Summary of the Original Story from Boys in Wet Dresses #1

This story takes place in a small Ohio town, and whoever thinks really weird things only happen in big cities will think again after reading Elsie Mae's story about her discovery that some pervert had stolen her kid's panties and jacked off into them! But unknown to the deviant panty thief, Jo Lynn, Elsie Mae's child, was not a little girl but a little boy she was raising as a girl!

Elsie Mae had a lesbian relationship with her next door neighbor Laura Ericson, the mother of two boys. Despite both of them being man-haters as a result of bad marriages, Elsie did take in the three Leason boys when their parents died in a car crash.

Having the boys live with her and Jo Lynn worked out well, especially since Todd, the oldest Leason boy, helped baby-sit little Jo Lynn while Elsie was at work. But Elsie Mae came home early one day and discovered Todd with her son in the backyard, and he had Jo Lynn fully dressed in a party dress and fancy rhumba panties and wading in their backyard kiddie pool. The water made the kid's chiffon party dress almost transparent, and Todd was taking pictures!

Elsie quickly realized it was Todd who had stolen her child's panties and spurted into them and made him admit it. She had her finger on the telephone dial was ready to call the police, but she paused and gave him a moment to explain himself as he insisted that he did not harm her child in any way and begged forgiveness. She did pause and give him a chance to explain because she knew the cops probably wouldn't do anything anyway, but she also gave pause because Todd and his two brothers were to receive a $2 million insurance settlement from their parents' life insurance, and she sought to get her revenge on Todd by scaring him into signing over some of that money to her for what he had done to Jo Lynn.

As Todd talks, he tells her how he developed an unusual fetish years before when he was a little boy and had seen a little girl living next door get her new party dress dirty, and as a humiliating punishment, her parents made her jump into their backyard pool fully dressed and wash out the dirt. That incident played upon young Todd's mind, and over the years he developed a driving passion to once again see a cute little girl get soaking wet in her pretty party clothes. He added that before he and his brothers had moved in with her, he had been driven to steal little Jo Lynn's purple party panties and jack off in them because he looked so much like the little girl he had originally seen being punished by being forced to go swimming in her party dress.

Elsie was appalled by what he was saying, but the biggest shock was not her surprise, but the shock Todd felt when she told him Jo Lynn was a little boy and not a girl. The whole town knew that about her boy, but the three boys were new in town and obviously didn't know!

Elsie Mae didn't feel sorry for Todd even after she realized he was probably telling the truth. He had no right to use her sissy boy son as an object of his messed-up sexual desires, so she planned to get her own justice by fucking over Todd's already perverted mind and draining all his money right through his penis.

She called him a pervert as she showed him the purple panties he had dirtied up. She kept up her threats to call the police until he promised to do what she wanted. She told him she'd need money to take care of Jo Lynn, to make sure he grew up right and untroubled by whatever Todd had been doing to him. He agreed, but Elsie needed a guarantee that he'd do it; the insurance money was being held up until the accident investigation was complete and that could take weeks, so she needed to have complete control over Todd until then, and she was going to do it by controlling him with his own "girls in wet dresses" fetish: She was going to turn it into a "boys in wet dresses" fetish!

Her plan included manipulating him sexually and lying to him, claiming she could help him get over his weird sexual perversion. But in reality she was going to make him into a homosexual by jacking him off in silky panties -- that she made him wear as a token of his promise to do everything she told him to do. She schemed to get her friend Laura's two sons and other neighborhood boys to make a game of dressing up in pretty girls' clothes she got from secondhand stores and then have a swimming party as she had Todd looking on as he hid in the garage with her masturbated him into his panties as she made him watch the boys in wet dresses.

She told him she would get him to the point where he could look at them without getting excited and then she'd get girls in fancy dresses to get wet and then she could cure him of seeing them get soaking wet too. Of course, her plan all along was to get him so excited and so associated with seeing boys in wet dresses that she would totally pervert his fetish and make him a miserable mess; after all, he'd never be able to find boys on his own willing to get put on dresses and go swimming for him, and therefore, he would forever be dependent on Elsie Mae. And eventually, she'd get boys in dresses to masturbate him and make him into a totally weird and screwed up homosexual.

At first, Todd was upset with himself that he had shot his cum over seeing boys in wet dresses, but Elsie Mae assured him it was all part of curing him, and had already made plans to have more boys to show up in dresses and go swimming in their backyard pool to continue his training. And so it became a regular event, as she begged, borrowed and stole to get more and more boys into pretty girls' clothes and have them perform in the pool as she perverted Todd and brought him more and more under her complete control.

Elsie and Laura got dozens of boys to dress up and get wet for them, and some of those pictures we include here. Carla Montague was especially helpful in procuring boys because she had a lot of friends and coworkers from the striking show factory and they were all looking for extra cash for simply putting their boys in dresses and panties and go swimming in the pool, and those parents go the boys to do it whether they wanted to or not! We have a lot those photos in this issue and many more of them we will be publishing in future volumes of the our Picture Albums and Photo Sets.
