I am not a writer, far from it. Except for the names and places, the stories you read are true for the most part. Still they are not biographies. Artistic license has been taken to enhance or in some cases minimize the events described. All sexual situations were between consensual adults within the framework of their story.

The stories are somewhat long. Most of these stories cover several years. I will try to keep the chapters short. I suggest you save one for reference. None of the stories are mine, any personal friend, or relative.

This story is about a brother's sense of duty to his sister and her family. Buck struggles to help his sister fight against her demons. The first chapters can be a tough read. It was even more difficult for Buck and Rey Ann to tell it.

This is the fifth chapter. Rey Ann starts her career leaving Buck at home. Finding herself at the cross roads she is forced to take matters into her own hands. Melissa is a temptation Rey is not quite prepared for. Can Buck guide her to be the strong woman he needs her to be?

The first week was difficult but exciting. I worked hard each day sometimes well after hours. The apartment building we lived in was filled with other Acme employees as well as other American companies. The British are hard to explain in some ways but easy in other ways. London is a massive city with people from all around the globe. College was diversified but this place is crazy. Sandra is a great mentor we seem to click even though she is almost ten years older.

Buck and I talk almost every other day. Not a week after I arrived so did my period. I don't know who was more disappointed me or Buck. Buck has been very supportive of my taking the job. I miss the sex but miss him more. He still plans on selling the house. Luis helped clean out all of grandpa's old wood working stuff in the basement. I talk to Luis occasionally, he and Maria are still going strong. Maria will be heading back to school in a couple of months. I wonder if they can survive that transition. Mom and Joy usually call once a week. For now they both seem very happy. Karen has not said a word about Buck.

By the end of the first month I got to know several people. As in all situations little groups form. The bar scene is like any other, I soon tired of that. There were many nerds her of course. Good people to hang out with for a day or two. But I was not a good gamer or computer junkie. I seemed to gravitate to the younger married people. There were some who brought their spouses with them. It was most like home, good people and great conversations. Unlike the single people I was not getting hit on either. There is a strict employee code in the company. Sexual relations with a coworker is strictly forbidden without management approval. I am sure it goes on but it is not prevalent.

By the end of June Sandra and I were reassigned to another floor of the business. I was no longer working on human resources for the English employees. Instead we were working on proposals for employees back in the states. One day I saw the city of the office we were working on. It was the same city Buck had talked to Walt about at dinner that night. It was the world headquarters of Consolidated. The main factory just down the road was all but shuttered, less than ten percent of the people still work there.

If I was correct Acme was looking at options to buy Consolidated just like Buck had suggested. I didn't say anything. It was not a done deal as far as I could tell. These were just proposals, data collection, cost estimates. Nothing was marked private but then we were in England. Who would know? Each day I kept track of the progress. Deadlines became shorter and shorter. Then one day I get a call. It's Melissa, Walter's wife.

"Rey, Walt and I just flew in with the kids. Walt says he can spare you for a few hours tomorrow after lunch. Would you like to come meet the kids and come to dinner with us?" She asked her excitement quite evident.

"Absolutely!" I replied.

That night I talked to Buck and gave him the good news. He was so excited for me. We talked for a half an hour. I asked him if there was any news from home. He said the realtor Nathan was out and they had a plan to list the house. The Nathan wanted to get the house on the market during summer so interested families could get the kids registered for school. I was sad to hear it but he seemed determined to sell it. We talked about Luis and of course Maria. They were making plans on how to be together when she went back to college. Luis even suggested moving the business there!

On a hunch I called up Luis, Maria answered. We talked for a few minutes you could tell she was still in love with the little brat. I was happy for her, he really is a great guy. Luis came on the phone. We talked about Maria. It was clear he was still madly in love. We talked business. LLuis said it was good but not great. Then we talked about Buck. Luis explained that Buck missed me of course. Luis explained that the house was looking good almost ready to sell.

"Almost?" I asked.

"The master suit has not been touched." Luis explained.

"He still will not go in?" I asked.

"I offered to do it for him, he just can't seem to say yes." Luis sounded exasperated. "You are the only person he has ever let in that room."

It struck me at that moment Luis was right. I knew Buck had probably gone in when no one was around. I could smell his scent at times. I but knew he wouldn't allow anyone else to go in. That was kind of creepy.

"Do you think he will list it?" I inquired knowing what Buck just told me.

"Don't know? He says no, but when he found out you weren't pregnant he said yes!" Luis replied.

"He told you I was not pregnant?" I was stunned. Buck never talks about his private life.

"Surprised me too! Rey he misses you." Luis didn't need to remind me. "Wish I could buy it and give it to him. I would but all my money is in the business. Can't swing that right now."

"Why would you give to him?" I asked. "If he doesn't want it?"

"Rey he made me who I am! Do you think I would own my own business? I have a new house and drive a nice car. Do you think I could marry someone like Maria if he had not brought us home?" Luis was getting excited. "I would be dead or in jail. I owe him my life! I may never be as good a man as he is, but I will keep trying, I owe him that."

"But the house?"

"All he keeps talking about is that a family needs to live there. He has this ...you know how he can be...it's like he needs everyone and everything to have a purpose. For Buck the house needs a family. It had one with the family when he grew up. Then he had a family with you and me. It's like he thinks the house needs another family and soon. Call me crazy but I think that's it."

We talked some more, then we hung up. I had so much to think about at work and now this. I had money to buy the house but knew Buck would never stand for it. If the house needed a family I was determined to be the one that supplied it.

The next morning Sandra and I were in Walt's office talking business with several other employees. Walt never came right out and said they were planning on buying any company. I sure seemed an offer was being considered. When the meeting was over he asked Sandra and me to stay.

"Sandy I need you and Rey to head up some things for me." Walt said all business like. "I have suspicions there is someone high up in this company that is working for other interests. I need people I can trust. I will be asking you and Rey to handle some delicate documents. If this merger is to take place I can't have it leak out before we are ready to announce it."

"Sure Walt what can we do?" Sandra asked.

"For now just what you are doing. I don't want anyone to get suspicious." He looked serious. "I will have you both doing small projects reporting directly to me."

"I understand." Sandra replied.

"Rey you are spending the afternoon with Melissa and the kids. When you do I have a package I want you to deliver to a man who will be meeting you later today." Walt explained.

We talked for another half hour. Walt explained that while he and the family were in town I would be spending part of the day with Melissa and the kids. This was all by design. The fact he was in England was to throw off anyone that we were even looking at a merger. He explained how several facts were leaked from the directors meeting they had a few weeks back. People were calling and asking him tough questions. He decided to come to England months earlier than planned to quell the rumors. I asked Walt if I could speak to him in private. Sandra left us when Walt was finished.

"Walt are planning on buying Consolidated?" I asked point blank.

"Why would you think that?" He asked surprised I mentioned them by name.

I explained what triggered my suspicions. I explained the proposals that suggested the Acme corporate office could be relocated to the Consolidated headquarters.

"The reason I ask is because Buck is intent on selling his house. If there is a possibility Acme would relocate there I could easily drive that daily." I explained.

"There is no guarantee this would go through." Walt warned.

"But we would know in a year or so right? He can sell it then if it doesn't work out." I suggested smiling.

"Rey Ann, you cannot tell Buck." Walt explained. "If you told him and anyone found out I would have to fire you. You could be charged with insider trading."

"What if I bought the house? Could I do that?" I hoped he would agree.

"As long as you pay fair market price. It would be helpful if you bought it privately. That way there would be no public records." Walt suggested.

"Thank you Walt. I will make sure I don't tell him anything." I promised.

Melissa and I greeted each other with a warm hug and a kiss on the cheek. I think we were equally happy to see each other again. She introduced me to Zack and Mindy her children. They really didn't have much planned for the day so we just went sightseeing. At three we went to see Big Ben. A man approached me. After telling me his name I handed him a large envelope. The kids were fading fast and so was Melissa. I suggested we head back to the apartment. I made us some tea as she put the kids down for a nap. I joined her on the couch.

"So tell me what was that all about?" Melissa asked.

"Something for Walt. I don't know what was inside." I said truthfully.

"For the company?" She asked.

"I would really rather not talk about it." I said firmly. She looked hurt. "I am sorry Melissa, but I really can't say."

She put her hand on my face and gently held it there. "Walt will be happy to know you did not tell me about the merger." She grinned. Melissa did something so unexpected. She kissed me softly on the lips.

"Buck asked me to deliver that!" She gave me a wicked grin. "But... I really do miss you Rey!"

I was stunned not only what she said but the way she said it. I could tell there was a hidden meaning. I am not into women. I never even thought of trying it. The way she kissed me made me feel she kissed women like that before.

"Buck asked you to kiss me?" I was stunned.

"Well he told me to tell you he missed you. The kiss was my way of showing it." Melissa pulled me into another longer and firmer kiss.

"Melissa I like you but I am not wired that way?" I said politely. My head spinning. What did I do to make her think I was interested in women?

"I know. The first kiss was a clue the second confirmed it. I am sorry I just had to find out for sure!" She asked. "Are you mad I did it?"

I thought about it for a few seconds. It was a new experience but not repulsive. In fact it was quite nice. Still I did not have those types of feelings.

"It was a surprise. A nice surprise I will say, but ..."

"I understand. As long as I did not offend you!" Melissa still held my face. I had not moved away which surprised me.

"Are you?" I stopped before labeling her.

"Gay?" No, maybe slightly bi, but Walter and the kids are my life now. Walter fulfills all my needs, but I do miss the way a woman kisses." She blushed.

"So you have? Women I mean?" I whispered.

"I few times. Experimented I guess. I would not trade it for a man. Especially a man like Walt!" She admitted. "I could never do anything to hurt him. He saved my life!"

Again it was the way she said it. I thought back to Buck saving me. I leaned in and kissed Mel firmly. I held it a bit longer than needed just to make a point. I pulled back it was Melissa's turned to be surprised.

"What was that for?" She blushed.

"Just returning Buck's kiss." I winked. "Mel there is one thing you could do that I miss."

"What is that Rey?" She smiled.

"Hold me. I miss being held!" I was embarrassed to ask.

"Oh Rey! I know how you feel!" Melissa kissed my cheek then pulled me to her my back settled into her breast my head resting on her shoulder. Her arms wrapped around my midsection. "I love when Walt just cuddles. I feel so safe and loved."

"Buck makes me feel the same way." I admitted. I snuggled deep against her. Feeling a bit playful I took one hand and placed it on my breast.

"This is the way Buck would do it!" I giggled. Mel squeezed my tit firmly.

"Well we would not want to disappoint him would we?" She laughed.

I fell asleep just after she did wondering about what she meant when she said Walt saved her life. As for the physical contact? I was surprised how much enjoyed her touches. For me it was not sexual but more of a sisterly closeness. I planned to let her kiss me again.

Each day I would meet up with Mel and the kids. Most days I had a package to deliver or pick up. Some days we just played in the park. Mel and I went to France to shop one weekend. We were like a couple of giddy teenagers those two days. Holding hands at times, we kissed quite often. True to her word she never made any sexual advances even when we slept in the same bed. She spooned me and held my bare tit under my top but that was the extent of our contact. We talked about how the bond we felt was physical but not sexual. It was like we were sisters separated at birth. I was sad when the time came for her and the kids to go home.

The merger seemed to be going forward. As far as I could tell there were no more leaks. I had talked to Luis about buying the house. He said he would do all he could to help but suggested I move fast. He talked to Nathan who had just put up a sign first of July. Nathan said he would help out for a small fee. Walt helped me out by having a friend of his call Nathan and inquire about houses with specific features. The large shop being one. He put in an offer that Buck accepted. They delayed it as much as they could by having a house inspection and going on vacation. Something needed to happen before the end of August or Buck could sell it to another buyer.

I was due to be home the last two weeks of August, so the appointment was set up the Wednesday after I returned so I could be there. Buck confirmed the sale on my next call home. He seemed relieved but not excited. Luis said Buck told him the house was sold as is. Buck could take only his personal belongings and his tools. The last week in England was by far the hardest. I was missing Buck more and more each day. The plane took off and it was all I could do not to hyperventilate. When the wheels touched down my emotions ran wild. Suddenly I wondered if he still loved me as much as before I left. Walking down the gang plank I headed to the exit carrying the only bag I brought home.

Buck looked just like I left him but a bit tanner. His eyes light up when he saw me a broad smile crossed his face. Just his smell made me quiver in desire. Oh how I missed those big strong arms around me. His kisses made my knees give out. I wrapped my arms around his neck just to keep from falling. I blubbered on and on and then he said it.

"I love you Rey! I didn't realize how much I missed you until just now!" He whispered.

"I love you too Buck!" I could barely get out.

We must have stood there five minutes before I finally let go. The trip home was catching up some more. We stopped for lunch. The plane food, well they call it food long digested. When we pulled into the drive I looked at the old house. Buck had been very busy.

"The house looks great Buck! Are you sure you want to sell it?" I asked to see if he was still committed. There was a sale pending sign attached to the post for Nathan.

"Some guy from the city is buying it sight unseen. He and his family are coming down Wednesday to check it out." Buck said with no emotion. "Wants it furnished. Strange fellow if you ask me. I had to fix a few things based on the inspection."

"Where are you going to live?" I asked.

"Luis said I could stay with him. At least until we decide where we want to put down roots." Buck opened the front door for me. "Guess we will know by the weekend."

As we walked in I could see he had finished some details inside as well. There was a nervous tension for a few brief moments.

"Buck it is seven hours later for me if we are going to..."

Buck swept me off my feet and headed for the bedroom. I giggled the whole way.

"...I see you feel the same way!" I squealed. I was so excited I wanted him to take me right there. "You better give me a few minutes to freshen up. Promise I won't be long."

"I will be waiting, but not patiently." He teased.

I didn't even bother putting anything on. I knew it would not be there long enough for him to even notice. Besides I didn't want to delay any longer than needed myself. He held up the cover for me to join him in the bed. Any sense of nervousness dissolved the first time his hands touched me and his lips pressed against mine. I could feel his cock brush against my pussy as he positioned himself above me.

"Take me now!" I hissed.

"Gladly!" Buck groaned as his cock split my juicy cunt.

It was not as good as the first time he fucked me but it was close enough. Expectations flew out the window. This was pure pent up lust. He wanted to be in me and I wanted him there. It was like we were never apart. Buck knew just how hard and deep to fuck me. I was surprised we lasted as long as we did, especially me. Buck always lasted longer but the contractions from my pussy must have urged him on. I was well on my way when I screamed out his name. I could feel my nipples get so hard they hurt. My pussy clamped down one last time.

"Cum in me Buck. I want to feel you fill my pussy!" I screamed, the sounds echoing off the walls.

"You're going make me cum you beautiful woman! I feel it! Cum on my cock! Milk me!" He grunted as my orgasm ravaged me.

It was three months of pent up frustration melting away as my body gave way. The orgasm exploding inside me. I could feel him cum fill my pussy. I pushed up hoping his cum would impregnate me at last. I think he felt the same as he drove his cock in me until I could take no more. My womb flooded. I could feel the warm fluid line the walls of my pussy.

"I love you!" I whispered one last time.

Buck rolled me over and let me sleep on him. I woke when he came back to bed not even knowing he left. We fucked three times Sunday. Monday morning we made love before Walt called him. Buck said Walt wanted him to come Tuesday and look at some projects and promised he would be back Wednesday night. Buck told him he would call him back. He did not want to leave me.

I explained my pussy was too sore for sex that he should go. I would stay and clean the house Tuesday. I would spend the night with Luis and meet him back here Wednesday after the buyers toured the house. I didn't push him but I did remind him that we could not be here during the showing. Buck called Walt and said he would drive up Tuesday morning. Monday night we did not have sex but Buck did hold me. It was then I told him about Melissa and me in Europe. The only part I omitted other than how often we kissed was her holding my boobs. The only question he asked is if I was attracted to her. I explained she was more like an older sister. Surprisingly it was left at that. Buck pulled me close and grabbed my tit. God it was good to be home.

Buck kissed me goodbye Tuesday morning. He told me he was sorry he was leaving me after I just got home. I told him I would be waiting for him when he got home with a surprise. As soon as he left I called Walt and thanked him for his help. I called Luis and told him I was ready. He and Maria showed up minutes later. Wednesday Nathan called Buck as he was driving back. Nathan told him the showing went well and the client was very satisfied with the house. The closing would be Friday. The owners would like to move in immediately.

Buck cursed at Nathan explaining he would need time to move his belongings. Nathan told him they could talk in the morning.

I saw him pull in the drive. I ran to the room and completed all of the preparations but one. Soft music was playing. I heard the door close hard. I was sure he was still mad. The scented candles smell helped cover the fumes of fresh paint. I heard him open the fridge and pop open a beer. Buck was walking through the living room in my direction. I secured the last hand cuff just as he called out.

"Rey!" He yelled.

He was almost to the hall. A few more steps and he would see me. I was nervous now not sure how he would react. Had I gone too far? Would he get mad and leave? If he did I had no way of getting free. Another step closer...

"Rey?" He called out.

"In here love!" I could barely speak my mouth was so dry.

"REY!" Buck looked in the room.

He saw me secured spread eagle on the bed in a sheer white nightie. My head propped up on a pillow so I could see him. My legs secured with rope. My hands in handcuffs with a length of rope to reach the bed posts. Still standing at the doorway Buck gave me a wicked smile then looked around the room. He gave me a second look more confused this time.

"What did you do to this room?" I was not sure if he was impressed or mad. "Where did you get that bed?"

"I redecorated, do you like it?" He was too busy looking around to answer. "Luis made the bed for us as a wedding gift!"

"Luis made that for us?" He must have seen it at the shop not realizing who it was for. "Why move it in here I just sold the house?"

I am laying on the bed half naked and we are having this conversation? Really? I need to move this along.

"I told Nathan to tell you I wanted to move in immediately!" I gave him a wicked grin now. "Well love here I am. Welcome home!"

"You! You bought the house?" Buck cocked his head to one side and looked at me as if to ask if it was true. "Why would you do that?"

"Because I love you and I know how much you love this house." I gushed. "I want us to have kids and raise them right here where their parents grew up!"

Buck still stood at the door pacing like he was thinking it all over.

"Well are you going to come fuck me or stand there with a hard on?" I teased him.

"Rey there is something you need to know!" He looked scared.

"Buck you can tell me later. Right now I need you inside me. So unless you are going to call someone to let me out I suggest you come do it yourself!" I held up the key to the handcuffs.

"Come get it! Oh and no hands!" I strained my neck to one side and dropped the key in my mouth.

He hesitated then stepped over the threshold. Once committed he walked the short distance to the bed and sat on the side. Buck slowly removed his shoes, his shirt and then the tee shirt beneath it.

Unbuckling his belt he slipped both his slacks and briefs off together, then his socks. He was naked with a massive hard on.

"So you have been a busy little wench haven't you?" He leaned over and kissed me. I slipped the key to the handcuffs into his mouth. He pulled the key out and set it on the night stand Luis also made. "We'll get back to that in a minute or maybe longer."

"Buck let me loose! Please!" I begged.

"I think I will take advantage of your situation first." He hissed me passionately.

Buck moved between my legs kissing me the whole time. He moved down to my tits. I protested but he ignored me moving to focus on my nipples. The rubbery extensions were stiff and did not yield to his tongue. Holding firm they sent jolts of electricity through my chest. I begged him to fuck me but he just moved lower teasing my pussy lips with his tongue. I gasped loudly when he brushed my clit. Straining against the bonds I tried to keep him there. Buck lapped my cunt. He sucked my lips in his mouth and fucked my pussy with his tongue. Even though the cuffs are lined my wrists were getting sore from squirming on the bed trying to get him to let me cum.

Buck ignored all my pleas to release me. Instead he kept me on the edge of orgasm. Finally when I really could not take any more he sucked my clit in his mouth and rubbed the tip with his tongue. After keeping me from cumming for what seemed like hours my body found the release it so badly craved. My back arched pushing my pussy hard against his mouth and exploded internally. I bucked against him his hands gripped my ass just to stay in contact with my pussy. I couldn't even clamp my legs shut to force him away.

"Oh God Buck you have to stop!" I screamed before I passed out. He pulled up his face covered with my excitement.

"Rey we are just getting started!" He grinned before he kissed me letting me taste myself on his lips and tongue.

Buck got up and stood beside the bed his cock dripping pre-cum.

"Stay there, I will be right back!" He laughed. He walked in the direction of the walk in closet.

"Like I can go anywhere?" I yelled at his back.

I heard what sounded like him turning the dial to the safe mounted in the wall. Next I heard the door open and he reappeared with what looked like a shoe box. He pulled the lid off and looked inside. He looked at me and grinned.

"I'll be back in a minute. Don't go anywhere without me!" He teased me further.

Buck disappeared into the master bath. I could hear water running and Buck humming happily. Shortly later he reappeared with the box and a stack of towels. He set them on the night stand and then walked down the hall returning with a bottle of lube.

"Buck, what are you doing?" I looked at him not in fear but alarmed.

"I am going to talk and you are going to listen. But first we have some details to put in place." Buck pulled a big red ball gag from the box. "Before I put this in place you are going to clean up the mess you started!"

Buck moved on the bed and fed me his dripping cock. I took it in my mouth and sucked his pre-cum from the end. I was hungry with lust and tried to take more but he held back so I could only get the head in my mouth. After a few minutes he was getting close and pulled out.

"Noooooooo!" I protested but he put the gag in my mouth. I could taste the soap residue he must have just washed it with.

"This house deal we will talk about later. For now we will discuss why I am in this room." Buck reached in the box pulling out two small balls one red, the other yellow. "Here hold these." He placed one in each hand. "You think this room has some special meaning and that is why I did not come in. Am I right?" He asked. I nodded.

"Well it does but that is not why I never came in here. We will get to that in a minute." He caressed my nipples hardening them again. "I put you in this room so you would have a place to feel safe from everyone including me. It has its own bath, a generous closet and it was a place no one need enter without your permission. I know you never had the childhood a young girl should have. Being moved around, groped, leered at, and even solicited by your own father. This was your safe place. I never came in here when you were home. I did come in a few times to check on things like the plumbing when you were not. Do you understand now?" I nodded again.

"Now what this room meant to me before you moved in is hard to explain. So I am going to show you. The yellow ball means stop what you're doing, but you don't want to stop completely. Drop it if that is what you feel." Buck pulled out a plastic clip that looks like you close chip bags with. He placed it on my far nipple. There was discomfort but no real pain he waited to see if I would drop a ball.

"The red ball means stop. I will remove any toys and release you. No words will be needed. Red means we are done for the day. Do you understand?" I nodded again. Buck placed another clip on my other nipple. He started caressing my inner thigh brushing up against my pussy making me arch my back again.

"Vicki was scared of the basement so this was to be our little play room." Buck spanked my pussy lightly. I moaned behind the gag. "You remind me of her in many ways. She was passionate and emotional just like you. She liked to play little games too. I have some of her favorite toys here." Buck pointed to the box I could not see in. He continued.

"But you are so different as well, she was so carefree, impulsive, easily led astray." Buck untied one leg from the bottom post and moved to the other. "She paid the ultimate price for her indiscretions. Rey I did love her. I didn't think I could ever love someone as much as I loved her. I was wrong. I love you more, much more."

He untied the other leg then pulled it over my head and secured it to the bed post with my arm. Buck then did the same with the other leg. "You are everything good about her but you understand me like she never did. You want to make me as happy as I want to make you!" He placed a large pillow under my lower back and covered it and the bed with at least three towels.

Buck rubbed my exposed pussy the juices still flowing over my asshole. He teased my brown star threatening to slip a finger inside. Tied as I was there was little I could do to escape his torment. He move between my legs and licked my pussy so I could watch his tongue bring me close to the edge one more time. Suddenly he dipped lower I felt his tongue at my ass hole. This was a new experience! A little orgasm flushed quickly through my body. His tongue probed just the opening my body twitched with each gentle thrust. He sat up his face covered again with my juices and gave me another wicked grin. Buck was having fun. I was so excited I wouldn't let him stop if he wanted to. His finger circled my asshole then teased the opening.

He had me all slippery and feeling nasty in a good way. I wondered how it would feel if he did stick it in. He had teased me in the shower several times but my ass is now clearly on display and vulnerable like never before. Buck pulled out a slender dildo not much bigger than his finger from the box. I knew right away what he was going to do with it. I was terrified and at the same time anticipating what would happen next. I watched with bated breath as he lube the dildo and my ass at the same time.

"Don't forget the balls in your hands." He whispered. The feeling of the slender intruder opening my asshole I cannot describe. "Breathe Rey, relax and push back gently." Buck explained his voice dripping with concern.

He watched my hands to see if I dropped a ball but all I could think about is how incredibly wicked this was. The dildo had a slight taper then a narrow ridge with a large flange on the end. My asshole stretched blissfully. Buck was pushing so slow I could adjust to it easily. There was a further stretch and then I felt the dildo pull into my ass gripping the back of the taper. Another mini orgasm oozed from the area of my ass.

My nipples were now starting to heat up a bit the gentle clamps had now been on long enough to affect them too. I was so overwhelmed with all of these feelings when Buck lined his dripping cock up with my pussy. I had a firecracker of an orgasm the moment the head went in. There was no chance I could drop the balls my hands clasped tightly in fists. Buck pushed deeper. My pussy could hardly take him when it was just him but now with the dildo in my ass it was tighter yet. I tried to wiggle to stretch myself out but his cock was still too big.

I was yelling in my gag. I needed him to go faster! All Buck heard was mumble. He was in charge and he knew it. I wouldn't have it any other way at the moment. Finally he picked up the pace. Buck was using my pussy for his own enjoyment right now. His cock pounded me, his balls slapped the dildo in my ass with the same rhythm. I was on the verge of another orgasm, a big one. I had to pee! On the next stroke a little slipped past as my muscles were no longer able to hold it all in.

"Did you just piss on me?" Buck asked looking down. My eyes bulged out I thought he would be grossed out. "That is so naughty of you baby! Do it again!" Buck looked between us. "It's ok, let it go, it will feel great!"

His cock swelled in my pussy my whole body was in overload. My wrists and ankles tied to the head board. My tits now had a soft glow about them. My ass over stimulated by the dildo bouncing with his balls. Buck's fat cock stretching my pussy and now my bladder starting to empty from the pressure. If just one more part of me gets touched I will have a thermonuclear meltdown! Buck knew it, he knew I was ready to pop and so was he! I felt the surge push my pussy walls further. The molten lava coated my cervix like I desperately needed. His thumb strummed my clit...God no not my clit! A second surge washed the first load of cum aside this one trying to impregnate me.

The explosion started. I lost all control of my body. All I could see and feel is red hot magna flow through every nerve in my body! I was on a cloud drifting down to earth. It was so peaceful I didn't want to get off it. I felt that calloused hand I grew to love pull me tight and cup my tit just like it always did.

Gone were the restraints. The warm glow from my nipples reminded me what was once there. My ass missed the little missile that started all of this. My pussy felt slimy as the lips rubbed against each other. I jerked awake the strong arm keeping me from being too violent.

"Welcome back honey." Buck whispered. I pushed back to make sure it was him and smiled as his cock nestled between my ass cheeks.

"Buck we need to talk!" I rolled over facing him. His concern turned to a smile as he saw I was not mad. "There is no way we can do that again...today!" I teased him.

"I thought I died and went to heaven!" I gushed. "That is way too intense to repeat any time soon!"

"So I take it you liked it?" He was kidding of course.

I got up, closed the door and locked it. "We are never leaving this room!" I bent over and kissed him the weight of my tits filled his hand the nipples almost begging for more.

"I need to go pee! When I get back it is my turn!" I threatened him.

"I'll be waiting!" He teased.

I headed to the bathroom and sat down to pee. There was this unique feeling coming from my asshole. It's hard to explain, almost a craving to have him put it back in. I touched my nipples they were still sensitive but not painful in the least. For brief second I thought about Karen and how she seemed to crave punishment. I could never enjoy taking it to the level she has, but I feel I have a better understanding of her now. I can see how losing Buck would be hard. I saw the towels piled in the shower. The toys setting in the second sink. I was tempted to take the dildo back and use it on Buck, or even myself but thought better of it.

I did ride Buck to another small orgasm but my body needed recharged. He did fill my pussy a second time and had a fun time doing it. I fell asleep on top of him again.

Thursday we spent the day together. We had that talk about the house. We talked about how I paid Nathan a hefty check for his efforts. Nathan tried to give it back but Buck insisted he take it. People seldom argue with Buck if they know him. Later that day we talked more. I cleared the air on several subjects with Buck. He seemed to take it well and admitted he tends to do things he wants without input because that is the way he always did it. I too apologized for doing things (like buying a whole bedroom set!) without talking I him. There was blame enough to go around. Fortunately we were able to discuss it without hard feelings. Maybe we did make a good couple after all!

We talked about Walt and the business. Buck knew what was going on with the merger, but neither one of us talked about it. We talked at length about my job at the company and how much I liked it. We decided that I would continue to work there at least until we started a family. Which brings me to the point of no blow jobs. Buck feels we should not waste any opportunity to get pregnant. He feels there will be ample opportunity for oral sex if I want to do it in the future. The man is truly committed once he sets his mind to something.

Friday night we headed over to see Luis and Maria. She was due back in college any day now. I could tell Luis was worried. Buck thanked him for the bedroom set. Since we are staying he talked to Luis about new kitchen cupboards and bathroom vanities for the master bathroom. Luis was surprised Buck went in the room but he and I knew that was a conversation for another day.

Joy and Karen had moved over the summer. They now were about 125 miles away where Joy took a position with a large school district. Joy has worked her way up the ladder nicely. I look up to her as a true role model for women, especially black women. We had lunch with Joy and Karen then we girls went shopping (of course). During the day I could tell both Joy and Karen were interested in what Buck was doing while I was gone. They asked about him all afternoon. It started with little questions, but they all added up to one thing. They both missed him.

My plane did not leave until Monday, Labor Day, so Sunday we spent almost the entire day in each other's arms.

I yelled "I love you Buck!" in the terminal one more time. I think he would be hurt if I didn't. Loneliness set in fast again but I felt we had come a long way in a week. The only immediate goal I had was to get pregnant as soon as possible. Sadly my period started almost a week to the day I returned.

The word of Acme's offer to buy out Consolidated had gotten out. I had been back at work almost a month when the news broke. At the office it was all that was discussed for days on end. The board at Consolidated viewed it as a hostile takeover and the rumor was they were going to fight it. Walt was due in London tomorrow. My understanding is he has been visiting plants and offices around the world to make the pitch to the financial people.

Wednesday afternoon Walt called me in his office. Inside were several men and ladies I had not met before. They were all talking to each other in some gibberish I didn't understand. Walt seemed to be more nervous than I had ever seen him. This merger was taking its toll on him. He looked pale and withdrawn. After he introduced me Walt asked me to join them at the table.

"Folks we need fresh eyes. We need someone that has no stake in this game. If we can reach him I have a friend I would like to talk to." He looked around the room. They all were waiting to see who it was. "Rey do you think you can reach Buck?"

I almost started laughing but he looked serious. I looked around the room and they were all looking back at me.

"Sure. I can try." I dialed Buck from the office. The phone rang twice before he picked it up. I pushed the speakerphone button.

"Hello this is Buck!"

"Buck, this is Rey!" I said happily.

"Rey! I am so glad you called! Is anything wrong or did you call just to get me excited?" He teased.

"Buck!" I tried to cut him off but the delay was too long.

"I know you miss me but just remember what is in store when you get home!" He stopped talking then.

"Buck! Honey I am here with Walt and some people here at Acme. I have you on speaker phone!"

"Oh shit, guess I shouldn't have said that then?" He laughed with the rest of the room. "Sorry honey, my bad."

"That's ok Buck. I do miss you. Maybe I can talk later but Walt would like to discuss something with you now." I looked for Walt to cut in. I felt everyone looking at me wondering what was waiting for me. I was embarrassed but thrilled they knew he loved me.

"Buck I am looking for a fresh set of eyes to look at this thing we have here. We are a bit divided and I would like your opinion." Walt said.

Walt went on to give him the basic details of the major sticking point. What to do with the CEO of Consolidated.

"Walt as you know I think the bastard is only in it for the money. My first reaction is to keep him on then fire him without a dime." Buck was getting agitated. "But Walt this is business. Having a guy like that around would be like inviting a cancer in your body. He wants ten million I hear. You want to give him three. Is that correct?"

"Well a few other perks too. Stock options and the such." Walt replied.

"Walt I say fuck him! Give him fifteen if you have to. Walt he needs to go away for good. No stock. No options. In fact the contract should state he cannot own one share of Acme for the next five years. This bum would be like the Terminator! He would never die. Next thing you know you have a sock owner battle, and proxy fights. Pay him to go away and stay away. Then you can focus down the road and not looking in the rear view mirror!"

"Buck thank you for your time. You have given us something to think about." Walt said. I knew from the water cooler Walt felt the same way. I guess buck just cut through the crap and said it bluntly.

"Walt you have some good people there. I know they will try and do the right thing. If you are going to win a tug of war you need everybody on your team pulling in the same direction!"

Walt picked up the phone and talked to Buck a few more minutes then hung up. He thanked me before I left the room.

Walt left the next day but not before thanking me for calling Buck. I told him I he needed to take care of himself. I then asked how Melissa and the kids were doing. I missed them not coming this time. We talked a bit he asked me how I was holding up. I explained that all of the long hours kept me busy. I liked the company and I did enjoy the work. Besides I would get to go home for Christmas and New Year's.

When my next period came it was a reminder that I was still not pregnant. The word came down that Acme had finalized buying Consolidated and the CEO and several of his key people would be getting a big severance package. I learned later they were removed from all options and not allowed to own stock

Walt called from Italy one day and asked if I would be available to pick Melissa up from Heathrow Airport. He was to be back in England in two days. It might be a few days longer if he had to go to Spain and Germany before France. Sandra gave me Melissa's travel plans and a company credit card. Walt made it clear the company would pay for me to chaperone his wife around until he came back to town.

Melissa looked as happy as ever to see me. I was a bundle of excitement to see her. We hugged then she gave me a quick kiss on the lips and a wink. The cab took us to the hotel she was staying at just around the corner from my apartment. She explained the kids were staying with Walt's sister for a few days. They lived close by and went to the same school. Melissa was looking forward to seeing Walt. He had left two weeks ago and has been on the run ever since. She asked about Buck. I told her the story about the house.

She invited me up to the room, it was a nice suite, but not extravagant. Once inside she gave me a passionate kiss telling me how excited she was to see me again. It was late and she was tired. Mel insisted in ordering room service for us both. After we ate she called Walt and left a message. We sat together on the bed watching some British comedy show. Mel reached over and took my hand in hers. I looked at her to see what she wanted. I could see she was nervous.

"Rey, I want you to stay with me until Walt comes back. Do you think you want to do that?" Her hand told me she was not sure she should be so bold. I think I was more nervous than her.

"Mel, do you think that is a good idea?" The question was obvious.

"Rey, I would never do anything you didn't want me to." She said her voice quivering.

"And if I did want you to do something what would stop you?" The question was could I trust myself. "What if I thought I did and then after didn't?"

"I see your point." She replied. Her hand gripped mine tighter. I could tell she was afraid I would leave her alone. "No sex?"

"Define sex." I asked just to be sure.

"No oral?" She looked to see if she offended me.

"Agreed! I like it when Buck does but I still need his cock." I giggled nervously. "Toys?"

"Do you have any?" She asked.

"No. Do you?" I countered.

"At home, but not here." She assured me.

"We should go to my place so I can get some clothes." I replied.

"Oh Rey, thank you." Mel leaned in for another kiss. I knew she wanted more but I guess she was afraid she may scare me away.

It was a damp and gloomy evening. We walked to my apartment I packed a bag and toiletries. On the way back we held hands. Walt called a bit later. Mel talked to him in private. Mel then handed me the phone.

"Rey, I can't thank you enough. I will make sure you get a little extra bonus for the holidays." Walt said. "Mel says you agreed to stay with her at the hotel?"

"Yes, if that is ok with you?" I was suddenly embarrassed.

"Rey, I couldn't be happier for you both!" He said that with much too much enthusiasm. "Rey, she gets lonely when I am gone. Mel likes to be held. Will 'you' do that for me?"

"I think so, I mean, if you are ok with that?" I stumbled.

"Rey I trust you to do the right thing. As far as I am concerned she couldn't be in better hands. I know Buck feels the same way about Mel." Walt was slyly telling me he and Buck knew what was going on. "Make sure she sticks to the rules and enjoy your time together."

"And if she doesn't?" I wanted to make sure he knew I understood what he was saying. "What then?"

"Rey, no always means no. Thank you Rey!" Walt hung up before I could say anything.

Mel had me shower first. I was almost surprised she didn't offer to take one with me. I was wrapped in a big white towel when she passed me naked heading in the bathroom. I finished and threw on a pair of semi sexy lace panties and a spaghetti strap tee shirt. I was on the couch reading the brochure with the sights we might be able to visit when she came out.

Mel is nicely put together for a woman with two kids. Five six or so, medium build, her tit's sag very little for a mother that nursed two kids. They are large DD cup, pale with bright pink nipples, smaller than I would have expected. Her short dark hair matched the patch above her waxed pussy. Her hips proportional to her height shapely tapering to nicely defined legs. I knew for a fact she works out often. At one time she was working with a trainer.

Mel walked closer. She was standing above me drying her hair with the towel. Her tits jiggled as she rubbed her hair vigorously. Her pussy within arm's reach.

"What ya reading?" She looked at me checking her out.

"Just some things we could do tomorrow if you wanted." I held up the pamphlet.

Mel laid the towel down on the couch in front of me. She sat down between my legs and leaned against me like I had done to her the last time we were together. She took my arms and wrapped them around herself. One she guided to her naked tit.

"Hold me Rey!" I shifted slightly her shorter body adjusted and soon we found a position of comfort.

I could smell her shampoo, and her clean skin. There was just a touch of perfume. She wanted me to smell her, why else perfume?

"You told Walt the rules?" I asked her.

"I tell Walt almost everything." She didn't turn like I expected her to. "Don't you tell Buck everything?"

"Well I guess I do." I thought about it. "I told him we kissed."

"Was he mad?" She asked.

"I think he only smiled come to think of it." I replied. I thought back but it was fuzzy.

"I bet Walt told Buck what I told him." She guessed. "I wouldn't lie to Buck about what we did or will do."

"I don't think I could but thanks for the heads up." I said.

"I lied to Walt once. I could never do that again." She didn't elaborate. "Did he give you the no means no speech?"

"He did. Why did he do that?" I asked.

"Your hands are so long and slender." She ignored my question.

Mel picked up my right hand my left still cupping her breast. She compared it to hers then interlocked our fingers. It was erotic seeing my black fingers intertwined with her white ones. She shifted slightly and turned her neck offering her lips to me. I was the dominate one now. I leaned forward and kissed her firmly, Mel begged to stay in contact until the last moment.

"I love your kisses!" She cooed.

"You're pretty good yourself." I whispered. Mel shifted a bit more offering her lips again.

When I touched her lips this time she offered me her tongue. I accepted. Her left hand found mine on her tit and squeezed them both. I could feel her moan in my mouth. She kissed harder and squeezed my hand and her tit again. With our hands still intertwined I took the hint and rolled her nipple between my thumb and forefinger. She cried out again. Then without warning she broke free of my lips.

Our breathing a bit erratic she leaned back into me.

"You ok?" She whispered.

"I think so?" I pinched her nipple to tease her.

"I have never been with a black woman before. I love how your skin looks against mine!" She rubbed our hands over her stomach. There were no stretch marks but the skin was slightly softer. No doubt the results of two kids. "Some women hate their tummy after kids. I am proud of mine. It is like a badge of honor."

She released my right hand and grabbed my wrist. Mel moved it over her stomach. I spread my fingers. The dark brown skin of my hand on her white skin was very erotic. She moved my hand lower on her body. My pinky brushed her furry patch. Mel turned back to kiss me. I wanted to kiss her, we locked together, our tongues played again. I squeezed her tit, she moaned, then moved my right hand lower still. My fingers now brushed over her patch of pussy hair the smooth skin below grazed the tips of my fingers. She rolled her hips. Mel brought her pussy closer still. She pulled loose from our kiss.

"No means no Rey?" She reminded me letting go of my wrist. We had gone too far to turn back now! I couldn't disappoint her. She needed me. Besides we hadn't broken any rules. My hand went lower on its own and slid along her slit.

"Yes!" Mel whimpered.

I bit her shoulder gently. Her right hand came up and pulled my head back to her lips.

"Please Rey?" Her eyes pleaded with me as well.

My fingers spread her pussy lips, the dampness waiting inside. Her moans filled my mouth. Mel's hand held my head so she could push back harder. Mel spread her legs the right going over mine the left resting on the back of the couch. Melissa had just offered me her pussy. Her cunt lips parted and I had no trouble slipping two fingers inside. She pulled loose from my lips she looked down with my black fingers in her cunt.

"Cum for me slut!" I whispered. I bit gently on her earlobe pulling on the hoop. Her body shuddered as I degraded her "You like those black fingers in your white pussy don't you slut?"

"I love your fingers in me Rey Ann" Mel groaned. Her right hand rubbed her clit as my fingers curled inside. Her ass pushed back into my pussy. I could feel my panties getting wet. Her left hand gripped tight over mine squeezing her tit hard.

"I love you Rey! I love 'your' fingers in me. It's not your color it's you I love." Mel sighed.

I almost stopped but my need was growing with hers. Her pussy was so wet I could hear my fingers churning her juices. She offered me her mouth again. I accepted and then slipped a third finger in her pussy.

She bucked against my hand and moaned in my mouth. I pinched her nipple hard. Mel's whole body jerked as a massive orgasm overtook her. Her legs clamped shut she pulled from my mouth to get enough air to breathe again.

I pulled my fingers from between her legs rubbing her clit as I did. I was thinking of licking them clean. Mel guided it to her mouth. Suddenly I needed to taste her! I gripped her chin and pulled her lips to mine.

"Are you sure?" She whispered.

Without hesitation I kissed her. The first taste of pussy other than mine was intoxicating. My right hand spread her legs. Her cunt now obscenely on display. I slipped the three fingers back in her pussy. Mel pushed up from the couch offering herself even more. I pulled my fingers out shiny with her cum and licked them clean. It was so erotic for me. The taste not pleasant but intoxicating just the same. I repeated it. This time her ass lifted from the couch almost a foot offering her dripping cunt to my fingers. I pulled them out but instead of licking them clean I smeared her essence around her lips. Mel turned and pounced on me our lips locked in yet another kiss.

"Do you trust me Rey?" Mel finally asked.

"I don't know?" I said truthfully.

"Come with me!" Mel stood with some urgency. She stripped my top off and pulled at my soaked panties. Leading me to the bed she pulled back the covers and pushed me down lying on the bed. She was like a cat in her quick but fluid movements. Her soft hands guided me until instincts took over and I knew what she wanted. Her gaping pussy drenched in juices on display. Her clit red and swollen hovered over mine. She looked at me checking one last time to make sure she was breaking no rules. I thought for a second, her smile confirmed my suspicions.

I grabbed her hips tugging lightly. Mel lowered her pussy to mine. The feeling of her damp heat on my clit was exquisite! We both watched as her clit rubbed mine, pink on pink. She shifted slightly now rubbing pussy to pussy. I let her sex me this way, my pussy adding to the copious amount of juices.

You could hear our pussies smacking together the scent rising to greet our noses. We watched each other's pussies one black one white both pink on the inside. Mel groped my much smaller tits. Her white hands now contrasted on my black skin. We searched each other's eyes confirming the bond we shared. Then with eyes half closed my pending orgasm sprouted.

"Cum my little sister!" Mel pleaded. I opened my eyes she shifted back to my clit. "I love you Rey not as a lover but like the sister I never had. Please cum for me!"

I reached up unable to talk and gripped her hand. Our fingers intertwined again. Mel said just what I was feeling. What I wanted to say. I moaned loudly announcing my pending climax. Mel let me control the pace and pressure.

"Kiss me!" I pleaded. Mel knew I was over the edge. She moved her thigh to my pussy. I pulled her in for a kiss and moaned as the first wave hit like a tidal wave. I humped her thigh she stated to hump mine. The second wave hit so hard I broke the kiss arching my head back and moaning at the ceiling.

"Yes baby keep cumming!" Mel hissed pressing her thigh tighter to my cunt.

She kissed my neck, then nibbled on my long hard nipple. I lost all hope of not falling under her spell. I wrapped my arms around her pulling her back up to kiss me. Our tits mashed together as my chest rubbed hard against hers. My climax finally loosened its grip on the rest of my senses.

"I can't help it Melissa! I love you!" She pulled me tight we kissed long and deep. She was still rubbing my thigh with her pussy. I remember how sensitive my ass was with Buck. I reached around lubing my finger with our juices. I rubbed around her anus, then touched the center.

"Do me sister! Mel hissed pressing hard on my thigh. I lubed it again with pussy juice. This time she pushed back on my finger her asshole opened slightly inviting my finger in. I pushed gently just the nail was in when she bucked hard. "Oh Rey I am cumming again!"

She rode my thigh so hard and fast I thought she would slide off. I pulled my finger from her ass, grabbed her cheek and held her in place.

"We should take another shower?" Mel was stroking my face. I was moving stray strands of hair from hers.

"Can I trust you?" I asked knowing she wanted me to go with her.

"Probably not!" She kissed me yet again. This probably a dozen times since we both orgasmed. "Then again my pussy is so sensitive probably yes!"

"Do I have to sleep in the wet spot?" I teased. Mel looked behind her. There was still more than half the bed we had not fucked in.

"I you let me hold you, we neither one will need to!" She teased back.

"Can I trust you?" I asked again.

"I promise not to break the rules!" She said coyly.

"Sisters?" I asked.

I grabbed her wrist stopping her from caressing me. It was a serious question and I wanted a serious answer. Mel knew I was scared. She knew she could have had her way with me. Her smile faded, she became serious.

"A sister would never let you do something she knew you would regret later." Mel pulled my hand from her wrist. I willingly released it showing I trusted her. She stroked my cheek. "Rey my place is with Walter, your place is with Buck. I will never forget that or allow you too."

"Promise?" She had to know I needed to hear it.

"I promise." Melissa kissed me gently. Just a peck to reassure me she was sincere.

"A sister with benefits?" She teased.

"That does not sound like any sister I have ever heard of?" I teased back.

"I never had one so I wouldn't know. But if I did I could not love her any more than I love you!" Melissa said. She held back waiting for my response.

"Little sister says, I get to wash you get to dry!" I said mockingly. I pulled her into a sensuous kiss. We shared tongues sealing the deal.

Mel let me wash her but she helped wash me too. She did dry us both. It was all very fun as we laughed and giggled the whole time. We slept naked that night. And every other as it turned out, alternating who would spoon whom.

True to her word Melissa never took advantage of me. We only had 'sex' one other night before Walter arrived. We kissed constantly. Held hands when we were out. And never sat alone if we could avoid it. It was for the most part a sisterly love we shared. That and just a few benefits.

It was a week after Melissa left that I started to feel a bit lonely. I called Buck but he was not available. I called Karen to check up on her. Joy answered after a few minutes of niceties she confide she was glad I called. Karen was having a bad few weeks. She asked me to be gentle. I talked to Karen and she was clearly not happy. She struggled to get a new job when they moved and the one she has she did not like. I tried to cheer her up but was in a funk myself. When we hung up I knew something needed to be done.

I called Buck later. It was so good to just hear his voice. We talked for almost a half hour before I started to tell him about Melissa and the time we spent together.

"Melissa was here last week. Walt was out of town so he had me chaperon her while he was gone." I explained.

"Kind of like letting the fox guard the hen house? Or is the hen guarding the fox house?" He teased.

"Definitely the later! She is a fox you know?" I felt my pussy dampen as I tried to tell him what we had done.

"Did you keep the wolves away?" He asked cryptically.

"No wolves just the fox. But only after the hen made the first move." I hoped he would not get mad.

"I see, do I need to be worried?" I expected him to laugh or something.

"Buck no! It's not like that! We just kiss and hold each other!" I replied bluntly, not exactly telling him the whole truth.

"Just hold each other and kiss?" He asked sounding unconvinced. I said nothing trying to think of how to explain it delicately. "Are you sure?" He probed again.

"Well maybe my hands wandered a bit?" I said honestly. My pussy was turning to mush. I would have stroked myself but I needed him to understand I still loved him! "Melissa was a bit lonely. I guess we both were!"

"Rey I understand I really do. I think it's great the two of you are so close." He said comforting me. "Just as long as you understand how this could affect other people if it goes too far!"

"Buck! I am not gay. I love you! I need you! Sure it feels nice when we are together, but not in the same way. I...she is like a big sister to me!" I said trying to get him to understand.

"Like a big sister?" He asked provocatively.

"Well a little more than just a big sister." I replied then it hit me what he was trying to imply. "No Buck! We never. Not like you and Karen!"

"I deserve that I guess?" He replied a bit pained.

"I didn't mean it that way. I know why you do what you do! I was digging myself in deeper. "We have rules. No oral. No toys!"

"Rey I trust you. You're an adult." He was laughing. "You can tell me all about it when you get home. Ok?"

"Buck. There is the other reason I called you. I want you to go see Karen!" I said firmly. "She needs you!"

"Rey we agreed that was not going to happen again." He said still a bit stung from my joke.

"Buck I know what was said, but I am ASKING you to go see her." I said again with conviction. "I know how I feel without you around. I can only imagine how she feels. Buck I am here. You are there. I know how you feel about this and I appreciate it but if she goes backward. If we did not try and help...Buck please. Do this for me?"

He didn't say anything. I could tell he wanted to say no. I waited to see if he would agree.

"I will go see her." He said reluctantly. "But seeing her is all I will do."

"Thank you Buck! I love you!" I said truly happy he would go even though I was not sure it would help.

We talked about some other things and about me coming home the middle of December for the holidays. Acme was sending us home for two weeks until after the New Year.

I called Karen a week after Buck visited. I did not ask but she did seem much happier. Joy confirmed what Buck told me when we talked. Their visit was strictly no sexual.

Melissa came to visit again two weeks before Thanksgiving. Walt had brought her just to see me. He went on to Germany. The time we spent together was not as intense this time. We still kissed and held hands. We did sleep naked together. We did not finger each other but we rubbed pussies and brought each other off on two different occasions.

Buck was waiting for me at the airport. He swung me around as I wrapped my arms around his neck. We kissed like the long separated lovers we were. The ride home was punctuated by updates on the company here in the states, and about family.

Luis and Maria were dealing with the separation better than we both would have guessed. She came to stay with him on her breaks. Luis would drive up every other weekend to see her. They were planning on a spring wedding after she graduates. I knew from talking with Maria even her parents liked Luis.

I had talked to Joy a few times and Karen once. I didn't get a feel things were getting better. I knew Buck had been up to see them both. Joy said it was good visit but did not give details except to say Buck slept alone both nights. I never asked Buck he didn't offer any details on his own.

The house looked great. Buck had painted it and the shrubs I planted filled in nicely. Buck carried in my luggage and pulled me in his arms.

"Do you want to decompress? I could cook us dinner?" He asked pulling me back to him.

"I could use a shower. Dinner sounds nice." I kissed him. "I have a surprise for you!"

I went to the master bedroom. It brought back memories of the last time I was home. I showered and dressed then met Buck in the kitchen just as he was setting the table.

"Well, well! What do we have here?" He grinned broadly. I sauntered up to him. Buck's hands slipped under the frilly hem and gripped my ass.

"Melissa bought it in Paris for you!" I pressed against him. "It's a French maid's outfit, bought in France!"

"It's not the outfit I was looking at!" He kissed me again.

"If you would have told me that earlier I wouldn't have put it on!" I teased him.

Buck sat down and snapped his fingers. "Serve me food wench!" He laughed.

I flipped the back of my outfit up displaying my ass for him and went about serving the food he cooked. I made him move his chair sideways so I could sit on his lap. I fed us both as we laughed the whole time. He had his hands all over me but I would not allow him to remove any clothing. He watched as I cleaned up and flashed him my ass each time I loaded the dishwasher. I was wiping down the counter when he came up behind me and grabbed my tits from behind.

"No more teasing wench!" Buck teased.

"I thought you would never ask!" I faked being surprised.

"I want you now!" He whispered.

Buck carried me to our room and dropped me on the bed. It did not take long for us to get naked, and even less time to get him inside my pussy. I could feel the heat emanating from his body. The strong manly thrusts of his cock in my pussy. His musk filling my senses as he fucked me. I could feel my pussy being stretched and my nipples raking through the hairs on his chest. Buck reestablished his power over me as I submitted to his sexual need. This is what I wanted. This was what I needed. Melissa is a nice distraction but I need a man. Deep down I knew only Buck could give me what I really wanted, his cum. I wanted Buck's baby!

Buck was usually a passionate and considerate lover. Making sure I was as satisfied as he was if not more. This fuck was all about sex, fast, hard, animal sex. I preferred the other but I was not about to pass up on this opportunity to let Buck let loose. I gripped his cock with my pussy, he groaned in approval. Arching his back he latched onto a hard stiff nipple sending me closer the brink. I moaned urging him on. He was moving so fast and so hard I thought he might cum before I could catch up.

I thrust up with my pelvis begging him to go deeper. Then he did something he had never done while we fucked. Buck wrapped his hands under my ass like usual. He moved a finger to my pussy dipping it in my juices and moved it to my asshole.

"Buck what..." He dipped it in my juices again. He pressed it to my tight hole again. I pressed down on his finger! "...are you doing?" I moaned in pleasure.

I was so aroused I started fucking him back faster yet. His hand following my ass his finger just at the entrance.

"Do you want me to stop?" Hi grunted.

"NNNooooo!" I pushed down harder. He teased me for just as second then pushed just the tip past my sphincter. "MMMMMM!" I whimpered. For a second I thought how I had done that to Melissa.

My pussy contracted, my ass clinched his finger. I yelled as my orgasm spilled over the cliff it had been dammed up on. The water cascaded over my body churning in my pussy and ass. Buck cried out. I could feel his hot cum coat my womb. I wanted him in me deeper but my cervix was already pushed hard against his cock head. Before I knew it he pulled the tip of his finger from my ass, leaving me wishing he would have left it there. He hovered over me, supporting just his upper body, the weight from his lower body pressing me in the mattress. I felt his cock stir again.

"Is that your way of saying you missed me?" I teased as it grew bigger again. I wrapped my legs around him holding on.

"Is that your way of saying you missed me?" Buck teased.

"Roll us over and I will show you how much I missed you!" I taunted him.

Buck did just that knowing I loved to be on top especially after he fucked me hard the first time. I sat up on my knees his cock filling me his hands finding my tits. I looked down on him smiling. I could feel the power between my legs. His broad shoulders, strong arms, even his chiseled face exuded strength. His large calloused hands were rough on my tits, but somehow that is what my body craved. Buck is not a hairy man but what he has is thick and course. I love how it feels against me. I thought of Melissa for just a moment. I thought of how soft and gentle she is. She was nice, this is nicer. I smiled at Buck.

"What?" He asked. I hesitated to tell him. This was our time, It could wait. "What were you thinking about?" He repeated.

The way he asked led me to believe he already knew. I wiggled on his cock. God I loved that feeling. I was definitely not gay, maybe not even bi. I would take this feeling over a woman any day. Still there was something about Melissa. I had never even fantasized about another woman. Any other woman. But when I think of her...?

"Rey, tell me what you're thinking!" Buck asked smiling ever broader. He must have seen I was day dreaming. "Is it Melissa?"

How did he know? I lowered deeper on his cock, I gripped his hands still massaging my tits.

"Yes!" I hissed. I felt his cock swell in my pussy. I dropped down hugging him. Buck thrust up my pussy contracted. "Fuck me Buck. I need you to know I love you!"

"I know Rey! I know you do!" He confirmed.

He was fucking me slow and steady. My body raising with him thrusting from below. I relished the feeling of that power. Knowing he could break me in half if he wanted. Like a wild stallion that would let you ride him. Knowing at any moment they could turn wild again if they wanted. I was panting. I needed to cum! I need him to know it was him I was in love with.

"Oh God Buck! I need you!" I gasped as my clit rubbed against the ridge of his cock. "She is so nice to hold, so gentle, so smooth and so, so soft! But I need a man! Yu Buck are the only man I want. I am in love with you!"

"Cum for me baby. Show me you love me!" Buck whispered. "Let me show you how much I love you!"

"Yes lover, cum in me, fill my naughty pussy!" I gasped. Buck wrapped his arms around me pulling me tight to his body. I felt his hard cock push up. His strong arms pulling me. My tits mashed against him. My clit was sending desperate messages to my brain. "I'm cumming love! I am cumming for you! Fuck me harder! Give me your baby!"

Buck filled my pussy as my orgasm was at its height. Over and over I yelled my love for him. I lay on top of him our hearts beating wildly. Buck was caressing my back and the cheeks of my ass. I moved up to kiss him leaving a trail of cum dripping from my pussy. We kissed for several minutes. He kept looking at me strangely.

"What?" I asked, kissing him quickly.

"You!" He kissed back.

"What about me?" I asked intrigued.

"Actually. Melissa and you?" He kissed me before I could reply. He held the kiss keeping me from talking. "She sees what I do. That's all."

"And what do you see?" I asked perplexed.

"The woman I love." He kissed me again. "Tell your sister you can visit anytime you want...as long as I get you back!"

"Oh Buck you do understand! I love you! I love you with all my heart!" I kissed him over and over.

I fell asleep on his chest. Tired from the trip and well fucked. I was so happy. I couldn't wait to give him my Christmas present!

My welcome home went on for days. Soon we were headed to Luis's for Christmas day with the family. Archie brought his wife and mother along with his infant son. Karen and Joy drove down. Buck and I of course attended as well. Maria was there her parents were due to come that evening. We kept the presents to a minimum. We had a great time taking turns opening them.

Luis and Maria were made for each other. Buck and I were happy to be together. Archie and his family were thrilled to be invited. I even got to hold the little one. Joy and Karen put on a good face but even Luis could tell something was off.

Archie and his family left. Maria's parents were due to arrive in another hour. Luis asked if he could talk to me privately. Once inside his bedroom he asked me to sit down.

"Rey you mean the world to me and so does Buck but I have some things I want to talk about that may upset you a bit." He looked at me I could tell he was nervous.

"Luis, Buck told us long ago to be honest. Like he said I can take bad news, even really bad news but please don't lie to me." I took his hand and squeezed it.

"Ok sis, first Maria and I have set a date. This spring after she graduates." He hesitated.

"That's great! Why so glum?" I was confused.

"Well we want to announce it tonight when her parents arrive. The thing is she wants you to be in the wedding party." He looked terrified as he chose his words. "But she has someone she would like as the maid of honor."

"That's it?" I hugged him firmly. "Luis, this is her day. She can chose anyone she wants. I would be proud to be in the wedding party. But if not that's ok too. I love you and her. As long as I can see the two of you together I will be happy just to watch."

"I knew you would say that but she was worried you might be offended." He smiled.

"Thank you for taking care of it this way. You can both stop worrying." I said happily.

"Great then there is one other thing I need to ask. This is from me. Maria doesn't know I am even asking." He looked more nervous now.

"Shoot!"

"Can you take your ring off for the night?" Luis asked meekly.

"What?" I shot back. "No! Why would you even ask that?" I was hurt to the bone.

"Her parents are coming. If they see you wearing the ring they might ask." He twitched nervously. "How do I explain you are engaged to our uncle?"

"Oh?" It hit me hard. Buck was right sometimes the decisions we make do affect others.

"Look you decide. I trust you." Luis said. He patting the back of my hand. He got up to leave.

"Luis!"

"Yes?"

"Thank you!" I replied.

"For what sis." He stepped back.

"For asking nicely." I looked up at him. I slipped the ring off my finger. "I would not want to hurt you." I rolled the ring in my hand. "Luis?"

"Yes Rey?"

"Does Karen seem distant to you?"

"You too, eh?" He sat back down. "Joy tells me you sent Buck to visit. Maybe after the holidays just you and I could go see her?"

"I have to go back to England but I would like to before I go!"

"We will do it before you go. I will talk to Joy and get it worked out." He kissed my forehead. "You and Buck need to enjoy this time together all you can!"

"Thanks Luis." I stood up and hugged him. "I miss you too you know. I am so proud of you!"

We joined the others. It did not take Buck long to see I took the ring off. He did not say a word but I could tell he was hurt. Maria's parents arrived. It was only then Maria saw the ring was missing too. She glared at Luis and did not look happy. As her parents stepped to greet Buck and Luis, Maria grabbed my arm.

"Rey put your ring back on." She smiled as she whispered.

"Maria maybe after they leave." I turned to face just her.

"Rey! I know what he is trying to do. Please put it on." She glared at me now. I slipped the ring back on my finger. Maria glared at Luis. He blushed with embarrassment.

"Mom, Dad this is Rey Ann. Luis's sister." I shook hands politely. "She and Buck are engaged as well." Maria said clearly.

"Isn't he your uncle?" Her mom asked?

"Yes he is!" I said proudly as I looked at him. She looked at Buck as he smiled back at me proud I would acknowledge it openly.

"Maria has an aunt that married her cousin. They have that same look you two have. Never met a happier couple! Good for you!"

The night was success. Luis and Maria announced the date for the wedding. Luis tried to apologize for the ring deal but I told him it wasn't necessary. I knew his only concern was Maria's parents would be offended and object to their wedding. Buck and I didn't talk about it but I knew he felt the same way. Except our concern for Karen it was a good night.

Once we were at home we got ready for bed. I used the bathroom in the master suit, sending Buck down the hall. I was wrapped in just a satin robe as we sat down around our Christmas tree. Buck was wearing just boxers. There were just the two presents we bought for each other. Buck and I agreed that we would keep it simple. He insisted I go first. I opened a long slender box and inside were a string of pearls.

"Oh Buck they are beautiful!" I moved closer kissing him. "I love them!"

He handed me a card. I opened it. Inside was an invitation to a New Year's Eve party hosted by Walt and Melissa.

"Buck! Really?" I was shocked we were invited. "Can we go?"

"Not dressed like that, you can't!" He teased as he kissed me back.

He opened his present next. With the help of Luis I had bought him a new knife and matching money clip from the brand he likes. He was happy to get such a practical presents and thanked me with a kiss.

"I have one more present for you Buck!" I whispered

"No fair the deal is we just get one apiece!" He acted mad.

"Well this one is for both us so were still even!" I kissed him. I then guided his hands inside my robe he pulled me tight. "Follow me big guy!" I stroked his cock then stood up. I dropped my robe and walked away naked.

"REY!" He gasped.

I looked back over my shoulder wiggling what little ass I have. "Are you coming? Or not?"

"Are you sure?" He stood by the tree.

"I am sure I want to try!" I moved to the bedroom where I had prepared for the night.

Buck found me on the bed on all fours my ass facing him. He struggled to get his boxers off over his straining cock. He looked at the preparation I made and decided there was nothing to say. He made his way onto the bed. I heard the cap snap open. Chills went up my spine as I thought about how the cold liquid would feel on his cock. He reached out and grabbed the base of the butt plug sticking out my ass.

"Rey are you sure? This could hurt?" His voice filled with concern.

"Buck, I know you will do your best to be gentle. Please give me my present." I reassured him.

He rocked the plug in my ass several times then slowly pulled it out. I moaned as I pushed back searching for his cock. I felt the head nuzzle against the slowly closing orifice. He leaned in slowly. I could feel the heat of his cock and the cool lube coating it. I felt him drizzle more lube on my ass causing me to wiggle it and push back harder.

"Oh Buck!" I cried out as the head of his cock forced its way past the opening. "You're in!"

I would like to say it was without discomfort but we both knew that was not the case. Now that he is in I focused on the new feeling of his cock firmly lodged where I wanted it. The feeling was not without pleasure. Of the thousands of nerve endings in my ass a third wanted him out, another third was quite please to leave him there, the last third wanted him to go deeper! It was the last ones I focused on as I pushed back slowly and steadily. I was rewarded with a feeling that is hard to describe. Fullness with a desire to be filled even more. My pussy was dripping. My mouth opened I had to remind myself to breath

"This is so nasty Buck! What an incredible feeling!" I gasped pushing back further. "I can feel every vein as your cock goes deeper!"

"I'm half way." He grunted obviously just as excited as I was.

Consequences be damned I thought. The passion inside me spilled over. I thrust back and in one quick lunge and felt his pubic hair press against my ass cheeks as his balls spanked my pussy.

"OH YES!" I screamed. The feeling was so intense I had a mini orgasm! I was thinking how I finally had his whole cock in my body. Buck waited to see if I was ok. I needed him to move. My ass craved that feeling. "Fuck me baby, fuck my ass!"

I knew Buck would be gentle I tried to help but he was going way too slow.

"Faster Buck! I want to feel it again!" I was almost begging him.

He picked up the pace I could feel the lubricant slide over his cock making it all possible. Each time he pushed in it was like he stirred my insides. I wondered where all that cock went? My clit begged for attention and I was all too happy to provide it. With Buck moaning and groaning I rubbed my clit firmly. I slipped two fingers in my pussy I could feel his cock stretching my ass.

"Harder Buck I need to cum!" I encouraged him.

I felt his massive hands grip my hips and pull me back on his cock. My ass no longer wanted to have him leave. The desire was building to have him fill it with cum. I had another mini orgasm! I refused to stroke my clit until I knew he was going to cum.

It took longer than my pussy wanted but my ass was enjoying the pleasure the ridges on his cock provided. My tit's hanging down wobbled with his thrusts. I wanted to see his cock fuck me but from this angle it was not possible.

"Buck I want to watch!" I hissed.

I was surprised how quickly he pulled out. My ass screamed to have him back in. I turned over propping my head up with a pillow. I pulled my legs up to my chest offering him my ass again. I looked at his cock it was as big as I had ever seen it. I couldn't believe all of that was just in my ass! All I knew was I needed it there again.

Buck pulled himself up and pressed his cock back to my asshole. I reached behind and pulled my cheeks apart. Looking between my legs I saw his massive white cock as it pressed against me. I could feel the spongy skin around my now loose hole give ground to his cock. Then the feeling returned as his cock stretched my sphincter again.

"Cum in me Buck!" I pleaded. "I can't hold off much longer!"

The fact is I was ready to explode right now! The sight of that big white cock plunging in me was more than I could take. With or without him I was going to cum. With two fingers wrapped inside my pussy, and my thumb strumming my clit. I climaxed. A massive shudder wracked my body. This orgasm was felt like no other. With his cock in my ass my muscles were confused. My asshole tried to contract but since that was not possible, my pussy was forced into a long drawn out orgasm.

"Fuck me Buck!" I was able to squeal as my orgasm alternated from my pussy to my ass.

I could feel Buck getting close. My body just hung on for him to fill me. Fuck me he did over and over he pounded my ass. My passion may have tapered a bit but my desire was as strong as ever. Then I looked up and grinned, he had that look. His eyes closed half way and then he plunged forward. I could feel his cock expand as his balls purged themselves of unwanted cum. He was so deep my belly button felt each and every blast of his cum coating my rectum. He pounded me hard and steady until my ass milked him of any remaining dribbles. He pulled out my ass slowly closed waving a sad goodbye.

"Buck that was incredible!" I gloated as he lay trying to regain his senses.

"Are you ok?" He pulled me in for a kiss. Totally spent I handed him a towel and grabbed one for myself.

"I am so happy we did that! Merry Christmas to us both!" We rested for a minute but I knew he could not sleep until we took a shower. He may be a mechanic but he is a clean freak underneath all that grease. I went and expelled his cum and then met him in the shower where we finished washing each other before we went to bed.

I looked in the mirror one last time. I could not believe it was me. The new dress looked stunning if I had to say so myself. Elegant with scooped back, kind of sexy if not revealing. The plunging neckline covered my breasts sufficiently for Buck and left my chest to show off my new pearls. The green was just right the long length covered my legs. The long slit teased them with what was hidden. The shoes and purse gave a nice contrast the earrings were inexpensive but framed my face well.

"Wow!" Buck smiled as I headed to the living room. "Rey you are a beautiful woman! I am not sure I trust you to be around all those men!"

"What about Melissa?" I teased him.

"Definitely not around her!" He replied. I turned and let him put the pearls on.

"I always knew you were a wise man!" I teased him. I kissed him lightly so not to smudge my lipstick.

"Do I need to watch when you two are together?" He asked missing the double meaning.

"Would you like to?" I made him blush just a bit.

"I think it would be best if I didn't. I get jealous easily!" Buck kissed my cheek.

The drive was long but allowed us to spend time talking. I was due to leave in less than a week. There were things we needed to say. We drove his old but trusty truck since Luis needed his car. The Mustang was in storage while I was gone. Buck had reserved us a hotel room so we could drive back tomorrow.

Walt and Melissa greeted us at the door of their house. Melissa looked stunning she said the same to me. We kissed each other on the cheek but I knew we both wanted something more. Walt and Buck both looked on to see how far we would go. They both had a knowing grin as they greeted each other. Buck and I moved on as other guests arrived. Sandra and her husband were there as well as several other people I knew from work.

The house was big but no mansion. With about thirty people it was full but not crowded. They had catered it with servants offering drinks and food. Walt is a natural with people, he and Melissa made the rounds. When midnight drew near they offered a toast and everybody cheered. I kissed Buck as he pulled me close. I never knew him to drink much except for beer. He was a bit happy as we all were. It was well after midnight when Melissa approached me.

"Buck, can I borrow your date?" She asked with a knowing smile. She too was a bit tipsy.

"Promise you will bring her back?" Buck asked laughing.

"Buck we are just going to the powder room!" She winked. "Walt is over there he asked me to have you come over."

Melissa took my hand and led me down the hall past the bathroom to their bedroom. She closed the door and locked it. She pushed me against the wall her arms wrapping around my waist as our lips pressed together. My tongue found hers first letting her know I wanted her as much as she wanted me. It was only when we could no longer breathe she parted.

"I can bear it when you are not around but the moment I saw you I knew I had to hold you again!" She kissed me lightly. "Rey, I miss you! I miss holding you!"

"I miss you too Mel. But here? The men are down the hall?" I reminded her.

"You always were the practical sister." She teased.

"And you are the trouble maker!" I reminded her with a kiss.

Mel kissed me back then led me to the bed. Setting down she pulled me on her lap. Her arms wrapped around holding me to herself firmly.

"When we were last together I wanted for us to be so much more than sisters." She held from kissing me letting me know she was serious.

"When Walt picked me up somehow he knew we behaved. Well within the rules that is! Rey you should have seen him he was so happy. So proud of us." Mel stroked my face "You were right Rey. We can never be more than sisters. I would never want to hurt Walt that way and I know you feel the same way about Buck."

"But we can be sisters right?" I asked. Mel pulled me down for a gentle kiss. "We were good girls!" I protested.

Mel slipped her hand through the slit of my gown her hand stroke my thigh until she found my pussy. A gentle nudge opened my legs slightly. She slipped her fingers past the gusset of my sexiest panties. Her touch was so soft, my pussy lips parted for her. Mel slipped her finger in just enough to get it wet. Pulling it out she pulled my tit from the cup of my dress and rubbed it on my nipple. Mel then sucked my juice from my nipple sending shivers up my back.

"We will always be sisters Rey. I will always be here to hold you!" Mel reassured me.

I took her hand and guided it back to my pussy. She dipped her fingers again not sure what she was to do with them. I slipped the strap from her top over her arm and pulled her top down exposing her ample tit. I guided the sticky fingers over her nipple making it shine with my juice.

"Tell Walt I want to thank him for trusting us!" I whispered.

Mel rubbed the remainder of my juices on my lips and lick me clean as she pulled me down for a passionate kiss. I kneeled in front of her. She pulled her dress up offering me her wet pussy. I slipped my fingers in her pussy tasted them then returned to coat my still exposed tit. I wiped the remainder on her lips and kissed her until there was no more evidence. We looked at each other, then redressed ourselves. Kissing one last time we were ready to return to the party.

Buck saw us first, He looked at me and knew we had been up to something. He looked at Mel a smiling confirming his suspicions.

"Thank you for bringing her back!" Buck teased Mel.

"It wasn't easy. I left you a little gift to show my appreciation!" Mel winked at me.

"Gift, whose getting a gift?" Walt asked walking up behind us.

"Actually you both are!" I added wanting Buck to know I was in on this too.

"Well when do we get this gift?" Walt teased looking at Buck as well. They both knew it would not be now.

"Patience love, all good things to those who wait!" Mel kissed her husband.

"Rey, we really should be going." Buck announced. It's late and we have a bit of a drive tomorrow.

"Buck, I have arranged a driver to take everyone home. Leave the truck and I will send someone to bring you back in the morning. Mel and I would love to have lunch before you leave."

Buck looked at me I knew he wanted to leave earlier but he was too polite to say so.

"Rey and I would like that. Check out is at eleven we will be ready by then." Buck said politely. "I hope that is not too early?"

"Buck, Walt will be up at six one way or the other. If you would like to leave earlier we would be happy to move it to brunch!" Mel offered laughing. "You call any time after nine and we will be ready."

We said our goodbyes, The driver moved our bags to the courtesy car and took us to the hotel. When we got inside the room Buck wrapped me in his arms and kissed me passionately. His hands were all over me. Buck groped my waist, then my ass, he pulled me tight.

"You must wear that dress again!" He grinned with lust. He kissed my lips then moved to my neck. He nibbled my earlobe then the top of my shoulder. He slipped the strap off as he followed the pearls lower on my chest. He reached behind and undid the clasp on the back of the dress and lowered the zipper. My tits were exposed. He lowered down and took the one covered in Mel's pussy juice. He sucked it then pulled off looking at me.

"You two were being naughty!" He looked at me to see if there was an explanation.

"A gift from us to you both. My guess is Walt is getting his about now too!" I looked nervously at Buck. "Mel and I wanted you two to know we will always follow the rules."

"And this?" Buck licked my nipple again. "Her signature?"

"Her promise. Our promise." I looked to make sure he understood. "We would never do anything to hurt you or Walt. So with your permission we would like to be sisters."

Buck moved to the other nipple finding nothing. Intrigued he seem to understand this was a one-time present.

"Come to bed, I want to show you how much I love you!" Buck picked me up and carried me to the bed.

"Let's make lots of babies!" I squealed.

Buck called Walt around nine thirty we were back at their house just after ten. Melissa greeted us at the door and took our coats. Buck set our bags just outside the closet. She greeted Buck first with a brief hug and a kiss on the cheek.

"Are we good?" She asked Buck slyly.

"We're good." He replied with a smile.

Mel moved to me and slipped her hands around my waist to my back. She pulled me close I could not help but do the same. She kissed me firmly on the lips, it was a brief but passionate kiss. She moved her face beside mine.

"Walt says yes, too." She said so Buck could hear. She let me go and took my hand.

"Still good?" She checked with Buck. He looked at me and saw how happy I was. He just nodded. "Thank you Buck. I will honor the rules. Promise! Come Rey the kids are waiting to see you again."

We walked hand in hand past Walt who was heading across the room to Buck. He stopped long enough for me to give him a polite hug and a kiss on his cheek. He greeted Buck and they watched as we disappeared to the next room.

"We are lucky men Buck!" Walt said.

"Walt on that I have to agree."

The guys joined us on the covered porch out back. It was a sunny but cold day, Melissa served us up a variety of brunch options some left over from last night. I watched as she began transforming from host to mother. She made it look easy never forgetting she had company and still tending to the kid's needs. Walt was clearly the fun loving easy going parent. He was like a third kid when they were around. Mel was the disciplinarian only when she allowed it were the boundary's tested.

Buck and I were ready to leave just before noon. Walt, Mel and the kids walked us to the door. Bags in hand we walked out the sun felt nice. The chill required a coat which we just put on.

"Walt I don't see my truck?" Buck looked around the drive.

"It's in the garage here let me open it." He pulled out a remote and pushed a button. We walk in the direction of the door and did not see Buck's truck. There was however a new truck just inside the door. "Acme wants to thank you for your help!"

"What?" Buck replied.

"This is just a small token of our appreciation for your help with the merger. There will be more after the first board meeting. This is yours the key is in your coat pocket!"

Buck reached in and pulled out a key and fob.

"Walt I don't believe this!" Buck was clearly affected.

"Believe it buddy you earned it. Go ahead back it out and look it over. It was tight in Walt's garage. Buck backed it out and let it run. Walt carried our bags and put them in the back seat. "She has some updates, not going to tell you what right now. We would like your opinion for the engineers."

We all walked over the kids included. There was a big blue oval on the front and reference to a rope on the side.

"What about my old truck?" Buck asked.

"Not to worry. I will have someone drive it down in the next week. As you know we will be relocating the corporate offices to the former world headquarters of Consolidated." Walt beamed. "Which reminds me. Rey Ann I have something for you as well!"

Walt handed me a card. Mel nodded I should open it.

'I am pleased to inform you that you have been transferred to the address below. Please arrive at your regular time Monday...' The card inside read.

"I thought I would give you that personally!" Walt grinned. I handed it to Buck as I gave Walt a big kiss on the cheek. "Now you two get going I have a business to run."

We all said goodbye Mel and I a G version for the kids. Buck and I drove off in the new truck he was so excited I was so happy to be staying home!

Buck and I had so many things to talk about it was like our whole world just turned for the better. That week Buck and I went car shopping for me. Planning ahead I wanted something with four doors. Enough room for Buck and his size. And reasonably economical. We decided on a SUV of medium size it also had a blue oval.

Sandra was waiting for me at the new world headquarters for Acme. She and I were to lead the transition of personnel. The first item on the list was to determine which senior management was leaving and what offices would be available. The new management would then need to be relocated and offices assigned. Actual work force would see little change for now, mostly the assistants for the managers. With today's technology any reports generated at the old location can be transmitted in minutes to the new location. We knew over time adjustments would be made but for now everybody would still have a job.

April would soon be here. Luis and Maria were looking forward to their wedding. I was invited to be in the wedding party. Buck could have been but asked Luis to invite a friend instead of him. He did offer to give a toast if Luis wanted. I was still not pregnant. We had done everything possible to conceive but it just was not happening. I went to the doctors last week. Nothing stood out but we are waiting on more tests. Buck has been very understanding but I know at thirty six he does not want to wait much longer, neither do I.
