
Thank you for letting us do this, Irene. I'm so grateful that you're letting Calvin replace you for a while so that things get easier for the both of us.

Not a problem, sis.
The way that Ma treats Calvin is just simply nuts, she's acting like he's an evil parasite just because he's not loaded like us.

Ma always calls herself high class,
but the way she treats normal people...
it's like she's so paranoid around anyone who hasn't got a mansion and money to spare.
It's just so ridiculous.

That's also why she's always on our asses as well, sis.
To her, we're not as much people
as much as props for her to brag about to others at the country club.

Yeah, I guess we can't have "royalty" end up dating someone beneath their class. I'm telling you, she's going to try and marry us off at some point with whoever's got the biggest bank account, and a happy relationship with "a commoner" would get in the way.

You know, I actually overheard Ma talking about maybe kicking you out and cutting you off if you don't break up with Cal. She may actually go that far, I fear.
Really?

That's just so over the top.
Well, that does sound on brand for Mom, sadly enough.

Well, since Calvin's about to take my place he could do that more frequently whenever you two need to... so all you have gotta do is "break up" with him, and then spend more time with "me" of course.
Plus, the funniest thing about all of this is the fact that you're going to be fucking Calvin right under her nose, and she isn't going to know anything about it!

That's going to be a great way for us to get even with her for all the years of complaining and nagging about everything and nothing. That's just perfect!

Now we are talking!
A silent revenge against Ma!
Such a fun idea.

It's still so unbelievable to me that Calvin was able to buy a skin-suit thing that actually turns him into a copy of you. I still feel from time to time that he's pulling my leg since he refused to show it to me before now.

Huh, he didn't show it to you?
He sent me a picture of "myself"
yesterday to see if I approved of it.
Just a closeup of "her" face, nothing more then that.

WHO'S READY TO MEET THE NEW AND IMPROVED IRENE MCPHERSON?!?

OH MY GOD!?!
THAT'S SO REAL!
Wow.

Mom's not going to know a damned thing's changed at all!
That's just amazing, Calvin, you really are my perfect double.

You even sound like Irene!
No, you are her! Wow
That's just incredible!

Definitely.
Well then, Mercedes...and me, I take it the brand new Irene gets your approval then to move ahead with replacing the old one.

Ma's not going to know a damned thing about Calvin being there right under her nose. She's never going to accuse her own daughter of willingly being replaced, I'm just going to step in and take your place without issue!

Hmm...
What do you think of me, "sister?" It's just like looking into the mirror, the perfect reflection of yourself.

You said new and improved; but something definitely feels off. I just can't put my finger on what exactly.
Hmm...really now?

I might have made one or two small changes to the original design. Not like Ma will notice it, will she?

OH MY GOD IRENE, WHAT ARE YOU DOING?
I'm just checking out the upgrades that you made. These two feel fantastic to me, are these F cups or even bigger?

Never thought about that myself before but I'd want a pair of those as well, actually. They'd look good on the both of us.

I can't BELIEVE you're doing this!
This- , this...

This actually feels quite good,
why don't you keep going for a bit.

I can't believe how sensitive they are, I still feel them all the time when I move around, its so distracting.
I'm sure you'll get used to it. Or you can put on a bra, that will surely help with the sensitivity.

WHAT ARE YOU TWO DOING?!?
IRENE, SHE MAY LOOK LIKE YOU BUT SHE IS, HE IS, STILL MY BOYFRIEND!
STOP THAT!

I CAN'T BELIEVE ANY OF THIS!

What do both think you're doing?!
This looks so incredibly wrong!

You can relax, Mercedes.
Irene's just joking around,
and these two are just so sensitive.
Hard to keep my own hands off them.

Cedes, you cant just expect me to ignore these when they're right in front of me wouldn't you be doing the same?

Besides, I thought that you and the fake Irene were going to be doing this anyhow at home when Ma isn't looking. I'm still getting a free sample, that's all.
Well, yeah, but...

Nevermind.

Besides, you owe me for letting your boyfriend replace me.
And we're really grateful for your help, we really couldn't have done it without you.

Just make sure that you don't end up doing anything that will end up angering Ma, will you?

I just realized that Ma's your problem now, not mine. And you get to do my chores as well!

Damn. Talk about a massive downside.

Just like your fat tits,
I'm sure you'll get used to it.

It will all be worth it just because
I'll get to spend a lot more time with you,
Mercedes, and that's what's most important.

I'm looking forward towards that as well, Calvin.

Get a room you two,
my room, to be specific.

We should head back home, before Mom gets angry at us being out longer than expected.
To be honest though, the bitch is always angry.

Still, we should have our return not end up in a shouting match with Mom, okay?
Sure.

See you later, Irene.

Later, sissy.

Now to see where he got that suit from.
Time to start by checking his internet history...
