Years melt away in a heartbeat.
Primal energy restores what time stole.

...and ancient magic demands
a more... fitting attire.

Well... I feel absolutely incredible.

Forged in the cosmic fires of Mount Meru,, it grants limitless youth...

@heroesinyou

...and an insatiable fire.

Don't just stand there staring, my love. It's been a long time since we felt this young...

Sunita... this is... I feel like a young boy again just looking at you. But I don't know if my heart can take it.

Oh, darling. We have all night to make sure it takes it.

@heroesinyou

You know, this necklace is magnificent, but I can't possibly get comfortable with it on. Let me just take it off...

NOOOOOOOO!
STOP! LEAVE IT ON!

Some secrets are too seductive... and too terrifying... to ever uncover.

Oh, my. I didn't realize you were so attached to... this version of me.

P-please... Sunita. Don't change back. Not yet.

Then remember who holds the power, darling. I decide when the night is dark... and when it's full of pleasure.

@heroesinyou

The Surya-Kanta Choker. Rewarding the woman who gives you everything... with the power to take it all away. Happy Mother's Day.

Flow: Time Jump. Picks up the next morning following the intimate evening implied in Page 5.

Ancient magic grants a vitality that sunrise cannot it.

@heroesinyou

[Groaning weakly]
"Sunita... please... I can't move. My knees... my back... everything hurts."

Nonsense, darling! I feel like I could run five miles! The night really was full of wonders.

Some Mother's Day gifts keep giving... whether the rest of the family likes it or not.
