

Dazed and disoriented, the little fairy swallowed a mouthfull of spinach..

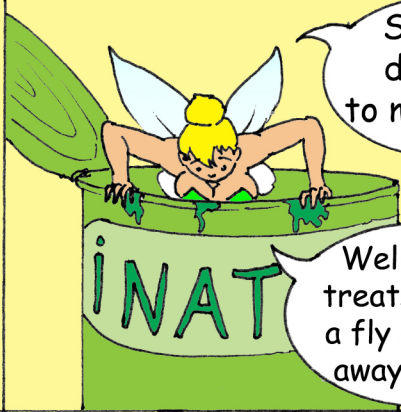

Suddenly baseball size muscles sprouted from her arms...

Her formerly flat chest expended, stretching the fabric of her tunic slightly to contain her new breasts.

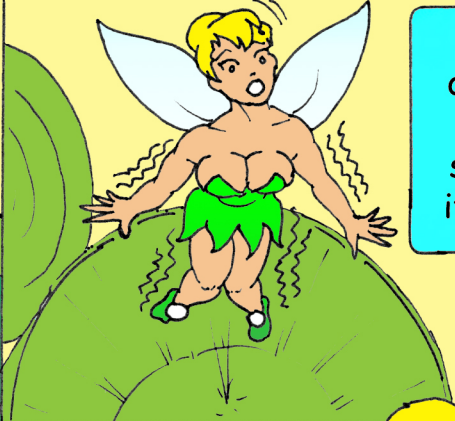

WOW!

Spinach did this to me huh?...

Well no one treats me like a fly and gets away with it!

Tinkerbell chomped on spinach like mad, until she had consumed the entire can. She swallowed the last mass with a mighty gulp and...

She shot out of the can like a bullet; the spinach taking it's full effect.

Her softball sized breasts double in size stretching the fabric of her tunic further.

BOOITING!

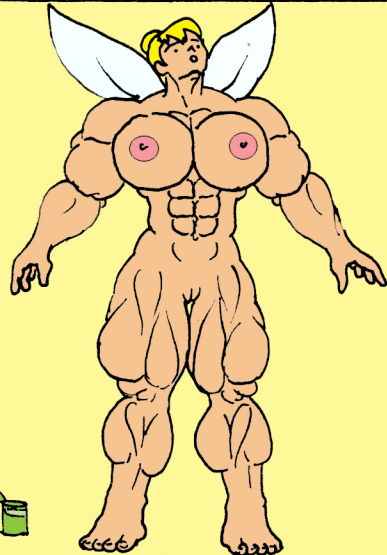

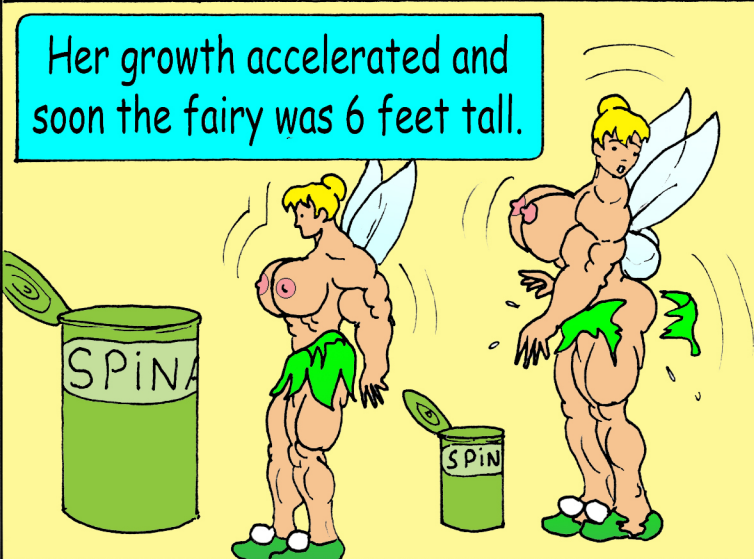

The mighty growth spread throughout her body turning her biceps into mountains of rock hard flesh.

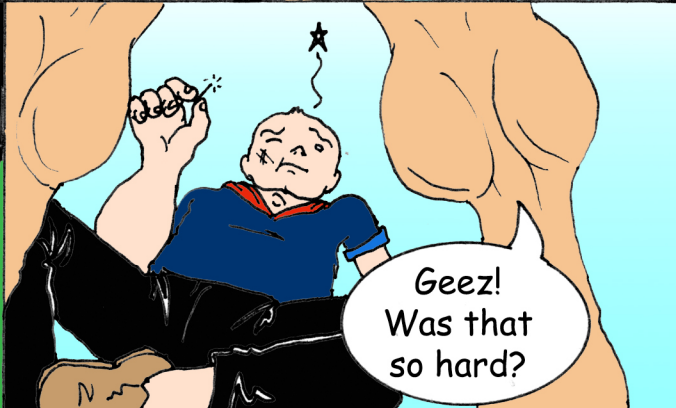

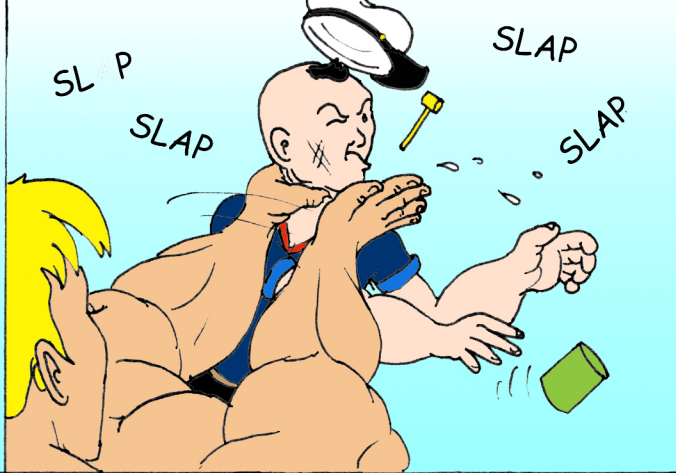

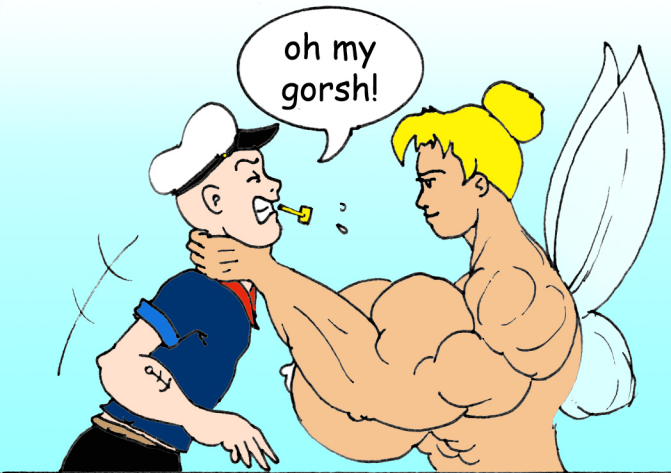

Her growth accelerated and soon the fairy was 6 feet tall.

BOING!

Let's see him treat me like a fly now!

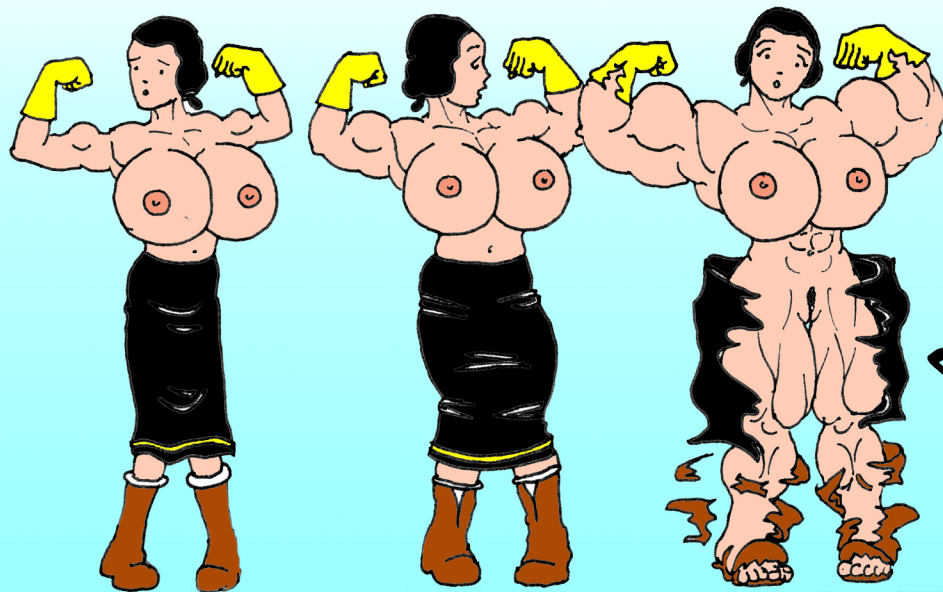

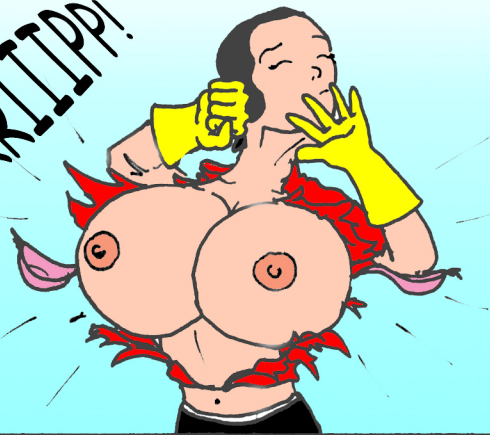

CRRRRR

RRRIIPPI!

RRRIIPPI!

OH MY!

Guess I'm plenty strong now!...
