like he did then it's not worth my time.
What are you up to? Do you want to relax here by the pool with me?

Sorry to hear that, it's a good thing you got over it so quickly. But I'm not here to hang out. I actually wanted to ask if you wanted to come over to my place and hang out?

Bailey wasn't just simply inviting Carly over though. She pointed her shrinking chemical at the innocent girl and started to spray her with it. Carly was confused as to what was going on as it seemed rude for Bailey to do this without saying anything. For a moment she was agitated, but when she realized something was going on with her body she became scared. Out of nowhere the world around her started to expand, as her body shrunk down after reacting with the spray.

You might be wondering what's going on with your body. You're not wrong is you think you're shrinking, because you are! I know I said I had no idea what happened to your boyfriend, but I have some news for you. I actually shrunk Ben as well. I brought him home to my place and he disobeyed me, so this is my punishment for him. Shrinking you down is the perfect way to get revenge on him. I'm sorry you had to get caught in the middle of this Carly, it's such a shame.

Eventually the shrinking stopped and Carly found herself only a few inches tall. She looked up at Bailey who smiled down at her with an evil grin. It was a shock to hear about what happened to Ben, but finding her at such a tiny size was also terrifying. The giantess seemed to not have the best intentions and Carly felt powerless. Hopelessness came to her as Bailey closed in, trying to grab the shrunken woman.

Where do you think you're going little girl/ It's always funny to watch how stupid you little things can be. Running from me does noting but exhaust your own energy. It takes no effort from me to reach and grab you. Please, just slow down and save your breath, you might need it later.

You're such a cute little doll. I can't wait to bring you home and have some fun with you. Ben is going to be excited to see you, but also in despair when he sees that I shrunk you too. It's all his fault that you're in this position so I'm sure you two will have a lot to talk about.

You can't be serious Bailey this is nuts! Put me down and grow me back this instant. And take me to Ben too, you have no right to do whatever you want with us. We are not your pets or something!

Back in Bailey's room, Ben was waiting fearfully. He worried about what Bailey might do with him when she would get back, after angering her earlier. Ben felt completely hopeless now with his new tiny size. The world around him was so much bigger than it was before. As he sat he could hear a door slamming in the distance, as if someone was walking around the house. He braced himself as he thought that Bailey might be returning.

As he feared, it looked it was her coming home. He noticed she seemed happier than earlier and was holding something in her hand. It was scarier to see her in a good and non-caring mood over an upset mood for some reason. She just seemed careless about the way she walked, and being tinier than ever it was worrisome. When she came over to the glass tank he realized what exactly she was holding.

Look you two,
I bet it's a surprise to see each other like this. Ben I made your girlfriend a lot bigger than you, but she is still just as tiny and helpless as you are. The both of you are under my rule from now on, and I expect each of you to perform. Otherwise I might just shrink you both smaller or possibly something worse than that. Doesn't that sound like a lot of fun?

Carly didn't believe it was real. She was in complete shock to see her boyfriend half the size as she was when she was already so tiny. Ben couldn't feel anything except for guilt. This was his fault that Carly was in this mess. If he would've just behaved better for Bailey then none of this would of happened. Either way he was going to end up as nothing but a pet for the giantess and her family, so dragging his girlfriend into it made him feel like it was all for nothing.

If you don't make us bigger now you're going to be in so much trouble Bailey! Just wait until the police hear about this. Who knows how many other unfortunate people you have done this too, it isn't right!

Oh how cute, do you have to stand up for your strong boyfriend? He's nothing but an insect now in my hand and so are you little lady. Your threats are wasted breath. You can't do anything to back them up at your current size, I'd suggest you ask Ben what happens when you can't behave.

Bailey did nothing but ignore the cries of the tiny woman and brought them over to the bed to throw down. Their little bodies flew through the air towards the bed from what seemed like the top of a building for Ben and Carly. Luckily for them, they were just heading towards soft sheets that would cushion their landings. Bailey knew she wouldn't hurt them, but it was still quite a fall for her small toys.

Ben! Ben! Are you okay? Did she hurt you? That was a long fall for us I hope you're fine. What the hell is going on, this girl is crazy. I'm scared, we need to get out of here. I have a bad feeling about what she wants to do with us. She's treating us like we're her disposable pets or something. We need to get out of here and find someone to help us! Please get up and don't be hurt. I really need you right now.

As Ben begun to get up, Carly started to feel a little bit better about everything. But that changed quickly when she looked up to see Bailey undressing herself. The giant girl had removed her pants and shirt and was starting to unbutton her bra. Whatever she wanted to do with her tiny toys suddenly became even more scary. Ben had flashbacks of the night before. He didn't want his girlfriend to go through what he did yesterday.

Ah much better. It feels so good to get out of those clothes and finally being about to relax in my room naked with a new pet. My divine body must be scary to you little girl, but don't worry, if you can please it, then I will allow you a chance. Just the thought of having fun with you two is getting me horny already. I can't wait to show you Carly what I put Ben through already. If you think being small is bad enough just wait.

Bailey slowly started to run her fingertips along her pussy lips, getting herself ready to take advantage of the tiny ones. She was wet in excitement, wanting to wait not another minute before diving into her fun. Carly still felt like this was all a dream, but Ben knew she was serious. The first time going through this he couldn't believe it either. But Bailey seemed to not care if her pets were human. To her they were nothing but insignificant toys with no other purpose but to be used. As she sat on the bed she instructed them what to do.

So Carly, are you still trying to convince me to grow you back or something? I feel by now you should realize this is a hostage situation. I get to do what I want with you and there is no one to stop me. Geez you are such an entitled little person, I never see anything like this normally. Usually they know when they are helpless, but you seem to be feisty about it. Don't worry, soon enough you will wish you just played along.

When Carly was picked up by Bailey, Ben was placed down at her feet. Without even asking, he got to work on trying to act as a servant to her feet. They were giving off an odor after being out in the sun all day in her sandals, but he knew he had to do whatever he could. The little man was scared of the giantess punishing his girlfriend further if he didn't behave properly.

How about we get you used to your new life first. I want to make you moan using just my finger.
What if I rubbed your tiny clit until you couldn't handle it anymore. There's no way anyone could resist such a soft gently touch. Don't be afraid to let your pussy enjoy it. That's the fun of the game for me. I don't care if you beg me to stop, this is what I want from you and so I'm going to do it until I'm happy. Poor little thing, resisting just makes it harder.

Even though Carly's body was enjoying what Bailey was doing, she screamed for her to stop. The tiny woman felt like she was being raped in the hand of the giantess. She yelled as loud as she could, trying to get her to stop, but it was no use. Bailey was starting to get irritated with how ungrateful her pet was. This led her to change things up and give her another punishment instead.

Well if you don't want to have fun then we don't have to. What if I put you in my mouth instead? I bet this is even worse than my finger. Now you can enjoy my slimy tongue lick your entire body. I don't know why you have to complain so much. I can think of worse things to do if you really want me to. How about you have some fun in here instead. I know I'll love it.

While this was going on, all Ben could do was watch from below. As he tried to worship Bailey's feet, she started to get bored. Instead of having him be useless, she made it fun for herself by grabbing him with her big and second toe. From there she toyed with Ben's tiny body while slurping on his girlfriend above him. He pleaded to her for this to stop, but his puny voice couldn't even reach her ears.

Horrified at the situation, Carly's heart was beating more rapidly than ever before. It didn't feel like Bailey was just playing around. She was threatening her life as she pushed her body deep into her mouth. Carly struggled and tried her best to climb out, but Bailey was easily able to pull her back in using her lips and tongue. Her worst nightmare came true as it felt like the giant girl was trying to swallow. Loosing sight of the outside world, Carly fell to the back of Bailey's throat and was devoured whole without much effort.

Well that turned out to be a nice little snack instead. It would've been fun to play with her longer, but I just couldn't stand all that complaining. Sorry Ben, I really wanted to keep her around to tease you with, but looks like that idea didn't work out. Now you know just how far I will go to punish you if you misbehave. There are a million ways I can torture you physically with my size advantage. But also I can break your mind, just remember that next time you are asked to do something.

Ben was in complete disbelief. Watching his girlfriend get devoured right before his eyes by the cruel giantess just made his heart sink. Chills went down his spine as it became really clear just how much Bailey didn't care about their tiny lives. He froze in terror, losing any hope at being spared from this point on. If he wanted to survive long enough to get another chance, he knew the best thing to do now was to obey Bailey's every command with every ounce of energy.

Poor little Ben, I bet that was traumatizing to watch wasn't it? Now you know just how much I really don't give a shit about your puny existence. You're here to serve me and that's what you will do. I'm wet from the feeling of power and from what I just did to Carly. Being able to dominate like this turns me on more than you could believe. Now, be on your best behavior because it is the time to satisfy your goddess. Please don't let me down if you know what's good for you.

Easily holding him between her two fingers, Bailey lowered Ben's body towards her most private region. The little man knew what the giantess wanted, but he was worried about what he could offer now at this smaller size. Yesterday he was able to please Bailey being the size of a dildo, but now at around an inch tall it seemed like his body would be worthless to her. She brought him closer, ready to pleasure herself with her tiny pet.

To start off, Bailey rubbed Ben's tiny body against her outside lips. He quickly started to become drenched in her juices as the giantess started to speed things up. Ben's world was completely being shaken up as he was carelessly used as this girl's sex toy. There was nothing he could do to stop her as she got more into it, eventually inserting his entire body right inside her.

Oh my god, that feels so good. I barely can feel that tiny body of yours, but I can tell how much you're struggling down there. It's insane how powerless you are to just one finger of mine. I want you deeper Ben. Please squirm up against my walls, do your best to survive as you pleasure your goddess. I know it might be difficult to breathe inside your hot and moist prison, but I don't fucking care. Continue to please me even if it kills you to.

While Bailey was enjoying her time with Ben, it seemed that Carly was fighting for her survival inside of her stomach. The tiny woman was making enough effort to cause the giantess to stop what she was doing, disturbed by the violent feeling in her belly. She was upset that this was interrupting her plans, as she was having such a great time with Ben. Instead of trying to ignore it, she had to remove her little man from her vagina so she could run to the bathroom.

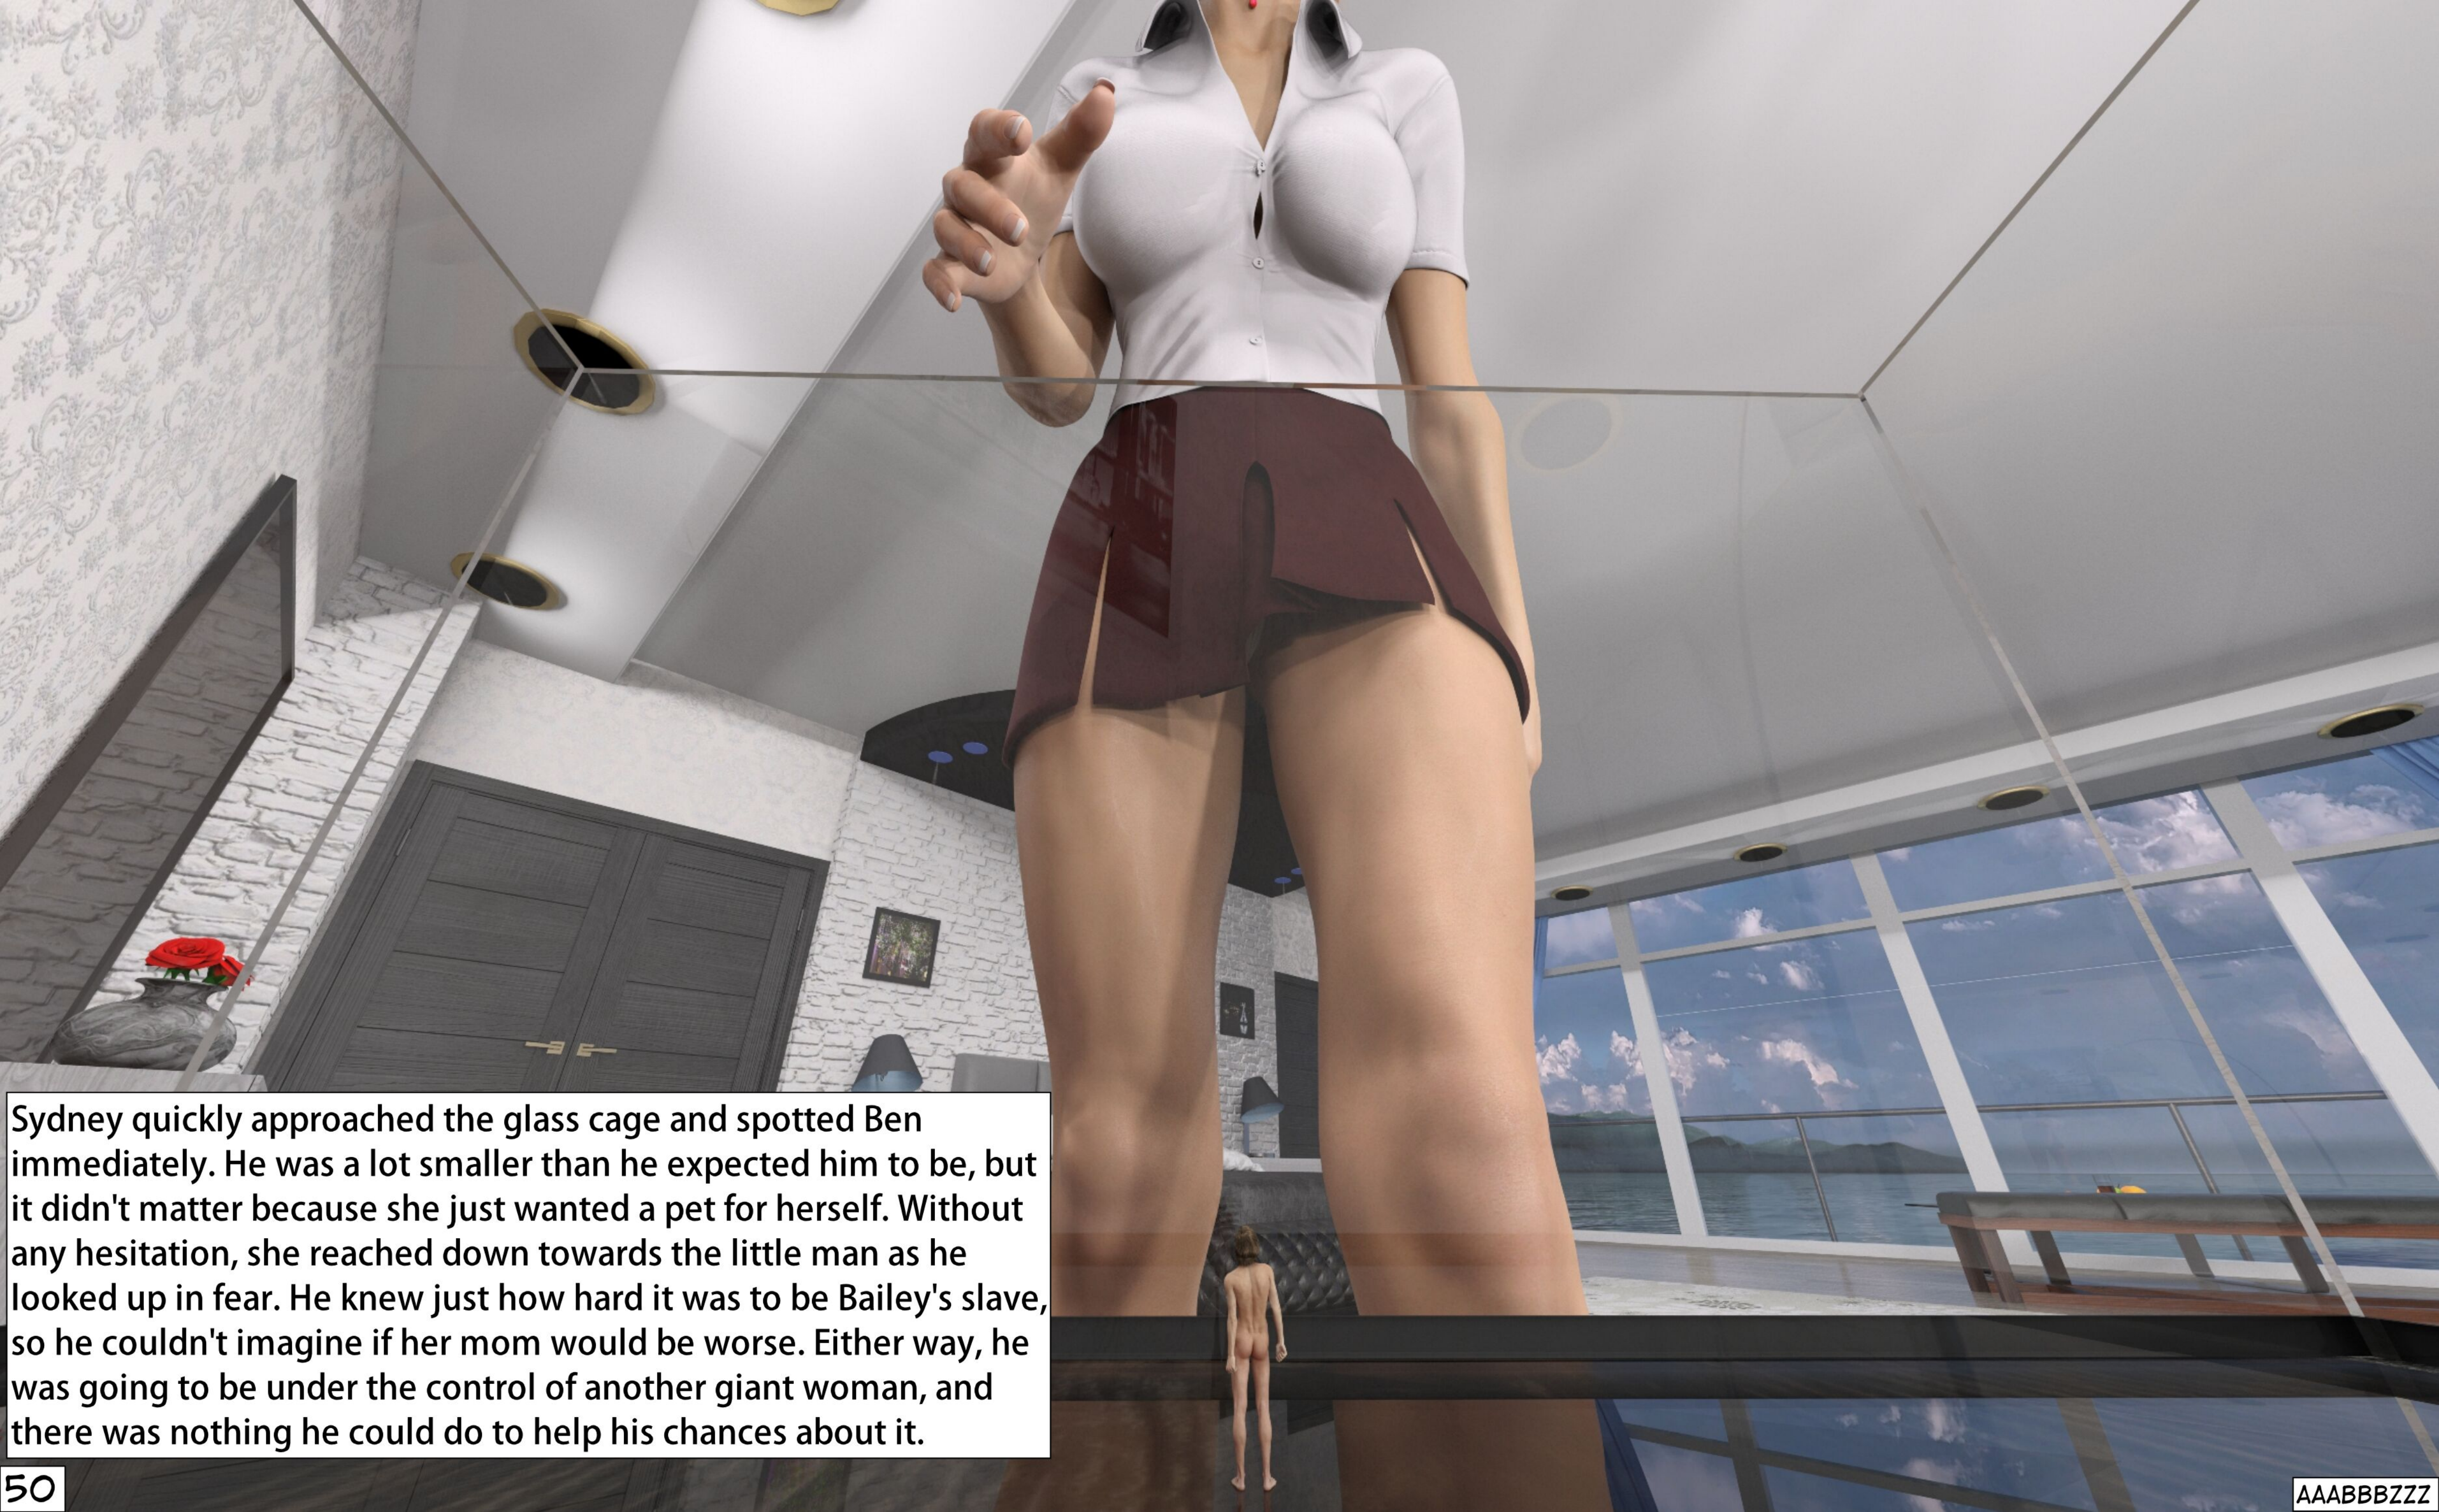

Looks like it's your lucky day Ben. Your girlfriend is doing something inside me that I can't ignore. Sadly we'll have to come back to where we were when I'm feeling it again. Take this time to enjoy a break and catch your breath, because maybe next time you wont be so fortunate. I need to go so I'll be right back as soon as I can.

Trapped in his glass cage once again, Ben watched as Bailey hurried off to her bathroom. It was a surprise to hear that Carly was most likely still alive, but the little man knew she couldn't of been doing well. She was struggling to survive inside Bailey's stomach against the acidic digestive fluid, something that seemed like a nightmare to Ben. He felt lucky that he wasn't the one inside her belly, but at the same time felt guilty for putting his girlfriend through something so horrible.

A few moments after Bailey left the room, Ben could hear a knock at the door. Without waiting around too long, Sydney came into the room. She was expecting to see her daughter but after not getting a response she decided to come in anyway. The giantess mother was still eager to play with a shrunken person, after missing her chance earlier. She had hoped to find one this time around when checking in on her daughter. To Ben's horror, she was heading right towards him this time. Without anywhere to run or hide this time, he knew he would be spotted for sure.

A 3D rendered scene showing a giant woman with a white short-sleeved button-down shirt and maroon shorts. She is reaching down with her right hand towards a tiny, nude man who is standing on a dark, reflective surface. The setting is a modern yacht deck with a glass railing, overlooking a blue sea and sky. The interior of the yacht is visible in the background, featuring white stone walls, a dark door, and a vase with red roses on a ledge. The ceiling has several circular lights.

Sydney quickly approached the glass cage and spotted Ben immediately. He was a lot smaller than he expected him to be, but it didn't matter because she just wanted a pet for herself. Without any hesitation, she reached down towards the little man as he looked up in fear. He knew just how hard it was to be Bailey's slave, so he couldn't imagine if her mom would be worse. Either way, he was going to be under the control of another giant woman, and there was nothing he could do to help his chances about it.

What the fuck, are you the little man Bailey was talking about? You're so tiny now, did you do something to upset her? I know she was talking about how good her new pet was, so seeing you like this now kind of makes me angry. I wanted to have some fun of my own, but I'm not going to grow you back now that you're this tiny. I don't think you deserve any of the chemical. It looks like we're going to just have to find a way to do something with you at this size.

Ben tried screaming out to the giant mother, pleading for her to use some of the growth chemical on him, but it was no use. His tiny voice just wasn't able to reach her ears, so he just looked like a pathetic insect in the palm of her hand. Sydney seemed to be more careless with her shrunken pets than both of her daughters, so Ben was about to experience something he never thought he'd have to. As she quickly got bored of watching him beg, she turned around and started to leave the room with her new little slave.

A woman with red hair tied up, wearing a white short-sleeved polo shirt, a maroon skirt, and red high-heeled shoes, is walking away from the camera in a bedroom. The room features a white brick wall, a dark wood wardrobe, a white dresser, a white nightstand with a lamp, and a bed with a grey headboard and dark bedding. A speech bubble is positioned above her, containing a threatening message.

I have no idea of anything you just tried to tell me little man. Your voice is nothing but a quiet squeek at your current size, so it's pretty pointless for you to try. Even if I could hear you I wouldn't even care anyways. It looks like since Bailey isn't around, we'll have some time alone together. I know you might be scared, especially after what she might of done with you. I'll let you know so you don't get your hopes up, I don't plan on being any easier on you than she was. You're my pet to do whatever I want with as well.

With the tiny man still in her hand begging, Sydney walked into her living room. She was excited to have some fun with the little guy, but upset that he was shrunken so small by her daughter. Sydney had started to become bored of her pets being so small. It was fun when she had multiple of them, but they were too useless to be kept alive most of the time. If Ben wanted to survive through her games, he would have to hope for her to go easier than she normally would with him.

I hope Bailey didn't use you up too much earlier. I'm expecting you to have energy for some of my tasks. You know how cruel us women can be if we don't get what we expect. Just let your survival instincts take over if you want any chance of doing a good job. My daughters are mean, but how do you think they got that way? I will be the true test if you want to remain a pet in this household.

The little man was scared to death. Sydney walked around the table in such a dominate matter that he knew she had no concern for his well being. All of this was just a game to entertain her and it didn't really matter even if Ben could do his task like he was asked. She was a hard to please woman, so being the size he was would make it impossible for him to give her anything except for a few laughs. No matter what though, this was his chance to prove himself so he had to prepare to.

Ah, it feels so nice to finally sit down after walking around in these heels all morning. My feet get so sore so easily these days it seems. I just wish you were a bit bigger so you could give me a foot massage little man. It looks like I'll just have to torture you with them instead. Being so tiny makes the smell incredibly worse. Hurry up and run over to me before I get bored of you. I'm not a very patient woman once I give a command.

There we go, I like your hustle so far. It's taking longer than I'd like, but your legs are so small that I can't blame you. When you reach my foot I want you to climb to the top of my heel. I know that might sound like a very hard task, but that's the fun of it. Making you little things do what seems impossible really excites me. Watching you pathetically struggle to do something so simple is one of the most amusing things ever. It is why I shrink people like you down, it's just so much fun! You would understand if you had the power and tried it yourself.

Upon reaching her giant foot, Ben immediately decided on what might be the best way to climb up it. He started down by the heel, trying to grab onto the side of the shoe. Even though her feet were still in her heels, the little man could smell a foul odor. Sydney had a mature and smelly scent that would accumulate in her heels all day. It wasn't something she was ashamed of though. She loved to torture her shrunken pets with it all the time. Soon Ben would find out exactly what she was talking about, but before he could make his way to the top, Sydney lifted her leg to dangle her shoe. Ben held on for dear life, praying he wouldn't let go.

I think I changed my mind little guy. You were taking way too long to get anywhere on my foot. Why would I sit here and watch you take so long to do something so simple. You're too boring for me to waste all that time on just you. Does it stink over there yet? I bet you're starting to get a good sample of what my feet can smell like after walking in these painful heels. My sweat has become part of that shoe, making it all so much worse. Maybe we should let you get a true sample of how bad my foot can get.

Playing very roughly, Sydney let her heel drop to the table with Ben still hanging onto it. When it crashed down he lost his grip as his tiny body landed on the hard wooden table. For a second he felt delirious, but he soon realized that it wasn't just from landing so violently. Sydney's bare foot was right next to him. The smell of it combined with the old sweaty heel made the air toxic to breathe. He whimpered to himself, wishing for this all to end as soon as possible.

Now, be a good little slave for me and come worship my foot. I bet you're having a hard time catching your breath next to my smelly toes. It's so funny to me to know how torturous it must be for you down there. Why don't you go on and just get to your job. It might help you distract yourself from the intense smell. But at the same time, being so close to them could actually make it so much worse.

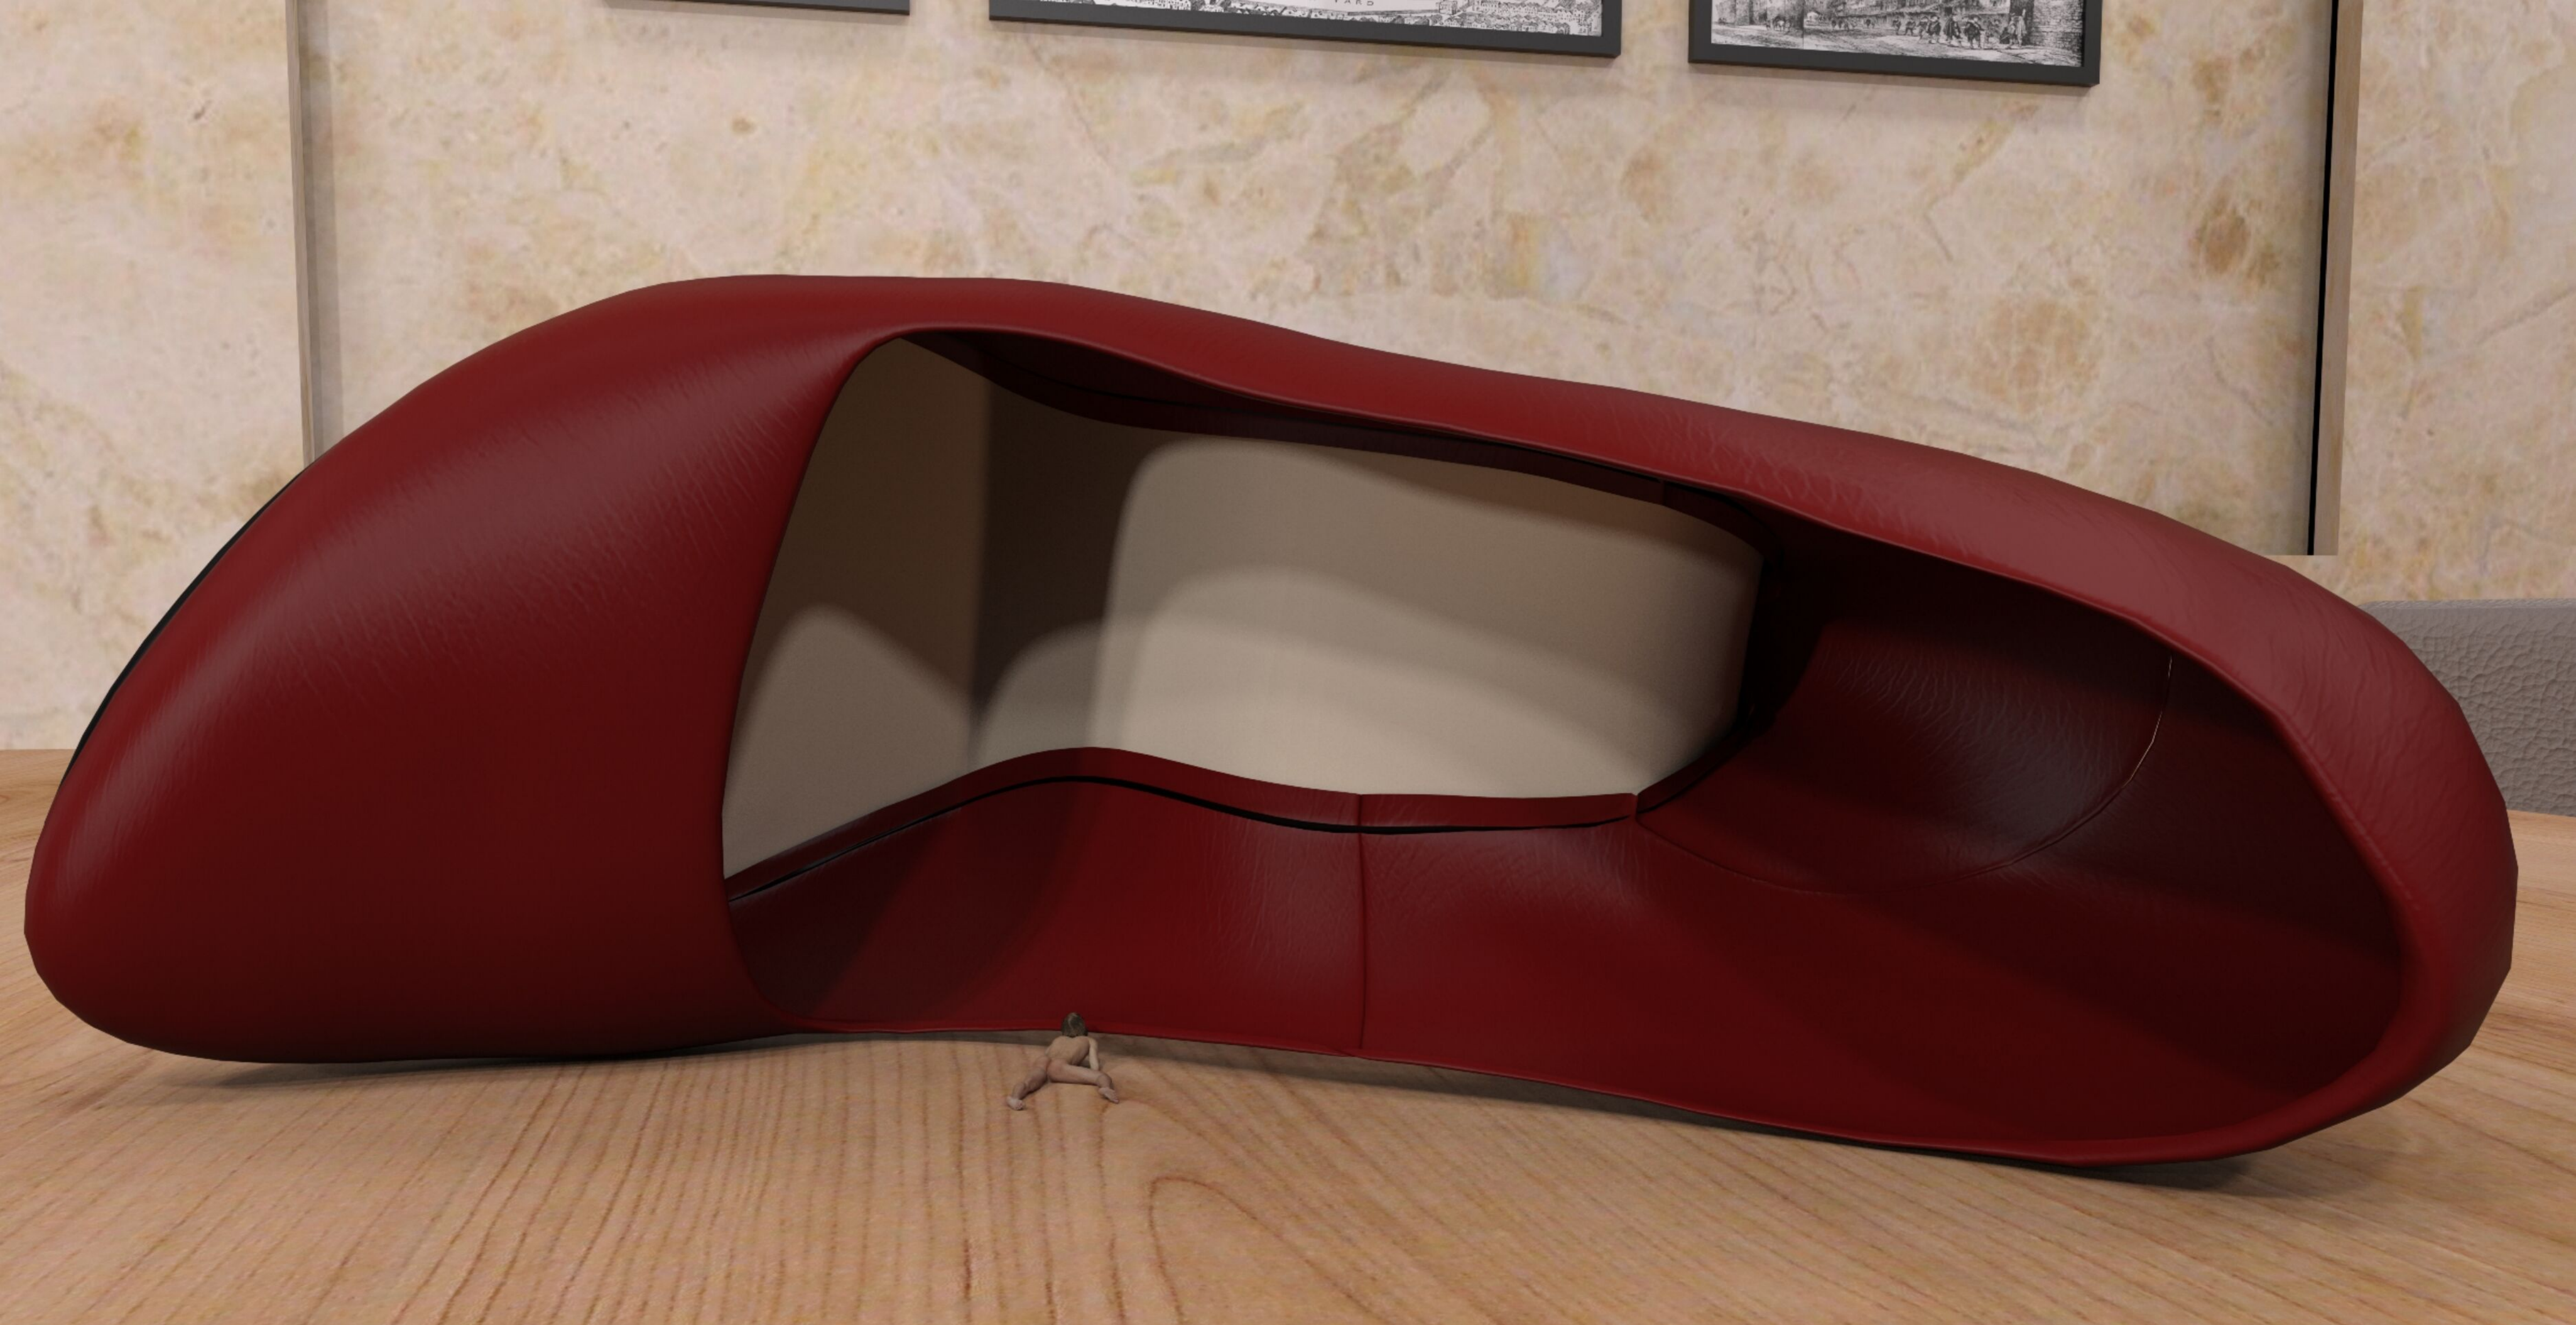

Ben got to his task right away. Crawling over to her sole, he started to lick the bottom of her smelly foot like he was asked to. When he thought things couldn't get much worse, the taste actually multiplied how bad things were. He tried his best not to gag while obeying her command. Ben knew if he would react poorly then she would notice right away. Sydney had experience dealing with tiny pets similar to him, so she was prepared to take action if she ever felt like they were not giving her enough of what she asked for.

Doing his best, Ben held on and continued. It was a horrible and humiliating position to be in, but there was obviously no other choice. His survival depended on his performance in this moment right now. Sydney casually wiggled her toes, trying to get the smell to spread throughout Ben's area. He wanted to just give up so badly, since dying seemed like an easier option, but his instincts and his will to survive kept him going.

Come on, are you fucking serious? If that's all you really got then I don't know what use you can be at all. Maybe you need to be bigger, but there's no way I'm wasting any of the growth chemical on a insignificant worm like you. It's just too pathetic, sorry little guy. I can't sit here and expect you to entertain me anymore, I should find a better way to use my time instead. Go on, crawl over to my heel and climb inside. I have a different idea for you, and you better not keep me waiting. The longer you take the more ideas I might come up with.

Practically crying to himself. Ben dragged his abused body back towards Sydney's high heel. He was worried that the giantess seemed displeased with the way he handled things. Instead of panicking and doing something stupid, he conveniently obeyed his goddess. Making her even more angry wasn't an option for him, so he tried his hardest to get to where he needed as fast as possible. Unfortunately for him, Sydney was not about to go easy on such a disappointment.

Wow, look at your face, you look so scared! You better be afraid little guy, because you've proved that you are really no use to me. I'm expected back at the office to do a few more things tonight and you're going to come with me! That's right, if you thought you couldn't handle the smell before just wait until you're trapped in my high heel for hours. It's going to be hot, smelly, and probably sweaty. I can't guarantee your survival, so go ahead and do what you need to to live. The sweat from my foot should hopefully be enough to keep you hydrated, if not then I guess this is the end of you.

Sydney's words practically made Ben lose all hope. He thought of where he was going to be and imagined it as an impossible place to stay alive. Just being in her high heel was enough without her foot. But the thought of being pinned underneath her bare feet was something out of a torture movie. At his size there would be nothing he could do at all. As Sydney lifted her foot and hovered it above her shoe, he braced himself for the test of his lifetime.

Goodbye little man, it was nice knowing you for the short time we spent together. Be sure to run as far back as you can so you're in a good position not to be squished. Maybe if you're alive when I check on you we can reconsider growing you at least an inch or something. But after seeing your recent performance, I think your tiny body might just be too weak for that. Perhaps you can prove me wrong, I would love to see that. You'll have to be pretty lucky though, since most shrunken pets never see light again once they are in your position.

Without giving Ben the slightest chance, Sydney slipped her foot into her heel and pushed down on his tiny body. She could feel his struggles as she positioned him in a spot where he wouldn't be able to escape, but at the same time not be crushed easily. The little man was now stuck in her shoe like a prison cell. Already he had begun to suffocate before Sydney even started walking around. The chances seemed very slim that he would be able to make it through this tough situation.

I can actually feel your little body tickling me down there, its pretty amusing. Go ahead and keep doing what you can to please me. Most likely it wont be enough to make me happy, but isn't the chance great? I know it's not much, but at least it should keep you from simply giving up and dying. I love it when my pets can show some determination. Perhaps a reward might motivate you? Not like you deserve anything, but I can tell you I love it when my slaves submit to me like a goddess.

Back in Bailey's room it was unknown that her mom had come in while she was in the bathroom. Bailey was having a hard time with Carly, feeling like the tiny woman was doing damage to her insides. She had no other choice but to throw up the stubborn shrunken girl. Normally when Bailey would eat a tiny one they would be a lot smaller. This was a good reminder to chew on her food before swallowing it whole next time.

Carly was lucky to be alive. What she went through was pretty tramuatic, and she thought for sure that she was going to die to the stomach acids. But somehow she was still breathing when Bailey threw her up. The giantess used a healing chemical to help her body recover from the damage done by the digestive fluids. Bailey thought if she was tough enough to survive that then she could possibly become a well trained and enduring slave.

Now where the hell did your tiny boyfriend go? Either my mom or sister must of come in here while we were in the bathroom or something. Well that sucks, who knows what they will do to him now. At that size he probably wont be much use to them at all so I'm wondering if we'll even see him again. That's too bad for you little woman, now it looks like you wont have any company in your cage.

What was that?
Are you still being an annoying little cunt? Do you know why I just tried eating you tiny girl? You have some fucking nerve to try and yell at me after what I just put you through. How can you not learn your lesson yet. Has the shrinking messed with your brain that much? Or are you just dumb. I'm the one in charge, if I wanted to I could eat you for real this time. Maybe if I chew off your limbs first then you wouldn't be able to struggle like you did before.

Upset with the tiny woman, Bailey held her upside down by her leg. She was not happy with the tiny pet trying to act like she had any say in this. So instead, she tried to display her power over her once again. Carly suddenly became scared of what the giantess said to her. She already had tried to eat her whole, it wasn't a far belief to think that she would actually chew her up first this time.

Using her tongue, Bailey started to lick her tiny slave playfully. Carly screamed out, begging for forgiveness after realizing that what she said was wrong to Bailey. Flashbacks of being back in her stomach came to her and she started to panic by squirming and yelling as loud as possible. Bailey was not serious though luckily, after having some fun in hearing her cries, she eventually lowered her and through her down into the glass

It would be fun to just devour you, but I think it would be a lot more fun to just put you back here for the day. You still need some time to adjust to your new life before I make any real decisions. Maybe I can find your tiny boyfriend and you guys can have one last reunion if you're lucky. But until then, enjoy your cage tiny girl. There is no escaping now, and the thought of what might happen to you will probably drive you insane. Just be ready for the next time someone wants to play with you.

Carly landed and quickly got to her knees so she could try shouting up at Bailey. But it was too late, she had already started to walk away from the cage, making her voice unheard of. It was a surprise to be alive after thinking it was all over, being burned by Bailey's stomach acids. But here she was and now she was more worried than ever about what might happen to her next time she would be acknowledged.

From that point on, Carly slowly started to realize what her life was now. It was obvious that she had to try and forget about her past life, unless a chance to grow back was presented to her. She knew that now she was nothing but a tiny pet to this evil girl. It was a dark thought to have in her head, but it was her reality. The only thing she wished of right now was for Ben to come back. Together they might at least have some comfort in being in such a nightmare situation.
