PROLOGUE

Nina's 38-22-38 body was not built for the boredom that she had encountered the last few years. She was the classy beautiful blonde that was built for speed and style. At the age of 36, she was enjoying the fact that soon her son, Gus Jr., would be away for college.

Her husband Gus was a few years older and had just reached 40. He had never matured as they moved into their mid-thirties. He had set aside earlier life goals and trade it in for mediocrity. He became the average person and Nina had realized that this was it for them. He wanted to have another son with Nina, but she was ready to go enjoy an adventure now that

There were a few times that Nina realized that not only he average, but he had a lot of poor qualities about him. He was very gullible and often times was taken advantage of. Other times men who were aggressive would intimidate him and there were a few times he freely allowed men to hit on her. A few of the more aggressive men would let their hands rub her body in front of Gus who wouldn't do anything, but pretend not to notice no matter how obvious it became.

It was hard for Nina to blame Gus. He was never a physically impressive specimen. He had a small frame that had more pudge than muscle. He had gentle tiny hands and soft small feet. In fact, Nina realized at one point in their marriage that she was stronger than the man she had married as they wrestled around and she pinned him down.

She had kept her body in shape over the years while Gus went to work to bring home his barely acceptable paycheck every two weeks. They had hit a wall in their financial growth and Nina was starting to become spiteful over his lack of money.

Most women would have been delighted at the beautiful four bedroom home that had a double stall garage, two and half bathrooms and a loft. Her appliances were stainless steel and her counter tops were black marble. Most women were jealous of the amount of money that her husband made, but at this point she had everything she wanted. Everything else she wanted was out of the question due to how expensive it was.

Their son had two teammates over at his place as she prepared dinner. She had to finish up a few things before she could go freshen up and change out of her clothes that she cooked in. She made a pasta, salad and bread dinner that would be helpful for her son and his two athletic friends.

GETTING READY

Gus Sr. was in the bathroom and was putting some towels away that he had washed earlier that week. Nina had nagged at him the last few days so he figured it was about time.

The venting of the bathroom went into his son's room and he could hear everything his son was talking about with his friends.

"Damn she's so hot.", Diego's Latino accent drifted through the vent.

"Yeah, Gussy. Makes my big black dick grow.", Kevin added.

"Shut up guys.", His son spoke up.

"You think she has ever been with anyone other than your dad?", Diego added.

"We're all 18 and legal.", Kevin said in a groan.

"Stop Kevin. Nobody wants to see your boner!", Gus Jr. talked to his friend.

"Mine's bigger than yours.", Kevin taunted Gus Jr.

"Mine too.", Diego joined Kevin in taunting Gus.

"Still, nobody cares.", Jr. retorted.

"Bet your mom would.", Diego spoke in a snarky tone.

Kevin and Diego continued to berate his son as he listened in. He couldn't believe how these teenagers were talking about his wife. Here they were bullying his son while they were offering up their hospitality and a proper cooked meal.

Gus Sr. was going to go rescue his son from these bullies, but he heard them speak up once again. He stopped dead in his tracks.

"Bet your dad can't fuck your mom right.", Kevin said in a mean tone. "Bet I can out-dick and out-fuck your dad."

"I see how she looks at me on the soccer field. When I take my shirt off and show off my abs. She wants this thick Latin cock. Not your dad's little nipple dick.", Diego laughed at himself taunting their dweeby teammate.

"Yeah Diego, notice how quick she was to invite the two Captains over. Gus, I let my big black footlong flop out the bottom of my soccer shorts and acted like I didn't notice. She looked at it so many times. She got so fucking wet, white boy.", Kevin laughed.

The two minorities were laughing at his white son as they talked about his wife more. He couldn't believe it, but the sound of these horny young men talking so dirty about his wife was slowly turning him on.

He could feel himself getting hard and without putting much thought to it went and closed the door and turned on the fan. He walked over to the toilet and planted himself down. He pulled out his little hard penis and began stroking the full 3 inches in length.

The sound of the older boy's voices taunting his son and talking about his wife had made him feel guilty and horny at the same time. He didn't quite understand why he was filling this way. He tried to make out Kevin's next words.

"Bet she would love sucking on my big foot long. You think she could fit this her mouth? Look Gussy.", Kevin commanded.

"No Gus, I don't want to see your boner. I'm sure she couldn't. You're right.", Gus Jr.'s response made Kevin cackle.

"Bet we would stretch that white woman's pussy to its limits. She wouldn't even know what to do.", Diego said too.

"Diego! Put your willy away.", Gus tried to command Diego, but was obviously ignored and he could hear his son continue to plead for the two hung minorities to stop stroking their cocks in front of him.

"Be honest Gussy. You ever see your dad's cock?" Diego asked.

"Yeah a few times.", his son responded.

"Not even close to our size is it?", Diego persisted.

"No."

Kevin jumped in with a laugh, "Like father like son, huh? That big tit bimbo is surrounded by a pair of limp shrimp dicks."

"We'd be doing her a favor of fucking her. I'd stretch her out on my thick piece. Your dad would never be able to fuck her again. Probably would need a strap on.", Diego said.

"Probably needs one anyway. I'd tear that white woman's pussy up. Fuck the shit outta' her and give her my little black babies.", Kevin said in a mean way.

Gus couldn't help himself. His eyes were closed fascinating about these two boys taking his wife like they talked about. He knew they were stroking much larger cocks in the other room which added to his excitement. He was lightly whispering to himself dirty thoughts and encouragement to the young men's dirty talk about his wife.

He began cumming harder than he ever had before. A few drops of semen came out the tip of his cock and dribbled out pathetically. He was breathing heavy until he finally opening his eyes. His heart sunk.

Nina was standing over him. Her arms were crossed and she looked down at him in disgust. She was obviously listening to the boys in next room over, but the fact that her husband was caught her stroking his little cock made it worse.

Her eyes narrowed at him looking him up and down. She finally spoke, raising her voice loud enough for the room next door could hear.

“I’m slaving away at a hot dinner so you can enjoy and your sitting here playing with your penis listening to those boys talk so raunchy about me? What the fuck is wrong with you? I’m going to go get ready. You fucking disgust me.”, She stormed out the room.

Gus sat there on the toilet with his cock completely shriveled up and tucked itself into his pants. He could hear the two boys laughing in the room next door at what they had just heard his wife yell at him.

He knew this might make for an awkward dinner.

DINNER

Gus and the three teenagers all sat around the table waiting to be served. Gus couldn’t even look at the Latino and Black teammate of his son. They were giving him demeaning looks as though they knew he was a little punk. Their respect ended the moment they heard his wife scold him for jerking off in the bathroom.

He knew it was his own fault too. He should have been scolding these teens for talking about his middle aged youthful wife like that. Instead he decided to jerk off. He contemplated what was wrong with himself.

When Nina entered the room with the pasta, everyone's mouth dropped and began to drool and it wasn't from the food. Nina had decided to wear her tight little white nightie that her husband got her to look sexy in in the privacy of their bedroom. Not to be displayed in bunch of barely legal boys.

She hadn't worn the nightie for years, and her frame filled it out completely. She was still toned, but over time her curves had grown and the nightie was much too small for her body. Luckily it looked great as it was skin tight and made her big boobs spill out the top and her ass halfway visible. The fabric stretched where Nina's curves were most prominent and became transparent around her hips, butt and breasts. Luckily her pink bra and matching thong were on as to not be too provocative.

Kevin and Diego made it obvious that they were checking her out. They looked at one another and shared a handshake.

"Nina.", Diego used her first name. "This dinner is so healthy. I bet this is how you keep your body so fit."

Nina blushed and thanked Diego for the compliment giving him a couple of quick sexy poses to show off her sexy figure. Her curves were pronounced in every place that a man would want them.

Diego gave Gus a wink in appreciation of having such a beautiful woman. Jr. was obviously embarrassed by his mother.

They ate their dinner while Diego and Kevin stared at Nina. The conversation consisted of mostly the three of them as Sr. and Jr. were sitting there silent. Nina was giggling the entire time at what Diego and Kevin said.

They were both very charming and Gus could see that his wife was consuming more wine than usual. It was taking effect on her as she began to become a bit more wild. She would joke with the boys even sometimes adding sexual innuendo.

Somehow the conversation came to size. Kevin and Diego each talked about how big their cocks were and described their own cocks to her.

"Oh, those sound nice, boys.", she giggled. "I'm definitely not use to something that big."

The two teens looked over at Gus and smirked. Nina pulled her blonde hair out of the pony tail that it was tied into. It fell down and rested at her shoulders. She moved her head around and let her curly hair straighten itself out naturally.

"Ever been with a black man half your age?", Kevin shuffled his eyebrows at her in a perverted way.

She blushed and was a bit taken back at how bold this black teenager was in their home with her husband sitting right next to them. She looked over at her husband who only gave her a half-smile.

Her eyes narrowed at her wimpy husband and looked back over at Kevin. "No. But I've thought about it."

Kevin's eyes went wide and his hand instinctively reached down to his soccer shorts to rub at his own cock. He stopped rubbing himself when he caught his actions and just held himself squeezing it lightly.

"How about the fat cock of a Latino?", Diego wanted to hear her say something like that to him too.

"Think about it even more than a black teen.", She responded.

Jr. and Sr. both sat there wonder what had gotten into their matriarch of the family. She usually was so proper and civil, but something happened today that had changed her mind. They both blamed it on Gus Sr. getting caught jerking off earlier.

When they finished dinner Diego and Kevin offered their assistance to help clean up. She was grateful that such young men still had manners. In truth, they just took this added time to check her out and try to rub against her.

While washing the dishes, there was not much room for all three of them. Kevin quickly had an idea.

Kevin had leaned around her so that his arms wrapped around her. He pressed his swelling footlong cock against her backside letting himself rub against the canyon of her butt round ass. He firmly pressed his hips into hers so that way she was pressed up against the counter in front of her. Nina continued to wash the dishes as normal with Kevin behind her doing the same thing. His arms needing to wrap around her to reach the sink.

Diego leaned over and turned on some music. It was modern teenager rap music that Gus Sr. hated. He thought it was terrible for today’s youth and by the looks of it he had a point.

Kevin was grinding his hardening cock against Nina’s ass. She was in turn dancing with the music, but was rubbing her big firm ass against the black teen’s big dick.

Diego cut in. He was more concentrated on Nina than washing dishes as he danced with her. He held the counter at each side of Nina’s hips and was humping her more provocatively. Gus could visualize these two guys nude having sex with his wife as she washed the dishes.

They both had a chance to rub their big dicks against his wife’s ass while she washed the dishes. She was thanking them for helping her and it bothered Gus in her mind the two youths were actually helping her.

He decided he better chime in and stop this before it went any farther. His wife had just dried the last dish when he spoke.

“Let’s watch a movie.”

The three of them looked over at him. The two minorities seemed to forget that they were in his house rubbing their teenaged cocks against his wife. Either that or they didn’t care. Either way was a loss for Gus and his son. His son had retreated and waited for the movie to begin on the couch.

Maybe this would hold these savage teenagers at bay.

THE MOVIE

Gus sat on the couch with his wife in the middle and his son on the other side. Gus had grabbed a white blanket to cover his wife and himself in an attempt to hide his wife's beautiful body from these barbarians.

Diego and Kevin were still focused on speaking to the beautiful blonde busty wife while the movie show trailers for other movies. Gus felt disrespected as they hadn't even acknowledged him since dinner. Nina also continued to converse with them and Gus finally hushed them.

Everyone looked at him like he just started World War 3. Diego and Kevin were just as intimidating as the scowl Nina gave him. She smacked at him.

"Go get us popcorn.", She hissed at him.

He stood up and did as he was told. He was in the other room hearing them laughing at Gus. They were talking again and their conversation was again becoming a bit sexual, but nothing too inappropriate.

All of a sudden he heard a loud thud in the room they were in and her his son screech. There were a couple of laughs and even a sympathetic noise from Nina. The sound of sniffing could be heard getting louder as Jr. walked out of the room and went upstairs to his bedroom.

"What was that about?", he walked back in the room with the popcorn.

Kevin and Diego had taken their spots and were sitting on either side of his busty wife in her skimp nightie. They had pulled the blankets over themselves so that they were covered at the waists. They were very close to one another due to the size difference of Kevin and Diego versus Gus and his son

He could see that in order for them all to fit, Nina actually had to sit on the both the laps of the Latino and Black legal teens. She was raised up a little bit being that she was in their laps.

The all looked at him as though nothing was wrong with the situation.

"Where do I sit?", Gus asked. Hoping that one of the boys would stand up and offer him their seat. She probably wouldn't have to sit either of their laps if he was the third person.

Nina leaned her back into the chests of the young studs. She nuzzled against them, rubbing her rear end at their laps under her. Their eyes both went a little wide as they could feel themselves swelling.

"No. You sit on the ground.", She pointed at the ground at their feet.

Gus sighed and sat down. He crossed his legs Indian style.

"I haven't sat like that since I was a little boy.", Diego made fun of Gus.

"Me neither. My dick is too big to sit like that nowadays.", Kevin responded, which Diego agreed.

Nina was giggling like a school girl as these two teenagers bullied her husband who was in his forties. Deep down she justified her nastiness by telling herself that she was teaching him a lesson about standing up for yourself.

"Give me the popcorn, Gussy.", Nina put her hand out for him to give her the bowl.

Her calling him Gussy stung. It was the same term that the two minorities were using for his son when he was jerking off, meaning that's where she heard it from. It either by complete slip of the tongue, or his wife being very calculated.

He gave them the popcorn as the movie began. They wouldn't share the popcorn during the movie and that frustrated him which made the entire movie experience terrible. While they were sitting there laughing at the raunchy comedy, he was uptight.

"Relax Gussy. Stop being so boring.", His wife said to him so he would start enjoying the movie.

How could he enjoy the movie while his wife bounced up and down on these teens laps who had monster cocks if what they said was true. He could only hear the shuffling behind him he had no idea what was going on.

Nina could feel the boy's hard cocks under her firm ass. She was shuffling around in a subtle manner in order to feel the outline of their cocks. Each time she smashed them they grew hard until finally they were hard as rocks.

Diego's cock had to be at least 10 inches in length, but it had the girth of a soda can. Kevin's cock was over a foot long maybe as big as 14 inches in total length. It wasn't as thick as Diego's but it was still two time thicker than Gus's cock. Their dicks were so big that Nina couldn't believe it.

She waited five minutes before she grew the courage to make her next move. She put her hands under the white covers, and put her hands down against their cocks. She lifted herself up as she held down and smashed their big dicks into their own thighs.

"Sorry boys, just want to get comfortable.", She wiggled her big butt around rubbing against the heads of their cocks. When she finally rested back down, she "accidentally" pulled their shorts up so now their bare cocks were pressing right into her bare thighs.

She continued to shuffle so that their thighs smashed their brown and black cocks that stuck out the bottom of their shorts. Diego and Kevin gave each other a look to see if they were experiencing the same thing. Again, they shared a handshake.

Gus heard the handshake and looked back. Nina went completely still. She had a bit of a guilty look in her eyes. Both of the legal minority teens just gave him a light nod. Gus had no choice but continue to watch the movie with them continuing their friskiness behind him

Diego couldn't take it any longer and gripped at Nina's hand. He forcefully brought her hand down to his cock and rested it on there. Her eyes met his and seemed turned on by his aggressive actions. She would reach down and grip Kevin's black dick simultaneously.

Her finger tips were lightly trailing over the heads of their cocks. The teenager's hands slipped under the cock. Each of them slid their hands under her to grab a handful of her ass. They were both squeezing at her cheeks which caused her to move her hips around while they held her. Her hands were now slowly sliding up and down the lengths of theirs cocks. Her palm pressing firmly against theirs bare dicks until the shaft was covered by the thin soccer shorts. She would squeezed firmly at their shafts.

She would take turns with each legal teen's cocks with both hands. She was measuring them in her hands by stroking and playing with their dicks. The boys reached up and took a handful of tit taking turns as to not raise any awareness from Gus.

Gus could hear more shuffling behind him. He remained undistracted until Kevin accidentally kicked him with his big foot.

"Ouch!", Gus cried out looking back at Kevin waiting for an apology.

"Watch out.", He said without emotion.

The two teens were now moving their own hips under Nina. She bounced around and her ample cleavage jiggled under the tight nightie. It was apparent to Gus that these two teens were getting a nice little lap dance from his buxom blonde wife. Realizing he was not going to get an apology he just looked back to the movie.

The two teens smirked at being such a pussy. They could see and smell the fear that emitted from their terrible teammate's father. Any real man would have stood up and beat their asses, but Gus was no real man. Now they were both just going to see how far they could take this before he actually tried to stop it.

THE MOVIE CONTINUED

Diego and Kevin both had tugged their short down. Each of their cocks sprang upwards and Nina held them against her own thighs. She continued the stroke the cocks that were now leaking precum on her beautiful smooth thighs.

Her hands were making the white covers bounce as she gave these two big dicks handjobs. Their precum leaked through the covers and she was now starting to see their cock through the transparent fabric.

Gus began turning his head but was stopped by Kevin who growled at him. "Keep your eyes forward, boy."

Gus knew the black young, but legal teen was talking to him. He did as he was told, wondering why he was being so obedient. Kevin wasn't going to stop until he came.

Kevin began tugging at her thong prying it down on his side. Diego soon followed suit and together they pulled her panties off from under her nightie.

Gus continued to watch the movie but was growing more nervous as the movie continued. He could hear light giggling and oohs and ahhs from behind him. They didn't match what was going on TV in front of him so he suspected that their noises were what was happening from behind him.

The boy pulled off their shirts and now were topless exposing their youthful muscular bodies. Nina was taking the time to rub at their pecs and abs any chance she got. She compared their sexy bodies to her pudgy husbands and could feel the rush of wetness leaking all over the teen's bare thighs.

Kevin had shifted himself so that he was sitting directly in the corner. He pulled Nina back towards him away from Diego who almost fought him to keep her by him, but decided to let Kevin take their prize. Nina was now laying her upper body on top of Kevin as he laid back into the couch. His big black dick freely poking up and making a huge tent under the covers.

Diego now leaned himself into Nina. He was aiming his big thick cock right at her entrance. Her dripping wet pussy and his precum drenched cock made it easy for his monster head to stretch her open. She pushed herself into Kevin's chest who laid back easily. She reached down grabbing his big shaft and stroked it under the covers.

Diego tried not to be abrupt and worked his head entirely into her. Kevin's black hand covered the blonde trophy wife's mouth which was breathing hard. She tried to be quiet, but at some point she knew this would end.

Diego began raising the bottom of her night so that it slide over her hips over the middle of her stomach. Kevin in turn reached down and brought it up tucking his cock under it. He positioned his 14 inch cock in between her tits now. The black teen's cock so long it stretched all the way up her through her tits and the head resting at eye level. Kevin reached down and put his head through her blonde hair.

She took turns looking at the black dick smashed between her big boobs. The contrast of the black cock against her skin was mesmerizing as she stared at the cock that was still pre leaking cum.

Gus wanted to look back but when he tried again, Diego stepped in.

“Yo white boy. You heard us. Enjoy the movie, we’re okay back here.”, Diego’s accent was thick as continued to stuff his thick Latino cock into his wife.

Kevin pulled her head down so that her lips pressed against the head of his cock. She parted her lips and now let the cock begin to push past her lips. Her jaw would open wide to allow the thick black dick of this teen to reach the back of her throat.

They were both being gentle at first as they were both slowly grinding their hips into her. Diego’s thick cock stretched her out while she tit fucked and sucked Kevin’s big black cock.

Kevin’s large hand was pressed firmly at the back of her head as he started to raise his hips to fuck her face while she laid there being stuffed by Diego. Diego’s pace was now picking up and the couch was making just a light noise.

Gus’s heart started to race as he heard the couch. The creaking of it began to accelerated and grew louder as the movie went on. He couldn’t wait for this movie to be over so he could have his wife back.

The couch began to shift on the ground and Gus realized that he couldn’t not look any longer no matter what. He slowly tested Kevin and Diego’s attention as he turned his head. They said nothing as the couch began to screech against the ground under them. What Gus saw made him stand on his feet and fall backwards. His hands raised on his head.

“What is going on!?”, He whined.

Kevin sat back in a relaxed position with one hand under the cover holding Nina's tit to smash it around the shaft of his black snake. The head of his cock was now hitting the back of Nina's throat and was making a noise. Her eyes were wide as she stared at her husband realizing he finally saw what they were doing. She was mixed with guilt and pleasure of being so spiteful towards her weak will hubby.

Diego was now standing and the cover had fallen off him completely. His thick cock had worked itself nearly all the way into Nina as he grabbed at her bare hips, thighs and ass as he plowed himself into her.

None of them responded to Gus besides Nina. Nina seemed to feel bad at what she was doing, but these brutal teens were pinning her between the two of them on the couch. Gus couldn't help but notice the contrast of their skin tones as they used his white wife.

Nina was trying to apologize to Gus around Kevin's cock, but his brutal mouth and tit fucking made it impossible for him to hear her. However, it grabbed Kevin's attention who stared at Gus.

"White boy... your wife sure knows how to suck a cock.", He continued to pound at Nina's throat who's eyes were filled with guilt.

Diego looked over his own shoulder now. His hips did not stop thrusting as he looked over to Gus to see if he would do anything. He didn't stop though and his balls were slapping against emitting a soft slapping noise in the room.

"I'm stretching your sexy little wife's pussy out. You should thank me.", Diego continued his ravaging of Gus's wife in front of him.

Gus was so confused. He didn't know what to do. These two teens had their big dicks buried in his wife and instead of being scared of being caught were only taunting him more. He heard Nina let out a loud moan as the teens continued to taunt Gus.

She was orgasming. She became a total whore in that moment and worked the two teens cocks as they fucked her. She orgasmed yet again which only encouraged her to be more aggressive in worshipping their cocks.

"Fuck yeah white boy. We'll be coming over here more often. Best believe that.", Kevin said never letting his cock out of Nina's mouth.

"Get ready for the good stuff bitch.", Diego's face tensed along with his body as he started fucking her with reckless abandon. He started speaking in Spanish as he started dumping his seed into Nina's abused frame.

Kevin seemed pleased as he began to cum with his teammate. His hand came to the back of Nina's head and held it down on his cock as he spewed cum down her throat and into her belly.

"Take it bitch.", Kevin spoke as he dumped his load down her throat.

The cum couldn't go down her throat fast enough as it poured out the sides of her mouth. It was being squished by the big black cock of Kevin's that continued to pump itself into her mouth.

Diego's warm cum filled her completely and she could feel it leaking over her opening and down her thighs to drip on the couch.

She continued to suck on the black cock to milk it in her mouth. She was also moving her hips around to milk Diego's cock as well. Gus stood there stunned.

The two minorities both freed themselves and stood naked. They were much larger than her husband and did not fear him in the least bitch as they picked up their clothes. Diego grabbed at Nina's panties giving them a whiff before using the garment to wipe the juices off his cock. He tossed the cum soaked panties at Nina's tits making them jiggle.

"Put those on now.", Diego commanded. He then hit Gus in the chest before smiling, "Check this out."

She did as she was told and put on her thong that was drenched in cum. She pulled it up her legs and slid it between her heart shaped ass. Diego walked over to her and pulled them up so that it gave her a wedgie up her ass and pussy. The cum being squeezed out of the cloth he looked over at Gus with an intimidating look.

They both exited and left the couple there. Gus was expecting his wife to apologize and explain her slutty behavior. But she didn't. She covered her naked body and looked up at her husband.

"Well they seemed like nice young men. I think they're going to be a good influence on Jr. We should have them around more often."

Gus wondered where this would lead them, but he knew he wasn't going to enjoy it.
