

CASGRA
PRESENTS

ORCS

WHEN ~~GODBLINS~~
TAKE OVER

Alyssa was the perfect find. She was the perfect prize and they would always protect her, of course, that was until the orcs came and then they all fled, all except one that was still heavenly suckling on Alyssa's tits, but when he realized that all his friends had vanished, he too scampered off. Alyssa lifted her head to see what had happened. She took one look at one of her new masters and instantly started pleasing him. Oh the other one did get a little jealous, and she was frightened by his anger, but she took a chance and fell back hoping he would catch her, which he did and to his surprise. He actually cared for her safety and well being. Both orcs agreed to peacefully share their new playmate. They fell in love with Alyssa and were very grateful and Alyssa was committed to their gratitude.

