

THE TRIP (Part 5)

(a Hud story)

(amysconquest.com)

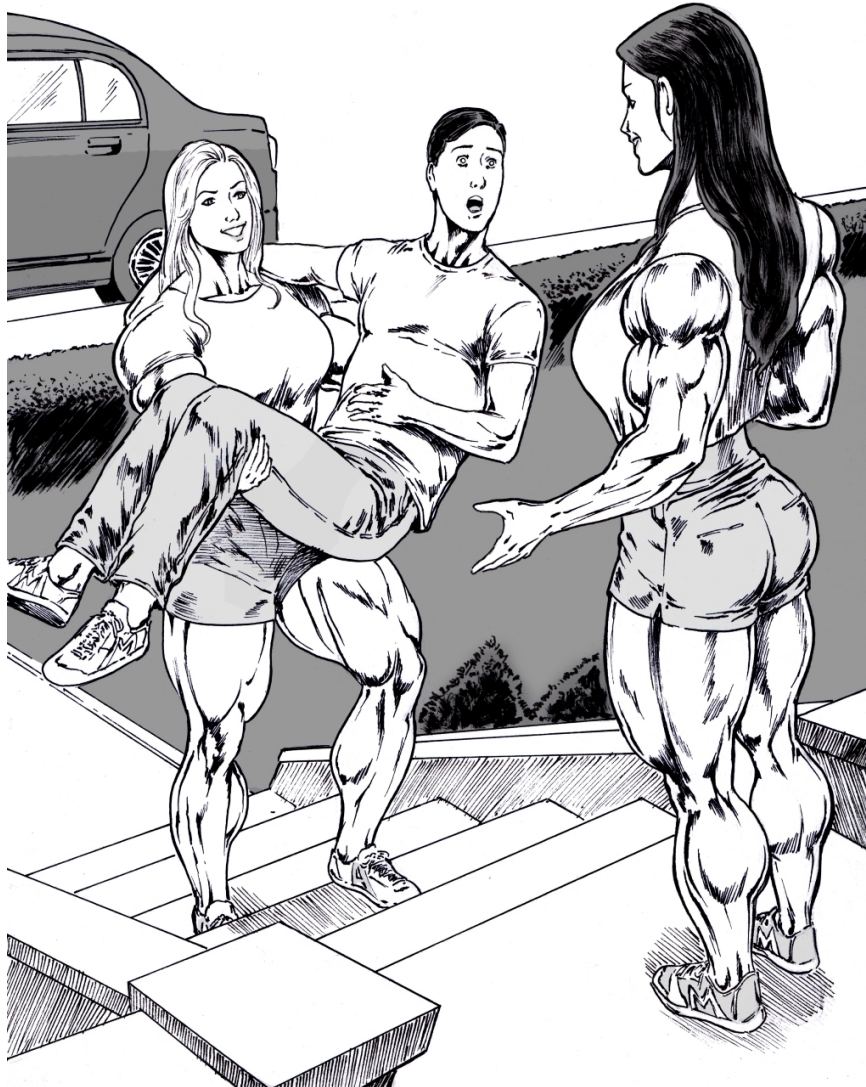

A few days passed, life was closer to normal, if you can consider living in a household where the two women were significantly stronger than either of the men, normal.

Megan and I came down for breakfast one day and there was a small bag with a bow on it sitting on the kitchen table. "What's that?" Megan asked "Why don't you look and see," Lisa responded with a twinkle in her eye.

It was two tickets to visit my parents in Green Bay.

"We thought it was time for the two of you to go visit Allan's parents," Lisa explained. Megan and I were thrilled. She hadn't been back there since she was a kid and I couldn't wait to show her off to my friends.

Later that day Megan came in and said that she wanted to take a drive. I was game, so I got ready and walked out to the car. I was in such a good mood, thinking about going back home, that I didn't even consider where we might be going.

We drove around for half an hour looking at the sights. Eventually I started to recognize the area. My stomach got queasy. Soon after that we pulled into LuAnn's driveway. Megan got out opened my door, I didn't move, so she undid the seat belt bent over and picked me off of the seat. I was going in regardless of how I felt.

We walked up the steps to the front door. Megan reached out with her left hand, while still holding me still with her right arm under my butt, and rang the doorbell. LuAnn came to the door and smiled at us. "I see you have him under control," She laughed.

The girls walked into the living room. I came along for the ride. Megan sat down with me on her lap. I looked at the coffee table. There was some food set up on a couple of plates.

LuAnn said "Dig in. I thought you two might be hungry." Relaxing a little, I managed to eat half a sandwich and a pickle. Megan and LuAnn each had a whole sandwich, a huge serving of potato salad, and an apple. I guess building all that muscle leaves one with a big appetite.

Megan proceeded to tell LuAnn that we were going to Green Bay in two weeks and would be gone for three weeks.

"If you are going to go away for that long then I really need one more try, before I get too strong. You know I have added three pounds of muscle since your last visit." LuAnn said as she puffed out her muscular chest and winked at Megan.

"One more try at what?" I asked.

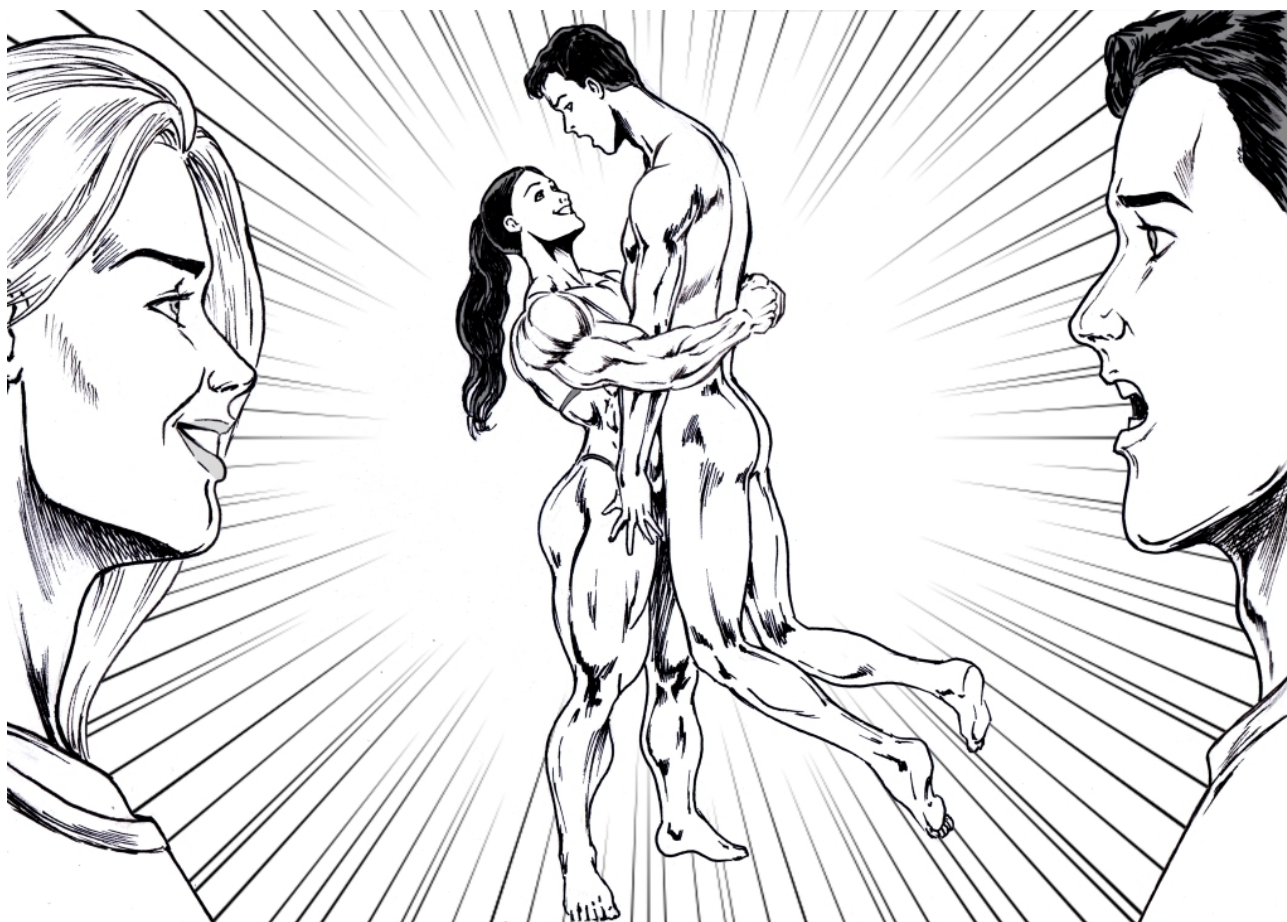

"You" she answered.

"Oh no, I had enough last time." I said to the two girls, as a chill went down my spine. "Megan you can't." I complained.

"Oh come on baby, LuAnn is my best friend and she has asked for a favor. She doesn't ask me for much, so I can't turn her down. Beside I won't let her hurt you and you need to learn how to protect yourself. No matter how much I hold back you can't do anything against me. So I am starting you against my smallest friend. " Megan said to me in a firm voice.

"But I didn't bring any workout clothes with me and I don't want to ruin this outfit, it's almost new." I replied in a whiny tone

"OK, then I guess you will have to wrestle in your underwear." Megan quickly answered back.

The word wrestle made me weak in the knees. I had been defeated so easily by this miniature dynamo last time. She had grown significantly since then. I didn't see how I had a chance. The memory of what had happened at the end of our last two encounters came back to me and I was petrified.

LuAnn just laughed and bounded up the stairs to her room to change.

"Now Allan, you don't want to make me unhappy do you?" Megan said in a plaintive, but forceful tone.

I knew I had no choice, but I wanted to delay as much as I could, to try and limit my of my embarrassment.

I had little luck as LuAnn almost jumped down the stairs. She came into the room wearing nothing more than a little blue bikini. Her muscular body looked strong and sexy. I couldn't decide where to look. Her growing six pack beckoned. The striation and separation was becoming more apparent every time I saw her. At the same time I had trouble keeping my eyes off of her huge thigh muscles, which danced with every step she took. Finally those stupendous arms, which belonged on a girl so much taller.

Add to that a chest that made Megan's look like it belonged on a twelve year old and you get the picture of a package which was both beautiful and dangerous.

LuAnn gleefully said "I'm ready. What is he waiting for?" She gestured over at me. "You aren't afraid of little 4'11" me are you?" She asked in her best little baby girl voice. LuAnn proceed to do a walkover handstand ending up only a couple of feet from me.

She immediately went into a double bicep pose. Her muscles jumped at me. The size and definition was astounding. I stood there motionless.

LuAnn held the pose and looked directly into my eyes. I wasn't staring back at her, but at her oversized biceps. From our earlier encounter in her workout room I knew her arms were significantly bigger and stronger than mine. They were firm and rose like mountains in front of me.

The separation of the heads of her muscles was becoming more and more apparent. Each one looked big enough to defeat me. Combined they were immense. On a girl nine inches shorter than I was, they were monstrous and intimidating.

My eyes then travelled to her veiny forearms and amazingly thick wrists. Her lower arms put mine to shame. I wished I could reach out and stroke them, but I remained rooted to the floor, my arms stuck to my sides.

In spite of my fear, looking at this dominating display was having an unintended affect, as my groin started to rumble and fill out.

I couldn't help but travel back up her arms to LuAnn's strong shoulders and thick neck. Finally, I glanced into her eyes. She was brimming with confidence and seemed to recognize my weakness and fear.

"OK big man lets get this going." She cheerfully declared. In my excited state I was even more determined to not go through with this. I struck a defiant pose and shook my head no.

That lasted all of a few seconds as Megan came over and started lifting my shirt over my head. "It's either this, I am going to have to rip this shirt off of you." she told me.

"OK, I'll do it," was my unenthusiastic response. Grudgingly I took my shirt off.

"Now the pants!" They both chimed at the same time. Slowly I turned around and dropped my pants to the floor. My cock had deflated a bit, but it was nowhere near normal, if anything about this could be considered normal.

Gradually I turned back around. They both looked down at my underwear and smiled. "I guess some part of him is enjoying this," Megan said, as she started to laugh.

LuAnn spoke up next and said, "I'm going to start out easy with you today." Megan gently pushed me towards her smaller body double. LuAnn lifted up her arms and said "Lets start with a little test of mercy."

I figured this might be my only chance. With the height advantage I had, LuAnn would have to extend her arms as high as she could, just to reach the level of my head. She brought her hands up in my face I reached out and we linked fingers. LuAnn grasped my fingers and pressed. Immediately my confidence began to waver. The blood seemed to rush out of my hands as she squeezed with a force stronger than anything I could hope to match.

"On the count of three you can start." Megan announced. "One, Two, Three." She counted. As soon as Megan said three I gave it all I could.

This lasted a moment as LuAnn stood her ground smiling. She looked over at Megan and said "Your poor man, is about to find out where the true strength lies."

"What are you talking about?" I spit out through my gritted teeth.

"Oh, that you are still weak and you are going to be on your knees in a very short time." LuAnn said to me in a cool and confident manner.

With that comment, the pressure on my wrists became unbearable as LuAnn started using more and more of her Amazonian strength. Before I could react, my wrists collapsed backwards. I had no choice but to bend my knees to relieve some of the immense pressure that was being put on my wrists and forearms.

"Keep going or I will really have to put you in pain." LuAnn demanded. Quickly I got on my knees as she had predicted only a few seconds before.

My face was now even with her chest. LuAnn's breasts were so much bigger than Megan's. I could see the hardening nipples as they stretched the thin fabric of her bikini top. She was getting turned on by her domination of me and I was getting turned on watching her nipples grow. For a moment she eased the massive pressure. I forgot about the pain, as I stared into her perfectly developed chest.

"Kiss my nipples," she commanded. Obediently I kissed her nipples through the fabric of her top. "NO! Kiss my nipples," LuAnn yelled, as the pain increased. I reached out with my teeth and pulled the bikini top up and off of her breasts. Proudly they stood out, full and firm. I wanted to smother myself between these two incredible globes.

LuAnn had other ideas, so I reached out with my lips and started suckling on the left nipple. "That's better," she said to me in a gentle voice, as her relentless assault abated for a minute.

Her nipples were the largest I had seen. Bigger than a dollar coin, they must have stood out over an inch and a half.

After bringing both of her nipples to full attention LuAnn had more in store for me. "Come back up," she taunted, as she turned my wrists upside down, applying an unbelievable amount of power. My fingers were now pointing back toward me. LuAnn seemed to be lifting me back up by the incredible power in her wrists.

I stumbled off of my knees as tears began to form. Once I got to her eye level she eased up. "OK stop right there," she said in an authoritative tone. LuAnn leaned forward and licked the tears off of my face.

"There, there don't be afraid. I know how strong I am and how weak you are. Come here and kiss me."

LuAnn said in an almost motherly voice. I looked over at Megan and she was smiling with encouragement. I turned back to LuAnn and put my lips to hers. She released my hands and grabbed me around my chest pulling me towards her.

Roughly she pushed her tongue past my lips forcing my mouth open.

LuAnn found my tongue with hers and started to dominate, pushing it around the inside of my mouth. Wherever she wanted my tongue to go it went. My head bent backwards in submission to her overpowering domination.

Everything this little dynamo possessed was stronger. I was inferior to her muscles, spirit, and mind.

All this time my cock had remained in a semi flaccid state. Once her tongue entered my mouth, I no longer in command of my libido. LuAnn felt my growing member and an evil look came over her. With her right arm she continued to control me and with her left she reached down and ripped my underwear off of me.

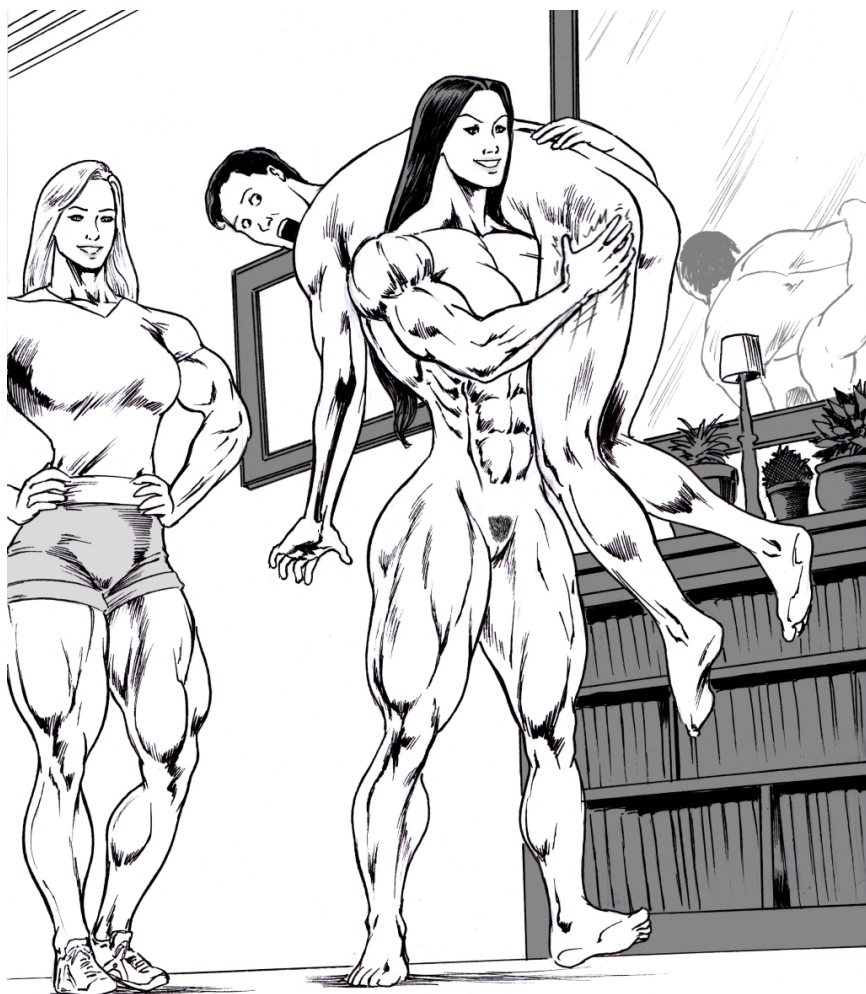

"I had to let your only real muscle out Allan. You can't keep hiding this one all day." LuAnn said in a sultry voice I had not heard before. My embarrassment grew. Unfortunately so did my hard-on.

LuAnn then pushed me back and said, "We need to be even." Even?, I thought. There is nothing about us that is even. Soon I found out what she meant as LuAnn reached down and pulled on the strings of her bikini bottom and let it slip slowly down her strong legs. We were now both naked.

LuAnn then shouted "Now for the main event." I recoiled. What now? I thought in fear. LuAnn then let me know. "Time to wrestle."

"No. I can't you have already proven you are stronger. What else do you want?" I pleaded.

"Oh, I want a good workout and I'm not even warmed up yet." LuAnn said with conviction. I backed up until I was against a wall.

"You can't get away, so come here and take your medicine like a man." LuAnn said to me as I cowered in the corner.

Warily, I approached her. I moved as well as I could with my cock pointing up into my stomach. Then in a flash, LuAnn leapt forward. She came in under my arms and grabbed me around the waist. I expected her to push me back, so I braced for it. Instead LuAnn stood up. I fell onto her shoulder as my feet left the ground. "Hey that was easier than I thought. I can barely feel him" LuAnn murmured.

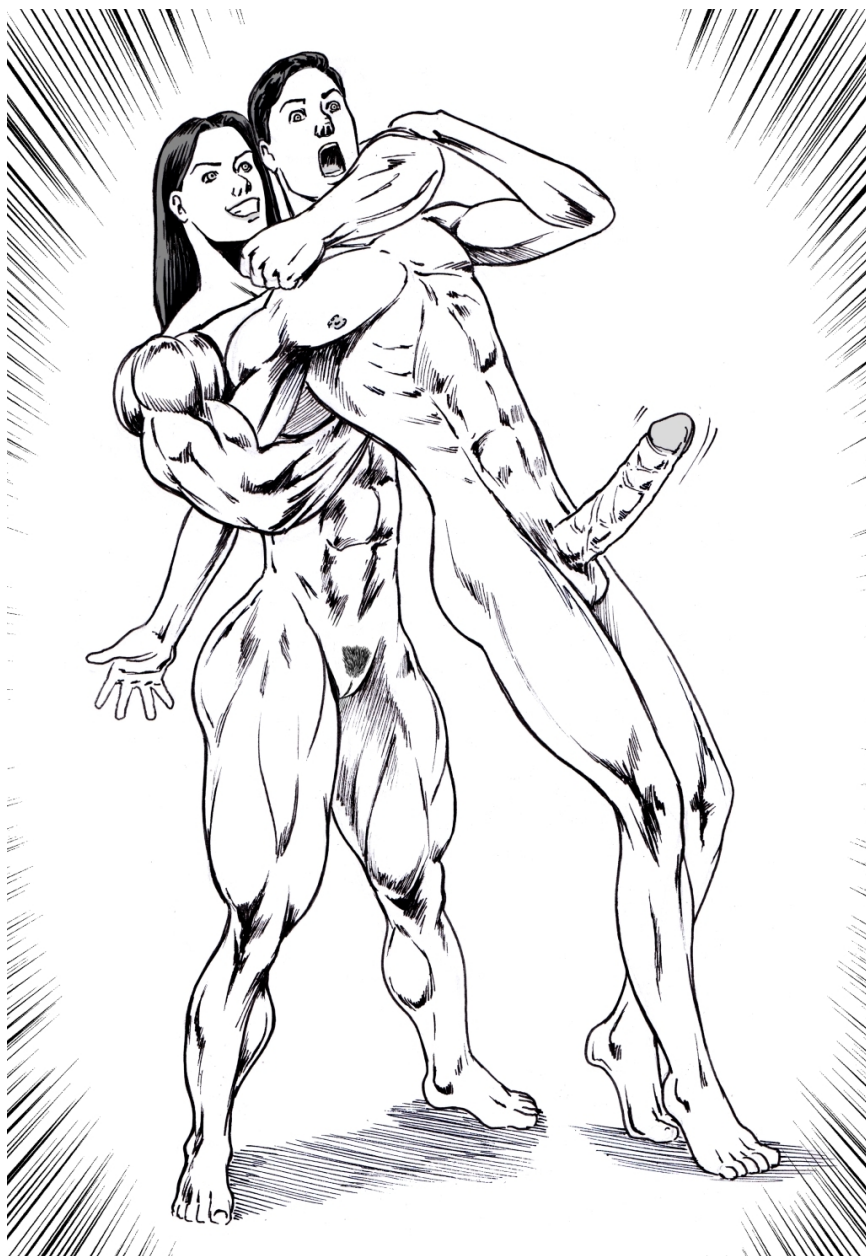

Megan then chirped "Come on LuAnn you have had me on your shoulders lots of time, you knew he would be a piece of cake."

"Yeah, but he was trying, however pitifully, to avoid this." She commented.

LuAnn commenced parading around the room with me in the air, smacking me on the butt. Not too hard, but enough to make it sting. Worse than that was the pressure of my cock on her chest. It was making me very uncomfortable. As much as I tried, the feeling of her strong muscles against my body was stoking the unrelenting passion I had for powerful women.

I had better control now, compared to when I started the summer, but I was still worried about exploding on her chest. Especially after what she had done to me before.

LuAnn gave my ass one last hard swat, I winced, and she put me back down. I weaved a little as I tried to regain my senses. LuAnn stood there with her hands on her hips and surveyed the situation.

"It doesn't seem like I will get much of a workout wrestling with you, but let me get some work on my holds." LuAnn said rather matter of factly. I tried to move away, but she was just too quick for me. LuAnn grabbed my arm and pulled me forward. With little effort, she turned me around and brought my arm behind my back. She twisted my arm up causing me to go on my tip toes.

Then my tormentor turned my wrist so my thumb was poking her left breast. I bent my back towards her, to avoid any additional pain. Apparently this was all in the plan, because as soon as my head lay on her shoulder, LuAnn snaked her muscular arm around my neck. Her hold was so strong I couldn't move.

She released my arm and concentrated on my neck. I was immobilized by LuAnn's one arm. I felt her forearm and bicep cut into my throat. I tried to maneuver my head around so I could get some air. There was no hope. Her arm contained more power than I could hope to combat.

Before I collapsed, LuAnn let go of me and pushed me to the ground. I was totally beaten in every way possible physically, mentally, and emotionally. I didn't know how else she could prove her superiority.

There was one more way LuAnn was to control me and I was about to find out in an amazing way.

LuAnn stood over me and said, "I haven't pinned you yet!," with a mischievous laugh. Not pausing, she pounced on top of me, put her right arm under my knees and brought my legs up forcing me onto my back. In less than ten seconds LuAnn had me defenseless. I was pinned and I was not going anywhere unless she wanted me to.

She then pushed my legs down harder, trying to make me into a little weak ball. I felt something hit my chin, but in my state I didn't realize what it was.

"Look here Megs" LuAnn commented as she slid me around. I stayed under her control, but Megan could now see my predicament.

"What?" Megan asked back

"Do you see what is hitting his chin?" LuAnn asked

"Oh my God" she cried.

I finally realized what they were talking about. The head of my cock had been brought up to my face by the position that LuAnn had put me in.

"I have an idea" LuAnn said

"What is it?" Megan queried.

"Just watch and be amazed." LuAnn said with a hint of glee.

With that LuAnn put her free arm under me and using her increased size and strength lifted me into her lap. She had me in a cradle. LuAnn put on the power and started rocking me. Now instead of pain, LuAnn was giving me pleasure. The holds which had been strong enough to make me cry, were at a level that was generating a sexual energy that I could not deny. My cock grew to its full size and thickness. I was in heaven and hell at the same time.

"My guess is with all the excitement he won't last too long in this position." LuAnn said to Megan.

"Is this that all?" Megan questioned.

"No this is only part of it." Came the reply from my captor.

I stayed in her strong arms and felt the pressure build. The tip of my cock was a deep purple and throbbed continuously. My entire cock kept bouncing up and down while she continued to rock me.

Soon I knew I was close to exploding and apparently so did LuAnn. She brought her right arm around my small thighs pulling me close. She reached out and grasped my cock with her hand. Her left arm came around my throat, LuAnn proceeded to grab my jaw with her hand.

LuAnn started to exert real pressure on the hinges of my jaw. Immediately this forced my mouth open. LuAnn picked up the pressure bending me just a little more. The head of my cock was well past my cheek at that point. Then LuAnn did something that will remain with me forever. She brought my cock over and placed it into my mouth. I felt the soft spongy head pass my lips. Soon the harder shaft was also in my mouth. LuAnn proceeded to squeeze and lighten up. With each powering of her arms my cock would go further into my mouth. When she relaxed it would come out until only the tip remained touching my lips. I was giving myself a blow job and I had no say in the matter.

"Wow!" Megan whistled through her pursed lips as LuAnn gave me her strongest squeeze. "He must have close to four inches in his mouth. I didn't know that was possible." She said in disbelief.

LuAnn replied, "Normally you have to be a contortionist, but in Allan's case you combine how skinny he is, with that fact that his cock is so big, you end up with a guy who can do what most men can't even think of."

"Are you enjoy this honey?" Megan asked. I was completely confused. This was the ultimate in humiliation, but the feeling of my lips on my cock had me more aroused than I could have imagined.

"I think he is. Look his balls are contracting." LuAnn stated as she easily swung me around so Megan could see. "That they are," Megan strained to reply.

I was holding back as best I could, but the pleasure was overwhelming.

LuAnn then decided to torture me one last time. She actually stopped doing anything. My cock was throbbing, but she had removed it from my mouth. In an act that only an hour ago, I would have said was out of the realm of possibility, I strained to take my cock back in my mouth, so I could give myself the orgasm I desperately needed. "No you don't," LuAnn said as she kept me from bending forward. The hand which had forced my mouth open was now on my jaw holding me in place.

"You can't see Allan, but Megan is enjoying this too. She looks to have a couple of fingers inside her right now." I couldn't turn my head, but I soon heard a soft moan coming from the place where Megan was sitting.

With that LuAnn announced it was time for the final climax of this match. LuAnn put her hand back on my cock. Her steely forearm pressing against the back of my neck, forced my immense tool deep into my throat. I eagerly swabbed my tongue around the head and shaft. LuAnn put her hand back on the portion of my cock that was not in my mouth and started stroking up and down the length of my erection.

It was all too much. Every nerve in my body was wracked with pleasure at my impending orgasm. The pleasure started at my toes and worked its way up my body. I saw LuAnn's eyes start to glaze over as she looked at my enlarged balls as they contracted in anticipation of my sweet release.

Then in an event which would be played out many more times. The first rope of my cum shot out into my throat. If I hadn't been held so firmly, I would have pulled back, but with LuAnn's massive forearm on the back of my neck, I couldn't move. I had to start swallowing or choke. Stream after stream of my built up sexual tension came out. The huge load that LuAnn had instigated spurted from the head of my cock. The juice slid down my throat as naturally as mothers milk. Time after time I felt the hot jets of my own cum shoot towards my tonsils.

I was awash in guilt, embarrassment, and yet filled with remarkable ecstasy. After my balls came back down, LuAnn released her grip, my cock plopped out of my mouth and down onto my chest. I closed my mouth and swallowed the last of my cum.

I glanced over at Megan. She was rubbing furiously on her clit. Soon a deep moan turned into a scream as she came with a force which almost knocked LuAnn and me over. LuAnn stood, up bent down, picked me up in her arms, and carried me over to Megan.

Megan kissed me on the lips and pulled me close and said, "Thanks honey that was the most amazing scene I have ever witnessed." I had to admit I had gone places I never thought possible and it was all due to the efforts of a miniature bulldog.

After a few minutes of recovery LuAnn declared that it was her turn. She pulled me off of Megan's lap and sat down herself. She leaned toward Megan and kissed her deeply. LuAnn tried to control Megan's kisses the way she had done to mine, but it was soon obvious who the alpha was in this relationship. LuAnn slowly began to recline as Megan assumed control.

Then in one of her many amazing strength moves, Megan pulled LuAnn on her lap facing her. She proceeded to put LuAnn's legs over her shoulders. Next Megan slipped her strong hands under LuAnn's butt and lifted LuAnn up until her thighs were on Megan's shoulders. LuAnn's pussy was level with her chin. Megan slid off the couch, stood up, while holding LuAnn firmly in her hands.

I was stunned with the ease that Megan had stood up with 105 lbs on her shoulders.

The veins in her arms popped as she pulled LuAnn's ass towards her. LuAnn's pussy was now at Megan's mouth.

She started nibbling and licking at LuAnn while holding her firm with her massive arms. Soon there was the familiar moaning, but at a higher pitch this time. I watched in amazement as every muscle in LuAnn's body tensed. LuAnn's thighs began to expand and tighten around Megan's neck. I watched in amazement as the thick muscles grew to an absurdly huge size. A normal person might have had their neck crushed by the strength that was emanating from her massive thighs. This display of power only pushed Megan to greater heights. She ground LuAnn's pussy into her own face with an even greater fervor.

LuAnn's moaning got louder. She screamed "Oh yes...Oh my God." Her legs stretched straight out from Megan's shoulders. Her calves rose in anticipation, the muscles in those beautiful legs were the size of softballs. LuAnn was being reduced to a quivering mass.

I sat transfixed as Megan refused to relent and kept up the assault on LuAnn's sex. LuAnn pulsed with energy as she tensed up and lifted her body out of Megan's hands. I watched as orgasm after orgasm swept through her body.

Megan finally pulled back for air, her eyes glimmering with lust, as she finally gave her smaller partner a reprieve.

LuAnn let one last guttural moan escaped her lips, as she collapsed back into Megan's strong arms.

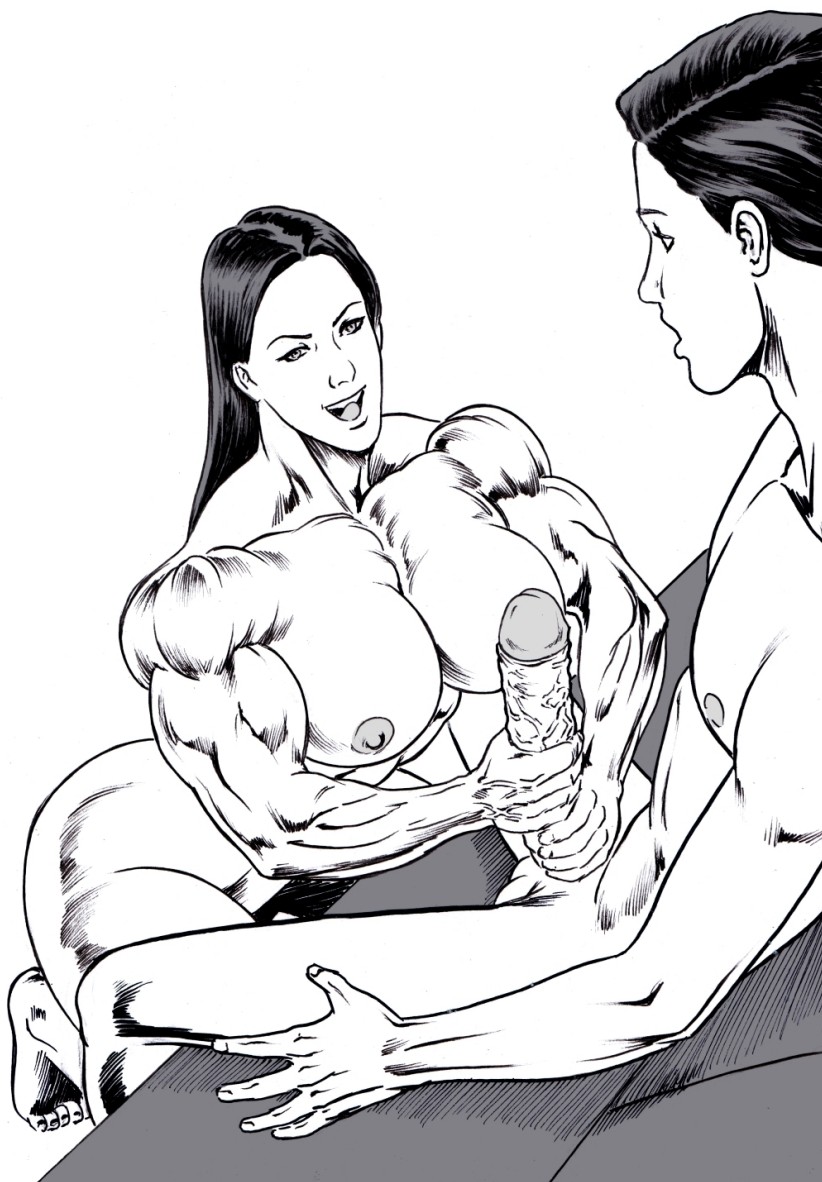

Megan sat back down with LuAnn still safely in her arms. She stayed there for a second enjoying her efforts. All of a sudden you could see an idea come into her head. She stood back up, with LuAnn cradled in her arms, walked over to me and placed LuAnn in my lap. "You should get to feel like the man in charge for a few minutes, or until LuAnn wakes up." She purred.

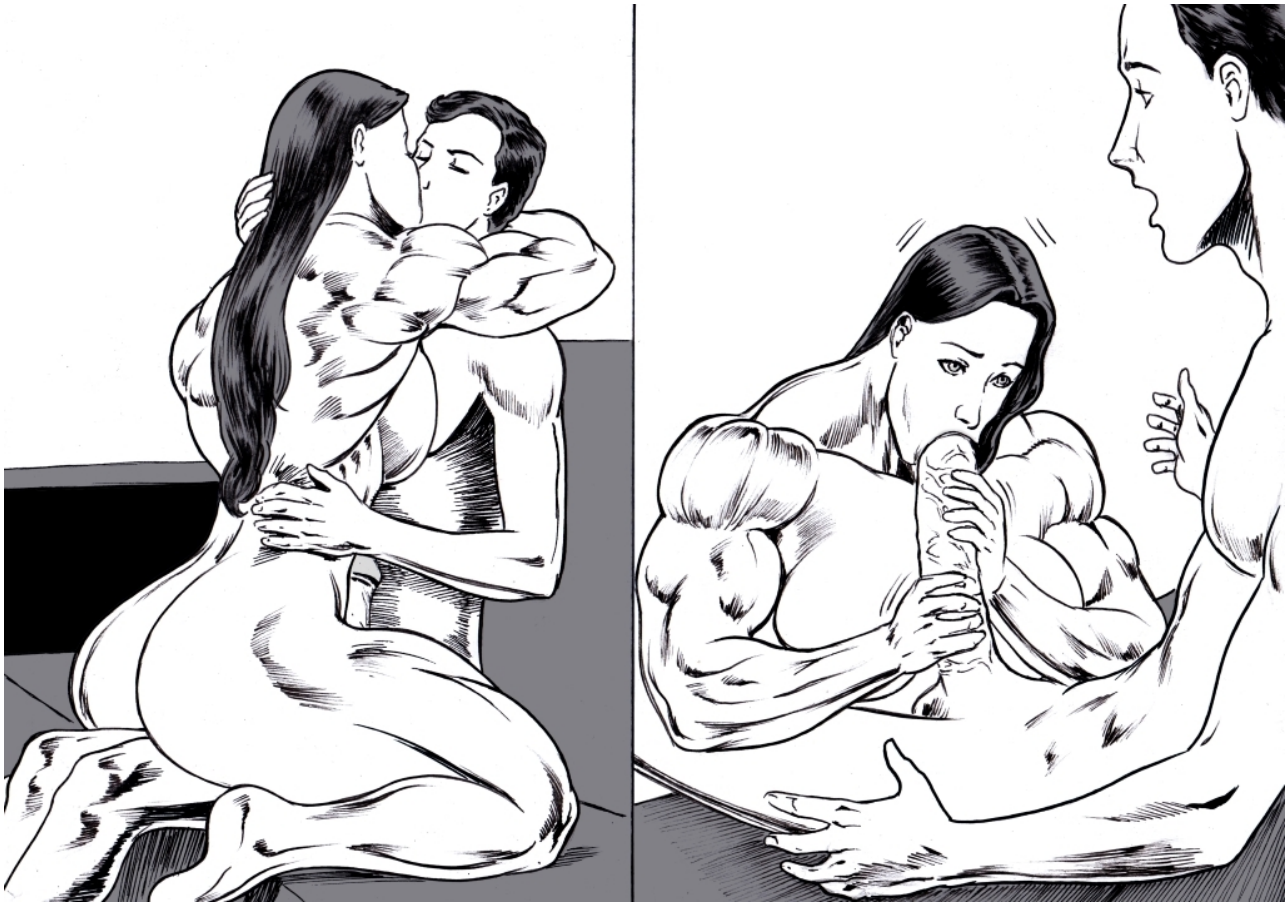

Watching the two of them had already revived my member. Having this beautiful little muscle girl in my lap aroused me even more. My cock stiffened as I held this beautiful girl who was so incredibly strong, but looked so innocent passed out in my lap. After a few minutes LuAnn woke, smiled at me, and put her head back on my shoulder. Soon her hand wandered down to my crotch and she began massaging my cock. Once it had grown to near full size her hand didn't even come close to grasping its entire circumference. "Damn Megs I have been with a few boys, but never one with a man's cock like this." LuAnn said with admiration.

LuAnn picked herself up from my chest got on the floor and began stroking my pulsing cock with both of her hands. I was as hard as steel. Sticking straight up my cock almost hit LuAnn's face. Even her strong hands couldn't dent it. With a bit of wonder she said, "If the rest of your muscles were this firm I wouldn't have stood a chance."

LuAnn looked over at Megan and said "I know you keep saying you aren't ready for sex. Do you mind if I make Allan happy? I don't know the next time I will get to have one this size." Megan laughed and replied, "I think you are going to be having this one on a regular basis. That is if you can get that big stick in your little body."

"Goody" LuAnn cooed. She let go of my cock for a second, stood up, sat on top of me and planted her lips on mine. I opened my mouth and accepted her tongue. This time she didn't try to overpower me, but worked her tongue around mine in a much softer and sensual way. LuAnn even teased my tongue back into her mouth where she greedily sucked on it.

LuAnn took her one of her strong hands and wrapped it around the back of my neck and pulled me into her. With the other she grabbed my butt, drew me tight, and ground my cock into her rippling six pack. I reached around her huge back and hugged her with all my might. I felt like I was holding on to a tree trunk. Her back was unyielding. I unclasped my hands and put them on her amazing back and started to trace the lines of her muscles. I was in heaven. I then mimicked the muscular young woman and placed both of my hands behind her neck. I tried to match her and pull her into me, but the pure strength of her neck was not challenged by my weak arms. I marvelled as I felt the ropes of muscle that travelled from her chest to her head.

When she determined we were ready to move on to the next level of our sexual liaison, LuAnn pulled back. My hands instantly separated. She worked her way off of my lap with the juices from her already wet pussy flowing down my thigh as she slid to the floor.

LuAnn again grasped my cock with two hands and pumped slowly. She moved towards it and put the head in her mouth. She attempted to swallow more of my huge shaft, but couldn't get much more than it and an inch or two more in her small mouth. If she only knew what Megan could do. I started wishing that it was Megan sucking on me, but I knew that I was going to get a different experience today.

After a few minutes of soaking my cock with her saliva, LuAnn came back up with her legs on either side of my thighs. She couldn't resist giving my legs a shot of her power as she squeezed hard for a second. I felt the pain, but it didn't dampen the pleasure she had given me.

LuAnn stood on her knees bringing her marvellous nipples near my face. I reached out with my mouth and sucked on the left nipple, pulling it out to a more engorged state. Megan whispered, "I wish I had those breasts." LuAnn smiled about the one thing she had over Megan. I went over to the right nipple and performed the same task with delight. LuAnn pulled her nipple out of my mouth. She put her left hand on my shoulder and her right hand found my throbbing cock.

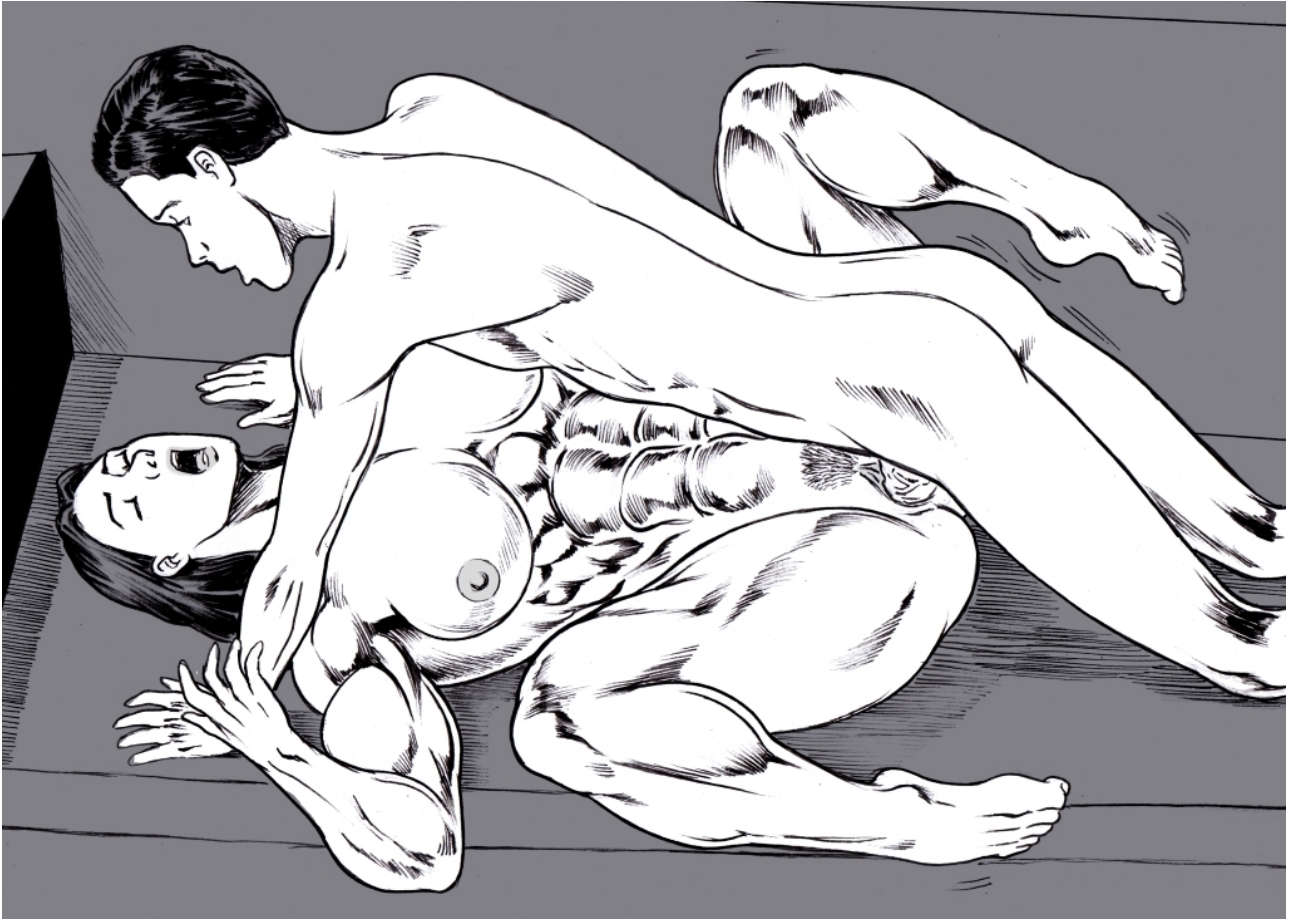

Gently she placed the head of my cock at the entrance to her pussy. LuAnn pulled her lips apart and sat down on my cock. Surprisingly, only a couple of inches made it in the first thrust. "Damn you are huge." LuAnn gasped. Now with both hands free she pushed against me. I was forced back into the couch and another couple of inches disappeared. LuAnn rose up until only the head remained in her and pushed down hard. "Whoa." She uttered. "This boy is so big I am being stretched beyond what I thought was possible."

LuAnn had only managed to get half of my cock in her tight pussy. With that Megan came over and said "I'll help you." She gave me a devilish wink, and whispered "Time for a payback." With that she put her hands on LuAnn's hips and pushed. LuAnn slid down her small body impaled on my huge cock. A wail came from LuAnn's mouth. "Oh my God, I am being split in two." This time it was her eyes that had tears streaming down them."

"Damn girl you have him all now." Megan said smiling in awe. "Oh I do, God I may never walk again." LuAnn barely managed to get out. After a few minutes the tiny temptress said "I think I'm stretched out enough now." With that she put her hands on my hips, pushed down, and began to rise up. My cock felt like it was being sucked by a vacuum. It seemed like her pussy was being turned inside out as she came up. Then with most of my cock out in the open she thrust herself back down getting all of my cock in her on her own this time. "Fuck that is good." She screamed.

While she was not paying attention I quickly made my move, although strong as a bull LuAnn was 4'11" and still only 105 pounds. I was able to flip her over so I was on top. She was in such a state of excitement that she didn't even resist. Now it was my turn. After all that had happened to me over the last month, this was my one chance to get some dignity back.

I withdrew my cock until only the head remained. Then I plunged the entire length into her quickly reddening pussy. "Ohhh..." was the only sound that came from her throat. I quickly pulled out and rammed her again. I started pounding her with unrelenting long and hard strokes. All that was escaping her lips now were occasional animal noises and moans. After about five minutes of my pistoning in and out her eyes were beginning to roll back in her head. LuAnn had more orgasms in the last five minutes than I had in the last week. It seemed like she was on a multiple orgasm roller coaster. As tight as her pussy was stretched, I could feel her grip my cock even tighter every time she came.

Finally, as I continued my assault, LuAnn could take no more, she uttered one last groan and passed out on my cock. That victory, so long in coming was more than I could take, I began to shoot deep into her pussy, filling the tiny space so much that cum began to drip out before I had finished..

I was so enlivened by my one victory that my cock stayed hard, even after shooting everything I had into her. I was a man possessed. I looked over at Megan and asked her to go find some Vaseline.

"Why?" she asked

I grinned back and said it's my turn now. She got up and went into the bathroom and returned with a jar. I took a large glob and coated my pulsing cock. Then I stuck two fingers in the jar and coated them. Their next stop was to be LuAnn's asshole. I asked Megan to flip her over, which she did effortlessly. With LuAnn's legs hanging off the couch, her ass was in perfect position.

Megan asked if I really wanted to do this. I responded with a definite yes.

Megan looked at me and said "This could be fun, but be careful of what the result might be."

I spread LuAnn's cheeks with one hand, with the other I placed the two greased fingers at the opening and pushed. My fingers quickly entered her butt. I started to work them around stretching her out, just as I had seen in a porno movie while I was in school.

I pulled my fingers out and placed the head of my cock at the opening. I pushed but wasn't getting anywhere. I asked Megan to come around behind me and help. She did as I asked and grabbed LuAnn's hips one more time and pulled. We heard pop as I got through her sphincter and invaded her remaining vaginal orifice.

I noticed a glass of water on the side table and reached out and grabbed it. I took the water and splashed it in LuAnn's face. She woke with a start. Quickly I thrust forward as Megan held her hips steady. "Oh...oh What the hell is happening to me." LuAnn moaned. "Owww you are killing me." I ignored her cries and continued to pound her ass. Tears were streaming down her face. I had her so disoriented she barely gave me a fight. If she had it might not have mattered as Megan still had a firm grip on her hips.

Finally the moans of pain turned to moans of pleasure as she began to scream out in a different way. "Oh yes pound my ass, I need your cock deep inside of me." I couldn't believe my ears. She was enjoying this now. LuAnn reached down and started playing with her pussy.

Megan released her grip and came around and gave LuAnn a long deep kiss. Then she got up on the sofa and put her pussy in LuAnn's face. LuAnn started eating her like a woman possessed. Soon Megan's groans were in tune with LuAnn's.

After what seemed like an eternity, LuAnn shuddered and had one last tremendous orgasm. That set Megan off, as she screamed in pleasure. This was too much for me to take as I buried my third load of the day into LuAnn's tight ass.

We all collapsed into a pile and became one solid orgasmic jumble.

After about half an hour I rolled off of LuAnn and onto the floor. She got up and limped into the bathroom walking as stiffly as any 18 year old has ever walked. I crawled up into Megan's arms and kissed her cheek.

"Thanks honey" I whispered in her ear. "That was one incredible payoff."

Megan smiled at me and said "Just wait you haven't seen anything yet."

But that is for another story.

THE END
