

Huh...?

W-Who are you...!
What's going on?
Where, where am I?

Just call me Prez.
About what happened...

Later...

So... I had heatstroke?
How long was I out?

Hmm...
About 6 hours?

6 hours...
They're going to kill me.

Oh, about that. Risa came around earlier and recognized
you. She's gone to get your friends.

Also, Doc checked you out earlier you're all clear, so don't worry

Doc?

I'd love to stay and chat but I've gotta prep for tomorrow

See you around, uh.. Miss?

It's Leona. Thanks for helping me Prez.

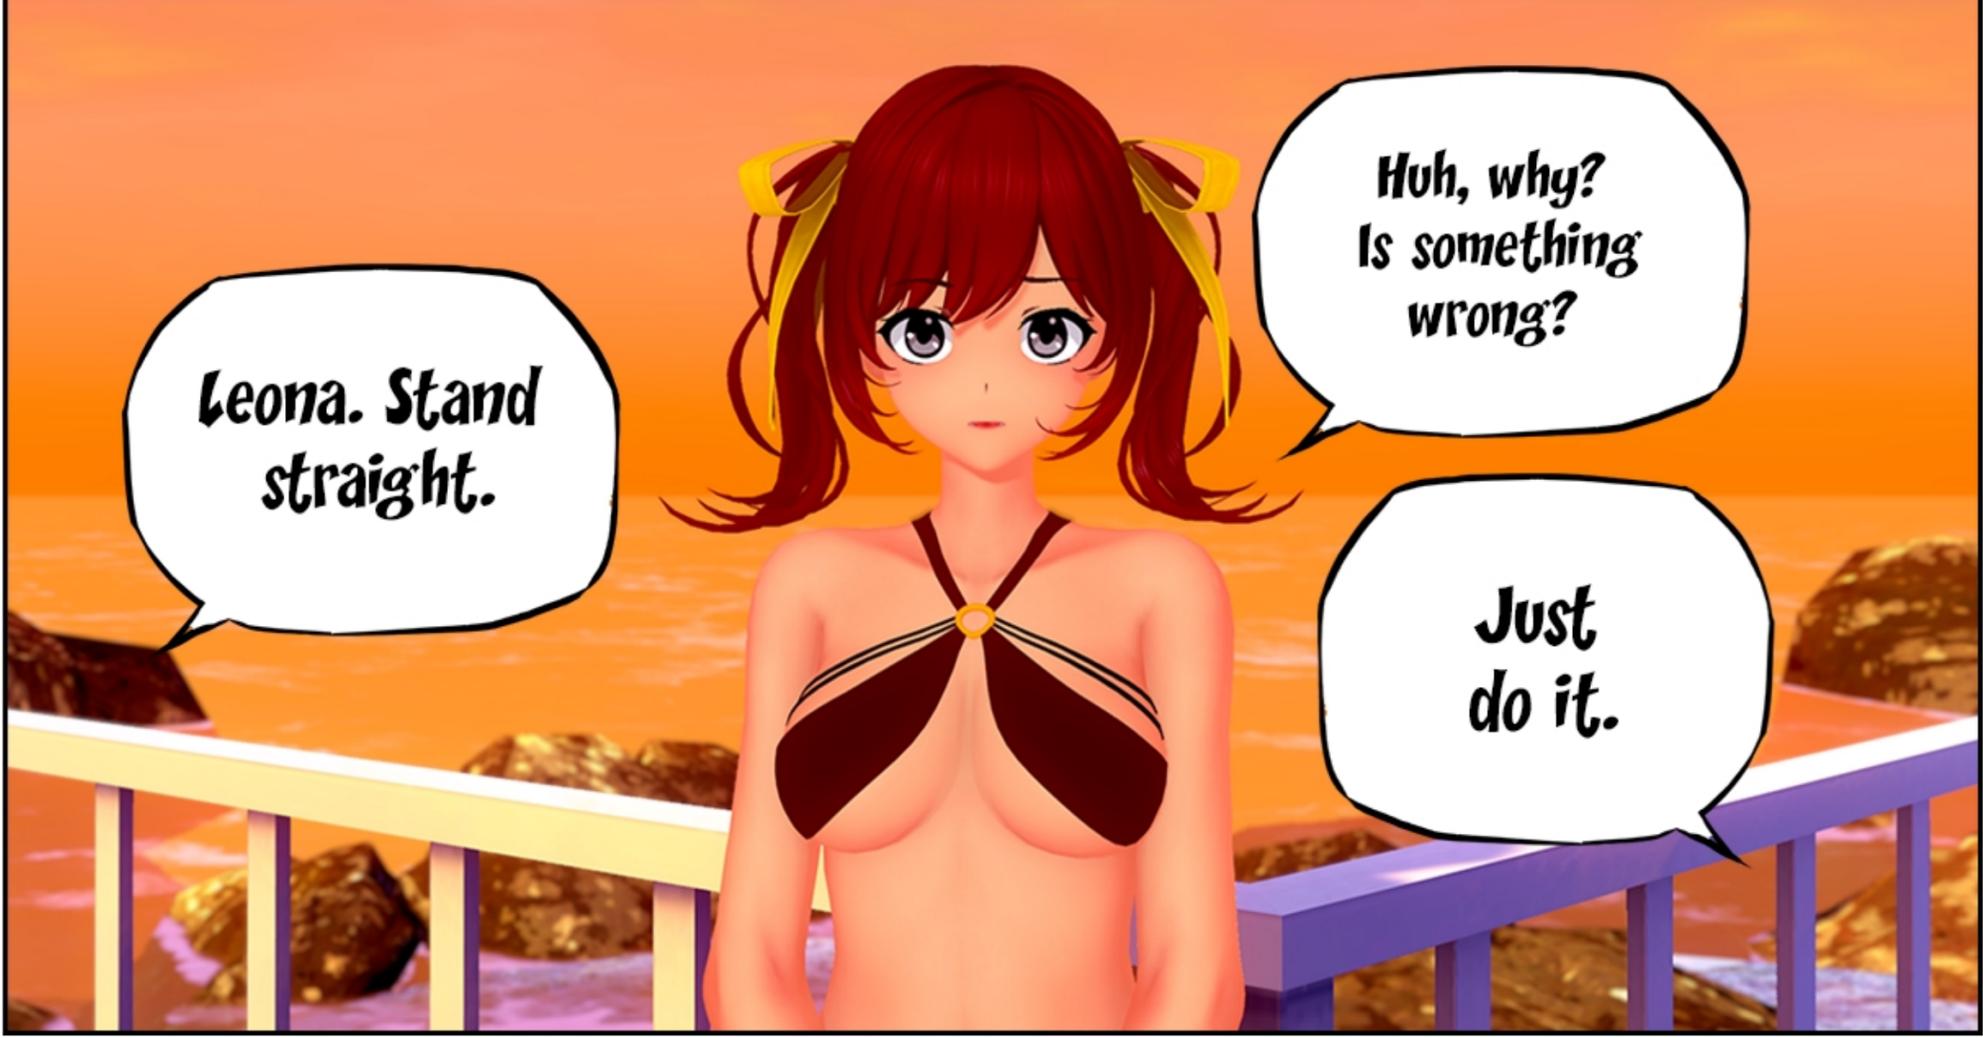

Heatstroke... That might explain why I can't recall how I ended up here. Was I alone? Did I wander off and get lost? Everything's so foggy...

Ugh, I feel so stiff. Maybe I've been sitting too long. I should probably stretch.

Leona. Stand straight.

Huh, why?
Is something wrong?

Just do it.

M-Mei?

She's gotten shorter...
a few centimeters
at least.

Did she consume
more of that medicine...
What else chan-Wah?
How is that?

Her hips are so much wider now how is that even possible?

Her thighs are thicker too,

And... I can't even see a bulge anymore... Did it get even smaller?

Gaining breasts is one thing, but having her actual bones reshape like that... That's... dangerous

Leona... what sort of medicine did you take to do this?

So... Leona snuck off to consume more of that medicine, and that's what caused her to faint? What was she thinking? This is so reckless!

She's always going on about how she's still a guy, but then she does something like this? It doesn't add up

Why does she look so sad...

We're going to the doctor. Now. Let's go.

Doctor...? But, I'm fine?
