Training the Sissy Virgin 1: Feminized Virgin

by Scarlett Steele

“So you really are a virgin?” the busty escort smiled as she teased the rim of her wine glass with the tip of her sharp red fingernails.

“Yep” David smiled nervously looking back down at the menu. The twenty old two young male had plucked up the courage to end the streak he was embarrassed to discuss in the open, the complete lack of any sexual activity. Time had dragged painfully and as the years ticked by, whispers inside of him encouraged him to find a way to finally pop his bubble of celibacy and thrust himself into manhood.

The clatter of plates and clutter breaks the silent ambience in the otherwise quiet Italian restaurant. The high class restaurant was renowned for it's award winning chefs and the pricing centrally matched the prestige.

“Don't be nervous” Lexi whispered seductively at her latest client who appeared to be exuding signs of nervous hesitancy. The blonde escort roamed her eyes across the pale male seated in front of her. The dinner date was a formality, she knew deep down inside all David wanted to do was sink his manhood deep inside her, to release up the pent up frustration of unintentionally holding onto his virginity. She couldn't understand how David hadn't yet lost it, although not the most attractive male specimen, he was certainly cuter than her average client.

David smiled nervously as he struggled to compose himself, he had built this moment up in his mind, the night he finally fucks a real woman. Yet the evening his mind should be on the one thing he has been pursuing for a long time, his head is flooded with an assortment of thoughts.

“Tell me a little about yourself, what do you do for a living?” Lexi was a master at placing her nervous clients at ease. The art of successful escorting was no different to sales in her mind. Build a strong connection with your client, service them well and reap the rewards of repeat business. The confident blonde smiled as she watched David innocently revealed his life to her. Lexi clenched her thighs, the mere thought of edging a desperate virgin to the edge of the orgasm cliff, teasing him with the ultimate pleasure before finally plunging into ecstasy stroked her growling womanhood. Her hunger was torn between two sides, a sensual side and a sadistic side. The skilled sexual expert doubled as firstly a sensual and submissive escort willing to ride men into a night of unparalleled pleasure and secondly as a sadistic and cruel domme hungry to dominate and humiliate her willing subs. Tonight, she was playing the part of a sensual escort paid to unscrew the cap on her client's untapped sex life.

But she couldn't help her growing urges, deep down inside she was a man-eater desperate to tear her victim apart, and a virgin nervously rambling in front of her was the perfect prey. Lexi was skilled in the art between switching from a submissive to a dominant at the drop of a hat and had to ensure she carried attire and tools for both occasions. She loved to be prepared for when her clients when they screamed their subliminal hints to her as the evening progressed.

".....but mainly it's an office version of debt collection" David tailed off the brief history of his occupation, undermining the detail, leaving out the boring parts. The last thought on his mind was work, and he wanted to think about it as little as possible.

"Interesting" Lexi leaned in and gently squeezed David's hand, dancing her fingertips along his sweating hands.

A flurry of activity around the couple's table cloud's their senses as a party of ten excited customers are escorted to their table reservation.

"Looks like the start of someone's hen party" the busty escort cranes her neck and observes the giddy group of females guided towards the back of the restaurant.

"So how is a handsome young man like you still a virgin?" Lexi dives in headfirst drawing out the details of David's intimate sex life, or lack of. She believed in diving head first into the topic of sex with her clients, teasing the relevant information out. Enough for her to fully grasp how to best fulfill the obligation to please her client, but also to tap into hidden desires they may have previously been too ashamed to openly discuss.

“Um, not sure how to answer that” the virgin client fumbled his words incoherently.

“Relax sweetie” Lexi squeezed his hand reassuringly “I’m going to make your first time memorable. I want you to explore the orgasmic ecstasy you have fantasized for so long. But for me to lead you to the garden of ultimate pleasure, I need to understand your thoughts, desires and fantasies”.

“I’ve had a couple of girlfriends but we haven’t really moved into the physical act of sex as quickly as I would have hoped” David began to physically muster up his confidence.

“Oh?” Lexi enquired

“Yeah, I almost lost my virginity in college”

“Tell me about it”

“I had been dating this girl I had met in class, Clarissa. Beautiful jet black hair and the cutest brown eyes you had ever seen” David smiled as he visualized his ex girlfriend “she was sexually experienced, I had popped over to hers to watch a movie while her parents were away and she was all over me”.

“Tell me more” Lexi leaned in exposing the depth of her full cleavage, despite the fact David’s mind was flashing back to his ex girlfriend, she smiled as his eyes aimlessly darted down her chest at an increasing frequency.

“Well prior that moment, I had read online that temporary abstinence from any sex or masturbation builds up testosterone. Holding your pleasures in for several weeks before having sex was touted as the one of the most intense pleasures” David nervously looked around the noisy restaurant, cautious to ensure no one was listening “and so I decided to refrain from masturbation to make my first time unbelievable”.

“So what happened” the escort robed in a skin tight black dress smiled inwardly, she had seen this countless times in beta males throughout her life. Despite their external confidence and bravado, deep down inside, some men were destined to be beta males their entire in life. And she could sense them a mile off, to Lexi it was almost as if they had a distinct smell of desperation and submissiveness about them.

“To cut a long story short” David glanced down at his half empty glass of wine in embarrassment “I mentioned the stupidity to Clarissa and she broke it off with me shortly after”.

“I’m sorry to hear that” the blonde escort shuffled herself in her seat to a more comfortable position, her eyes roamed the face of a beta male who had begun to relive the moment he realised he was destined to serve women.

“And days later, her friends taunted me that the following day, Clarissa had stopped over to my friend’s house and fucked his brains out” David’s face growled in anger “Almost as if to show me what I missed out on”.

“Doesn’t sound like a nice girl” Lexi reassured him, deep down inside she felt her arousal growling awake at Clarissa’s actions. The very same action Lexi had committed in her younger years, days where her sexual appetites exceeded the demand of virile young men. She had found the perfect way to quench her thirst for sexual release was to ultimately deny men of theirs. Teasing them, tugging their throbbing manhood to the brink of orgasmic release, edging their dribbling thickness within seconds of exploding violently in an uncontrollable eruption of ecstasy. And when they were within spitting distance, the cruel blonde would strip them of the chance of exhaling their pent up aggression, denying them of unleashing their growling arousal into the open. Instead, she would seductively ease their testosterone fueled erection back within itself, nudging back into non-existence.

“What has” Lexi smiled.

“How a man has to be firing on all cylinders for even the remotest of chances at sex with a woman he has known yet all a woman has to do is put some clothes on, flash her cleavage and legs and sex is literally banging on her door and falling at her feet”.

The busty escort smirked, consciously aware her lips were suddenly become moist at the path David was manoeuvring himself towards.

David opens his mouth to continue his trail of thoughts but stops short as the couple is graced by a waiter dressed in the restaurant's black and white attire. The waiter discreetly glances at the couple, assessing their auras, smiling to himself. The tall dark haired waiter had seen the same view many times, a attractive busty blonde woman, flashing copious amounts of cleavage and dressed impeccably and a young male whose looks do not warrant the company in front of him. Clients and escorts frequented the restaurant, initiating their dinner dates before proceeding to the main event of the event for both parties. The restaurant turned a blind eye, as the high class escorts introduced new clientele which was willing to pay and the escorts preferred their initial meet and greet in a public and open location, one they were intimately familiar with. The couple scanned down the menus provided to them and ordered their meals.

“Can I tell you a secret” David whispers watching as the waiter leaves with their orders.

“Of course you can” Lexi leans in, men usually tell some of their most intimate and secret details with her. She marks it down to the intimacy of the act of offering her services, drawing men into a missing emotional attachment.

“The power of clothing on a woman never ceases to amaze me” the client continues talking in hushed tones.

“In what way?”

“Regardless of what a woman is wearing, if she has the right assets” David’s eyes glance involuntarily towards Lexi’s cleavage “whether she is fully dressed or showing excess skin, she will look beautiful and draw attention from all around”.

Lexis smiles as she kicks off her stiletto heels and gently rubs the tip of her bare foot against her virgin client’s ankle, fully aware of the goosebumps sprouting violently across his thighs.

“And the clothing looks so comfortable” David struggles to compose his words “I’ve always wondered what it would feel like to get the same attention”.

“Tell me more about your self imposed chastity” Lexis continued to stroke David’s thigh higher, the experienced escort was determined to draw as much information out of her client before they stumbled into the penthouse suite he had booked for the first time.

“I genuinely thought it would help” David muttered “I could feel my testosterone building and my testicles feeling fuller, ready to go into action”

“Well it was a little mean of her to deny you the pleasure” Lexi smirked teasing David’s misfortune.

“Something strange happened” David continued “I felt oddly turned on it”

“How?” Lexi slipped her hand between her thighs and felt the wetness moisten her lacy black panties. Her pussy pounded for attention, salivating at the thought of her dark side showing it’s evil side and reeling her next victim into her claws of female domination.

“There is something about the man’s ultimate control being at the control and at the mercy of a woman pushed me to try and understand more” David lowered his voice “I searched the Internet to understand this and was surprised to see how much of a common trait it is amongst a subsection of men”.

Lexis continued to jerk David’s thigh, smiling as she tested his sexual patience under the table. The white table cloth draped over both sides of the table concealed her sexual intentions.

“It’s not uncommon for men to delay or surrender their own sexual pleasures to both enhance their own eventual orgasm or to enhance the woman’s enjoyment” David twirled his glass of wine sinking into his chair as he became more comfortable revealing his most intimate thoughts.

“Have you ever thought about restraining yourself” Lexi sunk her adventurous foot between David’s trembling thighs, her curious toes grazed his upper thigh inching towards his virgin cock.

“It’s a thought I’ve carried since Clarissa betrayed me” the nervous client gasped as his cock twitched excitedly at the prospect of Lexi’s feet caressing it’s length, stroking him to orgasm.

“Hhhmmmmmmmm, it sounds like you have a kinky desire desire to be locked up in chastity and wrapped up in woman’s clothing” the inquisitive escort purred pinning David’s fantasies down in front of him, laying his vulnerabilities bare for the couple to discuss.

David’s nervous laughter is ground to a sudden halt under the influence of the kinky action unfolding under the table. Lexi expertly grips the zip of David’s back trousers between her toenail and skillfully yanks the zipper down in one swift motion. The seductive mistress winks at David as she slips her barefoot into his open invitation.

“Going commando are we” Lexi raises her eyebrow in surprise as her warm barefoot snuggles inside her virgin client’s zipper and brushes against his growling cock.

David’s feeble attempt to justify himself was muffled under his gentle moans of arousal.

“Were you planning on jerking off under the table” Lexi slipped her foot under David heavy testicles and weighed the massive orbs. She smiled at the heavy orbs weighing down her foot wondering how long it had been since David had relieved himself. The suggestive blonde was certain David had likely held out for several weeks, building his stamina and testosterone for tonight, the heavy loads resting on her toes certainly seemed to suggest he had been restrained himself building up to tonight. The busty blonde gently maneuvered her foot back and tugged David’s bare testicles out of his sack, exposing his dangling vulnerability to the cold breeze under the table. She positioned the ballsack on the wooden space on the chair between his legs.

“I can tell you are a virgin” Lexi teased as she rolled her heel back and forward across the surface of the swollen large testicles.

David smiled nervously casually glancing around the restaurant, worried some freak event would yank the tablecloth out from his table exposing the sordid action taking place or worse, someone would yell fire and he would be forced to leap out of his seat dangling his virgin manhood for the whole world to see.

“Any space for me in there?” Lexis smiled as she slipped her foot back inside David’s trousers struggling to find space as his growing cock monopolised the air inside his trousers.

David discreetly grabbed the base of his cock and tugged his full member out in the open, flaunting his virgin cock in front of Lexi's experienced foot.

"Good boy, now put your hands back on the table where I can see them" Lexie demanded.

The virgin client let go of his cock and obeyed his escort's stern request.

"Can I tell you something David?" Lexi ran the side of her foot against David's lengthening cock, massaging the thick muscles with her barefoot, teasing his growing manhood as she caressed the fullness of his virgin cock. "From the moment you started sharing your naughty and kinky side, you seemed to become more relaxed".

"Surely it's not that kinky?" David replied confused

"It tells me a lot about you" the escort purred, she leaned in closer and touched David arm, running her thumb across the back of his hand, and at the same time she gripped the tip of his cock with her toenail and began to gently squeeze his trapped cock asserting her dominance over his desperate need to relinquish himself of his virginity.

"You threw away the opportunity to finally fuck a perfectly willing woman by locking yourself in a self imposed mental chastity, pushing away the girl that was willing to screw you into the hands of a more alpha and willing male" Lexi smirked.

"Huh" David look bewildered, struggling under the forceful gaze of the escort.

"And you hint to me that you have wondered what women's clothing feels like" Lexi squeezes her toes, tightening her grip on the head of David's throbbing cock. "A virgin at the age of the twenty two, you may not realise it yet but you have a natural submissive tendency buried deep beneath the layers of denial".

"What does that mean" David gripped the side of the table, struggling to hold his composure under the sexual stranglehold Lexi's foot had on his cock.

"It means that tonight, I give you what you truly wanted. The one thing you desire deep down inside but are too afraid to admit. You didn't really want to lose your virginity tonight" Lexi analysed the man seated in front of her. Despite her profession, she was skilled at reading men to a tee, particular their darkest sexual thoughts. The very thoughts men bury inside them, promising themselves never to share them with the outside world, for fear of society's stigmas.

“Of course I booked you to lose my virginity” David dropped his voice several decibels level, nervous he had revealed too much about himself.

“No sweetie” Lexi laughed “What you really wanted was a woman to show you where your true place in life lies. As a beta male submitting to every whim and desires of the females around you. Surrendering your essence as a man to please the superior woman in any way possible”.

David breathed out deeply, his mind flashed back to his thoughts at the time of convincing himself of holding out for Clarissa, abstaining from release and holding on for longer. It all started to make sense to David now, the virgin received pleasure from surrendering the control over his orgasm to another person. A woman who showed no remorse for as she flung her body into the arms of a stronger, more virile alpha male. And the nights spent racing through various Internet forums discussing the intricacies of male chastity, threads and discussion about the effects of chastity and the devices to restrain the cock in it's limp state. David had been turned on while surfing through countless images of sexy woman posing with naked men locked in a tight chastity cages, asserting their authority over their manhood. Many times, David had wished he could swap places with the men in the images.

“I'll show you what I mean” Lexi winked at David and quickly scanned the restaurant ensuring there were no nosy onlookers. She quickly swooped under the table and dragged her handbag out of sight. The white table cloth draped around the side of the round table provided the perfect cover for Lexi's deviant show of authority.

“Can you hear me” the blonde escort nestled herself between David's tense thighs and whispered up towards his chest.

Without thinking, David almost responded verbally but quickly pulled his voice back reminding himself of what was occurring in the crowded restaurant. Instead, he gently tapped twice on the table indicating he had heard.

“Good” Lexi dug into her handbag and scurried around looking for her device. Experience in the industry taught her to always come prepared for any scenario. You never knew what secret fetish you could uncover during the most innocent of conversations. And sometimes, on the rare occasions, she would unravel a fetish aligned with her dominant side so perfectly, she couldn’t resist taking full advantage.

“I have a little surprise for you” Lexi yanked out a small transparent plastic bag and quickly emptied the contents into the palm of her hand. She smiled as the small steel chastity cage silently glistened under the table winking its dangerous authority at her.

David widened his thighs smiling to himself, expecting Lexi to dive in wrapping her lips about his hard cock. He closed his eyes and visualized her crimson red lips peppering the head of his throbbing virgin cock with whispers of kisses, caressing the length of his shaft with the smooth underside of her tongue before sinking his cock into her mouth and assaulting his thick beast with her submissive and obedient mouth.

Lexi gripped David’s thick shaft and gently jerked the massive manhood several times teasing the caged beast. She smiled as a hint of pre-cum moistened the head of his cock. The busty escort slipped her hand between her legs and felt her panties moistening, her dark and dominant side stirring her pussy awake, urging her to thrust David’s body face first into a world of submission and female domination. She cupped David’s large testicles and kissed each of his huge orbs gently massaging them between her fingertips.

“Try not to make a sound sweetie” Lexi whispered “You may want to grip onto the edges of the table, this is going to be a little intense”

David obliged, his cock twitched involuntarily spraying a hint of precum across Lexi’s face.

Lexi held the steel chastity cage against the length of his erect shaft and smiled at the prospect. The throbbing member stood proud at eight inches long while the steel chastity cage clocked in at a height of two inches. The escort smirked to herself, David's erect state was well above the size of her average client, but now she was intending on persuading her latest client's cock to melt back into its flaccid and limp state so she could shove his entire manhood into the cock cage, cruelly restricting the movement of his shaft and restricting it from growing.

Lexi contemplated how painful stuffing a seven inch cock into a two inch small curved steel chastity cage would be, but the thought simply stroked her dark desires and encouraged her to further torture and torment the unsuspecting virgin.

"Ready?" Lexi slide her wet tongue across the full length of client's trembling shaft hinting at pleasures she would refrain him from.

"Yeah" David whimpered feeling the warmth of Lexi's tongue coat his virgin cock, he gripped onto the table biting his lower lip, preparing to conceal his moans of pleasure from the outside world.

The busty escort positioned the silver chastity cage between her legs, she gently grabbed a testicles in each of her hands, pressing the large orb gently between her fingertips. She smiled at David's cock, leaking pre-cum as it hungrily anticipated losing its virginity for the first time tonight. The thought of leading on a horny virgin, teasing him with the pleasure which lay inside her moist panties, dangling her golden entrance in front of his very own eyes sparked a flurry of electric surges to course through Lexi's spine, attacking her pussy with an unparalleled aggression as it awakened her dangerous Domme side. The cruel escort smirked as she pressed David's unsuspecting right nut between her fingers slowly applying pressure, David's knees began to wobble and without a moment's hesitation, she increased the pressure on his trapped nut, pinching the tender orbs. Lexi dug her fingernail deep into the soft tissue of David's balls, grinding her sharp nails into the centre of his balls. Lexi chuckled at the sight of David's legs suddenly clapping together as unparalleled pain surged from his groin, she felt his thighs tense up as they sandwiched her hands in his crotch, his legs desperate for her to release her death grip. The table above Lexi's head shook as she felt David's body trembled in fear, gripping the edges of the table in an effort to fend off the unexpected burst of pain.

Lexi casually applied the same pressure to David' remaining nut, now in full possession of his family jewels in the palm of her hands, squeezing and twisting her fingernails into the centre of the virgin's delicate orbs. The Domme escort watched gleefully as the blood quickly drained away from David's erect cock, melting his once proud seven inch erection into a shadow of it's former self, dangling lifeless in front of her excited eyes. She continued squeezing David's virgin testicles, pleasantly surprised at the size of his unreleased testicles.

The dark streak inside Lexi sensed her prey was becoming weaker as David's flaccid penis shrunk to its smallest size, showing no signs of blood occupying it's limp flesh. Lexi released her iron-clad grip on her client's swollen testicles and held the chastity device next to the limp cock. The flaccid penis appeared a perfect match in size for the small chastity cage. She pinched the end of his penis and quickly slipped the manhood into the steel prison, aware her slightest touch may trigger further erection. Part of Lexi wished David's cock would reawaken before she had a chance to cram it into the chastity cage, she relished the opportunity to continuous crushing her victims nuts between her fingertips. The escort stuffed the full length of David's manhood into the cock prison, she wrapped her palms around one of David's testicles and tugged the scrotum down ensuring the ballsack remained free from the cold steel. Lexi slipped the lock in place and snapped the padlock shut securing David's manhood, she tugged on the small padlock ensuring the device was fitted securely.

David's hand frantically shot down between his legs, manically feeling around his cock. His hands feeling the chastity cage, confused at what had just occurred. Lexi angrily swatted David hands away, she wrapped her lips around one of David's sore and swollen testicles and gently bit down on his vulnerabilities, leaving a subtle dent on his orb, a gentle reminder in future of the night David was about to have.

The busty blonde escort slid back onto her seat and smiled at the confused look strewn across her client's face.

"Wha.....wha.....what happened" David whimpered, his hands planted between his thighs as he struggled to understand what had just occurred.

"It's time we unravelled your layers" Lexi leans in and purred, exposing the full depth of her cleavage to the cock trapped male "It's time we dig deep and find out what truly makes you tick".

David's eyes fixated on Lexi's large breasts struggling to contain themselves inside her black dress, her cleavage whispering seductively to him.

"I've held your virgin cock hostage" Lexi smiles as she dangled the key to his chastity cage in front of him "And if you want to be released tonight, in order to finally lose your virginity, then you will need to do as I say" the busty escort thread the hole of the silver key through her silver necklace and let the key dangle between her large breasts. The small piece of metal looked innocent to the outside world, resting quietly between the crest of her cleavage, but to David, it's screamed it's authority over his restrained manhood.

The virgin client whimpered in response, struggling to form a coherent sentence, the ache in his testicles started to dull as the realisation of his predicament become apparent.

"Tonight, I am going to tap into the very urges you refuse to acknowledge , soon we find out what David is truly made off" Lexi smirked.

"Is this thing coming off" David moaned as he tried to pry the cock prison open. He had fantasized locking himself in chastity and being at the mercy of a cruel dominatrix but he had never imagined he would be sitting across a cruel Domme who had trapped his cock shut and was mindlessly dangling the key to his cock in front of him.

"Let's play a little game" Lexi smirked as she shuffled in her chair. The dangerous minx slipped her hand inside her slinky black dress and gripped the side of her black panties, she slowly peeled the moist material down her thighs and hung the soaked panties dangling on her foot.

“I’ve just slipped my underwear off” Lexi winked at David “It you want a chance at me unlocking your chastity cage, you’ll need to slip it on” the escort tugged on her necklace and dangled the key for several seconds before letting it slip back between her cleavage, sandwiched between her large breasts.

David winced, his cock began to stir awake again, setting aside the throbbing pains of his aching testicles. The virgin shuffled uncomfortably in his chair as he struggled to comprehend the predicament he had landed himself in. The lonely virgin had scoured the Internet looking for the most attractive escort to lose his virginity, months of researching and planning had led him to Lexi. His first time was becoming a heavy weight on his shoulders and David was eager to rid himself of the virgin label. But now, without warning, the confused male finds himself unexpectedly turning a corner, inching toward a darkness he never knew existed inside of him. David was convinced his fantasies of chastity were merely that, he had visualized himself locked in a cock cage and refrained from reaching prgasm, but he had believed his submissive fetish would remain untapped and unchallenged His own little secret. David tensed his thighs, he felt his cock twitching, growling for his attention.

“Well what are you waiting for big boy” Lexi grazes her toes against David’s thighs quietly teasing him under the table.

The virgin darted his head around the crowded and noisy restaurant nervously checking no was focusing their attention on his table at this moment, David’s world had suddenly shrunk to just his tables. The rest of the world did not matter, here he was was, sitting in front of a beautiful young escort who had cruelly locked his cock inside a chastity cage and was dangling her freshly worn underwear under the table, teasing him with the prospect of her bare crotch.

“Dive down under sweety, I’ll keep an eye out” Lexi leaned in and pressed her elbows against the side of her chest, pushing her large breasts together, creating a eye popping vortex as her cleavage monopolised the space around her.

“Oooops” David’s feeble attempt at knocking over a fork under the table appeared more comical than believable to the outside world but it gave the virgin the perfect opportunity to slip under the table, inside the private space enclosed by the white table cloth draped around the side.

David's eyes froze as he absorbed the sight in front of him, Lexi's foot dangled in front of his virgin sight, her silky black panties perched at the edge of her toes. The aromatic smell of honey rose from the soft material cloaking the virgin's sense, wrapping its hypnotic authority around his innocence. The virgin leaned forward and inhaled the powerful smell radiating from her freshly worn underwear, filling his lungs with the scent of her pussy. He slipped his hands between his legs to feel for his manhood and cursed under his breath as he forgot his excited cock was locked inside Lexi's cock prison. The nervous male cautiously clutched onto Lexi's heel and sniffed her barefoot as it dangled its authority in front of his eyes. He closed his eyes and swallowed her feminine aroma, he gracefully slid the black underwear off her feet. David scrunched the material in his hands and held the lacy piece to his nose, his virgin body welcoming the unmistakable fragrance of Lexi's womanhood. His eyes peered in front of him glued to Lexi's seat, David watched as Lexi slowly parted her legs, easing her thighs open as she reeled David deeper into her trap.

David's cock strained uncomfortably against the tight constraints of its cock prison as his eyes homed in on Lexi's freshly trimmed pussy. His vision soaked in the the entrance to the escort's body. The virgin had seen countless images of naked females posing on the Internet, showing off every inch of their body, but this was the first time he had seen a real pussy in the flesh. David can't help drooling at the sight of the gates to paradise open and welcoming him in. He shuffled forward and leaned in placing his face above her chair, the mesmerized virgin breathed in deeply and inhaled the warmth between his escort's legs, filling his lungs with the fresh scent of her womanhood. The sharp hypnotic scent draws the virgin in deeper between the escort's legs and his manhood trashes aggressively inside its cock prison begging to be released as he is mere inches away from the womanhood he is intent on losing his virginity to tonight. Lexi's moist pussy glistens under the table, teasing the virgin with its alluring warmth, welcoming him in.

David mutters under his breath, determined to do anything it takes to unlock the chastity cage, freeing his trapped manhood from its cruel clutches and sinking his virgin cock deep into Lexi's warm and freshly trimmed pussy. He had waited all his life to finally unleash inside a woman, he had booked the sexiest escort his $1000 could afford and here she was, dangling the fresh scent of her exquisite pussy in front of him. David's mind began to lose control under the weight of Lexi's control over him, gone were his thoughts of gliding his cock inside her and gently fucking her through the night, instead his drooling cock was gagging to be unleashed from his leash intent on smashing into Lexi's crotch with an unrelenting passion for splitting her in two.

David crumples the black panties tight in his hand, intent on following through the escort's orders to wear them, the virgin's mind was clouded with the prospect of violating Lexi's womanhood with his virgin seed.

David popped back onto his seat, mindful he had spent an eternity under the table mesmerized by Lexi's pussy. He glanced around worried the world was now suddenly focused on his absence under the table.

"Did you pick up the fork" Lexi smiled as she watched David clutching onto her freshly scented black panties.

"What fork?" David was confused

"Or did you get a little distracted?" the busty escort rolled the tip of her tongue across her crimson red lips, moistening the full length of her lips.

"Holy fuck, I could I camp out down there" David muttered under his breath without thinking twice on his choice of words.

"Well, remember. All you need to do is play your cards right and you'll be dining between my legs for the rest of the night" Lexi ran her fingers across the key to the client's chastity cage "a night you will never forget"

David opened his mouth to respond but quickly held his breath as the waiter returned juggling a number of plates. The waiter carefully balanced the hot plates on his hands before presenting the meal on the table in front of the couple, laying down replacement cutlery.

“I hope you enjoy your meal Sir and Madam” the waiter smiled at Lexi and then at David, his words softened as he noticed David clutching onto a pair of black panties. He resisted smirking at the nervous male who looked like a deer caught in the headlights of the escort’s trap.

“Thank you” Lexi and David chimed in together thanking the waiter and watching as he departed the table.

Lexi filled two empty glasses with red wine motioning for her client to grab one.

“Here is to an unforgettable night” the escort clinked her glass with David’s before taking a few deep sips of her drink “A night of firsts”, The seductive Domme smiled at David, she sensed he was taken aback by the actions of his special night. Her pussy tingled at the prospect of the challenge she was dragging David's manhood through, she imagined he thought losing his virginity would be a simple equation. Book an escort, pay her the money, fuck her brains senseless and then rid himself of the label virgin. Fortunately for his untapped fetishes, he had stumbled face first into the one woman who would challenge his innermost desires, dangling her golden prize in front of his very eyes as she painfully peeled off each layer of his innocence and stripped him bare, standing alone and vulnerable with every inch of his sordid submissive fantasies visible for the whole world to see.

“I’m heading off to the gents” David smiled at Lexi as he ran his thumb across the length of the panties squashed in his hands. He was desperate to prove to the escort he was willing to pass her test, hungry to proceed to the intimate part of the night.

“Not in the gents sweetie” Lexi’s voice darkened the air between the couple.

“You wear my panties here” the escort’s voice punched the air with authority.

“He.....he....her.....here?” David whimpered looking around the restaurant getting busier with every passing minute. The popular high class dining establishment was busier and louder than when the couple first sat down, almost every table was occupied, waiters rushing from table to table taking orders and presenting meals, the constant louder chatter amongst the customers drowned the frantic shouts from the chefs in the kitchen as they worked tirelessly at warp speed to prepare every meal to perfect precision.

“If you really want to find yourself unlocked out of the chastity cage in time to lose your virginity tonight, you’ll slip in on in here” the cruel escort smiled betraying the darkness growing inside her.

“How” David stammered.

“Under the table” Lexi looked around the crowded restaurant, she clenched her thighs struggling to control her growling pussy, grunting at the thought of publicly emasculating the desperate virgin in front of her.

David ran his hands along the side of the table and felt the length of the table cloth, convinced the cloth was long enough to hide any discretion underneath. The thought of fellow customers peeking at the events unfolding underneath had not crossed his mind while Lexi was gently caressing his thick manhood with her foot or as he was inhaling the strong scent of her panties whilst staring at the moistness between her legs. But the virgin was more concerned as his mind raced at a mile a minute, in a feeble attempt to comprehend how he would dress himself in Lexi’s panties under the table. Surely he couldn’t just slip underneath, rip his trousers off and then then wear her underwear, he would be gone too long and not to mention the obvious noise he would make.

“We don’t have all day sweetie, food will be getting cold” Lexi giggled.

“I don’t know how I’m supposed to get these on me” David held the black panties against his nose and discreetly inhaled Lexi’s scent while glancing down between his legs, contemplating how on earth he could wrap the silky material around his crotch.

“Let me help you” Lexi casually knocked her knife to the round, without looking around her to check the coast was clear of observers, she slipped in under the table and cradled herself between David’s legs/ The dominant blonde run her hands up

David's trembling thighs, her thumb grazing the tip of his steel prison.

“Sit up slightly” Lexi whispered up to David, she tore open the virgin’s zipper and viciously yanked down David’s trouser, she tugged the full length of the material off and discarded it under the table. Lexi smiled at the sight of David’s bare legs wide open and shivering at the uncertainty of tonight. The cruel escort maneuvered her hand between the virgin’s legs and tucked them under his delicate family jewels. An evil smile appeared on her face as she slowly pinched one of the nuts, watching David’s body shudder in response, she was hungry to continue torturing his vulnerable orbs, manhandling his delicacies under the out of sight and under the table while her client was forced to suppress the unbearable pain in a crowded restaurant but she refrained herself, reminding herself she had the rest of the evening to tease, torment and torture the fortunate chastity slave.

“It’s all yours now” Lexi popped back onto her seat and smiled at David wincing from the both the pain throbbing on his right testicle and the sudden realisation he was naked under the table.

David felt a cold shiver race up his bae thigh legs, public embarrassment prevented him from lifting the front of the table cloth up and looking down between his legs. David discreetly slipped Lexi’s black underwear under the table and casually slid the silky piece on. The soft touch of the material stroked his arousal as the delicate piece teased his thighs on their way up towards his locked cock David shuffled slightly and tugged on the side of Lexi’s underwear, yanking it up around his waist. The virgin wrapped his palm around the chastity cage snuggled between his legs and tugged the cage forward, pulling the device into a more comfortable position.

Lexi positioned both of her legs between David’s thigh and nestled her barefeet feet against his crotch. The couple began diving into their meal while Lexi continued to tease David, wiggling her toes against his crotch and grazing her ankle against his bare thighs. The virgin tucked his chair as far in as possible under the table, desperately hoping neither the staff or his fellow customers would see he was naked underneath the table with the exception of a chastity cage and women's underwear. The seductive escort explores her client's fantasies as she encourages him to further open his secret desires and submissive nature. David falls into a state of total comfort and he shares intimate details of his continuous desire to be locked in chastity, submitting the very essence of his manhood under the lock and control of a dominant woman and his quest to lose his virginity.

Lexi listens attentively, placing her latest client at ease. An observer glancing at the table would not bat an eyelid. The outward appearance of the couple's sexual exploration of David's submissive nature and Lexi's cruel streak to take advantage of him was lost in the innocence of a couple enjoying each others company and the restaurant's fine cuisine.

"I'm just going to head over to the ladies, would you like to settle the bill and call a taxi?" Lexi dropped her fork on the empty plate in front her, satisfied at the meal she had devoured and walked towards David. The busty escort leaned and skillfully slipped her hand inside David's panties, she tucked her fingers into the entrance of his chastity cage and wiggled her fingernails teasing the virgin's pee hole for several seconds before walking to the back of the restaurant.

David struggles to maintain his composure, nervously tucking himself under the table and wishing the rest of the restaurant was too busy leading their own lives. He glances towards Lexi sauntering away, his eyes fixate on the tight black dress hugging her ass cheeks. The hem of her short dress riding up several millimetres with each step she took forward. The desperate virgin visualized his tongue diving between the blonde's breathtaking ass, teasing her anus, moistening it as he prepared her tightness for his cock. David winced as his cock thumped loudly inside the cock prison, hungry for release, ready to divide between Lexi's legs and lose it's virginity.

David fumbles on his phone as he pulls open an app and books a ride from the restaurant to the hotel he had booked a night to share with Lexi. The virgin signals a waiter over and settles the bill, quickly paying for the proceeds and leaving a larger than expected tip.

“Thank you good sir, hope yourself and the lady enjoyed the meal” the waiter grabbed the cash and replaced it with a small silver tray of mints.

“It was perfect” David winked.

“Enjoy the rest of your night” the waiter slipped away into the background as he continued to tend to the various tables vying for his attention.

The virgin drops his hand between his legs for a sneaky feel of his locked cage and suddenly realises he is still naked bar Lexi’s underwear under the table. He scoops under the table and grabs his trousers, being as discreet as he can, David shuffles his trousers on while seating, slowly wringing her black material up his thighs, being as careful as he can not to bring unwanted attention to himself.

“Did you forget about them Lexi giggles grapples with David from behind.

“Sort of” David chuckles as he focuses on pushing the chastity prison between his legs and pulling the zipper up.

“Don’t worry you won’t be them for long” the blonde smirked as she watches David struggle to conceal the obvious bulge of the cock cage protruding from the crotch of his trousers.

The taxi arrives minutes later and the couple casually depart the noisy restaurant and proceed to the back seat of the taxi snuggling close to each other. David confirms the destination with the driver who glances over the couple, smiling as he concludes David is simply another horny customer who has picked up an escort for the night and is dying to fuck her brains out.

“No problem sir” the driver’s thick Australian accent confirms the destination and the car begins its short journey.

Lexi rolls over and wraps her arm around David and slides her hand between his thigh, the seductive blonde gently massages the virgin’s balls and runs the palm of her hands over his crotch.

“How does it feel” she leans in and whispers into David's ear, monopolising his attention.

“Itching and raring to go” David looked into Lexi’s eyes and smiled.

“Good” Lexi rubs her crotch against David refrained penis, pressing the crest of her pantyless pussy against her clients crotch and grinds her hips into him, Teasing David of the pleasures to come. Her arms wrap around David’s neck as she starts to pick up a steady rythm gyrating her horny body between David thighs.

David moaned as he opened his legs wider welcoming Lexi’s sexual torture deeper into him, the devilish escort continues to dry hump her client's locked cock, taunting it’s inability to break out of it’s steel confines and pound her.

“Did you get a good look at my ass earlier” Lexis slides her wet tongue across David neck, coating his skin with her saliva.

“Uh-huh” David moaned as his body struggled to contain the thumping inside the chastity cage, his cock desperately banging at the gates of the steel cage, “Tonight, I will take you on an unforgettable journey” Lexi pressed her crotch harder between David legs, imposing the authority of her pussy on her client’s trapped manhood “your first time will not simply be the first time you had sex. But the first time you had anal sex” Lexi grabs David hands and guides it to her ass.

David struggled to breath as the air is immediately sucked out of the car, his logic stumbles to comprehend the words leaving Lexi’s mouth. He shakes his head in disbelief as he comes to terms with the notion that he will be eventually sinking his thick hard virgin cock between Lexi’s ass. His hands roam the full surface of Lexi’s ass caressing her cheeks, David slides his hands under her tight black dress and grabs her bare ass cheeks, giving each a gentle squeeze. The pain between his legs becomes louder and more unbearable as his cock desperately finds a way out of the small cock prison it finds itself locked it. David mutters under his breath, if he could break through of his steel confines. He would bend Lexi over the backseat of the car and pound her ass within seconds. But he knows he’ll have to play the waiting game, the teasing game. Let Lexi seduce him before she unleashes his raging beast growling between his legs, ready to ravish every inch of her firm young body. The virgin slides his finger between the escort's ass cheeks and runs the tip of his finger across the full length of Lexi's ass crack, it pauses as it reach her anal entry pressing gently against her anus.

"Have a little taste of tonight" Lexi exhales into David and she jerks her ass out and forces David's finger to pop into her tight anus. She moans in David's ear as she clenches her anal muscles and traps David's finger inside of her.

"I hope your little soldier is up to the task tonight" Lexi smiled as she loosed her anus's grip on her client's finger. She grabs David's hands and places them behind his head, holding them in place before lunging in locking her lips with his. Lexi initiates a deep and passionate kiss, continuing her torture as she dangled her sexual energy in front of David's caged tiger, edging him further into the dark side.

"Here we are" the australian accent interrupts the tango the couple's tongues are deeply engaged in.

David stammers back to reality as he pays for the cab fare home and thanks the rider. The couple hastily stumble out of the car and into the cold night.

"No worries mate, you have a good night" he smiles at David and winks at Lexi.

The cold snap overshadows the darkness in the air and Lexi partially regrets having slipped off her underwear in her ultra thin dress.

"Fuck it's nippy out here" the escort shudders.

"Don't worry, we'll be in the warmth soon" David wrapped his arm around his date for the night and escorts her to the front entrance of their pre-booked hotel, slipping into the revolving doors and approaching the quiet reception area.

The hotel stood several floors tall and stroke an imposing sense of power and money. The reception area was manned by two striking blondes donning tight white blouses showing hints of their cleavage as the leaned on the long gold plated reception desk. Lexi absorbed the magnificence of the building and whistled to herself, her arousal stroked her pussy as she smelled the desperation in David as he sought to lose his virginity in style.

“You appear to have gone all out” Lexi squeezed David’s arm and pulled herself closer wrapping her arms around him, pressing her large breasts against his shoulders.

“Here are your keys sir” the receptionist handed David’s ID back to him and dropped the keys into his hands.

“Enjoy your stay” the two receptionists chimed together and watched the couple walk towards the lifts, the two blondes glanced at one another reading each other's minds. Couples that stay for a night of passion was nothing new nor was a man booking their penthouse suite for a stunning escort like Lexi.

David composed himself as much as he could, restraining himself from jumping onto Lexi as the couple maneuvered their way to their hotel room on the 6th floor, Despite his cock’s dirty thoughts, he controlled himself from slipping his hand between his escorts legs and touching the goods he was going to unleash his fury on, he withheld his thirst for reigniting the passionate kiss Lexi had initiated and he controlled himself from unzipping himself and peering down at his locked cock wrapped around Lexi’s used underwear.

“Oh my, no expense spared” Lexi gawped as she surveyed the luxurious room. The spacious penthouse suite looked over the city with large windows for walls, golden curtains draped the sides for those private moments.

“This has it all” David gleamed from ear to ear “On suite jacuzzi, king sized bed and a shower room to fit two people comfortably”

“I’m impressed, you certainly have gone all out” Lexi pulled David closer to her and whispered in his ear.

“Are you still happy for me to videotape me losing my virginity to the most attractive woman on the planet” David asked checking Lexi was still in agreement. He had paid extra to film his first time and wanted to remind Lexi it was still part of the deal.

“Of course sugar, heck, I suggest we leave the curtains open and let the world see the sparks ignite between us” Lexis pointed toward the large window spanning the length of the wall providing the perfect view for looking out and for those looking in from opposing buildings. The darkness inside of Lexi travelled towards her pussy and tugged her clit, the escort clenched her thighs at the thought of the whole world watching her lead a virgin lapping at her feet, desperate for his first time, teasing him into a dark and twisted place where she strips him of his dignity and destroys his masculinity as she humiliates and feminizes him for the first time.

“Perfect” David smiled confidently, words couldn't explain his level of excitement at finally losing the virginity weight on his shoulders. He felt the whole world could sniff his sexual inexperience the moment they spoke to him. And to lose it in a fashion that would be recorded for eternity and for the rest of the world to see, the horny virgin felt like a stud, a godly chick magnet who was drowning in woman attention and has his choice of ladies on any given night. The stories he could tell of his first time, David hadn't yet decided whether he would share with anyone his first time was with an escort, he knew he would spare no detail on the physique of his sexual partner whom would be spreading her legs open for him, he anticipated delving into graphic detail on the size of her large breasts, her shapely curves, her scented pussy. David just wasn't sure if he would divulge he popped his cherry to a paid escort.

David clumsily switched the camera function on his phones and smiled as he positioned the electronic device atop a dresser table several feet away from the bedroom action.

“Do you mind standing near the bed” David asked checking to see if the amateur recording device would capture the full scope of the planned sexual engagement.

Lexi leaped into shot and seductively licked her crimson red lips in front of the camera. David adjusted the focus and the audio ensuring he was capturing the best quality his device would offer.

“All done” David clapped in delight.

“Perfect” the escort sauntered towards the wall sized windows and ensured the ceiling length golden curtains were draped fully open. She toggled the window latch and swung both large windows open several inches.

“You want the whole world hearing the sound of your cherry popping” Lexi teased David as a sudden gust of wind maneuvered itself into the top floor penthouse suite and cloaked the duo with its cool dominance, fanning the burning sexual tension.

The seductive blonde presses her body against David forcing the weight of her large breasts on David chest. She smirks as she see David’s nervous eyes struggle to peel themselves away of the sight between her large mounds, the full depth of her cleavage yanking her unsuspecting client into her web of seduction. Lexi slides her hand between David’s legs and rubs her palm across the surface of her panties she coerced him to wear.

“Comfortable?” the busty escort whispered

“Yes” David exhaled, slowly feeling himself succumbing to Lexi’s powerful aura.

Lexi wrapped her palm around the submissive male’s swelling testicles and gently weighed the heavy orbs. Teasing the virgin with eventual release of his pent of frustration. She could sense her client’s ballsack has become heavier and swollen since his manhood was shoved inside a steel prison and that he was no watching for release more than any point in his life.

“How much do you want my ass right now” Lexi purred reeling her prey into her web of feminization

“So bad” David struggled to breath under the weight of the sexual tension.

Lexi pressed her finger against David lips and gently pinched his lower lips, her fingernails silently threatening to pierce his trembling skin.

“How badly do you want my ass?”

“Word cannot express what I intend to do to your sexy rear” David smirked building up the courage to fire a handful of memorable one liners for his first time.

Lexis chuckled inwardly at her client’s pathetic attempt to exude an any of alpha authority. She swiveled on her heel and bent over. The thin fabric of her black dress slid up the terrain of her round ass exposing her naked ass. The escort leant forward on the bed and jolted her naked ass out, spreading her legs slightly offering David her breathtaking body on his virgin plate.

“Would you like a taste” Lexi craned her neck back and winked at her client.

“Oh hell yes” David’s eyes were pinned on the busty blonde ass thrust into the air in front of him, He dropped to his knees and held onto the side of Lexi’s hips. The nervous virgin’s eyes roamed the magnificent shape of his sexual partner’s well tanned round ass. His eyes navigates across the entire terrain of her body, capturing every inch of her beautiful skin across her ass cheeks, the virgin drops his eyes under Lexi’s legs and drools uncontrollably as he catches another glimpse of Lexi’s well trimmed pussy. The virgin puckers his lips and smacks them against Lexi’s ass cheeks, kissing each one in turn. He then spreads her ass cheeks and inhales deeply, greedily swallowing the scent of her feminine authority.

Lexi turns back round, and looks down at David on his knees, kneeling before her, obediently waiting to dive in between her ass cheeks. Her eyes scan his face, surveying the desperation plastered across his sullen eyes, his lips pouting with drool spilling out from the side of his mouth, eagerly awaiting the inevitable.

Lexi unclasps her bra and allows her firm breasts to fall free, the ample size greedily suck in the air around them as they monopolise their immediate space.

“Wear this and I will bend over for your tongue” the topless blonde drops her black bra in the space between her feet and David knees. She smiles as she watches his eyes follow the descent of her bra from her hand to the floor.

David grabs the lacy black bra, he runs his fingers across the cups mentally struggling to acknowledge how Lexi was able to squeeze her large breasts into a small yet innocent looking thin material. The horny client holds the piece to his nose and inhales the material, his nostril hungrily sucks in Lexi's natural aroma filling his lungs with the scent of her feminine dominance.

Lexi chuckles as she watches David salivating in front of her, the submissive male turning at the thought of finally exploring a woman’s full body. Every inch of her succulent and fertile young body for his tongue and his caged cock's disposal. An electric surge of energy courses it way through her spine as she feels a sharp tingle between her bare thighs, teasing her naked pussy as she dangles her body mercilessly in front of David, leading him to his eventual emasculation.

A small black sphere catches Lexi's eyes, the device is located in the centre of the ceiling and is positioned above David's head. The escort recognizes theses device as a security camera designed for the hotel to monitor the use of their penthouse suite and to ensure no damage is done. The dominant escort smiles as she mentally identifies four further camera located in the corners of the large exquisite suite. Lexi was no stranger to penthouse suite and knew each of the hotel who had a name to protect would ensure the safety of their customers, property and their staff, and each had listed in their terms that cameras would be positioned in each room. The recordings were intended to be kept locked away safely and were usually only accessed in event of a police enquiry but Lexi knew that on occasion, some staff would sneak a peek at the penthouse suite cameras. It was a known fact that the filthy rich booked the most expensive suites and the majority of time, the four walls contains cops amounts of unmentionable levels of marathon sex, sometimes involving several escorts and sometimes involving drugs. Lexi slipped her hand between her legs and felt her moistening pussy as she visualized the hotel staff gawping over the events unfolding in full view of the cameras.

Lexi grabs David's hair and gently tugs him backward, his pathetic mouth glued to her black bra.

"Wear it sweetie and I'll turn around and offer my ass for you" Lexi's voice hovered over David's head before slowly descending around him "First you will slip your wet tongue inside of me and explore my anus with your hungry tongue moistening me up and when you are ready" Lexi held her words for several seconds to further build on the tension "We'll pop your cherry in style with an anal pounding of a lifetime".

"Ye.....ye.....ye.....yes" David stammered struggling to breathe under the excitement.

“Walking is going to be a real bitch” Lexi winked at her client and blew him a kiss.

David clumsily strapped the black bra around his chest, his fingers fumbled around behind his back and he struggled to fasten himself. Lexi giggled incessantly as she observed David’s feeble attempt to secure his first bra. She eventually caved in and cups it into place for him, she tugged on the bra and palms the cups, she gently lifted them up for effect snickering as David was locked in a small and tight chastity cage and fully robed in her underwear.

Lexi drops back on the king size bed face down and pumps her naked ass out, ensuring her anal entry is visible to David’s own camera, the world watching from the outside and the various security cameras positioned and pointing down at the centre of the penthouse suite.

The submissive virgin grips onto the escorts hips and spreads her ass cheeks wider, he smiles as her browneye winks at him, teasing him to come closer. The nervous virgin sandwiches his face between Lexi’s tanned ass cheeks and runs the tip of his tongues along the edges of her anus, David’s tongue moistened the tight entrance as he anticipates his eventual penetration of the escort’s backdoor. The hungry virgin slips his adventurous tongue inside Lexi’s ass and strokes her anal walls, teasing every inch of her darkness.

“Oh fuck that feels good” Lexi moans as she grips onto the duvet savouring her client’s tongue prodding her insides, greedily exploring her anus. The darkness inside her moistens her pussy as she visualizes David’s mind doing somersaults as he soaks her anal entry in preparation for his virgin cock, gagging and begging to be finally released.

The submissive's existing notion has been shattered as he surrenders his mouth to the blonde bent over suffocating his willing and hungry wet tongue. David relishes the first time he is entering a woman’s ass. He had fantasised for too long on licking a beautiful ass and plunging his tongue inside a woman’s tight beautiful ass. David’s Internet search history had been plastered with images and videos of porn dominated by ass licking and facesitting videos, deep down inside. David knew that porn beautifies the image of sex, the camera angles, the lines and the actor and actresses designed for maximum viewer stimulation. He was never prepared for the sensation his body was surrendering to at the present moment, submitting his body to the busty blonde's ass as he thrust his virgin tongue as deep as he could, But he never imagined he would be entering the gates of heaven knelt down with his head sandwiched between an escorts ass cheeks.

"Push deeper David, push your fucking tongue as deep as you can into my tight little ass" Lexi screams, demanding her client to continue pleasuring her anal entry. Her sharp tones of authority punctures the silence as it travel outside of the open wall windows spilling her client's pending humiliation into the unsuspecting streets.

"Stick your tongue in my ass deeper and faster, show me you deserve to lose your virginity. Show me you deserve anal".

David needed no further encouragement as his tongue continued to assault Lexi's ass, thrashing frantically inside her tight sphincter as he stretched to pleasure every inch of her anal walls.

"Oh fuck yeah" Lexi's hips buckled under the force of her slave's tongue as he continued to tongue fuck her ass with a passion to spit shine her anal entry. The deadly Domme had grown a hidden passion to dominate and humiliate men, mentally bullying them to lay dressed in her panties, on the floor pleasuring her as they performed a spectacular rimjob in the hopes of finally plunging their throbbing cock deep into her ass.

Lexi pulled her ass in towards her slipped David's cock out of her tight anal entry and jolted her body back, smacked her ass cheeks against David's confused face. The escort slowed the proceedings down, she sensed her pussy struggling to hold back the pending orgasm as it pressed violently against her floodgates threatening to burst through. She was intent on unleashing her orgasm as she plowed into her client's virgin ass.

The escort grabs a clump of David's hair and forces him to his feet, her eyes grapple with his and maintain a vice like grip on his nervous pupils. She slips her hands between her submissive client's trembling thighs and cups his heavy balls smiling as she weighed the hanging orbs with the palm of her hand. The busty escort rolls David's ballsack across her dangerous fingernails, without warning she tightens her grip trapping David's delicates while tugging them away from his groin.

"Are you ready to experience your first time and to finally be unleashed" Lexi's whispers distracts David from his balls.

David groans in response struggling to maintain his composure as his cock continues to pound relentlessly inside it's steel shackles, locked and trapped inside his chastity prison.

"To feel your virgin cock finally exploding in a violent orgasm, squirting never ending puddles of your man cream as you submit yourself to a evening of angry and powerful anal sex" Lexi's words breathed into David's soul. The Domme's latest victim had fallen face first into her sticky web of Femdom, unaware he was submitting his very own body for the Domme's amusement and sexual pleasure, his face pressed firmly against the ground and his ass propped up showcasing his virgin anus. Lexi licked her lips at the naivety of the virgin she had trapped by the balls.

"Like heck I am, I can't wait to lose my virginity" David's voice wavered as he was unable to cover his desperation of finally releasing his cock from it's restraints and plow his manhood deep into the stnig woman fondling his testucles.

Lexi yanks her panties down David's crotch sliding them down his legs and slipping them off his feet. She presses the lacy black piece fragrancd with her own moistness against David's nose and shoves the piece inside his nostril, forcing him to inhale the full aroma of her wetness. The escort tugs on both ends of her underwear and swivels the piece, turning the thin material inso a thick piece of material. She wraps the thick makeshift blindfold around David's eyes and ties the ends behind his head, shutting his vision off from the rest of the world.

"I'll release your cock in exchange for your sight" Lexi asks seductively

David nods, desperate to feel his throbbing manhood finally free, sucking in the air around it.

Lexi giggles at her latest victim's predicament, she clenches her thighs at the thought of the hotel room cameras, his mobile phone recording and the rest of the world peering in and listening to the fast paced events unfolding in real time.

Lexi yanks off her necklace, she holds the chastity device as she slips the small key in and turns the lock.

"Are you ready to finally get your fill of some deep and uncensored anal sex" Lexi blew her words in David's direction, coating his senses with her seductive words.

David merely grunts as Lexi loosens the padlock to the chastity cage slightly, the virgin's cock restrained cock snuff a hint of freedom, the caged beast quickly hardens to full form ripping through the remains of the steel cock prison. The ferocity of David's arousal quickly separates the chastity cage from the padlock and sends the items vaulting across the hotel room as the throbbing cock stands proud aching for the release it had been building up for all evening.

Lexi wraps her warm palm around the thick cock and gently jerks the pulsating piece, teasing David as she slows down her movements.

"Drop to your knees and open your mouth" Lexi pinches David's right nut feeling the pent up aggression revving up for release inside his ballsack.

The virgin obediently drops to his knees without a second thought, the evening had taken a hard turn right from the moment he laid eyes on Lexi several hours ago along a path that David could never imagine.

David picks up the pace of his breathing and the heavy panting takes centre stage as he peers up between Lexi's legs, his vision locked by her moist black panties. The virgin is desperate to grab his own thick cock and finally start jerking it for the first time this evening, but he refrains himself. The unmistakable scent of Lexi's growling pussy inches from his face reminds him of the golden prize he has been waiting for, David's mouth salivates uncontrollably at the mere thought of the first taste of the sweet nectar between the londe's legs. A barrage of sexual thoughts race through his head as David struggles to contain his impatience to plow through the perfect escort who had walked out of his mind's own filthy porn video.

Lexi yanks her handbag from the bed maintaining her towering position over her client. She yanks out a black strapon and smiles as she dangles the thick piece over David's head.

"Are you ready" the escort looked down at her client as she fastened the sides of her thick piece to her hips and secured the sex toy in place for her pending violation.

"Uh-huh" David nods excitedly.

The escort wraps her palm around the thickness of her ten inch black strapon struggling to fit her palm around the full girth. She quietly jerks the piece contemplating applying lube before sinking her thickness into the virgin's ass. She dismisses the idea as her pussy growls at the thought of forcing David to apply his own natural lube to the very same device that will be tearing his anal virginity from out under his very own desperate nose.

Lexi places her hands behind David's head watching David telepath her request as he opens his mouth and slides his tongue out. She giggles at the cute notion that David believes he will be sliding his tongue inside her pussy, preparing her before her fucks her with his pathetic cock. The escort guides David's mouth mere millimeters away from her dangling black cock.

"Ready David?" Lexi looks down at her client panting frantically between her legs

"Yes, Lexi, I'm ready" David obediently replies.

"Tonight is the night we unravel the multiple layers of your sexual deviancy and tap into your hidden fantasies" Lexi smirks "You have a desire to be controlled, dominated and violated by women yet have conflicting thoughts on your own masculinity, tonight we learn who the real David is. We find out what you are truly about".

The blonde escort moved her hips forward and pressed the tip of her black cock against her David's trembling lips, she grazing the head of the plastic penis across his lips.

"Open wide bitch" Lexi's voice darkens quickly clouding the atmosphere around the couple.

David obliges, his cock twitches as he starts to visualize Lexi standing over him with a strapon held to his lips. He had long fantasized about submitting to a beautiful woman donning a threatening piece but refused to acknowledge his own desires hidden deep inside of him. A strange cocktail of fear and arousal coursed through the virgin's body as he stretched his mouth wide open welcoming the oral intrusion pressing against his saliva soaked lips.

"Good boy" Lexi jolts her hips forward thrusting the thick cock inside David's mouth. The escort doesn't hold back for the first penetration as she dives in pressing the head of her plastic penis against the back of David's mouth. She tightened her grip on David head and starts to gently fuck his oral opening, thrusting back and forward in a predictable fashion, alternating the depth of her thrusts.

"Are you enjoying this?" Lexi smirks as she starts to pick up the pace of her thrusts, exploring the deeper confines of David mouth with each passing penetration.

"Mmmmpphhhh" David's response is muffled as he continues to willingly take the huge cock violating his once private space, his lips wrap tightly around the full girth of the penis as he attempts to wrestle for control of the strap-on with the dangerous Domme fucking his face. The virgin's cock continues to twitch uncontrollably leaking pre-cum as he struggles to understand why he was more aroused at this moment in time than he has been in the previous six months. The thought of a supermodel-esque escort like Lexi teasing him with a strapon was an enticing thought, but the idea of wielding the hardest and biggest erection in his life as he was submitting his mouth to the onslaught of Lexi's thick fake cock confused him.

"We need to lube this up good and proper" Lexi continues to dominate David's mind as she forces forward with her oral assault leaving no part of his mouth touched. She fucks David's oral cavity harder and faster tapping into his gag reflex as she enticed the virgin to coat the strapon with his own saliva, lubing her device for his anal deflowering.

David's mouth slobbers messily across the entire length of the thick strapon, coating the full ten inches of the black cock with his virgin spit. He looks up and makes out the faint shadow of Lexi's body through the black panties blocking his vision. He imagines the thick strapon she is wielding as she continues barrelling her device into his mouth with an unapologetic aggression.

"Are you ready for anal" Lexi purrs as she yanks out her drenched strapon and rubs the tip against David's cheek, asserting her dominance over his weak and submissive virgin torso.

"Ye.....ye.....ye.....yes" David whimpers, the notion of the him sinking his cock into Lexi's ass slowly starts to dissipate as his mind replaces the thought of him bending over and submitting his own ass to Lexi's lethal strapon. The virgin shakes his head in confusion and he wondered if Lexi's brutal facefucking had fucked the thought of him violating her out of his brain and instead replaced it with both of their own dark desires.

Lexi yanks David up by his hair and shoves him onto the bed face down, she grips onto his hips and pulls his ass up, mirroring the same position she was in moments ago while David had his tongue planted deep inside her ass.

"Are you sure you are ready" Lexi spreads David's legs wider and gently caresses the huge testicles boiling with pent up aggression and the thick cock straining for release.

"Yes Mistress, please fuck me in the ass" David's mind snaps back to the Femdom videos he had watched in the past and without thinking twice, mirrored the scenes of the submissive men begging for domination as he replied begging for is anal violation referring to Lexi as his Mistress. The virgin's body becomes overcome with his arousal to be dominated as his outer facade starts to unravel itself and his true submissive nature peeks into the dark and cold world.

The virgin grips onto the duvet cover and winces as he feels the head of Lexi's strapon press against his tight anal opening. David gyrates his hips in small circles teasing the tip of the penis across the tight opening of his virgin anus.

"Take me now Mistress, please take your cock and fuck me hard and fast" David whimpered unable to control his arousal.

"As you wish darling" Lexi smirked knowing she had torn down the biggest mental wall in the mind of her virgin client and within seconds, she was going to rip through his physical resistance claiming ownership of his anal virginity.

Lexi spreads her submissive's ass cheeks wider and pushes her weight into David, the tip of her thickness slowly sinks into David's tight anus. The audible popping of David's anal cherry is heard distinctly as the video recording devices and the streets outside the open window soak in the moment Lexi broke into David's ass. The cruel Domme starts to slowly fuck her submissive as she retracts her plastic cock and reinserts, pushing the device further with each penetration. She fights for power over David's ass as his anal muscles clench the strapon desperately hoping to trap the device inside his ass. The escort smiles at the submissive's pathetic attempts to assert even the hint of dominance and power he falsely believed he had. Instead she pulled her device several inches and propelled back into her client, fucking him with a passionate to violate the darkest parts of his body. Lexi begins to pick up a steady pace as she starts to fuck David's virgin ass with a predictable rhythm, allowing David to gyrate his hips in sync allowing for a deeper and fuller penetration. The escort used her thick piece to explore parts of David's body he never knew existed, probing sensation of arousal hidden deep inside him.

Lexi's eyes dart around the room, she blows a kiss at the various cameras positions above her eyes, watching the humiliation of a man as he submits his anal virginity to a busty blonde. Lexi relished moments like this, she loved her job escorting for men, helping them seek pleasure away from their loneliness but the real memorable moments and the nights which spark her pussy's attention were clients who were begging to be dominated and humiliated by her, particularly those who had booked her for a night of vanilla sex.

The escort continues to barell her strapon into her submissive's ass, pounding her pelvis into him harder with each passing thrust. She smiled as she watched him struggle to maintain composure as he scrambled to grip the bed sheets to maintain balance from the onslaught plowing into his anus. Lexi suddenly feels her thighs clench involuntarily and she senses her pussy growling as her arousal bangs violently against her walls. She struggles to contain the building pressure and succumbs to her womanly urges as her orgasm rips through her floodgates and unleashes its juices into the world, spilling carelessly onto the strapon. Lexi's juices of arousal coat the strapon providing further lube as she slows down the pace of her thrusts.

Lexis abruptly jerks the strapon from David's hungry anus and wraps her hands around David's thick manhood.

"Looks like you like to be feminized and sissified" the dominant blonde smiled and she gently pumped the submissive's thick shaft. The escort struggled to maintain a firm grip on the twitching cock gagging for release, she chuckled at the level of pent up progression suppressed inside him.

David struggled to respond as he focused his energies on Lexi pumping his erection, massaging the blood inside his thick shaft as he was ready to explode. The pumps continued for a few more seconds and despite David's attempt to hold out for longer, he released his orgasm in a violent fury as he erupted in a sudden explosion of pleasure. David's pent up aggression spilled carelessly onto the bedsheets, ounces of his juices shooting across the hotel room.

Lexi wrapped her free hand around David's left nut and pinched hard while she continued to pump his spurting shaft. The Domme pressed her thumb deeper into David's vulnerable testicle forcing out as much of his orgasm as she could, milking the virgin dry.

The unfiltered, uncensored and unexpected feminization of David continued as the cameras rolled capturing every moment for both David and the hotel security staff. The open window captured the groans of David's emasculation in the cold and dark streets, no doubt littered with scores of passerbys standing still and listening to the groans of domination and moans of pleasure emanating from the penthouse suite.

"That was fucking amazing" David exhales exhausted and sweating from the fury from Lexi's strapon.

"How was your first ever anal fucking" Lexi winked as she pulled David to his feet, the tip of her thick strapon grazed his thigh reminding him of his sissification.

“You’ve left me gagging for more” David stammered as the lacy panty blindfold continued to block his vision “I want to see you again for Round 2”.

The cruel streak within Lexi starts to soften slightly as he hinted for more, she had ripped out the anal cherry from a desperate man clambering to lose his virginity and here he was, asking for more. The darkness inside of her had taken over her thoughts as she cruelly wrapped the desperate virgin around her finger, slowly tugging him into her web of darkness at a hint of the golden nectar that lay between her legs. But instead of prying her legs open and offering her moist pussy for the virgin, she had bent him over and violated his most intimate part, stripping him of his masculinity in front of several cameras and an open window.

“The next time, I may be kind enough to give you a discount” Lexi quickly snatched the chastity cage and padlock. In one switch motion she slips David’s unsuspecting limp cock back into the cock prison and locks secure the padlock. “But in the meantime you will need to hold out for much longer”.

“Follow me” Lexi grabs David by the arms and yanks him towards the door leaving him very little time to react. She drags David into the lobby and hammers her thumb on the lift button calling for the next available lift. Her eyes roam David’s body, blindfolded in her moist black panties, wearing her black padded bra and locked in a chastity cage with droplets of his man juices forming a small puddles at the head of his limp cock.

“Where are we going” David asks confused as the lift started to shoot down to the basement floor at a frightening speed.

“Do you want to see me again?” Lexi asks as she yanks David out of the lift on the basement and kicks open the door to the basement exit. A sudden gust of wind envelopes the couple’s body as the breeze from the back alley encapsulates them.

“Yes Mistress, I want more” David shivers feeling his body suddenly turn cold.

Lexi smirked at the submissive client’s response, she knew she had him both by the virtual and physical balls. David had fallen into her sticky trap of deceit and Femdom and was clambering for more pain and punishment, for further feminization and sissification. The blonde seductress knew it wouldn't be too long before David would be back begging for more. Offering his anus for further violation, willing to do whatever it took for another taste of humiliation.

“Well, I need you to prove yourself to me. Show me how badly you want this” Lexi launches her knee towards David’s unsuspecting crotch and smashed her knee cap into his tender orbs. The force of the brutal attack catches David by surprise as the cruel Domme tenderizes his delicate testicles.

David’s hands quickly shoot between his crotch hunting around for his throbbing orbs as he clambers to wrap his warm palms around them in a desperate attempt to ease the pain. He leans back against the cold brick wall and drops to the floor savouring the unexpected humiliation at the hands of the escort he had booked to take his virginity. Instead he found the night hd taken a turn as she had tapped into his deep seated desire to be humiliated and feminized. The submissive virgin closes his eyes and relives the moment he submitted his body in a night of firsts to the busty blonde.

David’s eyes suddenly jerk awake hours later as the sharp pain between his legs transform into a dull ache. The naked virgin peers between his legs and stares at his predicament. He smiles at his limp cock, locked back in the chastity cage The very same cage that led him down the path of humiliation. David wraps his hand around his manhood and finds his balls are secured tightly by several rubber bands, the small devices constrict the blood flow and his balls look bigger than ever. David notices a small sheet of paper wedged between his thigh and his ballsack. He carefully pulls the sheet out mindful not to graze the sharp edges against his sensitive ballsack.

Scrawled on the sheet is a telephone number with short message.

If you have the balls and are ready for the next level, meet me at the shopping mall downtown!

A fresh wave of submissiveness overcomes David as his cock stirs awake again at the thought of once more submitting his body for further humiliation. He feels the start of a new sexual fetish beginning to develop, on he is hungry to explore. Forget the porn, forget losing his virginity. David has a desperate craving for Lexi to once more dress him in her underwear, to humiliate him and to fuck him further, pushing him further than his limits could handle.

The submissive virgin looked around him, the dark alleyway was thin, long and devoid of any light or human life. He was stripped of his possessions and thrown into the back alley behind the hotel alone and naked.

David stared back at the sheet of paper and smiled, he itched to ring her. To push the envelope further and to find both where his and Lexi's limits lie.
